OBITUARY.

(By the Pastor). Mrs. Elizabeth Miller was born in Dunfermline county, Upper Canada, June 18, 1841. At the age of 13 her parents moved to Whiteside county, Ill., and while residing in Palo, Ia. county, Ill., she married John Miller, Dec. 28, 1864. Eight years later they moved to Wayne, Mo., returning to Illinois in 1879. Mrs. Miller died on the 22nd of Jan. 1914.

they took up a homestead. Mr. and Mrs. Miller lived there for five years, when they came to Wayne county, Nebraska, where they have lived for the past twelve years.

Mrs. Miller was the mother of two sons, Samuel being surviving, the twenty-five years. Mrs. Miller has been a great comforter. For seven weeks she had been ill.

SUICIDES WHILE HER HUSBAND AT CHURCH

Madison, Neb., Jan. 19. Mrs. Rose Wyland, wife of John Wyland, residing four miles east of Madison, hanged herself yesterday morning. Her husband, respecting nothing wrong, left home for church at Madison at 9 o'clock and returned at 11 o'clock, finding the house cold, their two babies, two months old, crying, and breakfast dishes unheated, noting no response to his calls for his wife. She had been ill for some time, but was not thought of hanging dead in a shed nearby. She had placed a rope around her neck and secured it to a beam above.

Mr. Wyland got the "Tip", carried the bodies back to the hotel and sent word to town. Sheriff Smith and J. S. Smart went to the scene and after conferring with coroner Baker of Tilden, decided an inquest was unnecessary as it was evident that deceased had taken her life while temporarily insane.

Mr. Wyland is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnoff of Madison, and was a young woman well known and highly respected here, having for a number of years been in charge of the Farmers' Exchange school in this city. About eighteen months ago, she was married to Mr. Wyland. She was a member of St. Leonard's church, where she did faithful service for a number of years as a member of the choir.

TESTIMONY IN TRIAL OF WILLIAM FLEGE REPENDANT CALLED TO STAND

Main Story of Crime Told by Albert Echtenkamp—Expert Evidence Offered.

Following proceedings of the Flege trial, in progress at Peuder, are reproduced from the Sioux City Journal:

Friday, January 16.

The witness called upon to testify this afternoon was Dr. J. Williams, Maggie Roeder, Henry Lessman and Henry Prevert, a brother-in-law of William Flege. Dr. Williams was the coroner of Wayne county. At the time of the murder of Louise Flege, he was engaged in performing the autopsy. He testified that the shot which Louise Flege received in the head would cause instant death. Maggie Roeder testified that she shot a revolver three or four times on June 30, 1910, and that she left home at about 3 o'clock, and that on passing the Flege place, they saw a man and team going to the field on the private road. The state could not shake testimony from the witness, who was called to verify Miss Roeder's statement about being able to view the Flege place from the road. Henry Prevert, a brother-in-law of William Flege, testified that he was present at the inquest and reported that Albert Echtenkamp said at that time that he was robbed.

Jacob Koth testified that while playing corn about 120 rods from the William Flege place, he saw a shot which he heard a loud report in the direction of the Flege home, and that the report resembled a gunshot.

Alice Mau testified that she heard the same kind of a report as the same day, but about the same time, in the direction of the Flege home. This testimony was given in an effort to disprove the state's claim that Louise Flege was killed shortly after dinner. William Flege, a brother-in-law of Louise Flege, then went on the stand and told something about the history of the Flege family, telling of the death of their father and mother, and of the division of the property. His testimony somewhat contradicted the testimony of W. C. Daveport of Sioux City, and County Attorney Kingsbury. He also said that he never knew of William Flege trying after the girl going to school, and that he did not see her at the funerals of their father and mother.

Saturday, January 17.

William Flege, accused slayer of his sister Louise, was placed upon the witness stand by Dr. Hays, who is the state's former Congressman. J. J. McInyre, one of his attorneys, conducted the examination. The witness testified that on the day of the murder, his brother-in-law, Dr. Williams, came to the house and stated that he had been sweeping the porch when he left. He then told of his finding the dead body of his sister Louise on the porch on the evening, and then of his employing W. C. Daveport of Sioux City, as a detective at $8 per day to run down the murderer. The witness said he took Mr. Daveport in his automobile where he was wanted to go, and that he saw everything Daveport wanted him to do. He also said that he never prevented Daveport from interviewing Albert Echtenkamp.

The witness stated that when he was asked to consent to the disinterment of the body of Louise Flege, he replied that he did not like it, but would give his consent, provided the rest of the family were in agreement. He stated that William Flege was on the stand most of the afternoon. He was cross examined very severely by Deputy Attorney General Ayres but he answered promptly to all the questions put to him. As times Mr. Ayres' voice would drop to a low tone, as he looked the defendant in the eyes and described the murder as told by Albert Echtenkamp, asking William if it was not so. The defendant, however, did not seem to be flinched, but said it was untrue; that he never did it and that it was a lie.

Monday, January 19.

When court convened this morning in the William Flege murder trial, the defendant was, again, for a few moments' cross examination. He was questioned as to some of his testimony in the previous trials of the case.

The defense then began the introduction of expert testimony. Dr. E. W. Meis of Chicago, being the first to testify. He told of his being employed in the case and of the disinterment of the body of Louise Flege, the removal of the stomach, and the examination of the same. He testified that there was no sign that Louise Flege was not killed until two and one half or three hours after she ate her dinner, as the contents of the stomach were practically all digested. He testified that there was no evidence of rape, and that the dead girl had never been in a delicate condition. Dr. Meis then stated that he turned the contents of the stomach over to Dr. Hays of Chicago, for his examination. He was severely grilled in cross examination by Attorney Hendrickson for the state.

The testimony of Dr. Meis was concluded shortly after court convened this afternoon. Dr. Haines of Chicago, who is recognized as one of the world's greatest chemists, was then called to the stand by the defense. The witness testified that the person whose stomach he examined, was not killed until two or three hours after she had eaten her dinner. Dr. Haines, another Chicago expert, testified the same in this respect. Witness said that he had examined several thousand dead bodies during his lifetime. Both of these experts testified at the former trial of the case here in Peuder.

Tuesday, January 20.

The Flege defense continued the presentation of medical testimony when court convened this morning. William Flege, the defendant, was on the witness stand a short time at the opening of the trial. Dr. Hays of Chicago, and Dr. H. Hays of Sioux City, Francis Hancock, McHugh of Sioux City, O'Connell of Peuder, and Bus of Peuder, were the medical men who testified this morning. The testimony of the doctors was about the same as that given at the previous trials of the case. Drs. Hays and McHugh were with Dr. Meis when the stomach of the Flege girl was examined, and corroborated his testimony. Dr. Hays was present at the disinterment of the body of Louise Flege last November, and testified as to the conditions in which he found the body and the internment.

The defense concluded its expert testimony with the examination of Dr. H. Hays of Lyons, who was present with Dr. Bus of Peuder at the last examining of the body of Louise Flege. The defense requested permission to introduce the picket gate belonging to the fence around the Flege home, which was examined. The object seemed to be to show that the gate was in fairly good condition and could be opened and closed, which evidence was intended to discredit the testimony of Albert Echtenkamp who previously said that he did not close the gate and thereby keep the hogs away from the body lying in the yard because the gate was old or broken and could not be closed.

The state then began the introduction of rebuttal testimony. Six witnesses were examined for the day.

COMMISSIONERS' PROCEEDINGS

1. Whether or not the limits of this county and without the corporate limits of any city or village, a person is suspected of having smallpox, scarlet fever, diphtheria or other contagious disease, he shall be immediately isolated within his own household as carefully as possible and as soon as a contagious disease is recognized it will be the duty of the attending physician and household to give written notice of the name of the disease and of giving the name of the disease and of the family where it exists, with the number exposed and all other particulars that may be of any value.

2. The person who has the above contagious disease exists shall be duly quarantined by the county Board of Health through its proper officer or any appointee (a) by placing upon the house or some conspicuous point upon the premises a sign bearing the name of disease in letters not less than three (3) inches in height, (b) by a verbal or written notice to the household to remain on the premises and in no way mingle with other persons or allow others (except the physician) to approach nearer than thirty (30) feet to any house or person thus quarantined. This rule to apply also in case of exposure.

3. Such quarantine to continue until in the opinion of the medical advisor of the Board of Health, the last case of the disease likely to occur therein has completely recovered and is ready for disinfection, provided, however, that in case of contagious disease, one free from disease may be released earlier after thorough disinfection of person and clothing, and with a certificate from the above medical advisor.

4. The necessities of life, as often in case of contagious disease, may be within thirty (30) feet of the quarantined house by a neighbor or other duly appointed messenger, but no nearer, nor shall any effects whatever be brought away from the household until thoroughly disinfected.

5. In case of death from contagious disease, there shall be no public funeral and the body of deceased shall be closely wrapped in sheets well saturated with carbolic acid and placed in a tight wooden coffin and carried to a vault with a disinfected cloth, and in such cases the corpse shall not be carried to or near any body of people while on its way to the cemetery.

6. When in any school district or community several families, say five to eight, are infected with contagious disease, or very many exposures have occurred, the Board of Health may prohibit all gatherings of people in that community, including sessions of school, until in their opinion, the emergency is past.

7. All physicians should use due precaution in their visits to quarantined households, to avoid the danger of contagion to the work.

8. When, in the opinion of the medical advisor of the Board of Health, quarantine can safely be raised, it shall be done with fumigation with a 40 per cent solution of formaldehyde, using at least five ounces of the same for every cubic foot of air space, solution to be applied by an approved evaporation or by the sheet method. The room to be sealed as least six hours, all persons to receive disinfecting bath and the clothing to be disinfected, and the house thoroughly cleared. This is to be done in accordance with the suggestions of the State Board of Health to Physicians.

9. When, in the opinion of the Board or County Commissioners, a hospital is needed to which individual cases of contagious disease may be removed, or when such method will accommodate those without homes as much has put the expense, or for any other reason it is deemed best, a building erected for the needs shall be provided.

10. Whoever in any way willfully or negligently disobeys these rules of quarantine and disinfection, shall be liable to be held responsible for himself, subject to prosecution and a fine of $25 for each and every offense, and shall mean while, if violated, and subject to quarantine, be held at the quarantine house or hospital until such time as disinfection.

On motion, the following persons are hereby appointed as members of the County Board of Health: Geo. T. Peuder, Dr. B. M. McInyre, and W. H. Phillips.

On motion, J. E. Harmon is hereby appointed janitor of the courthouse and yards for the year 1914, and salary fixed at $20 per month.

It is hereby resolved, that the books

Boys and Girls Much Pleased with Chance to Try For Cash Prizes—School Authorities Co-operate—Jury Announced.

The First National Bank of Wayne, has announced the following as the Jury of Award for the Panama Canal Essay Contest for $15 to each prize: W. D. Rodmond, J. W. Ziegler, A. R. Davis.

The school children have evinced a deep interest in the announcement made last week that a prize of $10 would be paid for the best 200-word essay written by a schoolboy or schoolgirl under sixteen years of age; a second prize of $5, and a third prize of $3.

The Osborne Art Calendar, which shows the reproduction of Richard W. Hummel's painting in full color of the entire canal zone, has been the center of attraction in every schoolroom since it was placed on the walls and announcement made through these columns that prize contest was on.

Most early, some of the essays have been mailed to the First National Bank.

Next of the boys and girls, however, are not sending along their first efforts, but are giving the Panama canal careful study, carefully scrutinizing the picture on the calendar, and the descriptive matter that appears on the sheet which is attached to it. There is a demand all over town for books on the Canal, and the "children of larger growth" are becoming as much interested as the smaller folk.

The Panama Canal picture and the prize contest have become the talk of the town, and, as we predicted a week ago, every one of us knows a lot more about the Canal, and the hundreds of millions of dollars and the thousands of lives that have been poured out in its building, than we knew a few weeks ago.

CAKE COMBINATION $1.50

You never bought 10 cakes before. This is at the rate of forty cents for 11, and along with these other staple goods at regular price, makes a $1.50 combination that you cannot pass up. One combination to a family. You can save money by buying the Advocombination.

No more high prices! This regular price on large 30 cent size extra fancy Lemons is only 30 cents per dozen; 2 for 5 cents. Everybody can save money.

We always have a good stock of extra fancy Junco Port-Lima Beans. This is the best variety. They have the taste. Our Red and Orange cannot be beat for sweetness.

DO NOT MISS THIS MONEY-SAVING COMBINATION. Try one for your Saturday order.

"ADVO" GROCERY

In our grandparents' time, picture taking meant long sittings in uncomfortable, straggled attitudes—

There was excuse in the old days for not having pictures taken at frequent intervals.

But today, clever photographers, in comfortable studios, with fast plates and fast lenses at their command, must the experience a pleasure.

And you owe this satisfaction to yourself—and to your friends.

We do Kodak finishing. These are—Photographers in your town.

NOTICING GLOBE SIGHTS

Not married men are superstitious, and don't you call 'em blame them... You'll despise the quietest too much... believe it ever happened... Shattered His Idol... Sing a Song of Sixpence...

LIFE WITH THE ESKIMOS.

Their Fish Stew on Ice Huts Resemble... My first view of the interior of Uck-Gluck's Arctic residence... The room was about eighteen feet in diameter and was a veritable shambles... Uck-Gluck possessed a reputation as both a great hunter and he had been especially successful of late...

GETTING ON THE STRAGE.

Dangers That Beset New Eggs in the Vagabond's Basket... The most amazing thing to a theatrical manager is the utter lack of comprehension on the part of applicants of what professional work really means... A clever vaudeville man... begin with a must have a good act, and if he is unskilled in this respect he must talk his act to the managers...

SCARED THE LION.

Bravery and Daring Displayed by an African Woman... In "Hunting the Elephant in Africa" the author, Captain C. H. Selcote... There is a certain thrill in connection with the king of the jungle... The lion returned and scratched gently on the door... The lion then walked into the hut and took his nap.

An Altered Line.

Sir Walter Scott was sitting in his library one day when a tall, thin, black-haired man had been knocking at his door... "Have you read the poem?" Sir Walter asked... "No, sir, I am not a reader."

Surf Birds.

That birds of the family named surf-birds in the Hawaiian Islands should leave that paradise of the Pacific to go and rear their young in the tundras of Alaska would seem to many an extraordinary coincidence...

Classified the Family.

"Everybody in our family's some kind of an animal," said Bobby to the amazed lady visitor... "Well," replied Bobby, "mother's a deer, my baby sister is mother's little lamb, I'm the kid and dad's the goat."

Shooting Through Glass.

A rifle bullet may be fired through a pane of glass, making a hole the size of the ball without cracking the glass... It will make no difference, and the thread will not even vibrate.
