Want to Save Half Your Coal Bill?

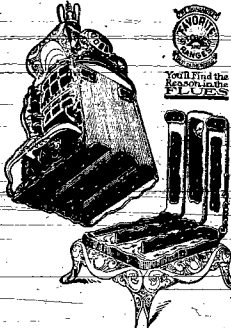

How much money did you spend for coal last year?

Let us say you spent $40. If there was a way in which you could buy that amount of coal this year for $20, you wouldn't you know about it, wouldn't you?

We can't sell you coal for half price, but we can tell you how to heat your entire home perfectly this winter at half the expense of last year's fuel.

With a FAVORITE BASE BURNER you can heat every room in your house comfortably—the coldest days, and do it with less fuel than is possible with any other heating stove.

WHY?

Because the Favorite is the only base burner that pours heat into the room from every square inch of its surface.

It gets every atom of heat out of the coal and throws it all into the home. None goes up the chimney.

Your home is warm and comfortable on blustery, cold days when with any other base burner your coal and children would be huddling in a frozen group around an apparently inactive stove.

In the triple exposed flues you will find one reason why the Favorite is such a wonderful heating stove. There are many other reasons. Come and see us and we will tell you all about them.

Barrett & Dally

Wayne Indicator company there. Mrs. Penabaker will also visit other points in eastern Iowa and perhaps Chicago before returning home. She will be absent six weeks.

Mrs. John Newbising and Mrs. Lida Harshorn arrived home Friday morning from Rochester, Minn., where the former underwent a successful operation for the removal of a goitre. They were absent these weeks.

Samplers of corn from the maturing crop of Wallace Brook, three miles south-west of Wayne, were brought to town the first of the week. The ears are large and kernels well developed. The samples were taken from a field that had been plowed in the fall, and is high ground. It is expected that this particular field will yield thirty bushels to the acre. Bottom land on the Wallace farm will do better.

Now is the time to lay in your winter's supply of coal.

I handle nothing but the best grades of Hard, Domestic and Threshing Coal.

If you have trouble with your kitchen stove try my celebrated Western coal.

Good investments are the road to financial independence, but either money or credit is necessary. You place yourself in position to get both when you start a bank account. I don't sell "cheap" tailoring!

Primarily because my customers are not the "cheap" kind—they have learned from costly experience elsewhere that the best is the most economical. I have never been obliged to represent adulterated fabrics as "pure wool" nor to offer "sweat shop" garments with the argument that I can save you money through using poorly-paid, inexperienced help.

"Cheap" clothes, like "cheap" jewelry, soon show their actual worth and the man who is deceived thereby is not wise. Everything is sold only according to its relative worth—you rarely get more than what you actually pay for.

If I offered you "strictly pure" cream butter at 15 cents a pound and you later found it to be a cheap oleomargarine, you'd lose no time in exposing me. When the "pure wool" law goes into effect, things will be different.

Many well meaning people make the mistake of expecting $2 and $3 value for $1, due to the impossible claims of over-anxious dealers. They later come to realize that their money was wanted more than their future business.

"Cheap" clothes are either lacking in quality of wools or in skimping of workmanship. High grade artist tailors like those with Ed. V. Price & Co. cost money and are worth it. Don't let any "smooth" sales men convince you to the contrary.

Every Ed. V. Price & Co. tailored-to-order suit I sell has my absolute guarantee of quality—if the coat front breaks or linings wear out within one year they will be replaced free. I solicit your business on a straight Quality-Value basis—not on the "cheap" price plan. Which is better? My prices however are a revelation.

SAVIDGE BROTHERS REPUTATION GROWS
Savidge Bros., who have visited parts of Wyoming, Colorado, and Nebraska to the west, beginning October 6, are now working their way to managers live in Nebraska, making headquarters at Wayne. They are being greeted by big, appreciative well known there as the best of city crowds and have extended their reputation for high class attractions, and here, they made a big hit with our people. Wayne friends of the people will be pleased to know that they have done well during the season, and we are able to repeat with a clear conscience beyond their expectations. It is the best small band they will exhibit in Walsburg during we have heard. From here, the carnival goes to Fort Laramie, then to Sheridan. They are being recommended to the people of these towns.

FATAL BLOW STRUCK IN WYNOT SALOON BROW

The Wymont Tribune, which was here all last week, proved to be one of the best carnivals on the road. They are all of the highest class. Those which appealed dead at his home in this place from the effects of a blow and a fall received certain news which were given in the saloon of James McEadden captain theatre at 17th avenue and 17th. Wednesday afternoon, at about 9:30 p.m., a great was the demand for the first time, which has been killing in Wy. more for the past year or so. The men were drinking at the bar. McEadden is said to have been some what intoxicated and bystanders say that he had provoked Walton by remarks, etc., when Walton struck him in the face with his fist. McEadden fell heavily to the hard floor, striking on the back of his head. Blood spurted out of his ears, and he became unconscious. He was carried to his home where Dr. Johnson attended him. The doctor, after diagnosing the case, gave no hope of his recovery. Dr. Rowan, the eminent Stone City surgeon, was summoned, arriving here at 11 o'clock, but he could do no more than Dr. Tolson, and the man proved a fatal blow to the morning. He will be fractured in striking the floor of the saloon, and his face was cut from the blow from Walton's fist. Marshal Cronk took Walton to the county jail at Hartington Wednesday afternoon, where he will remain until a hearing can be held. John McEadden was a man of about 35 years of age, married and had three small children. Walton is probably a little older, and has a wife and a number of children. They were both of the town, and the conditions is respectively sad and unfortunate. Walton had a hearing before the county judge today and was bound over to the district court.

AN EARLY MORNING FIRE AT HARTINGTON

Hartington, Neb., Sept. 15.—What might have proven to be a disastrous fire, had it not been for the prompt and efficient work of the fire departments, was discovered about 2 o'clock this morning at the rear of the office occupied by John J. Gehbel and C. M. Baird, and the building occupied by the M. D. Lydick harness shop. The fire, which appears to have been of incendiary origin, started in a narrow opening between the two buildings and worked its way up the sides and over the top of the Gehbel office, spreading to the building occupied by the Hartington Herald. The greatest damage was done to the Lydick property, the fire eating its way into the interior of the building, and damaging a large amount of harness stock. Mr. and Mrs. Lydick, who live upstairs over the harness shop, were not awakened until the fire had made much headway. The damage done to the Lydick building and contents will amount to about $1,000, and the damage to the Gehbel office and building occupied by the Hartington Herald, which was owned by the Globe Clothing company, will amount to about $200. All the losses are fully covered by insurance. It is the intention of the owners to repair the buildings as soon as the losses are adjusted. A hermit seldom has a bath-tub, so it may be just as well to be.

FIRST DAIRY TRAIN ATTRACTS BIG CROWD

Norfolk, Neb., Sept. 15.—The first dairy train in the state in Nebraska was a successful success. At the close of the day, everyone is convinced that the train is proving popular, and people fully appreciate it. Leaving Niobrara, where the first train was given at 7 o'clock this morning, increased crowds met the train at all points. Especially notable has been the attendance of farmers. At Plainview, there was an audience of 300, nearly all farmers. At Pierce, 750 were in waiting for the train; at Craig, 1,000; at Hereford, 1,200; at Norfolk, the auditorium was filled with interested listeners. The most attractive features of the train were the dairy cows exhibited. These were taken to the auditorium and showed on the stage tonight. At a number of places during the day's run, both lecture cars were filled and over two meetings were required. Opening addresses at Niobrara were made by Dean Purcell on "Silos," F. P. Brown on "Alfalfa," Prof. Franzen gave the one demonstration, Assistant Agronomers during the day were Prof. G. W. Pugsley, O. H. Leihers, O. C. Gregg of Minnesota, and Ford J. Allen.

On the trip, Mr. Holdrege was accompanied by Vice Presidents Byram and Burnham and their views coincide with those of Mr. Lydick. Mr. Holdrege found that the corn crop through the South Platte country had been practically destroyed. However, in the western and northern portions of the state, there are many localities where the crop will be good, and very much below the normal. After looking the state over thoroughly he concludes that the government estimate of 100,000,000 bushels is not far off. With this yield and the high prices that must of necessity maintain, he expects to see the corn crop of this year bring as much money as the big crops in former years when there was a bumper yield, but prices were low. HERALD EXCERPTS
CLEANINGS OF WEEK

Ashton, Idaho, Enterprise: Mrs. Ed Johnson of Wayne, Neb., was registered at the Hotel Kirkbride Tuesday.

Frontier Tribune: Congressmen are said to be sending home for their winter clothing. In the old days when a congressman wanted a pair of trousers he went home after them, and the government paid him for the trip at the rate of ten cents a mile.

Stanton Packet: The Wayne Herald has raised on the price of advertising space, but its columns are still overflowing with home advertising. Wayne is a good advertising town and the merchants are a live bunch. 'Shabby' stocks and shoddy goods never go over there; the reliable home-dealers advertise and get the business.

Exchange: Backward, turn backward. O time to your flight, give us a girl whose skirt are not right; give us a girl whose charms, many or few, are not exposed by too much pan-a-bee; give us a girl, no matter what age, who won't use the street as a vaudeville stage; give us a girl who won't shamelessly dress her in skirts that the sun can't see through.

Laurel Advocate: Charles Adams arrived home Monday evening from Chico, Cal., where he went several weeks ago to attend the wedding of his son Milton. With good Mr. Adams visited relatives at Los Angeles, among them being a cousin whom he had not seen in forty years. Mr. Adams says the entire country from here to California is dry, some places being a great deal dryer than here.

Pierce Leader: A new game, "geography," is having a great run in some localities in the east. It is played with photographs. They are shuffled and dealt out like cards, every one in the party receiving a photo. It is the duty of the player to tell every man thing that can be thought of the party photographed. The east is way behind the times. We have been playing that game in Pierce for many years, without using the photographs.

THE CROPS.
Lincoln Journal: To anybody who has lived in the corn belt, this summer the surprise must be that the government report for September 1 finds the crop damage so slight. The heart of the corn country has been to the drought. It is not only that the Nebraska crop is cut to less than half an average or Kansas to one-seventh. Iowa, Illinois and Missouri, the mainstays of the corn crop, are badly hurt. And yet the national corn crop is 80 per cent of average. Last year's good corn crop was 4,125,000,000 bushels. This year's "failure" is estimated at 2,251,000,000. This is a big country. It takes a bigger drought than anybody knows anything about to overtake it.

This corn crop is larger, in fact, than any the country had had up to eleven years ago, barring only the big year of 1896. Even 1896 was but one per cent larger than this year's estimate. This year's crop is at much more than that of 1901, as it is less than last year's. In comparing with last year we must remember that that was by a quarter billion bushels the largest corn crop the country ever had. This year's crop is only a quarter billion bushels under two years ago.

If the corn crop by itself is not a staggering blow to the country, it is anything but that taken in connection with the wheat crop. It is now noted as the greatest ever. The year it had to best was 1901, that other great corn drought year. The production was 745,000,000 bushels that year. This year's crop is now placed at 750,000,000 bushels. In this great crop, Nebraska participates heavily, giving us a share in the nation's crop strength despite the bad luck to our corn.

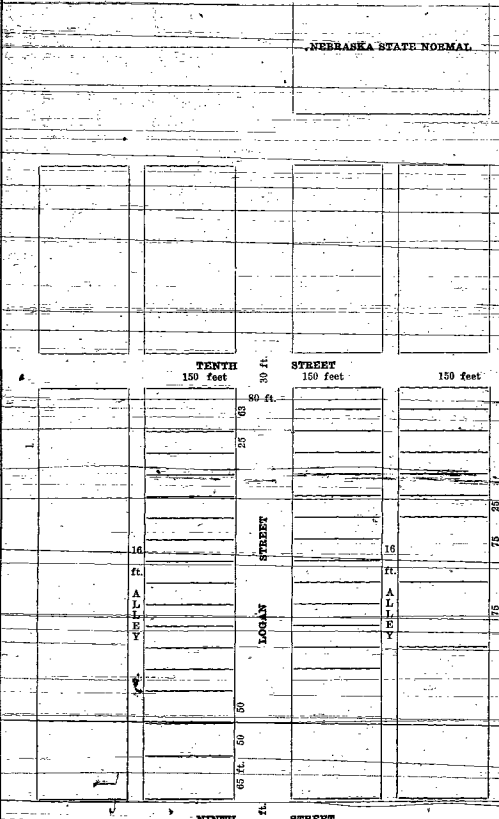

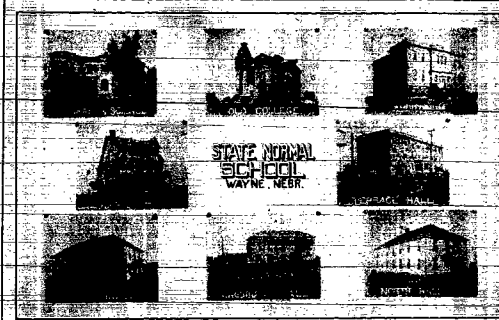

Other crops. Apart a little from the normal, as not to affect the general situation, the one way or the other. Oats, barley, buckwheat and potatoes are a little poorer than last year, but no famine. Hay and apples are under the average. It is a short year all around, short despite the counterbalancing weight of the wheat crop, but not so short that the general prosperity needs be seriously retarded.

Auction Sale of Town Lots

Wayne, Neb., Saturday, Sept. 20, 1:30 p. m.

City water, electric lights and modern improvements are here; you don't have to wait for them.

Regardless of Price we will sell at public sale thirty-four [34] Beautiful Building Lots.

These lots are located in northern part of the city, one block south of the Wayne State Normal School, within a few blocks of the high school, court house and business section of the city. This is a splendid neighborhood and the city is growing rapidly in this direction. Everything considered, the location of these lots is simply ideal.

The Wayne State Normal is here to stay. It is growing continually and contract will be let December 9th for a new building at a cost of about $100,000.00. This college is an institution of which any city may be justly proud. Remember these lots are right at the college and are right in the city too. (See plat)

We Have Bought and MUST Sell!

Desirable building lots in Wayne are now very scarce and very high and this sale affords you an opportunity you will never have again to buy lots in Wayne. Remember we have bought these lots and we absolutely must sell them. You should be on the ground ready to buy any or all bargains.

If you contemplate building a home, now or in the future, or if you have some money to invest where it will be absolutely safe and sure to pay more than 6, 8 or 10 per cent, you owe it to yourself to look these lots over, and attend this sale ready to buy any or all bargains.

Suppose you had bought ten or twenty lots in Wayne, say ten years ago, what would they have made you? But you were afraid, and let the other fellow buy, and make the profit.

No town of its size in Nebraska has a future so bright as Wayne, and real estate values are sure to go higher and higher. These lots may sell at real bargains. We earnestly request you to be at the ground.

Commercial Club Band will furnish the Music.

Wayne, the county seat of Wayne county, has been specially favored by nature. It is surrounded by the best and sweetest agricultural territory in the state. The city was originally settled by the highest type of citizens, and through successive years has attracted the same high class. Its business men are wise, energetic and progressive, and on the alert for improvements along all lines. The city has public waterworks, electric lighting plant and sewerage system. Paving and electricians will come next. The Nebraska Normal school, located here, is growing rapidly, and the state is appropriating thousands of dollars for new buildings and new equipment to meet increasing demands. Following completion of the new Science Hall, last year, the state has lately appropriated $100,000 for a new central building. This growing situation, sustained and managed by the state, insures alone a bright future for Wayne. The city schools, in a palatial new fireproof building, are equal to the best in the state. Six churches, with substantial, modern edifices, encourage right living. They are: Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist, English Lutheran, German Lutheran and Catholic. New city hall and library building erected last year. New depot in course of construction now. Many modern dwellings going up. Wayne now has 3,000 people and is certain to grow and expand more rapidly in the future than it has in the past. That is the opinion of the most conservative business heads. Where could you find a more desirable city in which to live!

TERMS: One-third Cash, one-third in six months and one-third in one year. Notes bear 6 per cent int. from date; two per cent off on deferred payments for cash.

The southern part of the state is behaving courageously under the cloud of crop shortage. Nebraska has rarely had the crop shortage...

All the Nebraska Methodist conferences being held at Lincoln this year instead of at different points, as formerly, will make the demand for chickens independent and unprecedented for one place.

Now that the hot weather is over, and less excuse for spoiled eggs exists, it may be expected that the law regarding "sp" products will be more carefully observed on the one hand and more rightly enforced on the other.

There is much talk in support of better lighting of the business districts of Wayne, and a system of electrics is generally favored. It is believed the Commercial club and city council ought to get together and figure out a feasible plan.

The Stephens primary is likely to leave a lot of sore spots. All cannot win. Those who lose are apt to feel small, sorely and openly.

The fourth year of the Wayne Normal as a state institution started this week. The attendance on the opening day was larger than last year, and is certain, according to all advices, to increase as the season advances.

These three publications, and that is what he has been getting extensively of late, He has had a conspicuous place in the papers every day since he escaped from Mattawan, and newspapers have thus no doubt gratified the demands of a large class of readers.

A late Chicago report states that the most of women in the personal adornment of women in that city varies from $200 to $75,000. It is figured that the factory girls get along on $200 per year for apparel and ornamentation. We doubt if it costs the average...

age. Wayne women, as much as the estimate in Chicago, and according to all accounts, people in metropolitan centers wear less clothes than those in rural towns like Wayne. It would seem that quality and price in women's clothes increase as the quantity diminishes.

In the Mexican president's message to his people Tuesday, he did not voice high satisfaction over his relations with the United States. He assumed that if such relations had been more agreeable, the revolution would have been wiped out and peace restored long ago.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American federation of labor, is accused by an English agent of being the "father of a labor trust." The accusation charges that Gompers does not welcome to membership in the federation the army of unskilled labor.

The paper bears' date of May 22, 1875, and in its local columns we note that the silver is attending the constitutional convention; that rattlesnakes are beginning to sing, and that it has been a very late spring.

From the Ponca Journal, September 30, 1880:

The Sioux City Journal of yesterday gives the following items of railroad news:

In connection with Sheriff Jones, we had last week a three days trip in the Logan valley and Wayne county. It is the finest country in the state.

Attorney General Dilworth was expected to deliver a speech in this place last evening, but he did not come as anticipated. A large audience assembled, and the band discoursed fine music for the occasion. In place of General Dilworth, Lieutenant Norris gave an address which was eloquent and scholarly.

Newton has returned to the city having finished his grading contract on the Norfolk line. He reports the other contractors will be through this week excepting the one having the big cut near Norfolk.

F. Bush has the contract for building the foundations for the foundation house at Covington, and began work yesterday. The job will occupy about a week, and with the foundations of other railroad buildings to be built at Covington, by Mr. Bush, he will use up 20,000 bushels.

The transfer tracks are being put in shape and cars can be crossed in a day or two if necessary. There is now iron enough crossed to keep the tracklayers busy for a couple of weeks.

The good weather is being improved by the backlayers of the Omaha line, and it is expected the gangs from the two ends will meet some time next week at the next crossings are wanted and

From Ponca Journal, September 28, 1885:

The railroad track was completed on Saturday as far as Coleridge, and will start Harrington and trains running in about two weeks.

S. K. Bittenbender of this place, recently purchased of Stough & Miksel one-fourth interest in the Ponca roller mills of which, as we understand, he is to be the manager.

As the season gets later, pasturage becomes scarce, and cattle are apt to break from yards at night to try the new fresh hay stack of the neighbor just over the way, and owners in town would do well to remember that while this is pleasant for the cow, it costs a dollar bill to get her out of the pound where she is sure to land if found on the streets. Hence, our advice is, keep the yards secure, and keep the cattle in them.

NEXT YEAR'S SEED CORN.

Many farmers are wondering where they are to get next year's seed corn. Many can find it on their own land, or can get it of their neighbors, and get higher yielding corn than by sending away. Prof. T. A. Kees-Black of the University of Nebraska, has the following to say of the present situation:

"The government crop report has estimated the probable yield of corn in Nebraska at less than 35 per cent of normal crop. The crop is restricted, more or less, to certain areas, while large portions of the state will have almost a total failure. This condition calls attention to the matter of seed corn for next spring's planting. The seed corn situation, however, need not be an serious as it appears at first thought. In fact, such years as this may be beneficial by way of eliminating all but the more hardy strains of corn within any ordinary variety. If only better plants produce cars under the prevailing hardships, it is quite reasonable to believe that these plants are especially resistant and should provide the best kind of seed corn. Even though the ears be small, it is to be recommended wherever possible, that a farmer select seed from his own or neighbor's field. The small size will grow on less favorable growing conditions, and will not be transmitted to the following crop. At any rate, an abundance of seed will be available in Nebraska for our own planting, and there will be no need of importing less adapted seed from other states."

THE WEEK WITH THE CHURCHES.

St. Mary's Catholic Church. (Rev. William Kearnes, Pastor). Mass next Sunday at 10:30. Benediction in the evening at 7:30.

German Evangelical Lutheran Church. (Rev. E. Moehring, Pastor). There will be no services next Sunday, as the pastor will be in the city. Sunday school will be held at the usual hour.

Methodist Episcopal Church. (Rev. P. R. Glorioso, Pastor). Sunday, September 21, is conference Sunday, and the pastor will be absent.

Sunday school at 12 o'clock, and Epworth league at 7 o'clock. Sunday last, infant daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Beckhauer, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Erickson were baptized at the morning service. Glad to note the many new Epworth leaguers at this meeting and the many new members. Let all our young people join in this very pleasant and profitable work.

The League will hold an acquaintance social for our new Normal students Friday evening, September 19. All invited. A good time is assured. The Ladies' Aid society holds its annual election of officers Thursday afternoon, September 18. Let all be present.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church. (Rev. F. S. Blessing, Pastor). The subject of the sermon Sunday morning will be "The Man Whom Angels Loved," Mark x, 21. There are many characteristics of Christ which appear to the human brain, but there is one stronger than all others, and that is love. Love caused him to look with compassion upon man, and offer him eternal life. Love caused him to weep when he was rejected. Upon the cross, amid the scoffs and staves, he revealed his love: "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." This same loving Christ still lives and his love goes forth to men, as when John leaned on his bosom, or as when he says, "Come, looking upon him, his name is called, 'loved him'."

Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Do not forget the importance of Sunday school work. President Wilson says of the Sunday school: "The Sabbath school is the life of manhood of tomorrow. Too much attention cannot be paid to the work which the Sabbath school is doing."

The Ladies' Aid society met at the home of Mrs. Henry Hansen last Thursday. There was a good attendance, and the president reported that the ladies are planning for a joint meeting with the Emerson Ladies' Aid society to be held in October. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Dana, September 28.

First Baptist Church. (Rev. B. P. Richardson, Pastor). "How the Church Feels Sunday" was the subject of the sermon last Sunday evening. In comparison with other objects for which we spend our money, the church certainly pays well as an investment. How much time, energy and money are you putting into it?

The church is missing nothing in the "What Jesus Said About Me" will be the subject for next Sunday morning. Have you ever tabulated the results wrought in the world through the church? Are you proud of your church membership? Hear the discussion Sunday evening.

Last week, the church and Sunday school officers were elected for the coming year. The church owes a deep debt of gratitude to all the officers, whose term of service is about to expire. It is an honor to be selected to fill office in the church, and it is also a means-service, expeditors of time and energy, and bearing burdens and responsibilities on behalf of others. Church-officers expect to find, and should have, support and cooperation from the church members. Let us pledge them, help to the newly elected officers.

An splendid interest was manifested last Sunday evening at our first preaching hour since vacation. Especially good was the singing. Professor DeWitt, who has been with his singing efforts, we can expect a song service each Sunday evening worth hearing. We are anxious to have you come. After the song service, the pastor will preach a brief sermon, especially to the young people of the church and Sunday school.

Tomorrow (Friday) evening, the young people of the church and Sunday school will be present for a reception for the student body.

By vote of the church, suitable resolutions were prepared concerning our appreciation of Brother Kimball, who has taken leave so suddenly. May the spirit of his noble life come over many of us.

September 24 is the time set for our annual fellowship gathering. You will hear more about it. Remember the date, and know that the hosts of the reunion expect you to be present. It will take the place of our midweek prayer meeting. It will be a prayer picnic. It will be more than a prayer picnic. Come.

Presbyterian Church. (Rev. Alexander Corkey, D. D., Pastor). Rally day will be observed at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning. In place of the regular church and Sunday school services, there will be a combined service beginning at 11 o'clock. All those attending the service will be given a Rally day souvenir.

The subject of the sermon will be "The Highest Moment in the Church of God." The session will be represented on the program by Mr. E. H. Jones, and the Sunday school by Mr. R. A. Davis. Resolutions will be announced by Superintendent Chas. A. Southerland, or services will also be presented to each congregation as well as a Rally-day souvenir.

Present Day Reverence for God will be the subject of the evening sermon at the Presbyterian church next Sunday. This is the second sermon on "Present Day Themes," and it will deal with the subject of reverence for God, concentrating his worship, his name and his day. These sermons are based on the teachings of the Bible, altogether ignoring present day teachings which deny the authority of Christianity, and favoring no universal action, no matter how popular it may be with some people.

There will be a preaching service at the Wilbur schoolhouse, four miles north and one mile west of town, next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Alexander Corkey will preach on "Personal Salvation" in connection with this service. Mrs. W. H. Morris will sing, accompanied by Miss Reba Nagle.

A union Sunday school was organized last Sunday afternoon at the McEachern school west of town, and the following officers were elected: Mrs. S. W. Edler, superintendent; Mr. B. R. Smith, assistant superintendent; Mrs. George McEwen, secretary and treasurer. The school will meet every Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Is the World Getting Better or Worse? The interesting question as to whether the world is improving—morally or degenerating was the subject of Rev. Alexander Corkey's sermon at the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening. There was a large attendance, this being the first Sabbath evening service since vacation time. The music was furnished by a choir of the young people under the leadership of Miss Edna Kuyper, in charge of the singing.

Dr. Corkey referred to the unprogressive progress of the world in material things, its rapidly growing wealth, and its amazing increase of knowledge. He then took up the question as to the moral state of the world today compared with the past. Finding the plain teachings of Christianity and supporting his argument with undeniable facts, he then declared that the world was getting both better and worse, the good people in the world were better than ever, but the bad people were worse than ever. The worst men who ever lived live today. He made his point very clear by referring to the drink habit, and acknowledged moral blight. In the past years, the amount of intoxicating liquor drunk has increased 300 percent per capita, in spite of the fact that millions are now total abstainers who formerly drank in moderation. This means that those who drink today are more sodden and drunken than they were forty years ago, but the temperate people are still more temperate. "There are two crowds in this world," said the preacher, "Jesus always taught this fact regarding society. He described two ways along which men walk: one broad and level, and the other narrow and straight. He divided men into wheat and tares. The plain, self-evident fact is that the wheat is getting better and the tares worse. Fifty years from now, the worst man in the world will be worse than the worst man of today, and the best man in the world half a century hence will be a better man than the best man today." In conclusion, the speaker showed that the immoral and wicked people were rapidly losing out, and a better and straighter path was chosen in the present-day, and the wicked pervert has only failure before him.

OBITUARY.

By the Pastor. Levi Kimball was born in Rockland, N. Y. August 19, 1836, died at Grand Island, Neb., September 9, 1913. He belonged to a family all of whom lived to a good age. Two sisters still survive him, both living near the old home in New York. Mr. Kimball met at a business college for a time, and had engaged in the lumber business when, in May, 1861, he responded to President Lincoln's call, and enlisted in the Twenty-Eighth New York infantry company. He was in the battle of Gettysburg, and was wounded. He became well, settling at McGregor, Ia., engaging in the grain business. Here, in 1866, he married Miss Abigail Hill Morrill. These sons were born here: James H., now in charge of the Harrington, Neb.; Herbert Lee of Spokan, Wash.; and Thomas E., who died seven years ago. The two surviving sons, and a daughter, Mabel A. Mudge, of Wilmington, Del., together with six grandchildren, were present with the family at the funeral of the deceased.

In 1887, Mr. Kimball, with his mother, moved his home to Wakefield, Neb., where he continued to live until the time of his death. Before leaving here, he had purchased an interest in what was then called the Wakefield bank, but now the First National bank of Wakefield, and was also deeply interested in the Harrington National bank, with which he became connected in 1883. At the time of his death, Mr. Kimball was a member of the Harrington and cashier of the bank at Wakefield.

Mr. Kimball was a member of the First Baptist church of Wayne, a member and officer of the Masonic lodge at Wakefield, and an active member of the Grand Army post having a good and lively interest in the Memorial day services.

Because of his character and active interest in all enterprises for the betterment of the world, Mr. Kimball exerted a very wide influence. The power of his strong personality was felt by all who came in contact with him. Although at the time of his death he was 77 years old, yet his activity on behalf of moral, religious and educational needs was not lessened.

On Monday, September 8, full of life and in good spirits, he left his home for a meeting of the board of trustees of Grand Island college. After reaching Grand Island, he ate dinner at the hotel and then retired to his room for his usual midday rest. Here, sometime in the afternoon, he was stricken with apoplexy and sinking to the floor, was not found till the next morning. Having been so active up to the very end, his death was a great shock to all who knew and loved him.

A large circle of people feel keenly his death. His departure is a blow to the community. He left behind him a large place, not merely as a citizen, but especially as a Christian man interested in all aspects of religious work. Mr. Kimball was a man of affairs, but always putting the affairs of God foremost. He was a successful business man without being absorbed by his business or a slave to it. His religion permeated his business dealings, and his business was dedicated to religious ends.

His Baptist denomination, especially, feel his loss. He not only contributed largely toward the work, but was actively engaged in the work. Having filled many places of honor and responsibility in the denomination, in the state, a wise, conservative, true Christian worker, he always exerted a helpful influence.

As a husband and as a father he was no less great. Those of his household who survive him rise up to call him blessed. During his life of Christian activity, he made many such, as his descendants, in God's kingdom, will never cease bearing dividends.

A large representation of friends from adjoining towns as well as from Wakefield, paid tribute to his memory by their presence at the funeral service. The service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. B. P. Richardson, from Wayne, assisted by Dr. Caldwell of Wakefield, Dr. Mills and Mr. J. W. Carpenter from Omaha, and Rev. Fred Berry from Lincoln. With one accord, all the speakers paid noble tribute to one whose life was the noblest and best. His master's life spent in doing good, heaven was at Wakefield.

WORK THAT TELLS.

Plenty of it Has Been Done in Wayne. To thoroughly know the virtues of a medicine, you must investigate its work. Doan's Kidney Pills stand this test, and plenty of proof exists right here in Wayne. People who have tried these pills are the best evidence. Many of them testify that they have been cured of kidney and urinary disorders, now give confirmed testimony—declare the results have lasted. How can any Wayne sufferer doubt the evidence? Mrs. D. R. McEvoy, Wayne, Neb., writes: "I had been suffering from kidney trouble for several years when I was suffering from dull pain across the small of my back, and a burning and itching in my urine. This remedy cured me, and at that time I publicly told of my experience. I am now willing to confirm my former statement."
