MUSIC hath charms

Hufford sells musical instruments of all kinds.

Pianos, Organs Phonographs

and all of the smaller musical instruments sold on easy terms at lowest possible prices.

J. E. HUFFORD

With its tiling and graded roadway, Lower Main street has been greatly improved.

A number of families will move to Wayne this fall, attracted by opportunities for employment at the incubator factory.

J. H. Kate was invited to attend a week of entertainment to be given by advertising agencies of Chicago in that city soon, but regrets that he cannot accept on account of moving into the new factory. He attended last year, and had a good time.

WAYNE DEFEATS STANTON

THE SIXTH GAME OF SERIES

Two Teams Tie for Honors—An Angry Altercation on the Diamond Gives Annoyance.

About fifty Wayne people, including the ball team, boarded automobiles Tuesday morning and drove to Stanton for the ball game with the team of that place. The Wayne boys won in a score of 3 to 1. It was the sixth game of the series with Stanton, and the standing is now three to three. It is probable another game will take place to dispose of the tie. The weather was ideal for the trip to Stanton, and the game was closely contested from start to finish.

However, a disagreeable incident happened on the diamond during the progress of the game, and somewhat marred the pleasure of the day. The Stanton catcher who is said not to have a very happy disposition, got into an angry altercation with John Ahern, one of the Wayne players, after having been called "out" at second base, which was held by Ahern.
It looked as though Stanton man was largely at fault, though it is believed that the difficulty might have been quickly and easily adjusted if the town marshal hadn't been prodded to think it was his duty to arrest the Wayne boy. Accompanied by some of his friends, Ahern went with the marshal to the thoughtful and sensible county judge, to whom the trouble was explained, and no complaint was made. The good offices of leading Stanton citizens were effective, and were thoroughly appreciated. The town marshal soon quieted his own zeal to exercise authority, and saw the folly of trying to give importance to something trivial.

The unfortunate occurrence was deplored quite much by Stanton
as by the Wayne visitors. Stanton people are congenial and friendly, and the good feeling between the two towns will not be allowed to be disturbed.

REFRESHMENTS STOLEN.

The pleasure of two Methodist gatherings Friday night was somewhat marred by the theft of refreshments that had been prepared for them.

Members of the Women's Home Mission society, together with their husbands, met at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Heckert to listen to a special program, after which ice cream and cake were to have been served. Everything was served pleasantly until time to serve refreshments when it was discovered that parties had entered the kitchen and stolen all the cream and cake.

At the same time Mrs. Lutgen's bible class was being entertained in the basement of the church, and when time came to pass around the cake and cream, no cake could be found. It had been stolen.

The Herald is informed that these are not the first cases of theft of refreshments prepared for social festivities, and it is said a determined effort will be made to stop such lawless practices by detecting and prosecuting the guilty ones if possible. It should no more be treated as a joke than any other petty stealing. In truth, it is more annoying than usual petty thievery because of the disappointment and humiliation caused those who have prepared the good things for their guests. Stealing of refreshments, though perhaps meaning little loss in cash value, may easily lead to greater thefts, involving the guilty
in most serious trouble.

HAPPY WEDDING.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Whalen was the scene of a quiet wedding at 6:30 Tuesday morning when Miss Jessie Kissei, sister of Mrs. Whalen, was united in marriage to Mr. Roy Upp, both of the contracting parties being from Spearville, Kas. Rev. J. W. Kirkpatrick of the M. E. church performed the ceremony, and Miss Hazel Whalen, niece of the bride, played the wedding march. Following the ceremony and hearty congratulations, the happy couple,
with a circle of relatives and friends,
sat down to a sumptuous breakfast.

The bride was becomingly attired in a dainty gown of white, and the groom in the conventional black.

Mr. and Mrs. Upp departed on the 8 o'clock train for their future home at Spearville where the groom is engaged in the grain business.
En route home they will visit in Omaha and Kansas City.

Mrs. Upp had been visiting in Wayne since last July, and while here won many friends who extend cordial good wishes.

DEPUTY TREASURER RESIGNS.

Forest Hughes has resigned his position as deputy county treasurer for the purpose of attending the state normal school at this place.
However, he will devote Saturdays and such other time as he may have to spare to work in the treasurer's office. He has given the county good service, and Treasurer Beebe is pleased to be able to retain his help a part of the time. Mrs.
Beebe, wife of the treasurer, will be succeeded to the deputyship. She has had experience in the work and will become an efficient assistant.

CASES DISMISSED.

Two cases filed in the county

court last week have been dismissed.

The case of the state vs. Miller, the boy who was charged in a complaint made by J. H. Criss with simple assault on the latter's boy, was dismissed on account of the youth of the two parties involved.
The county attorney counseled
the boys to behave themselves in the future, and advised that unless they did so, resort to the reform school
for punishment would be made.

The action of the state vs. Powers and VanNorman, charged with destruction of property, W. S.
Goldie being the complaining witness, was dismissed, the trouble
having been amicably settled.

PROFESSIONAL BEGGAR FINED

Sheriff Mears captured an Italian beggar named David Surrogg who was begging from house to house in Wayne Tuesday, landed him in jail,
and yesterday brought him before the county judge on a charge of vagrancy. The Italian pleaded guilty and was assessed a fine of $10
and costs which he paid promptly and which he was amply able to pay.

The fact is, the Italian was a sham, as many professional beggars are, and was simply begging because of his constitutional abundantly of nerve, it was easier than useful toil. Between $40 and $50 were found in his possession, besides receipts for money sent to his wife in Chicago, one receipt being for $78.
Sheriff Mears was repairing one of his houses in the south part of town
when the Italian happened along.
The sheriff became suspicious at the Italian's plea of poverty and debility, and investigated, finding that the man was feigning and was imposing on the credulity of the public.

Thus, he was taken in charge.
The Italian confessed that he was begging along the way from the Black Hills, having come out on the same mission over a line in South Dakota, and he confided to the sheriff that this was the most productive territory for his business that he had found. While in jail
his ailments did not seem to trouble him, and when released he said he had concluded to get out of Wayne and out of Nebraska as soon as possible.

Sheriff Mears did all in stopping the Italian's undesired harvest.

RENDERS A DECREE.

Judge Graves was at Wayne last night to render a decision in the case of E. Owen, et al, vs. the board of county commissioners, et al. The Wayne Agricultural society, being an action to quiet title, the court finding in favor of the plaintiff. The case was tried before Judge Graves at this place last year, and was taken under advisement.

Big Yield of Grain.

Lou Owen who arrived home Tuesday from Fremont county, Idaho, reports that his brother, Frank Owen, who owns a big farm there, recently thrashed 10,000 bushels of grain from his land. As a record-breaking thrashing outfit, he mentions that 3,400 bushels were thrashed in one day. Others of the Wayne colony in Fremont county are doing well and are pleased with the season's harvest. The big yield there shows the profit in farming and indicates what may be expected in the way of future land values.

Mr. Owen says he had a most enjoyable trip. He was impressed with the improvement at Salt Lake City and the size and splendor of the Morman tabernacle.

Mrs. Sam Winsor was a visitor to Sioux City this morning.

There will be regular services at the Baptist church next Sunday.

Supt. Elsie Littell and Miss Venner-berg went to Sioux City this morning for a day's visit.

Miss Blanche Gaertner departed
this morning for Enid, Oklahoma, where she will teach school the coming year.

Mrs. D. J. Harden of Osakis, Minn., arrived yesterday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. E. B. B-young and family.

Mrs. Sarah Morehouse left for her home at Omaha this morning, after a pleasant visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Weber.

Mr. Geo. E. Drebert and wife and Mrs. Ed. B. Fanske of Pierce, visited in this city yesterday with L. A.
Fanske, the jeweler. They came over in an automobile.

J. W. Bartlett arrived home last evening from a two months' visit with his son in Adams county, Ill. While gone he visited the neighborhood where he was raised and which he had not seen for forty-two years.
Mrs. Bartlett who is visiting another son in Nevada, will soon return home.

Gustave Danger of Sholes, was a petitioner for naturalization papers at the clerk of the district court's office yesterday. He was accompanied by August Hagenstein and Julius Hermann as witnesses. Also on Tuesday Henry Eskman of Carroll, was here on the same mission, accompanied by H. C. Paulson and J. F. Stanton as witnesses.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS COMMENCE

ENROLLMENT IS INCREASED

Crowded Condition to be Relieved
When Normal Opens—New Decorations Appreciated.

Schools organized Monday with a larger enrollment than usual.
Following are the numbers enrolled in the respective grades:
Kindergarten, 34; first grade, 47;
second grade, 44; third grade, 55;
fourth grade, 44; fifth grade, 42;
sixth grade, 42; seventh grade, 38;
eighth grade, 28; high school, 88.

From these figures it is evident that the grades are somewhat overcrowded but when the normal opens a number, probably fifty, will be assigned to the model schools.

Teachers and pupils alike are enjoying the beautiful statue, Diana,
placed in the main hall by the good women of the city who are decorating the beautiful school building artistically and systematically.
The teachers hope to do a great deal toward decorating the building
during this year.

Tot Chapin, a graduate of the Winside high school, and Fannie Crittell, last year a junior in the Crittell high school, have enrolled in the senior class. This makes sixteen seniors, with prospects for one or two more.

Work is moving along very nicely
in all departments. Go and see, and help make this the best year of school Wayne has ever had.

The Royal Neighbors.

The ninety-day member getting contest in the Royal Neighbor camp closed September 6, with ten new members as a result. Eight of them were adopted Tuesday evening.
Other two having been adopted at a previous meeting. Neighbors Short and Schroer were captives of the contending sides, one condition of the contest being that the losing side must furnish treats for the winning side.
Neighbor Short's side was declared
the winner and Neighbor Schroer's side to furnish treats, which will be done right royally at our next meeting, October 4, with supper and a program.

There will be more candidate for adoption at that meeting also. We look forward to a good time. If you are a Royal Neighbor or wish to become one, please call on the Recorder.

Successful Canning

If you ever had poor luck with your canned fruits, jellies, etc., it was probably because the containers were not properly sealed. Use our PURIFIED PARAFFINE this year and the results will be all you can wish. It makes a tasteless covering easy to use and to remove. Cheaper than sealing wax can be used year after year. Sealing Wax, Preservatives, Etc., if you desire them. Can furnish them in any quantity at lowest prices.

THE MAN WHO IS INDUSTRIOUS ALONE

stands a poor chance of succeeding. He must be prudent and enterprising as well. It is decidedly imprudent to keep cash on hand when it could be so much more safe.

IN THE VAULTS OF THE BANK.

The bank wants your account, and you need the security of the bank's vaults. Why not get together?

1910 Pack WHITE HOUSE Goods

White House canned goods are arriving every day. My entire contract should be delivered all ready for sale, not later than the first week in October. Future sales for fall delivery exceed 5,000 cans and all orders will be filled and delivered upon arrival of entire line. Price on Red Cherries, Raspberries, Blackberries and Strawberries remain unchanged. Your order for a case, assorted, will have proper care and be included in my regular fall distribution. White House Canned Fruits have the reputation of being "like mother makes," but for the modern facilities few mothers can equal the line of our specialties, etc. Call us up on the subject. We'll quote for you, and answer all questions relative to the sample lines.

90 per cent. Repeaters

My July introduction of Splendid flour was a success in every sense of the word. Over 300 families availed themselves of the opportunity and fully 90 per cent. reported as being well satisfied and became constant friends and users. Why Splendid is better than other flours: why it's the best all purpose flour: why it makes whiter, sweeter loaves and more of them to the sack: why it pleases nine out of every ten housewives better than other flours, I do not know, but the boss-miller knows. He has spent most a lifetime to perfect the milling of a flour to accomplish these very things. Splendid is now one of Wayne's leading flours. Its name indicates its quality. Remember—bring back the empty sack if you are not pleased, and get your money—that's my guarantee.

DOES IT PAY?

Oats have not been profitable for several years, and yet it is necessary to sow some kind of small grain in this section to rotate crops. Why not raise more wheat, especially spring wheat? Wheat has produced good results, paying handsomely, yielding from 15 to 25 bushels per acre. It's right around the dollar mark. This part of Nebraska has produced this season as good wheat as they raise in the northern states. Why not raise more wheat if it pays? We will clean your seed wheat for you free of charge. We buy wheat according to quality, grading all wheat after dumping into elevator. If you bring good, sound clean wheat, you get more money per bushel for it than you get for shriveled, smutty, dirty wheat. In other words, you get well paid for spending a little more time and labor in preparing your soil before sowing your wheat and seeing that it is well covered after seeding. We do not dump all wheat into one bin, but keep the cream of the wheat for milling. That is WHY our Flour is A-No. 1. For sale by all Wayne merchants.

GARROLL CARNIVAL CLOSES

SATISFIED CROWDS ATTEND

Savidge Brothers Meet Expectations—Baseball is Attractive—Other Carroll News.

The carnival and baseball tournament at Carroll last week satisfied the expectations of the management in both attendance and interest aroused. The attendance increased with the closing days, and the attractions furnished by Savidge Brothers and the games on the baseball diamond were considered first class. Many people were present from Wayne, Randolph and other neighboring towns, and all seemed well pleased.

The Index contains this review of the ball games Thursday and Friday: In the game between Carroll and Randolph, Carroll won in one of the best and most closely contested games played on the home grounds this year. Alderman was in the box for Carroll and had Randolph at his mercy with two hits off him. The Carroll boys succeeded in getting seven hits off Limonge who was in the box for Randolph. Score, Carroll 3, Randolph 1. Errors, Carroll 1, Randolph 2. Struck out by Alderman 11, Limonge 6.

In the second game Wayne defeated Laurel in a ten inning game by a score of 6-3. Laurel had the best of the game and if it had not been for a few costly errors would have won.

The games Friday were loosely played and were anything but exhibitions of ball. Randolph won from Laurel, score 10-7; Wayne from Carroll, 13-6.

Notes from the Index.

William H. Hughes who has been in Wales for some time is now visiting relatives and friends at Utica, N. Y.

Thomas Hamer returned from Wales, Monday night. Mr. Hamer had been in that country for about a year on business and visiting.

The Carroll public schools opened Monday with the following teachers: Prof. Wright, principal; Miss Gannon, assistant; Miss White of Wayne, grammar; Miss Anderson of Wakefield, intermediate; Miss Young, primary. The board has been very particular in the selection and it is believed that a very efficient corps has been employed.

Grandpa Evans died early Monday morning, August 22, at the home of his son near Bloomfield. He was just 86 years of age and has been in bed for about four months. The funeral services were held at the Welch M. E. church near Carroll, Nebraska, August 23rd, Rev. J. F. Davies, formerly from Waterville, N. Y., an acquaintance of Grandpa's relatives and friends at that place, officiated. Deceased leaves two sons, Henry Evans, of Bloomfield, and David Evans, of Waterville, N. Y., and three grandchildren, two grandsons and one granddaughter, Mrs. Jennie Season of Wayne.

IN THE VICINITY.

The Randolph Enterprise announces that candidates, regardless of party, must hereafter pay for the advertising they get through its columns.

Winside Tribune: Our condolences are extended to those republican papers that delivered impertinent remarks at the funeral of J. F. Boyd two years ago.

The business men of Randolph found they had $700 on hand after paying all expenses of their late carnival, and now they propose to have a base ball tournament September 8 and 9.

Osmond is getting ready to have a big carnival September 14 and 15. To advertise the event Osmond business men visited neighboring towns in a body September 5. They demonstrated that booster excursions may not necessarily be confined to commercial clubs of big centers.

Pierce Leader: Frank Powers of Wayne joined his family here Saturday and visited until Sunday noon at the I. Fry home, when they returned home. Mr. Powers is engaged in the dray business at Wayne and old Pierce friends will be glad to know that he is doing a good business.

Pierce Leader: J. C. Ecker, the bright editorial writer of the Winside Tribune, took in the fair and carnival at this place last Thursday, paying the Leader a fraternal call while in Pierce. Mr. Ecker does not devote all his time to his paper, but travels a good deal writing insurance, and that was his business here.

Randolph Enterprise: G. W. Hyatt went to Homingford, Monday returning home Thursday morning. Mr. Hyatt says that the country from Gordon west was visited by a killing frost about a week ago, and around Homingford with the exception of north from town, all the corn is killed. Potatoes are a good crop, and small grain was good.

A. T. Chapin and daughter returned last Thursday from their outing trip to Yellowstone park and other points of interests in the west. While away they also looked after land interests at Wray, Colorado, and visited relatives at Frazier Col., Sheridan, Wyo., and Crawford, Nebr. They report a delightful time.

Winside Tribune: Last Saturday was the 25th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Koepke, and to fittingly celebrate the event, about seventy-five families were invited to their home in the evening. A large bower was erected where the light fantastic was tripped until a late hour and all enjoyed themselves to the uttermost. Mr. and Mrs. Koepke were the recipients of many useful and beautiful presents.

From "South of Town" news in Wakefield Republican: Do not blame Otto Fredrikson because you could not vote at the primary Aug. 16, in Logan precinct for he was not appointed to serve on the board. Those who were appointed by the clerk of the district court were Levi Dilts, Charley Oliver, O. F. Crane, J. H. Mitchell, Harry Britton. Only Dilts and Oliver were present so there was no election held. I am told that according to law there can't be an election held in Logan precinct this fall. As far as Dahlman is concerned it don't make much difference. He would not get very many votes in the precinct anyway.

Laurel Advocate: While at Belden Friday evening, the editor met W. H. Barbee, from near Carroll, who stated that the report was current at Carroll that Laurel was quarantined on account of infantile paralysis, trains not even being allowed to stop at the station. This made us smile. When we told Mr. Barbee that there had not been a case in Laurel, and only one or two within eight or ten miles, Mr. Barbee said it was as he thought. It's queer how some stories will get started, and when started will continue to grow. It's been over two weeks since we heard of a case of infantile paralysis, and evidently the rains and cool weather checked it.

Hartington News: Elijah Duncanson fell from his wagon about eight o'clock Monday evening and broke his neck, dying instantly. He was about thirty-one years of age and had been farming about twelve miles southwest of this city. He had been drinking heavily and had with him in the wagon a gallon jug of whiskey. Persons who witnessed his departure from the business street say that his team was driven at a run. The body was found by John Walz as it lay near a street crossing, where he evidently had been thrown from the seat in rounding the corner. The sheriff and coroner were called and the body was taken to F. Reifert's undertaking rooms. Coroner Reifert decided that the manner of the accident being so manifest it would not be necessary to hold a coroner's inquest. The parents, who live at Hastings, were notified by wife. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Duncanson, are here and leave tomorrow morning for Hastings, where the funeral will be held and the body will be interred.

R. A. Beach of Bloomfield has sold his Wayne residence located west of the German church to Louie Knowl who lives six miles northeast of this place. The consideration was $1,800, and the deal was made through the agency of Kohl & Berry.

L. J. Courtright has the contract for the work of repapering and re-painting apartments at the normal school. He also has contracts for painting J. H. Felber's new house, Mrs. J. M. Pile's residence and the new house being built by Jno. T. Bressler.

Dream That Saved Life. "Hints conveyed by dreams are occasionally worth heeding," says the London Chronicle. "The late Lord Dufferin when in Paris dreamed that he was about to enter the way to the 'certain' hotel, he was startled to find that the attendant was a double of the driver of the horse in his dream. He then rose promptly, left the elevator and walked to his room. He heard the top something in the mechanism gave way, and the passengers met their death. They also, one wonders, been forewarned in a dream?"

The Main Objection. "No," said the principal constituents with a shudder, "we can never vote for that man for the city council. He would be suspected from his very occupation. He is a gardener." "What has that to do with it?" asked the candidate's friend. "Naturally, he would take to grafting."

CRYING FOR HELP.

Lots of it in Wayne, But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys cry for help. Not an organ in the whole body so delicately constructed. Not one so important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous. There can be no health when there is poisoned blood.

Backache is one of the first indications of kidney trouble. It is the kidneys' cry for help.

Doan's Kidney Pills are what is wanted. Are just what overworked kidney need.

They strengthen and invigorate the kidneys; help them to do their work; never fail to cure any case of kidney disease.

Read the proof from a Wayne citizen.

R. R. Smith, of Wayne, Nebr., says: "Some time ago I had severe pains in the small of my back that were always worse when I stooped or lifted. I had to pass the kidney secretions too frequently and felt tired and depressed most of the time. Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of this trouble and proved of benefit in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The Omaha Bee says "the open primary in Nebraska will be a closed incident as soon as the next legislature has a chance to repeal it."

Omaha bank clearings for August show an increase of $8,777,245 over the same month last year.

Officers of the Commercial club have been making an effort to induce the railroad company to build a new depot at this place.

Rest rooms, centrally located, suitably furnished and well handled, are no doubt advantageous to a city.

There is talk of an extra session of the legislature, at the instance of Mr. Bryan, to pass an initiative and referendum law.

The amateur French astronomer who said that the comet which caused a good deal of fury last spring was really not Halley's, is now receiving some support from those who assume expert knowledge about celestial bodies and performance.

Former President Roosevelt in his talks at Sioux City and Sioux Falls has taken the position of student in regard to the tariff.

Oregon has a law which makes "stealing from a dwelling" a felony, regardless of values and regardless of whether the offense could be characterized as burglary or not.

Medford and Ashland are two Oregon cities that show what pluck and enterprise will do on one hand and what sluggishness and indifference will do on the other.

Here is a proposition that the Wayne commercial club might promote with good prospect of success, because it would be entirely feasible, and would accrue profit to the railroad company which we will mention, as well as to the towns interested.

These words from the late Robert Ingersoll have been quoted everywhere:

"Make home the loafing place and play ground for your children, and ten chances to one the little feet that have tracked your floor with mud will not turn their footprints along the paths of vice and crime."

"The Sioux City Daily News emphasizes a point in the following editorial that may be helpful to parents and their boys and girls who are doubtful as to the wise course to follow:

"A widow was struggling to keep together and educate a family of four children. The only breadwinner, a son, was earning $25 a month in a law office, but he had been to study law. He was offered $50 a month as a clerk elsewhere, but with a clerical future. The additional salary was offered. A family council was held. The mother said: 'There is a future where you are; we will manage to get along some way on the $25,' and the $50 offer was turned down."

"How often in life we do as Esau did—sacrifice future, welfare for present gratification, or an easier time. Life is full of opportunities and choices that are far-reaching results. The wise plan not for today, but for years to come."

Edgar Howard, editor of the Columbia Telegram and one of the leading demagogues of the state, is credited with having given this sage advice last June.

"This country never saw an era of general prosperity only in times when the price of farm products were high. Let's quit talking about high prices for farm products unless we desire to drive prosperity from our doors."

Cheaper farm products and you cheapen the cost of living, but at the same time in so doing you strike a blow at the prosperity of the country. The fact that farmers are doing well gives life and prosperity to business and industry of all kinds.

would make people yearn for a return to the high level of prices and general activity through which the country has been passing. We cannot have high-priced cattle and hogs and cheap packing house products. We cannot have high wages and cheap farm products.

O. A. King arrived home Sunday morning from the King Solomon mine in Colorado, and is busy closing up options on stock in the property. Since the annual meeting about a month ago he has made three trips out to the mine, and all who have gone with him have become enthusiastic supporters of the proposition.

At the annual meeting, attended by sixty stockholders, Mr. King was elected treasurer of the company. S. H. Alexander was chosen vice-president and W. W. Theobald secretary.

At the time of the annual meeting the sum of $101,231.63 was on hand, without a dollar of indebtedness, and since then the company has closed the sale of 100,000 additional shares of stock.

The company will continue to block out ore and put the mine on a divided paying basis as soon as possible. It will take considerable time yet to block out sufficient ore and erect a large mill, but stockholders will be informed from month to month through the papers as to the progress being made.

Very few corn cattle, top $7.75; medium grades $5.75 to $6.75; native cows $3.70 to $4.40; common $2.65 to $3.50; veal calves strong at $3.00 to $6.75; bulls unchanged at $2.75 to $3.75; Western cattle selling well, best $5.40 for 1321 lbs., top feeders $6.30 for 1244 lbs. Popular prices of steers $5.00 to $5.70 for both feeders and beef; common $4.40 to $4.90; range cows, best sellers at $4.25 to $4.75; fair grades $3.25 to $4.00; heifers $3.80 to $4.30; canners and cutters $2.65 to $3.00. Demand still good for best grades of all classes but common are somewhat neglected. Look for a heavy run this week with prices working some lower.

Hogs—Heavy receipts last week lowered prices but the loss has been fully recovered and the market is ruling strong. Bulk today $9.90 to $9.25, top $9.60; average 20c higher than a week ago. Demand is brisk for pork products and outside occasional fluctuations, believe present levels will be maintained until this year's pig crop commences to move.

Uncle Walt

The Poet Philosopher

When I am as dry as a fish up a tree, then I to the hydrant repair, and fill myself up, without ticket or fee, with the water that's eddying there. I drink all I want—half a gallon or more, and then I lie down on my couch; when I rise in the morning my head isn't sore, and I don't wear a dark brindle grouch.

THE CHEAP DRINK

I said to the Oriental: "Your enemy comes apace, and he'll make a wreck of your swanlike neck, and ruin your swarthy face. He's armed with a large revolver, a crowbar in his hand; and he says he'll tramp your innards into sand." Then the sad-eyed Oriental, he looked at the sinking sun; and he gazed afar at the evening star, and the desert drear and dun. And he said: "Let him come and slay me, and here by my door I'll wait; for what is written is written, and nothing can alter fate."

I said to the Occidental: "Your foe-man is drawing near; he says he will sit on your head a bit, and give you a wooden ear. He comes in his wrath and fury! He comes like a train of cars! You'd better hike down the winding pike, or bear half a hundred scars!" And the keen-eyed Occidental, he murmured: "O let him come! I will meet him there where the road is bare, and I reckon I'll make things hum!" The coroner paid the freight; for what is written is written, and nothing can alter fate.

EAST AND WEST

The bulls stood up, a dismal row, before the solemn judge; and when they told their tale of woe, he simply answered "Fudge!" Poor victims of the world's abuse, dyed in misfortune's vats! And as each muttered his excuse, the jurist murmured "Rats!" Perhaps the narratives were true told by these waifs and strays; it matters not, for each one drew ten dollars or ten days. I watched them shamble from the court as they had shambled in; the youthful boy and aged sard, the gent who smelled of gin. "Poor flossam on the human stream!" I moralized aloud: "Each hobo had his youthful dream—each bum in all that crowd! Life's morning seemed serene to him, and full of promise fair; and then the light of hope grew dim, and storm clouds filled the air. And whose the fault if he has strayed from sunny paths of peace, to wander in the darksome shade, pursued by fat police? Was there a voice, when first his feet from virtue wandered wide, to cheer, encourage or entreat, to counsel or to guide? We put the broken bums in hock—'twere better had we tried to show them paths wherein to walk before they wandered wide. I pity them in all their woe, these homeless, friendless jays!" The jurist, dozing, murmured low: "Ten dollars or ten days!"

THE POLICE COURT

John Milton in his humble home, began to write a corking poem concerning Eden and the way in which our parents went astray. And when he'd penned six lines or more, his wife came bustling to the door. She cried: "Jack Milton, you're no good! You didn't bring me any wood, and you forgot to milk the cow, and there you sit a scribbling now!" The poor old bard dropped pen and ink, convinced that life is on the blink, and brought in wood and milked the cow; then, with a wet rag on his brow, his good old meercchaum pipe he stoked, and wrote eight lines that fairly smoked. And then his eldest daughter came, and said: "It is a doggone shame that I must wear back number lids, and canvas gloves when I want kids. There's Mandy Jenkins, lives next cropped, and the government, too. I tell you dear chappy, if you would be happy, you'll have to get busy and work; there isn't much pleasure for people of leisure, there isn't much use for a shirk. The man who is lazy drives busy men crazy, and over the ransom he's hurled; but things keep a-coming to folks who are humming, and this is a bully old world.

O, time hung heavy on my hands, for I had naught to do; the hour-glass dripped its sluggish sands as slow as flowing glue. And so I said: "This sad life wends like leaden-footed whales; and so I'll call upon my friends, and tell them merry tales. It may relieve this heart of mine, and pass an hour away, and make the sun of gladness shine on lives too dark and gay." I leaped upon a busy man and told an anecdote; he left his chair and blithely ran, and seized me by the coat, and pushed me gaily through the hall, and kicked me down the stairs, and made remarks concerning gall, and pelted me with chairs. I sat upon the pavement then, and cused in somber strain: "Though I would help my fellow men, my work seems all in vain. I try to cheer the gloomy town, and work the sunshine graft, yet people simply drop me down the elevator shaft. There surely must be something wrong with optimistic stunts, for when I sing my sunshine song the hearer simply hunts for clubs and bricks and things like those wherewith to pound my head, and break my back and spoil my clothes, and leave me two-thirds dead." The cop who helped me to arise remarked: "You're slugged again? Take my advice, my friend; be wise—don't bother busy men?"

Oh, life is a wonder and death is a blunder! It's good to be living and strong! It's fine to be chaffing and joking and laughing, and chortling tra-la-la-song! It's great to be working like bitzen and jerking your living from out of the soil! It's gay to be earning real money and spurning the thought of life without toil. Most all the repining and grunting and whining is done by the loafers, you'll note; the toilers and tillers, old industry's pillars, no time to complaining; they skirish and rustle, they hump and they hustle, to put up their hay in the sun; they mow and they garner and don't give a darn or a whoop for the indolent one. Such fellows are useful; they're worth a caboose full of men who have nothing to do but grunt all together concerning the weather, the door; she blew herself at Simpson's store for new spring gowns that beat the band; I've just the rags in which I stand. But then her father had some sense; he's selling patent barb wire fence, and has a bank account so large you couldn't pile it on a barge, while my old daddy spends his time in grinding out a hughose rhyme." Poor Milton bought the girl a hat, then slammed the door and kicked the cat, and swallowed, in one long fierce drink, a half pint flask of purple ink.

This son is now married and is the father of one child, the family living on a farm near Concord in Dixon county.

Wouldn't it be possible for Wayne to arrange some suitable kind of public performance for the attraction and entertainment of people living in the surrounding country? Why not hire a few aeroplanes to come here and exhibit? Every one in the county would want to see them and would try hard to be here when the flights were scheduled to be made.

Last Thursday Miss Ola Alger sold the residence which she bought of E. T. Rennie, to Clyde Oman for $2,600. She bought the property exactly one week before for $2,500, and feels that she did well enough. It is expected that Mr. Oman who lives in the country, will move to Wayne and occupy the place which he has purchased.

Credited to Parson Twine in Atesion Globe Sights: "I have observed that the most scathing criticism I have ever endured has come from those who criticised me when I was right. Enduring criticism is a part of living, as natural as enduring cold, or heat or becoming tired. Half the time the talk of a man is not more important than the howling of a dog at night."

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Henney were at home to an enjoyable house party the latter part of last week. The guests were: Mr. Martin of New Albion, Ia., Mrs. Baskey of Inwood, Ia., Chas. Martin of Carbondale, Ia., and Fred Martin of Cedar Falls, Iowa, they being uncles and aunts of Mrs. Henney. The party left Saturday morning for Omaha for a visit with friends.

Ensign Young, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Young, is attracting outside attention to his remarkable musical talent. This week the young man received a letter from Mr. Roney of Chicago, manager of the celebrated boys' concert, asking him to go to that city to give opportunity for a study of his ability with a view of entering the musical company. Ensign has not as yet decided to go.

Reckabaugh.

J. F. Marsteller who returned last week, accompanied by his family, after a month's absence in Peoria, Ill., reports that the east is very dry. He says there was not one good answer when he was asked, "The general average of the crops in the east is about the same as the average in the west. However, the corn crop in the north is better looking than the corn crop in the south."

THE H. BLACK COMPANY

COATS . SUITS
CLEVELAND, OHIO

August 30, 1910
Order Dept.

Orr & Morris Company, Wayne, Nebr.
Gentlemen: Regarding the gray suit jacket returned by you on account of fading: We will ask you to return the skirt to this jacket and we shall be pleased to either credit the entire suit to your account and you can submit to your customer a new Wooltex suit from your stock, or else we shall be pleased to make her up one in exchange, whichever way will prove more convenient to you and to your customer.

Dyed materials, as you are aware, sometimes fade in spite of all precautions and although we cannot prevent this happening occasionally, we are always glad to make good.

Awaiting the skirt together with your early reply, we are Very truly yours,

(Signed) THE H. BLACK COMPANY.

The above is the reproduction of a letter that we received from the makers of Wooltex garments. The jacket in question was faded so little that the defect was hardly noticeable. Every piece of goods made into a Wooltex garment is first submitted to a boiling acid test which is the only known way of being positive that the fabric is pure wool. It is the only SURE test. The people who make Wooltex garments absolutely refuse to consider a fabric that shows the least trace of cotton. This is the reason they are able to place upon their garments this exceptional guarantee. If you buy a suit or coat of us you have the satisfaction of knowing that if the garment does not prove dependable we will gladly replace it with a new one. The stock is now complete. You should come early.

On our Last Buying Trip

From which we have just returned, we had the opportunity to buy a big variety of goods for greatly reduced prices. Though we could realize a fancy return on all of them, we would rather take our profit in the advertisement which the unusually low prices will give us, than in hard cash. For that reason we shall begin next Saturday to offer those goods in regular weekly bargain sales at such low figures that you cannot help taking advantage of them. The goods will be changed every week, the prices will be about half our usual sale prices and will hold good on those special articles for the respective week only.

Next Saturday we shall begin this special feature in offering you the following goods FOR 28 CENTS EACH for one week only or until this special lot is sold:

14-qt. gray enamel Dish-pan	28c
6-qt. gray enamel Berlin kettle	28c
6-qt. gray enamel Sauce pan	28c
8-qt. gray enamel Preserve Kettle	28c
2-qt. gray enamel Tea or Coffee Pot	28c
12-qt. gray enamel Water Pail	28c
2-qt. gray enamel Double Boiler	28c

The store is chock full of other bargains besides. Come early and have your pick. New goods are in now and more are coming right along.

A Home for You

Built on Honor at a Moderate Price

We are contemplating building two or three modern, up-to-date six-, seven- and eight-room Cement Block houses which when completed will be for sale. Plans and photographs are at our office. Those thinking of buying a home will do well to see us now as we can then arrange the interior to suit buyer. Construction, materials and workmanship throughout will be first-class.

We also build houses from your own plans and cheerfully submit estimates. Before building come and see us if you want first-class work and the full value for your money.

$25.00 in Gold for Routing a Train

Prize offered by Omaha Commercial Club for best Schedule for Boosters' Trip

Lines over which Omahans wish to travel in four days. The only switch track connections between the Burlington and other lines are at Fremont and South Sioux City.

ONE HUNDRED business men of Omaha are to visit northeastern Nebraska, October 25, 26, 27, 28. It is a problem how to route the train over the lines of railroad shown in this map that the longest possible time may be spent in each town and the mileage of the train made as short as possible. They have selected the towns marked on the map as those to visit. They will travel only on lines of railroad where towns are marked, but the train may run for short distances over lines where there are no stations marked.

To the person sending in the best route for this train to take out of Omaha, the business men will pay $25.00 in gold. The party desires to leave Omaha the evening of October 24th, return night of October 28th and spend evenings in good towns. Routes should give distance between stations and approximate running time. Schedules should all be submitted that they will reach the Omaha Commercial Club by September 15. Address routes to Trade Extension Committee, Commercial Club of Omaha, Omaha, Nebraska.

Notice Having decided to go to California, I take this opportunity to thank the people for their patronage and support since I have been located in Wayne. All accounts please settle before August 20, 1910, and save a collector's fee.

EASTSIDERS ARE WALLOPED

WESTSIDERS SCORE VICTORY

Big Crowd and Huge Fun—Rooters Rival for Honor—Apparent Lack of Wonderful Skill.

The westsiders walloped the eastsiders in a game Monday afternoon. It was remembered that the eastsiders carried off the victory a year ago, and they and their supporters felt certain they could do so again. Their rivals, the westsiders, were not overly confident before entering the fray.

Being Labor day, the schools were dismissed and business houses were generally closed for the afternoon, and seven or eight hundred people gathered to see the battle, and incidentally give financial strength to local baseball enterprise.

There was an army of active rooters on each side, and the westside rooters think they out-rooted their rivals, and that therefore they deserve much credit for the victory. The eastsiders started in with a good deal of steam and assurance, but they couldn't keep up the pace, and after a few innings their endurance weakened in contrast with that of their opponents. Expert players agree that it was more of a contest in endurance than in phenomenal skill.

Meyer, tosser for the westsiders, held out through the entire game, while Fisher, Pile, Berry and Von Seggern took turns in twirling for the eastsiders. McClure relieved Catcher Rooney of the westsiders in the fourth inning, and Marsteller was back-stop after the eighth inning for the eastsiders.

There were all sizes of hits, long drives and pop-ups, with errors dropped in so often that it was impossible to keep track of them. Goose eggs were few, while runs scored at the rate of from one to eight in a bunch. When the end came and the smoke cleared away it was found that the result was 27 to 15 in favor of the westsiders.

Line-up and score by innings.

WEST SIDE:	EAST SIDE:
Fred Pile 3b	Fisher p
Rooney c	Armstrong 1f
Reynolds ss	J. Pile 3b
Meyer p	Berry c
Geartner 2b	Harrington 2b
Welch 1f	Ahern 1b
Craven rf	Thomas cf
Ellis 1b	Marsteller rf
Miller cf	Von Seggern ss
McClure c

SCORE:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total
West	0	2	4	4	2	7	8			27
East	1	0	2	0	2	0	2			15

NOTES:

Armstrong was a great left fielder. Reynolds was reliable the whole game at short. Miller made a few pretty catches in center field. Gaertner was a heavy hitter and a fast base runner. It was Fisher's merry-widow hat brought in his score in the fourth. Fisher found the pasture, but the ambling saved the honors for Landers. The eastsider's paraphernalia had little effect when it came to making scores. Marsteller starred in the first, making a long run and "nabbing" a fly in center field. Welch's run home on Jim Pile's lost ball produced large smiles on the part of fans. First base was a crowded corner with Fisher holding the bag and Ed. Ellis coaching him. When it came to a pinch Ed. Ellis was always looked to get his aggregation out of a tight place. Marsteller went "limpy" in the third, but got a two-base hit in the ninth in spite of this misfortune. Rooney was injured on the left "hearer" in the fourth and had the attendance of M. D. Fanske immediately. Depew was thinking of standing behind the bat to call the strikes and balls, but Berry's catching was not what he wanted it to be in order to do so.

WHY ADVERTISE?

Over the name of John Allen Murphy appears this treatise on the subject of advertising: In all his brilliant talks on advertising, Hugh Chalmers says that advertising is salesmanship plus publicity. In other words, the purpose of advertising is two fold—to sell goods and to keep your name before the public, letting them know you are still on earth and still doing business at the old stand. It is a sort of insurance on your present trade. Even if you are now satisfied with your present volume of business, you have to continue your advertising anyway so that one of your aggressive competitors will not take it away from you. The public is fickle. It will jilt you unless you keep up a rapid-fire courtship in the form of good, sensible, convincing advertising. Nowadays there are so many things to engage one's attention that the merchant who hopes to remain in the public eye must have something doing all the time. Keeping your name before the public is a great art. Somehow we grow to have confidence in that store we hear of often in a favorable way. We trust those goods whose names we hear the most. Confidence is the basis of trade, and we haven't confidence in a thing unless we know it. As Mr. Chalmers says, "Unless you know a business house well, you haven't confidence in that house." Advertising makes the house known. Therefore, it is a creator of confidence—the foundation stone of trade.

Mrs. Jacob Wilmert, Lincoln, Ill., found her way back to perfect health. She writes: "I suffered with kidney trouble and backache and my appetite was very poor at times. A few weeks ago I got Foley's Kidney Pills and gave them a fair trial. They gave me great relief, so continued till now I am again in perfect health." Foley's Pharmacy.

Voices.

He was eager to kiss her. And she heard two voices speaking, and one was the voice of the mother that bore her. "Don't!" it said. But the other, which was the voice of all her mothers since Eve, said: "Do!" And the majority rules.—Puck.

When Merit Wins

When the medicine you take cures your disease, tones up your system and makes you feel better, stronger and more vigorous than before. That is what Foley's Kidney Pills do for you, in all cases of backache, headache, nervousness, loss of appetite, sleeplessness and general weakness that is caused by any disorder of the kidneys or bladder. Foley's Pharmacy.

Chameleon Woman.

You may be sure a woman loves a man when she uses his expressions, tells his stories or imitates his manner. This gives a secret delight; for imitation is a kind of artless flattery, and mightily favors the principles of self-love.

A Reliable Medicine—Not A Narcotic.

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says Foley's Honey and Tar saved her little boy's life. She writes: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith. It cures the cough as well as the choking and gasping spells, and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." ## The New Suits, Coats and Skirts are Here

NOW is the time to select your new suit or skirt. The stock is complete today—all the newest models bought while in the east week before last are here. At no time this fall will you have a larger or finer stock to choose from than right now. These goods are not the product of any ONE manufacturer. No ONE maker gets out ALL the BEST STYLES, consequently we choose each season the very cream of all the styles offered by SEVERAL of the BEST factories in the country and by so doing we get for you a variety of models to choose from, every one of which was selected for its fine STYLE. Style is THE MOST IMPORTANT FEATURE demanded in a suit by well dressed women of today and consequently we use our best efforts to get style in the suits we buy for you. Of course you expect all wool goods, good linings and trimmings, and we see that you get them just as good as it is possible to make them—in fact, there is not a reputable manufacturer in the country today but knows that he has to use the best of materials—every good merchant demands that as a matter of course—but there must be more than good cloth—there must be STYLE, and that is where we specialize. Let us show you these suits. We make a specialty of the Ready to Wear business and there is no necessity of your going away or sending away for a suit as long as we are here to serve you. If you are hard to fit we'll have a suit made for you and you need pay no money until you try it on and find it satisfactory. We'll save you some money, too, as our expense of selling goods is light compared to the city stores and catalogue houses.
