A BOYS AND GIRLS' Chautauqua is as much fun for boys and girls as could be imagined. They've been planned that way.

It took twenty trained directors of boys' and girls' play—playground experts, college and Y. M. C. A. athletic coaches—to compile all the outdoor games and gather together all the fascinating stories we have arranged for you boys and girls.

Isn't that great?

They are coming right out to see you have a good time. They are going to show you how. They are going to play with you.

Hiking trips, field meets, scouts' dinners, picnics, stories, games, and a thousand things.

They won't tire you, but they will keep you busy all of Chautauqua week.

All you need is a season ticket and a simple Indian suit.

Easy, isn't it?

Get the ticket and enjoy all this besides the regular Chautauqua programs.

You may buy the suit of the Seton Indian girl when she comes around a couple of days before Chautauqua starts.

It costs a dollar. Or, you may have it made. But get it ready!

HEAVY FALL OF RAIN COVERS THIS COUNTY

DROUGHT EFFECTUALLY BROKEN

Some Wash Out Railroad Tracks and Do Some Other Damage—Freight Train in Ditch

If there were any fears of a prolonged drought, they were effectively dispelled Sunday night when rain came down in torrents. Two inches on the level fell in Wayne county, and the rain was general over this section of the state. There was some damage to fields by flood, but such injury was trifling in view of the great crop drop of the last season. Suffering pastures will be restored, and all crops greatly benefited. While corn was not suffering from drought, the rain was enough to safeguard it for the season.

The strong wind which accompanied the rain blew limbs from trees and damaged some insecure buildings. It is reported that Frank Eshelton, living ten miles north of Wayne, had a very small white horse killed.

Creak in the country was relieved, and the railroad track was washed out in three places, traffic being interrupted. Two miles west of Hoxans, 200 feet of track were displaced, and the engine and train were freight train, freight and leaving Wayne at midnight Sunday, got off the track and turned over. A wrecking crew went down Wayne Tuesday to rescue the stalled train.

A line of small feet of track were washed out in three places, traffic being interrupted. Two miles west of Hoxans, 200 feet of track were displaced, and the engine and train were freight train, freight and leaving Wayne at midnight Sunday, got off the track and turned over. A wrecking crew went down Wayne Tuesday to rescue the stalled train.

Large creek was broken and was out of its banks most of the day Monday. The water got into John Schuhs' brick kiln, but vigorous efforts prevented great loss.

George Farran, supervisor, has to expect that bridge over the road in his district, and James Staton, supervisor, reports the displacement of two or three bridges, with some others that will need repairs. Thus, the storm did not do the business of bridge building in the county.

A special from Norfolk to Tuesday's Omaha Bee had this to say of the storm: Rain amounting to 24 inches fell in Norfolk and vicinity last night.

The old brick factory was blown down, but all five stalls of the race track stables were demolished and two race horses injured. A big fire broke down, and five miles east of here a Omaha train caught fire and burned for Sioux City, ran into a wreck of 2,000 feet overturning the engine and two cars—Engineer Bill Fryson of Sioux City sustained a broken leg.

News of the rain was followed by the Nebraska rain followed the hot weather of Sunday, early Monday morning.

Scattering localities all through the state were visited by rain, the precipitation being on half to one inch in many places. A high wind accompanied the rain over the state, doing great damage to the town and out on the farms.

Railroad and telegraph communication was cut in the western portion of Nebraska and in eastern Colorado and Wyoming. South Dakota was visited by heavy winds.

Reports have come in from all over the state telling of the windy storm, which will reach the great portion of the state during the night. In few places was there any very serious damage done.

THE CLEARING BRASS BAND

The brass band concert is not being held this season because the local organization has not been maintained, and it is impossible to have a concert with the new band, now under the instruction of Professor Alexander, is so much sufficiently advanced in music. There are seventeen young men in the new band, and they meet regularly in James Ahern's store for practice. They are in charge of Mr. Ahern, and he hopes that they meet primarily at 7:30 in the evening and quit at 8:30 and go home. The boys buy their instruments, and are then given free instruction at the expense of the Commercial club. Added to the crowd of seven- teen will be two more whose instruments were sent for this week. In due time Wayne will have a new band, and by some of the old members, and the organization will then be prepared to disburse music on all occasions.

TAKES TIME TO PUT UP LIBRARY BUILDING

Patton, C. Miller, Chicago architect, who is preparing specifications for the proposed new library building for Wayne, has written that the information necessary for the completion of their work. They report that it will require three or four more weeks to finish their drawings, and then two or three weeks will be required to secure the material and to construct it. It will take six or eight months to erect the building.

NORFOLK MAN MAKES GOOD COMPARISON

In an address recently made at a meeting given by the Norfolk Ad-club to 350 traveling men, G. L. Carlson, editor of Carlson's Breeders' Review, gave an address pointing out the productive value of ten counties in this part of the state, including Wayne county. He compared this territory with the Black Hills country which has had the reputation of being the richest spot in the United States. He says, however, that it is far less productive than the territory treated, though such counties contain less area. He says this is part:

"For three successive years the annual product of the Black Hills district was about $6,000,000 and over year the banner year for the Homestake mine—the entire district, including live stock, grain and vegetables, produced almost but not quite $5,000,000. The value of the grain and live stock wealth to be created by such a district, and wealth produced from the earth in any form is a new creation of wealth, a form of wealth which never before existed, and will may the people of the Black Hills get with pride to such a production.

"Let what we are doing around Norfolk at that time in the way of producing new wealth? Why, these ten counties which I have mentioned here, produced the grain and grasses for over $31,000,000. The value of the live stock sold and shipped out of these ten counties exceeded $25,000,000. Our hens laid 17,000,000 dozen eggs, and pigs were grown for $2,000,000. The poultry sold in these ten counties worth $4,200,000. Our swine produced a little more than 5,000,000 pounds of butter and raw milk, and other products of the raw soil for $2,000,000. The dairy and poultry industry alone exceeded the value of the products of the richest 100-mile square in America. Our grains and grasses sold for about ten times as much as the products of the Black Hills district, and the vegetables and poultry and live stock and the dairy products sold for more than $75,000,000, or twelve and one-half times as much as did all the products of the Black Hills district.

"If a mining district, or even our entire state, can boast of a mine with a market value of three or four million dollars, it is considered good business to advertise the fact in all the papers of the state. The same may be said of the ten counties around Norfolk, having a market value exceeding $200,000,000, and yet very few of us are aware of the fact. Very little here at-

MAGNIFICENT BROTHER-DOWN

J. H. H. (Hank) Herrick, Mrs. Charles M. Green and Miss Ruth Breese accompanied Dr. Duckett Tuesday on a trip to Tyra Falls in the doctor's auto. On their return near Huth's the motor stopped. While the doctor sat on his seat and raveled under the interior economy of the car in search of the difficulty, the ladies walked on home. When he had given up hope of correcting the difficulty, the doctor sat down by the side of the road awaiting the car, and crawled under the door of a more fortunate motorist, who carried him into Hollister that evening. Trouble-man Martin Kuehn was summoned and repaired to the scene of the difficulty where he soon located the cause of the interruption a loose screw in the gasoline intake which admitted too much air. This was quickly removed and the car is again at the disposal of the driver.

TINKERING WITH THE PRIMARY LAW.

So many candidates filing for supreme court positions mean that nominations will probably be made by rather small minorities of the total vote of the primaries. This may bring it to pass that some party next year after next there will be a serious movement to amend the primary law to permit first and second choice voting. Lincoln Journal.

It is in the information that still further tinkering with the primary law on the program, we want to enter our early dissent. While we would welcome an amendment tending to simplify the machinery of nomination, we are decidedly opposed to anything calculated to make it more complicated or more confusing.

Our original direct primary law, enacted by the reform legislature of 1907, should have been left unchanged except the amendment in platform convention and perhaps the application to national convention delegates. But outside of that the change from closed primary to open primary and back again to closed primary has served only to bewilder the voters, who have not had enough time with our form to get used to it. Let us give the present primary scheme a fair trial in Nebraska before playing with the first and second choice game of dice—Omaha Bee.

The idea created by the restoration of the alphabetical arrangement of names on the ballot in accordance with the original law. Rotation is an improvement. The alphabetical arrangement gave advantage that proved utterly null.

The inside parts of this refrigerator can be easily removed, and you can get into the corners without any trouble.

No mold accumulates in places you can't get at, because there are no such places.

These refrigerators appeal to women who believe in purity and cleanliness. They appeal to those who believe in economy. They appeal to those who like exterior beauty, for they are not only ten times better than any other kind, but are decidedly more handsome.

They are white enameled and splendidly built. We have a complete line. You cannot afford to leave this store out of consideration when you buy your refrigerator.

The "Why" of Rates

A railroad may haul a carload of flour at a cheaper cost per sack than if only one bushel of such were shipped, but it costs at a great deal more for telephones to operate an exchange of 5,000 subscribers than one of only a thousand.

In an exchange of 5,000 subscribers, every telephone user is given an opportunity to use his telephone ten times as much as in an exchange of a thousand subscribers.

This condition would make the operating expense and maintenance cost of every telephone and line in the larger exchange much higher than in the smaller one.

Then, too, in the larger exchange, telephones average farther from the central office, necessitating more wire per telephone.

Also, as more telephones are added to an exchange, the uniting of every telephone with every other one increases the individual cost enormously.

But the service of the larger exchange is worth a great deal more.

THE EARLY DAYS IN TWO COUNTIES.

From the Wayne Review, published by Hunter & Childs, at Laborer, Jan. 20, 1881:

A. S. Miner sold eighty acres of his land for $6.00 per acre.

Mrs. J. D. Richardson is recovering from her serious illness.

James Henton sold three acres of his land near the new dam.

W. H. Eubank had sold the Maxwell place to J. W. Beasler and H. H. Beasler on his farm near of town.

The round up of cattle on the range shows that the loss due to the severe winter has not exceeded 7 per cent.

Present operations indicate that the present season will be a successful one.

That our position may not be mistaken as regards the new town of Wayne, we wish to correct the statements given early certain parties who seem to be more interested in the new town than in the welfare of the county at large.

We are looking against the new town of Wayne. This is not so. On the contrary, we are glad that Wayne is starting under such favorable circumstances, and we trust that her boom will continue.

Wayne shall become a city worthy of the name. It is not the town we are looking for, but the attempt to obtain for her land concessions at the expense of the county.

John Harrington moves into his new residence.

John A. Campbell and Miss Ida Fitzsimons were married at Wakefield.

James Britton attended a meeting of the republican state central committee of which he was a member.

During a storm the drug store of Phil Kohl and the livery stable of Elliott were struck by lightning.

In putting to the calabash with a drunk, Marshal Miner was compelled to nearly swim on account of high water.

Frank Fuller delivers an address before the students of the summer normal at the Presbyterian church on "Political History."

County Clerk W. S. Spink of Stanton county was drowned in Markentine creek while attempting to cross the stream on a foot bridge.

Phil H. Kohl received a telegram from W. H. Stephenson of Hartington asking him if the latter's father, John W. Kohl, was "Wynne" and if so requesting that the marshal arrest and hold him.

Dputy Sheriff Reynolds caught the lad and sent him to Hartington in company with Mr. Kohl Monday afternoon. It seems that the boy had grown tired of home life and was making for other regions, having about $33 in his possession.

John Elving has purchased the H. J. Graves farm northwest of Wayne, paying $30 an acre for it.

The Fourth of July celebrations at Wayne, Carroll and Hoskins were reported very successful.

Rev. D. C. Montgomery and Mrs. W. F. Norris and daughter start for the Philippines, the former to engage in educational work and the latter to join Judge Norris, who has been appointed one of the federal judges on the islands.

Sam Winsor met with a serious accident Saturday morning that came very near costing him his life. The tank of the gasoline engine at the blacksmith shop exploded, throwing the blazing fluid over him and setting his clothing afire.

When seen by others he was a mass of flames, but by prompt action he succeeded in extinguishing the fire with the assistance of his foreman, Mr. Anderson. Other men used by ran to his assistance also, and succeeded in putting out the flames in the shop before any damage had been done.

Mr. Winsor was burned severely about the neck and a trifle internally, but is getting along nicely and expects to soon be at work again.

John W. Evans, piano tuner from Omaha, will begin Wayne in a few days.

A lengthy account is given of the shooting of President Garfield by Arthur in Washington on July 2, 1881.

There had the usual Fourth of July celebration, the mayor of the day having been Fred Judge W. F. Norris.

During Wednesday night of last week a barn belonging to Louis Tolls on the Logan, thirty miles southwest of this place, was struck by lightning and set on fire, burning for two hours. Two horses which were in the building at the time escaped the lightning and were got out without injury from the fire.

A summary of July started in the "New York Journal." The Great Central Fair is publishing a Great Central Fair in seven parts, covering everything from creation to the second coming of Christ.

HOSKINS MAN FILES FOR COUNTY CLERK

F. S. Beasler, who has filed as republican candidate for county clerk, was born in Allegheny, Pa., in 1850, and came to Wayne county in 1886, and has since resided continuously since then.

He was connected with the publication of the Winslow Watchman for a number of years, and later went into the grocery business with his father in Winslow.

He removed to Hoskins in 1901 and engaged in the mercantile business in connection with serving as postmaster. Six years ago Mr. Beasler suffered the disheartening result of an accidental discharge of a shotgun, tearing one of his legs and the same day he was admitted near the hip.

Notwithstanding his disadvantage in managing a store with one leg destroyed, he continued the business until this spring, when he sold it, determining to turn to something which he could engage with less walking than handling goods and waiting on customers.

Six years ago the republican convention nominated him for county clerk, but his present opponent was justly asking for a second term, he was re-elected, and Mr. Beasler very sensibly regarded the outcome, in the face of a man seeking a second term, as being natural and reasonable to expect.

But his present opponent is completing his fourth term, friends of Mr. Beasler believe the verdict of six years ago should be reversed, and that he should be elected in the place for which he is so thoroughly fitted, and of which he has eminently deserving.

JUDGE WELCH A CANDIDATE. Pierce Call: "In this issue we are pleased to publish the announcement of the candidacy of Judge W. A. Welch for a re-nomination to the position of judge of the fifth judicial district. Judge Welch has served the district faithfully and conscientiously and he will have no opposition at the primaries.

His superior ability and fairness on the bench is admitted by those of opposite political belief. Some democrats may perhaps be induced to come out in opposition to Judge Welch, but the people all over the district have confidence in his upright beliefs in the state, and in few in this section of the country, is the price over 40 cents, and in Beatrice and many other towns the price is only 35 cents.

The border comes heaviest, of course, on the people who can least afford it, the poorer classes. In a town of Omaha's size leg is a necessity, a fact which the ice companies realize. In a town like Beatrice, where most of us have cellars and basements, a combination of the sort which is imposing on Omaha might in a measure be defied, but in the crowded flat districts of a large town ice must be had in order to have food fit to eat.

A leading Omaha daily is making a fight on the ice trust, and for the sake of the poor people it is hoped its efforts will bear fruit.

Get our figure on the heating plants for your new home. We have a full line on our floor for your inspection. F. T. O. Tin Shop. A13-14

ELSIE LITTELL.

If the railroad company would properly ballast its track with rock wash such as has been interpreted traffic this week might be prevented.

People can well stand all the damage done by Sunday's storm as slight compensation for the heavy and general rainfall which did incalculable good.

Sunday's downpour put a quietus on fears of a prolonged and serious drought in this county. Wayne county has always raised good crops, and there is no reason to fear there will ever be an exception to the rule. This year's crops will promise to surpass those of a year ago.

The state commission is to be recommended for its first course in dealing with the railroad company whose surpassing nerve led it to virtually ignore the order for a new depot in Wayne. It should not be necessary to force an implementation so manifestly needed and warranted. The railroad company ought to meet the demands of a territory which it serves and which it has so large a revenue, without being prodded on by a state commission.

People who are familiar with the improved equipment and service on the Southern Pacific following the acquisition by the Union Pacific, will applaud the decision of the federal court which upholds the transaction. Before the consolidation the Southern Pacific was a catchpole system, with high rates and low service and high rates. The Union Pacific's possession of the road was the signal for improvement that greatly benefited the territory through which it passed.

Judge A. A. Welch has filed his republican candidate for re-nomination and re-election to the judgeship in this district. Judge Welch has an excellent record to his credit, and there is every reason to believe that he will triumphantly chase to continue on the bench. His temperament is exactly right and his knowledge of law is thorough. That his judicial record is of a high order, both lawyers and litigants, regardless of party, will gladly testify.

The boy who grows up without disveloping the important habit of working will usually amount to little in the world. The desirable employee is the one who appreciates the value of labor and applies himself faithfully and who thinks of what he can accomplish in a day. His job how little he can do and still hold his job. A man is a character-builder as well as a money maker, and the farmer of the boy who likes to do things right, and who is careful, honest, and easy, need not occasion worry or anxiety.

People who pay the tax of the tax are in favor of bonding the town to build a city hall. Or they will find the greatest expense. If they want it, as they do, should not the rest be in favor of it? The cost to any one person in taxation would be but a trifle. People who appreciate the importance of having a good city hall, and who are willing to pay the tax of it, should not be in favor of it? The cost to any one person in taxation would be but a trifle. People who appreciate the importance of having a good city hall, and who are willing to pay the tax of it, should not be in favor of it?

Wayne is one of the best of the states in the most advanced and supported by the richest and most dependable agricultural country in the world. Its resources and its possibilities are so great that it is not surprising that it is so. In some respects it is behind the progress. Improvements in the business district do not comport with its outlying residential portion. The proposed new city hall, new city hall, and other improvements will help materially. A government building to accommodate the postoffice is important. A new hotel building and an opera house are needed. All these improvements would give the business district a new prominence and greater convenience and comfort. They would give the public accommodation, and brace up the looks of things in the business center. The city is really lacking in some essentials, and united effort should be put forth to supply them.

The southern part of the state did not get the rains which fell over this section, Sunday night. Unfortunately, the southern part of the state did not get the rains which fell over this section, Sunday night. Unfortunately, the southern part of the state did not get the rains which fell over this section, Sunday night. Unfortunately, the southern part of the state did not get the rains which fell over this section, Sunday night.

The standard held in mind is exceptional and not usually happens so often that it takes long periods to keep it properly before the public. Short crops, due to too much moisture or not enough, are the rule. The people there are satisfied with results because they don't know other parts of the state and more productive. They would get up this way if they knew the advantages of soil and climate which are guaranteed. We don't advertise this much, and therefore people in less favored localities don't know what we have to offer. South of the Platte, people make a good deal of noise, and attract considerable attention on account of living in big, important-looking counties, with no account of rich resources of which they boast. Bigger counties and more advertising would attract to northeast Nebraska the commendation it deserves. Capital and industrial enterprises would prefer to locate in a country where resources can be depended on from year to year.

ODDS AND ENDS

An Omaha man familiar with Wayne county, said this is a young man who is making a name for himself in the world. You are going to the garden spot of the world.

When the artificial lake is finished with the city hall, Messrs. Ferguson, Davis and Klug, who were taken to Dognova creek when they went to fish.

If northeast Nebraska counties would reorganize, as proposed by the Herald, the number of counties in Nebraska would be in the rank in the state, deserved by our superior agricultural resources.

The contrary to a state law is doing it. It is to be prosecuted, but different parts of the state. It is well to see that eggs put on the market stop of good character.

Drooping rains have been revived since Sunday's rain, and the suspicion that the world was drying up has been wiped out. The assurance of an abundant harvest has come again, and it has been the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

Wherever one seeks to shine—whether in politics, society, church or school—he should be ready to hold himself back from Utah Herpetologists. To actually play the duplicitous game fails in the long run to gain the advantage sought. His job is more important than his success, and in time he finds that popular respect turns to popular contempt and scorn.

A Revere woman shot her husband one night this week, and he lay dead. She had been married five times, while he was guilty of having been married only three times. She had sued for divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty. Under the law, many times married couples have to more right to kill each other than to these whose domestic relations have a last changed situation.

John Short for Sheriff

John Short has never before during his long residence in Wayne county asked for an office. He does so now feeling that his friends will unite in his behalf and help elect him sheriff—a place for which he is eminently well fitted. He justly feels that his acquaintance in Wayne and over the county and his standing as a citizen who has shown a capacity for hard work, warrant his ambition to become sheriff.

Stickney Gasoline Engines ARE THE BEST

Get Your Money's Worth

The service an engine will give you depends not only on its design and quality of its material and workmanship but upon the size of its bearings, the length of its piston, the thickness of its various parts, the size of its balance wheels and the strength of its various parts.

Upon the size and strength of these parts depend the service you will get from an engine and it also determines the total weight of the engine. In determining the value of two engines compare their weight the same as you do when you sell your hogs, pork is worth so much per pound.

Come in and inspect my simple Stickney Engine and show me one place where any weight can be cut out without injuring the service the engine will give and then I will show you it has no surplus weight, no big useless unnecessary base—and then figure the price per pound. I will give your money's worth.

SAVE THE FORAGE (Wallace's Farmer)

It is not wise to prophesy ill after the event. Never there are any one thing that he clearly in view, and he is not a wise man who does not recognize an obvious fact. It is now very clearly defined that the entire western and middle states are to harvest a short hay crop. We have recently been asked as eastern Pennsylvania, traveling mainly by day and covering many miles by automobile, and if there is anything sure for the future, the hay crop is now a fact. In my own sections. Conditions rather west are at all accounts much more serious than in the corn states. The meadows in the east are short and most of them are fast furnishing no hay except for home consumption. Clover is heading out steep, but short. That we should have a short hay crop has been very clear to us for a month or more. It is a certain thing. Farmers that are dry April make a short hay crop. Excessively heavy rains in May may remedy the defect, but when April and May have less than normal moisture, you may be sure that there will be a hay crop in proportion to the moisture.

Therefore, one obvious duty of every farmer in the Mississippi valley, and in the middle states, is to save all the forage possible, and, if moisture conditions permit, to dry the forage, if possible during the remainder of the season.

The reader may ask what he can do after the 20th of June. If there is sufficient moisture to germinate them, you can sow corn late in the fall, and in the southern portion of our territory up to the first of July, and so on. It is possible to grow a good yield of forage in the shape of oats by disking the stubbleland, where it has not been sown down to grass, and allow the volunteer oats to grow, which will furnish far more pasture than you suspect, if you have not tried it. All this, however, on the condition that sufficient rain comes in the latter part of June to secure germination of the seed.

The main source of forage, however, must be the corn crop. Up to the present time (June 10th) corn has not suffered from drought, nor will it on well-prepared, rich land up to about the first of July. But suppose that timely and, we might say, striking rains will come between this and corn tasseling time; for if not, the crop of corn in the corn belt and middle states will be a short one.

We do not know what the season will be. As seasons come in cycles, all the world over, it is fair to assume that we have entered upon a cycle of years.

READING BENEFIT

From the Experience of Wayne People. We are fortunate indeed to be able to read the experiences of our neighbors. The public utterances of Wayne residents on the following subject will interest and benefit thousands of our readers. Read this statement. No better proof can be had. I was troubled by a heavy, dull ache through my kidneys and back. I also had a very spell and headache. The kidney secretions were excessive and plainly showed that my kidneys needed attention. Doan's Kidney Pills drove away the pain in my back and eased my nervous system. Since then, however, I have felt in need of a kidney medicine. As each member had been requested by the hostess to bring her own sewing, there was quite a display of needlework from the most dainty embroider to the homely task of darning stockings. After a short business meeting had been concluded, Mrs. Conover and her daughters, Edna and Laura, sang some delightful three-part songs. The society meets with Mrs. Musburger the fourth Thursday in July.

Garwood moved his dwelling up nearer the road and built a nice addition to it. Lightning wrecked a shed Sunday night on the place north of town owned by the Langs. day for a couple of days' visit with his brother, O. O. and wife. F. M. Metten has invested in a new farm, and the family now are enjoying the scenery and the view. He followed to Glen Pomeoy and Gerry Cross played with the Wayne ball team in a fast game at Randolph last Thursday. C. H. Fish returned to Omaha Saturday after spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. Charles Neumann. Misses Annie and Dorothy Neumann left Wednesday for a visit to their sister with their grandmother in St. Louis. C. S. Hank of Hay Springs, Neb., arrived in Winside last Thursday on account of the sickness of his son, Howard. Otto Baek, son of Hugo Baek, is dangerously ill with typhoid fever at the home of his grandparents in the east part of town. Jack Gaughran, who now plays left field for the Winside ball team, has at present covered himself with glory, and led the team for a few days last week. A large delegation from the local lodge attended the district meeting of the Rebekah lodge, which was held in Wayne on Friday last week. Miss Florence Cooper, daughter of Colonel P. C. Cooper of Crawford, Neb., was in Winside the past week for a visit at A. T. Chapin's home.

On Monday, June 26, the annual school election was held, at which time A. H. Carter and Thomas Prince were elected to serve another term on the board. Mrs. Williamson left Friday for Gettysburg, S. D., for a few weeks to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Jones. Miss Ollie Jones accompanied her to Sioux City, returning on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith and son, Hower, left Monday for a month's visit with Mr. Smith's parents at Kintona, Ia. Mr. Smith expects to make a business trip to Illinois with his father before they return. Miss Elizabeth Farrah left Tuesday for an extended visit to her mother, who expects to visit at Wausau, Lake Charleau and Seattle in Washington, but most of her time will be spent in and around Portland, Ore.

The ball team went to Norfolk Wednesday and were home Sunday, having won a glorious victory, but upon investigation found they were defeated. Score was 6 to 3. Norfolk will return the game next Sunday, July 2. Chel Miller returned to Winside Friday after a three-day visit to his father. He traveled extensively through the south, spending most of his time at Hot Springs, Ark. On his return trip he visited a few days in Kansas City with his sister, Mrs. M. W. Brewster. The baseball team, accompanied by a goodly number of fans, went down to Wakefield Friday. They were all treated royally, but the game was almost too easy to create much excitement. Wakefield played in hard luck, and Winside won the game. Score was 1 to 1. The eighth grade graduates from Winside went to Wayne Saturday for the commencement exercises. There were eight of them: Gladys Metten, Naomi Daniels, John Metten, Clarence Henderson, Minnie Stamm, Gary Von Stegner, Katie Diamond, Carolyn Dysart, Leo Ferrar and Alta Prince. Out of a class of forty-six, Clarence Henderson was one of the five who ranked highest.

Laurel defeated Winside in a close exciting game at the former place last Tuesday. This is the first shut-out for the local team, but as they held Laurel down to two scores, the home fans feel they were in the game all the time. Score 2 to 0. Backfiring in the woods near Pomoy, Laurillard, Bassinger and Kemp. Laurel will play the return game at the Winside park Friday, June 30. The severe wind, rain and electric storm which visited this section of the country on Sunday night did a great amount of damage, while we must not fail to credit the good, for the rain was needed most badly. The high water made a clean sweep of fences and some of the larger ones. West of town the railroad track was washed out for about a mile, and there were no trains from Sunday night when the freight went through, until Tuesday evening. The Sunday night freight, which Conductor H. J. Miller has charge of, was diked just west of Hoskins. The engine was hurt internally and suffered a broken 'rod'—Ed Ulrich, living near Hoskins and here for the week of Winside, suffered the heaviest loss of any one in this territory. During the storm Sunday night, his barn, which was a very large one, and comparatively new, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground, with nearly all of its contents. Three good horses, four hogs, about 200 chickens, three sets of harness, saddles, a large amount of grain and other things were carried to the street and were intact in the loss. He carried $1,000 insurance on the barn, and some on the grain, but none on the live stock or other contents, so this means a great loss to him. Winside defeated Linden in a most interesting game of ball at the park here last Sunday. There was nothing going until the fourth inning, when the home team ran in one score, after which the series of runs were allowed until the seventh inning, when Linden scored three times. This aroused the boys to action and in the eighth inning ran in four scores, after which Linden failed to make good, leaving the score 3 to 1 in favor of the home team. A big, good-natured crowd was out to see the game, and all went away feeling they had their money's worth. Tilden certainly was not a bad fellow, but his many fellows, who proved a credit to the town, Empire, Tom Johnson, but, besides, Winside cross and honorary: Tilden, Klunger and Fryor.

TEKAMAH EDUCATOR ADDRESSES NORMAL FOR INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION Urged Importance of Manual Training in the Schools—Only Way to Serve the Public. Superintendent A. H. Dixon of Tekamah addressed the 23rd session of the State Normal Monday afternoon on the subject of "Industrial Education." Mr. Dixon said that the public schools must provide for industrial education, or it will provide for itself in institutions outside the public schools; that 95 per cent of the boys and girls needed it, and that it was unfair to ask the public to support schools which do not serve their needs; that at the time the present school curriculum was organized manual work was taught in the home, but now that the manual arts are left to the home, the schools must make them a part of their program; that this new requirement can be met only by the normal school. It is a flexible and thus giving the 95 per cent elective work to suit their needs. Superintendent Dixon believes that it will be the public schools that will have to serve the people who support them. The normal school must see to it that it is giving the manual arts that are so needed to prepare the youth of our land for special efficiency. It was one of the best addresses given during the summer session. State Normal Notes. Rev. B. P. Richardson and Mr. S. R. Theobald were visitors Tuesday. The Benevolent society will give a concert in the chapel in the near future. Watch for definite announcement. The school of education has accepted the approval of 2000 copies of Bulletin No. 4. This will be ready as soon as the catalog of the school with announcements for 1911-1912. By an almost unanimous vote at the convocation period the students voted to hold no school on Wednesday, July 1, and to make up on the time lost on the following Saturday. Hence work in all departments will be closed on Monday and Tuesday of next week and all classes will meet on Saturday, July 1. The little tots in the kindergarten observation school are making plans to give the fourth of July by making for themselves soldiers' hats with gay colored cockades, innocent firecrackers, just the kind for a "safe Fourth," and learning through their play the meaning of our country's day, how "It's red, sea, be brave; its blue says, true; its white says, pure; its black one making his own flag."

On Friday morning, June 30, beginning at 8:30, a brief patriotic service will be held in the chapel of the Normal school. CLUB'S ANNUAL PICNIC. The Minerva club had its annual picnic at the State Normal grounds Thursday evening. The ladies of the club met in the afternoon at the home of one of the members to discuss the club for the year. Later the families of all the members joined the party, and all enjoyed a long table on the lawn and enjoyed a many-course picnic. Mrs. W. H. Stephens, the secretary of the club, presided.

Winside defeated Linden in a most interesting game of ball at the park here last Sunday. There was nothing going until the fourth inning, when the home team ran in one score, after which the series of runs were allowed until the seventh inning, when Linden scored three times. This aroused the boys to action and in the eighth inning ran in four scores, after which Linden failed to make good, leaving the score 3 to 1 in favor of the home team. A big, good-natured crowd was out to see the game, and all went away feeling they had their money's worth. Tilden certainly was not a bad fellow, but his many fellows, who proved a credit to the town, Empire, Tom Johnson, but, besides, Winside cross and honorary: Tilden, Klunger and Fryor.

TEKAMAH EDUCATOR ADDRESSES NORMAL FOR INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION Urged Importance of Manual Training in the Schools—Only Way to Serve the Public. Superintendent A. H. Dixon of Tekamah addressed the 23rd session of the State Normal Monday afternoon on the subject of "Industrial Education." Mr. Dixon said that the public schools must provide for industrial education, or it will provide for itself in institutions outside the public schools; that 95 per cent of the boys and girls needed it, and that it was unfair to ask the public to support schools which do not serve their needs; that at the time the present school curriculum was organized manual work was taught in the home, but now that the manual arts are left to the home, the schools must make them a part of their program; that this new requirement can be met only by the normal school. It is a flexible and thus giving the 95 per cent elective work to suit their needs. Superintendent Dixon believes that it will be the public schools that will have to serve the people who support them. The normal school must see to it that it is giving the manual arts that are so needed to prepare the youth of our land for special efficiency. ### Self-Made Man for Sheriff

The self-made man always excites favor. The boy who doesn't complain over an unequal lot, but who buckles in to win against every obstacle, attracts admiration. The lad who is not dismayed by the loss of a father, but who is determined to educate himself and make something of himself notwithstanding such loss and disadvantage; is one whom people like to help along when opportunity to do so is presented.

Pliegere C. Hughes is such one. He struggled unaided by a father, who died while his son was in infancy. This boy, now a young man well fitted by nature and training for the duties of sheriff, asks for that office. Won't the people be likely to give their support to a self-made man of such pluck and such good habits of industry?

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the nomination of sheriff, subject to the approval of the republican voters at the primary to be Tuesday, August 15.
