The cost will be $12,000, of which the sum of $5,000 is now on hand. The opera house at Blair burned a year ago, and the proposed new auditorium is very necessary. Blair now, therefore, Blair is not in as good shape as Wayne in the matter of opera house accommodations.

We Are Getting Tired of this Winter weather; so we are going to sell Garden SEEDS. The man who, apparently, sowed lettuce and reaped sun-flowers did not do his trading at OUR store. We apply the same principle to the sale of our seeds as you do to your sowing--whatever we sow, that we also wish to reap. For on the reaping depends your future confidence in us. All our seeds are clean and carefully selected from the finest stocks in the country. You can absolutely rely on their exceptionally fine quality. We carry a great variety, but if we have not what you want, we will get it for you. Come and inspect our stock today. —We not only sell garden seeds but carry a complete stock of Groceries, and our Fresh Fruit and Vegetables are always the best. Fresh Lard wanted all the time, and will pay the highest price for butter—that is good butter. Yours for business. John F. Clinkenbard & Co

Here Is The Evidence! 100 Wayne County Farmers That Are Using The Improved DeLaval Cream Separator. Below is a list of some of the DeLaval users in Wayne territory, who own neighbors, that have had experience with other makes of cream separators that have discarded them and have replaced them with the improved DeLaval. Ask any one of them, get their evidence in separator trials, and then be guided by their experience. Profit by the experience of these people, and when you buy a cream separator don't let anyone tell you they sell a machine as good as the improved DeLaval. Let us bring one out; try it and let results prove to you that the improved DeLaval is ten years ahead of all others. Sooner or Later You Will Buy a DeLaval. WELDON CROSSLAND TAKES FIRST PLACE. Weldon Crossland, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Crossland of Wayne, has won the first prize in the oratorical contest at Grand Island. His brother, William, proved a winner in debate, and Weldon has ambition and, undoubtedly, in the same direction. His success may please his wayward friends. The report from Grand Island says: Grand Island, Neb., Feb. 16—W. F. Crossland of Wayne, representing the Nebraska Wesleyan university, won the Nebraska collegiate oratorical contest tonight with his oration on "The Bulwark of Labor." Louis Cavanaugh of Creighton university, won second place, delivering an oration on "The Bulwark of Labor." C. A. Sorenson of Grand Island college, talking on "The Hand of the Past," was third. TRIMPH OF THE ARCADIEN MALLEABLE NON-BREAKABLE RANGE. IT COOKS AND BAKES BETTER. The Arcadien accomplishes magnificently what has been the long cherished wish of all housewives—A Range That Will Bake Perfectly Alone. In the nervous operation of the Arcadien Range, with its automatic control of the heat, the absolute and quick control of the fire, and the air, gas and dust-tightness of its cover, the full-strengthed exquisite natural flavor of the foods are preserved unimpaired. The results are ever the lightest, sweetest and most nutritious foods, and the same are decidedly more palatable. The Arcadien Malleable Non-Breakable Range is built like a locomotive boiler—perfectly tight. No false drafts, which are so destructive to good baking and cooking, can enter its body as in the case of other ranges—the cast iron ranges or the so-called steel ranges which are of cast steel and cast iron construction. The Arcadien Range obeys the slightest command of the operator in responding promptly to the manipulation of the dials or registers controlling the draft and will heat rapidly and cool off rapidly, as desired. By the positive control of the heat, the uniform heating of the area, you are enabled with the Arcadien Range to cook and bake any article of food with absolute certainty of getting, at all times, excellent results. Wilmington, Cal., Journal: "The little city of Wayne, Neb., where the Journal family came from a few months ago, is at present represented in Los Angeles, Pasadena, Pomona, Long Beach, San Diego and Wilmington by over sixty people, and "more on the way." Wayne is a town of about 5,000 in the very best agricultural section of the middle states. If this is anything like an average immigration from the cities and villages of the west, for the past five months, the population here will grow to materially revise their estimate of a mere million inhabitants for Los Angeles in 1920.

Ricky in Lincoln Journal: A little picture, also, is a dangerous thing. It has been the start of many a useful citizen. A considerable percentage of men who go to legislatures are infected with the bug of statesmanship, and honestly and earnestly believe that the honor so spontaneously thrust upon them may have been intrusted as a mere stepping stone to higher and more dignified positions of trust and responsibility. So they map out for themselves a useful career and forsake the avenues of political endeavor where, perhaps, they may be of great service to mankind. And the man who plans for himself such a career usually becomes a trimmer, a time-server, and in most cases an undesirable citizen. Cut it out, my brother, if you have visible means of support that do not require too much waste of physical energy.

The singers of the other churches are cordially invited to join in the chorus.

FUNDED DEAD IN HER CHAIR.

Last Saturday Mrs. Nellie A. Hawley, aged 71 years, was found dead in her chair at her home just south of the Randolph hotel. The discovery was made by Mrs. P. H. Bernard and Mrs. C. St. Jones. The latter in delivering milk there, received an answer to her knock at the door called Mrs. Bernard, and the two ladies entered the house. They were shocked to find its occupant cold in death, sitting in a natural position in her chair by the stove. The dead woman was fully dressed and had a woolen cloth about her head. Near the stove from which the fire had died out, were two pieces of toast and the lamp was still burning on the table. Three feet dead in the presumption that death came Friday evening, at what hour none can tell, the cause being a stroke of apoplexy—Randolph Times.

THE WEEK WITH THE CHURCHES.

German Evangelical Lutheran Church of St. Katherine, Pastor: Services at the usual hour, 11 o'clock, Sunday morning and Sunday school at 10.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church. (Rev. G. J. Rieger, Pastor.) Regular preaching services next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Cathedral instruction at 2 p. m. Saturday.

St. Mary's Catholic Church. (Rev. William Keene, Pastor.) There will be mass at 8 o'clock Sunday morning after which the pastor goes to Winside where he has a congregation.

First Baptist Church. (Rev. B. P. Richardson, Pastor.) Worship and preaching Sunday morning at 10:45. The subject of the sermon will be "The Winning of a Life." The Sunday school meets at 12 o'clock, with accommodations for all who can remain for that session.

At 6:30 p. m. the young people's meeting is held, the program will be under the leadership of the missionary committee. The lesson will have to do with the Indian.

On Sunday evening at 7:30 the evangelistic services begin with a union meeting. Evangelist Papsley, known as "the Canadian Pyralis," will preach here.

Special services will be held every evening the coming week. Professor J. C. Coleman will have charge of the singing. We invite members of the other churches to join in the chorus. Evangelist Papsley comes to us after successful meetings at Glonville and Stromsburg, in this state. According to the daily press, he is a strong, convincing speaker.

On tomorrow (Friday) afternoon the Missionary society will meet with Mrs. McVay. It will be an important meeting for all members.

First Methodist Church. (Rev. William Gorst, Pastor.) The members are enjoying large meetings and much interest. The Brotherhood class in Sunday school is doing fine work with a large attendance.

William Beckenbauer as the superintendent and Professor E. C. Taylor as the chorister area strong team in the Sunday school.

At the monthly meeting of the official board last Monday evening, it was voted to hold a men's banquet in March to hear Chancellor Palmer and other speakers from Nebraska Wesleyan university in the interest of the endowment campaign to be completed in April. The generosity of the board in voting the banquet, etc., is worthy of high commendation. There will be a number of interesting speakers from nearby towns and churches. The date of the banquet is likely to be March 22.

Various details are yet to be worked out by a committee charged with the full and final arrangements.

STATE NORMAL NEWS.

Mesdames Lamberson and Sherbahn were visitors Thursday afternoon.

Henry W. Page was called to his home Saturday by a message announcing the death of his father.

The students enjoyed a good chapel talk by Dr. Gorst last Tuesday morning.

A union service of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. was held last Sunday afternoon. The meeting was addressed by Dr. Coker.

The next bulletin of the school will be issued April 3 and will be an announcement of the work of the summer session.

A program by the Philomathean literary society is announced for Friday evening, February 23. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

Work in manual training is a popular department of the course. There are now forty-two young men enrolled in the various courses offered by Professor Hunter this semester.

The debating teams have already begun work on their debates, preparation for the contests to be held with Logan and Kearney the latter part of April.

Miss Sara J. Elkins of Fairview, Mo., visited Tuesday morning. Miss Elkins expects to teach in Nebraska next year and will qualify for her work by taking a teacher's course in the Normal.

Miss Abbie V. Murphy of O'Neill, who has been taking review subjects for a first grade county certificate, has been engaged to teach a spring term at school and entered upon her duties last Monday morning.

Mr. J. C. W. Lewis writes from Fort Dodge, Ia., that he found her mother's condition quite serious and that she expects to be detained for some time. Her classes in shorthand are at present in charge of Miss Monday.

A new order for reference books was sent this week. The law requires each student who enters a Nebraska state normal school to pay an entrance fee of five dollars, which must be used exclusively in the purchase of books.

The new reference books to be purchased will be the best of the normal school, and our own State Normal will soon be equipped with an exceptionally strong reference library.

Last Saturday evening a large crowd watched with the greatest pleasure a real basket ball game in the Normal gymnasium. The Blair high school and the Normal second team played a game which to everyone present seemed ideal.

There was no wrangling, rough playing or disputes, and the true spirit of fast team work and true sportsmanship shone in every movement in the minds of the boys. The final score was 29 to 16 in favor of the Normal. The Blair team was accompanied by Professor Smith, who acted as referee the last half of the game. During the intermissions of the game the Normal students were again played and won from the Sixth grade of the city schools by a score of 16 to 6.

THE TWO ROCKEYELLERS. Lincoln Journal, It is a sorry business made by Frank Rockeyeller that he and his brother John have not spoken to each other for the last twelve years. It would be an unseemly thing to pry into their family affairs for the cause of this estrangement. No doubt it has to do with money matters. Frank has never been able to get along as well as his elder brother, and the sad prospect of having less than $50,000.00 to solace his old age while John has quite ten times as much, has argued in his "broom" a spirit of envy that has been the cause of his conduct, so enraging, Frank has worked hard all his days, has been frugal and economical as he could be and keep his flesh, yet the wealth of his brother, who has been no more prudent and careful than himself, has given him an unlooked for depression in the earth by the side of an ant hill. Here is the situation: Frank cannot be reconciled to the inequality and John despises him because he is comparatively poor. Therefore differences are irreconcilable, and the boys will wobble down to their graves hating instead of harmonizing with one another. If John dies first, Frank can play even with him by waiting until his money is all gone, and then he can take his share of his brother's estate. If he dies first, he will be a larger one and bear a more flattering epitaph.

"I am one of the few men of my acquaintance who didn't in their childhood have a chance to try out with a big league base ball team, and it wasn't my parents' fault either; I couldn't play good enough." -Rufe Hoskins.

If you are suffering with a bad cold, pneumonia, croup, nervousism, weak lungs, catarrh or any nervous affection, see Mrs. Bessie Turpin (Phone Back 219). Her treatments for the above ailments are highly recommended by many Wayne county people who have taken them.

Did you ever hear your telephone ring, ring and ring again when you were busy and did not answer?

If you did the operator probably finally reported to the party calling you, "They do not answer." (Note she never says, "They are not there.") Then she disconnects at your time.

Perhaps five seconds later, just six seconds too late, you answered. You got no reply. You, no doubt exclaimed, "My bell rang."

Yes, your bell did ring, but you did not answer promptly. Your delay caused either the loss of a customer or inconvenience of a friend.

Our constant endeavor is to give the quickest and best telephone service this human ingenuity can devise.

Your attitude in calling or receiving calls will hinder or aid our best efforts. Won't you help us?

We should not allow political or religious prejudices to keep us awake nights. All the most of us really want is better and happier times and a decent, orderly and progressive condition of society.

The first demoralizing presidential boom of Senator LaFollette's campaign for the future political membership of his former Nebraska booster, Frank Harrison. With the LaFollette boom gone, what will Frank do?

The volume of Wayne's postoffice has been increased from 1000 to 1500 copies weekly within the city. Steps ought to be taken to secure such improved service. With it established, building would be easier to land.

Last Saturday was the Chinese New Year's day, but it was not given usual attention among orientals. Under the new order of things in China, the Confucian calendar is to be kicked aside and replaced with the Christian calendar, beginning the year January 1st.

This country's interest and enthusiasm did not mark the observance of February 17 this year.

Senator LaFollette is a pathetic figure in this time. He is a pioneer in honesty and a radical who seemed to have the rather rare quality of sincerity and consistency. Though deemed out of favor in sound judgment, he was regarded to lead the fight for the presidency against the administration later. His supporters began to desert him. Cummins withdrew from LaFollette and launched a boom of his own. Many supporters of the Wisconsin senator quit him to lend strength to Roosevelt. The fact is that one of the latest to do so, was LaFollette. Think of his miserable friends?

Washington refused a third term as president to get the country away from the grip of the shackles of monarchy. Washington was popular and could have easily held leadership of the government. But he was wise enough to see the dangers of a personal power, and he withdrew at the expiration of his second term in interest of the country which he loved and the freedom of which he fought to win. The good precedent which he established, is not likely to be set aside by the choice of Theodore Roosevelt for president of his second term. A precedent that will last for nearly eight years, and could not be said to have been a popular wave, without later stinging people with the feeling that they had yielded to a semblance of monarchy.

It should not be supposed that all political differences and disorders are confined to the republican party. The democrats are also having trouble, and enough of it to leave as many sore spots as republicans will likely suffer. Hamlin Democrats and a Sioux City Democrat - Washler - finished in the week M. F. Harrington issued a statement taking a stand against Harmon and charging that the presidential candidate had participated in the bond sale during the Cleveland administration. At Fremont, Charles Guendler accused Harrington by declaring that Harmon did not become a member of the Cleveland cabinet for several months after the bond issue and had nothing to do with the Cleveland bond sale. He got into a fight for a Wilson meeting to be held at Lincoln in the near future. W. J. Bryan is supposed to favor Wilson. Speaker Clark's support in Nebraska is not sufficient to be noticeable. However, William B. Harst, the suffrage

Journalist, has announced his intention to favor Clark. The democratic atmosphere, therefore, is not very clear, and a series of thrilling battles will assuredly precede the naming of the party's choice. And after all, the present voting thing will determine what Mr. Bryan is nominated.

We have heard some talk lately of organizing a Y. M. C. A. in Wayne, and raising money to put up a suitable building, with reading room, gymnasium, swimming pool, and other facilities. Inquiries surrounding lack of institutions would be good, and advantages insured would give mental stimulus and physical development. The Y. M. C. A. is not restricted to young people. Men over 40 are too old for its benefits. It is necessary to believe it should be given to not constitute amuse young people in order to make them good. If they have ambition and are not inclined to waste time in luxury and idleness, they are likely to follow lines of right living, without being excessively puffed, petted and entertained. It should not be necessary to coax or force boys to work or be good. It should not be necessary to keep up a continual amusement to keep them from being bored. They should be employed in some useful endeavor, resolution to do something worthwhile and not be a worthless barnacle on the reef society will usually keep boys from becoming very bad. They are thinking of things to do, and they are waiting for a chance to get out for stored energy, waste of which is, therefore, not tempted by the impus of dissipation. But with cultivation of habits of work should be cultivation of habits of recreation, and nothing of greater importance than a well equipped institution under the direction of a well-organized Y. M. COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

Be this as it may, either boy is entitled to the help that may mean so much to him. Many of us are not so fortunate, boy that has fallen among strangers because of the death of his relatives or some other misfortune; and feeling that no one cares for him has become careless and indifferent to his own life. Many of these boys who really care for him, who expect something of him, and show by their actions that they have confidence in him and thus make him feel that he has everything to gain and nothing to lose.

"The boy who can do so well as 'The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come' and 'The Evolution of Dodd.' I believe that every parent and every teacher should make a careful study of such books.

"The boy has a right to express his own opinion. He may be right, but if wrong, let him see how his error. Don't tell him he does not know anything about a subject. Encourage him to be right. A part of our time should be taken to get acquainted with your boys. Encourage them to have confidence in themselves and never be afraid to express their views in any way.

SHRINES IN JAPAN.

These Within the Guarded Gates of the Asakusa Temple. "Asakusa temple is dedicated to the goddess Kwannon, a tiny image of gold about two and a half inches high, writes a traveler in Japan. At the entrance to the temple grounds on either side of the immense gate stand two large and frontal looking figures, guarding the sacred precincts. Hang-bags outside the wire grating are a number of sandals for their use if they visit the temple, and nicely supplied about. Each worshiper before entering the temple calls at a small building and after recumbent a small shrine washes his hands and rinses his mouth.

In front of the main shrine is a large aperture in the floor covered with lattice work, into which the worshiper casts his gift. After clapping his hands to awaken or attract the attention of the god he kneels, but his prayer is only brief. While there is one shrine, there are many others under the same roof.

One shrine especially attracted my attention. It was made of wood and quite different from others through the constant rubbing of hands on the spot corresponding to the pulpit portion of our sanctuaries' bodies." Chicago News.

Horsebores in Turkey.

In many parts of Turkey horsebores are simply a plate of iron with a hole in the middle. An extraordinary method still obtains in portions of the Ottoman empire of slowing the horse. The farther doubles a long rope and knots a loop at the end to about the size of a large brass ring. This is put over the horse's head after the manner of a horse collar, and the knot rests on the horse's chest. The next step is to bring the two ends of the rope between the animal's legs. Each rope then, taken by a man, is stretched on the fetlocks of the horse's legs and hooked through the top to front. Then by a hard, steady pull the hind legs are drawn up to the fore-legs, and the horse falls heavily on its side. All four feet are now tied together by the fetlocks. The horse is propped up on his back, and the farther sits quietly down beside him, takes off the old shoes and puts on the new.

DON'T BUY SEED CORN

Unless you know that every ear is tested to grow by a safe and sure method. Your land and labor are too valuable to experiment with seed of questionable germination. Such seed is expensive at any price.

Wayne County Teacher

Spring Work.

If it not too early to begin planning your spring school ground work. Begin to talk with the children and enlist their interest in spring cleaning such as making the yard, trimming the trees, taking away the ashes and making flower beds.

Nasturtiums and aster are two hardy plants that will grow if given half a chance. These will blossom next September. There is no reason why every school house should not have a woodbine growing over it.

The Flower Mission Penny Packet Seeds. For children gardens afford a way for each child to buy his own seed very cheaply through the teacher. If you are interested write the Flower Mission, 2002 West 25th St., Cleveland, Ohio, for their catalogue.

Those Eighth Grade Papers.

In looking over the eighth grade grammar papers, we found one that one of the would-be graduates had earned credit on the question which required the pupil to write to A. C. McClurg & Co. ordering some books. Most of the error occurred in the salutation and the closing of the letter showing that the pupil did not know the difference between a friendship and a business letter.

New School House in District No. 32.

The people in school district 32 are going to build a new school house this spring. Mr. B. VanSegeren is the director of the district school board called at the office recently to find out about plans for a modern building, properly heated, lighted and ventilated. Mr. VanSegeren is a progressive man from Stanton county, transferred to Wayne county for school purposes and we greatly appreciate his efforts on behalf of the district.

Good business men agree that in all constructions, proper specifications is wisely invested. In the long run it is not only a safeguard, but a saving in money invested.

Teachers and Patrons Meet in Court Room February 14.

When the programs for the joint meeting were printed it was thought that districts would be held in session and that our meeting would be held in the high school building. Later in the week we learned that court would not be in session on Friday. We have arranged to have the meeting in the court room as usual.

In the afternoon we wish to see a great number of the fathers and mothers present and we have asked the teachers to invite all the patrons of their districts to attend. Besides some good music and other numbers on the program, Professor Brannolte will give an address on "Co-operation."

Following is a letter from the state superintendent regarding the eighth grade R. C. work. If your pupils have not yet handed in their reviews it ought to be done as soon as possible.

February 12, 1912.

You have probably begun to plan for your eighth grade examinations. May I suggest that you communicate at once with your eighth grade classes and their teachers with reference to credits to be added to eighth grade examination grades for satisfactory reading circle work as outlined on page 19 of the reading circle bulletin for 1911-12. If you have not already supplied your teachers with the pupils reading circle certificates to be awarded pupils when books have been read carefully and satisfactorily reviewed by the teacher. When these reading circle certificates are presented to you may, at your discretion, add credits to the grades earned in the eighth grade examination as outlined in the bulletin.

I know of no way whereby we may better promote the systematic reading of good books by our seventh and eighth grade pupils than by the cooperation of teacher and county superintendent in the issuance and the granting of credits on eighth grade examination grades. Trust you will do all in your power to assist in this great work.

Yours very truly, J. A. B. STATE SUPERINTENDENT

Eighth Grade Examinations and Requirements for Free High School Certificates.

The free high school certificates may be issued only to pupils who pass the state eighth grade examinations in accordance with the rules and regulations of the state department of public instruction and who in addition thereto are entitled to the privileges of the free high school law (S. C. Laws 1908, 6 and 6 subdivision G, School Laws 1908). The teacher and superintendent should make sure that a pupil is entitled to this certificate before issuing the same.

Rules and Regulations.

- 1. The examination shall be held in each county at the county seat and at other central places in the county as directed by the county superintendent.
2. No pupil shall be admitted to the final examination except on the written recommendation of the teacher.
3. No pupil shall be admitted to the final examination who has not completed the full work as outlined in the course of study. Provided, that on the recommendation of the teacher, pupils in particular subjects and such grades may be retained at the discretion of the county superintendent until the completion of the final examination.
4. No pupil shall leave the examination room after the opening of the examination until the close of the quarter concerned.
5. Pupils are not permitted to communicate with each other during the examination nor to give or receive aid of any kind.
6. The county superintendent should cancel the grades of any pupil who violates rule 5.
7. The examination papers shall be marked by the county superintendent or by a committee of teachers by examination under no circumstances shall the papers be marked by the pupil's teacher.
8. The average passing grade shall be 75 per cent with a minimum of 70 per cent and a maximum of 80 per cent in any subject.
9. For the year 1911-1912 there shall be three examination dates, as follows: Thursday and Friday, March 21 and 22; Thursday and Friday, April 25 and 26; Thursday and Friday, May 9 and 10.

And whether he's slow or it isn't the fact that you've found that you've... But how did you fight and why... -Edmond Vance Cook.

Of General Interest.

The Normal male quartet will sing for the teachers and patrons meeting on Saturday afternoon. Owing to ill health, Grace L. Jones was forced to give up her school work in district No. 38.

SUGGESTIONS.

The Nebraska course of study for elementary schools is the course of study prescribed for the first eight grades. Care should be taken to recommend for this examination only those pupils who are well prepared to do good work in the high schools.

Being happy is a habit; get it. Jealousy never helped a man in any position. Wonder why we never appreciate the other fellow's success quite as much as our own.

Washington perhaps suffered more defeats than any other general that ever attered a map. Stand with anybody that stands right. Stand with him while he is right, but part from him when he goes wrong. -Lincoln.

Did you tackle the trouble that came your way. With a resolute heart and cheerful? Or hide your face from the light of day. With a craven soul and fearful? A trouble's a ton, or a trouble's an ounce. On a trouble is what you make it.

And it isn't the fact that you've hurt that counts. But only how did you take it? You are beaten to earth? Well, well, what's that? Come up with a smiling face. It's nothing against you to fall down. But to lie there, that's disgrace. The harder you're thrown, why the higher you bounce. Be proud of your blackened eyes. It isn't the fact that you're licked that counts. It's how did you fight and why?

And though you be done to the death, what then? If you battled the best you could. If you played your part in the world of war. Why the Critic will call it good. Death comes with a pounce.

And whether he's slow or it isn't the fact that you've found that you've... But how did you fight and why... -Edmond Vance Cook.

Miss Emma Schwerin, the second grade teacher of the Lincoln schools, has been elected to a position in the school of Wayne county. He holds a first grade "With Credit" certificate.

A very successful patrons meeting was held in the Sholes Consolidated school last Friday. There were a number of papers by both patrons and teachers, and a general discussion of school problems, after which supper was served to the guests by the teachers.

There were forty-nine pupils in the county who received Certificates of Award this month. Myrtle McMillan, Cora McMillan, Harriett Jones, Dewey Bruggeman, Ruby Oman, Margaret Milkken and Dora Swanson received Diplomas of Honor.

Every teacher ought to have a seed corn germinating box at work in her school room by the first of March. Directions for the use of the box will be sent out to each teacher last week. Authorities on seed corn in the state say that they have never seen the seed corn conditions worse than at present.

In a school recently visited the pupils have acquired the habit of waving the hands back and forth every time the teacher asks a question. Not only was the hand waved but many of the pupils half arose from their seats and swung the body back and forth as well as the hand. It was evident that most of them did not even know what the question was, let alone the answer.

The Month's Letters. Miss Olson writes from district No. 6, east of Wayne, that "School board again on the twelfth after being closed the second time this winter on account of agerful fever." She says that there are three cases in the district at the present time but that the school board have had the building fumigated and will endeavor to keep school open from now on.

Miss Louise Wendt reports that a box social will be held in district No. 37 on Saturday, February 17. Joy Dorance of district No. 1, east of Hoskins, writes as follows: "We have written to Tanana, Alaska, and some of the pupils have received very interesting replies. They find that it is necessary for them to have lamps in the school house except about an hour just at noon because the sun does not reach them at all over there. They said they had not had cold weather at all this winter as the temperature had only been from 20 to 40 below."

This is certainly the basis for a good geography lesson. A social was held in district No. 48 the latter part of January. The proceeds will be used to purchase a set of reference books. A certain teacher in Wayne county who but recently had an offer to take a position in a town school, writes: "I think I am doing good work here and as long as I am satisfied with my work I will stay with district No. 1. The country is where I belong. I believe in the advancement of the country schools and some one must work in them. Am I not right? My board are surely doing the right thing by me, and I shall stay by them."

An enjoyable afternoon was spent on Friday preceding Christmas at district No. 1. The teacher and pupil had prepared a program and decorated the Christmas tree with presents. (All children had purchased or made gifts for their mothers and for one or more of their school mates. After the program the distribution of presents took place and just as the last presents were being handed out, a merry ringing of sleigh bells sounded at the door. Upon the teacher's request several little primary girls opened the door to welcome old "Santa." He created quite a sensation as he had several large packs of goodies for the children. As soon as he left cake and coffee were served to the guests. All the mothers and most of the fathers in the district were present, besides some other visitors.

Alice McDonald writes the following from district No. 44, west of Carroll: "We made $35 at our box social and will use it in buying books, curtains and boxing gloves." "We met last Wednesday evening and organized a literary. We are planning on having some good programs. We will meet on Wednesday evening. Mr. Spencer Jones is the president. After we organized the literary we had a regular old-fashioned spelling school. I pronounced the words and they spelled at most all the words 'Graves' speller. Lizzie Williams at last spelled them all down."

Don't forget to attend the joint teachers' and patrons' meeting in the court room Saturday, February 24. A card bearing the following from Puck, compliments of the A. N. Palmer Co., is so apt that we reprint it here:

A HUMAN TENDENCY. The College President: Such rawness in a student is shameful. But lack of preparation is to blame. The High School Principal: Good heavens! What cruelty! The boy's a fool. The fault, of course, is with the grammar school. The Grammar Principal: Would that from such a dunce I might be spared! They send them up to me so unprepared. The Primary Teacher: Poor kindergarten block-head! And they call that "preparation;" worse than none at all. The Kindergarten Teacher: Never sick lack of training did I see! What sort of person can the mother be?

The Mother: You stupid child! But then you're not to blame. Your father's family are all the same. The Philosopher: Shall father in his folks' defense be heard? No, let the mother have the final word.
