The incubator factory is one of the most desirable institutions in the city. The carnival and baseball tourna-ment at Carroll began yesterday. Monday and Tnesday were devoted to putting the finishing touches on preparations for the big event. The baseball park is in perfect shape, and an ample grand-stand has been, provided to accommodate the crowds. Carroll citixens, led by a committee chosen for the purpose, have left nothing undone to entertain their guests sumptuously. Aside from baseball, Savidge Brothers are providing amusements. Besides the shows for which admis-tion is charged, they furnish several free attractions every day, and all of the preformances are first class. There will be two ball games today, participated in by Wayne, Randolph, Laurel and Carroll clubs.

The city councer maximum arrang-revision the clectric light ordinance, and the policy to pursue in arrang-ing rateshas given rise to considerable discussion and perplexity. Whether to have a scale varying according to consumption, or a greater rate for light than for power, must be de-cleded. Installation of the day ser-vice is made practical by developing use of electricity for power, and the rate ought to be made cheap enough to justify supplanting gasoline en-gines with electric motors. No power is so satisfactory as electric power, and people will use it if pro-perly induced to do so. In other r cities the rate is reduced for motors, and the same course must be follow-THF PUBLIC SCHOOLS. The public schools will open on Monday, September 5. Early September Offerings

New Goods and Big Bargains

New goods, new Fall styles, are coming to the store now and taking their places to be welcomed by you. The 'new goods that are arriving now are advance heralds showing the trend of the new Fall styles. Most of the new arrivals are exclusive showings and will not be duplicated. If you desire exclusiveness in dress you will do well to pay this store an early visit.

Worsted Dress Goods

New patterns in exclusive lengths, no two dress patterns alike except in the cheaper materials. The values will be unquestioned. The prices in all wool materials range up from 50 cents

Coats and Suits

Extra care with which these garments have been bought and the liberality with which they have been priced make any one of them a good bargain for you. We have done everything in our power to make our ready made apparel show better values and more exclusiveness than ever before-and the selection is made easy by the large stock that we carry. Suits $15.00 to $30.00,

Silk Waists

Though the showing of Fall waists is not complete we have just received some exceptionally well made waists, of an excellent taffeta in black and colors. We "want you to examine these and pass your judgment upon them. The most of these new arrivals sell for $5.00.

Sweaters

For all purposes and for big and little, old or young, man or woman there will be more sweaters used this Fall than ever before. Our new sweaters are beginning to come and will all be reasonably priced.

Groceries

Interesting specials are always to be found in our grocery department where we have to sell only the best and purest of things to eat. This week we offer: Big lot of 25 cent canned goods, prunes, peaches, pears, cherries, pineapple, plums and apricots, special price per can 20 cents.

Olives in quart jars, 25 cents. Sour or sweet pickles in quart jars, 25 cents.

Enjoying Wisconsin

Enjoying Wisconsin. A letter to the Herald from Hen-ry Lessman who is visiting in Wis-consin, says he is having a pleasant time among old friends. He is ac-companied by his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Voights. Mr. Lessman says crops are looking very well there, corn being good and oat turning out from forty-five to fifty bushels to the acre. Barley is fine and worth 65 cents per bushel.
