

FUEL SAVING

The four walls and air space of the Cooper-Clad Range hold heat like a thermos bottle. Even the doors are double with a big air space between the two walls.

The sheet of pure copper between the asbestos and outer wall or range body overcomes all internal rust, making the Cooper-Clad last years and years longer than any other range.

Add $18.25 to the price of any range for the first year, then $18.25 for the second and so on every year. You can't afford to buy any range but a Copper-Clad—The World's Greatest Range.

Carhart Hardware

In these days of high priced fuel you cannot afford to use a cheap range or any range that wastes fuel. If it only wastes .5c worth of fuel a day, you waste $18.25 a year or about the price of a Copper-Clad every 5 years.

Violating Food Rules.
 Omaha, Neb., June 26—More than one hundred Nebraska business concerns, dealing in food stuffs, have been penalized by the food administration of Nebraska for violations of rules and regulations. The penalties have varied all the way from closing down of business for thirty days to prohibition in dealing in sugar and flour. The Red Cross has profited materially by fines assessed.

MOST POTENT FACTOR.
 Omaha, Neb., June 26—Newspapers in Nebraska have been the most potent factor in the success of the food administration of Nebraska and their constant and unswerving support has enabled the Nebraska organization to assume a front rank in food control. Gordon W. Wattle, food administrator for Nebraska, paid that tribute to the newspapers during the annual meeting of the Nebraska Press association here.

 Randolph Times: While in Crete last week the editor saw some men digging a narrow trench along the side of the street and asked what they were doing. The reply was they were putting in pipe line for butter milk. Further inquiry elicited these facts: The Fairmont Creamery Co. has a large butter factory at Crete and the buttermilk is hauled in wagons to the company's hog farm about a mile away. The wagon plan is slow and expensive so a pipe was being laid below the front line and the buttermilk will be pumped fresh from the creamery to the high farm. All stock yards and pig pens were three thousand five hundred hogs at that time; over 50 carloads of pork on the hoof. The company buys Texas razor backs and Kansas hogs when the price is right, and fatten them on buttermilk and Nebraska corn and alfalfa. Last year an assistant inspector made a profit of $39,000 on their hog feeding operations.

Rev. A. S. Buell Engaged in Pastoral Work at Camp Dodge, Ia. The following letter of local interest was received by Rev. A. S. Buell, former pastor of the M. E. church at this place.

Dear Brother Hickman and family: I am at Camp Dodge serving my eighth year of the principal argument of those favoring the amendment.

Our Methodist people here have the best plan in the field. From five to ten of our regular pastors come to the camp and minister to the boys for two or four weeks, then change and another group of pastors come in.

There is so great an opportunity here and the boys certainly are appreciative of the little attentions we give them.

MAY CHANGE DRAFT AGES

Proposed Law Under Discussion in United States Senate. Washington, June 25.—Extension of the draft ages above and below the existing limits—21 and 31 years—was discussed at length in the senate today.

During the discussion Senator Fall revised his amendment which changed the ages to 18 and 45, making the ages 18 to 40, and eliminating a provision that youths under 21 should not be called into active military service.

Disposal of the amendment and substitute by Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, went over until tomorrow with sentiment apparently evenly divided. In the meantime, some expression might be made from the administration in view of a report that President Wilson opposes any change in the draft laws.

McCormick Harvesting Machines have been successful in harvest fields for more than eighty years

When you take a McCormick Home you have a Binder that is made to work under a wide range of field and crop conditions

The McCormick Binder is light draft

Everything possible has been done to make the McCormick light draft. Roller bearings are used on the main drive wheel and on the grain wheel. Canvas rollers and the main drive shaft run on roller bearings. The high grade of materials throughout insure maximum strength for the weight. This all helps to make the binder easy to pull.

Can be used with horses or tractor

The McCormick is made so that it can be used with either animal or tractor power. Hitches for attaching one or more binders to tractor furnished on special order.

You can't afford to take chances on delay and trouble in the harvest field this year. Insure your crop profit by ordering a McCormick now. TODAY.

NOTICE OF HEARING.

To the heirs, creditors and all persons interested in the estate of Carolina C. Swanson, deceased: You and each of you are hereby notified that Luther E. Swanson has filed his petition in the county court of Wayne county, Nebraska, alleging that said Carolina C. Swanson had intestate at their residence in Wayne county, Nebraska, on the 4th day of April, 1905, seized in fee simple of the southeast quarter of section fifteen (15) E. 1/4 Sec. 15, township two (2), north of range twenty-six (26) west of the 6th P. M., in Red Willow county, Nebraska, and left surviving her, her husband, Alfred Swanson, and the following named children, to-wit: Alfred N. Swanson, Otto S. Swanson, Samuel E. Swanson, Luther E. Swanson, Amanda C. Neff and Sophia Sederstrom—a her sole and only heirs at law. That, all debts, claims and demands against her estate have been paid in full. That said estate was never administered in Nebraska. That said Luther Swanson is the owner in fee simple of an undivided interest in the said real estate and has contracted to deliver merchantable title thereto. Petitioner prays for a finding and decree determining the date of the death of said deceased, determining her heirs, the degree of kinship and the right of descent of said real estate, and prays for an order barring the claims of creditors and prays such other relief as may be proper. Said petition will be heard at the county court room at Wayne, Wayne county, Nebraska, on the 23rd day of July, A. D. 1918, at 10 o'clock, A. M., at which time and place, all heirs, creditors and all persons interested in said estate may appear and show cause why a decree should not be made and entered as prayed in said petition.

Dated this 19th day of June, A. D. 1918.

It is easier to Connect You Than to Report "The Line is Busy"

The busier people are, the busier are their telephones. In these extraordinary times it is only natural that telephone lines should frequently be reported busy.

The telephone operator knows that a number reported busy will be asked for again. Thus, it is easier and quicker for her to complete a call at once than to tell you she cannot do so because the line is busy.

The telephone operator has an unusual responsibility these war-time days and appreciates consideration shown her earnest effort.

SHOLES.

June 20.

Mrs. Grace Trump and son Eldon visited in Pierce last Sunday.

H. W. Burnham shipped a load of cattle Monday.

Louie Carsten has been working in the country the past week.

Ray Jones and Vernie Hurlbert motored to Pierce Saturday evening.

Corinthia Closson is home from Paulina, Ia., to spend the summer vacation with home folks.

Several Sholes and Randolph people attended the funeral of Dr. C. Sackett Monday in Laurel.

Walter Larsen, Edward Carlson and Harold and Vernie Hurlbert went to Sioux City Sunday to spend the day.

People are asked to come to church more during the summer. Today's school is at 2 o'clock and church at 3.

School elections were held last Monday. Thomas Sundeck was elected treasurer, and D. M. Davis was elected moderator.

Miss Haack left for her home in Fairbury last week. We are sorry she will not teach in the public schools here the next year.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Burnham and Jennie returned home from Lincoln Saturday evening, after plowing Mrs. Sundeck the music conservatory for the summer session.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gibson, Mrs. William Gibson, and daughters, motored to Wayne Thursday, taking Elmer Gibson with them. He left for United States service.

Some people of Sholes left early today morning on a fishing excursion to Pierce. Those who went were Messrs. and Mesdames Noaks, Philby, Tietgen, and Hurlbert, and Gilson, and Miss Dora Kruse and the Closson girls.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that I have taken up at my premises in Garfield precinct, Wayne county, Nebraska, the following described property, to-wit: Two steers, each about two years of age, one Red Polled and one red steer with white spot in forehead and short horns. Owner may have property by proving same and paying costs.

Dated June 15, 1918.

Chronic Constipation.

Perhaps you have never thought of it, but this disorder is due to a lack of moisture in the residual matter of the food. If you will drink an abundance of water, eat raw fruits and take lots of outdoor exercise, you may be able eventually to overcome it entirely. In the meantime use the most mild and gentle laxatives. Strong and harsh cathartics take too much water out of the system and make a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are easy and pleasant to take, and most agreeable in effect. Give them a trial.—Adv.

Catarh Cannot Be Cured

Local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease, cannot cure it. The only reliable method is to use a medicine that reaches the seat of the disease internally, and acts directly upon the diseased part. The only medicine that does this is Dr. T. T. Jones' Catarrh Cure. It is not a quick medicine, but it is a permanent cure. It has cured thousands in this country for years and is known all over the world. It is the best tonic known, combined with the best of the most powerful medicinal agents. The perfect combination of these ingredients produces such wonderful results in curing catarh that it is the only medicine that can be relied upon for a permanent cure. J. C. CIVILIANS IN WAR.

Separated by 3,000 miles of ocean and protected by our Navy, our civilian population can during this war remain to do its part in the same secure way as in peace times. The Hun invaders are not in our midst. We are spared the agony that came to the women and children and old men of Belgium, France, Serbia and the other overrun countries. While thus secure from harm we must not forget that the civilian populations of these desolated countries are as much our allies as are their fighting men. Let us realize more deeply their tragedies.

The German invader of Brand-Whitlock, who as our minister to Belgium, knows what it means for a land to be occupied by German troops.

"Families is a little mining town on the 'Sambre.' The little church stands on the village green overlooking the river. Its facade all spotted where the bullets and grapeshot splattered against it. And in the little graveyard beside the church there are hundreds of unmade graves, long rows of them, each with its small wooden cross and its bit of flowers. The crosses stand close together, so closely that they make a very thicket, with scarcely room to walk between them. They were all new, of painted wood, alike except for the names and the ages—thirteen to eighty-four. But they all bore the same sinister date—August 22, 1914.

"The Germans began to pillage and burn the houses, 67% of them; then they turned all the inhabitants into the street, promiscuously gathered together. They lined them up against the church wall and performed a mock execution. About 600 men were massed in St. Martin's Square, on the river bank, and their wives and children were assembled by the soldiers to witness the scene.

"They lined up their victims in a trench along the Sambre and tumbled 150 of them head over heels into the river, shoving back with their bayonets those who attempted to rise to the surface. Only four or five escaped by swimming. During this first execution the machine guns were trained on the remaining survivors. When the firing ceased that night, there were more than 400 dead; their bodies lying there, women, too, and children. And the Germans were near by in the morning, and the ages given are from 13 to 84."

The part that these civilians played in the war was to bring to the civilized world the realization of what it would mean for German arms to conquer. In playing their part they were near by in the most cruel way a beastly enemy could devise.

What part will our civilian population play in the war? Will they live as it did before the war, or will it glory in the opportunity to serve in the tremendous task of defeating Germany's enemy? Each individual must decide that question. He can prolong the world's agony or he can save—and sacrifice—in the night of his ability to do so. His savings buy War Savings Stamps that there may be more money, labor, and materials to back up those who fight and die not only for us, but for all who live freely.

ARMY STORE IN FRANCE.

Prices quoted for June on merchandise in the huge general stores operated by the Quartermaster Corps in France show that members of the Expeditionary Forces may secure goods at prices lower than retail prices in effect in this country.

June quotations are: Half-pound package chocolate, 11 cents; can of cherries, 12 cents; can of cocoa, 14 cents; pocket combs, 6 cents; can of corn, 10 cents; shaving brushes, 15 cents; tooth brushes, 12 cents; can stringless tooth brushes, 25 cents; ginger beer, 4 cents; plum pudding, 32 cents; standard $5 safety razors, $1.75; pair shoe laces, 3 cents; can talcum powder, 5 cents; pound loaf bread, 10 cents; spool cotton thread, 4 cents; 2-ounce package smoking tobacco, 7 cents; hand soap, 2 cents; can lozengers, 25 cents; shaving brush, 10 cents; Worcestershire sauce, 20 cents; linen handkerchiefs, 16 cents; pint bottle olives, 25 cents; can green peas, 10 cents; shoe polish, 5 cents.

Although the men are issued ample rations the quartermaster stores are opened to the enlisted men for the purpose of permitting them to add to their menu or to satisfy individual desires for dainties or delicacies. The highest grade of merchandise only is carried and so that the men may be sure of having the best, whether in rations or extra supplies.

Meats, pickles, fish, vegetable, pickles, toilet articles, smokers' articles, and scores of miscellaneous items are included in the pull-down lists. These lists are made available to each company and purchases may be made either for cash or on credit.

Among the articles to be found in these chain stores are: Fresh beef, lamb, bacon, turkey, potatoes, rice, hominy, beans, onions, coffee, tea, sugar, butter, and evaporated fruits. The canned fruits and vegetables include: Apples, peaches, apricots, pears, cherries, currants, pineapples, prunes, apricots, peas, sweet corn, tomatoes, mush, beans, sweet potatoes, spinach, squash, turnip, and beans. Included in the list of canned meats and fish are: Lobsters, oysters, salmon, mackerel, cod, sardines, shrimp, herring, deviled crabs, sausages, tongue, turkey, deviled ham, corned beef, corned-beef hash, roast beef, and mince-meat.

For the man with a sweet tooth there are: Jams, jellies, preserves, raisins, apple butter, maple syrup, molasses, cranberry sauce, citron nuts, candy, etc. The smoker may purchase smoking and chewing tobacco, cigars, cigarettes, pipes, cigar papers and matches. The incidental needs of all the men are supplied with razors, combs, brushes for all purposes, buttons, soap, shaving sticks, shaving mugs, mirrors, razor strops, shoe polish, shoe laces, toilet water, talcum powder, tooth powder, wick-hazel, towels, handkerchiefs, neckties, needles, thread, candles, and playing cards.

WRITING HOME OFTEN.

"Duty to one's country does not end on the parade ground, nor even on the battlefield, but consists in doing everything in one's power to help win the war," says an order issued by Gen. Pershing, a copy of which has been received by the War Department.

"To write home frequently and regularly to keep in constant touch with family and friends is one of the soldier's most important duties. Mothers and fathers will suffer if they do not hear often from sons fighting in France. In the present large companies it is not possible for officers to write letters for their men, and every man must do it for himself."

GAMES OF CHANCE.

Cincinnati Enquirer: Lots of women will buy cantaloupes and see no harm in it.

WAKING UP.

St. Paul Post-Free Press: They are beginning to be suspicious in Germany, it is rumored, that America in the war is not exactly kidding.

NOTICE OF HEARING.

To the heirs, creditors, and all persons interested in the estate of George King, deceased, residing in Wayne county, Nebraska, to wit: That said George I. King died testate at his residence in Jersey county, Illinois, on March 12, 1873. At the time of his death he was seized of real estate in Wayne county, Nebraska, including the Northeast Quarter of the Northeast Quarter of Section Twenty-three (N. E. 1 of Sec. 23), Township Twenty-five (25), north of Range Three (3) east of the 6th p. m. in Wayne county, Nebraska, and left surviving him as his only heir and only heirs at law, his widow, Emily B. King, his daughter, Ella K. Smith, also known as Ella King Smith, and his daughter, Clara Moore, also known as Clara K. Moore and Clara King Moore. That all claims, debts, and demands against said real estate have been paid in full. That said estate has never been administered in Nebraska. That said George King is the owner in fee simple of said Northeast Quarter of the Northeast Quarter of Section Twenty-three (N. E. 1 of N. E. 1 of Sec. 23) Township twenty-five (25) north of Range Three (3) east of the 6th p. m., above described. Petitioner prays for a finding and decree determining the date of the death of said George I. King, deceased; a determination of heirs, the degree of kinship and right of descent of said real estate, and for an order barring claims of creditors, and prays for such other relief as may be proper. Said petition will be heard at the county court room in Wayne county, Nebraska, the 18th day of July, A. D. 1918, at 10 o'clock a. m., at which time and place the heirs, creditors, and all persons interested in said estate may appear and show cause why a decree should not be made and entered as prayed in said petition.

Dated this 15th day of July, A. D. 1918.

TWICE PROVEN

If you suffer backache, sleepless nights, tired, dull days and distressing urinary disorders, don't despair: The cure of your troubles is at hand. It's Wayne evidence—doubly proved.

W. H. Hoguewood says: "My back often so painful and lame I could hardly get up after sitting in bed. Other symptoms of kidney trouble left no doubt in my mind that my kidneys were in badly disordered condition. I decided to try Doan's Kidney Pills and was not disappointed with the results. They relieved me almost immediately and in a short time I was cured." (Statement given August 4, 1903.)

On July 12, 1914, Mr. Hoguewood said: "The cure Doan's Kidney Pills gave me has been permanent, which makes me think more highly of them than ever."

THE NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

No matter where you live you and your children can have the same musical advantages that you would possess if you could take them to New York for the opera season.

Music a Real Necessity in Time of War

'Not only to the man at the camp, on the ship, at the front, come times of loneliness and discouragement. Those who must remain at home to go about the daily task, heartick at the spirit of brute force which has wellnigh overcome civilization/ and at the overthrowing of ideals in which they trusted, have their share of the world burden. And to them must we bring constantly the refreshment of soul and the inspiration which come from contact with the highest forms of music.'

This is what the President of the Symphony Society of New York Said in a Recent Report to the Directors:

Music has justified itself as a factor of real service in this hour of trial. The government recognizes its value by encouraging singing in the camps. It is no longer considered a non-essential luxury. You need music in your home. The New Edison will give it to you—the world's best, music Re-Created by the world's leading artists. Other devices imitate but this marvelous instrument Re-Creates, so perfectly and completely that no human ear can distinguish the artist's living voice from Mrs. T. W. Moran and Mrs. E. J. Hunter who had been visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. A. C. Lantz, in Kearney, Neb., arrived home Saturday evening. Mr. Hunter drove to Norfolk that afternoon and accompanied them home in his car.

Rev. S. X. Cross returned Saturday from Missouri Valley, Ia., where he was called to conduct the funeral of a former parishioner, George Richardson, pioneer Iowa settler, 89 years old. Mr. Richardson moved to Iowa in the early days with nothing and on his death left 1,500 acres of rich and valuable land. Mr. Cross went back to Missouri Valley Tuesday to officiate at a wedding.

P. M. Thies of Harrington who is distributor for the Delco-Light plants, was in Wayne Monday, having come here from the Welsh settlement west of Carroll, where one of his plants has been installed in the new Presbyterian church. Mr. Thies is distributor for Wayne, Cedar, Dixon and Knox counties, and believes he can convince anyone of the excellence of the lighting system which he has to offer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dean and little son left Tuesday morning for Ashland, Neb., to visit the former's parents.

R. S. Jeffrey and wife and J. H. Atkins visited Charles Brown at Winside Sunday. Mr. Brown is still in feeble health.

Threatening clouds and intermittent sprinkles of rain Monday were followed late in the afternoon by a downpour of nine-tenths of an inch. Needless to say, growing crops were greatly benefited.

During the past week A. C. Dean bought two farms, a quarter section of W. N. McMullen, north of Winside, and a quarter from the McNish Land company, in Stanton county. The price paid for each tract was $155 an-acre.

William Morgan, deputy United States marshal, was in Wayne Tuesday on his way from Bloomfield to Omaha. He had gone to Bloomfield to arrest a man on a bootlegging charge, but he found that the individual wanted had been gone from Bloomfield for two months. Mr. Morgan has been kept busy lately serving papers under the sedition law.

F. S. BERRY GETS RULING.

Lincoln, Neb., June 24.—In a letter to Fred S. Berry, county attorney of Wayne county, Attorney General Reed holds that when a man is convicted of more than one count in an information or indictment charging him with a violation of the prohibitory law, the court should sentence him on each count as though he was committed for the first time. The point at issue, was whether, where conviction was had on more than one count, the first count should be held to be the first offense, the second offense and so on. Under the prohibitory law the penalty increases with each conviction. The attorney general says it counts only as one conviction.

TWO DROWNED AT WISNER

Canoe Capsized in Lake Causing Death of Two Young Ladies.

Wisner, Neb., June 24.—While twenty-five of their fellow picnickers looked on, Miss Adella Vnuk, 17 years old, and Wenzel Niklas, both of Dodge, were drowned when their canoe capsized about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon in Wordeman lake just across the river from here.

Through the heroic efforts of Emmett Kane, J. Ward and Miss Thelma Barr were saved from a similar fate. Kane pulled Ward, Miss Barr and the body of Miss Vnuk from the water but efforts to resuscitate Miss Vnuk failed. The body of Niklas was recovered later.

The four young people who were in a party of forty or fifty Dodge people who came here for the picnic, started out for a row in the canoe. Friends on the bank saw Niklas standing up and poking the boat, evidently to frighten the girls. Suddenly the craft capsized and the four were thrown into the water. They were pulled up and Kane went to their rescue and worked heroically in his efforts to save all four of them.

The coroner decided that no inquest was necessary and the bodies were taken to Dodge last evening.

About a year ago two young men from Dodge were drowned while boating in another lake near here.

FILES FOR CONGRESS.

Washington, June 24.—Congressman Dan V. Stephens has sent his filing fee to the Secretary of State for nomination to congress on the democratic ticket on the platform of "Prosecuting the War to a victorious Conclusion."

He expresses himself as regretting that the laws of Nebraska prevent him from filing for nomination on both great party tickets in view of the fact that there can be no other issue before either party than that of winning the war, making party alignment not only objectionable but repugnant to patriotic citizens.

ON THE SCREEN

"HEADIN' SOUTH"

Along the Mexican border—the desert lands of our country—with the forest of giant cacti, the story of one day's mysterious, lone rider, who acquires the appellation of "Headin' South."

He claims to be an outlaw, and proves to be such—not the desperate, cruel and inconsiderate type, but the "good 'bad' man" sort of a fellow who wins his reputation by mental calculation rather than brutality and physical destruction.

"Spanish Joe" is at the head of a notorious gang of Mexican desperadoes who have been very active despite the attempts of the rangers to curb their depredations and repeated endeavors to catch them.

"Headin' South," who is a born diplomat, succeeds in persuading "Spanish Joe" to enroll him as a member of the band. That worthy soon begins to suspect the new recruit, but the latter's ability as an outlaw overbalances Joe's suspicions.

"Headin' South" was written for Douglas Fairbanks by Chief Director Allan Dwan, and presents a plot so unique that after due consideration it has been decided not to disclose too much of the story in order not to detract from the pleasant surprise which the picture will give.

The plot unfolds rapidly, and Douglas Fairbanks as "Headin' South" displays his athletic prowess in a series of daring deeds, whereas in the story upon whom "Spanish Joe" forces his attentions, and "Headin' South" rescues her in a novel manner and wins a wife.

WOMAN IMPERSONATOR.

Julian Eltinge, cleverest feminine impersonator of stage or screen, has been engaged to play the part of a woman in his travels, both on the stage and since he took up motion picture work. It is one of the pastimes of the Paramount studio where Mr. Eltinge is now working to get him started telling these.

Altogether, the star has furnished sufficient material to the actors and one of the sights of the place is his dressing room. The favorite stunt is to take visitors there without any warning explanation of been finished under the direction of Director J. Searle Dawley.

CHANGE OF TIME.

On account of the long evenings, the first show at the Crystal theater will start at 8 o'clock instead of 7:30 o'clock, beginning July 1.

FROM GOLDWYN COMPANY.

Kansas City, Mo., June 18, 1929. Wayne Herald, Wayne, Neb. My Dear Sirs: I have received the issue of your paper mentioned in your letter of June 15, and thank you very much for the opportunity thus afforded for looking over the line page you have devoted to the Crystal theater and motion picture topics. General Mr. Nielson has supplied me with copies of your paper before, containing his advertising. And I have had occasion to admire the make-up of this page and the material printed thereon. I cannot offer any suggestions for improving the page.

Some metropolitan dailies that I know of could well afford to pattern their motion picture departments after that of the Wayne Herald. If we can supply you with cuts or material of any sort do not fail to call upon us.

Very cordially yours,
Richard Robertson,
Kansas City Manager.

MARY MILES MINTER.

Fame denies a girl my one of the real tones of life, according to Mary Miles Minter. "I sometimes envy other girls," says Mary Miles Minter in the August Motion Picture Classic. "For the motion picture girls who cannot always have everything they want. I envy them their home life, safe from the public's curious stare. I envy them the companionship of other girls their own someone to play with, someone to have secrets with. Girls just won't get chummy with me. When I meet them and try to be friendly, they stare at me, round-eyed with awe. They never think of telling me their secrets or asking me about mine. To them I am always Mary Miles Minter, the actress; they forget that I'm first, just a girl. In my whole life long I've had only one or two girl or boy friends."

OPINIONS OF IDEAL MEN.

Pearl Whites "I don't have much time to think about my ideal man; I am generally too busy to think about them at all. Courage, mental, and physical, is, to my mind, the greatest attribute of manliness. He must be willing to do a thing because I want him to do it, but he must not give me everything I want when he knows I shouldn't have it." Fannie Ward—"My ideal man is to be prosperous, he must be able to stand it. If he is going to have hard knocks, he must be able to stand them. He must have a clear, alert brain. I believe I am more attracted by a clever brain than anything else, provided it is a straight one. I don't care how I do it. I don't care much about his mannerisms or his manners—let me know his habits!" Ethel Tear—"If a man could be found who would agree to be before breakfast, I think it would go without saying that he had all other human virtues. When I come across my ideal man, I expect to hang on him a long, long time, and the first time I ever have any suspicion that I have found my ideal man, I am going to have dinner at his home next week. He must have a Mother. If mother gives him one of those pathetic, anxious looks when the breakfast comes on, there is something wrong with the man."

Jewel Carmen—"I am immediately attracted to any one who has blue eyes. Every couple I know of, who has blue eyes, they are sure to be together. So when I have blue, is unhappy. So when I marry I'm going to select a man with blue eyes like my own." Madge Kennedy—"He must be gentle, not a crowd-buster, mean, merely mild; real gentleness comes only from strength. When a man is gentle, he will stand strong when the pressure comes. Gentleness and strength—they are the extremes of his character. If a man has both, all else that's good will fall between."

Mary Thurman—"Unselfishness is the finest trait that any man can have. It is the password to the heart of a woman. I would like to have him generous—but I don't want him to be a fool with money. He ought to be attentive, but I pray a merciful heaven to preserve me from a man who is around and oozes forth fat remarks."

Dorothy Dalton—"The ideal man is fortunately becoming extinct. I say fortunately, because, were men what they are going to see. One New-England school teacher recently neatly faded at the sight—when he saw the picture.

On a wax head, such as is used in millinery stores, was carefully placed a very blonde flaxen wig, while above beside it lay a pair of gloves and next to them the dainties of fluffy powder puffs and a couple of huge black cigars. Whether the school teacher thought she had discovered the den of Blue Beard the second and his wives was never known, for with one shrill scream she was gone away and far away from the wicked studio's floor.

Mr. Eltinge's next feminine screen impersonation, "The Clever Mrs. Carfax," will be shown at the Crystal theater soon.

perfect, this would be indeed a dull and stupid world. We women would probably pine away for want of gossip, if all men were ideal. A husband like a cake—one would not want to keep on eating after having enough; and too often, too, the cake proves to be quite indigestible."

Marguerite Clark—"Is there such a man in real life—a man who can laugh at just the right time and make me laugh at the right time too? That's the main thing in the ideal man—good humor, good nature. All the rest hinges on that attribute."

Very often the working titles of photodramas fit real incidents in the players' lives. Recently Charles Ray sustained a badly bruised arm while playing in "Playing the Game," and Charlie Merely gritted his teeth and "played his game" without flinching, though suffering from bruises and abrasions.

Dorothy Dalton has a new fan. She makes beautiful souvenir cards from cancelled postage stamps and sells them for the benefit of the cigarette fund of the studio. This fund really pays for chewing gum, chocolate, and all forms of tobacco for the boys in France, and as the work comes home between scenes at the studio, the star is walking about with sticky-paste fingers every spare minute.

Henry Wallhall is to feature in the new Griffith production which will also be a war story, but with less fighting scenes than "Hearts of the World." George Fawcett is another prominent actor to be engaged.

The Gish girls and Bobby Haddon will play in the three reigning Arctcraft pictures to be produced as per Griffith's contract, and scenes for these are laid in Canada, Hawaii and Scotland. The Gishes are taking a real vacation, playing tennis daily, driving towards sunset to the beach, and often having tea at one of the canyon resorts near Los Angeles. In the mornings they take French lessons, are studying piano and visiting dentist and dressmaker. Their idea of a vacation is quite as strenuous as their work at the studio.

Enid Bennett is sponsoring a new juvenile in the person of Charles Shere, who dropped into the Ince studios one day to size up the situation. Mr. Ince liked his appearance and gave him a test in much the same way that Charlie Ray had his test. His opportunity for the part required in "A Desert March" gave the young man a leading part, and if there's anybody who needs sympathy or comfort, you can depend upon Enid Bennett to be right on the job.

Dustin Farnum's boat, the Ding, is being fitted up for government patrol service at the star's expense. It's a fifty-foot cruiser, he says, and sound in wind and limb.

VIVIAN MARTIN
"The Trouble Buster"

Charlie Chaplin is a left-handed violinist and has an especially constructed instrument. He uses it to play solos when doing vaudeville in England. When asked recently if he practiced nowadays, he gave the familiar shoulder shrug and Chaplin smile as he answered: "Oh, no, nothing in it unless one's an Elman or Kubelik. Motion picturing makes his playing knocked right off the deck."

Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle is golf champion of the comedians. Harry Wheeler gave Fatty quite a light for the money, but you can't beat the man with the smile. A funny incident happened at the Country club after the game, for Fatty asked for boiled eggs and one of these was a complete double egg, one shelled egg inside of the other. They've hunted up the owner of that "lucky hen," and Mr. Arbuckle says that if Biddy can be induced to pose for the camera he'll engage her as an extra. He believes in encouraging originality every time.

Marshall Neilen has completed "Hit the Trail Holiday," the Arctcraft picture starring George M. Cohan. It was adapted from the Cuban play by Anita Loos and John Emerson.

Guy Inman's Cafe

Remodeled and improved throughout, perfectly clean and sanitary. Mr. Inman is a well known man in the business, and his efforts will merit appreciation and success.

Bringing zest to jaded appetites—that's his first thought. The choicest meats, vegetables and pastries are served in the most tempting style. Dine where the service is as prompt and pleasant as the food is delicious and wholesome.

WAKEFIELD, NEB.

In Wakefield, so far as it can be, no shirkers and no absentees. To be presented at this date. Some little change may yet be found necessary, but the program may be taken as settled, on the whole. This will give the people a splendid holiday, which with fine weather, will furnish a much-needed relaxation from the ordinary duties of everyday life, with pleasurable entertainment of the best kind, together with the opportunity of giving a demonstration of united personal patriotism and loyalty such as we have not had since America entered into the world war.

The committee appointed by the Commercial club has gone to great trouble to give all something that will appeal to them, from music and singing to baseball, from the drill of the Home Guards to oration by Dr. Getys, including the fine opportunity to all eat together and thus get better acquainted with the fellow over the way; and it is hoped there will be

Now, then, everybody out for the biggest day of this kind Wakefield and community ever had. We shall be repaid in rest and recreation, and we shall give a mighty evidence of our backing to the country in this hour of greatest need. And it will help many a subscription to Liberty Loan, Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., and so forth, to come easier in the days that are to come if they should unfortunately continue—and such appeals become necessary. And let it not be forgotten that the profits from the sale of refreshments of any kind, or concessions for such sale, or for concessions of any kind, are absolutely the prop-

THE BRISCOE

The car with the Half-Million Dollar Motor

Nearly everyone who sees the Briscoe motor for the first time says, "What a clean, simple-looking motor." It is just that; simple, well enclosed, and with the minimum of wiring or outside pipes, in fact no complicated mechanism.

The Briscoe 4-24 motor was built, tested, and the first series manufactured in France in 1912 under the direction of Benjamin Briscoe, who has been prominent in America automobile manufacturing since the beginning of the industry. Associated with him in the designing and developing of this motor were the greatest automobile engineers of France. The result of the work of these men is a motor more powerful, more economical, and at the same time smoother running than any of its size yet produced.

When the manufacture of Briscoe cars was begun in America the better production methods in this country made it possible to lower the price and from the first the Briscoe has been a success.

A car so well built, made so beautiful, so strong, yet light, so powerful and economical of upkeep that every obstacle that is in the way of enjoyment is absolutely removed.

ANOTHER BIG WAR SAVINGS DRIVE

School House Meetings June 28—Breakfasts Will Leave Thirty-Second Place.

President Wilson has named June 28th as the day on or before which every person, young or old, shall be given a fine opportunity to show loyalty to the stars and stripes by joining a War Savings Society and pledging full co-operation in the government's effort to finance the war.
America must awaken to the fact that the purchasing of non-essentials in time of war is a little better than treason and possibly at this time a most serious injury to the country.

In order to educate the people to this need of conserving labor and material, War-Savings societies are to be organized in large numbers throughout the United States. Through these societies, which will be directly affiliated with the Treasury Department at Washington, the government will be enabled to reach every individual with the propaganda which it desires shall be given general circulation.

Purpose.
The chief purpose will be to bring everyone into realization of personal responsibility and of personal service for the nation's welfare. This relationship and co-operation is an event of more importance than the selling of War-Savings Stamps, important as that is. We are apt to get the impression that because we have responded so well to previous calls, we can now stop. This erroneous impression must be eradicated from our minds. The war is not over by any means. The money is not yet exhausted. Uncle Sam has not ceased his preparations and we as individuals must not cease our efforts to aid the government in every way possible. The boys over there and over here have not relaxed in their work and we must not relax.

After the drive always comes the "carry-on" spirit. We have reached this "carry-on" period of the War-Savings campaign. It is not a time that means "back tracks"; the organization of War-Savings Societies. One soldier wouldn't get very far in a fight if he had no organization behind him. So every organization that counts—everybody going along together, shoulder to shoulder. Therefore, the government asks that you organize one of these societies immediately. Any group of men, women and children may organize a society and elect their own officers: usually a president and secretary; choose an appropriate name for the War-Savings Society, or other representative and ask him for a charter of affiliation with the National War-Savings Society.

In accordance with proclamation of the president, as referred to and of the governor of this state, meetings will be held in every school house at 8 p. m. on Friday, June 27, for the purpose of organizing one or more War-Savings Societies in each school district.

President's Message.
President Wilson in his proclamation, setting aside June 27th as the day for the War-Savings Day, and urging the necessity of, thoroughly organizing the people of this great nation into War-Savings Societies, said in closing: "I earnestly appeal to every man, woman and child to pledge themselves, and to urge their neighbors, to give constantly and to buy as frequently as possible the securities of the government, and to do this as far as possible through membership in War-Savings Societies. The twenty-eighth of June ends this special period of enlistment in the great work of saving our country and serving her at home. May there be none unentitled to that day."

Our is a patriotic state and I need only give publicity to this call of the government with full assurance that every citizen will do his full duty on June 28th.

PYORRHOEA.

Pyorrhoea is caused by irritation from decayed food or tartar, working under the loose margin of the gums, and gradually progressing until there are deep pockets which are filled with pus and bacteria of many varieties.

In the early stages this disease may be treated and cured. More teeth are lost from Pyorrhoea than from all other causes combined.

Cleanliness and correct diet are necessary on the part of the patient, to control the disease. Tartar must be removed often by the dentist.

CHURCH CALENDAR.

German Evangelical Lutheran Church.
(Rev. R. Moehring, Pastor.)
Wayne: Confirmation class next Sunday at 3:45 p. m. There will be services in English next Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. Sunday school will be held during the preceding hour.
Windsor: Confirmation class next Sunday at 11:45 a. m. Sunday school next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Preaching services at 3 o'clock in English.

Methodist Episcopal Church.
(Rev. D. W. Maregor, Pastor.)
Next Sunday's services will be of special interest. Music and song by Prof. J. J. Coleman and large choir. Reception of new members following the morning sermon at 11 a. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m. We have several classes that are full of life. In writing so to the order of your plans to be at Sunday school and church next Sunday.

Young people's meeting at 7 p. m. Sermon at 8.

The large congregation of last Sunday morning and the way the choir and the people sang were inspiring to the pastor. The lessons drawn from the Abrah poem we hope were helpful.

English Lutheran Church.
(Rev. J. H. Fetterolf, Pastor.)
Sunday school opens promptly at 10 o'clock every Sunday morning. There are two reasons why every pupil should be present. We need the instruction from God's word and the school needs the encouragement of every scholar.

The midsummer communion will be administered at 11 o'clock next Sunday everyone in the family in the church should plan to be present. The true believer will not slight or ignore this important service. Procrastination is the only valid reason that can be given for absence. New members will be received at this time.

At the last meeting of the Ladies Aid society it was voted that in the future all of their time at the meetings should be devoted to doing Red Cross work. This is to continue as long as the need for sewing and knitting is so urgent. Heretofore, some of the ladies had given the afternoon of Aid day to this work; now one of the who company will put their hands to the task. The treasurer was also instructed to invest $300 of Aid money in War Savings stamps. It is a good plan to put idle money where it will do some good.

Presbyterian Church.
(Rev. W. Cross, Pastor.)
There will be a meeting of the session next Sunday morning at 10, and persons desiring to come into the church may meet the session at that time.

"The Saving Power of Sacrifice" will be the theme of the sermon next Sunday morning. The hour of the morning will be 10:30. All are very cordially invited.

"The Gentleness of Gleanthood" is the subject for the Sunday evening service. The special music will be under the direction of Mrs. A. R. Davis, chorister. Summer visitors in town are welcome at all the services.

EXCEPTIONS.
Stioax Falls Press: A man who can play golf can eat corn, says Gov. Harding. Not all of them successfully, however. Some would gouge it up by the roots.

Omaha World-Herald: It has been a year since the first American troops landed in France. There are almost 1,000,000 there, and we have only begun to arrive.

Baptist Church.
(Rev. Fletcher J. Jordan, Pastor.)
The Ladies' Missionary society meets with Mrs. Catherine H. on Friday afternoon at 2:30. The topic is Alaska, and the leader is, Mrs. Laub. A most cordial invitation is extended to every lady in the church and congregation.

The Ladies' Union has adjourned for the summer and will do Red Cross work each Wednesday afternoon at the Red Cross rooms. All are asked to come and help in this noble and useful work.

Regular services at the Baptist church next Sunday. Divine worship with sermon at 10:30 a. m. At 8:00 o'clock the pastor will speak on "The Wise Choice."

Sunday school meets at 11:30 a. m. All people are invited, but especially the Normal students. The pastor has a class of young people which will be asked to join themselves. He endeavors to bring the present lessons down to date and to make them exceedingly practical. A method Sunday school has 69 in membership, it is found 75 per cent of the membership of the local church. How many will come next Sunday and help make our school what it ought to be.

THE CHRONICLE OF GLORY.
Chicago Daily News: History has few chapters so resplendent as that which we behold each day in the lives of our American correspondents in France. The deeds our boys are doing will compare with those of the greatest heroes of the past. They have established our army as a factor in war and have confounded the sneering enemy critics who belittled the American citizen soldier. These specific instances of valor, heroism, intrepidity, indomitable will and cheerful and modest performance of the most perilous duties without complaint or consciousness of their own are the more striking because we know they are typical. They make inspiring reading, but the spirit reveals a nobility of soul that cannot be surpassed. No doubt paralyzes their will. They are able to summon all their vigor to the work in hand.

HANGING CREPE.
Just as everything is cleared up and the apparent failure of the latest Tent offensive, along comes Maj. Gen. Maurice with a bolt of crepe.

SORRY TOO LATE.
Kansas City Star: Austria may prove just as sorry that it started this offensive as it is that it started the war.

The Doctor Away From Home When Most Needed.
People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like pain in the stomach, bowels, colic, diarrhoea require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or the physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and at the same time you may save a life.—Adv.

THE FIELD OF BUSINESS.

Sioux City Journal: Government measures for the regulation of commerce and manufacture practically monopolized interest in the American business world during the week. Reports from ordinary trade lines indicated more and more the extent to which private business must adjust itself to national war needs. Supplies of non-war products are increasingly difficult to get.
Application of the "twink or fight" order of the provost marshal general, effective July 1, made clear that draft boards are relentlessly to classify registered men according to the productiveness or nonproductiveness of their occupations and to advance those nonproductively engaged to the class of immediate military eligibility. About 250,000 additions to class I of the draft list are expected. Secretary Baker withdrew his opposition to the congressional plan for extension of the draft age limits down and up.
Secretary McAdoo announced the coming flotation of $6,000,000,000 in treasury certificates to advance the fourth Liberty loan, the certificates to pay 4 1/2 per cent and the first batch of them to mature October 24. It is understood that the new loan will be for at least $6,000,000,000, that it will bear 4 1/2 per cent and that the sale will open early in October.
The railroad administration's policy was announced by Mr. McAdoo to aim first at winning the war, second at serving the public in the way of transportation, third at improving the spirit of employees and employers, and fourth at introducing economies. An exports control committee of which the statisticians and Rear Admiral Peoples are members was formed to control the flow of freight to ports. Figures provided by private statisticians indicated that after four months of federal control the railroad deficit was $250,000,000. The officially credited surplus of the business time was to be broken up at the end of the war and competition restored, according to provisions of the contracts insisted on by the attorney general. Express rates were advanced 10 per cent, effective July 1.
All employers engaged in essential enterprises were asked by the president to obtain their unskilled labor through the employment service of the department of agriculture, and volunteering for essential service will be continued. Great interest in obtaining government contracts through the work of commission agents was revealed by the department of justice, and several arrests were made. Restrictions on clothing were ordered by the war industries board in order to conserve wool and leather.
The house passed the sundry civil bill carrying $1,761,701,000 for shipbuilding. A bonus plan for seamen in the coastwise service was adopted because of the operations of U. S. boats. Stock yards of the country were ordered under a federal licensing system. That shipping boats came out in opposition to the effort of drys in congress to abolish the beer industry, fearing the effects on labor. The price of rice, new print paper was fixed at $3.10 a hundred weight in carlots by the federal trade commission. Samuel Gompers was re-elected president of the American Federation of Labor without opposition.
The securities market was listless throughout the week. Money rates opened strong, call loans clinging close to the 6 per cent rate, but the subsequent tendency was easier. Liberty bonds were dull or heavy. The $3s sold down from 99 1/2 to 99.50. A loan of $15,790,000 to Greece brought the total of American advances to belligerents to $5,970,340,000.
Grain prices responded nervously to weather reports. The food administration's ruling that unlicensed dealers could not take delivery of cash grain on future contracts and that no speculators could obtain licenses had an effect. Reports of injury to the oats crop by drought caused a sharp advance about the middle of the week. July corn, closing price, dropped as low as $1.42 7/8 and then recovered partially. August corn went down from a closing price of 1.45 7/8 to a closing price of $1.45 3/8, and then rallied. No. 2 white oats, cash, closed Monday at 78a cents, and later closed as high as 80 cents.
BOYS' AND GIRLS' WORK.
More than 2,400,000 boys and girls were reached through club work last year, according to a compilation recently made by the United States department of agriculture, which supervises this work in cooperation with the state agricultural colleges. Of this number approximately 350,000 made complete reports, which show that they produced and conserved products amounting to $10,000,000. In the thirty-three northern and western states 840,000 boys and girls were enrolled in the program. Number 160,625 made complete reports and produced and conserved products valued at $3,700,000. In the south there were 115,745 boys enrolled in the program, who produced products valued at $4,500,000, and 73,306 girls who produced and conserved products valued at $1,500,000. In the emergency club work in the south the club leaders reached over 400,000 boys and approximately 1,000,000 girls who produced and conserved products valued at more than $4,000,000.
WASTED EFFORTS.

PREST-O-LITE

A Better Battery For Your Car

Because It Is Backed by a complete System of Service

The Battery

It is essential that you choose your storage battery with as much care as you choose your car.

WHY?

Because every day the battery must stand strains greater than those your engine will meet in the stiffest up-hill climb.

You should use the Prest-O-Lite.

WHY?

Because in rigid tests by automobile manufacturers, as well as by hundreds and thousands of motorists, the Prest-O-Lite has proved its greater endurance, reserve power, and durability under the severest conditions.

The Service

A great many auto men forget their batteries and let them run "dry." If distilled water is not added regularly once a week in warm weather, something is bound to happen.

This is just as important as adding lubricating oil to the oiling system.

Because storage batteries should be cared for just the same as the rest of the car, the Prest-O-Lite company has established hundreds of service stations throughout the country.

This should interest you. Ask for booklet, "Brief Instructions for Battery Care."

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.
In the District Court of Wayne County, Nebraska.
In the matter of the application of Lina Tarnow, guardian of the persons and estates of Fred Tarnow, Emil Tarnow, and Anna Tarnow, minors, for leave to sell real estate.
On this 22nd day of June, 1918, this cause came on before me, Anson A. Welch, Judge of the District Court of Wayne County, Nebraska, and upon reading the petition presented to me duly verified and filed with the Clerk of this Court by Lina Tarnow, guardian of the persons and estate of Fred Tarnow, Emil Tarnow and Anna Tarnow, minors, for leave to sell the interest of said minors in and to the following described real estate situated in Wayne County, Nebraska, to-wit: The East 1/2 of the Southeast Quarter of Section Thirty-Six (E. 1/2 of S. E. 1/2 of Sec. 36) Township Twenty-Six (26), north of Range Four (4), east of the 6th P. M., and it appearing from said petition that said real estate is owned in common by said minors together with others, and balance is in pasture and hay, and it appearing that it would be for the benefit of said minors, and of their said estates that their interest in said land be sold and the proceeds put at interest or invested in some productive stock;
It is therefore ordered that the next of kin of said minors and all persons interested in their estates appear before me as Judge of said Court, at the courthouse in Wayne, in said Wayne County, Nebraska, on the 27th day of July, 1918, at 3 o'clock, p. m., to show cause, if any there be, why license should not be granted to the said Lina Tarnow, guardian of said minors, to sell their interest in said above described real estate for the purpose above set forth.
It is further ordered that a copy of this order be published at least three (3) successive weeks, once each week, in the Wayne-Herald, a legal weekly newspaper, printed, published, and in general circulation in said county of Wayne, Nebraska, and that it shall not be necessary to make personal service of this order upon the next of kin or other persons interested in said estate.
Done in vocation the date above written.
ANSON A. WELCH,
327 1/2 Judge of the District Court.

BUSY DAYS IN GEORGIA.
Atlanta Constitution: It's a June with no opportunity for juleps and no time for palmetto fans.

We are Helping Win the War--Are You?

Because of the increased demand for beef for the boys and the Allies, it is requested that steaks be served but once a week. The use of pork may be expanded a little.

The food administration has designated the following "beef" days and meals for Nebraska hotels, restaurants, and eating houses and asks that they also be observed in the homes:

MONDAY—Roast Beef Day.
TUESDAY NIGHT—Beef Steak Meal.
WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY—Boiled Beef Days.
