NEWS OF THE WAYNE SCHOOLS FOR WEEK

(By Marion Grotter.) Margaret Helt is a new pupil of the fifth grade of the fourth grade. She has moved to Omaha with her parents. The girls of the fifth grade have finished and put up sash curtains for their school room.

The first grade pupils are drawing the designs for the rug which they intend to weave soon. They are also studying about the snow flakes.

The pupils of the second grade have taken up weaving this week. They are also studying some of the common homonyms for their language work. The ancient history class of the high school will complete the study of Greek history this semester, and take up the study of Roman history next semester.

The basket ball game between the Normal midget team and the high school first team last Friday night resulted in a victory for the high school team by 31 to 20. The entire event given yesterday morning by the freshman class included a review of the governor's message and the work of the state legislature and congress.

Ed Hoshaw of the fifth grade had the misfortune to fall on a knitting needle, resulting in a laceration of the hand, making quite a severe wound.

Recent visitors in the high school were Mrs. A. P. Lasse, Mrs. Clyde Oman, Mr. Sam Jacobson, Mr. Herbert Laase, Fred Hyde, and Morris Philpot and Miss Charlotte White.

THE MOVEMENT FOR FARM DEMONSTRATOR

A. L. Dayton, secretary of the temporary organization looking for the employment of a farm demonstrator for Wayne county, says thirty-five farmers living east of town have signed up in support of the movement, and he is anxious to hear from other parts of the county in order to effect a permanent organization. H. W. Moran acted as the work of a demonstrator under way in the spring. Mr. Dayton is encouraged to believe a demonstrator would prove of enough benefit to the county to fully warrant his employment, but thinks various farmers would be likely to derive large returns, start with the early spring. Men in different sections of the county undertaking the work of securing support for the movement are earnestly requested to report to Mr. Dayton without delay.

MUSICAL OF HIGH ORDER AT THE NORMAL

One of the most enjoyable musicals of the year was given by Helou A. Brown, dramatic soprano, at the State Normal chapel last Thursday evening. Her program from the beginning to the close was given in a most careful and artistic manner.

Miss Brown's voice is of exceptionally fine quality but free from harshness. Her enunciation was perfect, her high notes clear and definite, and her lower register notes full and clear. Her singing was full of enthusiasm and she received very enthusiastic applause which recalled her for many encores. The evening with Miss Brown will be long remembered at the State Normal school.

STATE NORMAL NOTES

The new semester opens January 13. President Conn made a business trip to Omaha Wednesday.

Examinations for teachers' certificate will be held at the Normal on Thursday and Friday of this week.

Final examinations for the completion of the work of the first semester will be held on January 21 and 22.

The Y. W. C. A. has begun a systematic campaign for membership. The society is doing excellent work.

Rev. Hoshaw of the fifth grade had the misfortune to fall on a knitting needle, resulting in a laceration of the hand, making quite a severe wound.

Recent visitors in the high school were Mrs. A. P. Lasse, Mrs. Clyde Oman, Mr. Sam Jacobson, Mr. Herbert Laase, Fred Hyde, and Morris Philpot and Miss Charlotte White.

OWNERSHIP OF LOCAL DRUG STORE CHANGES

The Shultheis Pharmacy has been sold to W. Roberts and son, H. Roberts, of Caydon. The late Shultheis, who retires from the drug business, says he is undecided what he will do. He appreciates the patronage accorded the store, and speaks highly and confidently of his successors. The Roberts people have long been well identified with the drug business. The senior Roberts has been in the business for thirty years, and H. H. Roberts, who is also a graduate in pharmacy, has had eight years' experience in all lines of the drug business. Both are highly qualified, and come to Wayne highly recommended as good citizens as well as thorough and reliable business men.

WILL FORBES JOINS UNIVERSITY STAFF

Miss Grace Wattles of Creighton, who taught music in Wayne the past year, was in town between trains Friday. She was on her way to Bloomfield where she has a music class.

Miss Henrietta Moler who teaches at Wakefield, was an over Sunday guest of Miss Nell Gustafson, in Wayne. Miss Gustafson returned with her to Wakefield Sunday afternoon.

A. M. Helt and children, Margaret and Raymond, went Saturday to Fremont, where Miss Margaret underwent an operation for the removal of tonsils. They returned home Monday.

Miss Grace Wright who had spent a week with her mother Mrs. A. H. Wright, in Wayne, returned to Omaha Saturday. Her brother, Arthur Wright, accompanied her and returned Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Musgrave, who have been living in Wayne, where Mr. Musgrave was employed in the "Maboff" barber shop, left Monday for Norfolk where they will make their home. Mr. Musgrave will be a solicitor for the International Correspondence school.

According to the Times, Randolph Dealers will be unable to harvest the usual amount of ice on account of the pond supplying the product going dry. Seventy-five tons have been gathered this season but the pond will be emptied to meet the demands of the town. Ice dealers talk of installing a plant for the production of artificial ice.

The Lewis, Io. Standard of December 30, contained the following obituary of Frank J. Bennett, who was a well known citizen of Wayne county at one time.

Frank J. Bennett was born at Howell, Mich., December 29, 1854, and died at the Jones hospital, in Lewis, Io., December 27, 1914, aged 59 years, 9 months and 28 days.

He was of a family of nine children, four boys and five girls, all of whom have passed away but two, as follows: Joseph L. Bennett of Kearney, Neb., and Mrs. Josephine L. Johnson of Fremont, Neb.

Mr. Bennett came with his parents to Jones county, Io., when 3 years of age, where he grew to manhood. Here he was married October 5, 1877 to Elizabeth Williams, and in 1886, they removed to Wayne, Neb., where they resided for fifteen years. They spent five years in Stanton, Neb., removing from there to Cass county, Io., first living near Lorain, and in March, 1904, they settled in their present home, one mile north of Lewis.

To them were born four children, as follows: John, of Cassfield, Newcomb of Sheridan, Wyo., and Frank and William of Lewis. Besides these, the wife and five grandchildren remain to mourn his departure.

Mr. Bennett was a strong, active man, still in the prime of life. His death was due to an accident which happened December 19, while hauling a load of straw in a wagon box. The wagon slipped on the ice, striking a post and throwing him to the frozen ground with such force as to fracture the spinal column at the neck. The best of care and surgical attention were unavailing. He retained his faculties and was able to converse every day, and though he suffered from pain and nervousness, his words were full of cheer and hope. He expressed his readiness to go, and passed away with an abiding trust in the Lord and savior.

He was a man of great value to the community in many ways. He was "prospering financially," but he also prospered in other ways. He was rich in friendships and the esteem of his fellow-men. He was a member of I. O. O. F. and the Rebecas in Lewis. Reared by religious parents, he united with the Presbyterian church at the age of 21, with which church he was connected until he came to Lewis, when with his family, he united with the congregational church. He had been a trustee of the church since superintendent of the Sunday school for several years. He was also Sunday school superintendent for years in other places before coming here.

Funeral services were conducted at the congregational church at 1 o'clock on Tuesday, December 29, by the pastor, Rev. B. E. Myers, assisted by Pastor H. E. Hall of the Church of Christ. The text was from I. Samuel, xx. 3: "There is but a step between me and death."

Mrs. Edna Askeew and Mrs. Edith Hedges sang. "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say, Come Unto Me and Rest." The choir sang his favorite hymn, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," and other comforting numbers.

The pall-bearers were his four sons, assisted by J. C. Kennedy and Will Berry.

The body was laid to rest in Oakwood cemetery and the services at the grave were in charge of the I. O. O. F. members of which order and of the Rebecas attended in a body.

The whole community has been deeply moved by the sudden removal of so good and valuable a citizen. Friend and brother.

THE WEEK WITH THE CHURCHES
First Baptist Church. (Rev. B. P. Richardson, Pastor). The presence and preaching of Dr. Mills last Sunday was a spiritual uplift to all present. He believes in the Lord's work and purpose with all his mind and heart. In him the churches have an able heroic leader. We are sure our church does not want to be lacking in the least in its support of his work. We have two and one-half months yet before the missionary budget is all due. May none of us fail to do our part. At the young people's meeting Sunday evening, Ward Randol gave an interesting talk. We were all gratified to find Ward so nobly taking up the good work. Sunday morning, Dr. J. A. Leavitt of Lincoln, now the field representative of Grand Island college, will preach for us. Dr. Leavitt has been here before and we are sure he will bring us a good message. The young people's meeting will be under the leadership of Miss Ina Hughes Sunday evening. Subject: "Bold Beginnings." It was good to see two young men make a public confession of their faith in Christ last Sunday evening. Such an act often becomes the real turning point in a young man's career. "Moses, the Mediator" will be the topic for discussion Sunday evening. These old heroic characters are full of present day inspiration. The pastor had planned to give a bible study each prayer meeting evening for a few weeks. This will take about half an hour, followed by the regular prayer meeting. Next week's topic will be "The Divine Origin of the Bible." It is hoped this study will be able to attend these meetings.
Methodist Church. (Rev. A. S. Buell, Pastor). Professor Bowen of the high school and Professor Britell of the State Normal each gave a splendid message in the Brotherhood service last Sunday morning. Dr. B. S. Blair presided with grace and efficiency.

Farm Mares Wanted

I want to buy 100 head of Mares per week, from 4 to 20 years old, weighing from 1300 lbs. to as big as I can get them. They need not be particularly sound—don't object to slight wire cut, dead-eye or little heavy, but must be in fair flesh.

Would also buy a few farm chunks from 5 to 9 year old. Must be sound and fat. Bring stock to town, I will give all they are worth.

The Sunday school is doing splendid work. If you have not already enrolled in one of the classes, please come to do so next Sunday.

The subject for Sunday morning's sermon will be "Heaven."
The evening subject will be "The Woman's Home and the Woman's Foreign Missionary societies will serve a chicken supper in the dining room of the church Friday evening of this week, beginning at 6 o'clock. Come and bring in the family.

The "Community social" will be held Friday evening in the Epworth League room. Each young lady will bring two neckties precisely alike, presumably made by herself. A special program is being prepared for this social.

The Epworth League devotional morning closing. The devotional meetings of late have been unusually interesting.

The second quarterly conference will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock. As this is the regular evening for the Sunday school board meeting, they will meet at 7:30.

Revival meetings will begin Sunday, January 24.

Presbyterian Church.

(Rev. S. Xenophon Cross, Pastor.)
This church aims to stand and work for the uplift of the community. Its professed mission is to help people. The pastor and session desire to be informed of any desiring assistance that they may be able to render.

This church desires to cooperate with any and all other agencies of the town and community working for the common good. In union there is strength. We would unite our forces with others seeking to render a like service to society.

This church would assist in the world-wide work of evangelism. Every member makes some sacrifice this week in order to save some money to be paid into the Home Mission department of the Lord's treasury next Sunday.

This church believes in teaching the gospel. The text for the morning sermon, at 10:30, next Sunday, is: "Let there be light." The subject for the evening sermon is: "The Magi." Good singing at all these preaching services.

This church solicits the presence and assistance of the young people who desire to engage in real-Christian service. The Y. P. S. C. E. meets on Sunday evenings at 6:30. Efficiency has gone up to twenty-three points.

This church invites you to all the above mentioned services, and the Sunday school at noon, and to the prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 7:30. There is a place for you and the seats are free. You can be a great blessing through the channels of the church. Come though with us and we will do the good.

St. Paul's English Lutheran Church.

(Rev. F. E. Blessing, Pastor.)
Sunday school at 10 a. m.
Morning worship at 11 a. m.
Luther League at 6:45 p. m.
Evening worship at 7:45 p. m.

The subject of the morning sermon will be: "The Divine Voice to the Spiritual Fugitive." Hosea x. 12. In one of Christ's parables, we see a young man as a spiritual fugitive who was a landowner. A severe famine has visited the land, and, as the prophet has said, there is "cleanness of teeth." The young fugitive sits beneath a tree with his face in his hands and in despair. We begin to think. Visions of the old home come before him. He sees his noble father; he sees his well-laden table; he sees the well-ted servants, and bitterly he cries: "How many hired servants of my father have been bred enough to enter." His face sinks deeper into his hands, but in his dispendent condition, the divine voice, seems to whisper to him. He lifts his head, as a flood of light comes into his being, and he cries: "I will arise and go to my father." As the divine voice whispers to the young fugitive, so does it whisper to the spiritual fugitive now. "Sow to your selves in righteousness; reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground."
In the evening the pastor will continue his sermons on the "Representative Men of the Old Testament."

We were pleased to note the good attendance at the Luther League meeting last Sunday evening. We hope that the interest and attendance will continue to increase. The subject for discussion next Sunday night will be "The Missions of Your Own District Synod."

The Youth Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. Silas Mellick on Thursday afternoon.
Choir rehearsal Thursday evening in the study of the church.
Catechetical class meets every Saturday afternoon at 2:30.
A cordial invitation is extended to all who wish to worship with us.

German Lutheran Church.

(Rev. R. Moehring, Pastor.)
There will be neither Sunday school nor preaching services next Sunday.

You can help by impressing children at school and at home with the possibility of danger in playing on railroad property.

Lenses For the Eyes

The average person who has to wear glasses usually thinks but little of the lenses themselves, but much of the mountings, the adjustment and the eye examination.
The lenses are the important thing. You look through the lenses from the time you begin to wear glasses until your eyes can no longer see.

Joric lenses are the greatest improvement in lenses in the last hundred years. Shaped like the corner of the eye, they prevent eye strain, give a wider angle of view without touching the lashes, or your seeing the edges of the lenses.

Come in and ask me to explain to you the Joric lens. I devote my entire time to fitting and making glasses.

Uncle Walt

The Poet-Philosopher

SNOW

The boy looks out and sees the snow that's fallen by the fire, his eyes, with glitter, stare like bolts of fire, and means "heaps of fun." Upon his little sled, he'll coast as fast as lightning goes, while dodging pig-iron pause to roast all boys and sleds and snows. And when he gets to the end of the run, still remains; he'll wait some old man on the head, and dislocate his brains. The good old snow brings that delight which every small boy seeks. He hails with glee that "manly white" of which the poet speaks. The old man looks out at the snow that covers street and plain, and heaves a mighty sigh of woe and has a mental pain. "Dodgast the snow," he cries, "alack, oddfish, and eke gnat, I'm due to have a fresh attack of jumping rheumatism! Devils in this time of sleet, my system will insist, and I'll have chilblains in my feet, pneumonia in my chest, I'll have to drink a pill of dope, my breast with grease anoint, and rub the grease on my joints, one along my every joint. Alas, the days of long ago, which truly were sublime! When I was young there was no snow, we had no wintering."

DOWN AND OUT

Misfortune punched you in the nose and knocked you down and tramped you under; you survey the gloomy wreck, and stand around and weep, I wonder?—Your hold upon success has slipped, and still you ought to bob up grinning for when a man admits he's whipped, he throws away his chance of winning. I like to think of John Paul Jones, whose ship was split from truck to fender; the British asked, in blasted tones, if he was ready to surrender. The Yankee replied: "Our ship is sinking at the water, but don't begin to put on side—for we have just begun our fighting!" There is a motto, luckless lad, that you should paste inside your bonnet: when this old world seems stern and sad, with nothing but some Jonah on it, if it don't murmur in a futile way, about misfortune, bleak and biting, but bid your well known loins and say: "Great Scott! I've just begun my fighting!" The man who won't admit he's licked is bound to triumph, shining, and all the lemons will be picked by weak-kneed fellows fond of whining.

SHOVELING COAL

Shoveling coal, shoveling coal, into the furnace's grate-like hole! Thus goes the coin we so dearly earn, into the furnace to sizzle and burn; thus it's converted to ashes and smoke, and we keep shoveling, weeping and broke. Oh, it's a labor that tests the soul, shoveling coal, shoveling coal! "The boss," says the flier, "is as cold as a barn," so I must emigrate, muttering "dam," down to the furnace, the which I must feed—it is a glutton, a demon of greed! Into its cavern I throw a large load, and here goes the money I got for an' ole! There goes the check that I got for a pone, boosting the joys of an evening at home! There goes the price of full many a scroll, shoveling coal, shoveling coal! This I will need, I'm not able to buy, I have shut down on the cake and the pie; most of my jewels are lying in soak; gone is the money for ashes and smoke; all I can earn, all the long winter through, goes in the furnace and then the fire. Still says the flier, "It's as cold as a floe, up in the Arctic, where polar bears grow." So all my song is of sorrow and dole, "shoveling coal, shoveling coal!"

STARTING AFRISH

This year I've cut out all the sins that handicapped me in the past; I realize that Virtue wins the joys of Error do not last. I hope to be so truly good, so steadfast in the cause of right, that to the whole blamed neighborhood I will be a shining light. Admiring folks will come to me, point, and say, in fervent tones, "By Jings, if justice were not out of joint, he'd have a harp and set of wings." But I would hate to be so good, in righteousness, so nobly strong, so clear as a crystal, that I could not sympathize with those gone wrong. 'T'd hate to walk so high a plane I could not feel for Jim or John, or try to snoo away their pain because their folly brought me here. 'T'd hate to reach those heights sublime where men are ever roasting sin, and when they hand a tramp a dime, must throw a moral lecture in. 'T'll be as good as I know how, and still be human, like the rest, and if I break my New

BE GRATEFUL

The New Year finds poor Knave, torn and splashed with fifty kinds of gore; a million sad-eyed women mourn the loved ones who return no more. A million orphans, starved and cold, their hearts too early known to pain, look down the road and call for dad, and look and call and weep in vain. A million homes are quiet and bare, where once the sounds of glad were heard, where children met the evening prayer, and parents read the sacred Word, and in this country, blessed of God, not grudge terror self-sacrifice to slay our brothers and our sons. No butchers on our shores aspire to the obscene, now running clear we gather by the evening fire, secure from harm and free from fear. Pray gratitude for finding the that do you from such anxious rage, do you whine of evil, but how ever trifling it may be? Oh, ye who go your peaceful ways, unannounced, watch staided ranks, should fill the air with songs of praise, let them, O God! Heaven with our thanks.

THE EARLY DAYS IN TWO COUNTIES

From the Wayne Herald-Tribune, January 14, 1886:

Gracie Maurer broke her arm while coasting.

Slater & Frazier shipped two cars of cattle and one of hogs to Omaha.

The thermometer marked 26 degrees below zero Friday, January 9, 1886.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gamble on January 14, 1886, a daughter.

R. H. Gibson received from Medicine Bow an elk's head with antlers attached.

Miss Eva Meyers entertained a number of her friends at a progressive euchre party.

A severe storm blockaded the railroads and caused traffic to be suspended for several days.

Market prices: Wheat 50 cents, corn 16 cents, oats 16 cents, potatoes 30 cents, butter 15 cents, eggs 15 cents.

A member of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Steele met to help them celebrate the tenth anniversary of their marriage.

Miss Laura C. Wright and Isaac A. Newton were married January 7, 1886, at the home of the bride's parents, in Wayne, by Rev. H. C. Pittenger.

At the groom's residence north of Wayne, on January 12, 1886, were married Miss Rosina Kugler and George Benjamin, Rev. F. L. Wilgert officiating.

A meeting of the stockholders of the First National bank was held to elect officers. J. T. Bressler was re-elected president, D. C. Patterson vice president and P. A. Dearborn cashier.

From the Wayne Herald, January 14, 1897:

Mrs. Williams entertained friends at a dinner.

The Bachelor Girls met with Miss Buffington.

The Minerva club met with Mrs. J. C. Ludeke.

There was a literary entertainment at Mr. Hays schoolhouse.

The Bachelor Girls entertained a party of young men at a raffy pull.

Bessie Gamble entertained a number of her young friends at a party.

O. H. Burson received news of the death of his father at Nebraska City.

County Treasurer Phil Kohl attended the Jacksonian club banquet in Omaha.

The W. N. P. club met with Mrs. R. J. Armstrong. The evening was spent at whist.

Mrs. D. H. Blanchard entertained the whist club. Mrs. Ley and Mr. Morgan were prize winners.

Miss Hanna Nelson of Wakefield, and Andrew Nelson of Hunter precinct, were married January 8, 1897.

Rev. J. W. Shank of Omaha, editor of the Christian Advocate, delivered two addresses in Wayne at the Methodist church.

Market prices: Wheat 58 cents, oats 9 cents, corn 9 cents, butter 10 cents, eggs 15 cents, potatoes 20 cents, hogs $2.65.

Miss May Prescott and Harry Tidrick were married January 6, 1897, at the home of the bride in Norfolk, officiating.

J. H. Lohman, grand secretary of the Sons of Herman, was in Wayne instituting a camp. Officers elected were: F. Volpp, president; H. J. Hagedorn, vice president; Otto Vogel, secretary; Herman Misdner, treasurer.

From the Ponca Journal, January 11, 1883:

Monday evening the mercury tumbled down to 20 degrees below zero. Towards morning the cold let up a little. Tuesday was a pleasant day, and quite warm.

C. W. Smith started Tuesday for Butte City, Mont., on a month's visit to the west. To get to Butte City he has a long and a roundabout journey. He goes first to Omaha; from there he takes the Union Pacific railroad to Ogden, and from Ogden he goes by the Utah Northern railroad to Butte. The journey will be one of about 2,000 miles in length.

In Wayne, a desperate war is being waged over the county seat matter. An injunction has been issued to prevent the removal of the county books and office from La Porte to Wayne, and in the general row, several lawsuits have been started. Among the suits is one against the editor of the Wayne Herald for libel. When court sits in Wayne county, there will, no doubt be some rare sport.

THE WAYNE HERALD

The Oldest Established Paper in Wayne County. Published Every Thursday. Entered at the Postoffice at Wayne, Neb., as Second Class Mail Matter. E. W. HUSE, Editor and Proprietor. Subscription $1.50 per Year. Telephone 146.

People who attend strictly to their own business, not having time or inclination to pick up the ends of other people's business, make the greatest headway and who accomplish the most desirable results. Did you ever notice that the townsmen or farmer who devotes attention exclusively to his own business, who spends part of his time finding fault with conditions and neighbors is the one who prospers most?

The Cedar County News at Hartington, sold last week by George W. Kelly to E. B. Hirschman, is considered very desirable newspaper property. Mr. Kelly steadily improved the plant in equipment and service, and placed it among the foremost weeklies in the state. Mr. Hirschman was at one time a merchant at Osmond, and former editor of Cedar county as treasurer retired from that office the first of the year. He will have friendly competition in the Hartington Herald which occupies a high standard in newspaper work. Hartington has two weekly papers, and it is said Mr. Hirschman will keep up the high standard already established.

The Herald has been receiving copies of the papers designated some time ago by the Oregon university as representing the highest type in rural journalism. One of the papers is the Tombstone Epitaph, published at Tombstone, Ariz. The name is so powerfully suggestive that it excites special notice. One thinks of quiet and repose, graves and grave yards, and the name of its town would suggest it. It verifies Shakespeare's "A rose by any other name would smell as sweet."

It is interesting to note the contrast between the claims of the man who stuns around assuming to know much, and the man who has actually reached the acme of present knowledge. It verifies Shakespeare's "A rose by any other name would smell as sweet." It is interesting to note the contrast between the claims of the man who stuns around assuming to know much, and the man who has actually reached the acme of present knowledge. Every person who is constantly working under a strain; who who have lost your appetite, are weak and emaciated and in no condition for your daily duties—remember this!

Nyal's Beef, Iron and Wine with its nourishing and strengthening properties will relieve this condition and make you feel like new. It increases the appetite, assists the digestive fluids, foods are easily assimilated, it increases the circulation and enriches the blood. Come in and take a trial dose of two—it is pleasant to take and you will notice an increase in your appetite after a few doses, and the remedy working with equal benefit in other ways. Your complete restoration to health must surely follow. Come in and try it!—Seventy-five cents for a large bottle. We expect to be here in business a good many years. The only way we can do it is by treating everybody right. That's our policy.

Flour Prices vs. Wheat Prices

The war in foreign countries caused the price of wheat to advance from 80c to $1.15 or $1.20 per bushel on the local market. The price of flour usually follows the price of wheat, hence the remarkable advance in flour. The Year of 1892, Tekamah, Burt county, Neb., we paid $1.25 for milling wheat; flour advanced in the same ratio then as it is doing now. So, after all, it is a matter of supply and demand. Whatever the price on the different flour may be in the future, you can rest assured if you use

HIDES AND FURS

You Are Careful to Avoid

That place or person known to contain or have a contagious disease. You would not shake hands with your best friend if you knew he had smallpox. Exercising this same intelligence and wise precaution can you consistently continue to imbibe water from a well that is located anywhere near an outdoor closet and feel that you are playing safe so far as your health is concerned? Of course you can't. The very vein which supplies that well may for all you know flow directly beneath that outdoor closet. But if this is not real in your case, what about the transmission of disease by flies or dirt and disease germs from the closet to your food in your home.

Again, leaving out the question of the comfort and convenience, which can be obtained by the use of an indoor closet, can you afford to endanger your health by exposure to cold, with the possibility of contracting habits of irregularity, which the use of an outdoor closet entails.

Along with the big corporations and institutions throughout the country let "Safety First" be your slogan and start the New Year right by cheating the undertaker out of any prospective business in your family, due to the use of this relic of a barbaric age, by installing a "Hypo" aseptic closet in your home.

TO THE STOCKHOLDERS OF THE WAYNE SPEED AND FINE STOCK ASSOCIATION.

The stockholders of the Wayne Speed and Fine Stock association will take notice that pursuant to the following resolution duly passed and adopted by the Board of Directors of said corporation, to-wit:

"Resolved, that in the judgment of this Board it is advisable and more for the benefit of the Wayne Speed and Fine Stock association that the same should be forthwith dissolved, and to that end it is ordered that a meeting of the stockholders be held on the 22nd day of January, 1915, at 2 o'clock p. m. at the office of the Wayne Speed and Fine Stock Association in the city of Wayne, Nebraska, to take action upon this resolution; and further, that the secretary forthwith give notice of said meeting and of the adoption of this resolution within ten days from this date by publishing the said resolution, with notice of its adoption, in the Wayne Herald, a newspaper published in the city of Wayne, Nebraska, for at least four (4) weeks, once a week successively, and by mailing a written or printed copy of said resolution and every stockholder of said corporation."

The said stockholders will meet at the office of A. R. Davis, in the city of Wayne, Nebraska, on the 22nd day of January, 1915, at 2 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of taking action upon the above resolution.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands this 29th day of December, 1914.

F. E. STRAHAN,
President.
Attest: C. M. Craven, Secretary. D314d

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.

In the district court of Wayne county, Nebraska.

In the matter of the application of Ferdinand L. Wollschlaeger, administrator of the estate of Caroline Wollschlaeger deceased, for license to sell real estate.

On this 2nd day of January, 1915, this cause came on for hearing upon the petition, under oath, of Ferdinand L. Wollschlaeger, administrator of the estate of Caroline Wollschlaeger deceased, praying for license to sell the following described real estate of the said Caroline Wollschlaeger deceased, to-wit: The north half of section nineteen (N. 1/2 Sec. 19) township twenty-five (Twp. 25) North of Range two (R. 2) east of the 6th P. M., and also to sell the northwest quarter of section twenty (N. W. 1/4 Sec. 20) and the south half of the southeast quarter of section eighteen (S. 1/2 S. E. 1/4 Sec. 18), township twenty-five (Twp. 25) north of Range two (R. 2) east of the 6th P. M. for and subject to purchase executed by Caroline Wollschlaeger as purchaser and Minnie B. Hamilton as vendor, and to sell all right, title, and interest in and to said contract belonging to the estate of the said Caroline Wollschlaeger, which said contract is recorded in book seven (7) at page 238 of the Miscellaneous Records in the office of the county clerk of Wayne county, Nebraska. To sell all the above described real estate and interest therein for the purpose of paying debts against said estate, and the costs of administration, and for the reason that there is not a sufficient amount of personal property in the possession of said Ferdinand L. Wollschlaeger, administrator, belonging to said estate to pay its expenses and costs.

It is, therefore, ordered that all persons interested in said estate, and in said real estate, appear in open court in the City of Wayne, Wayne County, Nebraska, on the 15th day of January, 1915, at 10 o'clock a. m., to show cause, if any there be, why a license should not be granted to said Ferdinand L. Wollschlaeger, administrator, to sell so much of said real estate as was not the homestead of decedent, and the interest of said estate therein, or to sell so much thereof as may be necessary to pay said debts, expenses, and costs.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order be served upon all persons interested in said estate and in said real estate, by causing the same to be published once each week for (4) successive weeks prior to the date of said hearing, in the Wayne Herald, a newspaper printed and published in said Wayne county, Nebraska.

Judge of the District Court. J74

Cough Medicine for Children.

Never give a child a cough medicine that contains opium in any form. When opium is given, other and more serious diseases may follow. Long experience has demonstrated that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine for coughs, colds, and croup in children than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is equally valuable for adults. Try it. It contains no opium or other harmful drug. For sale by all dealers.

One way to relieve habitual constipation is to take regularly a mild laxative. Doan's Regulets are recommended for this purpose. 25c a box at all drug stores.—Ad.

Biliousness and Constipation Cured.

If you are ever troubled with biliousness or constipation you will be interested in the statement of Dr. F. Erwin, Peru, Ind.: "A year ago last winter, I had an attack of indigestion, followed by biliousness and constipation. Seeing Chamberlain's Tablets so highly recommended, I bought a bottle of them, and they helped me right away." For sale by all dealers.—Ad.

Dangers of a Cold.

Do you know that of all the minor ailments, colds are by far the most dangerous? It is not the colds themselves that you need to fear, but the serious diseases that so often lead to. For that reason, every cold should be gotten rid of with the least possible delay. To accomplish this, you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy of great help to you. It loosens a cold, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration and enables the body to throw off the cold. For sale by all dealers.

FIRES ON PHILADELPHIA.

Bixby in Lincoln Journal: Billy Sunday has rapped sin and misery in Philadelphia, and both are on the run, if reports are not misleading. Here is the beginning of his opening address, as reported in the local papers. Facing a curious audience of twenty thousand, he broke loose after this manner: "I'll make this old town over in its sleep. Come on, you forces of evil in Philadelphia, get inside the church a doornail to wipe your dirty feet upon. Come on, you triple extract of infamy. Come on, you assassins of character. Come on, you defamers of God, and enemies of his church. Come on, you bull-necked, beetle-browed, hog-jawed, weasel-eyed four-flushers, false alarms and excess baggage. In the name of Almighty God, I challenge and defy you. I'm here for some long weeks. Come on, and I'll deliver the goods, express prepaid." This doesn't sound much like the language of the holy and gentle Nazarene, but the world may need that kind of billingsgate and braggadocio. If it does, it ought to have it and Sunday can deliver the goods at four in the message—but the prepaid baggage is a hind. The audience will be given an opportunity to settle in full before the benediction on the closing night. In the fall of 1878 a temperance evangelist came to Nebraska and held a series of meetings in the big towns along the main line of the Union Pacific railroad. He was a powerful speaker and wrought mightily upon the emotions of those who heard him, and people came out in great numbers because his talks were wonderfully entertaining. The result was a temperance tidal wave that threatened to put the saloons of Fremont, Columbus, Grand Island, and North Platte in the condition Mr. Bigan says they would be were all men to ride on the water wagon. After the excitement was over, the tide receded and while a few old souls who had figured to stay sober steadfastly remained in the full use of their mental faculties, a great majority fell back into the old habitual ways and strove valiantly to make up for the loss they had sustained during a few weeks of freedom from their cups. The real tragedy of what an evangelist has accomplished comes after the reaction from the initial excitement. At this late date we would not attempt to measure the permanent good resulting from the temperance work of John B. Finch in Nebraska, but everywhere he impressed the people with his earnestness, his honesty and the further fact that under all circumstances he was a gentleman.
