GLORIANA FEATURED AT CRYSTAL THEATER

Wayne theater goes were not only amused and entertained, but were inspired to more wholesome living as well by the soulful philosophy of the Crystal last evening.

Zoe Rae, the child star of the "movie" world, has the sympathy of the Wayne theatergoers. The orphanage to become "little sister" to Blake Manning, whose mother indifferently turns the children over to the state.

In a wonderfully dramatic scene, the play is climaxed with Gloriana's confession, which constrains the leadership of the Wayne theatergoers to exclaim: "You have opened my eyes, Gloriana. I see now the wrongs that beget the poor!"

An eclipse of the moon took place Friday morning, and was seen by a number of local people. More solar and lunar eclipses are scheduled for 1917 than have taken place in one year since 1887 or will occur again before 1982. Seven are scheduled for this year.
Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Helt and daughter, Clara Virginia, arrived home Friday evening from an extended visit at Charleston and other points in West Virginia. Mrs. Helt and daughter had been in the east for six weeks, and Mr. Helt joined them there shortly before Christmas.
Mrs. and Mrs. Christian Sohren and family returned to their home at Randolph Monday morning. They came to Wayne Friday morning to attend the funeral of their son for burial at this place, and remained for a brief visit with Mrs. Sohren's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lillie.
V. A. Senter and sister, Miss Mabel Senter, went to Bancroft Saturday morning in response to word, that Miss Deatborn had been visiting, Mrs. M. A. Senter, during the night. Mrs. Senter had been in failing health for some time. Mrs. V. A. Senter went to Bancroft Saturday afternoon, Pauline and Charles Senter went to Bancroft Monday.
An article from the pen of Miss Edith Stocking, critic in the model school of the Wayne State Normal, appeared in the January number of the Primary Education, a magazine of national reputation. Miss Stocking's successful experience in primary work, and her ability to express her thoughts in a clear and contributing very acceptable to that publication and very interesting and helpful to people engaged in school work.
John G. Neidhart, poet and former Wayne man, is in demand as a public reader. He has been engaged to read before the Omaha federation of women's clubs at the Pontefielle hotel January 26, before the women's clubs of Lincoln January 29, and before the English club of the Kearney state normal January 31. Wayne friends will be pleased to know that in addition to his fame as a poet, he is gaining popularity as a reader.
Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Huse and daughter, Miriam, returned Friday from a brief trip to Omaha and Lincoln. At Omaha Mr. Huse attended the banquet given at the Pontefielle hotel for Norris A. Huse, late of Norfolk, who left Saturday for New York to take up his new work as vice president of the American Press association. At Lincoln the travelers visited Mr. Huse's sister, Mrs. W. M. Wiegeler, and family.
While there, Mr. Huse looked in on the two branches of the Nebraska legislature, and listened to some of the oratorical gyrations Thursday. It is very apparent to any one on the ground that Senator Philip H. Van Dyke of Wayne, was instrumental in the organization of the senate, and that he will be a potent force in the work of the session. Representative Grant S. Mears is also strictly on the job, and his former experience will aid him in performing effective service now. A visitor at the state house doesn't have to make inquiry or look around to find every effort to keep the building from falling down under the weight of the legislature. A mass of timber in each hall and in each of several ground-floor departments impresses lawmakers with the precaution taken to keep them from possible and fatal internment under the ruins of a collapsed capitol. The exhibit is a new building.

NELLIE BOYD DEARBORN.
Miss Nellie Boyd Dearborn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Dearborn, formerly of Wayne, died at the family home, 727 North Marshfield avenue, Chicago, December 28, aged about 28 years. Death followed a sickness of six weeks. The family moved from Wayne to Chicago about fifteen years ago. Miss Dearborn had visited here a number of times since moving away, and was known and esteemed by many friends.
Miss Dearborn's fatal illness was caused by infection from a nail scratched on her face, and passed through several stages—blood poisoning, sepsis, pneumonia, and finally complete paralysis of her left side. Her physician thought early in her illness her case was hopeless, but said in all his experience he had never seen such stamina and such a brave fight for life.
The deceased was a Wayne girl, and her friends were very fond of her. She was a very winning ways, her expressive brown eyes and golden hair. In Chicago she had been the confidential secretary for several years, and was a prominent writer to compare favorably with "Daddy Long Legs," her style being much the same as that of Jean Webster.
Miss Dearborn was a member of the Chicago Presswriters' club, and occasionally a book reviewer or member of the staff of several magazines. She had signed as "Boyd Dearborn."
But most of all she was a loving daughter and sister—Home made up her life to a unusual degree. Her character was loyal, unselfish and devoted, leaving a wonderful memory for those who loved her to carry in their hearts.
Services were conducted at the home by a former pastor, Rev. Herbert Gowen, of the church of the Holy Comforter, at 11 o'clock on New Year's day and interment was made in Memorial Park cemetery of Evanston.
DEATH OF INFANT.
The remains of Christian Sohren, the 6-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Sohren of Randolph, were brought to Wayne Friday morning for burial. The services were held at the German church north of town at 3 o'clock, the Rev. E. Gebcke officiating. Interment was made in the cemetery near the church.
The child was born June 30, 1916, and passed away Wednesday, January 3, being just four days more than six months old. The child was sick for only a short time. Mr. and Mrs. Sohren are well known here, the latter being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lillie. Four children, Elmer, Erna, Vera and Alice, remain in the family circle. Sympathy is extended to the family by scores of friends.
J. H. Meiser returned Sunday from a trip to Sioux City.

GOOD SERVICE

Wayne

From People You Know

Today's Herald introduces a feature which promises to be very interesting. It will be a series of communications from noteworthy county people acquainting elsewhere or former Wayne county people living elsewhere in the West with the conditions in this county. The first communication is from Mrs. A. B. Cherry, formerly of Winslow. Her husband, W. A. B. Cherry, practiced law in Winslow for many years and accompanied by his wife, went west in the hope of improving his health. Other communications from people in different sections of the United States will follow from week to week.

Pasadena, Calif., Jan. 3, 1917.

Editor Herald, Wayne, Neb. Dear Sir—Your letter received requesting a communication descriptive of our travels and observations since our visit to Wayne county the past summer. In answer, will say that on our return to the old home, after an absence of nearly four years, was one of the pleasant experiences of our lives. After living for nearly two years in the desert of Arizona, the sight of the green meadows, cornfields, ripening grain, and the general look of prosperity in Wayne county was to us the most beautiful of anything we had seen in our four years wandering from Mexico to Canada. We have traveled and lived in several of the western states. Motored twice from Seattle to Los Angeles, giving us ample opportunity for observation. Have seen much of the beauty and allurement of the golden west, and am convinced that Wayne county people do not fully appreciate what they possess, and for the active business man and farmer, to make money and prosper, Wayne county is the place. Nebraska is the place to make it.

Mr. Jay Winslow, October 5, arriving in Omaha in time to see the Ak-Sar-ben historical parade, saw President Wilson and wife, and left Omaha at midnight. At Salt Lake City we had four hours. It was the last day of the Utah state fair, and also the annual conference and tithing of the Mormon church. We attended the conference at the fairgrounds where 20,000 people were gathered; also an overflow meeting of 10,000 in another building. We heard U. S. Senator Simon preach; also a talk by President Smith, who among other things instructed the people of the Mormon church to vote for Wilson for president because he had kept us out of war. California gets the credit for turning the track, but perhaps the Mormon church was a factor. Summertime visit to Salt Lake City fourteen years ago has grown from a small party to one of the metropolitan cities of the west, fully deserving the name of city. Our intention upon arriving in California was to locate in Sierra Madre, but not finding conditions there as favorable, we settled in the northeast part of Pasadena near the mountains. Our street points directly at the Mt. Love observatory. To the west is the nine-mile road winding up Mt. Wilson, where a mile above it is being installed the largest telescope in America. To the east can be seen the ocean and in the distance the Catalina Islands. Pasadena, familiarly known as the "Crown City," is pre-eminently a city of homes, vine-clad, flower-enriched bungalows are everywhere. Large well kept lawns surround them and each one represents a certain type of uniqueness and comfort. Other houses are of a more practical type, and still there is more wealth in it per capita than any city of the world, yet that does not imply that there are none of moderate means. We see, however, rapidly breaking into the millionaire society, for we play with the "Boston Bull" pup of our nearest neighbor who is the son of the celebrated Richard K. Fox, multimillionaire, and editor of the Police Gazette, of New York City. Pasadena has a population of 50,000, and no saloons.

On Thanksgiving day we ate dinner with George Shaw and daughter, Belle and Nellie, forming the Wayne county people, the dinner being served by Mrs. Thos. Buch, (Belle), at their home in Los Angeles.

On Christmas we attended the first municipal Christmas tree of Pasadena (also our first). The tree was 100 feet tall, growing in the park. It was trimmed to the top with the usual Christmas decorations and electric lights, which required a great deal of work and material, for such a tree. Germond's first gave a one-hour concert, and 3,000 people led by a choir of 100 voices sang the Christmas songs. The Children's Theater society gave a delightful goblin play, full of music, frolic and dancing. Santa Claus, in a most original manner, distributed many thousands of apples, oranges and sacks of sweets to those in the park. Near by were the birds, trimmed with those things the birds love. It was both a gift to the birds, and a beautiful lesson to the children, teaching them to be kind to their feathered friends.

Nothing demonstrates the superiority of the winter climate more than the tournament of "Roses" which is held every New Year's day. For twenty-eight years this pageant has been held annually, when they strive to have each succeeding event surpass previous efforts. The predominant feature is the elaborate display of floral creations, including flowers, or anything of an advertising nature is allowed. Last year the rain poured the entire day, but the parade was carried out as usual. This year the day started threatening, which seemed a rebuke to the managers for insuring the day against rain. The day was inaugurated by the presentation of $23,000, given by Lloyds of London, at a cost of $1,000. By 10 a. m. the sun came out, and it was an ideal day. The pageant consisted of 15 floats, and other decorations were in seven divisions, and more than two miles long. The value of the floats and other decorations was about $20,000. There were decorated floats from China, Japan, Philippines, Hawaii, and many of the western cities. The number of persons who saw the parade was 150,000, autos from out of town 40,000. The football game between Pennsylvania and Oregon universities drew the most interest.

ing than the ball games a few years ago between Wayne and Winslow. Thirty thousand people witnessed the game which was won by Oregon, 14 to 9. The East vs. West was the spirit of the game.

Uncle William Miller and daughter, Miss Pearl, of Wenatchee, Wash., formerly of Wayne county, arrived here December 31 to spend the remainder of the winter with us. This is their first visit to southern California, and we are anticipating a delightful time the coming months. California is a beautiful place and lives up to its reputation. The climate of which they boast, is certainly more enjoyable than the winter climate it cannot be compared with Tucson, Ariz., where we spent the past two winters. We cannot note the large number of elderly people here, and we cannot but realize what a blessing it is that there is a place where those who have passed the active period of life can find a home where the rigors of winter are tempered.

The Herald reaches us each Monday morning and is always exceedingly keeping us, as it does, so well posted on Wayne county events.

Sincerely,
Mrs. A. B. Cherry.

CHURCH CALENDAR

St. Mary's Catholic Church.
(Rev. Wm. Keans, Pastor).
Mass Sunday at 8:30 o'clock.

A Communion Service.
At the Baptist church next Sunday morning holy communion will be observed. It is especially desired that every member of the church be present. This is a very important service. The evening service will be one of the usual programs and very interesting and helpful. Come early. Fine music.

German Lutheran Church.
(Rev. R. Moehring, Pastor).
The regular church services will open with Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Sunday morning with preaching immediately afterwards. At the close of church the first quarterly meeting will convene, and the important business to be considered demands the presence of every member of the congregation.

Methodist Church.
(Rev. A. S. Buell, Pastor).
The message next Sunday morning will be on the church as a family, or "The Home-like Church." In the evening the youth union of the State Normal Y. M. C. A. will have charge of the service. Their Glebe club and quartet will sing.

The Boy Scouts are making arrangements for an illustrated lecture on plays and games to be given by a Lincoln pastor in the church in the near future.

All of the regular services next Sunday with Sunday school, Epworth League, Epworth League, and Boy Scouts. If you are invited to make this home-like church your church home. Come Sunday.

St. Paul's English Lutheran Church.
(Rev. J. H. Peteroff, Pastor).
Sunday school at 10 a. m.
The morning service will consist of a short sermon followed by the administration of the Lord's supper at 11 o'clock. The subject of the evening service will be "Joseph Meets His Brothers."

The annual congregational meeting was held last Sunday at which reports were given by the various organizations showing the activity of the church during the past year. All the reports were encouraging and very interesting. The condition of each organization. The reports of the treasurers showed a balance on hand in every society reporting.

The election of church officers took place at this meeting and resulted in the selection of E. C. Thresh for elder and Lina Hanson for deacon. The vacancy in the office of trustee is to be filled later.

The Ladies' Aid will be entertained on Thursday, January 18, by Mrs. Martin.

Since the new organ has been installed in the auditorium, the old one has been moved to the evangelist room. This makes it possible for the young people to have the lecture room to themselves for their league meetings. Heretofore a great deal to detract from this session by the assembling of the congregation for evening service. This arrangement will be a great blessing, as it is open for new life and activity among the young people. The attendance at the Sunday evening meeting was good and showed an increased interest in these meetings in the future.

Presbyterian Church.
(Rev. S. X. Cross, Pastor).
The large congregation last Sunday evening was a unit in voting to do all possible to make the evangelistic meetings that will begin next Sunday evening a success. If the reader is interested his presence Sunday evening will be greatly appreciated.

The sermon subject next Sunday morning will be "Personal Service." There will be several meetings under the direction of Mrs. W. E. Johnson, chorister. All are invited to attend all the services of his church. The hour of morning worship is 10:30.

We want at least 200 people to Have You Good Health?

As you think back over the year 1916, are you a better man physically than you were January 1 a year ago? If not, there is something wrong with you. Either you have been breaking the common-sense laws of health or you are fostering inherent defects and weaknesses that are rushing you on to chronic sickness.

Remember that in this age of ultra efficiency, the business world has no patience with the sick man. Emphasis is placed on results and if you cannot net your employer more than the face value of your pay check, you are a bad investment for the firm. Good health, then, is a prerequisite to success.

If Not --- Why Not?

It is foolish to believe by and by your health will return to you by magic. The wise man will submit to a thorough examination. He can, then, set about, either by himself or with the aid of his doctor, to remedy the discovered weakness or ailment. At least, he knows the cause of his suffering and is no longer working in the dark.

Chiropractic, as a science, is coming into its own. If you are dissatisfied with the results of medicine in your case, try chiropractic. If you are not at your best, physically, and want to know why, let us examine your spine. Remember, we are entering upon our fourth successful year of service in this community.

DRS. LEWIS & LEWIS

hear the next Sunday evening's sermon. The subject will be "The Individuality of Ought." This will be a message for you whose heart is true and purpose pure. It will also be interesting to those who wish they were.

The Sunday school officers for the coming year were formally installed last Sunday morning. The school is strongly organized along lines of real efficiency. All who care to do so are invited to attend. The many advantages to be had in this school.

The big evening choir is finely organized. Miss E. V. Groves is chorister and Mrs. Horace Theobald is organist. The music last Sunday evening was good and well appreciated. You are promised a still better program next Sunday evening. Remember the hour is 7:30 sharp.

The Ep. C. M. meeting next Sunday evening. The Endeavorers are getting ready to observe Christmas by a special service. It has never before been observed in Wayne. The big work is that between January 28 and February 4. Give your own folks all the encouragement you can.

Again, we pass the invitation to attend the 7:30 meeting next Sunday evening, and you will be almost endeavor to give full value in these Sunday evening services. We shall appreciate your presence Sunday evening, and you will be pleased. Bring friend with you.

The State Journal's New Novels.
The Journal has made a New Year's announcement of particular interest to lovers of good stories. It has announced the titles of eight of the best novels of the year which it will publish serially, one at a time, with more to follow. The titles are: "The After House," by Mary Roberts Rinehart; "Heart of the Sunset," by Rex Beach; "A Rogue by Compulsion," by Victor Bridges; "Big Timber," by Bertrand W. Sinclair; "The Chief Legatee," by Anna Katherine Green; "Betty Virginia Christmas," by Molly Elliot Seawell; "Silver Sandals," by Clinton H. Stag; and "Alice Devaine," by Edgell Jepson.

should send in an order for the paper today, as the first novel will start soon. Those who prefer an evening paper may substitute the Lincoln News and Sunday Journal hereafter, we desire to extend at the same prices. Address State Journal, Lincoln, Neb. [Hiltad] J. H. Foster and family.

A Card of Thanks.
To our friends and neighbors who so kindly rendered assistance and expressed sympathy during our late bereavement, we desire to extend our sincere and heartfelt thanks. J. H. Foster and family.

REMMAGE SALE
During inventory I found some goods which were slightly soiled or damaged. Others again are left in such small lots that I prefer to close them out at any price. I put them all on one table and will sell them at a Remmage Sale next Saturday. Though the face cracked, I put prices on these goods which represent only a fraction of their real worth. The lot contains: Household Articles, Crockery, Enamel-ware, Dry Goods, Etc., and Prices Range from 1c to 25c

Just received the 1917 Laces and Embroideries. They are dainty goods at remarkably low prices for wintertime,

JELLO WEEK!

Why not make this Jello Week In Your Home? This is the time of the year when every member of the family feels the need of something "different," something "appealing." And especially victims of "grip" and colds need food to keep up jaded appetites. A slice of Fancy "Jello," full of nuts and fruit, served to the sick in your home at least one day will work wonders towards getting them back to a normal condition again.

Remember "Jello" is widely used in the best hospitals, and is an especially good food for children. Order several boxes in a variety of flavors with your next grocery order.

Obituary

Lewis Elmer, Sunland, aged 3 years, 2 months and 27 days, died of pneumonia at the home of his brother, William, Sunland, through the efforts of the following officers: 1917, and the funeral services were held at the Baptist church Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. M. D. Diller, officiating, pastor of the church. The sermon from Job 14: Head John 12:24, 25.

The deceased was born October 9, 1883 in the town of town where he made his home until the death of his father and mother some years ago. Since that time he has lived with his mother, Mrs. Alice Hubbert. He was enjoying a few weeks' visit at his brother's home at the time he was taken sick. The two other brothers, Hans V. and Thomas K., also live in this county. A fourth brother, Everett V., lives at Viborg, S. D. Five sisters are Mrs. Susan M. Hubbert, Mrs. Jennie Thompson and Mrs. M. Jergensen, all of this vicinity, and Mrs. Christian Hanson of Viborg, S. D. The surviving relatives have the sympathy of a host of friends at this time.

WAKEFIELD

Miss Margaret Forbes of the Herald staff is editor of this department, and will visit Wakefield every Tuesday. Any new contributions to these columns from town or country will be gladly received by her. She is also authorized to receive new or renewal subscriptions.

Hans Pherson

The funeral services for Hans Pherson, aged 87 years, 11 months and 10 days, who passed away at the home of his son, N. H. Hanson, in Wakefield early last Sunday morning, were held at the residence at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, with Rev. S. H. King of the Presbyterian church in charge. Burial was made in the local cemetery.

The deceased, who was born near Christiansdal, Sweden, on February 24, 1829, lived in this vicinity during his early life. He was united in marriage to Miss Elma Nelson while still living in Sweden, and this union was blessed with four children, of whom three have passed away. Mr. Pherson with the three other children came to America in the fall of 1884, locating on a farm south-west of town. He had lived in this vicinity most of the time, the last year having been spent with his son in town.

The daughter, Mrs. P. M. Peterson, who lives at Kingsburg, Nebraska, was unable to attend the funeral. The son, Peter H. Hanson and wife, arrived from Bertrand, Neb., Monday afternoon. The sympathy of friends is extended to the surviving relatives in the loss of their loved one.

Injured Monday

Al Driskell, living six miles south-east of town, suffered a painful accident Monday when in helping pull a log. He was caught in the hand caught in the rope in such a way that it was drawn into the pulley. The four fingers were so badly lacerated that they had to be amputated. Dr. L. A. Lansing took Mr. Driskell to the Wayne hospital where the operation was performed. Practically all the fingers are gone, but a stub of the fore finger is left. Reports from Wayne state that Mr. Driskell is resting easily. His advanced age and the fact that he had been mostly ill just prior to the accident may make his recovery slow.

Meeting Planned

Members of the Wakefield Drainage Ditch company have called a meeting for Monday, January 22, to appoint a committee to investigate and the filing of complaints and objections by beneficiaries. The contract for the construction of the ditch will probably be let after this meeting, for it is planned to begin the work just as soon as weather conditions will permit.

Lutheran Church

The annual business meeting of the church was held Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the parlors of the Ladies' Aid society are holding meetings this week. The Northwest circle was entertained by Mrs. Emil Beckstrom while the South circle will meet with Mrs. Otto Johnson tomorrow afternoon.

Skating Ring

Will Kay and Gus Johnson are working hard to get the skating rink ready for use by January 15. The pond is 4x100 feet located just south of the auditorium. The condition of the ice promises to be excellent and skaters, no doubt, will plan to spend much time at the rink.

Most all are now on the road to recovery. A social good time was had at George Fox's Saturday evening. "Keeping time" to the music was the most popular game. Mr. Ed Benson and Miss Bertha Lute were united in marriage last week. Here's wishing them great happiness and prosperity. A social affair please remember that on Friday evening, January 19, at the home of Charles McGuire a social will be given for the benefit of the Pleasant-Walko church—a bounteous supper will be served for the small sum of 35 cents a plate. A good time is assured. Come; all ye Leslies, let's join together and make this column one of the most interesting and newsy in the paper. If you know of a birth, marriage, death, party, accident, the going and coming of friends—just step to the phone and tell the writer. Your kindness will be appreciated.

DIES FROM CANCER

Hartington, Neb., Jan. 8.—George N. Jorgensen, county commissioner from the Second district, died yesterday at his home from a cancer of the jaw. The trouble started only a few months ago, and was not regarded as serious at first, but it steadily grew worse and although Mr. Jorgensen made several trips to Rochester, Minn., for surgical aid, all efforts to save his life were unavailing. He was just completing his first term as county commissioner and was expected to fall without opposition. In spite of his critical condition, he had given up hope of returning to active life and had qualified for service on the 1917 board. The late G. N. Jorgensen was a democrat, and leaves a family. A man from the great city is apt to act, when visiting a small town, as if he built the great city.

Go to Omaha

The following members of the Farmers' Union left Tuesday for Omaha to attend a convention which began at that place yesterday. Carl Davis, Albert Sals, Adolph Retwisch, John C. Davis, Nelson Johnson and Walter Hubbert.

Members of the Olympic quartet of Carroll are scheduled to furnish music for this convention. From Omaha they will go to Red Oak, Ia., for an evening concert. The quartet consists of the following: Edward Evans, John L. Davis, Richard Pinkham and William Owens. Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Owen accompanied the quartet.

Golden Wedding

Ward from Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miner of Hepler, Kas., announces that they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in an appropriate manner on December 21. Mr. Miner, who is grandfather to George Linn of this place, was an early settler in Wayne county and held the office of county clerk for several years. The Miners left this vicinity over twenty years ago, locating first in Missouri and later in Kansas. George Linn and Wayne county are the nephews of Albert Miner. Mr. and Mrs. Miner have scores of friends, who will be pleased to learn of their health and happiness.

Death of Infant

Chester, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Stephens, Jr., died of bronchitis last Friday evening at the age of six weeks. The child had always been healthy and his sudden death was a great shock to the parents.

Funeral Services

The funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. McKenzie officiating, and interment was made in the local cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephens have the sincere sympathy of many friends in the loss of their only child.

Stock Shipments

Last Thursday, William Fritchard and Ed Morris each shipped a carload of hogs to Sioux City. August Lohberg and the Farmers' Union each started a car of hogs to Omaha last Wednesday. Woods had a car of hogs on yesterday's market in Sioux City and Walter Hubbert and Albert Sals each marketed a car of hogs in Omaha the same day.

Boys to Treat

In a two-week contest in membership and attendance at the Methodist Sunday school the girls defeated the boys, thereby earning a supper supper. The boys are making arrangements for a pleasant evening for the girls some time next week. Mrs. Ivor Morris will be hostess to the young people.

Omaha Bee, Jan. 5: A most substantial raise in the rates of the special session of the grand lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of Nebraska, called to adjust the rates paid by members and to fix the rates that will apply to those subsequently joining the order. The readjustment was made in the rates of dues paid by old members, however, according to officers of the grand lodge, it was an advance in rate to go into effect immediately. The rates adopted are in line with those of the National Fraternal Congress, an organization made up of the fraternal associations of the country.

Under the readjustment certificates of insurance will be issued for $300, $1,000, $1,500 and $2,000. Rates between the ages of 18 and 45 years will be admitted, provided they make application, pass the required medical examination and are of good moral character.

Under the old plan the conditions relating to admission were the same as now, but the rates were considerably lower and were on a sliding scale so far as age was concerned. For instance, members between 18 and 24 years, inclusive, paid 75 cents $1.00 per month assessments; 25 to 29, 85 cents; 30 to 34, $1.15; 35 to 39, $1.35; 40 to 44, $1.50; 45 to 49, $1.80, and over 50, $1.50 during their lifetime, provided they continued.

No Future Rise.

The new plan, it is contended, raises the rates sufficiently so that assessments will take care of death losses in the future and will obviate a future increase unless some unexpected emergency should arise. It applies to all members now in the lodge, and to those who subsequently join. It is figured that the rate required to be paid at the age of joining will carry the member 70 years in life. No one will be accepted as a new member who is more than 45 years of age. The new rates are as follows, those in the preceding column will obtain after 35 years of age has been reached, having reference to those who were members in the past.

Future Plans

While all payments are required to be made monthly by the members of the grand lodge are incubating a plan that will be presented to the grand lodge meeting next May. This is in line with the Iowa plan that is said to have worked in a most satisfactory manner. It provides that at any time when a member feels that he is unable to pay his assessments or for some other reason does not care to pay them, he may assign one-half the face value of his certificate to the grand lodge. Then and there after the grand lodge will take care of the assessments, charging the same against that portion of the certificate so assigned and upon death the remaining balance and the one-half value of the certificate not so assigned will be paid to the beneficiaries of the deceased.

DEATH OF W. A. HUNTER.

W. A. Hunter who had been in the employ of C. B. Thompson at this place for eleven years, died in a hospital in Webster City, Ia., January 5. Before Christmas Mr. Hunter went to Webster City to visit a brother and other relatives. The following account of his death appeared in the Daily Freeman-Tribune of Webster City, January 6:

Will A. Hunter, brother of Capt. J. R. C. Hunter and uncle of D. L. and W. E. Hunter of the Freeman-Tribune, breathed his last at 9:45 o'clock at Mercy hospital last night. Mr. Hunter arrived in this city a week before Christmas to visit his brother and other relatives. He had been afflicted with chronic ailments for some time and two days after his arrival here took to his bed. Sunday the patient was removed to Mercy hospital that he might have better care and also on account of the concurrent serious illness of his brother. His death was the result of an aneurism of the arteries and prostatic and kidney troubles.

Will A. Hunter was a native of Ohio, born November 10, 1848, making him 68 years of age at his last birthday. He came to Iowa in the late fifties and made his home for a long time with his brother, the late J. D. Hunter, the latter at that time being publisher of the Hardin County Sentinel at Eldora. Later he lived with his parents and also with the family of his brother, Capt. Hunter, at Okaloosa.

From Okaloosa he emigrated with his parents to Red Oak and Malvern, Ia. During the past twenty-five or thirty years he had been in the employ of a prominent horse buyer and livery stable proprietor in Wayne, Neb., who was also a former resident of Malvern.

CHEERFUL WORDS

For Many a Wayne Household.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying and dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has benefited will prove helpful to hundreds of Wayne readers.

Mrs. Jos. Schmalstieg, Wayne, gave the following statement in August 1916: "I was troubled more or less all the time by a dull, heavy ache through my kidneys. I also had terrible headaches and dizzy spells. Doctor's kidney pills strengthened my kidneys and drove away the pains from my back. The headaches left too and my system in general was strengthened."

On July 15, 1916, Mrs. Schmalstieg said: "Whenever I have any kidney disorder I get Doan's Kidney Pills at Fisher's Pharmacy. They drive away the trouble."

THE FIELD OF BUSINESS.

Sioux City Journal: The new year opened with calmer mood observance in financial and commercial circles than prevailed during the closing weeks of the old year. The reopening of the stock market after the three holiday weeks was followed by eager buying that caused a material improvement in prices. In midweek there was another recession, due mainly to a suspension of the stock week closed with prices again on the ascendant. Wheat opened with a skyrocket upshot, descended and then rose again, closing the week at better than a 10-cent rise over the closing quotations of the previous week.

There has been the usual holiday quietude in certain lines, while in others extraordinary demand for commodities has kept production and distribution in progress at the capacity limit. Some manufacturers were worried over inability to secure material, even at the prevailing high prices.

The general impression is that the recent peace scare had a beneficial effect in letting off inflation that will not be restored and amounting to the readjustment that is bound to come in connection with the close of the war. Reductions in securities prices have had a tendency to hold down prices for finished product. Cancellations of munitions orders have contributed to the same end. It is reported that orders for $100,000 worth of manufactures were canceled in consequence of the federal reserve board's activity in preventing the hoarding of allied war supplies in this country. It is estimated that gold to the aggregate of $200,000,000 has come in during the last few weeks of the old year. The movement will continue unless arrangements are made for another large credit loan to the allies. There are suggestions that such a loan is in contemplation.

It has been a long time since mid-winter dividend and interest disbursements have been financed so nonchalantly as at this time. De-

The Budget's the Thing!

"Talk about saving and bank accounts, I can't even make both ends meet," is the cry of every other man or woman you meet. The majority of such complaints come from salaried folks, but why should the man on $150 a month have the same grief as the man earning $500 or $75? Evidently, there is something wrong somewhere. No matter what the income, it is imperative that every man who has a wife or children should not spend every penny merely on living from day to day.

What Will YOU Do About It?

There is only one sensible thing to do. You know you have so much income and it's up to you how you spend it. Determine on a fixed amount to save each month, even if it is only $5. Then budget a certain per cent of your income for food, for clothing, etc. Proceed to live within your budget. A few months will show the weak places in your financial fence. You can trim waste and extravagance. Above all you can monthly set aside a greater per cent in the savings account. Remember no account is too small to open with the

THE HABIT OF TAKING COLD.

With many people taking cold is a habit, but fortunately one that is easily broken. Take a cold sponge bath every morning when you first get out of bed—not too cold, but a temperature of about 90 degrees F. Also sleep with your window up. Do this and you will seldom take cold. When you do take a cold, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and get rid of it as quickly as possible. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.
