ADDRESS BY STATE

FIRE COMMISSIONER

TALKS FOR FIRE PREVENTION

After Inspecting Wayne's Alleys, He Thinks They are Filthy and Need Attention.

C. A. Randall, chief deputy fire commissioner, addressed a large audience in the court room last evening. Many of his hearers were women and children. He was introduced by Mayor J. H. Kate who made some appropriate remarks.

As the name of his office suggests, Mr. Randall's duties are to see that the law safeguarding property against destruction by fire, is obeyed. To give an understanding of the law's requirements, and arouse interest in behalf of greater care in the handling of fire and inflammable materials, he is carrying on a campaign of instruction.

In his speech last night, Mr. Randall pointed out dangers that often result in serious conflagrations. He mentioned that careless use of gasoline caused more fires than any other one thing. He spoke of the Fourth of July and Christmas as two days of the year when many fires and fatalities occur through lack of caution and good judgment.

He praised Wayne and Wayne county. This country gave him a big vote when he ran for senator some years ago, and he has not forgotten the fact. But he found some things in the city to criticize, notably the alleys. He said they were as filthy as he has ever seen anywhere. He thought of a crusade against such alleys was timely. He had inspected the city's fire fighting apparatus and found it in poor shape. He appreciated the prospect, however, of the improvement that will be made when the new city hall is completed.

He was listened to attentively, and the information he gave and the criticisms he offered should prove beneficial.

DEATH OF JOHN WIER

AT ILLINOIS HOME

A telegram was received here last Thursday by James McIntosh announcing the death of John Wier who passed away at his home in Orland, Ill., that day. Mr. McIntosh, Gus Hansen, and James Grier left the next day for Orland to attend the funeral which took place Sunday, and they returned to Wayne Tuesday.

Mr. Wier owned considerable land in Wayne county, and came here once a year to look after his interests. He was a man of excellent character, and noble, generous impulses. The respect in which he was held by those who had business relations with him, is attested by the fact that the three men who went to Orland to attend the last sad rites, are among his renters. He was a good citizen and will be remembered with esteem by all who knew him.

At the Easter service last Sunday at the St. Paul's Lutheran church, a large audience filled the house; also one of the largest communions in the history of the church was participated in. There were nine additions to the church. At Emerson Rev. C. J. Ringer received twenty-nine additions to the membership.

Twelve towns were represented at a base ball meeting at Wakefield last Friday. J. J. Ahern attended from Wayne. The main object was to reach an agreement fixing restrictions on the number of outside players each town would employ, but no agreement was reached. The towns propose to organize with good players of high character and put the game on a high plane.

J. H. Foster & Son who have the contract for building the Carnegie library, commenced the erection of a building today for the storage of cement to be used in carrying out the contract.

WAYNE TEAM DEFEATS

RANDOLPH IN DEBATE

A large audience heard the debate between the Wayne and Randolph high schools last Friday evening in the high school auditorium. The proposition debated was: "Resolved, That the Movement of Organized Labor for the Closed Shop Should Receive the Support of Public Opinion." Wayne maintained the affirmative and was represented by Clement Crossland, Bernard McConnell and Tracy Kohl. Randolph, on the negative, was represented by Pine Wagner, Edith Willey and Alfred Reese. The debate indicated much hard training by both teams as they showed thorough mastery of the question. According to the judges the direct argumentation and refutation of the two teams were about a tie, but in delivery and rebuttal the Wayne team had a margin over their opponents and were therefore given the victory. The judges were Superintendent C. M. Matheny of Emerson, Superintendent D. D. Gibson of Lyons, and Professor Edwin Moxey of the Nebraska State university. Professor W. D. Redmond of the State Normal was the presiding officer. Excellent music was furnished by the high school orchestra and the State Normal male quartet. After the program the high school gave a reception in the gymnasium which was thoroughly enjoyed. The auditorium and gymnasium were beautifully decorated in the high school colors and with Wayne, Randolph and other high school and college pennants.

Eight newly enrolled pupils this week. The high school girls will hold a candy and baked stuff exchange at Adams' furniture store on Saturday afternoon, this week. Proceeds for the benefit of the Athletic Association.

In these two beautiful pictures the class of 1911 has certainly left a most worthy gift to its alma mater.

The junior class gave the following descriptive program of the high school classes last Friday morning with Verne Marsteller presiding: History and description of Freshmen; Luella Bush; sophomores, Goldie Chace; juniors, Ina Elming; seniors, Lotus Relyea.

Our high school base ball team will play an exhibition game with the State Normal team at the ball grounds on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Admission 15 cents.

Chief Deputy Fire Commissioner C. A. Randall addressed our public schools on Wednesday afternoon on the subject, "Fire Prevention." Mr. Randall impressed his hearers with the appalling facts regarding the loss of property and life due to carelessness and a lack of knowledge of explosives and inflammables. He gave some very excellent suggestions for preventing explosions and fires. Mr. Randall urged the children to bring their parents to hear him at the court house. All enjoyed Mr. Randall's talk very much.

DEATH OF MRS. HANNAH MILLER

Mrs. Miller came to Wayne ten years ago, and for six years, on account of poor health, has been in the care of Mrs. Bruner. Funeral services will be held tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Bruner, conducted by Rev. William Gorst of the M. E. church, of which she had been a member for fifty years. She leaves two sons, one, P. L. CONGRESSMAN FROM WISCONSIN SPEAKS

AT STATE NORMAL CHAPEL HOUR

Tells About Reform Movement in Wisconsin—Praises Public Service of LaFollette.

Congressman E. A. Morse of Wisconsin, who has been making speeches in Nebraska in the interest of the presidential candidacy of Senator LaFollette, was in Wayne between trains Tuesday morning, and made a speech to the students and a number of citizens in the State Normal chapel.

He started out by telling how newspapers were apt to misrepresent members of congress, and not give them credit for the ability which they possess or the high purposes which actuate their efforts.

He dipped into the subject of conservation of national resources, and expressed his opinion that corporations had been rather to forward and willing to corral coal and oil fields, forests and water powers.

AN ARMY OF PECCARIES.

Fierce Fighters Are These Tusked Wild Pigs of South America.

The peccaries of South America are formidable because they attacked their enemies in large bodies and with great vigor and bravery.

The object to be stormed is surrounded in silence by a circle of hundreds of peccaries. At a given signal a simultaneous snapping of teeth occurs.

One day he and his party came upon a meadow, the furrowed ground, trampled grass, tufted pools and pigsty odor of which indicated that it was the headquarters of all the peccaries in the vicinity.

Suddenly the attack ceased. The animals had silently withdrawn. Then without a moment's warning save the crash of teeth came another wild charge, and the fight was renewed.

Be a trifling skate, with an active jaw, and talk all day of the rich man's law, and the iron heel and other things of which the four flusher spiels and sings; point out the flaws in the government, and preach a gospel of discontent; and every time that you go to town the boys'll start kicking your dog aroun'." Be an idle man who neglects his farm to view all day a wild alarm; just point the finger of righteous scorn when other farmers are shucking corn, and make a roar and a loud hooray about the taxes you have to pay; and every time that you go to town, the boys'll start kicking your dog aroun'.

LITTLE WILLIE

If you would make life grand and sweet, and harbor peace beneath your feet, then don't endeavor to repeat the clever things your little Willie says. Whenever I go out of doors, to shoo the wolf and chase it hence I meet some forty thousand boys who push me up against the fence; they stand around in frenzied rings and paw me till I'm nearly dead, and tell me all the clever things their little ten-cent Willies said. And all this joyous dope that racks my breast and rids my soul of joy, was culled from ancient almanacs, was known to Adam when a boy. If you persist in making known your little Willie's palsied jokes, full soon, my friend, you'll walk alone, abhorred and shunned by soulful folks. "As you go gurgling on your path to spring your little Willie talks, you'll see men climbing trees in wrath and crawling under neath the walks. The little Willies of this land have, through their parents, caused much woe. The time has come to take a stand and lay the Willie peril low. So, when to tell a Willie tale, there comes some fond and foolish dub, just say: "Your efforts won't avail—I've joined the anti-Willie club."

I believe in teaching men, teaching them with voice and pen, that the honest way's the best to get the kale; but the man of active persuasion and jaw says there ought to be a law and he wants to see his neighbors put in jail. I believe in showing boys that the purest, sanest joys are the joys that do not leave them feeling stale; but my neighbor, Jonas Yawp, blows a whistle for the cop, and is happy when he sees the boys in jail. If a man commits a crime I believe it wasted time when we ride him through the village on a rail; better teach him what is right—but old Jonas takes delight when he sees the malefactor rushed to jail. I can watch the rich man float in his gilded palace boat, and can wish him happy zephyrs on his sail; but old Jonas sees him go with a bitter wall of woe, crying loudly: "All the rich should be in jail." We are trying, one and all, to improve this muddly ball, and I surely hope our efforts will not fail; but I don't believe we'll make noble progress till we shake this old foolishness of sending men to jail. Oh, I don't believe it well to herd people in a cell till they're hardened in their sins; without the pale; let us try to lead men back when they've jumped the shifting track, for you can't reform the guy who rots in jail.

Learn to read, the foolish books—idle tales of blood and thunder; he who but in classics locks makes a common, grievous blunder. Read "Nick Carter" when you're blue, and your grief will soon have vanished. Oh, I don't know what I'd do if the rotten books were banished! Tired of reading Vital Truth and the books of stately diction, how I revel in "Old Sleuth" and the yellow-covered fiction! He who sticks to noble tomes, books profound and dull as blazes, he who never gaily roams down the Sherlockholmesy mazes, grows himself as dry as dust and as sudden as the furf is, and some day a windy gust blows his carcass off the surface. He is like a man who dwells on the roof of some high spire; all round him human yells, human kick and human yell. So I blithely spend my cash for the punk and worthless story; and I read the thrilling trash, full of murders raw and gore; it's so good and my savage breast with its fearsome plot and tittle tattle turns again with zest to the book that's Truly Vital.

The Poles, which have been lost for ages, discovered are at last: brave men toiled on by-weary stages, through snow and howling blast, with frozen feet and cheeks they hurried, with frozen hands and ears, and solved the problem which has worried the world a thousand years. And terrors dire came forth to greet them, and dangers througled the way; and polar bears oft tried to eat them, as horses eat their hay. The arctic night came down and found them listless in the gloom; and arctic phantoms shrieked around them, and wailed of death and doom. Yet uncomplaining and undaunted did these explorers roam, until they found the poles they wanted, and shipped the blamed things home. Thus victory comes to the bidder who pays the price of toil; and I'm ashamed when I consider how I raise huge turmoil over little obstacles that face me when I my task pursue; I plainly see it must disgrace me to raise a howdydo. So after this I'll be like Peary and Amundsen, the bold, and struggle on, though heart be weary, and both my feet are cold.

When with his chain that tyrant king, old Winter, long has bound us, how pleasant then is gentle Spring, when she comes smiling round us!

BALMY SPRING

When with his chain that tyrant king, old Winter, long has bound us, how pleasant then is gentle Spring, when she comes smiling round us! When I repair, a gay and blithe cavalier, and have him amputate my hair and cut my whiskers shorter. With sunny smile and sprightly joke I wander through the city, and put my overcoat in soak and sing a cheerful ditty. In spring the burden of my years seems fallen from my shoulder, and I'm as frisky as bay steers and not a blamed bit older. I'm just as chipper as can be, my vim could not be greater; I'd chase a peeler up a tree or whip an alligator. And while I'm feeling blithe and gay some sinful agent passes; he sells a tonic made of hay and barks and buds and grasses. He backs me up against a wall and says I need his mixtures to heal my liver and my gall and divers other fixtures. He proves that I am out of whack by reading texts and verses from Dr. Fakor's almanac—upon which book my curse is. And so I take his dope, and then my buoyancy's departed; I'm feeling old and laugh again, and stale and bristled. When spring time clothes me, smiling hills, rejuvenates each acre, beware the agent and his pills, beware of Dr. Fakor.

Niobrara Presbytery which includes all the Presbyterian churches in Northeast Nebraska, meets at Lynch on April 16, 17 and 18. The local church will be represented by the pastor and Elder Arthur Parry.

First Baptist Church. (Rev. B. P. Richardson, Pastor.) On last Sunday morning the hand of church-fellowship was given to thirty new members. Among this number some were well advanced in years while others were from our Sunday school.

We were pleased to see Mr. and Mrs. Kimball with us in our service last Sunday morning. All were saddened Sunday morning when our superintendent, Mr. O. A. King, told us that would be his last Sunday with us. He goes to Denver, Colo., to live. For about twelve years he has been closely connected with our school, and most of that time he has been our superintendent. The school adopted some resolutions of respect and appreciation of his work among us. It will be very hard to get another to take his place.

On Wednesday evening at 7:30 our prayer meeting will be held. This will be followed by a conference of the Sunday school officers and teachers.

Friday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Norton, the officers and program committee of the Missionary society will hold an important session. The pastor will preach at both services next Sunday. The morning subject will be "The Legacy of Jesus." The evening sermon will be evangelistic.

We extend a cordial invitation to all to worship with us.

First Methodist Church

(Rev. William Gorst, Pastor.) Within a few days Rev. Jacob Adrien of Fremont and Rev. Hiram Burch of University Place, have each given $2,000 to the endowment fund of Nebraska Wesleyan university. Both of these men are very old and were among the earliest pioneer ministers in Nebraska and Colorado. Many years ago Rev. Adrien organized Cherry Valley church in Colorado, before Denver was in existence and his organization has been developed into Great Trinity church of Denver, while Mr. Burch organized the first M. E. church in Nebraska at Nebraska City in 1854.

Mrs. J. H. Britell, assisted by several ladies, will entertain the Ladies' Aid society this afternoon.

Last week's prayer meeting was quite largely attended and was an excellent and helpful service.

Two hundred thirty-eight attended Sunday school last Sunday.

This week on Tuesday and Wednesday the district conference and also a meeting of laymen was held at Laurel, Professor H. H. Hickman read a paper on "The Federation of Churches."

Next Sunday the pastor will preach morning and evening, using the subjects, "God's Limitless Gifts," and "Next Friday's Primaries—Pending Amendments."

In these days of prosperity many men and women who have acquired a goodly amount of valuable property are in a position to make handsome gifts to worthy institutions. Just now the attention of such fortunate citizens of our state is being invited to the opportunity to place their surplus funds in the $400,000.00 endowment which friends of Christian education hope to present on May first to the Nebraska Wesleyan university. This institution has fully proven its worthiness and is a credit to the state and nation. It is manned by a strong faculty of forty-five highly capable professors led by Chancellor C. A. Fulmer, himself a Nebraska product who not only possesses masterful equipment for the work but is one of the most genial and lovable of men. The Wesleyan is turning out one hundred Christian teachers per year and other of her graduates are filling positions of honor as pastors and men of business.

Now is a good time to drag the roads and put them in good shape for travel.

If Taft had carried the Illinois primaries, Roosevelt would have denounced the system as unfair, or worse. As it is, it was a spasm of popular will which arouses the colonel to make use of the elegant phrase: "We slugged them over the ropes."

It has become a custom—and a very appropriate one—to set apart one day each year as Mothers' day, and accordingly Governor Aldrich has issued a proclamation designating May 12 as such day. Every one cherishes the memory of his mother, and a day set apart for her only emphasizes the love and devotion which she deserves all the time.

The initiative and referendum will be discussed in a debate between students of the Kearney Normal and Wayne Normal at this place tomorrow evening, and the participants have been engaged for weeks in a search for facts supporting each side of the question. They will enter the contest thoroughly prepared, and the information they will impart in the course of the debate will be of interest and value to people who attend.

In his speech at Omaha, Senator LaFollette commended the public service of Senator Brown in high terms, and was then reminded that Congressman Norris, not Brown, was on the LaFollette ticket. But if Senator Brown's record in Washington deserved the approval of the Wisconsin senator who must have spoken with knowledge, the endorsement ought to have weight regardless of what ticket he is on.

Failing to get the republican nomination and having become out of accord with the way the republican party is doing things, Colonel Roosevelt might try to nail the democratic nomination. He is too radical to suit the average democrat, but his defeat would be no greater than it will be at Chicago, and he could keep up his excited state of mind longer. He could prolong the "bully time" he is now having. He could attempt to capture the democrats without being more inconsistent than he has already been.

After one of the longest and coldest winters known to Nebraska civilization, spring-like weather is believed to be here to stay. The past winter has been one of unusual severity, and to see it disappear and give place to more agreeable elements is a source of relief and comfort. People turn attention joyfully to gardens and fields, growing verdure and developing buds. It is time to rake up and haul off rubbish, and make the premises more sightly and sanitary. It is hoped we have been fully released from the unwelcome grasp of one of the most diabolical winters on record.

President Taft's special message to congress last Thursday, pointing out the way to secure greater efficiency and economy in the administration of public affairs, is one of the most progressive steps ever taken by a president. He proposes to save $10,000,000 annually by eliminating unnecessary help and basing employment and compensation on skill and merit rather than on "political pull." The system would largely do away with the use of public patronage as a leverage in politics. The plan is in advance of anything of the kind ever proposed, and if adopted would insure better public service and an immense saving to the governmental treasury.

State Superintendent James E. Dellzell is very properly a candidate to succeed himself. On the resignation of Superintendent Crabtree last fall, Mr. Dellzell, then deputy, was promoted by appointment to the place made vacant. He is a school man of successful experience and has advanced rapidly in his work. He served five years in the rural schools, two years as principal at Benkeman, two years as principal at Gothenberg, and fourteen years as superintendent of the Lexington schools. His service as deputy state superintendent was so eminently satisfactory that his choice for the place vacated by Mr.

Crabtree naturally followed. That he deserves success at the polls April 19 and in November, every one acquainted with his record will testify.

Colonel Roosevelt's first notable victory since he fired his hat into the ring occurred in Illinois Tuesday when he won in the primary test against Taft and LaFollette. And of course, from the viewpoint of the Roosevelt managers, the Illinois primary is the only fair expression thus far had. If Roosevelt had lost Illinois, as he lost New York, he would have been virtually down and out. He would have felt like picking up his hat and withdrawing from the arena. His Illinois victory will encourage him to stay in the fight, in accordance with his pledge to the seven governors, until the Chicago convention acts June 18.

Big Supper Served.

The Royal Highlanders held a social dance at the conclusion of their meeting last Friday night. A bountiful supper was served and the festivities continued until far into the night.

Last Number of Lecture Course.

The Midland Ladies Concert company arrived Saturday night about 9:30 o'clock, but in spite of the lateness of the hour gave their entertainment to a large and appreciative audience. Each of these ladies is certainly an artist in her line. It would be difficult to say who the star is. Miss McCracken and Miss Geneva each delighted her audience with her beautiful voice, while Miss Lang's violin music was remarkably sweet. Miss Bates is a reader who makes good everywhere, and the four girls together furnish an entertainment that is a credit to any town. Financially the course was not a decided success as the committee is about $25 short. But no one feels that his money could have been put to better use. However some sort of entertainment will be given soon to help meet this deficit.

Fractured a Rib.

Mrs. G. C. Clark who lives east of town, had the misfortune to fracture a rib one day last week. She was in Wayne Friday for medical treatment and returned home Saturday morning. Her condition is now such as to enable her to go about her duties.

Farmers Get Busy.

The farmers in the community are now at work in earnest. Many are hauling manure and plowing and several are sowing wheat. John Horn, John McDonald, and F. C. Cleveland were among the first seen in the field.

Party at Weber Home.

There was an old fashioned play party last Friday night at the Weber home west of town. A large number of guests were present and participated in the genuine good time furnished.

Musical Treat.

On Wednesday evening of last week the people of Sholes and vicinity were treated to a high class musical entertainment by a blind man and his wife, of Friend, Neb. The lady, who was blind at birth, does marvelous work on both piano and guitar and possesses a good contralto voice. Their work would be difficult to surpass by those who are blessed with sight. Contrary to all rules, the collection was not taken until just before the last number, the result of which showed that Sholes is not going to be left behind in such benefits.

Hadley-Ellis Wedding.

Mr. John T. Hadley sprung a genuine surprise on his friends here when he was married last Wednesday, April 3, at Plattsmouth, Neb., to Miss Kittie Ellis of Cromwell, Ia. The Rev. A. L. Zink performed the ceremony in the parsonage of the Christian church, only a few witnesses being present. Mr. and Mrs. Hadley arrived in Sholes Friday morning and will begin their married life on John's farm, just south of town. We are pleased to welcome Mrs. Hadley to our community. May all the Lodge Anniversary.

Monday night marked the first anniversary of the organization of the Odd Fellows' lodge in Sholes, and was duly celebrated after the regular meeting this week by the members of the lodge, the Rebekahs and a few friends. William Closson, as master of ceremonies, opened the program by introducing Richard Closson who addressed us in his able and pleasing manner and also gave a short account of the history of this branch of the I. O. O. F. when organized. This was followed by an interesting talk by the Rev. Sloan of Randolph, who had walked from that burg to do his part in making the celebration a success. Miss Iva Root then gave a reading appropriate to the occasion which was followed by an instrumental solo by Miss Emma Clark. The program was closed by an instrumental duet by Misses Alice Root and Clara Burson. The banquet next occupied our attention. Two long beautifully decorated tables were spread the length of the hall and loaded with viands prepared by the Rebekahs. The ladies found their partners by drawing slips of paper on which the names of the gentlemen were written and soon the places were filled by brella stick run through the eyelid into his eye. He will likely lose the sight of the eye, as a result.—Ashton, Idaho, Enterprise.

Mrs. August Miller was a passenger for Lorton, Neb., last Friday to attend the wedding of a sister on Wednesday, April 10. Her husband left Tuesday for Omaha and later went to Lorton in time to attend the wedding.

The following Carrollites visited the county seat last Friday: Mrs. Cora Schaffer, Mrs. Tom Sylvanus, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones, D. R. Thomas, James Stanton and Newt Morris.

An extra good registered Shorthorn bull for sale—Burress Bros.—Mitt Word from Mrs. Alex Laurie reports an exciting time so far on her visit to Canada. She was first snow-bound, then quarantined for several weeks and now, when she would return to her "hobby" the floods in Michigan forbid the attempt. Mr. Laurie, although tired of "batching it" is consoled by the fact that he is not the only one having trouble.

It would almost be easier to enumerate those who staid at home last Saturday than those who went to Wayne.

The following are at least a part of them: Rev. Reeves, Lawrence Jenkins, Vaughn Meyer, Mrs. Philleo and children, O. C. Lewis, C. O. Hartmen, Mrs. Frank Francis and daughter Gladys, Mrs. D. M. Davis, Mrs. William Olmstead, Mrs. George Rohwer, Mrs. Chris Soderman, Mrs. Tim Collins and daughter Mary, Spencer Jones, Chris Helwig and W. H. Billeter.

Bud Davis is slowly improving from his last attack of rheumatism.

A blind couple gave a musical entertainment at the M. E. church last Friday evening. We failed to learn their names or any particulars.

Mrs. Matt Jones visited Wayne on Wednesday afternoon.

Sheriff Porter was a Carroll visitor last Monday.

Mrs. W. H. Billeter visited at the home of her daughter, Mrs. P. G. Burress, for several days this week.

W. H. and W. E. James were putting up copper cable lightning rods at the Jens Peterson farm southeast of town on Wednesday.

The young ladies' class of the Baptist Sunday school will sell home-made candies at Garwood & Linn's store on Saturday afternoon. The proceeds will be used for an important purpose and your patronage will be appreciated. The writer has tasted the product of former efforts of these young ladies and predicts that you will be satisfied with your purchases.

Everybody who is interested in the organization of a permanent choral union is asked to meet at the Baptist church at 8 o'clock Friday evening. Mr. Alexander, musical instructor from Wayne, will be present to help organize.

Al. Conyers sold his furniture and stock of goods at the Area Cafe last Saturday afternoon. Clyde Oman of Wayne was the auctioneer and quite a crowd of bidders were present, and everything sold well.

Building Operations.

James Hancock and Harvey Garwood are building additions to their residences. Mr. Hancock doing his own work and Charles Jones having the contract for Mr. Garwood's improvements. W. R. Thomas is putting up a small garage on the land near the elevator, W. R. Ohmstead doing the carpenter work.

Spring Fever Abroad.

This fine weather is certainly quite a contrast to the brand we were receiving three months ago, and every living creature from man down to the humblest pig seems to have a desire to dig and root in mother earth. Many farmers have begun to plow and sow, and blacksmiths, machine and harness men are doing a rushing business. The "honk" of the automobile mingles with the "cluck" of the old hen who has again taken her annual notion that she wants to set, and raise a family, and have troubles of her own. A "feller" begins to wonder what he has done with his last summer's clothes, and grows so warm hunting for them that he begins to think that he doesn't need many anyhow. Altogether, though, we are very glad that spring is here at last.

Base Ball Convention at Wakefield.

At the northeast Nebraska base ball convention held at Wakefield last Thursday the following towns sent delegates: Bloomfield, Newcastle, Osmond, Wayne, Winside, Coleridge, Laurel and Carroll. Other towns sent greetings and assurance that they would back any measures decided upon. One measure was passed that seems to be just what the small towns of this section need, namely: that no town should keep more than three outside salaried players in its team. This will put us all on an equal footing and eliminate the necessity of amateurs going up against a league team hired for the occasion by a neighboring town. William Belford, Ed

Troutwein and Louis Tift were the local delegates to Wakefield, but Mr. Belford was compelled to go alone. It is hoped that Carroll can scare up a nine that can at least play fast enough to keep warm.

Returns from Hospital.

Chiff Finn returned home Monday evening after nearly two months in an Omaha hospital, having undergone a successful operation for abscess behind one of his ears. He intended returning sooner but was hindered by the late washout.

Marshal's Efforts Appreciated.

Our village marshal, Louie Tift, is enjoying a respite from his late job of removing mud from the crossings. He certainly did good work in keeping the crossings clean, and we heard many appreciative remarks as to his service. This is the right spirit; if a man does good work tell him so now while he is alive to hear it.

Live Stock Shipments.

The following parties shipped live stock from Carroll the past week:

Thursday: Saunders Westrand company, two loads hogs to Sioux City; Henry Paulsen, one load of hogs to Sioux City.

Friday: Charles Maier, one load of hogs to Sioux City.

Monday: John Sabs and Henry Paulsen; two loads of cattle to Omaha.

A Lively Smashup.

Last Tuesday evening as Herbert Schmell and a couple of young ladies were driving down Main street, his broncho took a notion to run away. Miss Hilda Bartels was driving when the horse became unmanageable near the pool hall and dashing across the street, struck the front wheel against a large water hydrant smashing the wheel, breaking a shaft and throwing Miss Bartels to the ground. Mr. Schmell jumped out and caught the horse by the bridle before he could do any further damage. It is thought that Miss Bartels has a broken finger, but aside from this, and the scare, no other personal injuries were sustained.

James Baker Sick.

Postmaster James Baker was taken ill last Sunday evening and has been confined to his bed since. During the afternoon he began to feel ill, and upon consulting Dr. Topley the trouble was found to be erysipelas. Miss Nelson, a trained nurse from Omaha, arrived Tuesday noon to take care of him, and although he is quite sick at present we all hope to see him overcome it and soon be among us again.

Stork Again.

We have decided to quit saying that the stork "has returned" to Carroll, for we firmly believe that he has taken up his residence in our midst and intends to stay. A new boy came to make his home with Mr. and Mrs. Griff Garwood last Sunday, April 7.

SHOLES.

Ben F. Robinson, editor of this department, will appreciate contributions of news, and is authorized to accept new subscriptions and renewals for the Herald.

Mr. Charlie Horn was a passenger east on the morning train Saturday.

Mr. John Gubels left for Sioux City City Monday morning returning in the evening.

E. W. Closson was a passenger to Carroll on Friday morning last.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Mattingly were shopping in Randolph Friday afternoon.

Ben F. Robinson and wife made a trip to Randolph last Wednesday.

T. A. Jackson is enclosing his place in a high waveness which adds greatly to the appearance of the property.

Rev. Connelly of the M. E. church of Randolph, will give a lecture in the church here on Friday night. This is a free lecture. Come out and hear Mr. Connelly.

Did it ever occur to you that you ought to subscribe for the Herald? There is not a better local paper published. It furnishes news from all parts of the county. This copy is given you for your careful inspection. Think the matter over and then hand the subscription to Ben F. Robinson who will certainly appreciate the favor. Of course you need the paper and your money will be well spent.

If any of the farmers near Sholes planted potatoes on Good Friday we failed to hear of it.

Charles Closson returned on Thursday forenoon from a trip to Omaha.

Mr. Roy Stewart of Randolph, will work on the farm of T. R. Davidson this spring.

Warren Closson who returned Friday night from Omaha, is much improved after a month's medical treatment at that place.

Floyd Robinson is nursing a black eye as the result of catching behind the bat without a mask. Floyd wants people to know that blemish is not the outcome of a pugilistic encounter.

Mrs. Ben F. Robinson and infant son were county seat visitors Thursday.

Miss Lulu Bicknell, a teacher from near Randolph, visited at the home of M. L. Halpin Saturday afternoon.

Tietgen Bros., our hustling hardware and implement men, had a practical demonstration of the J. I. Case plow last Saturday afternoon.

A. L. Hurlbert who recently underwent an operation at Sioux City is able to be around but says he is not feeling any too well. Mr. Hurlbert made a trip to Wayne Saturday on business.

The people of Sholes and immediate territory were going about dry shod while those of nearby towns were picking their way through muddy streets. There is at least one advantage in living on high ground.

Mr. H. A. Senn, former hardware dealer here, but now of Omaha, came up Tuesday night to look after his business interests.

The "honk-honk" of the automobile is again a familiar sound and leads the most skeptical to believe that spring is indeed here.

Carroll Cleveland is another who has had to leave school to help his father with the work on the farm.

Swan Landberg was in Randolph between trains Saturday to do some shopping for his mother.

There was a social dance at the C.

THE EARLY DAYS IN TWO COUNTIES.

From the Logan Valley Herald, April 11, 1884: A roller skating rink opens in Wayne. The board of trustees of Ponca decide to appeal the Crawford damage case. Mr. McCoy of Tokamah, succeeds Mr. Welch as principal of the Wayne schools. Rev. J. F. Heilner has resigned as pastor of the Baptist church, and his resignation is accepted. A. B. Slater, James Britton and W. O. Gamble have been appointed a committee to look after the building of a new school house. From the Wayne Herald, April 28, 1892: Born, April 24, 1892, to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Milder, a son. The new Baptist church is reported about completed. Rev. A. F. Ernst receives a call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church. Ed Jones purchases of E. E. Perkins the Steele property for $3,000. Married—April 22, 1892, Fred Frevert and Sophia Jorgensen; April 22, 1892, Nicholas Lohman to Mrs. Sadie J. Jeagson. From the Wayne Herald, April 24, 1902: Walter Weber buys the residence of Nelson Grimley who prepares to move to Seattle. Born, April 20, to Mr. and Mrs. Eph Beckenhauer, a son. Local markets: Wheat, 55 cents; corn 44 cents; oats, 35 cents; hogs, $6.25; butter, 20 cents; eggs, 13 cents. Mrs. F. L. Neely and children leave for Mohler, Wash., where Mr. Neely had preceded them and where the family expects to locate. From the Ponca Journal, April 18, 1878: We have not heard when the next term of the village school will commence but it will probably be soon. Mrs. Bigelow has been employed to teach the higher department and Miss Tabor will take charge of the primary. The heaviest rain and wind storm known in this country for years occurred yesterday. Mr. Harding's new building was blown from its foundation and damaged to the amount of $100. Tip Bennet's barn was also blown down. The storm came from the southeast. Several railroad magnates came up from Sioux City a day or two since to interview the C. C. & B. H. railroad. Among them was a man from Chicago reputed to carry untold wealth, and who it was hoped would invest, or buy out, or assist this railroad so that it might be "pushed forward" to the Black Hills. Such visits from railroad potentates were quite frequent last season, and with the return of spring they come again with the leaves and flowers and birds, but like the gaily feathered songsters, we are afraid they will depart, leaving nothing more substantial than the remembrance of their gaudy plumage and pleasant voices. People are sick of eternal promising and no performances. We hope the road will go ahead—but from present appearances its farther progress seems very doubtful. From the Ponca Journal, April 15, 1880: Wilbur F. Bryant, esq., an attorney at law of St. Helena, Cedar county, was in town on Monday on legal business. Mr. Bryant speaks very favorably of the prospects in Cedar county as to the voting of bonds in the different precincts on the 15th of next month. In the course of a writup of a visit of the Journal editor to Dakota City, is the following: During our stay in this venerable town we had the pleasure of visiting the court house, a fine building, now rendered memorable by holding within its walls the two Indians who are celebrated as having committed a murder on somebody. We looked through the door at the criminals and noticed that their countenances were marked by a shade of annoyance occasioned probably by severe meditation as to whether the verdict of the jury might not be, after all, correct. We understand that in the near future, the prisoners, to satisfy their own minds on the subject, will go through the solemn ceremony of tossing up a cent, thus leaving the question of whether they did or did not kill a man, to the arbitrament of heads and tails. This method of deciding this mooted question might not be entirely satisfactory to some, yet it certainly will be as reliable and convincing a trial as the one they passed through. Speaking of universal languages, the talking that money does is the most successful example in that line.

THE AMENDMENTS.

Fremont Tribune: So far as the fate of the proposed constitutional amendment is concerned at the primaries, their relation to the contest is only incidental. If each one of them gets a majority of the party votes at the primaries it then becomes a party measure, the same as a candidate getting a party majority becomes a party candidate and thus needs only to get a majority of the votes cast for that office at the election to be elected, if a candidate, or on the proposition to be adopted if an amendment. If the amendments fail to get a majority at the primaries they must at the election get a majority of all votes cast at the election. There will be time enough during the campaign for voters to make up their minds as to the desirability of adopting the amendments, yet those who favor them understand the advantage that will accrue in having them become party measures by getting a majority of the votes cast on each one at the primaries. Amendment No. 1. This one provides for the initiative and referendum, or the direct method of legislation. Notwithstanding both political parties have endorsed this plan in their state platforms there is a good deal of opposition to it. The two principal sources of opposition are those who fear the method too cumbersome to be wisely used in the hands of all the voters, and those who fear the power of the voters, freely expressed at the ballot box. The latter are, as a rule, those who seek advantages in legislation and prefer to deal only with small bodies of men, such as the membership of a legislature, where they may be readily gotten at and more easily directed in the way of bestowing favors upon the interests. There is some force in the argument of the other class. Still it may be depended upon that if the plan does actually prove too cumbersome, if there be a tendency to swap the ballot with involved legislative measures in great number, some way to simplify or hold in reasonable restraint, will be discovered, that the usefulness of the plan may not be impaired. The Tribune believes in the principle involved and for that reason has given support to the plan. Amendment No. 2. This one relates to the term of the legislature, the salary of its members, and the limitation of the introduction of bills. At present members receive five dollars a day for a period of sixty days at regular sessions, service being free for any extensions beyond that limit. Now no bills may be introduced after the fortieth day of the session except by the governor. The amendment proposes to pay the members a flat $600 for the term of two years, regardless of the number of sessions held or the number of days of each. It also limits the time for the introduction of bills to twenty days, except by the governor. Plainly the purpose of this amendment is to get better digested legislation. It will provide greater pay to members so they will be willing to remain on duty long enough to give the state a square deal. And to prevent the usual flood of bills, nine-tenths of which are buncombe and hold-ups, only twenty days will be open for their introduction. After that if there be really meritorious measures to be advanced, that have been shut out by the limitations as to time, a governor of ordinary intelligence and honesty will be easily persuaded to see that the necessary measures are brought forward. Amendment No. 3. The purpose of this one is to provide a board of control for the state institutions, thus taking them out of the realm of party politics and putting them in the hands of those of proven fitness for their peculiar kind of work. Now the penitentiary is in sole charge of the governor, and that it is in a deplorable condition is plain to all who know the facts. The late lamentable outbreak being only a surface manifestation. In the other institutions control is divided between the governor and the board of public lands and buildings. This division of authority leads to many conflicts and much trouble that could be averted. Both political parties have endorsed in their state platforms the purpose involved in this amendment. Amendment No. 4. This amendment seeks to simplify our elections so as to bring the election of all state and county officers at one time, and that every two years. Under the provisions of this amendment we would be sure of one year of rest from political turmoil. There is every reason for the adoption of this amendment. Amendment No. 5. This one is to provide that cities of more than 5,000 population may make their own charters, without being subject to legislative control or limitation. It will give "home rule" to them. It has been a subject of much agitation in Omaha, and the demand for it comes principally from there. The city chafes under the necessity of submitting to fire and police control by a board appointed by the governor. As a rule the governor imposes a little better kind of control than is wanted, and this is the cause of irritation. From cities like Fremont no voice of protest against the present system has ever been raised to our knowledge. The Tribune is at present inclined to the belief that this amendment should not be adopted.

PLAIN MISREPRESENTATION. Sioux City Journal: Col. Roosevelt's repeated references to President Taft's being in favor of "government by a representative part of the people" involve the most arrant demagoguery ever put out by a public man. The allegation amounts to nothing less than deliberate misrepresentation. President Taft never said anything to warrant the significance which the colonel attaches to the partial quotation. The president did use the words attributed to him in quotation marks by the third term candidate. The president was describing the kind of government we have, reminding us that the whole people are not allowed to take part in it. He pointed out that women and minors and certain other elements of our population are excluded from the franchise and that some of those who are eligible do not exercise it. His point was that in a total population of some 90,000,000, less than a sixth of the people have an actual part in the affairs of government. This, he said amounted to government of the majority by a minority, or "government of the whole people by a representative part of the people." The colonel would have his hearers infer that President Taft declared for government by a select element of the voters. The president had no thought of anything of the kind and said nothing to warrant such an in-

M. L. Fries, of Arcadia, Neb., for thirty years a resident of Nebraska, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for the office of Lieutenant Governor. He is the only candidate for governor or lieutenant governor on either ticket reading north of the Platte river. He solicits your support at the primary, April 15.

FRANKLIN C. HAMER

To have made a success of one's business, and to have builded that business through tireless effort, backed by fair dealing and a desire to be of service, is a record of which any man may be proud. Such is the record of Franklin C. Hamer, who is a candidate for the republican nomination for state treasurer. Mr. Hamer is a Nebraska born product, and the son of the late Dr. E. P. Hamer, one of Nebraska's early pioneers. He was born in Lancaster county, and all of his life his energies have been devoted to building up in his native state a record for business integrity and ability. After finishing the public schools of Lancaster county Mr. Hamer entered business for himself, selecting the field of investment banking as the field of his efforts. In the meantime, however, he continued to devote a goodly portion of his time to practical farming. He has land interests in Lancaster, Holt and Lincoln counties, and to the cultivation of these lands he gives direct personal attention in the way of supervision and advice. Mr. Hamer is a graduate of the University of Nebraska and because of his connection with agriculture he is unusually well posted as to the needs and requirements of the farmers of Nebraska.

For several years Mr. Hamer has been prominently identified with the American Safe Deposit Co. of Omaha. This company is trustee to the amount of millions of dollars yearly, and it numbers among its patrons hundreds of Omaha's wage earners who know that their earnings are safe in the charge of this concern, and who have learned by experience that its advice upon the matter of their small investments is always sound. Many a workman in Omaha has been advised by this concern, and following the advice has so invested his weekly savings as to enable him to purchase his own comfortable home, or buy securities that bring a welcome addition to the pay envelope every coupon clipping day.

Because of his long application to the investment banking business Mr. Hamer is in close touch with all the reliable and secure investment offerings, a fact that particularly well fits him for the position of fiscal agent of the state.

Nebraska has now upwards of $9,000,000 invested in interest bearing securities and is constantly purchasing more. Mr. Hamer believes these securities should be purchased direct from the municipalities and school districts and avoid paying large commissions and premiums to brokers.

Few people realize the immense amount of responsibility devolving upon the state treasurer of Nebraska. He is the custodian of the funds of the state. Every biennium the state treasurer receives and pays out approximately $5,000,000. In addition to the mere handling of this money he is charged with keeping an accurate account of acres of different funds. He is the fiscal agent of the state in all of its investment transactions, and these amount up to millions of dollars every year. As fast as securities held by the state mature, they must be reinvested, and it requires a thorough knowledge of law, of the financial standing of states and counties and municipalities, of the condition of the money market—in short, it requires financial ability of a unusually high order. This ability Mr. Hamer possesses to an admittedly high degree, as his success in his business amply testifies.

Nebraska is a comparatively young state. It is only forty-five years old, hence it is just beginning to have opportunities to elect native born sons to important offices. Mr. Hamer is one of these "native sons," and of such as he Nebraska has a right to be proud. When one of Nebraska's sons makes good, Nebraska should recognize the fact.

Mr. Hamer is not asking for the nomination for state treasurer on the ground of party service, although he has been a consistent republican all his life. He is asking for the nomination on the ground that he is able and willing to give the taxpayers a safe, profitable and conservative management of their financial affairs as citizens of this commonwealth.

He is making an active though dignified campaign for the nomination, meeting as many people as possible, and telling them frankly and openly just what he knows about business affairs and just what he will endeavor to do if honored by his party with the nomination and by a majority of the voters with an election.

Socially he is a gentleman whom it is a pleasure to meet. As a business man he inspires confidence in those who have dealings with him. As a citizen he is enterprising and progressive. Measured by any standard of ethics, Mr. Hamer is a credit to the state that reared him.

The County Attorneyship and the Tax Payers.

THE TAX PAYERS, whose money pays the bills, should use the same care and good judgment in electing a County Attorney that they would use in selecting an attorney to look after important personal matters which needed legal attention. An inexperienced or incompetent county attorney can lose the county and the tax payers a lot of money, while a county attorney of ability and industry and integrity will save the tax payers much money.

At the request of a number of heavy tax payers, Mr. Fred S. Berry has filed for the republican nomination for County Attorney. He has practiced law in the different State and United States Courts for several years. He has no time to make a campaign. If you think he is the RIGHT MAN for the office he will appreciate your support, and if elected he will look after Wayne county to the best of his ability and save the TAX PAYERS money wherever he can do so.

Speaking of Mr. Berry the Dakota County Herald states: "Attorney Fred S. Berry has filed for the nomination for county attorney of Wayne county. Mr. Berry served as county attorney of this county for two years and made a splendid record as prosecutor."

TAFT'S RECORD AGAINST TRUSTS

Sherman Law Enforced Without Fear or Favor.

EXCELS HIS PREDECESSORS.

Both In Civil and Criminal Prosecution Taft Administration Breaks All Records—Legal Accomplishments of Five Presidents Compared.

TAFT'S ANTI-TRUST RECORD.

Under the last five administrations prosecutions under the Sherman anti-trust law have been brought as follows:

	Crim- suits.	Civil suits.	Total.
Under Harrison (three years)....	4	3	7
Under Cleveland (four years)....	5	2	7
Under McKinley (four and one-half years)....	Three bills in equity
Under Roosevelt (seven and one-half years)....	18	25	44*
Under Taft (two years and eleven months)....	22	40	62

*One property seizure. The ratio of prosecutions, allowing for length of time in office, of the Taft administration as compared with the records of its four immediate predecessors is approximately as follows:
Taft over Harrison..... 9 to 1
Taft over Cleveland..... 12 to 1
Taft over McKinley..... 30 to 1
Taft over Roosevelt..... 4 to 1

President Taft's administration has broken all records for prosecutions brought and won under the Sherman anti-trust law. Without fear or favor he has brought to the bar of justice corporations and persons engaging in illegal combinations in restraint of trade, the ultimate purpose of each combination being to create a monopoly and to raise the prices on its products. In two years and eleven months of his administration President Taft has caused to be brought four more civil suits and fifteen more criminal prosecutions than Mr. Roosevelt brought in the seven and one-half years of his administration.

Until Mr. Taft became the president the administration of Mr. Roosevelt held the record in both particulars. Thus has President Taft, who was Mr. Roosevelt's right arm during his last administration, kept his pledge to the American people to uphold and maintain the policies of his predecessors in punishing the criminals and undesirable element in the big business of the country.

In the republican national platform of 1908 reference was made to the prosecution of evil trusts and monopolies as one of the great accomplishments of the Roosevelt administration, and the platform declared that the Sherman anti-trust law had been a wholesome instrument for good in the hands of a wise and fearless executive. In his speech of acceptance Mr. Taft pledged himself to the enforcement of this law and has kept his promise.

Problems Confronting Taft.

Stripped of controversy as to the exact meaning of certain language of the Sherman anti-trust act, the questions that had to be determined by those in administrative authority and those who judicially determine their acts were, first, how effective the law was to reach the great aggregations of formerly competitive producers and dealers, individual and corporate, who, through intercorporate stockholding mergers, consolidations and otherwise, had acquired so great a control over a particular line of industry as to enable them to dominate it and to exclude or admit competition as they might choose upon their own terms.

Secondly, to determine whether that construction of the law was correct which had been given to it by some of the Judges of the circuit court in New York in the tobacco case and in the opinions of some of the justices of the supreme court in other cases to the effect that any combination which in any respect operated to restrain to any degree a pre-existing competition in interstate commerce was necessarily condemned by law.

In the three years of the Taft administration all of the sixteen cases left pending by the previous administration have been disposed of except two, which have been argued and submitted to the supreme court of the United States and are now awaiting decision. Of the remaining cases the Standard Oil case was argued early during the present administration and, after an appeal, decided entirely in favor of the government. The same was also true of the tobacco cases, with the ultimate result of the disintegration of that big trust into four or five separate and distinct corporations. This, it is believed, will effectively prevent a continuance of the monopolistic conditions complained of.

Taft Anti-trust Record.

During the Taft administration up to February, 1912, twenty-two civil suits have been brought and forty criminal indictments found under the Sherman law, making in all sixty-two prosecutions. As a result there were fifteen convictions and seven of these in Which affected my heart and produced a weak and painful condition of the heart. Three doctors told me I would never do another day's work. While I had many remedies recommended to me I got a bottle of Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy and it helped me inside of 48 hours. At the end of the week I called on my doctor and asked him to examine me. He said I was better than he ever expected to see me and asked if I was taking his medicine. When I told him I was not, but was taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy, he said, "Thank the Lord for Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy." I continued to take it, and while I realized my heart was damaged so I could not expect a permanent cure, for fifteen years I worked every day, notwithstanding I had been told I would never work again. In July, 1911, I was taken with rheumatism again, and it went to my heart as before. I got so bad that one of the Albany papers wrote up my life, and said I could not live but a few hours. I again took Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy with very satisfactory results, and have not missed a day of business or in the legislature since January 1. L'FOLLETTE MAKES TOUR OF NEBRASKA

Senator LaFollette made a number of speeches in Nebraska the past week, and attracted both President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt. Of the impression the senator made on people at Lincoln, The Omaha Bee's correspondent says in Monday's paper: "Senator LaFollette has come and gone, though the Wisconsin men who came to Nebraska to help carry the primary for him still remain in Lincoln and will make this city their headquarters until the primary campaign is over. As was to have been expected of one who has been so prominently in the public eye, LaFollette drew a large crowd when he spoke at the auditorium, and as he left the auditorium, he was given on a respectful hearing, but if he left any permanent impress upon the people of the city which will aid him in the primary April 19, it is not observable on the surface. As one prominent republican remarked: "He came to appeal for republican votes in that primary but it was evident from the manner in which certain of his remarks were received that the majority of his audience was democratic and the followers of William J. Bryan. "I do not see how he is going to carry the republican primary by appealing to men who will vote the democratic ticket in that primary and at the election next fall. Not only was his audience composed largely of democrats, but his entire speech was framed to appeal to democrats. There was not one word of commendation for any republican or any republican act during the entire two hours of that speech, except for himself and what he asserted he had done in Wisconsin. "It is undoubtedly true that many republicans do not endorse everything that the party has done; in fact, few thinking men can do that for any party, but certainly the man who opposes everything the party has done is not and does not pretend to be a republican unless his name is LaFollette. It seems to me that the Wisconsin senator injured, rather than helped, his chances of getting republican votes by that speech." Joseph McCaffery, manager Schlitz hotel, Omaha, and vice president in Nebraska of "Greater of America," writes: "I recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. I have used it myself with good results, and have recommended it to many others who have since told me of its great curative power in diseases of the throat and lungs." Shultheis Pharmacy.

CREAMERY MAKES ICE CREAM

Hartington News: The Hartington creamery has received its new continuous ice cream freezer. The entire outfit, including ice crusher and tubs for shipping the cream, cost them about $600. The machine is capable of turning out forty gallons of ice cream per hour. The mixture, mixed also by machinery, is turned into the machine at one end and comes out at the other frozen and ready to deliver. There is constantly turning in the cream a coil filled with brine pumped through the coils from a tank full of ice, salt and water. An Archimedes' screw which looks like a big auger, forces the frozen cream out into the container in which it is shipped. Mr. Guelig states that the creamery will have no difficulty in obtaining the fresh cream for this purpose, though they may have to put on a team to go out among the dairymen and gather it up each day. Men like to say a woman can be meaner than a man when she tries.

Birthday Dinner.
Miss Blanche Miller entertained a number of guests at a 6 o'clock dinner last Monday evening, the party including the members of the C. O. S. club. The occasion was Miss Blanche's birthday.

Wayne Ought to Do Its Share.
The automobile men of Winside are kicking because their Wayne neighbors have done nothing towards making the roads passable between the two towns and it is almost impossible to drive over them as they are. The men here have spent considerable time on the roads and they think Wayne should meet them half way.

Moving to California.
Curt Benschhoff intends to start next Monday for California, and if he likes it will make a permanent home there. We imagine there is such a difference Curt will have to adopt new methods in a new country, for he can't adopt the same that made him a fortune in Nebraska.

Want Better Service.
After this week the rural mail boys will wait to get the mail from the east which arrives at 10:27. The rural patrons would be very much benefited if the trains would run so they would bring the Omaha mail which arrives at Emerson fifteen minutes after the Norfolk passenger leaves, then dumped on a freight, haulcar, or any old way to get it here, but too late for the rural carriers—just because they can't wait fifteen minutes at Emerson.

Will Move to Winside.
Ola Brogren informs us that he intends to build a house this spring on the lots he lately purchased at the north end of Whittier street and will move to town and retire from the farm. Mr. and Mrs. Brogren have always been industrious and with their frugal habits have acquired a competency to secure to them health, wealth and happiness the rest of their days. They are good, honorable, upright people and we are pleased to see them become citizens of our town.

Suffers Ugly Cut.
Roy Neary had a frightful accident last Saturday while moving a disc harrow he had just got sharpened, along the highway. On the rough road he was thrown from the seat and fell so that the disc ran on him and cut a gash in the calf of one leg to the bone and quite ten inches long. He was brought to the office of Dr. McIntyre who sewed up the wound, and while the cut is painful, it is hoped there will be no permanent injury.

Birthday Party.
Little Ida Schultz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Schultz, had a birthday party last Friday night. About twenty little girls and a number of old people came to help the little ones along in their festivities. The old ones played cards, the little ones games and a fine lunch was served in the early hours of Saturday.

Met Severe Accident.
From a letter Mrs. Hodgson received from her son Clyde at Ravenna, Neb., we learn that Clyde's wife, our former telephone operator, met with a severe accident. It seems Mrs. Hodgson was just recovering from an attack of appendicitis, and going to answer a telephone call, fell, striking the back of her head. She became unconscious and remained so for sixteen hours. When regaining consciousness she found herself to be totally blind. All that medical skill could do was done. A specialist from Omaha was called who gave his opinion that the sight would gradually return. Her many friends here hope that she will soon regain her sight.

Death of George Needham.
Last Saturday afternoon the wires flashed the news from Los Angeles, Cal., to relatives in Winside, that George Needham died that day at 12 o'clock. Another message came last Monday that the funeral services would be held and body cremated from 1 to 2 o'clock p. m. that day. This news became doubly sad to the mother and brother Charlie and family who were on the way as fast as steam could take them and reached there the same afternoon, but too late to see the last spark of life go out.

George Needham was for many years a resident of Winside. He had no enemies. He possessed a character of more than ordinary truthfulness, honesty and beauty. As a natural result, he not only gained the high esteem and warm friendship of all who knew him, but these sentiments grew and strengthened with time.

The deceased was a member of the Masonic order, and from the time he became so until his death remained firm and consistent in all the requirements of its obligations. He leaves a wife, mother and sister and three brothers to mourn his loss. The curtains of all the business houses in Winside were drawn from 1 until 2 o'clock last Monday out of respect to the relatives and to the one they learned to love.

The Sick.
Jessie Snowden has been under the care of a physician for a week or more, but is improving nicely at this writing.

The physician reports the 3-year-old boy of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fisher seriously ill and fears are entertained for his recovery.

We hear that the 10-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Koll has been very sick, but Dr. Cherry thinks there is no doubt about its recovery.

Miss Ethel Krahn of Norfolk, came down about a week ago to visit her mother, Mrs. Shaw, expecting to return the next day, but was taken sick with the quinsy and has not been able to go back to her home since. She is feeling some better and hopes to make the trip home in a few days.

Mrs. B. H. Nell and daughter, Nannau of Grand Saline, Tex., arrived Wednesday afternoon, being called by telegram to the bedside of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Clyde T. Ecker, who is dangerously ill at the Ecker home. Mrs. Ecker has been sick for several weeks, but at one time partially recovered and a short-time ago had a relapse, and her life has been in the balance since. Her friends are hoping for a change for the better.

Meeting of Woman's Club.
The Woman's club met with Mrs. L. S. Needham last Thursday. After their regular lesson on Holland, the hostess invited the ladies to the spacious dining room, where two large tables were spread. The guests found their places by pretty seashells gathered on the coast of Florida by Mrs. Needham, with the guests' names written therein, they being used as place cards. A regular southern dinner was served by the hostess consisting of many southern fruits, warm bread and many things too numerous to mention. One of the ladies naively remarked to Mrs. Needham that she hoped she would spend next winter in Florida. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Prescott, with Mrs. George Lewis as leader.

Entirely Recovered.
Lars Olson, the man who was so severely burned in the Chapman house fire some two months ago, has entirely recovered and gone to his home. Mr. Olson had a long siege and suffered all a man possibly could, and people who saw him after the fire wonder that he lives. He certainly owes Dr. Cherry more than dollars and cents for his recovery.

Prediction Fulfilled.
We predicted last week when Fred Erickson went away that he had gone on important business, and our prediction proved true when Mr. and Mrs. Erickson arrived in Winside last Saturday night. Fred was married in Wayne, March 27, at the Presbyterian parsonage, to Miss Blanche Milliken, Rev. Alexander Orkey officiating. They visited relatives in and about Omaha for ten days and are now keeping house at their home three miles northeast of town. While we are not acquainted with the bride we know Fred chose wisely, and their friends wish them nothing but future prosperity and happiness.

SCHOOL NOTES.
High School.
The twelfth grade is finishing up its reviews by taking up the geography of Nebraska.

The eleventh has completed the Citizenship of Archias and next week will begin the last oration, Pompey's Military Command.

The tenth is well along in the fourth book of Caesar.

The ninth is experimenting with soils and their capacity for water.

Ina Reed and Irving Gaebler were each absent a half day this week.

Miss Reed's Room.
The eighth grade received the report of the county examinations taken last month. Out of a class of twelve but two made a single failure and these have ample time to make good May 9 and 10 at Wayne. Myrtle Leary received the highest average.

Louis Walde was absent from school Monday and Tuesday.

True Prescott was absent Friday and Bessie Rew Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Bayes' Room.
Gladys Roland brought us the first wild flower of the season.

Last Friday the fifth and sixth grades colored Easter eggs which they presented to the little folks in the primary room.

Miss Wadsworth's Room.
The fourth grade is now studying about Africa.

Our garden is doing well.

We have fadishes an inch high.

Gottfrids Press was absent Friday and Monday.

Tuesday was a perfect day for attendance.

Miss Carter's Room.

Many Easter rabbits entered our room Friday afternoon and pleasantly surprised the children by presenting them with beautiful Easter eggs. Miss Bayes' pupils were the rabbits.

The children are manifesting great interest in our window gardens and branches.
