STEPHENS SPEAKS ON THE GREAT WAR

Third District Congressman Gives Result of Observation in Europe...

HORROR OF PRUSSIANISM

At Wayne State Normal Auditorium, He Details First-hand Information Gathered in Belgium.

Congressman Dan V. Stephens of Fremont spoke last night at the State Normal auditorium to an audience that filled the room and adjoining corridors.

"The way must fill with pride and admiration the heart of every American who crosses the ocean in these days of our strife," he said, describing his voyage.

"Every battle in the air is a romance," David Lloyd George had said in a speech in parliament, when the announcement of the day in the light of the great deeds that that marvelous dome on the aviation field to open and those brave boys to mount in their machines up to the vast field of darkness to meet unaided and alone that enemy in the clouds.

"Crossing the English channel with a vessel with a wireless apparatus asserted the speaker, of the might of the British navy. That sea was one magnificent array of battle-ships, and the travelers were invited to see that since the war began England has transported across that channel 13,000,000 men with the loss of but 2,700.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our sincere appreciation to the many friends for their sympathy and kindness during the last sickness and death of our father, David Cunningham—born May 22, 1836—died Oct. 17, 1917. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gierke, Rev. and Mrs. C. D. Earls, Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cunningham, Emil Hansen—says an Iowa man visiting here, showed the right spirit and confidence by offering $2500.00, which Mr. Gierke wished to pay down $600.00, carrying the balance at 5 per cent. On account of the farm being leased, no deed was made. But the deed showed no objection, but the obligation supported by Wayne county land.

SELZNICK PICTURES

TONIGHT, DECEMBER 20

Norman Taine in "THE LAW OF COMPENSATION"

This popular star cannot fail to please patrons of the Crystal. "The Law of Compensation" is one of the regular Selznick productions which far gives assurance of an attraction above the ordinary.

FRIDAY, DEC. 21

FRIDAY, DEC. 21

SATURDAY, DEC. 22

SATURDAY, DEC. 22

Pauline Fredericks in "HER BETTER SELF"

From "Motion Picture News." Life's drama is unfurled in all its reality by Pauline Fredericks in this photoplay. There is always great satisfaction derived from the knowledge that we have accomplished "big things," not for ourselves but for others. Such satisfaction makes us immune from the many hard knocks of life. "Her Better Self" is a picture-ized version of three momentous phases of life: The arrogance of the rich, the philanthropy of the unselfish and the devious ways of the sinful. The three phases are placed side by side and the best one wins. See how it is done. The heart interest in this drama grips interest from first to last.

Admission 10 and 15 cents.

Kathlyn Williams in "THE HIGHWAY OF HOPE"

From "Motion Picture News." In this photoplay Kathlyn Williams and House Peters depict the days of '43. The human touch that usually accompanies a picture of the gold fields and life in a mining camp is contained in this presentation with a strength that seldom finds its way into a picture of this character. There is a fascination about this sort of life that seems to hold with triple strength when transferred to the screen. Kathlyn Williams and House Peters are co-stars in "The Highway of Hope," and the photodrama has unusual merit. All the romance of the expansive west is unfolded before your eyes with a realism of the days when Death Valley was literally "dug up" in the quest for gold.

Admission 10 and 15 cents.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 24

Paramount Presents

MONDAY, DECEMBER 24

MARGUERITE CLARK IN "THE AMAZONS"

In Sir Arthur Wing Pinero's "The Amazons," Marguerite Clark wins the crowning achievement of her career in pictures. The manager of the Crystal takes pleasure in making this announcement because he feels sure every one who sees this picture will be more than satisfied and will pronounce this picture the best one featuring Miss Clark. "The Amazons" is a comedy-drama of the cleverest sort. The story tells of three sisters who have been reared like boys. The mother dressed the girls like boys, and the three scandalized the neighborhood by their "tomboyish" stunts. The youngest of the three, "Lady Tommy" is presented by Miss Clark. "Lady Tommy's" visit to London develops a series of lively and ludicrous experiences. Admission 10 and 20 cents.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 25

BLUEBIRD

ELLA HALL IN "MY LITTLE BOY BLUE"

This is a Christmas picture, from "Exhibitors Trade Review." It is a combination of two of the masterpieces of fiction, Dickens' "Christmas Carols" and Eugene Field's "Little Boy Blue," with Ella Hall, Zoe Rae and Gretchen Lederer in the leading roles. A lesson to grown-ups and a delight to the little folks is the whimsical story of what happens at Christmas time in a happy home made still more joyful by the visit of a relative who had always been an Old Scrooge. How childish prattle and dimpled baby hands opened the cold heart of the modern Scrooge and led in the sunshine will surely move you to sympathy, particularly just at this time when the spirit of giving pervades the air. Though this is a Bluebird special, the price will be kept at 10 and 15 cents.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 26

Bluebird Day

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 26

Bluebird Photoplays presents the powerful drama "THE MAN TRAP"

We feel that Bluebirds are so well known to Crystal patrons that it will not be necessary to give detailed mention of this feature. Every Wednesday is Bluebird day at the Crystal and there is positive assurance of a high class picture with a good story. You all know that the Bluebird slogan is "The play is the Thing," and that Bluebirds have fully lived up to the standard. Remember "It's a Bluebird" and that "if it's a Bluebird it's got to be good."

DENIES CHARGE.

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 15.—Two well known residents of northeastern Nebraska were before the state council of defense this week. B. Long of Wayne county, was questioned as to a charge that he had made a statement without authority by alleged unpatriotic remarks that she had resigned her position. Mr. Long entered a denial and in this was supported by two friends who accompanied him. They said that the school teacher had been discharged by a regularly constituted county officer.

Thomas Kerl, a wealthy land owner of Oakland, was before the council to answer a complaint that he had been guilty of unpatriotic utterance. This was Mr. Kerl's second appearance. On his previous visit he was defiant and asserted his right to say what he pleased so long as he did not violate any law. Mr. Kerl is a lawyer and a man of education. He owns 3,000 acres of Burlington land, and has traveled widely.

Edison Has Made "The Talking Machine" a Thing of the Past

WHEN Edison invented mechanical sound reproduction 30 years ago the world marveled at his genius. The "talking machine" was the wonder of the age. But Edison himself was not satisfied. He had not reached his goal. This was not real music, but only mechanical approximation. Others, however, eager for commercial gain, closed their eyes to its imperfections. They adapted Edison's original ideas and exploited them by cleverly turned phrases. Even today "new" talking machines are announced which are really but adaptations of Edison's 30-year-old idea.

But meanwhile Edison cherished a higher ambition, one really worthy of his genius. For the last five years he has labored tirelessly and conscientiously, 18 to 20 hours a day, in his search for a true musical standard. He has dug deep into the hidden secrets of acoustic science—research of which he alone was capable. He ignored mere mechanics—for the mechanical timbre is the glaring defect of the familiar "talking machine." He aimed at the goal for which every music lover has hoped—

MUSIC RE-CREATION

And now he has found it. He opened the doors of his laboratory and revealed a new musical instrument—the New Edison Diamond Disc. Mind you—not an adaptation of old imperfect standards—not a talking machine—but a real-musical instrument that is DISTINCTLY NEW. It has made the "talking machine," which for thirty years people have considered the limit of human possibility, A THING OF THE PAST.

Now—which will you have in your home? Which will you choose? This new musical instrument or the old-fashioned "talking machine?" Do you want the actual tones of the original artist, alive with that subtle breath of reality, or the cold, metallic tone of the "talking machine" which makes even the greatest music unmusical? Do you want that eternal bother of changing needles, which wear out valuable records, or do you want the permanent rounded diamond cone which eliminates all the fuss and prolongs the life of the record indefinitely? Do you want the fragile record which you must fondle like a costly piece of china, or the unbreakable Edison re-creation disc?

These are things which you must investigate and decide NOW. And investigate and decide in a way which will enable you to AVOID REGRETS.

Attend Edison Re-creation Concerts

Come in and hear the New Edison Diamond Disc at the special concerts we are giving now for music lovers. Even if you are not thinking of purchasing, you should attend these concerts. If the familiar mechanical approximation of tone has seemed wonderful to you, then this new gift of the wizard's genius will be a revelation.

Don't let anyone tell you that you can't hear certain artists on the New Edison Diamond Disc. You can. The Edison can be made to play other makes of records. And although the music of these records is not as true to the original tone as Edison's own re-creations, because of his superior method of sound development, they really sound better than on the instrument for which they were made.

A. T. Chapin of Winslow, was in Wayne on business Wednesday. He returned home that evening accompanied by Mrs. J. P. Hitchcock of Wayne, a sister of Mrs. Chapin who will visit a few days in Winslow.

Harry Gilderleeve, who has been a student at the state university, has been chosen as one of thirty-eight to go into training in the cantonment at Fort Riley, Kas. He is a son of J. C. Gilderleeve of Wayne.

Carl Carlson, who has a public sale on his farm near Carroll this week, expects to move to Carroll. His sale exceeded expectations by several thousand dollars. As an instance, one old cow sold for $240.

Vincent Howard who had been spending a ten day's furlough in Wayne, returned Wednesday to Camp Funston. Mr. Howard was employed as baker in the Wayne bakery before entering the training camp.

John Juhlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Juhlin of this city, has been promoted from a position with the Kansas City Stock and Wards Co. at Kansas City, to the management of yards in New York. His Wayne friends will congratulate him over his promotion and wish him well.

Miss Judge Rippon who was in hospital in Sioux City for several weeks, having undergone an operation for appendicitis, returned home Wednesday evening, accompanied by her mother who went to Sioux City in the morning. Her friends will be glad to know of her improved condition.

Rev. Lloyd Cunningham who was elsewhere this week by the death of his father, David Cunningham, says Ida Grove, Ia., where he lives is not so large as Wayne, but is ahead of his town in public improvements. One important advantage lies in the fact that the town is paved. Another thing that works satisfactorily is a municipal heating plant.

BENEFITS OF NORMAL.
(By Marion W. Grotke.)

Many of the citizens of Wayne, I fear, are not conscious of the many benefits that they derive from the State Normal located here. The benefits of having this institution in our city are doubtless very numerous, but I shall only attempt to disclose a few of them.

The educational benefit is what I would consider the most important. Many of the young people of Wayne and vicinity have obtained an excellent education compared to the one they would have received had there been no Wayne State Normal. Efficient teachers have been procured here, without the previously mentioned institution, would have been able to obtain no professional training. This has been made possible by the low expenses connected with the school. The only necessary expenses are the five dollars entrance fee, good for life, and the annual laboratory fees, which range from seventy-five cents to a dollar and a half. Living near the school, they have been able to board at home thus reducing that cost.

Another group that has derived most benefit from the Normal are the lads living on the farms of this vicinity. They, having been compelled to work on the farms in the winter months, are unable to attend the winter short-courses offered each year. Although unable to receive a complete education, in this way they are able to learn many of the fundamentals that prove a great help to them.

However, we must not forget the immense educational benefit, open to every citizen in Wayne, to be derived from the many educational lectures obtained wholly through the auspices of the Normal. Had there been no institution so, this locality here, Wayne citizens would not have been privileged to listen to the world renowned David Starr Jordan. This is only one of the many instances in which we have been favored by having the Normal in our city.

Possibly to mention the commercial value of having the State Normal located here, would be needless and almost absurd, as this is quite generally understood. This school helps to make Wayne the trading center of the entire country in the vicinity of Wayne, who have children in school here are naturally interested in the town and of course, come to Wayne to do their shopping. This is true even of people living at a considerable distance as they know when they come to Wayne they will get a chance to see their relatives and friends. It is that the Normal is located here is a large compliment to Wayne as every one knows that a town must have a good moral standing before a state normal is placed within its limits.

UNCLE WALT The Poet Philosopher

LIVING IN HOPE.

I hope to live to see the day when all the swords are put away, and all the guns are pawned; such blissful hopes and dreams are mine, as deftly as a spider spins its web, my second series found I hope to wake some smiling morn and see the soldiers plowing corn, or hoing navy beans. To see those sailors cease to slay whom we helped the other day, cutting throats. When once I see the dove of peace cawing o'er us, slick as grease, I'll lay aside my pen, and see the shadow of that horror flee. I'm ready to expire. I'm old and three tobacco heart, and aches and pains in every part, and dandruff in my hair, and I am wear of the strife, and for a long long lease of life I truly would not care. But I would hate to quit before they end their carnival of the reign of gun and sword. I want to hang around until they've tied a can to Kaiser Bill, and peace has been restored. And on that bright and fatigued day I hope to claim my reward, my eternal triumphant ode; then, if you wish, I'll soak my lyre, and throw my oak leaves in the fire, and hit the boneyard road.

EATING FISH.

The highbrow scientists explain that fish builds up the human brain, and that is what we're needing; our brains are puny beneath our hats, and in our bellies many bats for evermore are speeding. Economists are saying now that fish is better than a cow, it is the proper diet, it would help the allies' cause, and make the gory Teuton pause, in Europe's brutal riot. Come, let us fill ourselves with fish! It is the patriotic dish, and it will make us brainy. We'll grow so wise from eating trout we'll know too much to venture out when it is cold or rainy. Through all the brooks and ponds I search, for fish, suckers, roach and perch, and other finny critters, and I am getting so blamed smart my cleverness would break your heart if you could hear my witters. I feel my good old brain expand and gather force to beat the band, my intellect is sailing, my intellect that once was limo—and all this comes from eating shrimp and mackerel and grayling. And all the time by eating fish, I'm doing what the allies wish, conserving swine and cattle; and as I chew a six-foot eel, within my glowing breast I feel I help to win a battle.

LOOSENING UP.

We asked old Hunx, who comes across with war-time contributions. This lightwad is a total loss, except for education. He'll stand around and talk for hours in patriotic manner, and throw all kinds of snappy flowers at our world, and make our hair. Our banner pleases every gent, and all the poets sing it, and twaddle doesn't cost a cent, so any man can spring it. "Oh, Hunx, you mean, they're chewing the rag; shell companies soldiers need 'em." He tried to switch off to the flag, and sundry notions of freedom. He told how he would die and bleed, if he were dead, "you're cheap, indeed; your soul is pretty dirty. The nation blushes for that son with suit of neuter gender, when she needs legal tender." "I've given much," old Hunx replied, explaining why he's lying. "A worthy cause has been denied—seems I'm always giving. It really makes me shed a tear, the way I have to squander. I cough up fifteen dollars here, and fifteen dollars yonder. And he has thousands of dollars and tens of thousands hidden! And he is growing all the day of how he's nagged and ridden! Before this war has had an evil, before the final lining, a bit of my head says my friend, with undergarment skinning."

EASY PATRIOTISM.

You undergo no grievous strain when you observe a meatless day, to don't get all sweetened-up and gain, because you shooed the sick away. I hear so many people boast of little self-denying tricks; because they did without a roast, they think they're heroes. "I don't drink," and one man has a swollen head, his Sunday hat it has outgrown, because he cut out wheat bread and filled himself with hot corn pone. Great Seattle's before-the-war mayor, and one Red Bill's an also ran, we may be thankful for a bun composed of sawdust—hay and bran. Oh, let us take ourselves abroad, and tell the starving people there how we have left privation's prod, by cutting down the bill of fare. Let us address the Belgians' giant, and say, "our sympathy see—see, our sympathy know the pangs of want—we've cut out beef one meal a week. Our children cry for wheat bread, appeal to us with streaming eyes, and they must hunger, go to bed, because we've naught for them but pies. We've sounded all the depths of grief, we've known all those that men may feel, for once a week we cut out beef, and eat some fish instead of veal." Then would the Belgians realize what anguish, with the bark on means, and they would say, "These business-goves may have our share of pork and beans."

BLEAK DECEMBER.

December always makes me sad, for then the chimera's mostly dead, and if a motoring one sooner he'll freeze his whiskers and his nose.

Truck Talk

In order that I would be in a position to give the trade the best in the way of a truck and truck gears to be used in connection with their old cars, I spent a year investigating the different types of drives, and I find that the internal gear drive axle, which I can attach to any gear drive car, will make a job equal to a large percentage of the ready made trucks now on the market, free from the annoying rattle of chains, which at the very best are unsightly and short lived. The gear drive unit can be attached to your car making a truck of a suitable wheel base to accommodate a body of various lengths suitable for your particular needs.

I also have the agency for the NASH line of ready made trucks which are of the best with prices that are right.

In the line of Touring Cars I have the NASH, LIBERTY AND DORT

Clark's Garage

Uncertain is December's mood, her conduct hints that she is steved. Her changes are a thing of legend, seasonal plan two hours ahead. The sun may rise as bright as brass, and promise putting up which gasses you cry. "Oh, what a lovely day, I'll get my car and search away, and breathe some crisp refreshing air, which is abundant everywhere. And when you've gone nine miles or four, the sky clouds up, you hear a roar, and then a howling alarm warns, to freeze your sideburns and your ears. Next morning there is snow to burn, it's deep wherever you may turn. Then rupture in your bosom wells. Now for a del and string of bells," you cry, "and use old bull mare, and well go sleighing here and there." You rig up sled and bells and steed, and head away at freight stage, but then there comes a summer thaw, the blameless thing you ever saw. The snow's reduced to grainy flood, the sled is sticking in the mud. And as you make a naked dash, and you are booting it to town, a storm comes up with shriek and din, to freeze your handgrips and your chin.

Nebraska, made on November 24, A. D. 1917, in a cause then pending in said court, wherein Olive E. Johnson was plaintiff and Edwin D. Lucas, George P. Lucas, Mildred Lucas and Charles Johnson were defendants, ordering and directing the undersigned referee to sell the real estate therein described. Now therefore, I, A. R. Davis, Referee in said cause, will on the 16 day of January, A. D. 1918, at three o'clock p. m. at the east front door of the court house in the city of Wayne, in Wayne county, Nebraska, sell at public auction to the highest bidder the following described real estate situated in Wayne county, Nebraska, to-wit: The east one-half (E. 1/2) of the northeast quarter (N. E. 1/4) of section thirty-one (31) in township twenty-five (25) north, range two (2), east of the sixth P. M. Terms of sale as follows: Property to be sold for cash on day of sale, subject to an incumbrance of $3,000.00 with interest thereon at five per cent from September 1st, 1917, and due March 1st, 1921. Sale will remain open at least one hour and said sale to be subject to the approval of said court.

DECIDE YOURSELF

The Opportunity Is Here, Backed By Wayne Testimony.

Don't take out word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement. Read Wayne endorsement. Read the statements of Wayne citizens. And decide for yourself. Here is one case of it.

M. Kroger, prop. of grain & coal business, says: "I had a dull ache across my kidneys and was bothered by irregular passage of the kidney secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Keller's Pharmacy, relieved my ailment and finally cured me." (Statement given August 3, 1910.)

Again Praises Doan's

On July 15, 1916, Mr. Kroger writes: "I have had three years since I have had occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills. I never fail to give them credit for having rid me of kidney trouble."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that cured Joseph M. Baker, Governor of the Pennsylvania railroad and chairman of the committee on lake coal and ore transportation.

MORE COAL THAN IN 1916.

Chicago, Dec. 13.—More coal was forwarded from ports of the great lakes up to December 7 than during the entire season of 1916, which was the record year, according to a report made to the railroad's war board by C. L. Rice, president of the Pennsylvania railroad and chairman of the committee on lake coal and ore transportation.

Y. W. C. A. WAR WORK FUND

You Are Asked To Do Bit For Essential Branch of Service

Do you care more for your dollars than for the welfare of our country? Do you care more for your dollars than for the welfare of our country?

In May, John R. Mott, international secretary of the Y. W. C. A., messages the national Y. W. C. A. secretary, the following is here quoted: "In spite of all provisions being made to create a zone of moral safety around the camps, the moral and religious welfare of the soldiers will still depend in large measure upon the social conditions in the adjoining communities."

Next Sunday is Y. W. C. A. day in the local churches. Do your bit there, and send the following women check or note to the Y. W. C. A. Young, Mrs. J. G. W. Lewis, Mrs. Phil Kohl, Mrs. M. S. Davies, Miss Pearl Sewell, Miss Alma Blandin.

Does this little story strike home? "Very sorry I can't help in this campaign," said a young woman to me. "I have no money to give for the liberty loan and I'm helping in the Red Cross. I think I've done enough." "Isn't it wonderful," said the worker, "that over in France when the soldiers are dying the Aisne, they don't say they had done enough, but wear on the Aisne?"

LETTERS FROM MR. CRESS Excerpts From Letters Written His Mother, Mrs. Laura Cress. Excerpts from letters received by Mrs. Laura Cress of Wayne, from her son, Gerald Cress, who is with the American Red Cross in France.

Another week goes by and I'm still on the job. I'm doing wonderful work here and at the front feeding hundreds and thousands of refugees. I have been driving ambulances and have been actually busy with my work, visiting them and sending them out. Of course we are not so very large, but we are growing every day and soon we'll have hundreds of young fellows with us. We transport everything from generals to bandages for hospitals and the like. I have been in the front for a while and I am looking for something interesting. Not much to write really, my son, you wouldn't know the hard work of this winter. We are going to have a big banquet Thanksgiving.

November 18. Your letters received about a week ago and as usual I was glad to get them. There is not much to write about except the weather which is terrible. Now, this time it is not so cold, but cold and wet fog, so dense that one can hardly see across the street. The driving is terrible. The men and they certainly don't like to work in all my life. The way for nearly two months and Paris is a dismal, dirty hole, but there is plenty of food and that helps.

Every year the Germans make a drive for provisions into some country. This fall it is Italy, but it looks like they are rushing in here as fast as they can. I think this shows that Germany hasn't as much food as she would like to have and believe me she will have a hard time of it this winter. All of this you have seen by the newspapers and you probably see more than we do here. I received my ration card a few days ago and now I am a full-fledged lieutenant in the A. R. C. Nothing much more, but then I'm doing something for the cause and that is something that I am sticking until the Bosch is licked. I don't know how long it will take to a fragile and that may take some time. Old Uncle Sam hasn't even seen yet but he is going to mighty soon, he has a job to do and he is going to learn and if the politicians leave Pershing alone he will do the job and do it right."

DEATH OF MRS. JAS. MULVEY

Died at Winner, S. D., December 15

Funeral in Wayne, Tuesday

Mrs. James Mulvey, formerly Margaret Baker, daughter of Mrs. Emma Baker of Wayne, died in a hospital at Winner, S. D., Saturday, December 15, at the age of 22. Her body was brought to Wayne Sunday and the funeral took place from the Catholic church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The deceased was born and reared in Wayne. She moved with her husband to a farm near Winner three years ago. She leaves besides her husband and two children, aged two years and two weeks respectively, two brothers and sisters: Carl Baker of Cheyenne county, Joseph Baker of Presho, S. D., William Baker of the following address: Arthur Armstrong of Upton, Wyo., Mrs. Neal Thomas of Cheyenne county, Mrs. Elsie Ross of Winnebago, and Miss Helena Baker, at home.

Mrs. Mulvey has many warm friends who will deeply sympathize with the bereaving relatives.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE. "Let there be no misunderstanding. Our present and immediate task is to win the war and nothing else. We must not let our resources be dissipated by any other purpose until it is achieved."

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE. "We shall regard the war as won when the German people say to us: 'Though driving us to our knees, we are ready to accept a settlement based upon justice and the repatriation of the war-torn nations.'"

THE DRAFT IN CANADA. Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 18. The first reading sections of Canada yesterday afternoon of the bill which provides that the Dominion may continue to be represented on the fighting line on the strength of it has shown that there is a present time. The French and the German speaking parts of the country voted against the Borden government and for the return of Sir Wilfrid Laurier as premier.

Borden's Return a Certainty. The predominance of the English speaking element in the Dominion makes the return of the union government with Sir Robert Borden as its head, a certainty. The minorities for successful candidates on both sides constitute the striking feature of the election. So great are the majorities of the Borden candidates and so large are the majorities given liberal candidates in the liberal constituencies, that the former will be elected by a comfortable margin. The only effect of the soldier vote will be to increase the majority of the government from about thirty to some forty seats and will make easier for the Borden ministry to carry on its administration. Where the soldier vote is likely to work to the advantage of the Borden government is in the case of several Nova Scotia ridings where majorities for liberal members of less than 100 on the domestic returns are likely to be overturned and reserved by the vote of the men in the trenches.

old home farm. The children who are deceased are: Edward Holmes, David Ross, and Virginia May. Mrs. Cunningham's death occurred March 27, 1911.

Leaving a young wife when the life of the nation was imperiled, Mr. Cunningham enlisted, August 25, 1864, Company B, 202nd Pa. Volunteer Infantry, and saw service in Virginia. He was in the army several just one year, being honorably discharged and sent home to his family in August, 1865. He was at the time of his death, an honored comrade of the Grand Army of the Republic.

His was a long, active, and extremely useful life. Few indeed, are blessed with the universal esteem in which David Cunningham was held by all who knew him. He was an ideal husband and father. He was all that can be included in the expression, "A Good Citizen." He was respected and trusted among those with whom he had business dealings. Early in his mature life, he became a member of the Presbyterian church, in which communion he was a true, constant and faithful member through life. He was a ruling elder in the Presbyterian church for nearly half a century. And he fitted the office well. The native dignity and poise of his life made him a man admired in the office in which his church colleagues continued him for so long a time. He adorned his profession with a consistent life. The praise of all who knew him was the measure of their confidence in his integrity. He did well his part in life and made a lasting impression on this community.

The funeral was held on Wednesday, December 19, from the Presbyterian church, conducted by his pastor, Rev. S. Xenophon Cross. His monument is in the lives of those who knew him.

DEATH OF WAYNE CITIZEN

David Cunningham, Aged 79 Years, Passes Away at Wayne Home.

David Cunningham, well known and highly respected citizen, and an honored veteran of the Civil war, died at his home in Wayne early Monday morning. He had been confined to his bed for several months. His pastor, Rev. S. X. Cross, furnishes the following obituary:

David Cunningham was born in Juniata county, Pennsylvania, December 16, 1838, and was reared in his native county. On attaining manhood, he married and began farming in Juniata county, which calling to his aid, he was engaged at the time of his moving to the west in 1882. In March, 1883, he came to the farm known as the Cunningham farm, three miles southeast of Wayne. For over twenty years, he lived on this farm, becoming one of the leading stock farmers of the county. In 1904, Mr. Cunningham built the house in which he lived at the time of his death, in the north part of Wayne. For nearly fifteen years, he has been a resident and valued citizen of this city.

Mr. Cunningham was married in Lost Creek valley, Juniata county, Pa., February 14, 1862, to Mrs. Virginia Reynolds Christy. Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham were born eight children, five of whom are living: Kate, wife of W. F. Gilderleeve, living in Wayne; Lillie, wife of Charles Gilderleeve, also living in Wayne; Mrs. Ellen Gearhard lives in Burwell, Neb.; Lloyd, is pastor of the Presbyterian church at La Grove, Ia., and William occupies the

Presbyterian Church.
(Rev. S. X. Cross, Pastor.)
We extend here our Christmas wishes for a deeply joyous Christmas for all our friends.
There will be a meeting of the session of this church next Sunday morning at 10. All elders are urged to be present.
We regret to chronicle the death of a beloved elder of this church, Mr. David Cunningham, who will be sorely missed in the councils of the church.
The Christmas sermon on next Sunday morning will be on the theme: "Good Tidings of Great Joy." See the music program in this paper, Come!
Miss Grace Nettleton will lead the Y. P. S. C. E. Christmas meeting at 6:30 on Sunday evening. You are invited to spend this hour in the C. E. room.
The Sunday evening Christmas sermon will be on the subject: "The Song of the Heavenly Host." There will be an especially attractive program.
The mid-week prayer meeting for next Wednesday evening at 7:30 will be a "Resolution Meeting." Is it "Resolutions" or "Resolution" for 1918?
A greeting is sent to each boy on our Honor Roll at the Christmas time and a gift made to the Y. M. C. A., in honor of these sons of our church.
The Juniors have five meetings on Sunday afternoons at 3 o'clock. The superintendent of this work is Miss Mae Hixcox. Send your child, Presbyterian Program.
Every feature of the various services will be entirely given over to special programs of Christmas song and sermon. Every department of the church work will be in the spirit of the season, and all who can be welcome to the advantage of these programs. On Monday evening, a Christmas tree will be given to the children of the Sunday school with appropriate exercises in which each class of the Sunday school will take some part. Mrs. A. R. Davis, as chorister, will have charge of the Sunday music program. Mrs. C. E. N. Clasen and Mrs. C. A. McMaster constitute the committee in charge of the Monday evening exercises. Mrs. James M. CHRISTMAS THIS YEAR.
(By Home Demonstration Agent.)
Christmas as usual? Is that possible this year? Christmas for all of us in 1917 must be far different from any we have ever known. It must be not less happy, but less exuberant in its joyousness; it must be not less merry, but more serious and thoughtful in its expression of gaiety. It can be the most precious Christmas in our lives if we will allow the great spirit of unselfishness of the Child of Bethlehem to govern our holiday activities. Frivolity, useless expenditure of time and money have no place in our Christmas program for this year. The sacrifices being made for us are too great to justify "Christmas as usual." Let us, for once, in our homes and in our own hearts, foster the real Christmas spirit.
Christmas with less "sugar" please. Christmas sweets? Why that is impossible. They have no right to ask us such sacrifice. These are a few of the remarks that come back to the food administration in its efforts to conduct a sugar-saving campaign. Is it a sacrifice to go with little candy for some Christmas? We are offering an insult to the nobility of that word "sacrifice" when we link it with such little matters of self-interest. We can have Christmas goods without such sacrifice, and we will have if we are patriotic and conscientious about our individual responsibility in this war. In many a child mind—and in the minds of many grown children—Christmas means toys and candy; it means a time when they can eat all the candy they want, and often the whole family suffers afterwards because of bad digestions and bad dispositions. A Christmas, without the usual candy may help us to teach the children a true appreciation of the beauty and holiness of the Christmas season. Do you realize that unless we send 100,000 tons of sugar to France the next two months, they will have none? Do you know we will have been consuming three times as much per person in U. S. as the ration allowed in France and England for two years? Try the following recipes for Christmas sweets; use more fruits and nuts, and save sugar for a Christmas gift for France.

Some of the following recipes call for sugar, but relatively small amounts.

Honey Popcorn Balls.
Honey can be heated to about 245 degrees F. and not change greatly in color or flavor. If heated carefully, most of the water is expelled, leaving a soft coating that can be used for making popcorn balls. Dip the popped corn into the hot honey, and shape into balls. The balls absorb moisture on standing, and often must be reheated before used.

Parisan Sweets.
One pound gals. confectioner's sugar, one pound dates, lemon juice, one pound English walnuts. Mix fruit and nuts and put through a food chopper. Work until well blended, using the hands. Add lemon juice. Drain board with sugar. Roll nuts one-third inch thick, and cut in three-quarter inch squares.
Nougat.
Three-eighths cup honey, one pound almonds, one-half cup brown sugar, two egg whites. Boil honey and sugar until drops of the mixture hold their shape when poured into cold water. Add to beaten egg whites. Stir constantly until mixture becomes brittle when tested in water. Add nuts, and cool under a weight.
Honey Hermits.
One cup honey, one cup raisins, currants, nuts, one-half cup butter, cloves, cinnamon, nutmeg, three eggs, flour to make a soft dough, one-half cup milk. Roll out and bake same as cookies.

How to Prevent Croup.
In a child that is subject to attacks of croup, the first indication of the disease is hoarseness. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse. Rub the chest with warm oil, and all danger and anxiety avoided.

TO MOTHERS

The Red Cross Needs Your Help

To Save Women and Babies in Europe and Cares for Our Soldiers.

Dear Mothers: Surely you will do what you can to relieve the sufferings of the homeless, wretched mothers and children of war-torn Europe—ragged, starving, and bereft women who are the mothers of our boys in uniform. Think of yourself and your little ones here in America, safe and comfortable.

In the trenches "over there" are millions of men undergoing indescribable hardships and suffering and death to save the liberty-loving world from the Kaiser and his savage hordes. Think of them. Remember they are standing in the face of the fiercest and fiercest " Kultur " and Germany poured upon the women and children of northern France, northern Italy, Belgium, Poland and Roumania.

Of course you cannot go to Europe and nurse and feed and clothe and shelter those sufferers. But the American Red Cross is over there doing it. The mother labor in the world's history. She has been feeding, clothing and sheltering them. And it is conducting thousands of hospitals and ambulance lines and comfort stations for American soldiers and the soldiers of our allies.

Yet the Red Cross cannot do enough because it hasn't half enough money. Therefore a campaign is being made to get fifteen million members by Christmas eve. It is urgent to be long to the organization.

You will join, won't you? You will see that your husband enrolls, and that each of the children is enrolled—surely in annual membership costs $10. An additional dollar brings the Red Cross Magazine for a year.

WAR SAVINGS CERTIFICATE STAMPS

What They Are and How to Buy Them

At the last session Congress authorized an issuance of two billion dollars in government securities in amounts of 25-cent stamps.

The 25-cent securities are known as "Thrift Stamps." The 5-dollar size are called "War Savings Stamps."

The Secretary of the Treasury was directed on January 1, 1918, to dispose of these securities.

The congressional act authorizing the War Savings Stamp provides that no person can own more than one thousand dollars worth of these securities. The obvious reason for this is in the fact that the stamps taken up by the public, which would otherwise have been done on account of the high rate of interest paid.

The small amounts in which the war savings securities can be obtained were made to allow every man, woman and child in the country to participate in financing the government's policy for the prosecution of the war.

The monthly war savings stamps which are fastened to a certificate are practically worthless. The stamps are issued at 25-cent intervals, which is equivalent to about 1 1/2%.

The 25-cent stamps will not bear the interest, but when one saves-stamp of these and accumulates a total of 5-dollar war savings stamp, the investment begins to draw interest. The 5-dollar stamps carry the highest rate of interest the government has ever paid on money it has borrowed.

The thrift stamps, as well as the war savings stamps, will be on sale at post offices, banks, stores and numerous other authorized agencies.

During December 1917 and January 1918, sixteen 25-cent thrift stamps can be turned in at any authorized agency and will be sent, at a total of $4.00, and a 5-dollar war savings stamp can be obtained. This stamp, while worth only $4.12 when bought, will at the end of five years be worth $5.00 and if that time can be pushed at any post office for that amount.

During December this year and January of next year 5-dollar war savings stamps will cost $4.12 each; in February, $4.13; in March, $4.14; in April, $4.15; and so they will cost more each month until the end of December 1918, when they will sell for $4.23 each.

A card is given with the first 25-cent thrift stamp, on which sixteen of the stamps can be pasted. When one purchases a 5-dollar war savings stamp and pastes it on a card with sixteen thrift stamps on it and two dollars extra, he gets a 5-dollar war savings stamp and a war savings certificate that has room for twenty of the war savings stamps. The name and address of the purchaser is written on the certificate when bought. If it is lost the finder has to do is to drop it in the mail-box in accordance with the instructions on the card and it will be returned to the owner.

One can buy one hundred dollars' worth of war savings stamps for $82.40 during December of this year and January of next year, and a little more each month throughout the year. When that amount of stamps is bought, one will get a certificate containing twenty stamps which in five years hence, or on January 1, 1923, will be worth $100.00. Anyone can buy thrift stamps or war savings stamps in any amount up to $100.

If one buys war savings stamps and does not want to keep them for five or ten years, they can be cashed any time at the post office.

The war savings stamps are not subject to tax except when they are used on taxes or on incomes over $5,000 per year.

The Secretary of the Treasury has allotted to Nebraska the sale of twenty-six million dollars' worth of war savings stamps, which means about $20 per person in the state. The organization to sell these stamps is headquartered in Omaha under the direction of Mr. Ward Burgess, who has the title of State Director. Assisting him is an executive committee composed of the following: E. E. Duffie, Guy C. Kidwood, B. F. Colda, and Joseph Barker. Frank Bullis is State Publicity Manager and H. C. Palmer is State Treasurer. There will also be a chairman in every town and a committee in each town in the state.

HIGH SCHOOL BOX SOCIAL

Wayne School Realizes Net—Orchestra Makes Debut.

Thursday evening the students of the high school enjoyed a box social. On this occasion the W. H. S. orchestra made its first appearance since its reorganization, rendering some inspiring selections under the direction of Miss Amy Stocking, music supervisor.

The students comprising this orchestra are Miss Madeline Bohner, piano; Miss Eloise Miner, Plectro; Miss Margaret Mines, clarinet; Wayne Corzine, slide trombone; Winifred Main and Lowell Henney, cornets; Misses Mary House, Marion Surber and John Hufford, violins. The orchestra is an organization of which the high school and the town will be proud, and was greeted with hearty applause.

The audience joined in singing "America" after which Misses Faucell Senter and Katherine Strickland gave a piano duet. Then V. A. Senter auctioned off the boxes while Russell Prescott acted as clerk. When the sale had been concluded the company repaired to the gymnasium to enjoy the contents of the boxes, and the playing of games. The sum realized, $54.53, will go into the general fund for high school activities. The executive committee is to be congratulated on the success of the social.

ISSUES DRASTIC ORDER

Omaha, Dec. 19.—The Williams, Murphy company of Omaha, brokers supplying the Farmers' Union State Exchange with sugar, has been ordered to cease their supply until further notice to this organization by Federal Food Administrator Wartles.

The order came as a result of a violation of the regulations governing the sale of sugar. The Farmers' Union State Exchange, which is the mercantile agency of the Farmers' Educational and Cooperative State Union of Nebraska, has sold sugar in lots varying from twenty-five pounds to three hundred pounds to its members, according to the books of the company. The regulation is that under no circumstance can more than a sixty-day supply be purchased by any individual.

President Gustafson, stated publicly that his organization would continue to sell in 100-pound lots to its members until definitely advised from Washington. The investigation and order to the brokers followed.

The distributing committee of the United States food administration and J. P. Fallon, chairman of this district, were advised of the action and requested to govern themselves accordingly.

"I did not make these laws nor did I make the rules and regulations governing the enforcement. I am charged with the administration of the law and I am going to discharge it with fairness to all and favor to no individual," he said.

"I do not make these laws nor did I make the rules and regulations governing the enforcement. I am charged with the administration of the law and I am going to discharge it with fairness to all and favor to no individual," he said.

FIRST WIN THE WAR.
By Dr. F. T. Hodges.
In the last article the assertion was ventured that this is a war to end war. It seems clear that the result must be either a league of nations to enforce arbitration or a vast increase of militarism the world over.

Certainly if Germany wins, every nation that hopes to retain its integrity must build more battleships, gigantic munition factories, lines of fortifications bristling with guns. Not only the European nations and Japan, but China, Brazil, Argentina, Chile, Peru, Australia and the ends of the earth must arm, arm, arm.

Again, an inclusive peace, a peace that left Germany in possession of the means and the will to war and the allies in dread of aggression would mean another war as soon as hatred or fear had the power to fight. We must not have a German peace, nor any peace that leaves this bandit government with the power to disturb and destroy.

But let us not believe the task simply one of defeating Germany. The spirit of militarism is confined to one people. There is scarcely a nation that within the past quarter of a century has not been stirred with the dream of empire. In 1914 Russia demanded a share of war booty, Constantinople, Italy spoke vauntingly of her "national aspirations," France expected a hold upon new territory; even Belgium and Portugal were ruling subject colonies and ruling them rather badly, if report be true.

Had the allies won a smashing victory in the first year of the war, who should say that we should not have had allied militarism instead of Teutonic? It is true that we believe that English and French imperialism is on the whole humane, but can we see the career of Russia, with its oppression of Poland and Finland?

However, the war has chastened the allies and our country has joined them in this struggle on the distinct understanding that imperialistic designs must go. Further, we are in a position to enforce our will upon the allies. Our country has become the center of the world in outlining the purposes of the alliance and our chief purpose is peace and a square deal, permanent peace and as little military equipment all around as possible, in other words a league of nations.

Then this is our program:
1. Win the war.
2. Destroy German militarism.
3. Let no new militarism arise to replace the old.
4. A league of nations.

SHOULD NOT BE IN A HURRY

Unmarried Farmers in Draft Should be Slow to Sell Stock.

Unmarried farmers of draft age are advised by the district exemption board officials not to be in too much of a hurry to sell off their stock and farm implements upon receipt of a notice from their local boards that they have been placed in the first class.

"Failure to understand operation of the draft system has led many farmers to the hasty disposal of their effects prematurely," said R. J. Sutton of the office of the district exemption board. "If a single man, a farmer, has made no exemption claim except on agricultural grounds he is automatically placed in Class I by the local exemption boards in spite of his exemption claim. They send him a notice that he is in Class I and he immediately infers that he is to be drafted and begins disposing of his property. But the fact is he may not be drafted at all but may be ordered to remain on this farm by the draft authorities."

"When the local board places him in Class I his case automatically goes up to the district exemption board at Omaha without any move on his part. The district exemption board investigates the claim for exemption on agricultural grounds and gives the final order whether he shall be drafted or remain on his farm."

"A number of young farmers in the best draft class—up their farms and ready to be exempted by the district board on agricultural grounds."

PRUSSIAN CRUELTY

Edgar Howard in Columbus Telegram: Yesterday I talked with a man of German birth who has a son in the United States navy. He said just been reading the newspaper account of the submarining of an American warship, with the loss of sixty American lives. I watched the man's face when he was reading the names of the men who went down with that ship. It was a determined face. Evidently the man had prepared himself to believe that in this list of names would be the name of his only son, because some time ago there was a rumor that the boy had been transferred to the ill-fated ship. After careful scrutiny of the death list and not finding his boy among the lost, the father remained silent for several minutes, and then he said: "I am happy and relieved that my boy is safe. I learn that our boy was not on the ship which went down. But I am trying to put myself in the place of the fathers of those other American boys who were murdered—murderous torpedoes struck the ship. I guess all kinds of devilry are fair in war, and perhaps I must not be censured if I feel that every Prussian leader and all of his royal house should suffer a death of equal cruelty." The strong man trembled while he spoke, and I thought that if the heinous brutality of the Prussian leaders shall have engendered in the hearts of American soldiers beyond the seas such hatred as this man displayed toward the murderous enemy, all Prussia, all Turkey, all Bulgaria may never entertain a hope that in the end their cruelties practiced in this war shall not be splendidly avenged.

Henry Ley, President R. W. Ley, Cashier
C. A. Chace, Vice Pres. H. Lundberg, Asst. Cash.

From your brow, Returns of income for 1917 must be made between January 1, and March 1, 1918.

"The government recognizes," Collector of Internal Revenue Geo. L. Cook said today, "that many persons experience a good deal of difficulty in filling out income tax forms. It recognizes, too, that tax payers residing in portions where collectors' offices are not easily accessible find it hard to get proper instruction in the law. Next year, when every married person living with wife or husband and having an income of $2,000, and every unmarried person not the head of a family and having a net income of $1,000 for the year 1917 must make return of income on the form prescribed, there will be hundreds in every community seeking light on the law, and help in executing their returns. My own and every other collection district in the nation will be divided into districts, with the county as the unit, and a government officer informed in the income tax assignment to each district. He will spend hardly less than a week in each county, and in some counties 7 longer time, very likely in the court house at the county seat. In localities where there are collector's branch offices, he will be there, and in other cities possibly at the city hall. My office will in due time advise postmasters and bankers and send out notices to the newspapers stating when the officer will be in each county. It will be unnecessary for prospective taxpayers to ask the office for forms on which to take returns. The officer who visits their county will have them.

"It may be stated as a matter of general information that the 'come' is the remainder after subtracting expenses from gross income. Personal, family, or living expense is not expense in the meaning of the law, the exemption being allowed to cover such expenses. The new exemption of $1,000 and $2,000 will add tens of thousands to the number of income taxpayers in this district, inasmuch as practically every farmer, merchant, tradesman, professional man and salary worker and a great many wage workers will be required to make return and pay tax.

The law makes it the duty of the taxpayer to seek out the collector. Many people assume that if an income tax form is not sent, or a government officer does not call, they are relieved from making reports. This is decidedly in error. It is the other way around. The taxpayer has to go to the government and if he doesn't within the time prescribed, he is a violator of the law, and the government will go to him with its penalties."

HISTORY REPEATS.
(Bixby.)
It was so in the war 'twixt the north and the south,
As is in the case of the world,
Then the man who was ready to fight with his mouth
Had the flag of the nation unfurled;
And he waved it aloft and he smote with his fist
On the table or desk—but he didn't enlist.

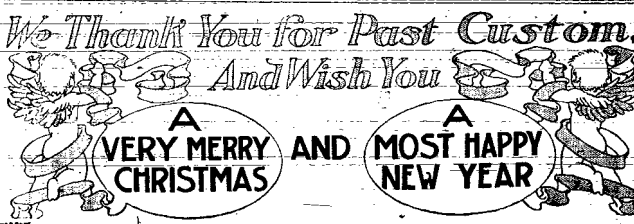

Not a man in the state had such love for the flag,
For he said quite as much when he spoke;
And he seemed to believe that by chewing the rag
He created a good deal of smoke.
That the union must live he was free to insist
In imperative terms—but he didn't enlist.

He is with us today, he is right in
With the aim and the vigor of old,
And he frets the still air and his voice is the same
As it was in the days that are told.
And he must be the ghost of the patriot missed
Since the year '65, for he doesn't enlist.

There will come a glad day for the world once again
When the nations grow sick of the sword,
And the highly professional patriot then will with confidence claim his reward
On the largest of offices, this man will insist,
For he shot off his mouth—but he didn't enlist.

THREE BIG CLASSES.
Omaha, Dec. 19.—The fair prices as fixed by the Douglas county committee and published by authority of the federal food administrator have occasioned some criticism, especially, from those not familiar with the facts in connection with the cost of foodstuffs and the cost of doing business.

"Three general classes must be taken into consideration when fair prices are suggested," says Gordon W. Wattle, federal food administrator for Nebraska. "These are the producers, the distributors and the consumers. We must see that both producer and distributor get a living profit on handling these commodities. And it must be taken into consideration that the distributor has a fixed cost of doing business. This cost varies, which means that the margins of Married, Wednesday, December 21, at the home of the bride's parents near Carroll, Geo. L. Tharp and Miss Minnie E. Cox, Rev. T. Stone of Hartington officiating.

State Superintendent Jackson has completed the December semi-annual school report.

The number of pupils of school age in Wayne county is 3,282 and the apportionment $2,796,98. Dixon county has 3,741 pupils and the apportionment is $3,074.16.

The State Teachers' association will meet in Lincoln on December 26, 27, 28, 29. All the leading educators of the state are expected to be present.

Prof. U. S. Conn is on the program for an address Thursday forenoon. A number of other Wayne county teachers will attend.

The local improvements during the year 1898 amounted to $31,385, therefore Wayne is entitled to take first place among the cities of the same class in the state.

Aside from the Normal college, waterworks, and telephone system, an electric light plant, the property of the city is now in operation.

The new $10,000 Presbyterian church is among the permanent improvements. The new firms that have begun business in Wayne during the year 1898 are C. E. Beebe, crockery, glassware and notions; The Regulator, dry goods and furnishings; The Bazaar, general merchandise; Beeson Bros., lunch rooms; H. G. Webbles, Little Delmonico restaurant.

Henry W. Lessman, one of the leading farmers of Logan township, sold a car load (sixty head) of hogs of his own raising to J. O. Milligan yesterday at $3 per hundred.

The average of a little over 300 pounds apiece for the fall pigs, the old sows around 450 pounds. It took a big string of teams to bring the porkers to market with four hogs to a load.

Mr. Lessman lately completed a 8000 barn on his place. The young men of the neighborhood took advantage of the opportunity to hold a dance there last week Tuesday night, six or eight sets being able to dance on the big smooth floor at the same time.

From Ponca Journal, December 26, 1878.

On Saturday morning the weather made serious threats of another blizzard. But towards noon, Boreas tooted his trumpet less vigorously, and the sun popped out a warm and smiling face.

The volcano still continues to increase its heat, but a regular old fashioned eruption will probably not take place before next summer.

Tourists therefore need not come to see it before warm weather.

The school trustees of this district had a special meeting on Saturday evening for the purpose of opening the sealed bids to furnish wood for the school house. The contract was let to E. Heydon, who is to furnish twenty cords of box elder-wood, at $160 per cord; The miller and director were instructed to hire a janitor to take charge of the school house.

In Custer county, in the western part of this state, has lately taken place one of the most cruel and barbarous murders of modern times.

Two men named Mitchell and Ketchum were accused, (though the guilt was by no means certain,) of stealing cattle. About two weeks ago, some herders went to the house of Mitchell to arrest him and Ketchum, when a fight ensued and one of the herders was killed. Afterwards, Mitchell and Ketchum were arrested by the sheriff, but they were taken from his custody by a mob and burned to death.

The torturing of these men is described as a more horrible transaction than has ever before taken place in this country.

During the trial the Indiana Governor Garber has by proclamation offered a reward of $200 for the capture and conviction of the murderers, and states that he will recommend the coming legislature to increase the reward to $10,000.

HELP TO FIGURE OUT TAX
Government to Furnish Men to Advise on New Income Tax Law.
You won't have to figure out your income tax all by yourself hereafter. The government is going to send out men to help you. It will be up to you to hunt up these men who will be sent into every county seat town, and some other towns besides, to meet the people. Postmasters, bankers and newspapers will be able to tell you when the government's income tax man will be around, and where to find him. He will answer your questions, cover you to the return, take your money, and remove the wrinkles profit will vary, according to the distributor and the locality in which he is doing business.

The producer must be encouraged to continue production on an even greater scale than heretofore. There will be criticisms from all three sources, but the whole thought is to do the greatest good to the greatest number."

The Douglas county committee is suggesting prices on butter, bread, eggs, flour, potatoes and sugar.

AN ACCEPTABLE GIFT.

What could please a friend or relative more as a Christmas gift than a year's subscription to the Wayne Herald? How could you spend $1.50 to better advantage? The paper would be a constant reminder of your thoughtfulness.

Chamberlain's Tablets. Chamberlain's Tablets are intended especially for stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation, and have met with much success in the treatment of these diseases. People who have suffered for years with stomach trouble and have been unable to obtain any permanent relief have been completely cured by the use of these tablets. Chamberlain's Tablets are also of great value for biliousness. Chronic constipation may be permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Tablets and observing the plain printed directions with each bottle.—Adv.

Sunday school at 10 a. m.
Preaching services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Epworth league at 6:30 p. m.
Wednesday evening at the mid-week service and prayer meeting.
The fine day brought our people out in good shape last Sunday, odd snowing. Many lights were many during the winter, especially when it can be easy for our older friends to visit God's house.

The pastor will be doing another "bit" towards helping with the work on Sunday next, by taking the morning service in our church at Norfolk, while Brother Connolly is acting chaplain to the boys in camp. Our morning prayer service will be as usual, the Hon. H. P. Shumway having consented to then give an address on "The Influence of the Christian Church in our Civilization." The pastor will be back home in time for the evening service.
The Epworth league meeting will be special, a smashing of sublimity by the destroyers, with Ernest Barto in charge. Everybody come out to see the last submarine destroyed.

The Christmas entertainment and picnic will take place Monday Christmas eve, beginning at 7:30 p. m. with a miscellaneous Christmas program, to be followed by a social time in the basement, with the treat, etc. Everyone of our scholars, including home department and cradle roll, is invited to be present and we'd like to see them all, even to the last one.
Christmas day there will be a union service of the Christian, Presbyterian and Methodist churches. Just an hour service, from 10 a. m. to 11:30. This will be held in our church and Rev. S. H. King will preach. We would like to ask all our friends to come out and spend an hour of the world's greatest anniversary day in the best possible manner.

Presbyterian Church.
(Rev. S. H. King, Pastor.)
Next Sunday morning the pastor will preach on the subject, "Christ was Born Today." This is a Christmas theme and a cordial invitation is extended to all. Special music has been prepared by the choir. The evening address will be "The Energy that Moves the World."
Monday evening, Christmas eve, the children in the Sunday school will hold their exercises in the main room of the church. Rev. King and J. D. Haskell's classes have built a platform for this occasion. A mass chorus will sing appropriate selections. Christmas will be carried out this year by giving offerings to the Armenians. "A White Christmas" will be observed this year in many churches. The following program will be given:
Recitations.
Song—Primary Class.
