ELECTIONS TUESDAY IN SEVERAL STATES

WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE IN NOTED NEW YORK, MASSACHUSETTS AND PENNSYLVANIA

Summarized report of Tuesday's elections appearing in the New York Daily News. A. Elections in ten states yesterday defeated woman suffrage amendments in New York, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania. The democrats elected a governor in Maryland and the entire state ticket, besides a majority in the legislature.

In Kentucky both parties claimed victory in the gubernatorial contest. Incomplete returns gave former Governor P. Morehead the nomination. In Mississippi, the only other state to elect a governor, went as usual, democratic. The only opposition to the democratic ticket headed by Theodore G. Bilbo was made by socialist candidates.

In New York former congressman William S. Bennett was elected in the Twenty-third district to succeed the late democratic congressman Jacob Goedicke. Bennett is a republican. The republican ticket defeated republicans in the Thirty-first and Thirty-sixth congressional districts of New York and Twenty-fourth district of Pennsylvania.

In New York the republicans received a majority in the lower house of the legislature although they lost one assemblyman. They also elected a majority of the mayors chosen in cities of the state. In Ohio the republican ticket defeated the democratic ticket by about 21,000 votes the people of New York repudiated the new state constitution drafted by a convention of which Elihu Root was president and for which Mr. Root had conducted a vigorous speaking campaign.

Samuel W. McCall, the republican who will succeed David I. Walsh, a democrat, as governor of Massachusetts won by a plurality of more than 65,000. In the election of the governor of the Massachusetts legislature, the republicans returned to power in Philadelphia where their candidate, Thomas Smith, was elected mayor. In New Jersey the republicans gained control of the legislature and two members of the assembly will continue control of both houses of the legislature.

Statewide prohibition was re-enacted in Ohio by a vote of 57 to 33. In Michigan the amendment was defeated by 361 to 215. The republicans elected mayors in Cleveland and Cincinnati. Charles Miller, a Progressive, was chosen mayor of Toledo.

The city of Toledo voted against a twenty-five year street car franchise and will take over all lines controlled by the Toledo Railway and Light company. The proposal that the city purchase the local street railways was rejected in Detroit after a bitter fight.

The election of members of Virginia general assembly will send a strong majority, the senate and house pledged to the enactment of prohibition legislation when the state goes dry by constitutional amendment November 1, 1916.

Contest Closes Dec. 6; Who will Get the Piano?

faces were so ludicrously exaggerated that one almost felt that he had been dropped into the human medley of a cosmopolitan city. All kinds of faces were in evidence, and when the masks were unmasked, the revelation of staid members who had so caricatured their looks, was very interesting. It was an evening devoted for fun and frolic, and the guests, old and young, chattered and laughed appropriately. There were a few ladies were given black cats and the men pumpkins, the aid of which, together with verses in appies, enabled the forming of pairings for a grand promenade to the big "neutry barn" where a carnival of payety was staged, each animated by the good fortune hitherto vouchsafed and all marching off with their unique cranial appendages waving triumphantly at red-tongued spoons in the circumambient darkness. At the barn, sides were chosen for corn husking match. Two huge shocks of corn had been provided. The contest waged fast and furious, and when the time to quit was called, myriads of golden ears had been strewn over the floor. To test out accuracy of vision and steadiness of nerve, the guests were invited to fling balls into a gapping pumpkin. This done satisfactorily, a law demonstration came next in an apple-biting contest, the fruit hanging by cords. One apple for the ladies and one for the men made an exciting struggle for jaw supremacy between the sexes. The facial charms moved on to the one apple by the ladies proved unequal in will and altitude and power to the capacity rockcrushers put forward by the men. Thus, the latter won

IN THE BOX COAT

New York, Nov. 3.—The wealth of artistic and smart ideas in winter frock and street fashions this season is a fact, and it is somewhat bewildering to the casual observer.

Of course the chief features are the same: this is out-of-respect-to-fashion's dictates, but there are a number of ways that one may vary these elements, and to meet the demands of one's own personality. Fashion shows of becoming as popular with women in general as any smart social event. The dainty mannequins wear the clothes as if to "The Mirror Here" and perhaps a bit more "There."

The popularity of the Box Coat.

Since the first showing of fall and winter fashions there has been much discussion as to whether the regulation tailored suit with normal waist-line, snugly fitted, would dominate; at first it seemed as if it would, but since then there has been a decided change toward the looser, belted models, unbeltoned coats, and the suggestion of washing or stranger still, no waist at all, a return in short to the box coat.

These box models are now very smart indeed; they appear in tailoring shops everywhere, and for good reason. Must of the fur coats, in fact, show the box back, even if the front of the coat is belted.

The effect of these unadorned coats is a bit more youthful than the fitted lines, which depend on width and grace of figure. The French woman appreciates the line that is most becoming to her figure, and in most instances this is the straight line.

Among the new frocks and suits there are, too, buttons and bows that are really quite charming. These also are becoming to the average figure.

One seen at a recent fashion show was of gold lace, combined with black chiffon; it was an afternoon frock, and was simple to a degree, but unusually attractive. Another of dark blue serge was made with square cut yoke, back and front to which the lower portion of the front was gathered, forming a full line across the bust, being drawn snugly in at the waist, where it was stitched to a two-inch belt of the serge. The skirt also showed a chain-stitch design worked out in silver threads at the joining of yoke and lower portion of the skirt. The same embroidery was carried out on the jacket, on collar, fronts and belt.

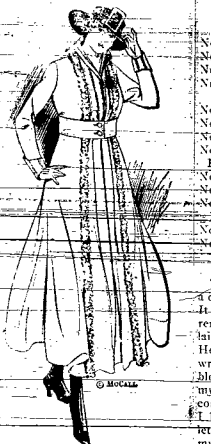

The Necessary Touch of Fur.

One in talking of fashions must speak again and again of fur—it is so absolutely necessary to gown and suit that every imaginable animal that has a furry pelt is being utilized, and the furriers are reaping wonderful harvests. Among the big model exhibited lately, developed in a wonderful brocade of duchessins, was made with one of these extremely short skirts and a long, pointed train, although rich and wonderful, the combination was a little and decidedly bizarre in effect. Much of the grace of the gown is sacrificed with these skirts.

A Variety in Sleeves.

There is wide choice in style of sleeve for both house and street costume. The later models show a pronounced use of the sleeve set into the armhole with gathers. At present the vogue is for the moderately sized sleeve, with a slight exaggeration of fullness at the elbow and over the hand. The flare is decidedly modish and there is almost no limit to the width of the flare. Slashing, trimming, contrasting godets, and panels and cuffs may add new effects and interest to the new lengths.

It is interesting to note that the new styles reach to the elbow and even above, leaving one to wonder when the cuff begins and the sleeve ends. Do these cuffs and gathered necks, perhaps a return to the big sleeves with their inside ruffles and bandings of ermine, which made life so interesting some years ago.

RESOLUTIONS.

Adopted by the Luther League and Sunday school of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Wayne, Neb.

Whereas, it has pleased God to call our Father Almighty to remove from our midst our faithful and beloved pastor, Rev. Floyd E. Blessing, who labored among us with untiring devotion, leaving behind him a noble heritage provided for him by our gracious Master; the Luther League of St. Paul's has therefore

Resolved, That in the death of our beloved pastor, the Luther League has lost a mighty leader, and founder of our League, loved by one and all; that his presence was always an inspiration to us; that his one object was to magnify Jesus Christ, that we cherish his memory and though he is gone, his presence will live forever in our lives.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the bereaved family and that we all remember them in our petitions at the throne of grace.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of the League; that a copy be tendered to the afflicted family; that copies be sent to our church papers.

Nina Thompson,
Charlotte Zigler,
Julius Hurstad,
Committee.

Whereas, The hand of Divine Providence has removed our beloved pastor, Floyd E. Blessing, from the scene of his temporal labors, and the members of St. Paul's Sunday school, who are his students, are desirous of testifying their respect for his memory and expressing their earnest and affectionate sympathy with the household deprived by this dispensation of its earthly head, therefore be it.

Resolved, That we tenderly condole with the family of our deceased minister in their hour of trial and affliction and devoutly commend them to the keeping of Him who looks with pitying eye upon the widowed and fatherless.

Resolved, That in our natural sorrow for the loss of a faithful and beloved shepherd, we find consolation in the belief that it is well with him for whom we mourn.

Resolved, That for the two years of faithful service rendered by him in our midst, in ministering to the temporal wants of the poor, and the spiritual needs of all; for the tender solicitude and earnest sympathy which have always brought him to the aid of the poor and needy; for his efforts in behalf of the education of the masses; and for his exertions to ameliorate the conditions of suffering humanity at all times and under all circumstances; we, the members of this school, and the people of this city, owe him a debt of gratitude that can never repay.

E. C. Tweed,
Julius Hurstad,
Charlotte Zigler,
Committee.

Distress in the Stomach.

There are many people who have distress in the stomach and bowels. It is due to indigestion and easily remedied by taking one of Chamberlain's Tablets after meals. Mrs. Henry Padghan, Victor, N. Y., writes: "For some time I was troubled with headache and distress in my stomach after eating, also with constipation. About six months ago I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets. They regulated the action of my bowels and the headache and other annoyances ceased in a short time." Obtainable everywhere—Adv.

How to Prevent Croup.

It may be a surprise to you to learn that in many cases croup can be prevented. Dr. H. H. Jones, M.D., Ohio, relates his experience as follows: "My little boy is subject to croup. During the past winter I kept a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and when he began having that croupy cough I would give him one or two doses of it and it would break the attack. I like it better for children than any other cough medicine because children take it willingly and it is safe and reliable." Obtainable everywhere—Adv.

Beware of Cheap Substitutes.

In these days of keen competition it is important that the public should see that they get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and not take substitutes sold for the sake of extra profit. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has stood the test and been approved for more than forty years.

ALL MEN'S OVERCOME; GAINING IN WEIGHT

This is the story of John Gadeken of Waver, Neb., and how he won health and happiness. Mr. Gadeken suffered for years from ill health. His trouble began with his stomach. His food was not properly digested, and he grew weaker under the worry of what he feared was hopelessly bad health.

One day he heard about Marr's Wonderful Remedy. He took one dose and was astonished by the results. He wrote:

"My ailments seem to be entirely overcome, as the many symptoms which were constantly worrying me after eating, pressure of gas in my health is improving fast and I am also gaining in weight fast—about five pounds already."

"It has been two weeks since I got through four treatments, and I can now eat anything I desire."

Marr's Wonderful Remedy gives you the best results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Interesting Skirt Lengths.

We have become accustomed to the short skirt suit and frock; when not carried to the extreme, it is far more satisfactory than a long skirt, especially with the vogue of the very wide skirt. We have become used also to the round length evening frock for dancing, and approve of its comfortable common sense, but the formal dinner frock with its silky, pointed train, and its extremely short front is somewhat disconcerting. ### CATERERIA SHOE STORES.

Lincoln Trade Review: The remarkable growth of catereria restaurant service on the Pacific coast is known to travelers to that section and it has become so that this service is universal there and it is the exception and not the rule to be waited on at eating places on the coast outside of the hotel dining room.

The catereria shoe store in California is the store where the customer in the middle west, it is getting a foothold but nothing as yet in the universal way in which it prevails in the coast states. From the catereria restaurant the catereria sale of service in other lines, in the next step that is being taken, and in California they have now catereria shoe stores doing business along the same line as catereria service in its original field.

The catereria shoe store in California is the store where the customer is at on themselves. The plan that has been so successful in the catering line is now being taken up in the line of selling shoes. A catereria shoe store is divided into two sections. The lobby, where the customer first enters, here he checks all parcels and prints that he may have. Then he goes through a gate way into the second or sales room and once there the customer has perfect freedom to take as much time as he wishes in looking over the stock and making his selections. All shoes are separated, sized and priced. The customer goes to the counter if he wants, fits them for himself or herself, asks himself or herself the shoes desired. There is only one clerk present in the catereria sales room and this clerk is there simply to assist the customer. After the customer has made his selection, fitted himself, he pays the cashier for his purchase, and the transaction is ended.

HIGH COST OF ROADS.

Nebraska Farmers' Expenditures on roads in 1914 amounted to an average of $41.66 a mile for all the roads in the state. It's hard to believe, isn't it? But that figure is deduced by a process known to all who studied Ray's arithmetic from statistics published by the office of public roads at Washington. The total amount of money spent for road work by counties, townships and road districts in Nebraska in 1914 was $3,477,062, and the number of miles of road in the state was 80,338. A simple division gives the above result.

Unable to believe that so much money is spent per mile of road in Nebraska, we called on the office of the state engineer to ask if the figures published by the office of public roads did not include expenditures for bridges. The state engineer, who helped to gather the statistics for last year's road report, says figures did not include bridges. Which leaves us rubbing our eyes and wondering where the money goes—$41.66 a mile for all the roads in Nebraska, worked and unworked, and only bridges excluded. It is worth for it on by far the greater part of the mileage.

In Polk county under the administration of the county highway engineer, before that official was de- capitated, it was found that roads could be graded new for $45 a mile, while dragging cost an average of only $6 a mile. Only a small proportion of the road mileage in Nebraska is dragged, and a still smaller proportion is graded any one year. Is it not pertinent, therefore, to inquire what is being done with the money that is the average cost—per mile should be so high and the results observed? We are spending $41.66 on our roads (we are still too dazed to speak without the word "if"), and have only bumps and ruts on most of the roads to show for it (there is "if" about the bumps and ruts). Isn't it about time to put the roads in charge of competent highway engineers?

DOCTOR HOVER VISITS WAYNE

Norfolk Specialist in Chronic Dis- eases Will Spend One Day at Boyd Hotel.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 10

Former Patients and Many Suffer- ing From Chronic Diseases Induced Him to Make This Visit for Con- sultation.

Doctor Hover, Norfolk's special- ist in chronic diseases, has been in- duced by former patients and those suffering from long-standing and deep-seated chronic diseases to give one day of his time to them at Wayne in order that they may take advantage of his consultation and examination without a trip to his offices in Norfolk.

Doctor Hover consented to these requests and will, therefore, be at the Boyd hotel on Wednesday, Novem- ber 10.

On this visit Doctor Hover's en- tire time will be given to examina- tion and advice for those suffering suffering from chronic diseases which have not been cured by other methods. "He does no surgery nor does he treat acute sickness. He is not in competition with our local doctors but devotes his entire time to the one speciality of chronic dis- eases.

His examination and consultation is free to those really interested in re- gaining their health. Women should be accompanied by their hus- bands in order the conditions and arrangements may be talked over frankly. Doctor Hover's modern method of treatment often cures after all former methods have failed. How- ever long your trouble may have existed or however bad it may have been said to be, you need not hesi- tate to consult this modern specialist. If your case is an incurable one he will kindly but firmly tell you the truth and not one day of your time nor one dollar of your money will be taken for treatment.

Doctor Hover successfully treat- ed a variety of chronic dis- eases of the nerves, skin, heart, stomach, kidneys, bladder and liver, including rheumatism, neuralgia, loss of nerve force, goitre, constipation, piles, fissure, fistula, and other rectal diseases without the knife, gall stones, gall bladder trouble, catarrh, epilepsy, indigestion, dyspep- sia, weak back, bloating, chronic, scrofula, and in fact all chronic dis- eases of men and women.

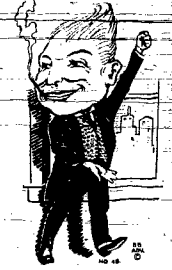

Doctor Hover will be in Wayne but one day, Wednesday, November 10, at the Boyd hotel. His con- sultation and examination will be free. His Norfolk offices are lo- cated in the Bishop block, over the Fair store. N41ad

The Indiana experiment station has made a thorough investigation of the development and composition of corn at various stages of its growth.

This immature corn will be a narrower rather than the same amount of mature corn; that is, it contains a larger proportion of flesh-forming matter, and is deficient in fat-formers.

As corn approaches maturity, the crude fat increases much more rapidly than the bulk increases. For example, when there is 95 pounds per acre at the roasting ear stage, there would be 202 pounds in the glazed stage, 215 pounds when ready to harvest, and 265 pounds at full maturity.
