Joe Djan is to have charge of the Columbus baseball team.

The referendum carried at Hartington by a vote nearly 5 to 1.

The Pierce Leader has moved into its new home which is a dandy.

W. C. Thies, of Altona, has bought the Lansing pool hall at Winside.

The Methodists at Winside have their pastor's salary paid in full today.

Winside merchants paid out $1,435 for eggs and $100 for butter in six days.

Wausa went dry again this year the 4th time—with a larger majority than ever before.

There were 194 cases of eggs shipped from Hartington one day last week worth $1,047.60.

Dr. Oelke, who has been at Pierce for the past six years, will remove to Wheaton, Illinois, the 1st of May.

The male population of Emerson is in mourning. The barbers have advanced the price of shaves to 15 cents.

Carroll and Pender got so thirsty after one year of drought, that the voters said that they wanted it wet again.

Tekamah has already talking up a big celebration for the Fourth of July, which will open their three days' race meet.

H. L. Baiser of the Dixon Journal acts as supply for the M. E. pulpits at Belden and Allen as a side line to his newspaper business.

Beemer has decided to have a ball team the coming summer and have already arranged for grounds and chosen a manager.

An addition 40x100 full three stories in height, has just been completed at the Catholic church at Columbus, at a cost of $32,000.

The Wausa Gazette says: "After all, this mad rush for achievements and success, a great many people still forget to mind their own business."

The Bloomfield Monitor was unfortunate enough to smash up its job press during a recent rush order job and has replaced it with a new one.

The school population of Hartington shows a decrease, or at least the attendance at school is smaller, so no new school house will be talked this year.

A petition has been circulated and money raised to fight the construction of the Pender drainage ditch and the matter will now be fought out in the courts.

An attachment for a door knob which will prevent a key from being turned or removed from the other side of the door is the invention of a Washington man.

Only thirty-five votes were cast at the village election in Dakota City and seventeen different candidates were voted for. How is that for a variety of opinions.

As an argument against county option, it is said that Omaha's legislative members will not support that reform even if it is put in the platform of both parties.

After waiting 45 years, Ed. White more, of Pierce, has received from the government $7.31 as balance of money due him for services as a soldier from September 17 to 25, 1865.

An increase of less than twenty-five per cent. in the post office receipts at Hartington will put the office in the second class and make it eligible for a government building.

The People's Saving Bank at Hartington took the $8,000 sewer bonds to be issued by that town, at 5 per cent., to run twenty years with an option to take up at the end of five years.

At a mass meeting of the patrons of the independent school district of Tekamah it was resolved to back up the school board to the amount of the bond limit, $22,000 for school improvements.

In the recent eighth grade examinations in Cedar county, there were 300 scholars took part, and only four received markings high enough to pass. That was certainly a very small per cent.

Newman Grove, Neb., has 300 Johnsons in the town, and 240 of them are John Johnson. Now, what do you think of that. It is proposed to give each one of them a tag in order to know them apart.

The advice of the ancient sage, "Answer a fool according to his folly," might better be improved upon by answering him not at all. Nine times out of ten he asks the question simply to receive attention.

It does not seem that the business men of Randolph were afraid that a dry town would, or did, hurt business, as the ward in which all the business men reside gave a majority of forty-eight votes for the dry side.

One of the congressmen has introduced a bill into congress regulating the length of hat pins in the District of Columbia. It would take more than the prod of a hat pin to make some men know what they were sent to congress for.

It is all right to cut off "Uncle Joe" Cannon's expense for automobile, but while the insurgents have a streak of economy it would be well if they would also chop off a whole lot of other useless expense. Do not let the good work stop just for a little spite work.

My! What a bug-a-bug some of those Washington correspondents are able to dig up. Just now one of them has discovered that President Taft is going to pack the United States supreme court with a lot of young men favorable to the "interests."

E. R. Gurney, who has been talked of as a possible candidate on the republican ticket from this, the 3d district, says that he will not allow his name to appear. Private business takes so much of his time and attention that he has none of it to waste on public snaps.

In a running fight at Des Moines, Iowa, last Saturday, where a dozen shots were exchanged, a man by the name of Jack Hardy, who is supposed to be one of the Randolph bank robbers, was captured by Special Officer Ron, of the Chicago Great Western railway, in the yards there.

Speaking of a Cedar county man who has been sent to state's prison, the Coleridge Blade says: "Men guilty of conduct such as Evers' seems to have been certainly not fit to be tolerated in a civilized community. If not taken out and thrown in the creek with a rock tied to their necks, like egg-sucking pups, they at least should be shut away from mankind."

The Stanton Register says, "No man can speak his mind without making enemies, no matter how careful he is to be temperate in language. The editor who writes his honest opinion in firm and vigorous language, doesn't escape criticisms. And with this criticism comes a loss of business, but no self-respecting editor will hesitate because of criticism. The great majority of men respect and admire an editor who is doing and writing what is for the best interests of his patrons as he sees it and most of them uphold free thought if they do not agree with the teachings."

The Wynot Tribune scribe wisely says: "Parents who are so careless and thoughtless as to allow their children to remain out of school when they have an opportunity to attend, or who permit them to attend irregularly, little realize the actual wrong inflicted upon their offspring. This is an age of education and enlightenment. The children of today will be the men and women of tomorrow, and unless they are reasonably equipped with acquired knowledge they cannot expect to go forth and take their places in the affairs of life."

Laid to Rest
The funeral of D. C. Main took place at the family home last Thursday afternoon, and was very largely attended. Being a member of the board of education, the schools were closed all day, and all of the business houses were closed for an hour or more in the afternoon, out of respect for one who had so long been identified with the business interests of the community. Not only was there a large attendance of our home people but friends came from many towns in our own state, and some from Iowa, Oklahoma, and other states to pay silent homage to a man of true worth. At the home the very air was fragrant with the perfume from the large number of beautiful floral offerings, their fragrance being typical of the life of him whom they sought to honor. Eulogies were pronounced on the life work of Mr. Main by Rev. J. W. Kirkpatrick of the M. E. church, district superintendent, Tyndall and Rev. Bithell of Fremont, both of the same church, of which the deceased had long been a member. The Masonic Lodge had charge of the funeral at the cemetery, there being about seventy-five of them in line.

Will Leave Wayne
Different causes have contributed to the loss of a far too great a number of desirable citizens from our midst this spring. We are quite sure that there will be very general regret over the contemplated departure of Prof. C. H. Bright and wife from Wayne. The Prof. expects to get away Friday of this week. He will spend a few days with relatives at Grand Island and Lincoln, this state, then go to San Francisco, California. He will look over a couple of propositions in that state with a view of locating. If these do not suit him he will return to the Philippines and engage in teaching, and that is where he really thinks he will go. Mrs. Bright will remain here for the present, but will join her husband in San Francisco in time to go with him to the Philippines if he decides to go there. Both of them are much pleased with that country. They have been teaching in the N. N. C. the past two years.

Think of It

Every dollar spent in the home town helps to support schools, churches and charities; to grade and maintain streets, build sidewalks, sewers and waterworks and maintain an electric lighting plant; to make better stores with larger and more varied assortments of goods; to keep money in circulation and labor employed; to increase property values, both in town and surrounding territory.

The dollar sent away for goods, that could have been purchased in the home town helps do these things for some other community.

Think it over and buy at home. Trade Exhibit.

Committed Suicide

Adam Philbin, who has been a resident of Wayne for a number of years, committed suicide at Hoskins Friday forenoon, by drinking carbolic acid. He was doing some breaking on a farm near there, and was here early Friday morning, going to Hoskins on the ten o'clock train. Soon after reaching there he was seized with a fit of despondency, or some similar cause, not having been mentally sound for a number of years, and committed the rash act that ended his life. He leaves a wife and a number of children in poor circumstances. The body was brought here the same evening and prepared for burial and was sent to Anoka, Nebraska, Saturday morning for interment.

Badly Scared and Hurt

One of those "didn't know it was loaded" accidents happened out at the home of Aug. Wittler, five miles southwest of town Sunday afternoon, in which one of his daughters was accidentally shot and quite badly but not dangerously injured. The older members of the household were away from home at the time, visiting in the neighborhood. The boy, aged about sixteen, took the gun from its accustomed place, saying he was going to shoot a cat. While still in the house, and not knowing the gun was loaded, he pointed it at his sister who was standing just outside the door, about sixteen feet away. She screamed to him not to shoot, that the gun was loaded, and sprang to one side just as he pulled the trigger. The gun went off and a portion of the charge struck the girl in the fleshy part of the leg, just below the thigh, filling it full of shot, but had she not jumped as she did, she would have got the full charge of the gun in her abdomen. Of course the boy was thoroughly frightened and heartily sorry over the deed when he saw his sister fall to the ground and realized what had happened. The parents were sent for and a messenger came to Wayne for Dr. Leisner, who went out and dressed the wound, and says the girl will get along all right unless blood poison or some other unforeseen circumstance shall intervene. It was a close call.

In the estimation of the voters, judged by Monday's election, one year of drought has not killed Lincoln, so it was decided by a majority of 93% to continue the same policy for another year. That imported talent does not seem to have had very much influence on the vote, unless it was to make it more dry.

Owing to the death of Judge Brewer, the United States Supreme Court has decided that the Standard Oil and Tobacco Trust cases will have to be reargued before that court after President Taft has made his appointment to fill vacancy. It will probably be one year before a decision is reached. It is too bad.

Poultry Lice?

Poultry lice or vermin of any kind on poultry means poorer and less profitable flocks. You should lose no time in getting rid of such parasites if they infest your fowls. Our LICE AND MITE INSECT POWDER will have the desired effect. It never fails. One or two applications will probably rid your birds entirely of the vitality-sapping hordes.

WORTH MOUNTAINS OF GOLD

During Change of Life, says Mrs. Chas. Barclay

Grantville, Va. "I was passing through a change of life and suffering from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved worth mountains of gold to me, as it restored my health and strength. I never forgot to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound has done for me while I was trying it. Complete restoration of health means so much to me that I am willing to make my name public so you may publish it."—Mrs. CHAS. BARCLAY, Grantville, Va.

For a medicine for women's ailments, such as headache, dizziness, and nervousness, there is no other so well known as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been famous for the relief it affords in all cases of constipation, indigestion, local weakness, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pain, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration, and it is the only one for carrying women safely through the change of life. Write to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and she will send you a "worth mountains of gold" offering.

SHOE SIZES.

How the Standard of Measurement Was Established.

It is most difficult for many persons to remember the sizes of their different articles of wearing apparel. Collars, shirts and gloves are easy enough, because in the case of these it is a matter of actual inches. But the hat and shoe numbers are what puzzle most people, to say nothing of the mystery why a No. 11 stocking goes with a No. 8 shoe.

This last puzzle is, however, easily explained. Such things have always been measured by the inch from heel to toe, but the numbering of shoes was fixed a long time ago by a Frenchman.

The Frenchman permanently fixed the numbers of sizes for all Europe and America. He arbitrarily decided that no human foot could possibly be smaller than three and seven-eighths inches. So, falling this point zero, he allowed one-third of an inch to a size and accordingly built up his scale. It follows then that a man cannot find out the number of his own shoe unless he be an expert arithmetician. Even then he is likely to go wrong, because all the shoe experts allow for the weight of the individual and the build of his foot before they try to determine what size shoe he ought to wear.

As far as women's shoes are concerned the problem is still more difficult, because many of the manufacturers instead of keeping to the regular scale have marked down their numbers one or two sizes in order to tempt easily flattered customers. For this reason most business ask out of their customers to send an old shoe with their orders.

The system of measuring hats is much simpler. Any man can tell what size he wears simply by adding the width and length of the inner brim and then dividing by two. Orders can also be sent to the shopkeeper by stating the circumference of the head.—Boston Globe.

QUEER STORIES

A baby born amid the floods at Allortville, Paris, has been named Moses.

Attached to a townsite in a Harlequin (England) undertaker's shop is a card which reads: "You may tele phone from here."

A cedit's worth of electricity, at the average price in this country, will raise ten times twelve feet high with a crane in less than a minute.

No coal is mined in this country lower than a depth of 2,200 feet, while several English mines penetrate 3,500 feet down, and there are mines in Belgium four thousand feet deep. Eight-inch seams of coal are mined commercially abroad, while few veins less than four inches thick are worked in this country.

A woman who likes to have flowers in her window but finds it impracticable to do so in the city has artificial ones painted on the glass. The windows are high up above the street and the flowers are in bright colors to enable them to be seen more easily. The apartment house in which the woman lives is on Broadway, and the effect of the art is very striking.—New York Sun.

Montreal is said to be in a bad sanitary condition. The water supply has been condemned in parliament, and the method of sewage disposal is far from satisfactory. A medical member of parliament declares that the Montreal water furnished on the cars of the International railway, where alcoholic drinks are not allowed, is a distinctly dangerous beverage, containing "disease and death." Typhoid fever is prevalent in the city.

The number of automobiles owned by farmers is growing rapidly. Out of the thousand autos in Iowa, five thousand are owned by farmers. Kansas farmers spent $300,000 for automobiles during 1909, and $2,750,000 in 1908. In the Nebraska state of eight hundred population, forty autos were sold last year to farmers near the town and retired farmers in the town. Careful estimate of the number of automobiles owned by farmers in the entire United States is 76,000.

Corn grows in 120 days from its planting time. Out in the great corn belt, during 1909, the corn farmers made the ground give up to them $15,000,000 every day of those 120. In other words, every day from the time the corn farmers put the seed in the ground, $15,000,000 were poured into their laps until a grand total of $1,720,000,000 was rolled up! All the gold and silver in the whole United States today isn't equal to this corn crop of last year.—Travel Magazine.

New Way to Swear Off Taxes.

The best way of not paying taxes on your personal property is to swear them off. By "swearing off" is meant going to the tax assessor and making a deposition that you really don't live where you seem to, you seem to own, and that, while you appear to be very rich, you are really impoverished by which you have hitherto said.

By, contended. Since personal taxes begin, so many ways of swearing off have been invented that the tax authorities had come to believe that there was no new tax dodge under the sun.

But the tax authorities were mistaken. A few days ago a man came to the New York tax commissioners and asked to be relieved of his personal taxes. "I have only $5,000," he said, "and that money is in city bonds and is being held in trust."

"For whom?" asked the tax commissioner.

"The question was unexpected and at first there was no answer, but the tax commissioner insisted. Finally, in a stage whisper, the swearer-off explained:

"The money is held in trust during his lifetime—for my dog."—Success Magazine.

When a dog expresses a willingness to climb a tree to pick cherries they are not for his mother to put up.

MAPLE AND GARDEN

How to Plant a Tree.

In anticipation of the needs of Arbor Day the Oklahoma experiment station has in press a bulletin on "Tree Culture," by Professor Morris of the horticultural department. While the bulletin deals with many features, such as the best trees to plant for shade or post and pole production, perhaps the most timely and useful advice is that relating to planting which is as follows:

The trees should be set a little deeper in the soil than they stood in the nursery row, or where previously grown. The soil must be worked in underneath the large roots and tamped firm about them. The top of the tree should be leant slightly to the southwest.

This enabled the tree to resist the hard south winds and before the end of the first season the tree will be standing in an erect position. It is a good plan to shake the tree several times while tamping the dirt around the roots and to pour water about the tree in order to bring the soil in contact with every bit of root surface. After the water has been poured on, another inch or two of dry soil and good surface should be thrown about the tree to prevent baking.

Poor Shelter for Sheep.

Often we see sheep housed in places like that shown in the picture. One can imagine what the interior of the hole would be after the winter rains. It is dark and entirely without ventilation.

Farm Wagon Jack.

A simple and cheap form of wagon jack is illustrated. The material required is four pieces of wood and a few bolts. It will serve quite well if made of soft wood, but will not last so long or do so much heavy lifting as it would made out of hard wood. It is the best, but white oak is almost as good. A is thirty-six inches long, six inches wide, and one and one-half inches thick. B is thirty-six inches long, six inches wide, two inches thick. A is bolted to B at right angles with five three-eighths bolts. It also has a succession of half-inch holes bored two inches apart, towards the upper part. C is 2 1/2 inches, of hard wood and as long as may be desired. It has a succession of half-inch holes an inch and a half apart. D is three inches wide and one inch thick, and about four or four and one-half inches long. It is bolted to B near one end, and has a shoulder of half-inch iron bolts through the upper part, and an iron pipe to run through. This simple and cheap device answers perfectly for all the usual purposes of a wagon jack.

Ripening Apples on Trees.

The longer apples remain on the tree, unless the weather becomes too cold to permit their exposure, the better for the flavor and the keeping quality. The fruit that comes to perfection the farthest north, as that in the Hood river region of Oregon, appears to have the finest keeping qualities without deterioration in flavor.

Of the varieties raised in the East the winter russets keep longest without being put in cold storage and really reach the full perfection of flavor only late in the winter, or the early spring. It used to be considered a marvelous and almost an impossible thing to keep apples over from the fall till the first summer apples appeared, but with methods of cold storage so extensively used as they are now this is easily achieved and with far less deterioration in flavor than might reasonably be expected.

Bees and Fruit.

An insufficient supply of bees will hinder the setting of fruit. While other insects may take a part in the carrying of pollen, the fruit raiser must rely chiefly upon honey bees. Experience shows that, though bees may fly two or three miles, hives should be within half a mile of the orchard or small fruit patch.

Land and Those Who Work It.

Ninety per cent of the land is owned by the men who work it, and about 70 per cent of it is farmed by the most intensive methods. The 30 per cent in grass is not pastured. A seven-year rotation generally practiced is: Clover and grass two years, rye, wheat, rye, barley, oats. The land is well manured and produces heavy crops of grass.

Fertilizer for Meadows.

Experiment station tests have shown that nitrate of soda is the one fertilizer most needed by meadows in the spring. As early in the spring, the second year after new grass has been grown, as when first growth shows, make a mixture of liquid weight of nitrate of soda and lime dry earth, and apply broadcast at the rate of 300 pounds per acre. It would be quite useless to use any other form of fertilizer, for Agropyron depends upon immediate availability of the plant food. By this treatment the only wild grasses he kept back, but also sporadic patches of clover. The young (smoothly) will develop very thick growth, due to very extensive stooling. The cost of fertilizer and its application will be about $1 per acre, if no fall application was made, and $1.75 if it was necessary to fall fertilizer.

Poor Shelter for Sheep.

Often we see sheep housed in places like that shown in the picture. One can imagine what the interior of the hole would be after the winter rains. It is dark and entirely without ventilation.

Farm Wagon Jack.

A simple and cheap form of wagon jack is illustrated. The material required is four pieces of wood and a few bolts. It will serve quite well if made of soft wood, but will not last so long or do so much heavy lifting as it would made out of hard wood. It is the best, but white oak is almost as good. A is thirty-six inches long, six inches wide, and one and one-half inches thick. B is thirty-six inches long, six inches wide, two inches thick. A is bolted to B at right angles with five three-eighths bolts. It also has a succession of half-inch holes bored two inches apart, towards the upper part. C is 2 1/2 inches, of hard wood and as long as may be desired. It has a succession of half-inch holes an inch and a half apart. D is three inches wide and one inch thick, and about four or four and one-half inches long. It is bolted to B near one end, and has a shoulder of half-inch iron bolts through the upper part, and an iron pipe to run through. This simple and cheap device answers perfectly for all the usual purposes of a wagon jack.

Ripening Apples on Trees.

The longer apples remain on the tree, unless the weather becomes too cold to permit their exposure, the better for the flavor and the keeping quality. The fruit that comes to perfection the farthest north, as that in the Hood river region of Oregon, appears to have the finest keeping qualities without deterioration in flavor.

Of the varieties raised in the East the winter russets keep longest without being put in cold storage and really reach the full perfection of flavor only late in the winter, or the early spring. It used to be considered a marvelous and almost an impossible thing to keep apples over from the fall till the first summer apples appeared, but with methods of cold storage so extensively used as they are now this is easily achieved and with far less deterioration in flavor than might reasonably be expected.

Bees and Fruit.

An insufficient supply of bees will hinder the setting of fruit. While other insects may take a part in the carrying of pollen, the fruit raiser must rely chiefly upon honey bees. Experience shows that, though bees may fly two or three miles, hives should be within half a mile of the orchard or small fruit patch.

Land and Those Who Work It.

Ninety per cent of the land is owned by the men who work it, and about 70 per cent of it is farmed by the most intensive methods. The 30 per cent in grass is not pastured. A seven-year rotation generally practiced is: Clover and grass two years, rye, wheat, rye, barley, oats. The land is well manured and produces heavy crops of grass.

ABANDONED IT

For the Old Fashioned Coffee Was Killing.

"I always drank coffee with the rest of the family, for it seemed as if there was nothing for breakfast if we did not have it on the table.

"I had been troubled some time with my heart, which did not feel right. This trouble grew worse steadily.

"Sometimes it would beat fast and at other times very slowly, so that I would hardly be able to do work for an hour or two after breakfast, and if I walked up a hill, it gave me a severe pain.

"I had no idea of what the trouble was until a friend suggested that perhaps it might be caused by coffee drinking. I tried leaving off the coffee and began drinking Postum. The change came quickly. I am now glad to say that I am entirely well of the heart trouble and attribute the relief to leaving off coffee and the use of Postum.

"A number of my friends have abandoned the old fashioned coffee and have taken up with Postum, which they are using steadily. There are some people that make Postum very weak and tasteless, but if it is boiled long enough, according to directions, it is a very delicious beverage. We have never used any of the old fashioned coffee since Postum was first started in our house."

Wanted a Fortune on Skin Trouble.

"I began to have a itching over my whole body about seven years ago and this settled in my arms, from the knee to the toes. I went to see a great many physicians, a matter which cost me a fortune, and after I noticed that I did not get any relief that way, I went for three years to the hospital. But they were unable to help me there. I used all the medicines that I could see but became worse and worse. I had an inflammation which made me almost crazy with pain. When I showed my foot to my friends they would get really frightened. I did not know what to do. I was an sick and had become so nervous that I positively lost all hope.

"I had seen the advertisement of the Cuticura Remedies a great many times, but could not make up my mind to buy them for I had already used so many medicines. Finally I did decide to use the Cuticura Remedies and I tell you that I was never so pleased as when I noticed that, after having used two sets of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Pills, the entire inflammation had gone. I was completely cured. I should be duty bound to tell you that I am now a very healthy man. I would only recommend them to use Cuticura. Mrs. Bertha Sachs, 1621 Second Ave., New York, N. Y., Aug. 29, 1909.

"Mrs. Bertha Sachs is my sister-in-law and I know well how she suffered, and was cured by the Cuticura Remedies after many other treatments failed. Mrs. Sachs, 321 E. 89th St., New York, N. Y., Secretary of Deutscher-Ostrower Unt-Vereln, Kaiser Hofweg Benevolent Society, etc."

It Is Said

That "coming" events cast their shadows before. That is why we mention the fact that on April 29, in the new Baptist church, the Wayne Commercial Club Band will give one of its fine concerts. Three-fourths of the proceeds will go to the ladies of the church. If you plan to attend, as you should do, you will not only enjoy a pleasant evening but will also assist two worthy organizations. Keep this in mind.

The Commercial Club to Manage Ball Team

The Commercial Club has appointed Messrs F. A. Berry, J. E. Hufford and C. H. Fisher to take charge of the ball team for this season.

While the management of a team requires a great deal of time and much work, still the Club is willing to undertake it as it provides a great deal of clean, wholesome entertainment for all of us during the summer months.

Without doubt a team managed by the Commercial Club will be able to conduct its games with less danger of rowdiness and more enthusiastic support on the part of our people, especially the ladies and children, than a team managed otherwise.

The Club did especially well last year, besides providing plenty of good baseball they paid over $875 for grand stand, suits and improvements on the grounds.

They also paid the boys' expenses when away on trips playing for prizes for themselves.

The purse of $100 won by the boys during the tournament has been on hand for some time but has not been distributed owing to the absence of the secretary who has this matter in hand.

This year, as last, it is planned to have a team composed as largely as possible of our home boys. The committee invites every boy who plays ball to try for the team. Places will be awarded solely on a competitive basis and the best player is to represent his town. A good hat will be provided and with the same enthusiastic support we had last year, we ought to have plenty of fine entertainment all summer.

Mr. Farmer and Investor!

I have for sale in STANLEY COUNTY, SOUTH DAKOTA, choice deeded lands at $12 to $20 per acre. These lands are first-class, located along the railroad, also along the line of the new proposed road. Soil is a deep, black loam, free from stone or gravel and will produce 30 bushels of wheat and 60 bushels of oats per acre and all other crops in proportion when land is properly tilled. There is no place in the west today that offers the inducements to the home builder or the investor that STANLEY COUNTY offers. Seeing is believing. Come out and look the country over. Land will double in value here in two years' time.

Good Enough

At the meeting of the Normal School Board held Tuesday, U. S. Conn. of Columbus, was chosen as the head of the Wayne Normal School. This is not only very gratifying to Mr. Conn, but also a host of friends here and in this part of the state who know his worth as a man and educator. Mr. Conn was formerly a teacher in the Normal here, and friends feel that the success of the school is assured under his management. While the state will not really take over the control of the school until after the next legislature meets, the appointment was made at this time so that the new superintendent would have ample time to select his faculty and make other necessary arrangements to assume the management of the school. Old time friends will be very glad to greet Mr. Conn as the head of this institution of learning.

Points Regarding the Census

The census begins April 15 and must be completed in thirty days. The enumerators will wear a badge inscribed "United States Census, 1910."

The law requires every adult person to furnish the prescribed information, but also provides that, if that information can come to any person from answering the questions.

The Census Bureau, prior to April 15, will distribute to every farm owner and tenant in this state a blank or schedule containing the Census questions relative to farm operations, and equipment. This should be filled up, if possible, not later than the morning of April 15, but if anyone has been unable to fill it up by that time, he should do it as soon afterwards as he can.

People who do not speak English or who do not understand the schedule completely should get help from others, if possible, in filling it up.

The President has issued a proclamation, calling on all citizens to cooperate with the Census and assuring them that it has nothing to do with taxation, army or jury service, compulsory school attendance, regulation of immigration, or enforcement of any law, and that no one can be injured by answering the inquiries.

It is of the utmost importance that the farm census of this state be complete and correct. Therefore, every farm owner and tenant should promptly, fully, and accurately fill up the "Advance Farm Schedule" and carefully preserve it for the enumerator when he calls.

New Oxfords and Pumps (Queen Quality make) will arrive for Saturday's selling at Ahern's Ready To Wear Department.

Winter Wheat Below Average for Ten Years

The average condition of winter wheat on April 1 was 80.8 per cent. of a normal, against 82.2 April 1, 1909, and 87, the average for the last ten years on April 1. The decline in condition from December 1, 1909, to April 1, 1910, was 15 points. The average condition of rye was 92.3 per cent. of a normal April 1, against 87.2 April 1, 1909, and 89.5, the average for the last ten years on April 1.

Presbyterian Church

The services at the Presbyterian church will be held as usual next Sabbath. Divine worship will be observed at 10:30 a. m. at which time the new pastor, Rev. Alexander Corkey, will preach on "The Optimism of Faith." The Sunday School meets at 12:00 following the morning service.

The C. E. prayer meeting will begin at 7:00 o'clock, led by Mr. F. H. Jones. The subject is "Good Cheer in Dark Days."

The evening service will be held at 8:00 o'clock. This evening service will be bright, evangelistic and helpful, lasting only one hour. The subject of the pastor's sermon next Sunday evening will be "Giving a Reason for our Faith," or "Proving Christianity True."

All who desire the blessings of religion in their lives are cordially invited to attend the services of the church.

Winder's Peculiar Situation

By reason of an adverse decision of the supreme court, A. H. Winder for years a citizen of Norfolk, finds himself in a very embarrassing position. Mr. Winder secured a divorce from his wife, Mary J. Winder, and then within six months he married Mrs. Haley, of Norfolk, at Superior, Wisconsin. Mrs. Winder then went into district court with an affidavit that she had not understood about that divorce and had been deceived in the matter. So the district judge, after a careful investigation of the matter, held that the two marriages entered into a collusion to deceive the court and secure a decree without permitting the material facts in the case to come out. For this reason the decree was set aside. The supreme court, Judge Letton writing the opinion, affirmed the decision of the lower court. The court said in conclusion: "We have little reluctance because of the new marriage. Apparently Mrs. Haley and Winder were in pari delicto, and neither party is entitled to particular favor or protection from the court."

Pleasant Event

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Leverenz, in Carroll, was the scene of a pleasant surprise party, Thursday evening of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Closson had been invited to the home for supper. After a satisfying supper had been partaken of and the dishes cleared away, and while Mr. Closson was enjoying a pleasant evening with the family, in walked fifteen uninvited guests, all boys of Mr. Closson's Sunday School class in the Methodist church. The surprise was as complete as it was pleasant. The evening was spent at games that allowed the boy spirit full sway. After refreshments, a second surprise was sprung on Mr. Closson, when as a token of love and esteem, the boys presented him with a beautiful leather upholstered rocking chair. The evening was indeed a fitting climax to the four and a half years of association as teacher and pupils. In this time the teacher has seen these boys grow up from the intermediate grade to young men, of whom the entire community is justly proud. The severing of these ties is a matter of regret to both pupils and teacher.

Commercial Club Doings.

A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the annual smoker and business meeting next month. The date will be announced later.

A committee was appointed to call upon the business men and get their sentiment in regard to a celebration on the Fourth of July.

The quarterly dues payable March 1st, not having been collected owing to the absence of the secretary, it was voted that the treasurer make out the bills and have them collected so that the year's business could be closed up and a statement of finances rendered at the smoker.

The matter of testing seed corn and means for being of assistance to our farmers in this work were discussed at length. It was finally decided that Wayne county farmers were thoroughly alive to the great necessity of seed testing this spring and it was voted that the Club's assistance was not further necessary.

A committee of three—Frank Berry, Mr. Hufford and C. H. Fisher—were appointed to manage a Commercial Club Ball Team the coming season. It was decided to let the distribution of the purse of $100 due the boys on the tournament last season rest until secretary Johnson returns as he had the matter in hand. This money has been available for some time and will be paid out as soon as the secretary settles the method of distribution.

The Commercial Club executive committee met Wednesday night of last week and transacted the following business. The president was instructed to appoint a committee to start work on the Corn Show which will be held again next year.

Owing to our lateness in starting last year, our boys were barred from entering the state contest in several classes as the requirements called for special planting and tending of the corn. This year we want the boys to study up the state requirements and get entered in every class and the committee will work to that end. Hufford, Craven and Ahern, committee.

The Minerva Club held its last meeting with Mrs. Wilbur. Mrs. Puffer gave a very exhaustive talk on the status of women. A lively discussion then followed on this topic, after which there was a discussion of the laws of the different states pertaining to women. Mrs. Lutgen gave an interesting review of the literary life of James Lane Allen. Mrs. Bert Brown's talk was on the life work of Geo. W. Cable.

H. C. Sweet, formerly employed in the Citizen's National Bank, now of Tulsa, Oklahoma, where he has a position in a bank, came up Wednesday to attend the funeral of D. C. Main, and remained until Saturday. He says he likes Oklahoma and his position very well.

Niobrara Presbytery

The Niobrara Presbytery, which has the oversight of all the Presbyterian churches in this section of Nebraska, will hold its regular spring meeting next week in Norfolk. The meeting begins on Tuesday, April 19, and lasts until Thursday.

In connection with this meeting of Presbytery there will be a special conference on "The Country Church" led by Warren H. Wilson, of New York. The Presbytery will arrange for the installation of Rev. Alexander Corkey as the pastor of the local church.

Rambler Fifty-five, 45 H. P., $2,500.
With Magneto, Lamps, Pre-lights, Tires and Tools.

The Straight-Line Drive

Power cannot be carried around a corner without great loss due to friction.

In the new Rambler the driving shaft, when the load is in the car, is in direct line with the crank-shaft, and the angle or corner found at one of the universal joints in most other driving systems is eliminated.

Thus it delivers the maximum power, saves energy, prevents wear and reduces cost of up-keep.

THE NEW Rambler

with this feature combined with the offset crank-shaft, Rambler Spare Wheel, engine accessibility and new expanding clutch, possesses an efficiency quite in keeping with its quality and character.

May we send you a copy of the Rambler Magazine, a publication for Rambler owners?

CORN SHOW CONTESTANTS

ATTENTION

The requirements for entering your exhibits at both the local and state corn show next fall are here given. Study these rules and regulations carefully and for further information apply to the county superintendent of schools, or to the secretary of the Commercial Club, J. E. Hufford.

The Commercial Club, in co-operation with the county superintendent and the state superintendent, will conduct the corn show again next fall. Liberal prizes will be awarded by the business men and the winning entries will be taken to Lincoln to compete in the state show.

In order to enter the different classes, your entry must be made according to the following rules. Prizes for winner in each class will be announced later.

RULES

CLASS A
Ten ear exhibit from corn grown by exhibitor, open to all under twenty years old.

CLASS B
Lot 2, white corn; Lot 3, any other than white or yellow corn.

CLASS C
Collective exhibits, open to all. Lot 1, six ears each of as many kinds and varieties of corn as can be collected by the exhibitor.

CLASS D
Lot 2, one ear each exhibit of as many sizes, shapes, colors and kinds of corn as can be collected by the exhibitor.

Lot 3, best single ear variety. (In class B the exhibitor need have no part in the raising of the corn exhibited.)

CLASS C Acre contest. Open to all who follow the instructions of Mr. A. E. Nelson during the summer. Mr. Nelson will be in Wayne on the 29th day of April to meet any who are interested in this class.

NOTE—Acre contest. It is necessary that each boy make entry at the Court House April 20. You will then receive monthly instructions from Lincoln on the necessary care and cultivation of this acre.

NOTE—In class A. The corn must be grown by the boy exhibiting the same, so select your seed and get ready to plant.

Two Sudden Deaths

There were two sudden deaths last night, both old residents of Wayne and vicinity, and both well advanced in years, and from the same cause—heart disease. Silas Mellick, aged about 65, who resided in Wayne, living near B. F. Feather's, died about midnight. He has lived here over 20 years. Henry Bartling, living about eight miles north of Wayne, also aged about 65, and a well known resident of the county, also passed away. No arrangements for the funerals have been made up to the hour of going to press. Will try to give obituary next week.

Bedding Plants

Parties wishing anything in bedding plants will do well to get prices from J. E. Hufford.

Seed Corn For Sale

The Goldmine variety. $1.25 per bushel. Call at farm near LaPorte to see the corn. J. P. LARSEN.

This is 1908-year corn and samples may be seen at P. H. Kohl's office or First National Bank.

Broke Her Arm

Mrs. G. S. Mears was so unfortunate as to fall Friday evening and break her left arm just above the wrist. A cellar has been put in on the west side of the sheriff's residence and a kitchen addition is going to be built over it. On the east side of the cellar is an eight inch stone wall. Coming out of the house and attempting to walk along the top of this wall, Mrs. Mears lost her footing and fell about seven feet into the bottom of the cellar, sustaining a broken arm, a badly sprained ankle, and some minor bruises. She is getting along as well as could be expected.

Free Land Grants

Yes, a few more elegant Free Land Grants can still be had in Mexico, where many Americans are now locating. You do not even have to go to Mexico, but are required to have five acres of fruit trees planted within five years. For information printed in English regarding Mexican homesteads, address The Jantha Plantation Company, Block 630, Pittsburgh, Pa. You can have your trees planted and your land worked on shares, so as to bring you a thousand dollars a year. The health conditions are perfect and the climate grand. It is never hot, never cold.

Passengers for the east this morning were O. A. King, H. C. Henry, J. F. Jeffries and wife, Ray Reynolds and wife, for Sioux City, A. J. Ferguson and attorney Davis to Pender, and Mrs. Mathis, who had been visiting at the J. F. Jeffries home for ten days, to her home at Des Moines, Iowa.

Gilder-sleeve, long term, John Larison; Police Judge, James Britton, School board, T. W. Moran and C. A. Chace. Ordinance vote was "Yes 199" "Yes 211." Ordinance declared carried. Motion made, seconded and carried to adjourn on April 18, 1910.

It does not look like a square deal to cut off the electric lights at the depot simply because there was a dispute with the railway company over a water bill. Besides it is not good business, as the light bills have always been paid, and the city loses a good customer and engenders ill will besides.

Fred Winther, the young man who works for W. C. Pond, is the proud possessor of a swell new buggy, which he received this week from the Elkhart Buggy Co. He proposes to go in style now.

W. O. Gamble, who has been so seriously ill for a long time, continues to grow gradually weaker. He had a very bad night of it Monday night and Tuesday but rallied some again Wednesday.

HOSKINS NEWS

(From Our Regular Correspondent)

Glen Green was a Sioux City visitor Monday.

Miss Lilith Foster is teaching near Laurel, Nebraska.

Mr. R. Rohrke went to Meadow Grove Thursday on business.

Wm. Beemer has moved into the house vacated by Chas. Oklund.

Mr. Beemer, Sr., now occupies the house vacated by Mr. Crosby.

John Lassell has moved into his new home in the southern part of town.

Miss Margaret White, of Decatur, visited her sister, Mrs. Darling, over Sunday.

Glen Flowers, of Decatur, was a visitor in the Darling home over Sunday.

Fred Nelson, of Loretto, on his way to Sioux City, stopped over Sunday in Hoskins.

Miss Hilda Aron is teaching in a Lutheran parochial school three miles south of Norfolk.

Miss Belinda Winters has resumed her school duties after a slight illness of a few days duration.

Among those attending the teachers' meeting in Wayne were the Misses Reed, Moran and Aron.

Mrs. Wheatling, mother of John and Bernard Wheatling, died at her home seven miles north of Hoskins on Sunday night.

Rev. and Mrs. Aron and Miss Meta went to Wayne Thursday to attend the funeral of D. C. Main. The Arons were formerly Magnolia, Iowa, residents.

Invitations have been sent out by Mr. and Mrs. F. Miller announcing the marriage of their daughter, Hedwig, to Hellmuth Vossberg on Sunday, April 17th. The best wishes of the community go forth to accompany the young couple on their journey through life.

Rev. John Aron and Rev. G. F. Gruber, Sr., left Monday to attend the state conference of the Nebraska Synod of the German Lutheran church to be in session this week at Plymouth, Nebraska. Rev. Gruber will visit relatives in that part of the state before returning home.

Last Sunday night, April 10, at about twelve o'clock, there died on his old homestead, now occupied by his son Carl Strate, Mr. Fred Strate, at the age of eighty-eight years.

Mr. Strate came to this country forty-four years ago from Germany, together with his brother-in-law, Mr. Fred Schroeder, and settled on a homestead a quarter of a mile east of Hoskins. During his long residence here, he enjoyed the esteem and friendship of all his neighbors, through his uprightness and kindness. He was one of the founders and leading members of the Reformed church southwest of Hoskins, in the graveyard of which his remains were interred last Wednesday afternoon. Besides his aged wife there remain six loving children, Fred Strate, Carl Strate, Simon Strate, Ernest Strate, of Hoskins, and Mrs. Wm. Knoble, who resides in Madison county, Nebraska, to mourn his loss.

It was reported on the street this morning that Jim Pile had broken one of his legs last night. We are glad to say that the rumor is unfounded, but the young man is laid up today with the result of a badly twisted and sprained leg, received last evening while playing ball.

KUPPENHEIMER CLOTHES are built, not just sewn together. The part you don't see is made to give service, made to keep a coat in shape as long as it is worn. If it breaks within a year you can have a new coat free.

The frame-work of a Kuppenheimer coat is of the best linen canvas, correctly stiffened by extra fine hair cloth, and firmly held by linen tape. Button and button-hole sections reinforced with black silesia, pockets supported from the shoulders and the smooth appearance of the shoulders and collar insured by properly distributed wool felt.

The foundation carries the extra wear. It's safe from the danger of sagging or breaking. It is the honest, necessary foundation that makes the Kuppenheimer Clothes "stand up" and deliver the service. We can show you a big line of clothes such as these, all bearing the Label—the Kuppenheimer Label—that means so much. Make your selection today.

NAVAL BILL ADOPTED

HOUSE FAVORS CONSTRUCTION OF TWO BATTLE SHIPS.

In addition to Big Dreadnaughts the Measure Provides for Two Fleet Cruisers and Four Submarines—Other Amendments Proposed.

By a decisive vote of 162 to 110, fourteen being present and not voting, the House late Friday authorized the construction of two battle ships to cost $5,000,000 each.

The action was taken just prior to the passage of the naval appropriation bill carrying $228,027,502.

The amount is about $2,000,000 less than was recommended by the navy department.

NOTED OUTLAW PUT TO DEATH.

Alvin Karpis, Triple Murderer, Hanged in Oklahoma.

Alvin Karpis, the negro desperado, and Fred Barker, notorious throughout the southwest, was hanged at Waukegan, Ill., at 11:05 Friday morning.

He made a short speech on the scaffold, saying he was ready to go. It was seven minutes before Karpis was executed.

Karpis declared that Ed Ellis, now serving life term at McAlester for abetting the murder of ex-Sheriff Garrison, was innocent.

Karpis murdered Sheriff George W. Garrison of Oklahoma county, in Fairbairn, Minn., near Hitchcock, Okla. Sheriff Garrison and his deputies were attempting to arrest the negro, who, a few days before, had killed a negro in Oklahoma City, because he feared the negro would betray his whereabouts to the authorities in Arkansas, where he was charged on a murder charge.

COMMITTED MANY CRIMES.

Earl Paulsen, Burglar, Makes a Confession Before Dying.

Harry Hall, or Clyde S. Canfield, a burglar, who was shot by a policeman in San Francisco, Cal., Thursday evening, confessed before dying Friday that he had committed many crimes.

"I know I am about to die," he said, "and I want to confess everything I did so no one will suffer for any crimes that I have committed."

Hall, saying that Harry Hall was his right name and that he would not give his right one, the dying man confessed to holding up a Seattle bank and a bank in Astoria.

Hall went to Salt Lake City, he confessed, "where I twice held up a bank and engaged in a running fight with the policemen.

Hall concluded his confession with the story of several holdups in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Fortured by Prison Guards.

Frank Shalira, an East Indian negro, convicted on trial at White Plains, N. Y., for murderous assault on a Sing Sing keeper, pleaded in justification that he was driven to his act by the cruelty of the guards.

A lighter loaded with dynamite in the harbor of Kobe, Japan, caught fire Friday, causing an explosion that killed three persons, wrecked many houses on the water front and caused a monetary damage of $250,000.

PANIC ON A STEAMER.

Explosion Occurs on British Vessel Cairnroa.

An explosion early Friday morning on the British steamer Cairnroa, off Dungeness, Eng., wrecked the women's quarters, killing one child and injuring a number of women and children. The steamer caught fire and a panic ensued, in which men fought for the possession of the boats and had to be beaten back by the crew to allow the women to be taken off first.

A large number of passengers were landed at Dover Friday evening, many of them in an exhausted condition. In all twenty were seriously injured and not less than fifty were slightly injured by the explosion and the panic that followed it.

Several of the first class passengers and American outlanders gave thrilling details of the accident. A number of women with children in their arms were sitting on the hatch when a violent explosion hurled them to all parts of the deck.

A terrific panic ensued. The emigrants, mostly Russian, were running up and down, screaming and wringing their hands. Their horror was increased by the volumes of smoke which poured from the burning hold.

BANK CLOSES ITS DOORS.

Another Brooklyn Institution Forged to Suspend.

The Borough Bank of Brooklyn, N. Y., closed its doors Friday and the superintendent of banks has taken possession of the institution's business. The bank has a capital of $200,000, with deposits aggregating over $2,000,000.

Superintendent Cheney said that the conditions attending the closing of the bank were almost identical with those which led to the closing of the Union bank of Brooklyn.

As was the case with the Union bank, the Borough was obliged to suspend during the panic of 1907, and was reorganized later. The new management was obliged to assume liabilities which have been a heavy load, and the suspension of the Union bank had a bad effect on the Borough, which was known to be in the same position.

YOUTHFUL SWINDLERS.

Boys Convicted of Conducting Fraudulent Banking Scheme.

Three youths, each less than 20 years old, were taken to the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., Friday to serve sentences of a year imposed by the United States district court at Covington, Ky., for a fraudulent banking scheme which they conducted in the little mountain town of Orr, Ky.

The boys profited about $2,300 by their scheme, which included the establishment of a mythical "bank" which gave wholesale dealers glowing accounts of their credit, enabling them to obtain large shipments of merchandise.

AMAZING RACE SWINDLE.

'Con' Man's Arrest Reveals Startling Story.

For Irish stage setting, workman-like execution and ample financing the story of a racing swindle as told the New York police Wednesday night by Henry Wagner, senior member of a firm of billiard table manufacturers of New York, has no equal.

The story came out with the arrest of a man who gave his name as John Brown, 38 years old, and described himself as a broker and speculator, but who, the police say, is George C. Rockwood, alias George C. Hammond, alias "Old Joe" Eaton, a noted confidence man.

Late last month Wagner met a man representing himself to be Alfred Stanford, private secretary to a Pennsylvania millionaire, with money to spend on coal lands. World Wagner take an option on 2,000 acres at $7 an acre? He could sell at a huge profit. The secretary lacked funds to finance the deal himself.

Indeed his conscience was soothed by his being made stakeholder until at one time he held $104,000. His draft for $10,000 was obligingly cashed and he generously loaned the money to one of the crowd to fill out a $20,000 bet. Then came the get-away.

CASH HOUSE SUSPENDS.

Failure of W. H. Merritt & Co. Is Due to the Decline in Corn.

Suspension of the cash grain house of W. H. Merritt & Co. was announced on the Chicago board of trade Wednesday. Customers were notified to close out their trades.

W. H. Merritt & Co. has for many years been one of the most important firms in the cash grain trade and the failure caused great surprise.

The reasons for the suspension are closely analogous to those which on Monday forced another cash grain house—the Barns-Yantis company—to suspend, namely, the decline in corn prices recently. Eastern customers of the Merritt company having bought at the high price for later delivery, are said to have repudiated their contracts when the market declined.

This forced the brokers to seek other outlets for their grain, and while holding it much of it "went hot" or in other words, rotted. A member of the firm declared that creditors would be paid in full.

CONFESSIONS TO MURDER.

Bertram Spencer, Burglar, Admits He Murdered Woman.

Bertram Gage Spencer confessed Wednesday to the murder of Miss Martha B. Blackstone at the home of Mrs. Sarah H. Dow, on Round hill, Springfield, Mass., last Thursday night. Spencer also confessed to the commission of a long series of burglaries. Miss Blackstone and Miss Harriet P. Dow, school teachers, were shot by a masked burglar, who entered the Dow home on the evening of March 31. Miss Dow is recovering.

A local union of the Cloth Hat and Cap Makers' Union of North America has been formed in Brooklyn, N. Y.

San Francisco (Cal.) Garment Workers' Union is giving a practical demonstration of its work in the show window of a large store to help the union labor and create a demand for goods bearing the same.

The directors of the Toronto (Canada) Labor Temple Company have decided that the only tenants that may rent rooms in their building for the future will be those affiliated with international organizations.

In Missouri in 1908 there was an increase in the average pay an hour over 1907, the average being 36.45 cents, as compared with 35.25 cents for the other year. There was also a decrease in the average daily working time over the year before from 9.01 hours a day to 8.95.

Statistics show that in the city of New York there are 25,000 women who by their own labor support their husbands and families.

A committee on organization has been formed by the Women's Trade Union League to carry on the work of organizing the Jewish workwomen of the Manhattan east side.

International Organizer A. Rosenberly is in Boston, Mass., to aid the members of Ladies' Tailors and Dressmakers, who have been in strike for nearly ten months. The busy season is about to begin, and efforts will be made to bring about a settlement of all questions at issue.

HIST! Here Comes the Census Man!

When you see the census taker coming, you may as well get ready to answer the thirty-two questions that are going to be tossed at you. The schedule is a couple of feet long, and when it is filled out it will present twenty-four pretty solid inches of information. When the schedule is filled out it will also present a reasonably detailed account of the person who is being enumerated. With each succeeding census it has been found necessary, in meeting the growing demands of the country, to obtain fuller and fuller information. The present thirty-two question schedule is something of a departure from the six interrogations which were asked at the first census taken under President Washington's direction in 1790.

The first blanks on the schedule are for name and the number of the family in order of the enumerator's visit. Then comes the name of the person enumerated and then that of his relationship to the head of the family. Under the heading of "personal description" there are seven questions. They deal with sex, color or race, age, at last birthday, whether single, married, widowed or divorced, number of years of present marriage, number of children born in the family and number of children living. Then come the questions relating to nativity. The place of birth of the person enumerated, the place of birth of the father and that of the mother of the person are the next questions to be answered. Then come the blanks for answers as to citizenship. It will be necessary to tell the year of immigration to the United States and whether the person is naturalized or alien. Then the enumerator will set down whether or not the person can speak English. If the person does not speak English it will be necessary to write in the language which is spoken.

There are this year five questions as to occupation. The first deals with the trade or profession and the second with the general nature of the industry, business or establishment in which the person works. The reply to the third question determines whether or not the person is an employee, employer or working on his or her own account. The last two questions under the occupation heading are as to whether or not the person, if an employee, is working on April 15, and the number of weeks he or she was out of work during 1909.

Then follow three questions on education. It will be set down whether or not the person can read, whether he or she can write and whether he or she attended school any time since Sept. 1, 1909. Next comes the sub-division as to the ownership of the home. The enumerator will record whether the home is owned or rented; if it is owned, whether it is free or mortgaged, farm or house, and the number of farm schedule. A new question to be asked this year is whether or not the person is a survivor of the Union or Confederate army or navy. The last two questions of the 1910 schedule

TO FIGHT THE TRUST.

Pittsburg Capitalists to Build Mill for Union Workmen.

Pittsburg capitalists are interested in a large independent sheet and tin plate plant to be erected at Glenova, W. Va., and which is to be run in opposition to the United States Steel Corporation. Glenova is a suburb of Wheeling, and the plant will give employment to thousands of men who formerly were employed by the La Belle plant at Bellaire, O. The latter has not turned a wheel since June 30, 1909, owing to a strike.

United States Senator H. B. Scott of West Virginia heads the movement, which will involve the expenditure of $3,000,000, and no secret is made of the fact that it is a fight against the United States Steel Corporation. Some time ago Senator Clark, having the interests of unemployed workmen at heart, made an authorized proposition to the steel corporation to buy the La Belle Iron Works, owned by the United States Steel Corporation, but which has been practically hoarded up by the corporation because of the strike. There was no effect on this offer, which lay by last of the offer to start the mills as union and as independent mills. But the offer to purchase was declined.

ONION KINGS NOW.

Pungent Bulbs Raising a New Crop of Millionaires.

The Texas Shumard onion crop is the largest in the history of the industry there. The profits are enormous and comfortable fortunes have been made off a few acres in a single year. The net returns run from $250 to $70 an acre. The expense of growing the crop is large, however, averaging from $150 to $200 per acre, where intense cultivation is practiced. All the onions are raised by means of irrigation. The cost of water per season is about $10 per acre. The supply is obtained from the Rio Grande by means of pumpkin. Around Laredo the Mexican laborers have been lifted out of poverty by the good works that are paid and the constant work that is given them upon the onion farms.

Japs Are Friendly.

Former Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks, who returned recently from an extended trip abroad, is convinced that the round-the-world trip of the American fleet did a great deal of good to insure peace with Japan.

"Anybody who talks about war with Japan is mischievous, wicked and almost malicious," he said. "There is an entirely wrong impression about this. Japan has what amounts, in its simplicity, to a childish affection for the United States. It is sincere."

are as to whether the person is blind and whether he or she is deaf and dumb.

Much Farm Data. In the agricultural districts most extensive and detailed information will also be gathered by the enumerators, there being fifty-nine subdivisions of subjects of inquiry. The census of agriculture will give farm acreage, farm values, farm expenses, number and value of farm animals and a vast mass of other information of the utmost value to the national government and to individuals.

Analysis of the array of the questions to be asked in cities and rural districts shows that Uncle Sam is going to have a pretty full description of each of the dwellers in his domain by the time the census is completed.

The census is to be taken through 70,000 enumerators, supervised and supervised under the general direction of E. Dana Dirand, director of the census bureau at Washington. The difficulties of taking the first census were many and perplexing. The area of the United States was 3,627,000 square miles, but the settled area was only 230,000 square miles, or about 29 percent of the whole. The population in 1790 was found to be 3,929,000 and the cost of taking the census was $11,990. The seventh census, taken in 1850, marked the beginning of really scientific census taking in the United States, and as a consequence the census of that year is known as the first "modern" census. In 1880 the census taking was removed from the province of the marshals and by the law providing for that census there was created a new body of census officers, known as supervisors.

ADMITS THE MURDER OF TWO.

Cletus Willaman Held for Killing Wife's Parents in Canton, Ohio.

Cletus Willaman, a young farmer of Orville, Ohio, confessed to the Chicago police that he killed his father-in-law and his wife's stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Koons, of Canton, Ohio. Willaman at first insisted that he did not know why he committed the crimes and talked maudlinly about being influenced by evil spirits. Later, however, the police say he confessed.

Willaman is a farmer, whose home is near Musillon, Ohio. The murders were committed at night, and Willaman took a train for Chicago, where he was arrested. In a suitcase carried by Willaman the police found a revolver, from which three bullets had been fired. The young farmer said he was on the way to Glasgow, Mont., where he intended to raise sheep. He had stopped at the home of his father-in-law in Canton overnight. The double murder was committed before morning.

THE WRECKING OF AMERICAN HOMES

Divorce Evil Grows At A Rate Which Alarms Sociologists - United States Leads World In Marital Separations With Exception Of Japan.

Average Annual Number of Divorces Per 100,000 Married Population In 1904

That the divorce rate is higher in the United States than in any other country, excepting Japan, no doubt surprises the many who have never given the matter any serious thought. During the years 1890 to 1900 the increase in our country was three times the rate of population, against two and two-thirds for the ten preceding years. This would mean that one out of every sixteen marriages was disrupted in the divorce courts, the average is even greater, one in every twelve. South Carolina leads the Union that makes no provision in its statutes for the records of divorces. The west and the middle west are the most liberal. The State of Washington reaches the highest mark of the divorce rate, Texas third and Indiana outranked Illinois in 1890 and 1900. The most frequent grounds are cruelty and women do most of the divorcing. Back of these facts and the cause for this increase in the annulment of the marriage tie, the man or the woman? The man, it would seem, since woman does most of the divorcing. She instinctively turns the home and maternity to outside interests, despite statistics and figures which seem to tell another story.

Woman is essentially volatile and plastic from years of necessary dependence upon her husband and training economical and conservative; so much so that she is the judicious manager of the home, the wise controller of the children and their proper training. Was it not an all-wise Providence that made, protected and supported females, the mothers of children? Civilization and society were formed for woman, by man, in his desire to shield and protect her from stress of business and the conditions that differentiate her from her sex. There were three things woman used to take hard (like whiplash) in the old days, and they were religion, matrimony and love. Something has transpired to change her ideas, for the old-fashioned gospel of the home is no longer fashionable. Matrimony is now considered an episode, a thing with which to juggle. Religion is a story of the past and love has become a matter of guile and the fertile imagination can conjure. What has taken the place of the old-time friends that were more than anything else, the religion, the matrimony and the love? For every gain there is a measure of loss. We outstrip the waiting things about us. Every desirable condition is obtained at the expense of something less desirable, and vice versa. More of wealth, luxury, pleasure and more evidence of things material to-day than ever before.

Who knows what woman considers as her rights, absolute equality, but she does not know what man's are, what man's? Has he any rights? Can they be taken away from him? If so, could they be determined to the present unsettled conditions? Will he continue to meekly support a hustling, vulgar, masculine man who does not trust him sufficiently to let him care for her best interests? What has been the incentive for man's endless striving through the ages? Has it not been for the benefit of woman, to give her more of every desirable thing? If this be so, then what is the cause of the deplorable increase in divorce statistics? Man knows as well as woman that the cause of one means the ultimate cause of many, so closely has the human family been united. That woman should establish her identity by becoming a part of the great plan has been conceded from the beginning. That she should become a seeker along all the avenues of learning is as it should be, but the wild struggle for equality will reduce her to the ranks where romance, chivalry and the finer ethics of deportment will no longer be deemed a necessary part of man's training. Will he meekly continue to support a hustling, vulgar man? One who does not trust him to care for her best interests without her supervision? Will he be agreeable when he brushes cheek by jowl with his wife, sister, mother or daughter at the polls?

A womanly woman has always been considered the fairest gift to man. A masculine woman is as bad, or even worse, than an effeminate man. When woman grows indifferent or unappreciative may become neglectful, then sooner or later desert the woman who no longer appeals to him, or relies on him for anything but material support. When he does not do this he becomes cruel and resorts to brute force, the primitive method of subduing the weaker one. This may be in a measure account for the most frequently named grounds for divorce—i. e., "desertion and cruelty."

The home has been and ever should be considered supreme. It has been the one substantial, tangible thing around which our present form of government, our civilization, has been built. When the home is divided it means destruction. If woman can adjust herself to the new conditions of her creating—the clubs, polls, etc.—it ought to be an easy matter to understand the temperament of the man she has chosen to be the parent of her children and a possible life companion. Her place outside the home, her economic value in the region of man's heretofore undisputed realm, has not yet been established, or, if so, it has been grudgingly conceded by man. Why?

He considers her a home product, a home producer. Lack of sympathetic understanding in each other's ambitions, desires, is the paramount cause for three-quarters of the unhappy marriages. The ambitions of one may increase while the other remains satisfied with old customs, old conditions. Sentiment, temperament, tastes, plans, even one's conception of love, life, fertility, death may change while the other one resolutely adheres to old theories. Under these conditions, any one of them is sufficiently strong to disturb the harmony of a perfect understanding. Thoughts become diversified, antagonism enters into the scheme of things and happiness, the one condition to which all humanity is forever striving to attain, becomes remote, temporarily, at least, and the divorce courts hear the plea of two more misunderstood creatures who desire to be freed from the irksome bonds of matrimony.

ANTI-PROFANITY CONGRESS.

A Remarkable Gathering to Be Held in Rome Next Month.

A most remarkable international congress against swearing and profane language will be held in Rome next month, when representatives from almost all the anti-profanity leagues in the world will meet. Strangely enough, Italy, which to-day is considered the country where swearing is most prevalent, boasts an institution against swearing which is seven centuries old and still flourishes in Florence under its old title of the Venerabile Arciconfraternita di Merce.

Toward the middle of the thirteenth century the Florentine porters used to congregate to drink and gamble in a wine-shop on the Via Adami, and they swore so much and so loudly that one of them, an old man named Piero di Luca Borsi, in the hope of saving his fellow workers' souls and at the same time putting a check on their profanity, proposed to impose a small fine on the swearers. His proposal was accepted and within a short time a large sum of money was collected, which it was decided should be used in some work of expiation.

In order that the money might benefit both the soul and the body, says an old chronicler, "six stretchers were purchased and destined to each of the six quarters of the city where a squad of porters was detailed to convey in them such persons as were ill to the hospitals or to carry the bodies of those who fell dead or had been murdered to the cemetery. And each porter was entitled to take a coin from the coin box for every trip."

The institution still exists and it counts among its members not only porters but the most prominent citizens of Florence, as well as the King of Italy and the archbishop. It is no longer supported by the fines imposed for swearing, but by voluntary contributions.

BRIARS HOLD BABY FAST AND IT IS FROZEN TO DEATH.

Held fast by briars bordering a ditch, John Heller, 3 years old, was found frozen to death near his father's home at Sayreville, N. J. The child had been missing several days.

The 12 principal crops of this country show a valuation of $5,000,000,000.

OLD AND NEW IN UNION

Modern Methods and Oriental Ways Side by Side in the Mexican Republic.

LEGENDS OF ANCIENT TOWNS.

Sleepy Tourists Awakened at 5 O'Clock A. M. by the Jangling of Sweet Bells.

Every high school girl knows that "Across the Alps lies Italy," but how many educated, well-informed Americans know what lies beyond the Rio Grande river in Mexico? I have now been a month in this wonderful—Old Mexico: writes an Omaha Bee correspondent from Guadalajara, and every minute of those thirty days has been filled with delight. Our eyes have feasted on a riot of color in sky and in the tinted colors on old cathedral walls. Every morning tumultuous ringing of church bells din in our ears—not ringing slow—funereal—sedate or in Sunday chime as with us, but each individual bell ringing like our old-time fire bell, all at the same time. Little tenor bells that can be heard only in a quietest—pensive—old Spain before our pilgrim fathers took sail on the Mayflower. The little bells swinging in exuberant excitement clear around the wooden beams to which they are strapped with bands of iron or with leather thongs. The great bells disdaining to move are struck with huge iron hammers on the outside rim or with ponderous clapper from within. Such a deafening hurly-burly of bell-ringing never awakened a sleepy tourist at 5 a. m. in any country but Mexico.

The scent of jasmine, of orange and lemon blossom and of roses and the new, almost overpowering odors of gorgeous tropical flowers fill the sun-laden air you breathe. The strange new fruit, sweet and luscious, that tickle our palates and the peppery dices that surprise our conventional hard-biting Anglo-Saxon stomachs. All these pleasant new surprises to our senses make the physical man happy, but such are these sensations, they sink into insignificance when compared with the appeal this old land makes to our imagination and to our sympathies. No town or hamlet but has its legend of old Aztec days or castle or church of Cortez, the conqueror.

This is Egypt over again. The Orient at our gates, and nothing charms the western mind as does the mystery that lies behind this old civilization. It is as if we saw our ancestors come to life again after 1,000 years. We can see here what was meant by the command, "Take up thy head and walk," when we see the noble man himself out of his scrape—the garment of one piece—that is at the same time his protection against the weather and his bed by night. We know that to go up on the housetop to pray—here, as in Palestine, is to do the conventional—the flat roof of the house is intended to live upon as well as to shelter the one-story rooms below. The sandals on their feet, the bottle made of whole pig or sheep skins—to carry water or "pulque," the native beverage—are the same we hear about in the "Lesson for the day" in our church at home. This is the simple life—and a more contented, carefree, devout people I have never seen.

Side by side with this oriental life, unhampered even with the rudiments of sanitary science, are evidences of the latest word in scientific mining and electrical apparatus, magnificent state and municipal buildings, enlightened provision in the way of state theaters, beautiful public parks, fountains and statuary and, mirabile dictu, we have a new Paris in the City of Mexico, with fine, wide asphalt streets that challenge any city in the world, most beautiful public buildings of the latest French architecture, costing from $2,000,000 to $12,000,000 each, model electric street car lines and cleaner streets than can be found elsewhere on this continent. A vigilant police administration that makes us ashamed of our great metropolitan cities in comparison.

A FRANK MILLIONAIRE.

Says He Has No Right to His Money.

Joseph Fels, the millionaire Philadelphia soapmaker, was in Cincinnati recently on an inspection tour to see how his crusade on poverty, to which he is contributing $100,000 every year, is getting along. At a dinner in a fashionable hotel, at which he was the guest of honor, he said:

"A man cannot be a millionaire without being a beneficiary of this system of robbery. I am well protected. There is a tariff that keeps for sign some of the country. I own stocks in street railway companies that are private property and are under public franchise and do not pay taxes on those franchises. I own stock in railroads that are private monopolies and should be public property. I own many things that I shouldn't."

"But I intend to hold on to these things in order to make more money with which to fight the system that has made me rich—at the expense of others. I believe I am spending my money better than Rockefeller is spending his."

Raising the Fallen.

"See that young fellow over there" inquired the talkative stranger.

"Yes, what about him?" inquired Smithson fretfully.

"That young fellow, mister, is devoting his life to a noble cause. The best part of his time is spent in an endeavor to raise fallen humanity—to lift those who are down and set them on their feet again."

"Indeed!" replied Smithson. "And who is he?"

"Oh, he's the attendant at a roller skating rink!"

Sunday School LESSON

Subject for April 17, 1910.
The question of John the Baptist.—Matt. 11:1-19.

Golden Text: (Revised Version): "But the witness which I have given for the works which the Father hath given Me to accomplish, the very works that I do, bear witness of Me that the Father hath sent Me."—John 5:36.

There can be no doubt that John the Baptist was a holy man, for he was filled with the Holy Ghost. When Herod was angry with him, the record says he admitted that John was a holy man. As Jesus gives him a glowing allusion on John 1:6-8, we can see that a better life than that of the world, that this holy man, the "prophet of the Holy Spirit" and "the witness" who was not washed in the Jordan.

By being so willing when they went into the wilderness to see, when John preached there, did they think they were hearing a man as mad as a reed shaken by the wind? This shows that He believed John was stable and unmoved by his captivity. Or did they go out to see a man arrayed in the garments of a king? Had he been willing to buckle to Herod, he might have been so arrayed. They went out in the wilderness to hear the last of the Old Testament prophets, as Jesus said, "I am not saying that I am a prophet, as the first of the prophets, Elijah, whom he resembled." He was more than a prophet. He was the herald of the King. He made the people ready for the Lord. This is the true greatness—to be filled with the Holy Ghost, to be a fearless preacher and to be the means of preparing men to meet Jesus.

He then adds an apparent contradiction thus: "Notwithstanding, he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he." He wishes to show the grandeur of the kingdom of heaven—the New Dispensation—and how much more of privilege than the best of us have than did the saints of the Old Dispensation, with its dim light. Jesus said of Himself that His disciples should perform greater works than Himself. "From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence."

There have been various interpretations of this passage. But surely, like all Scripture, it has a connection with the context—the subject which Jesus has been discussing. This is a gentle rebuke to John for being in haste to have the kingdom come immediately. Men are usually in a hurry to bring in the kingdom of God before His appointed time, and beset it, like an army besieges a city to take it by force. Just as at one time the people wished to make Jesus King by force. Our Lord shows that John is not alone in his mistake. It is the error of this day. From the time of John's first appearing to the moment of our Lord's speaking, men had been violently disposed to hurry the kingdom into premature existence. They will have it now. They will take it by storm." (Winton)

All the prophets prophesied until John. The prophets taught in type, symbol and prediction, but John went beyond them all and introduced Jesus when the others had only predicted. "If ye will receive it, if ye are willing to receive the truth, 'This is Elias, which was for to come.' This is the Greek word for Elijah. This is a reference to Malachi (Ch. 4:5): 'Behold I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and terrible day.' John was asked by the priests and Levites if he was Elijah (John 1:21), and he said No. Jesus means that He came as an Elijah—that is, in the spirit of Elijah. So said Gabriel (Luke 1:16). He was like Elijah in so many respects that Jesus said, 'Elijah has come already' (Matt. 17:10-13). Some have advanced the doctrine that there is to be a third Elijah come just before the Second Advent. We have been unable to find any such teaching in the Bible.

Sin is always antagonistic to holiness, and holy men will always be opposed by those who have the carnal mind. It opposed John and it opposed Jesus. The two met similar treatment. Jesus says these carnal opposers were like children playing in the market places. They were playing weddings and funerals just as children in all ages have done. Some contrary child would not play because he could not make his way. So, too, other children did not play. "We have heard you say you have not danced," etc. Some thought John too severe and Jesus too far the other way.

"Wisdom is justified of her children." Those people who want to be right and are willing to be led by the truth of God are the children of wisdom, and they will recognize the truth when they hear it, in spite of the sophistry of men. This is the hope of the holiness preacher. Thank God there are people who want to be right and will follow the light revealed to them.

This passage is a parallel to Luke 7:29. "All the people that heard him (John) and the publicans justified God, being baptized of John."

Never feeling entirely satisfied with having accepted the doctrine of the Second Advent, Episcopal Church choir at this city, Rev. Wilhelm, now a prosperous New York merchant, has sent to the trustees of the church a check for $100. This sum, he explains, is to cover the original sum and interest thereon.

Draft of a bill prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors on those parts of the Chesapeake River and Standing Rock Indian Reservations in North and South Dakota which are to be opened to settlement on April 1 next, has been submitted to the House by Secretary Ballinger, of the Interior Department.

The preachers of Marshalltown, Iowa, are against the Sunday funeral. By a resolution passed at the meeting of the Marshalltown Pastors' Association, the funeral which are to be opened to settlement on April 1 next, has been submitted to the House by Secretary Ballinger, of the Interior Department.

KING CUTS DOWN PRICE

Purveyors to England's Monarch Are Restricted to a Profit of 10 Per Cent.

EDWARD MAKES A SCHEDULE.

His Majesty Sees Tradesmen Supply Wholesalers' Bills for Purposes of Comparison.

It may be hardly credible, but it is a fact that while the struggling citizens of America are being forced to pay exorbitant profits on the necessities of life the King of England permits none of his tradesmen to profit more than allows them a profit of 10 per cent. The New York World says: They can like it or leave it, but those are his terms.

In the days of Her Majesty Queen Victoria who was given the reputation of being stingy, because she never gave anything away, the royal trade was not any easier. And they did not give their surpluses. They kept their money in the treasury day after day, waiting for the king's order. The castle at Windsor is less than a mile from the city of London. The hill to the castle is steep, so most of the hotels have two horses. The fare for a carriage is half a dollar. For a horse-drawn carriage the fare is only 25 cents. The charge to her Majesty when she ordered a carriage to bring a guest from the castle was $250.

But the king's order is given on a bill, which is a beautiful engraved paper. But presently the tradesman is granted a profit of 10 per cent. He says that is too much. He allows the extra few cents because he insists on the hotel keeping his horses as his master of the house, as a respectable-looking man, and he is a steady customer all the year round, whether they are wanted or not. There is in England a great deal of money to be made. It is one of the best possible forms of advertisement. His Majesty makes the money pay for it. A royal order is always given on a large and beautiful bill, which is a beautiful engraved paper. But presently the tradesman is granted a profit of 10 per cent. He says that is too much. A royal order is always given on a large and beautiful bill, which is a beautiful engraved paper. But presently the tradesman is granted a profit of 10 per cent. He says that is too much. He allows the extra few cents because he insists on the hotel keeping his horses as his master of the house, as a respectable-looking man, and he is a steady customer all the year round, whether they are wanted or not. There is in England a great deal of money to be made. It is one of the best possible forms of advertisement. His Majesty makes the money pay for it. To Rural Patrons
 Postmaster McNeal has received from F. V. DeGraw, fourth assistant postmaster general, the following circular in regard to rural routes:

Dear Sir: You are directed to inform yourself with reference to the condition of roads, and bridges on the routes out of your office, and if you find that they need improvement you should present the matter in the strongest and most positive way to the patrons and road officials informing them that improvements must be made as soon as practicable. If, after a reasonable time has elapsed, the improvements have not been made or started you will report this fact to this office in order that action may be taken looking to the discontinuance of the service.

The department is not immediately concerned in elaborate road improvements, but in the interests of the best service to the largest number of patrons it must insist upon roads being kept in good repair, the lack of which is usually due to improper drainage, and unsuitable grading and surface work, which can be easily and cheaply accomplished by timely work and the regular use of the split-log drag or similar device.

It is the desire of the department that you earnestly request patrons of rural delivery out of your office to paint their boxes and the posts to which they are attached, a pure white color. This course, if pursued, will not only result in benefit to the patron in serving to protect his box and the post from damage by the weather; but will give all boxes a uniform color and serve to fix the identity in all parts of the country as U. S. mail boxes, and will give them a much neater and sightlier appearance than they now possess. It is also desired that patrons be induced to imprint their names and box numbers on boxes in black block letters about two inches high. Posts to which boxes should be attached should be set in an easily accessible position at the side of the road and boxes securely fastened to a projecting arm.

It is also desired that you endeavor to induce road officials to paint upon the posts of boxes which are located at cross-roads (but not at each sign the name of the town or village to which the cross-roads lead, with an indicator showing the direction.

A reasonable time will be given to carry these suggestions into practice and it is hoped that all will cooperate in this good work.

Every family and especially those who reside in the country should be provided at all times with a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment. There is no telling when it may be wanted in case of an accident or emergency. It is most excellent in all cases of rheumatism, sprains and bruises. Sold by all dealers.

Boys Acre Corn Contest
 The State Board of Agriculture has offered to the Nebraska boy under eighteen years of age, growing the largest yield of corn from one acre of ground in the year 1910, $50; the second, $25; third, $20; fourth, $15; fifth, $10, and to the sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth and eleventh, $5 each.

The entire labor of preparing the ground, planting, cultivating and harvesting of this acre of corn to be performed by the contestant who enters the contest by recording his name in the office of W. R. Mellor, secretary, not later than May 20, 1910.

Said acre to be measured, husked and weighed in the presence of two disinterested freeholders, residents of said county in which the acre of said corn is located. Said committee forward affidavit as to weight and requirements of specifications in this contest to the secretary of the State Board of Agriculture not later than November 15, 1910. The contestant shall file with the secretary a full and detailed account of his method of performing the work, fertilizers used, if any, and character of the soil on which the crop was grown. On request of the secretary, a sample of ten ears must be exhibited by prize winners at the office of this board in Lincoln.

The Sound Sleep of Good Health
 The restorative power of sound sleep can not be over estimated and any ailment that prevents it is a menace to health. J. L. Southers, Eau Claire, Wis., says: "For a long time I have been unable to sleep soundly nights, because of pains across my back, and soreness of my kidneys. My appetite was very poor and my general condition was much run down. I have been taking Foley's Kidney Pills but a short time and now sleep as sound as a rock. I eat and enjoy my meals, and my general condition is greatly improved. I can honestly recommend Foley's Kidney Pills as I know they have cured me." Felber's Pharmacy.

Nebraska retailers would do well to remember the anti-toy pistol and fire cracker law which became effective January 1, last. It is now unlawful to sell, use, offer or keep for sale toy revolvers shooting blank cartridges, blank cartridges for toy revolvers or fire crackers more than five inches in length or more than three-quarters of an inch in diameter. The penalty is a fine not exceeding $100 or imprisonment not exceeding thirty days in the county jail. The enforcement of this law ought to help considerably in making a safer Fourth.

Diarrhoea should be cured without loss of time, and by a medicine which like Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy not only cures promptly but produces no unpleasant after effects. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. Sold by all dealers.

The editor of the Filger Herald says: "To be in keeping with the times and the progress and prosperity of the town, we have decided to build a home for our plant, one that is to our liking and in which we will be better prepared to take care of the business and enjoy more of the comforts and blessings of life."

Putting the home town on the map and keeping it there—making a better market town and a better residential town—is a matter of intelligent co-operation on the part of the business men.

Intelligent co-operation means forgetting past differences of opinion and working unitedly for the common good.

No business man in any town can achieve maximum success unless the town as a whole has first achieved that success.

Every knock against any good business man in the town is a knock against every other good business man there.

Every knock against the town by a resident is a boost for a competing town.

Take your petty jealousies and differences out behind the barn and bury them forever. Then get busy and organize for a co-operative effort that will make life more worth living. You can if you will!—Trade Exhibit.

Your tongue is coated. Your breath is foul. Headaches come and go. These symptoms show that your stomach is the trouble. To remove the cause is the first thing, and Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will do that. Easy to take and most effective. Sold by all dealers.

Summer Frocks
 "The temptation to have twice as many dresses this summer as you need is really a very big sort of a temptation," says Grace Margaret Gould in Woman's Home Companion for April. "The new fabrics are so alluring that each one seems just suited to a certain type of gown. The linens, for instance, are shown in the greatest number of new and fascinating weaves. There is the granite linen; which resembles a basket weave and has a sheen of silk through it, and is just the smartest sort of material for a one-piece dress or a skirt-and-coat suit. Then there is the new linen which comes in the very latest French shades and is hard to tell from poplin. It shows a decided cord. The Shantung linens are a serviceable substitute for the silks by that name, and every woman who gets just a bit of a glimpse of the new fancy linens in black and white effect will feel she must have at least one dress fashioned of them."

One Conductor Who Was Cured
 Mr. Wilford Adams is his name, and he writes about it. "Some time ago I was confined to my bed with chronic rheumatism. I used two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy with good effect, and the third bottle put me on my feet and I resumed work as conductor on the Lexington, Ky., Street Railway. It gave me more relief than any medicine I had ever used, and it will do all you claim in cases of rheumatism by eliminating the uric acid from the blood. Felber's Pharmacy."

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL
 Health is Worth Saving, and Some Wayne People Know How to Save It.

Many Wayne people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and adhes and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a Wayne citizen's recommendation.

M. K. Rickabaugh, of Wayne, Nebraska, says: "A member of my family has taken Doan's Kidney Pills for annoying symptoms of kidney trouble and has found great relief. This remedy is worthy of our endorsement."

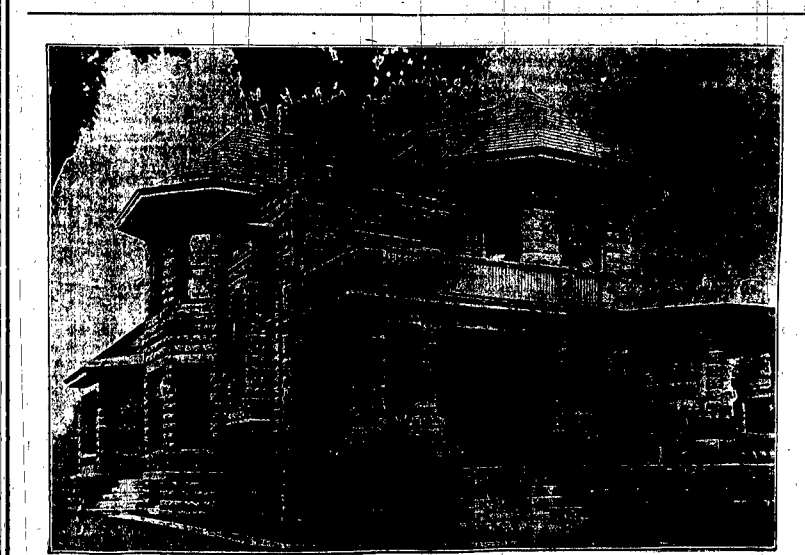

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
