Public worship with sermon at 11 a. m. Following the Augustinian devotion of the Ten Commandments the morning service will be on the Fourth Commandment. "Honor Thy Father and Mother." This sermon will be of vital importance to the congregation and will be pointed in the church is not filled with young people.

Luther League prayer meeting at 7:30. The subject is "Thanksgiving." Following the Voice of Melody, every member should be present and prepared to give some reason for being thankful. Miss W. B. Patterson will have charge of the meeting.

The evening meeting at 7:30 will be a special service in honor of the Anniversary of the church. It is the annual Thank Offering Meeting. A good program, interesting and victorious, has been prepared. It is not an entertainment but a service of blessing. You will be delighted with it if you come.

The practical class will meet in the lecture room of the church Saturday afternoon at 2:30. Teachers' Training class meets in the pastor's study every Tuesday evening.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held in the Methodist church this evening. Rev. Mr. Gregor will preach the sermon. Never has our country been more in need of seasons of humiliation and prayer than now. It is a solemn duty imposed on all people to gather on this day in God's house for worship. We most sincerely urge every member of the church to attend. This is not merely a custom or a formality. It is a crying need of our individual.

The German Evangelical Lutheran Church. (Rev. R. Moehring, Pastor.) There will be Sunday school at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11 o'clock next Sunday.

MINISTER ASSAULTED. Mercer, Neb., Nov. 19.—Rev. Henry pastor of St. Johannes German church, two miles east of Pierce, was assaulted Friday by William Korth, Jr., a young farmer, while the minister was engaged in soliciting funds for the Red Cross from his parishioners. He had driven to the farm of Mr. Korth and was ordered off the place. He was in his auto parked in the yard when, it is charged, Mr. Korth sprang onto the running board and struck the pastor in the mouth, cutting his lip. Mr. Korth has been given an opportunity to apologize. It is not thought Mr. Korth attacked the minister because of the Red Cross.

ORDINATION SERVICE. Rev. Fletcher J. Jordan will be ordained by the First Baptist church of Wayne, November 27, at 7:30 p. m. Last week the pastor with Messrs. S. R. Theohald and C. E. Sprague met the permanent committee at this time. The meeting closed up at twenty minutes after the reading of the minutes in the state. The examination was passed successfully. The following were given certificates of the ordination: Rev. E. J. Jordan, Ph. D., president of Mount Pleasant college; Rev. E. H. Hart, Rev. A. H. Kistner, Rev. N. C. Parsons, and Rev. E. J. York in 1917, who is at the present time corresponding secretary and superintendent of missions for Nebraska; also the pastor and his assistants from each church in the Northwestern association. Dr. Jordan is to officiate at the ordination service. The public is very cordially invited to this program of service.

EXCERPTS FROM SERMON
Presbyterian Pastor Speaks for Genuine Christianity.

Excerpts from sermon delivered by Rev. W. M. Cross in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning:

The German nation reared a standard-bearer of good to whom the modern days. She adopted the materialistic ideals of Athens without her ideals of art and beauty. She taught the Christianity of Jesus in a less philosophical and largely from her ecclesiastical system. She systematically sowed in Germany and the most fertile soil of the world.

Her cities are today being kept by the hands of the mad monarch-became drunken with lust for power.

The Christianity of Jesus has not failed. It is the materialistic Kultur system that has miserably failed.

One in Kent Cross, Y. M. C. A., and in a thousand other forms of Christian patriots in a nation loves his country like this, it is akin to faith in God. It lifts man out of himself and makes him put the interests of our country first, the interests of humanity first.

Patriotism without work is dead. Patriotism must be practiced. Patriotism must be crushed wherever he raises his hand. Any individual is for our country or against it. Be patriots, first, last and at all times.

WANTS COMMUNITY HOUSE
Wayne Woman Urges Use of Opera House Site for Building.

Editor Wayne Herald: As I have seen nothing in your paper for some time in regard to a community house, I beg leave to offer some suggestions in regard to this, the subject was engaged in at the Y. I am just supposing that Judge J. A. Britton will sell the site on which the present opera house now stands as that is an ideal location for a public building. I do think it safe to see a fine brick or stone building erected in which the upper floor would be the city opera house, the lower floor to be arranged for writing letters or lunching—that is, if you bring your own lunch with you.

There could be a broad stone walk leading to the central door of the community house with flowers on either side of it. Then stone walks should lead to the north and south entrances, or west side to the side opera house which would not be connected in any way as far as the public is concerned, with the opera house.

It could be conducted on lines similar to the city library. This notice could be placed on the leading highways for the benefit of tourists. Rest Rooms at Community House.

It leaves an everlasting and pleasing impression on tourists passing through the town against such accommodations.

It would be a boon to our country patronage as well as to some of who are severely handicapped from the business section and wish to rest or answer letters before returning home.

Then on big days which we expect to have in our wide-awake city, whole families would meet down town for their luncheon and make a real recreation of it.

I believe in such a place in which we all take a common interest it will be of great benefit to each of us, in that we will be more neighborly and more interested in the common welfare of the community at large. A tax payer but not a voter.

Mrs. P. O. Stuchell Tells How She Cured Her Son of a Cold.

"When my son Ellis was sick with a cold last winter I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It helped him at once and quickly broke up his cold," writes Mrs. P. O. Stuchell, Homer City, Pa. This remedy has been in use for many years. Its good effects are known to all who have used many thousands of people. "It is pleasant and safe to take." Adv.

ADVERTISING VALUES.

The Coleridge Blade is making an experiment that has two pages set out on all advertising on the ground that local dealers claim advertising does not pay. It proposes a co-operative plan by which to satisfy thoughtful advertisers, in the meantime issuing a paper whose cost of production does not exceed the income on subscriptions. The last two weeks only two pages were issued. Results will be watched with interest.

We believe if any one has something to sell worth buying he can make intelligent advertising bring results. We believe a town that is not awake to the importance of advertising is unwilling to take advantage of the only means of increasing business through advertising should have no newspaper. A newspaper should not be supported just to keep it going. A newspaper man is too proud to accept business as a public charge and merely because his paper is a good thing for the town. To the advertiser, advertising is not a waste of money. It is a means of getting in front of the community if the advertising it carries cannot be made to pay. Backed by an army of readers who take his paper because they want it, and aided by thoughtful, pulling advertisements attractively arranged, we believe a man can prove profit to advertisers if the latter are alive to the need of presenting offers of genuine merit. If a publisher can't do that he would certainly be warranted in discontinuing his paper and going elsewhere. It is humiliating to the printer line to the job business. It is humiliating to publicly or privately ask support on the ground of perpetuating a home institution. It is humiliating to hear one's name refer in a deprecatory manner to the home paper because it is not up to the standard desired, being compelled to fall below expectations through lack of patronage. Service should be the aim of every publisher. He should not be content if his efforts are unappreciated, but he should not have to explain and plead for tolerance. In that event, the town does not need a newspaper. If he wishes to continue in the publishing business he ought to seek a field richer in opportunities and richer in rewards.

REFUSAL TO SIGN CARDS.

Refusal or failure to sign food pledge cards may have been due in some cases to misunderstanding. Others may have deemed it without necessary, regarding it with indifference. It is regretted that no definite opposition to the government's policy.

The false notion that the government desired an appropriate canned fruit in people's cellars has been circulated before and has often been branded as imaginary and absurd. Where or how such a yarn originated, we don't know. Whether it started as a joke or sprang from cunning German propaganda, or was the result of diseased suspicion, no one seems to know. Any way, of course, there wasn't the least shadow of ground for it. The fact that a person is leaving food to the extreme limit is no reason why he should not sign a card as evidence of his harmony with the government's plan and as proof of his willingness to cooperate with the government in influencing others to conserve their rationed supply on the ground that he is already conserving may have a harmful influence on a friend who is not

One should not assume the right to waste food just because he owns it. A millionaire should not be permitted to go into a hotel and order three times as much as he can eat merely because he can pay the price asked. No money consideration should be accepted for wasted food which serves no purpose, but which would satisfy the hunger of some one else. The food pledge plan is not to cause hunger, but to prevent hunger by avoiding waste of the world's supply. If one is already conserving, he will not change his habits by giving approval to the policy, but he will extend his influence to others who are less careful and more wasteful. The defeat of essential articles needs looking into for motives that are deeper than apparent aversion to food conservation.

Edison Chase of the Plainville Republican, famed for his appetite for chickens and his ability to catch them, takes manifestly significant interest in the request of the president of the American Poultry association to urge people to raise more poultry. We believe he can establish his claim to priority in the field as a booster for the chicken business. He says: "I see by the Wayne Herald that H. E. Richards, president of the American Poultry association, is making a plea for people to raise more chickens. I have been hawking about that line for several years."

We do not believe in expressing suspicion of a man's loyalty by resorting to mob violence. We believe in stamping out disloyalty in orderly and dignified means. The sitting committee is a good way. A committee in every community to quietly examine people under suspicion, find out how they really feel toward the government and explain the purpose and requirements of the government would be a more effective. If a man proved guilty of intentional opposition to the government and could not be persuaded to see and follow the right course, he should be reported to the state council of defense and finally, if necessary, turned over to the federal authorities. It is wrong to accuse and convict without giving an opportunity for explanation or defense and it is wrong to allow any one to continue opposition to the government's war policy. It is enough of a task to furnish men and money and provisions to meet a powerful and conscientious foe without permitting the sly knocking of internal enemies. A sifting committee is the organization needed in Wayne and in every community as a means of exact justice.

The prompt court-martial and execution of an American soldier for assaulting and murdering a French woman confers salutary discipline.

and carries out the prevailing idea of maintaining a high moral standard. The discipline contrasts sharply with the license in just and humanity granted the soldiers of the Germany army.

The public would be able to more thoroughly re-lish government regulation of the coal business if regulation extended far enough to supply yearning furnaces and stoves. Regulation so far is like reading a gospel tract or a recipe for soup in a kitchen who is starving. It has not extended far enough to supply the government will be kicked along fast enough to enable people to re-lish their coal bins before ad-justing their annual allowance. It is a corner and thus an iceberg into the immediate elements. Consumers would like to see regulation square out the year between an exhaust- some coal.

Millions of Dollars Have Been Paid In Dividends to People Owning Stock in TIRE Companies

The Company

E. H. SPRAGUE

The Factory

The Sprague Tire & Rubber Company is incorporated under the laws of the State of Nebraska for $1,500,000, of which $1,000,000 is cumulative, participating, voting 7 per cent preferred stock, and $500,000 common stock.

It is a part of the Articles of Incorporation that the preferred stock shall always remain 7 per cent cumulative, participating, and that no vote of the Directors can ever change this.

The preferred stock of the Sprague Tire & Rubber Co. is now offered to the public for the first time.

THIS FIRST ALLOTMENT IS OFFERED AT ITS PAR VALUE, $50 PER SHARE. They will accept subscriptions at the price until the first $125,000 of preferred stock is subscribed. Remember, that with every two shares of preferred stock you buy at $50 per share, the company gives you one share of common stock free.

The common stock has a par value of $50 per share.

For example—if you buy twenty shares of preferred stock the company makes you a gift of ten shares of common stock.

The company believes that this first $125,000 of preferred stock will be over-subscribed at $50 per share.

They reserve the right to return any subscription when the $125,000 is subscribed.

This stock is fully paid and non-assessable.

BE WISE, ACT AT ONCE. Here is a chance to get in on the ground floor and make money.

Mr. Sprague is the President of the Sprague Tire & Rubber Company. For thirty-two years Mr. Sprague was connected with the United States Rubber Co.

For fifteen years he was President and Manager of the Omaha Rubber Co.—a branch of the United States Rubber Co.

For twenty-one years Mr. Sprague had charge of the business for the United States Rubber Co. in Omaha and his agents sold more goods for that company than any other agency with able single exception of the Chicago branch.

Mr. Sprague knows as much about the tire and rubber business and is as well and favorably and generally known as any rubber dealer in the United States.

Mr. Sprague had 12,000 people who bought rubber goods from him and sold for him.

For twenty-one years Mr. Sprague had the rubber and tire business of Omaha bottled up and he will soon have the tire business bottled up for the Sprague Tire & Rubber Co. Selling goods is the biggest factor in business and he knows how to sell tires better than anybody.

The Sprague Tire & Rubber Co. intends to build a tire factory on the principal street in the business part of Omaha.

They expect to start this factory the first day they open for business, turning out two hundred tires per day and one hundred and fifty tubes per day.

They will also maintain at this factory the best All Day and All Night Service Station to be found anywhere.

They will have room in the Service Station to take care of sixteen automobiles at one time.

The factory, when completed, will have five stories and a basement.

It will be 66 feet wide and 264 feet in length.

It will have a floor space of from 75,000 to 100,000 square feet.

The proposed factory at the outstart will have but three stories and basement.

TIRE USERS

It is a part of the Articles of Incorporation that every stockholder in this company shall be able to buy his tires at a discount of 20 per cent from the company's list price and this cannot be changed by a vote of the directors.

Hence—Every stockholder in the Sprague Tire & Rubber Company, whether he owns one share of preferred stock or one hundred shares of preferred stock, is allowed to buy tires of this company at 20 per cent from their list price.

LIBERTY BONDS TAKEN IN SETTLEMENT

Estimated Profits

The Sprague Tire & Rubber Company can build as good a tire as is built anywhere today and sell all their tires to net the company an average profit of better than $6 per tire.

They can build as good an inner tube as is built today and all their tubes to net the company an average profit of $1.50 per tube.

They expect to begin building 200 tires per day and 150 tubes per day.

Taking three hundred working days per year will give them the first year 60,000 tires and 45,000 tubes.

60,000 tires at $6 net profit per tire gives the company $360,000 net profit.

45,000 tubes at $1.50 net profit per tube gives the company $67,500 net profit.

$360,000 plus $67,500 gives the company a net profit of $427,500.

Out of this amount they can pay 7 per cent on $1,000,000 of preferred stock which will require $70,000.

That will leave $357,500 in profits to be divided between the $1,000,000 preferred stock and the $500,000 of common stock.

This will mean 30 per cent dividends on the $1,000,000 of preferred stock and 23 per cent dividends on the $500,000 of common stock, and the common stock is a gift.

The Sprague Tire & Rubber Company believes that no man will have his money in this company to exceed twenty months before he will receive dividends equal, or nearly equal, to these estimated profits.

Ahern's Bargains in Ladies' Coats

We have $2,600 worth of Ladies' Coats to close out and will name you a bargain price on any coat you may select. There are dozens of fine silk plushes, both plain and fur trimmed, that sold at $25.00 to $50.00, and four especially fine fur trimmed Baffin Seal Plush and Velvet Coats that were $60.00 to $100.00. Cloth coats are here in all the popular colors and fine materials at $12.50 to $25.00.

No one will sell you a coat at a lower price than you can get here. In addition you will be safe in regard to getting good material, good color and good wear out of these garments because we guarantee these things and are right here at home where you are sure to get quick and satisfactory adjustments of any complaint you may have.

Ladies' Wool Dresses at $12.50

These dresses are a great bargain; I doubt if we could buy them ourselves at this price today. The material alone in many of them would cost nearly $10.00 off the piece. We are just simply overstocked because a lot of dresses we had given up ever getting came in two weeks ago after we had rebought enough for our needs, and to get the stock down we are making this low price. These are WOOL dresses, tastefully trimmed and many of them would sell ordinarily at $16.50. At $12.50 they are splendid bargains.

Good Shoes REASONABLY PRICED

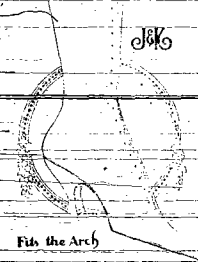

FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

We still have shoes at the same prices we asked last spring. Ladies' cloth top, patent shoes are only $4.50. Fine kid boots are $6.75 and $7.50, and colored kid boots are $8.75.

Men's good all-leather shoes in the standard styles that most men like are here at $5.00 to $6.75.

Kreider's shoes for boys and girls are the best to be had at a reasonable price and we have them in good looking styles that the mothers like.

We guarantee good wear from all our shoes and we have a big stock of sizes that enable us to fit almost every foot.

Last Case of Sample Blankets

When these are gone, your last chance to buy blankets at any such reasonable prices will be over. Both cotton and wool are away up and the government is taking every blanket the mills can make. Every thing points to almost double these prices later on. You will find it big economy to buy your blankets while you can still get these traveler's samples at these low prices.

The Cheapest Groceries You Can Possibly Buy

Are GOOD groceries - A can of good corn solidly packed is much cheaper at 18c than a can of corn which is a good part water and cobs and husks which is sold as a leader at 15c. A big can of solid pack tomatoes at 25c is away cheaper than a 20c can of tomatoes that is one-fifth water. A 25c or 30c coffee packed by a responsible firm will always go farther and make a more pleasing drink than a 25c coffee sold out of a barrel. For the same money you can get more and better fruit and vegetables out of Chase & Sanborn's packages than out of any cheap unbranded lines you can buy. Try these goods for yourself, we guarantee you will be pleased and save money.

PROCLAMATION.

The president's proclamation, fixing Thursday, November 29, as Thanksgiving day, follows:

"By the president of the United States of America.

"It has long been the honored custom of our people to turn in the fruitful autumn of the year in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for His many blessings and mercies to us as a nation. That custom we can follow now, even in the midst of the tragically of a world-shaken war and immeasurable disaster, in the midst of sorrow and grief, because even amidst the darkness that has gathered about us we can see the great blessings God has bestowed upon us, blessings that are better than mere peace of mind and prosperity of enterprise.

"We have been given the opportunity to serve mankind as we once served ourselves. The great day of our Declaration of Independence, by taking up arms against a tyranny that threatened to master and debase men everywhere, and joining with other free peoples in demanding for all the nations of the world what we then demanded and obtained for ourselves.

"In this day of the revelation of our duty, not only to defend our own rights as a nation, but to defend the rights of all men throughout the world, there has been vouchsafed us in full and inspiring measure the resolution and spirit of united action. We have united our hearts and our minds to serve mankind as we once served ourselves. The great day of our Declaration of Independence, by taking up arms against a tyranny that threatened to master and debase men everywhere, and joining with other free peoples in demanding for all the nations of the world what we then demanded and obtained for ourselves.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done in the District of Columbia this 7th day of November, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-second.

"By the president,
Woodrow Wilson.
"Robert Lansing, Secretary of State."

own. A new light shines about us. The great duties of a day awaken a new and greater national spirit in us. We shall never again be divided or wonder what stuff we are made of.

"And while we render thanks for these things, let us pray Almighty God that in all humbleness of spirit we may look always to Him for guidance, that we may be kept constant in the spirit and purpose of service; that by His grace our minds may be directed and our hands strengthened; and that in His good time liberty and security and peace and the comradeship of a common justice may be vouchsafed all the nations of the earth.

"Wherefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, the 29th day of November, next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, and invite the people throughout the land to cease upon that day from ordinary occupations and in their several homes and places of worship to render thank to God, the greatest ruler of nations.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done in the District of Columbia this 7th day of November, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-second.

"By the president,
Woodrow Wilson.
"Robert Lansing, Secretary of State."

AN IMPORTANT MEETING.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 21. The food situation, the fuel situation, price fixing of grain and other farm products, and how the government might be helped by the farmers will be considered at the annual meeting of the Nebraska Farmers' Congress. This meeting will be held at the Hotel Castle, Omaha, December 18 to 20.

Food Administrator Gurdon W. Welles and Executive Administrator John L. Kennedy have agreed to present the Nebraska situation to the farmers for their information and advice. These two subjects, alone are enough to justify the largest meeting in the history of the association.

An addition, a feature for the winter has been provided. Miss Marie Hall, United States Emergency Expert, will talk to the convention on the subject of "Human and Food Conservation." Every woman in Nebraska should hear this address. D. C. Smith of Kearney, president of the Congress, urges every farm organization and every farmer to be represented at this important meeting.

FUNERAL OF MRS. AUKER

The funeral of the late Mrs. S. E. Auker, who died last Thursday, as reported in last week's Herald, was held from the M. E. church Saturday morning at 10 o'clock when a multitude of sympathizing friends gathered to pay due respect to the memory of the deceased.

A wealth of beautiful flowers attested to the thoughtful consideration of loving neighbors and friends.

Rev. W. D. MacGregor conducted the services, preaching from the text, "Come ye children, bow down before the fourth chapter of Revelations, second verse. A choir chosen for the occasion sang appropriate songs. A great crowd followed the body to its last resting place in Greenwood cemetery.

LAUREL MAN DIES

L. C. Tolles of Laurel, a prominent pioneer of Cedar county, died Saturday at his home after suffering a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Tolles was riding in his automobile Monday when he was fatally struck. He was taken to his home but never regained consciousness.

Mrs. Tolles took a homestead near Laurel in 1872 and at the time she was the youngest wife of the townsite of Laurel.

He leaves a wife, four sons and three daughters. The sons all live on farms near Laurel. The daughters are: Mrs. E. P. Atmore of Laurel, Mrs. J. F. Mills of Sheridan, Wyo., and Miss Fay Tolles of Laurel.

DIES IN SOLITUDE

Creighton, Neb., Nov. 19.—Orin A. H. Bruce, old and respected citizen of Creighton, died at his home at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Mr. Bruce was living alone and had evidently suffered a paralytic stroke sometime Thursday evening, and his condition was not discovered until late Friday when friends found him still alive but unconscious. Marks on his face showed he had fallen against the wall. He was still dressed and there was an empty lamp on the table that led to the conclusion that he suffered a stroke Thursday evening after the light was burning. He never regained consciousness.

Mr. Bruce was in good spirits Thursday, as he was on one of the committee soliciting funds for the Y. M. C. A. and was through other members of the committee desiring to get his report that led to the discovery.

Mr. Bruce was about 65 years of age and was one of the founders of Creighton. He had traveled extensively making a trip around the world several years ago and had made a trip to Palestine. He has one brother, Miner Bruce, of Seattle, Wash., and one sister, Mrs. Burgess, of Java, Mont.

COUNTY ADMINISTRATOR

Omaha, Nov. 21. A county food administrator in Nebraska, with powers to effect his own committees, will be named by Gurdon W. Welles immediately upon his return from Washington. This administrator will be the chief executive of the county and will be as supreme in his district as Mr. Welles is in the state.

His duties will be that of seeing that the provisions of the food control act are carried out. All county administrators will be called into Omaha for a conference when they will be given information of the workings of the department.

AN ANNUAL SUPPER

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary societies of the Methodist church, held their annual supper Thursday evening in the basement of the church. The net proceeds amounted to about $105. The ladies served nearly 200 hungry people, who were seated at long tables decorated with flags and other patriotic emblems. The ladies had established their reputation as such a well-attended success of the supper.

Besides the general public, the ladies served supper to a party of thirty members of the League of Women's club, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Harrington.

SERIOUSLY INJURED

Pierce, Neb., Nov. 19.—Mrs. John Kollman was seriously injured Saturday night when the hips and abdomen when her horses became frightened and ran over her. She was taken to her home east of Pierce where a small auto passed her, caught the singletree snapping across the front of the machine. She was pulled over the dashboard, but managed to remain hold of the wheel until Mr. Husted caught the team. She was taken into the residence of A. H. Beckman east Main street, where she is under the care of a doctor.

The drivers of the auto did not stop to assist her, and they are unknown.

ENLISTED MEN HONORED

Stanton, Neb., Nov. 19.—Ninety enlisted men, five of whom have volunteered for service in the navy and four in the army, were honored guests at a banquet given yesterday evening at the Lincoln Star, by the local council of defense. Twenty-seven young men who are eligible for service in the navy were present and plates were laid for forty-four. W. C. Gentry, editor of the Lincoln Star, was the principal speaker and made a stirring patriotic address. Mr. Barrett of the naval academy, and a Norfolk, Va. cadet, spoke of the work in the navy. All five of the men who are going into the navy are graduates of the high school.

Late in the young men were guests of the Junior choir and the Christian Endeavor society at the Congregational church.

WILL NOT FIX PRICES

Omaha, Nov. 21. The government will not fix the price of cattle and sheep at the present time. That decision comes from Joseph Cotton, meat inspector, and was made public Saturday.

In order to stimulate the production of hogs a minimum price of $15.00 per hundred for hogs fattened next spring has been established, this based on a ratio of 13 to 1, with price of corn as the basis of the price.

The food administration commits itself to a policy of keeping hands off in the matter of price fixing of cattle and sheep, saying as a result that "the producer will secure a fair profit," says E. L. Burke, chairman of the Nebraska Live-Stock committee.

Fair prices, in the prospect of fair prices should stimulate cattle and sheep feeders to renewed efforts to increase production," continued Mr. Burke, who is one of the largest cattle feeders in the state.

CRIBBED BEFORE CURED

Omaha, Nov. 21.—Letters to the food administrator from a large part of the state say that corn is being cribbed before it has been thoroughly cured and that in many instances corn is spoiling and has been lost.

"These letters further suggest that husking and cribbing should be delayed where the corn is not cured until the moisture has been eliminated. Soft corn with great moisture in the cob is the statement of those who have written."

When the live-stock committee met in Omaha recently it was stated that a great amount of soft corn was in the Nebraska fields and that this corn should have immediate attention.

PHONE MEN BUY BONDS

By more than $3000, the 46th Battalion, U. S. Signal Corps which includes the Bell telephone employees who volunteered from this state, recently carried off the honors in the second round of the Liberty Loan campaign.

The battalion of Bell telephone men from this vicinity brought in an amount of $2,350 while the next highest battalion subscribed $19,250. While these former Bell telephone employees were carrying off camp honors, 2,137 of their associates at home subscribed for $127,550 in second Liberty loan bonds or $26,550 more than they took of the first Liberty loan. By making these subscriptions, through the company, telephone employees are enabled to pay for their bonds on a monthly installment basis.

Other shortages occur from time to time, but there always seems to be plenty of blotters.

WAYNE, NEBRASKA

DOLLAR CORN REQUIRED.

Lincoln, Nov. 18.—According to figures obtained by the department of farm management of the College of Agriculture, the Nebraska farmer should receive not less than $1 per bushel for this year's corn crop, in order to meet cost of production, make allowance for risk and return a reasonable profit.

The yield is not high—except in certain areas, being estimated at 25 bushels per acre. Labor, seed, feed and machinery have all advanced in price, and as a result the farmer's cost of production has doubled.

The average farmer uses approximately eight hours of man labor and 24 hours of horse labor in putting out and caring for an acre of corn. If he is allowed 30 cents per hour for man labor and 15 cents per hour for horse labor, his labor cost until husking time is approximately 30 cents per acre. To this must be added the cost of seed, machinery, taxes, interest on money invested in land, and in some instances cost of manure.

On land valued at $100 per acre these various items total $8.50, so that the total cost of producing this year's crop, on a bushel basis, is over $10 per acre. At the lowest possible price, approximately $14.50 per acre, if the average yield is 24 bushels per acre, the corn in the fields has cost Nebraska farmers more than 60 cents per bushel. On land valued at more than $100 per acre, the cost is still higher.

To the cost in the field must be added the cost of husking, including both man and horse labor, and the cost of storage, shelling and delivery to market. This gives a cost delivered to the elevator of 82 cents per bushel, allowing but 6 cents for husking. The farmer receives 10 cents per bushel for his labor. The average cost per bushel is 90 cents, according to the department of farm management. This makes no allowance for the loss because of inclement weather or from other causes. If the farmer receives a profit in addition to wages, the value deducted at the local elevator can hardly be less than 24 per bushel.

SICKNESS IN CAMPS.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Extended reports of health conditions in national guard and army camps for the week ending November 18 were made public yesterday, showing measles and pneumonia predominating among the ailments, which have laid men in the hospitals. The sick and convalescent in national guard camps was 35.9 per 1,000 and in the national army camps 25.2.

In national guard camps, pneumonia shows more cases of communicable nature. In the national army camps the same comparison revealed except at Camp Funston, Fort Riley, Kas., which had twenty-four new cases of pneumonia and nine cases of influenza during the week.

AS TO MEAT AND WHEAT

Oman, Nov. 17.—"Meatless days will be needless and wheatless days will be wheatless," says J. F. Letton, chairman of the hotel and restaurant committee of the food administration. "If these provisions are not complied with, the hotel and restaurant men will be placed under license," he says.

Tuesday is meatless day and Wednesday is wheatless day. Meatless day means not serving any beef, mutton, veal, lamb, pork, or any of their by-products, which include animal fats of all kinds. In their stead Mr. Letton urges the use of fowl of all kinds and fish, which are as nutritious, palatable and economical as the meats banned. This applies to restaurants, hotels and the like.

Wheatless day means the use of rice, Graham, corn and other breads other than wheat. Instead of pies and cakes, use rice, farina and pudding of such materials, and soups, cream and water, etc.

Mr. Letton has sent a letter to every hotel and restaurant man in the city, calling attention to the government request, and asking all to sign pledges that they will cooperate.

Those who refuse to sign will be reported to Washington for further action as the government has requested a list of all who do not comply.

If you want to see some good pictures go to the Crystal theater this week.

YELLOW PAINT SPIRIT.

Sioux City Journal: The most fundamental, though not by any means the only objection to the yellow paint spirit is that it is not wisely discriminating. It is a cousin, at least, in relationship to the lynching spirit. They both belong to the mob family. Mob spirit, without doubt, sometimes have achieved salutary results. But they are inherently weak in that they cannot positively guarantee that they are not judicial. They are not fair. They act on presumption and rumor. Facts are distasteful to them. They attack on the basis of rumor and order. Perceiving the fallibility of established instrumentalities, they would supplant that the fallibility of less reliable ones. All are wrong. Lynching is wrong. Yellow paint, useful enough when restricted to its contemplated use, is a failure as the savior of democracy.

Without going any deeper under the surface of the yellow paint incident at a Sioux City motion picture theater Saturday morning, than the thickness of the paint itself, any newspaper that retains its balance need not hesitate in advising the people to go slow. To go slow on the matter of painting and to go slow in accepting the conclusion that the paint seems to carry with it. Yellow paint poses absolutely nothing. It will be followed by a host of semi-secret, cowardly, vicious insinuations and of downright lies. This is inevitable in the people of Sioux City are one-half as sensible as the Journal thinks them to be they will not pay much attention to such things.

Getting down to brass tacks, the spreading of yellow paint nowadays has about as much real significance as the hanging of a college president in effigy. It is a sort of fond attention. Nothing more.

EXCEEDS GREATEST HOPE

Y. M. C. A. War Work Fund Drive Far Surpasses Quota in Nebraska.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 20.—Nebraska smudged all dreams in its Y. M. C. A. War work fund drive which ended at midnight last night. Reports were still coming in from all over the state at that time and the last total taken showed the total had soared far over the $100,000 mark. Nebraska's quota was $250,000.

State Reports Amaze. Out in the state the returns were amazing. An enlarged force of stenographers and other workers in the state headquarters were busy until a late hour tabulating reports from over long distance telephone and telegraph.

Definite announcement of what each district will do will not be possible until nearly noon today. It is known that district No. 4, headquarters at Nebraska City and including Cass, Richardson, Nemaha, Pawnee, Johnson and Otoe counties, went over $41,000. Its quota was $12,000. District No. 7, headquarters at Fremont and including Dodge, Butler, Calfax, Cuming and Saunders counties, also went over the $41,000 mark last night. Its quota was only $11,500.

The 1903 of $146.50 per capita. Many such reports were received from enthusiastic workers. The inter-city contest out in the state good last night. Beatrice $6,160, Fremont $6,800, Hastings, $6,000. The returns are not complete, as more money is being reported hourly. The Hastings report is not as recent as that of its contestants, Nebraska City, not in the contest, went over the $60,000 mark.

Norfolk subscribers $28,000. York over $5,000. Scottsbluff over $6,000. While some of the districts have raised almost four times the amount apportioned others have not reached their goal. Reports from these districts last night said the campaign there will not end until the quota is raised. In most cases the deficiency is due to lateness in getting started.

WAR WORK AT NAVY YARDS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 21.—Nearly 55,000 appointments were made to the forces of mechanics, helpers, and laborers at navy yards and other naval establishments during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1917. It is said that the appointments have made an increase in the proportion.

An appropriation of $7,500,000 is now being expended in the enlargement of the great ship-building yards at Washington, which when completed will furnish employment for 4,000 or more skilled mechanics, in addition to the 8,000 already at work in the plant. In this magnificent factory, one of the best equipped and most interesting in the world, are built the great ships for our navy vessels, which carry to every country the message of America's ability to protect herself and to safeguard the rights of her citizens, wherever they may be.

The new naval aircraft factory at Philadelphia, which will be completed in a month, will employ about 3,000 men. The workers who man such plants are of a superior class, and they feel a personal pride in turning out the great ships which are the test of conflict with the arms of other nations. A considerable part of the building of war vessels is done in the government yards. The United States Civil Service Commission, which is charged with the task of recruiting the ranks of the great civilian army, through its widespread organization is furnishing the men as they are needed. In certain cases particularly those connected with shipping, there is usually a shortage. Sailmakers, coopermiths, shipfitters, angle-smiths, blacksmiths, and machinists are especially needed. Women also in great demand. The representatives of the civil service commission at the postoffices in all cities are the official recruiting agents for this as well as other branches of the civil service. The commission urges competent mechanics to offer their services to the government at this time of great need.

THE FIELD OF BUSINESS.

Sioux City Journal. Preparing

reports from abroad, coupled with aggravations of the labor prospect in America, contributed to a weak in liquidation and of low quotations in the securities market, the bearish impulses affecting government bonds, of the liberty issues as radically as they affected rails and industrials. Foreign exchange suffered severely, prices showing the greatest depreciation. Canadian—the one—of the—Doll—sounded—down minimums. The frank address of Lloyd George in the war situation and past blunders was one factor, and the warning of Secretary Baker of possible peril in the Russian situation was another. On the fall of the French cabinet Russian and French exchanges was hit. The railroad labor situation in America had an unfavorable influence also.

Liberty 4 per cent bonds, which opened the week rather low at 99.80, closed at 100.00. The 5 per cent bonds opened at a top of 99.36 and went to the week close higher, but the 4 per cent fair demand for time loans advanced rates, which stood between 3 and 5 1/2 per cent. Call money hovered between 10 and 12 per cent, and occasionally a new loan of $10,000,000 to France was made, raising the total distributed among the allies to $3,870,000,000.

The grain prices simplified somewhat, with the stock market. That reached the season's maximum. Old corn was in steady demand, with supplies rather short, so that the price advanced steadily, despite fluctuations in new corn, from $2.25 to $2.40 cash.

Initiation was given by the president that a trap of American railroads was being set by the business combination which presented, if necessary, by governmental authority. The trainmen went on a general strike for wage advances of 42 per cent. A conference of the brotherhood heads with the president has been called for November 22. Packing house employees who are organized announced demands for the eight-hour day and improved wage conditions. Miners of the southwest coal district first refused to accept as part of their agreement with the operators the automatic penalty clause insisted upon by Fuel Administrator Garfield, but later adopted a milder tone and decided to seek a satisfactory substitute for the clause. As the result of an appeal made before the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor by President White, the building trades branch of that organization called off all strikes on government work, including a new day's work of shipyard workers in the vicinity of Norfolk, Va.

Government loans to the railroads as a substitute for higher freight rates was advocated in connection with the rate hearings now in progress. Railroad earnings for September were slightly less than for the corresponding month a year ago. The railroad war board proposed that transportation be de-livered to the communities not regarded as essential to the winning of the war. The American and British government took steps toward acquiring control of the entire silver output of the country, in order to hold prices down. It was announced that all baking establishments, little and big, will go under federal license and regulation. December 10, President Wilson, butter and eggs was ended by agreement. Neutral ocean tonnage estimated at 10,000,000 tons was understood to have been made available for use by the allies, and an understanding as to the provisioning of the European neutrals. Secretary McAdoo stated that government expenditures are higher than the estimates, and that not more than $100,000,000 will need to be raised by the end of the fiscal year. The association of investment bankers voted to oppose business of private securities while government financing pending. Dr. Garfield announced that consideration is being given to the daylight saving plan.

Further curtailments of fuel and supplies to unessential industries were announced. The 1917 coal production was held at 1,000,000 tons short of the augmented demand. Shutting down of some industrial plants was reported because of inability to get fuel.

WAR EFFECTS ORPHANAGE. The Christian Home Orphanage, at Council Bluffs, Ia., is feeling seriously the effects of the war. The numerous calls for funds for the prosecution of the war, has greatly affected receipts at the Home and the management finds itself confronted by a deficit of six thousand dollars for actual living supplies. An effort is being made to raise this sum at Thanksgiving. The Home cares for five hundred children annually, and at the present time has more than two hundred and fifty homeless children under its care, and nearly thirty little ones orphans who have been admitted to the orphanage as the winter season is at hand, when demands on the Home are greatest. If you feel that you can help the work at this time, it will be money invested in a good cause. Address the Christian Home Orphanage, Council Bluffs, Ia.

CHANGING TIMES.

When I was young—long—long ago I labored on a Kansas farm. I drove the dirty mules and mowed and whaled them with my strong right arm. I left my couch at early morn. before the darkness passed away and whisked the yellow ears of corn throughout the sunny autumn day. I sold some corn, for once or twice, but many times, in those past years, twelve cents a bushel was the price—oh, think of that and shed some tears! It took about a ton of corn to get a haircut and a shave, the farmer's spin was on a hog hogget to fill an ear of corn. And now the farmer drives to town, with load of corn on creaking wagon, the purchaser must pony down two boxes of bushel for that grain! To one who's sold his loads of maize, his harvest, at twelve cents a throw, these seem the golden, happy days for farmers—but they still have work. Today I talked with David Dale, who bought the farm of Hiram Horn, and he was loaded down with kale for his head gold. "The way they soak a man in town," he said, "just makes a fellow reel; our faces still are cramped down by Frank oppression's iron heel. Today I bought a pair of shoes from that old pirate, Gourey Gough; the price has gone five the blues—where does the husbandman get off?"

THANKSGIVING.

There's much on this Thanksgiving, we should be grateful for, although we now are living beneath the shade of war. Though we may wish the dagger's poison to die, when from the ship we stagger, there'll be no sense of guilt. We did not start so scatter'd the blood around in showers, no treaties did we shatter, the rough-housers it was ours. The trouble we evaded in our lounge, the neighbors cried—that dollar just had faded our courage, and our pride. Not to impose our Kultur on other nations' schools to we play our part, or the other dead, leads. Not that our boundless maiden to take in neighbors' land, do we to war go down, with pitchforks in our hands. Not that our hearts are burning with hate, for Wilhelm's horde, do we begin a turning our stockhooks into swords. When peace again is reigning, and seems as good as new, there'll be no shame in pleading for Uncle Sam to do. No words need then be spoken, in Uncle Sam's defense; he has no pledges broken, in spirit or in sense. For us we should be grateful, while smiling cooks produce the large and brimming plate of turkey, duck or goose.

FREE SPEECH.

Free speech is certainly a blessing! Without it life would be depressing. For a man we long pay, and about for it we sell. Some fathers persisted, it is the rock on which this nation was built, to all men's admiration. While I'm proud to chatter, I'm sure an old what is the matter. While I can roast our statute makers and call them muffs and boogs and fakers. I'll stand for all the laws they're passing—my safety value is harmless sassing. Free speech, sweet boon! We must not lose it, and therefore never should abuse it. Some guys who wish to see a dizziness are working free speech to a frazzle; they hand out sentiments exotic, they're saying things unpatriotic; they're rolling like so many yeomen to dish up comfort to the foe men. These skates, to whom free is a stranger, will put our free speech in a danger because of guys who've no discretion, no common sense in their possession. I may be pinched when I'm urragling a mild and harmless line of speaking. So, I maintain we should be stopping all scoundrels and fraud yawning.

BE SPORTSMAN LIKE.

When winter's knocking at the door it's well to have a goodly store of coal and furs and cheese in your cupboard, along with apples and prunes and hay and artichokes, and other things like these. But let us not behave like swine; let us give matter a little of respect. I do not want to see any one who hangs eye far ahead, whose kids may hungry go to bed, so I have roasts to carve. Let no gent bask in waiting and ease, and say, "I care not who may freeze, since I have wood and coal; while I enjoy the best of luck I do not care a phony heck who may starve." I care not who're turning short of coal and slate, and doubtless some unlucky skate will find his shirt's cold; the scalds his back, his muscles gain, because his bill and his bins have all the coal they'll hold. They say we'll soon be short of spots and people straightway fear their dirt and to bring it all in here. It may be prudent then to reach for all the tubers on the beach; but it is kind or good to be thankful, and to remember that should appeal to every man, a system high and fine; let's keep the common good in sight, let not be Duror, Chester White, or Poland China swine.

THE SCOLDING ERA.

I read the monthly magazines; they tell me I'm a traitor—four-fifths traitor, but not quite—because I live on slaw and roasted owl. Perhaps the magazines are right. Perhaps their counsel is sublime; they have a noble goal in sight. I, who abuse me all the time? The gifted speaker comes to speak in our town hall, whose lights are dim. He says I'm a Knickerbocker, and I don't quite agree with him. He says I am too base and mean to look my own self in the eyes, because I'm burning gasoline. He says I'm a traitor, and I don't care. He's a troublemaker; but why get sore, and call me names to beat the Dutch? For hungry folks I'd do much more, if I were not abused so much. We want your store of hard-earned gold, to heat the Kaiser's wicked wives, and so we rant and chide and scold, instead of wearing winning smiles. We wish you to economize, and live on prunes and salted hoss, and to encourage you we rise, and tell you you're a total loss. You hand out seven hard-earned bones to help things out on foreign shore; you roast you then, in strident tones, because you don't give seven more. This scolding spirit will have a stop if we could see good feeling live; the terminator's barbaric yamp won't make men strip their rolls and give.

WHAT'S THE TRUTH?

War stories, always on the wing, I fear me, oft are fictions, and travelers come up and spring their soul stories contractions. I can imagine where we're at, as I compose this sonnet; one man is talking through his hat, another through his bonnet. One man, who's just returned from France, who's seen the armies fighting, says, "Kaiser Wilhelm's name is Pance—he's beaten at this writing." I go outdoors to celebrate, my soul is glad and sunny; then comes along another skater, who says, "Don't get too funny, the Kaiser's fighting the British. In fact, he's growing stronger; don't fool yourself and think he's scared—he'll fight for nine years longer." One day I read the sub-magazines are knocked out by the British; I prance like springald in his teens, I feel so gay and kittish. And when I read another tale, which starts the tears flowing in the eyes of the British fail—the U-boat graft is growing. What is the truth? Where are we at? Produce the facts, toggle it if! One man is talking through his hat, another through his bonnet.

An Old Man's Stomach.

As we grow older, it is active, less and less food is required to meet the demands of our bodies. If too much is habitually taken, the stomach will rebel. When a man reaches the advanced age of 85 or 90, you will find that he is a light eater. Be as careful as you will, however, you will occasionally eat more than you should—and will feel the result. Chamberlain's Tablets to correct the disorder. These tablets do not contain pepsin, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels. Adv.

"The Honor System is a photoplay of today—of Now—not of 4,000 years ago, and of the life and time you know and live; the greatest human story ever told. "The Honor System" is a melting pot of souls. It is compared only to a mighty organ recital

What is the GREATEST THING IN THE WORLD of men today?
No. MONEY IS THE LEAST when you are dealing with the souls of men.
What, then, is the greatest?
LOVE, of course!
Now ask yourself these questions and you will have touched upon all of the possibilities of emotion within you and the cardinal points of the biggest of dramas:
Do you love the "sweetest girl in all the world?"
Do you love YOUR COUNTRY even more than her?
Do you love HONOR more than either of these?
DO YOU LOVE YOUR BROTHER MAN SO THAT YOU WOULD YIELD YOUR LIFE FOR HIM?

Get one of our roasting pans and be sure of having your chicken or goose or turkey done to a rich golden brown.

The LISK roaster is the kind we carry, and there is none better. It is self-basting, and is effected by means of the depressed center in the cover. When the roast begins to cook, the juices vaporize and rise to the top of the dish. Condensing on the cover they run toward the center and drip back upon the roast, basting it continuously.

We can supply your every kitchen want in Aluminum, Enamel and Iron ware.

She was a very attractive dictionist and won the hearts of many here, rendering the story of "Pallanza," a most popular book, now found in our public library. She also appeared for a couple of numbers before our high school and was favorably received by the students.

L. D. Haskell's class still holds the banner in the front ranks. Our C. E. society heard with pleasure the report of Miss Leamer of the great state convention of C. E. workers which was held recently at Hastings, Neb. The report was given by Clerk G. W. Denton, superintendent. Morning service at 11. Junior C. E. at 3 p. m. Miss Vida Leamer, superintendent. I. W. W. CHIEFS JAILED. Omaha, Nov. 14.—Sixty-three Industrial Workers of the World were arrested yesterday in a raid conducted by federal agents. The men were attending a convention of I. W. W.'s from Nebraska, Minnesota, the Dakotas and several other states. All were being held in jail to await the outcome of an investigation which will begin Wednesday and will require an individual examination of each man, according to United States Marshal Flynn. A strike mobbed the police station the I. W. W.'s gave addresses from every principal western city and many eastern cities. The raid was made by United States Marshal Flynn and a corps of deputies assisted by city police and detectives but no resistance was made. When Marshal Flynn appeared at the door of the convention hall and demanded admittance in the name of the government, the door was opened at once. The chairman announced that the meeting had adjourned and all prepared to follow the marshal. Not a pistol was found in the crowd and but very little money, most of the delegates being absolutely without a cent. Everything in the room was con-

The Kissel Kar

The All-Year Car

In Important Test

"To prove its leak-proof features, a novel water experiment was carried on during the recent All-Year Car Show Week conducted by Kissel Kar agents throughout the United States," says G. A. Kissel, President of the Kissel Motor Car Co.

"One of the regular All-Year Cars, selected by a committee of prominent men, was placed under a battery of sprinklers so arranged that the water hit the car in exactly the same way as if it was traveling in a regular rain storm. This test was continued 16 hours a day for 8 days at the end of which time the committee thoroughly examined the car. The result of this unique test is contained in the following extract from the affidavit signed by a member of the committee. "We found the car to be absolutely dry with no indication of leak at any part of the interior."

"The forward end of the car, against which the water had been driven with considerable force during the entire period, was found to be absolutely dry. The same was true toward the back, where the water fell much as it would have done during a severe storm. Paint and enamel on all parts touched by water were found to be uninjured. It had not been disintegrated or even injured by the water.

"To my mind, this instance is typical of the advances made by the automobile manufacturers in designing bodies for automobiles whereby motorists can travel in comfort no matter what the weather conditions are."

"There are two new typewriters, several tables and desks and barrels and boxes of literature in many languages." The literature was taken in charge by the United States marshal and Secret Service Agent Eberstein and removed to the federal building. "The literature is the same stuff that was recently barred from the mails," said Mr. Flynn. "We think the delegates intended taking it back home with them. We believe we have the king pins of the order."

- Mr. and Mrs. George Wert and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lindsay.
- Many of the scenes of agriculture rally Sunday afternoon. Services were dismissed at Grace church in order that the members might attend the rally.
- Many of the people in Brenna attended the funeral of the late Mrs. S. E. Auker last Saturday.
- Auker had many friends in Brenna who attend heartily sympathy to the bereaved family.
- Last week a deal was closed by which Henry Krieger became the owner of four hundred acres of land purchased of David Townsend of Norfolk. Last Spring Mr. Krieger purchased another quarter from Mr. Townsend. This makes him the owner of eight hundred and eighty acres, all well improved. About twenty-five years ago Mr. Krieger came to Brenna from Shelby county, Iowa, with very little by way of investments and hard work on the part of himself and family, he today owns this large tract of land in one of the most fertile parts of Wayne county.
