

NOT AN IMITATION-- BUT A RE-CREATION

That is what the New Edison renders—a Re-Creation, so complete and satisfying that it is utterly impossible to distinguish the artist's voice from the instrument's. Talking machines imitate, but the New Edison Re-Creates.

The famous Edison tone tests have demonstrated the power of this marvelous instrument beyond question. More than 1500 of these tests have been held; more than 30 Grand Opera stars have sung them—sung in direct comparison with the instrument and proved that no difference could be detected. They have convinced 2,000,000 people that the strongest claims do not exaggerate the merit of

No matter where you live you and your children can have the same musical advantages that you would possess if you could take them to New York for the opera season.

Music a Real Necessity in Time of War

'Not only to the man at the camp, on the ship, at the front, come times of loneliness and discouragement. Those who must remain at home to go about the daily task, heart sick at the spirit of brute force which has wrenched overcomer civilization, and at the overthrowing of ideals in which they trusted, have their share of the world burden. And to them must we bring constantly the refreshment of soul and the inspiration which come from contact with the highest forms of music.'

This is what the President of the Symphony Society of New York Said in a Recent Report to the Directors:

Music has justified itself as a factor of real service in this hour of trial. The government recognizes its value by encouraging singing in the camps. It is no longer considered a non-essential luxury. You need music in your home. The New Edison will give it to you—the world's best music Re-Created by the world's leading artists. Other devices imitate but this marvelous instrument Re-Creates, so perfectly and completely that no human ear can distinguish the artist's living voice from

KOHL FILES FOR SENATE

Will Ask Re-nomination and Re-election from This District.

Last week, Philip H. Kohl filed as a candidate for the state senate from this district, which includes Wayne, Pierce, and Cuming counties. He has served four terms in the senate, and has won liberal local support by reason of his active and influential efforts in behalf of the Wayne State Normal.

NEWSPAPER SUSPENDS

Hartington News. The daily and weekly Herald of Yankton, after 55 years of service to the county and state, suspends publication last Saturday. For the past 18 years it has been under the management of M. Bennett, who is now postmaster at Yankton. The Herald was one of the oldest papers in Dakota territory, which later became North and South Dakota. Its existence has been marked by a continuous effort to further the best interests of that section of the country, but the high cost of material has only prevented the accumulation of profit, but the expense of operation was greater than the total income.

Secretary A. D. Scott of the Nebraska Press association, at the meeting at Omaha last Friday, announced that over 100 Nebraska newspapers had gone out of existence during the past 11 months.

The News and Tribune, at Spokane, Wash., two of the strongest papers on the Pacific coast, were consolidated last week.

The Randolph Times-Enterprise announced last week that its subscription price would hereafter be Happy—what a word—what a world of meaning!

A contented woman, proud of her work, is proud of her cooking machine.
All machinery is designed to lighten labor, to enable one to do more and do it better. Thenception and the Copper-Clad cooking machine is THE WORLD'S GREATEST RANGE. Holding, heat like a thorough bottle, a woman knows exactly what she can depend on. She knows, too, that she is saving fuel.

She appreciates a Copper-Clad most when it comes to cleaning. With no hinges, catches, and latches, with no ornate or corners, with no five or bolt ends on the nickel, the Copper-Clad cleans like a dish and is a woman's delight.

Then, why shouldn't a proud owner of a Copper-Clad be Range Happy? Why shouldn't the Copper-Clad be called THE WORLD'S GREATEST RANGE?

UNCLE WALT

The Poet-Philosopher
THE ONE INTEREST.

I went last night to see the show, a play "For Tong" adored, but little 't's tale of woe just left me feeling bored. I saw Eliza cross the bay, but felt no pleasant thrill; for I was thinking of some way to can all Kaiser Bill. And Nats, the lawyer, bowed his ears, and failed to make me grin; my thoughts were all of battle flags and swords and martial din. I want to see the last ball game, with cronies three or four; the pastime's pretty much the same as in the days of yore. But there was little whooping done, although the play was fine for we were thinking of the Hun, of war across the brine. I knew not which team won or lost, and didn't seem to care; for everything on earth's a frost, save dreams "over there." I do not care for printed books, for music, or for art; there's nothing new but war, gad, and the news of my weary heart. I do not care for politics, for statesmen and their spels, for all their foolish bag of tricks I wouldn't give two wheels. I do not yearn for county fairs, for picnics in the woods; all material things are fakes and snares, save war, and it's the goods. And it alone is worth our while, until our cause is won, until we've canned that thing of guilt, the atrocious Hun.

THE HARVEST.

The wheat will soon be ready, throughout the golden west, for workers strong and steady to come and do their best; the long green fields are turning to yellow in the sun, and when we're learning how we shall can the Hun. The wide, wide fields are golden, as grateful to the eyes, as in the ages olden was trana from the skies. For wheat means more than giving a pampered people bread; it's triumph for the living, and vengeance for the dead. The wheat from all these regions where reapers soon will sing, will feed our fighting legions, and hark the kultur king. Oh, worker, come rejoicing, and bind the golden sheaves, a song of gladness voicing, and not as one who grieves. Oh, toiler, tread the stubble, like victor proud and strong; our think the task a trouble because the hours are long. As much as men with sabres you, fight the Teuton knives, so blithely face your labors, and nate like galleys slide. So the wheat fields journey as gay as knights-of-old, who hastened to the tourney on fields of cloth of gold: With courage of the stoic, into the harvest range; there's nothing more heroic on all the fields of France.

IN THE FIELD.

While others bear the sword and shield, where mighty armies meet, I'm busy in the harvest field, and shocking sheaves of wheat. I'm shedding sweat instead of blood, in the endless tide, although I've away the flood, my bosom swells with pride: I know I have not lived in vain— whatever you may say, when this weary war is done, and earn three bones a day. The sun beats down upon my back, it's hot, and hotter yet, and all along my labor track; the ground is damp with sweat. The work is hard, I must admit, these burning days of June, and now and then I have a fit, and now and then I swoon. But when this weary war is done, you size up the gents who did their best to make the Hun look much like fifteen cents, a man like me will glow in pride, although I've splashed no gore; I shocked ten million sheaves of wheat, and then ten millions more. He also serves; you doubtless know, who does the work at hand; who, barred from shooting the top, goes forth to till the land. I feel I am the one best bet, the guy that's safe and sane; the ground behind is moist with sweat, as though there'd been a rain.

WAR GARDEN SASS.

Today I ate some freedom peas, in my war garden grown; I often gather greens like these, and boil them with no lard, and though the peas were small in size, in taste like castor oil. I viewed them with admiring eyes, the product of my toil. With pride the loyal voter eats his home grown garden sass, his justicious Patrick Henry beets, and Sweet Bun sparrowgrass; his taters may be small as beads, his lettuce coarse and tough, but joyfully he on them feeds and cannot get enough. I plant my beans of Benker Hill, and till them with my sword, and say, "With help can Kaiser Bill, the frugal way I-board. I've plowed up the begonia bed, the lily and the rose, and that I may be cheaply fed I try my rakes and hoe." How good it makes a fellow feel, to do his little trick, when he's too old to take his steel, and carve a Teuton hick! He feels his larder split, he knows he's safe and sane; he views his garden plot and cries, "I have not lived in vain!" There are so many ways to aid, that one need despond: the com I've saved with hoe and spade, will buy another board. I help to hark the submarines; some Teuton scheme I smash by raising Nation's flint warks beans and Eagle succotash.

SUMMER WEATHER.

The days are growing hotter, although they're hot enough, and as I ply my sweeter I'm feeling pretty tough. The solar rays are pelting from 'neath there's no succor, and I'm slowly melting and swimming in my grease. I overheat the vessel, I wrote four months ago, and marvel at the curses I handed sleet and snow. Oh, I was surely nutty; when such language tossed, his head is stuffed with putty, who rails at snow and frost. For winter's whole-some rigors are good for man and beast; there are no colds and chills, no human limbs to feast. Men sit before their heaters, while out the blizzard rants, and there are no mosquitoes, no worms, or bugs, or ants. From greenhouses the wholesome breezes blow, from ocean washed Alaska comes down the healthful snow. And yet when winter's blinging, it blows all around, when we should all be singing, we raise a doleful sound. Because some ears are frosted, because a nose is peeled, the language is exhausted, so bitterly we've spoiled. The days are growing hotter, and hotter still, my friends; as to my tasks I totter, the mercury ascends. The flies, in countless legions, are pestering on my dome, and in the Arctic regions I fain would build my home.

BUSY ANIMALS.

The hens are laying luscious fruit, and cackle in their pride; they seem to know that from the Teut they'll help to take the hide. My Dorking hens, in other days, were rather stern and dour; but now, whenever a chicken says, she cackles by the hour, my old red cow's as fine as silk, she knows our needs, I think; the way she's turning out the milk you'd never think to drink. She stands around and chews her cud, until the milking's done, and seems to say, "This foaming flood will help to can the Hun." It may be I imagine it, but Dobbin seems to know; he pulls up harder on the bit, he's always keen to go, - I hitch him to my one-hoss plow, and as he does his job he thinks he says, "I'm striving now to queer the Prussian hick." This Dobbin horse was wont to balk before we drew the sword, and I would pet him with a rock and lam him with a board. It may be I imagine things, but let us hope I'm right; we'll surely spoil us, we know and drink, if all the dumb brutes fight.

INCREASED TAXATION NECESSARY.

Secretary McAdoo's position relative to taxation for the coming year, was frankly and positively stated in his letter to Majority Leader Kitchin of the House of Representatives. He wrote in part: "We cannot afford to rely upon $4,000,000,000 only for taxation, because we shall then have to rely on raising 20,000,000,000 by loans. This would be a surrender to the policy of high-interest rates and inflation with all their evil consequences. "If we are to preserve the financial strength of the nation we must do sound and safe things, no matter whether they hurt our pockets, or involve sacrifices—sacrifices of a relatively insignificant sort compared with those our soldiers and sailors are making to save the life of the nation. "The sound thing to do unquestionably is to increase taxation, and the increases should be determined upon promptly and made effective at the earliest possible moment." The Secretary's recommendations briefly are that one-third (estimated at $8,000,000,000) of the cash expenditures to be made during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1919, be provided for by taxation, a real war-profits tax at a high rate upon all war profits, a substantial increase in the amount of normal income tax upon all so-called unearned incomes and heavy taxation upon all luxuries.

NEEDS LOOKING INTO.

Lincoln Journal: Something is radically wrong with the American war preparations. Gen. March tells the reporters that we now have 900,000 men abroad and that the country is five months ahead of its program for placing an army in France. This appears to call for another congressional investigation.

ON THE WAY.

Sioux Falls Argus-Leader: Well, we have passed the longest day in the year and are now headed straight for the coal bin, which we regret to say, is empty.

THE WINNING HAND.

Washington Star: In the game of war, as in other games, "aces" are bigger than kings and queens.

The Joy of Living.

To enjoy life we must have good health. No one can reasonably hope to get much real pleasure out of life when his bowels are clogged a good share of the time and the poisons that should be expelled are absorbed into the system, producing head-ache and indigestion. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets will move the bowels, strengthen the digestion, and give you a chance to realize the real joy of living. Try it.—Adv.

The greatest celebration in the history of the world is yet to come. It will mark the triumph of arms over the enemies of mankind.

Comparatively little powder will be burned in America in celebration of the Fourth. Explosives will be saved for use against the country's enemies.

We understand Wakefield is talking of paving. Wayne is talking of doing the same thing. Anyone who looks over the streets of any Nebraska town, knows that paving is very important and would be a source of great relief.

If weather conditions continue as favorable as they have been up to this time, Wayne county will turn out a crop of corn of surpassing size and value.

FOURTH AT GOLF GROUND

Day on Course Will Be For Benefit of the Local Red Cross.

Several interesting golf matches were played in the president's and directors' flight of the local golf tournament now on at the Country Club.

The president's flight H. H. Hahn defeated J. Ringland four down. B. F. Strahan won from Fred Berry by default.

The patriotic tournament tomorrow promises to be an interesting one. It is what is known as a blind golfers' average score and he will be given a handicap sufficient to make his score equal hogs.

WITH THE MOVIE STARS

William S. Hagg made fifty-one speeches for the liberty loan in ten days, and personally collected over $2,000,000 worth of subscriptions.

"Any time I'm wanted to go to war, I'm ready," quotes Billy. "I've seen wars and I've seen liberty drives give me war."

Roscoe Arbuckle, not having enough to do in writing his own stories, directing his own pictures, acting in them, and cutting his film, decided himself to be an editor.

The glad news has been okayed that Shirley Mason, the clever little sister of Viola Dana, will be starred by Paramount, also by Ethel Clayton. Both will work in the western studios.

Lottie Pickford is seen on the screen again with her brother, Jack, in "Mile-a-Minute-Kendall." Lottie has done little screen work for some time, but is now being readied for her return to home duties and looking after Mary, Jr.

PEACE BY COMPULSION. Omaha World-Herald: Ex-President Taft and Roosevelt will attend a meeting of New York Republicans July 18. The party leaders have probably entered into a league to enforce peace.

SERIOUS. Chicago Daily News: It Von Kuhlmann really spilled the German beans he committed a grave offense against the fatherland. Germany having few unspilled beans left.

UNTHINKABLE. New York World: It would have been impossible to convince the third George that President Taft will not take a New York one day eat-buck-wheat cake in an American canteen at his capital and practice baseball in a field in a Fourth of July celebration.

A JOB FOR THE COLONEL. Springfield Union: Unless Col. Roosevelt is too busily engaged in other directions, it might be worth his while to try to ascertain who was responsible for classifying the manufacture of baby carriages as a nonessential industry.

MAKE YOUR OWN COMMENT. Chicago Evening Post: Kereinsky is hailed as the man of the future in Russia. Bevo is hailed as the drink of the future by certain of our citizens. We have nothing against Bevo, but draw your own parallel.

UNUSUAL MODERATION. New York World: The express business is an exception these days in that its permitted increase of rates is only 10 per cent.

Waterloo Times-Tribune: It is a good sign when Austria-Hungary announces itself as going for peace as for bread.

AMERICA—THE SYMBOL OF FAITH AND HOPE

By GEO. W. GOETHALS
Acting Quartermaster General

EVERY American citizen should be proud of the American Red Cross. It is daily, indeed hourly, giving an example of mercy to the whole world. Through its operations the suffering of soldiers and civilians is being alleviated.

The American people should continue to support the American Red Cross. Through it they are helping their own men and helping the allies. Through it they are making America the symbol of faith and hope in a distracted world.

GEO. W. GOETHALS,
Acting Quartermaster General.

THE BOY IN KHAKI

By K. C. B.

I saw a mother,
And her brown clad boy,
I saw her foot
On that sand day.
I saw her foot
On that sand day.
I saw her foot
On that sand day.

I THANK YOU

Another picture came
And wounded men
Looked up at it.
And raised their arms
For the smile.
And He was there,
And as I gazed.

One Million Sweaters For Army and Navy

The American Red Cross is the greatest volunteer organization that the world has ever seen. It was announced by one of the high officials in Washington that millions of people are and have been for some months here's pay. This includes the members of the local chapters and all other employees in this country and abroad. One significant item in this is the fact that the Red Cross has given the army and navy over 1,000,000 sweaters for the boys in the service, of which over 600,000 were made by the members of the local chapters. You who know the difficulty of making sweaters can estimate the character of the work and the self sacrifice that the women of America are making to support the Red Cross' mission of furnishing relief to our young soldiers and sailors. If it is my earnest hope that all of our people will cheerfully and generously cooperate with the Red Cross committee in their efforts towards relieving the fullest measure of suffering that it may be possible for the world to attain.

Archdeacon of Baltimore.

THE EARLY DAYS IN TWO COUNTRIES

From the Wayne Herald, July 7, 1898.
Albert Jacobs shipped two cars of cattle to Omaha.

Ted Perry was in Chicago with a shipment of cattle.
A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gill July 7, 1898.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Mort McManigal June 31.
Emil Weber and family went to Omaha to attend the exposition.

Miss Mary Coyle returned from a three weeks' visit in Herman, Neb. Superintendent Miss C. M. White visited her brother, W. J. White, at Neligh, Neb.

S. E. Auker returned from Sheridan county where he shipped a lot of round steak.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Young of Kanesaw, visited their son, E. B. Young, in Wayne.

Herb Eber entertained a party of young friends in the celebration of her eighth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Carpenter of Monticello, Ia., and guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Main.

F. Allen Marsh and Miss Julianna Mort were united in marriage June 30, by County Judge E. Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. French, of Sioux City spent the Fourth in Wayne with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Tucker.

Miss Maude Reynolds suffered a badly sprained ankle, caused by a fall while attending the celebration at Laurel.

The Misses Phillo and Sweet and Messrs. Frank Nangle and E. B. Phillo drove to Pender to celebrate the Fourth.

B. P. Orth and son were passengers to Chicago. Harry Craven assisted in the drugstore during the former's absence.

Dr. W. A. Ivory expected to start for Canada to visit three or four weeks with relatives.

Dr. C. G. Nieman went to Quincy, Ill., where Mrs. Nieman had meals at the bed of her mother who was seriously ill.

From Ponca Journal, July 3, 1879: George Carney of Monticello, Ia., started for home this morning. He has decided to turn to this county and locate a stock farm and nursery on the Logan.

After all, the crops in this county will be first rate this year. Dixon county will have an abundance of wheat, oats, corn, and potatoes. In Dakota county, also, the growing crops look admirably.

The river still continues to vent its spite against Covington, and is now creating great havoc at that place, washing in the bank at a tremendous rate. It is undoubtedly the intention of Old Muddy to annihilate the town from the face of the earth.

E. A. Feather of LaPorte, Wayne county, came over on Sunday and returned home Monday. Mr. Feather was until last fall a clerk in Dr. Wyckoff's drug store, and then went to LaPorte, where he has since been teaching school. He likes the place and county very much, and proposes to remain there permanently. He states that the crops of growing wheat, corn, etc., look fine, and the prospect never was better for large yields.

Wesley E. D. Booge, John I. Booge, and H. R. Prather, came up over the C. & B. H. R. R. last evening, and favored us with a call. Mr. John I. Booge has been appointed superintendent of the road by Mr. Love, the receiver. Mr. Prather will hold the position of secretary, the same as before. There is to be a major change in the running of the trains. On and after next Monday, the train will leave

PARCELS TO SOLDIERS.

The original order that the approval of a regimental or higher commander was necessary before packages might be sent to members of the expeditionary forces has been modified so officers with the rank of major and higher may approve shipments. The approval of a company commander is not sufficient.

The question of the shipment of parcels to France first came to the attention of the War Department when the commanding general of the expeditionary forces called that question of such articles had reached such a point that French railroads were unable to handle the load. A board appointed by the Secretary of War and the Quartermaster General examined 5,000 sacks of parcel post mail and found that the articles being sent, not only in the main, are of no military necessity, but undesirable. The investigation showed that the amount of such mail had reached a total of 500,000 packages a week, and was steadily increasing.

Relatives and friends, according to a recent statement by the War Department, will find they often can do a great service to soldiers by sending them money for the purchase of articles in France than by forwarding the articles. Tobacco is now being supplied as part of the army rations, and merchandise of nearly all kinds may now be purchased in France through the huge general store established by the Quartermaster corps at lower prices than charged by retailers here.

PROVISIONS AT SEA.

An account of how soldiers are fed at sea is given in the newspaper published on a transport. "Outside of providing 210,000 meals at sea, the mess officer of the ship has very little to do. Very little."

"He is only called upon to provide, by the regulations, 180 different varieties of food. That's all he has to try to order 180 different things to eat? Yet this is the authentic list."

"The food needed to feed several thousand men at sea ranges beyond the glutton's dreams. You get the answer in the ship down below the water line, where 7,200 loaves of bread have been baked in one day, and where you stumble over every variety, from 60,000 pounds of beef to 132,000 eggs, or a compartment of brick ice cream in a 10-degree refrigerator."

"And if this doesn't suit, you can bump along into 49,234 pounds of potatoes, 7,100 pounds of ham and bacon, 7,800 pounds of butter, 2,200 pounds of sugar, and 61,500 pounds of flour."

"If you can't get a meal out of this, you can still fall back on 4,600 pounds of sausage, 3,400 pounds of sauerkraut, 26,000 pounds of apples, 19,800 pounds of oranges, and 4,200 pounds of onions. And this leaves out 1,600 pounds of jam and 9,400 pounds of lima and navy beans."

ASKING LITTLE OF US.

United City Kream Journal: The men in the army and navy are doing without luxuries. Surely we can do as much here at home if it will help any.

A SECRET.

New York Evening Sun: Official statistics show that four articles of food decreased in price during the war: mackerel, codfish, butter, and eggs. If they had only told the butcher and grocer about it.

NO DOUBT OF THE RESULT.

Kansas City Times: If Pan-America decides to go after Pan-Germany, it isn't difficult to foretell which will get panned!

ONE WAY TO GET IT.

Chicago Daily News: If Austria and Germany really need food, they may have a minimum amount of additional surrender at the discretion of the allies.

PROFIT BY THIS.

Don't Waste Another Day. When you are worried by backache, by lameness and urinary disorders—Don't experiment with an untried medicine. Follow Wayne people's example. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's Wayne testimony: "I was here if you wish."

Mrs. H. Kellough says: "I was subject to frequent attacks of kidney trouble. I found Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Felter's Pharmacy, to be just what I needed, at those times and the trouble always went away. I had suffered from nagging pains in my back and found it difficult to move around and lift because of the sharp twinges it caused. I would feel depressed and nervous, too. Doan's Kidney Pills always gave me great relief, so I don't hesitate to endorse them."

Price 60 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—follow Doan's Kidney Pills, which Mrs. Kellough had. Foster-McBurm Company, Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

Alfalfa Time Has Come

You can't afford to risk losing the crop because of a balky mower, a dilapidated hay rake or a stacker that is ready to fall to pieces. With the prospects of several cuttings of heavy crops, which will no doubt be sold at unusual prices in the fall, you could do no better than to stock up with a new outfit of hay machinery or at least to replace the tools that gave you the most trouble last year.

NOTICE OF HEARING

To the heirs, creditors, and all persons interested in the estate of George I. King, deceased. You and each of you are hereby notified that George Brunst has filed his petition in the county court of Wayne county, Nebraska, alleging that George I. King died intestate at his residence in Jersey county, Illinois, on March 12, 1873, at the time of his death he was seized of real estate in Wayne county, Nebraska, including the Northeast Quarter of Section Twenty-three (N. E. 1/4 of N. E. 1/4 of Sec. 23), Township Twenty-five (25), north of Range Three (3) east of the 6th p. m. in Wayne county, Nebraska, and left surviving him as his sole and only heirs at law, his widow, Emily B. King, his daughter, Ella K. Smith, also known as Ella K. Smith, and his daughter, Clara Moore, also known as Clara K. Moore and Clara King Moore. That all claims, debts, and demands against said real estate have been paid in full. That said estate has never been administered in Nebraska. That George Brunst is the owner in fee simple of said Northeast Quarter of the Northeast Quarter of Section Twenty-three (N. E. 1/4 of N. E. 1/4 of Sec. 23) Township twenty-five (25) north of Range Three (3) east of the 6th p. m., above described. Petitioner prays for a finding and decree determining the date of the death of said George I. King, deceased; a determination of heirs, the degree of kinship and right of descent of said real estate, and for an order barring claims of creditors, and prays for such other relief as may be proper. Said petitioner will be heard at the county court room in Wayne county, Nebraska, on the 18th day of July, A. D. 1918, at 10 o'clock a. m., at which time and place the heirs, creditors, and all persons interested in said estate may appear and show cause why a decree should not be made and entered as prayed in said petition.

Dated this 15th day of July, A. D. 1918.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

Addresses Wanted by Governor's Office to Enable Voting.

The governor's office is endeavoring to establish a card index system which contains data concerning every Nebraskan now in the service. This information is gathered primarily for the purpose of giving to Nebraska soldiers and sailors an opportunity to exercise their voting privileges. It is Governor Neville's desire, however, to make the record kept in this office such as will not only enable the men to vote, but will act as a source of information in cooperating with the federal government as well as serve as an authentic record of men enlisted from Nebraska. There is, at the present, no place in which such an authentic record of men enlisted regarding the noble sacrifice that these men are making and the important services they are rendering. It is the thought of the governor that a complete record of the achievements of Nebraska through her men in the service should be maintained.

The law passed by the special session of the legislature provides for a direct "voting by mail" system. Under this plan it will be an exceedingly simple matter for the soldier to exercise his right of franchise, if the governors' office is able to secure the information necessary to forward him the ballot. While the department in Washington objected to the plan of establishing election commissions and polling places abroad for the gathering of the soldier's votes, they have, since the simplicity of the Nebraska plan has been presented to them by Governor Neville, agreed to cooperate in every manner possible in assisting Nebraska soldiers and sailors to vote.

The governor's office has a list of the men inducted into the service by local exemption boards, and those enlisted in the national guard of the state. However, inasmuch as these men have been frequently transferred, it is exceedingly difficult to secure the information necessary to make this undertaking successful. Confident of the desire of every Nebraskan, and especially those who have sons or relatives in the service, that the state's record and the record of individuals be preserved, Governor Neville is calling upon all Nebraskans to assist in the gathering of this information. He is asking all newspapers in Nebraska to publish a facsimile of the card containing the information desired, together with the request that every person, having a relative or friend in the service forward all information obtainable concerning that man either to the governor's office or to the County Council of Defense. The governor also requests that when it is learned that a man has been transferred, a friend or relative notify his office of the change so that the record may be kept up to date. This is an important service which every Nebraskan can render the boys who are fighting their fight. In forwarding this information direct to the governor's office, address it "Governor Keith Neville, Nebraska Soldiers' Bureau, State House, Lincoln, Neb."

CONVERSION OF LIBERTY BONDS

Liberty bonds of the first and second issues and those obtained by converting bonds of the first issue into 4 per cent bonds can be converted into 4 per cent Liberty bonds during the six months' period beginning May 9 and ending November 9, 1918. The new bonds will be dated May 9, 1918. After November 9, 1918, no further rights of conversion will attach to the 4 per cent bonds, either the original bonds of the second loan or those obtained by conversion of bonds of the first loan. All of the 4 per cent bonds are non-convertible.

Bonds for conversion may be surrendered at any federal reserve bank or at the Treasury department. Registered bonds must be assigned to the Secretary of the Treasury for conversion, but such assignment need not be witnessed.

On conversion of registered bonds registered bonds only will be delivered, neither change of ownership nor change into coupon bonds being permitted.

Coupon bonds, however, may be converted into registered bonds upon request. Coupon bonds must have the May 15 or June 15, 1918, coupons detached and all subsequent coupons attached. Coupon bonds issued from conversion will have only four interest coupons attached, and later must be exchanged for new bonds with the full number of coupons attached.

PRIMARY ELECTION.

Notice is hereby given that on Tuesday, the 20th day of August, 1918, at the usual voting places in each precinct of the county, a primary election will be held for the nomination by each political party of candidates as follows:

A McCormick Takes the Delays Out of Harvest. A Grain Saver wherever used. It is proven by many years of successful behavior in the grain fields of the nation.

WHEN TIME IS SHORT AND HELP IS SCARCE; WHEN HAIL, WIND AND HEAVY RAIN THREATENS, A DEPENDABLE MCCORMICK BINDER GIVES YOU AN ASSURANCE OF SAVING THE GREATEST POSSIBLE AMOUNT OF GRAIN IN THE SHORTEST TIME.

A Binder for Adverse Conditions

Few binders will do as good work as the McCormick in down grain. This is partly due to the range of adjustment of the reel, which can be lowered and moved forward to pick up grain that is lying almost flat on the ground. It is easy to force the down grain upon the platform canvas because of the construction of the platform and guard bar. The portion of the guards over which the knife runs is only one and five-eighths inches from the bottom of the platform. The guards are curved upward near the point so that the platform can be tilted to cut as short as three-fourth inch stubble without running the guards into the ground. If a binder will do good work under these field conditions, it stands to reason that it will work well in standing grain.

By placing your order now, you can be sure of a McCormick when you need it. Come in and talk this over.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.

In the District Court of Wayne County, Nebraska.

In the matter of the application of Lina Tarnow, guardian of the persons and estates of Fred Tarnow, Emil Tarnow, and Anna Tarnow, minors, for leave to sell real estate.

On this 22day of June, 1918, this cause came on before me, Anson A. Welch, Judge of the District Court of Wayne County, Nebraska, and upon reading the petition presented to me duly verified and filed with the Clerk of this Court by Lina Tarnow, guardian of the persons and estates of Fred Tarnow, Emil Tarnow and Anna Tarnow, minors, for leave to sell the interest of said minors in and to the following described real estate situated in Wayne County, Nebraska, to-wit: The East Half of the Southeast Quarter of Section Thirty-Six (E. 1/2 of S. E. 1/4 of Sec. 36) Township Twenty-Six (26), north of Range Four (4), east of the 6th P. M., and it appearing from said petition that said real estate is owned in common by said minors together with other owners of the undivided interest therein, and it appearing that it would be for the benefit of said minors, and of their said estates that their interest in said land be sold and the proceeds put at interest or invested in some productive stock;

It is therefore ordered that the next of kin of said minors and all persons interested in their estates appear before me as Judge of said Court, at the courthouse in Wayne, in said Wayne County, Nebraska, on the 27th day of July, 1918, at 3 o'clock, p. m., to show cause, if any there be, why license should not be granted to the said Lina Tarnow, guardian of said minors, to sell their interest in said above described real estate for the purpose above set forth.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order be published at least three (3) successive weeks, once each week, in the Wayne Herald, a legal weekly newspaper, printed, published, and in general circulation in said county of Wayne, Nebraska, and that it shall not be necessary to make personal service of this order upon the next of kin or other persons interested in said estate.

Done in vacation the date above written.

First Baptist Church. (Rev. J. Fletcher Jordan, Pastor.) Communion next Sunday morning at 10:30 a. m. Evening worship at 8 p. m. Sunday school at 11:30 a. m. Everyone is kindly asked to remain with us for this hour's study of the bible.

Y. P. U. at 7 p. m. Sunday evening. The subject is: "All for Christ—Our Abilities." Matt. 25:14-30. This is a consecration meeting.

Prayer meeting each week at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening. Let us not forget the divine injunction of our Master to "assemble ourselves together."

Choir rehearsal Thursday evening at 8.

The Ladies' union meets each Wednesday afternoon at the Red Cross rooms to do the needed work in that department of service.

The audiences were good at both services last Sunday and we ask that we may have you with us again this coming one to worship God in spirit and in truth. The Sunday was made for man to rest and worship God by coming to his house. All people are most cordially requested to make our church your home, if you have no other church home.

Methodist Episcopal Pastor. (Rev. D. W. McCaskey, Pastor.) The Methodist church in Wayne is doing things worth while. The pipe organ is being overhauled, re-installed, and a new electric motor and blower are being added at a cost of over $500. The organ builders who are say the instrument is a first-class instrument. Professor Coleman and his large choir are delighted with the changes made. Sunday services next Sunday as follows:

Sunday school at 10 a. m. Teachers and pupils are awake to their duties, and the superintendents are on the job to make it work.

The student class is surely a hummer, and Miss Beechel, the teacher, is to be congratulated for her class of half a hundred students.

Sermon, 11 a. m. Subject: "The Seven Churches of Asia." A series of sermons.

Epworth league, 7 p. m. Intermediate league, 7 p. m. Boy Scouts at same hour.

Sermon at 8 p. m. The pastor expects to preach both morning and evening.

Last Sunday was a red letter day of success. Large congregations greeted the pastor both morning and evening. After the morning sermon, a father and his four sons were baptized. Brother Guy W. Albert, son of Dr. Young, and wife united with the church. More additions to follow. We grow, to serve, worship, and honor the "King of Kings."

We extend a cordial invitation to the citizens who are not members of other churches to worship with us. Strangers always welcome, and meet in the spirit of the Lord Christ, who said, "I was a stranger and ye took me in."—Matt. xxv.

Presbyterian Church. (Rev. S. Xenophon Cross, Pastor.) Persons desiring to unite with the church should plan to meet the session on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

The communion of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated at the church next Sunday at the hour of morning worship. Children will be baptized.

"How Jesus Spent His Vacation" will be the subject of the sermon at the evening service next Sunday. We cordially invite you to attend. Go to church next Sunday, and every Sunday.

Sunday school convenes at 11:30 a. m. Every teacher is to make an effort to have a full attendance next Sunday. No man is too busy, no woman is too precious, that he can not afford to spend a small part of the day in seven in church.

The Y. P. S. C. E. contest is still going on. We gained upon Wakefield last Sunday, but are still behind. The only way to help is to be present for C. E. and do the other things required by the contest. Don't make the specious plea that you're too busy to go to church.

Go to church next Sunday, by all means. The busiest men in the county find time to go to church. Do you? You can if you want to. Go next Sunday.

BEEF, SUGAR, AND WHEAT. Omaha, Neb., July 3.—Beef, sugar, and wheat must be conserved at all hazards, says the food administrator for Nebraska. The conservation measures regarding these commodities will be continued that we may meet immediate needs and also build up a reserve which will meet demands later in the season. There will be no letup in the regulations, announces the food administration.

SLACKERS SENTENCED. Plainview, Neb., June 29.—Fritz Harlow who was arrested several weeks ago and taken to Omaha, to appear before the federal authorities charged with being a slacker for failure to register and trying to evade the draft, has received his sentence. The sentence given requires that he serve in the army during the present war and finish out his term of twenty years in the penitentiary.

Charles Senter, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Senter, had his left arm and hand badly burned Friday, while playing with a firecracker. He had put the lighted firecracker in his mouth and put his hand over the top. When the cracker exploded the powder was blown into the boy's hand and the broken glass into his arm. A physician dressed the wounds and took several stitches in one deep cut.

THE FOUNDATION VIRTUE. Dr. Frank Crane. Loyalty is the first virtue. A man may be temperate and industrious, courteous and kind, but if he has not loyalty is as if he had put on white kid gloves over dirty hands. Loyalty is the foundation of virtue. For if one has all other excellences but lacks elements both of strength and charm, and has not loyalty he has built his house on the sand and great will be his fall thereof.

THE COUNCIL OF DEFENSE

Besides Resolutions, Remends Prices for Threshing.

In addition to passing a resolution advising merchants to keep open their places of business every Wednesday evening, as published on page two of the first section of today's Herald, the Wayne County Council of Defense passed the following resolution in regard to pool and billiard halls:

"Whereas the Wayne County Council of Defense is desirous during the national crisis, of promoting all useful labor and necessary industries.

"Therefore, be it resolved, that said Wayne County Council of Defense hereby recommends that during the present scarcity of labor all pool and billiard halls and bowling alleys in the county of Wayne be closed as to the operation of said pool and billiard tables and bowling alleys that all seats be removed therefrom, that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the municipal authorities of each incorporated city and village in Wayne county, Neb.—Wayne County Council of Defense, John T. Bressler, Chairman.

The council recommends the following prices for threshing the 1918 crops: Five cents per bushel for oats, seven cents for barley and eight cents for rye and wheat. It also recommends that wages paid during harvest and having do not exceed forty-five cents per hour, and that fuel be employed by the hour.

The council has had cards printed to be displayed in every business house in the county, directing everyone to use only the English language in public places, over the telephone, or anywhere.

TO MEET SUGAR SHORTAGE.

Omaha, Neb., July 3.—With only 1,000,000 tons of sugar available to supply the United States during the remainder of the year, drastic sugar regulations have been put into effect by the food administration. To meet this emergency, regulations on the strictest rationing, we will have to cut our consumption 25 per cent, announces the Nebraska organization.

The rationing regulations are: All buyers of sugar except the householders for home consumption, must secure certificates and present as made, certificates of sugar in present form. Retailers will secure rationing certificates from their county food administrator. All others will get theirs from the Omaha office.

Householders may buy up to exceed two pounds at any one time in rural and town and five pounds in city communities. While householders are entitled to three pounds per person each month, they are asked to eat only two pounds per month.

Public eating places are prohibited from putting sugar bowls on their tables or counters.

Families can get twenty-five pounds for canning and preserving purposes. Additional twenty-pound lots can be bought only on a certificate issued by the county food administrator.

The manufacture of ice and sherbets is now prohibited.

Boarding houses, feeding twenty-five people or more, must secure certificates for their sugar.

FOR THE SENATE.

Fairbury News: "I am ready and willing to do everything I possibly can to aid our president in this great work," says Henry Ford in accepting the senatorial nomination which the president has asked him to take. "This great work" doubtless refers to the war against the Mr. Ford can do more to help the war by being in the senate than by being in his automobile factory in Detroit. He has lented the lawmaking trade. The Romans had a good adage, "Ne sutor ultra crepidam," which translated means, "Let the shoemaker stick to his last."

DEATH OF YOUNG WOMAN.

Mrs. Ellen Nelson, formerly Ellen Vay, daughter of Mrs. Clara McGeorge, who was killed in a car accident in Paris, Tex., Thursday, June 27. The deceased is survived by one child and her husband who is in the government service in France. She also leaves her mother and one sister, Velma.

The body accompanied by the mother and sister passed through Wayne Sunday evening en route to Winside, where the funeral and interment took place Monday afternoon.

ABOUT BUSINESS WOMEN.

"There's no such thing as a consistent business woman," says Mabel Normand, who ought to know, for she is the star of the Crystal Theatre as the star of Goldwyn's "The Venus Model," in which she stands at the helm of a prosperous business concern, to succeed in her career.

"By that I mean no girl ever forgets herself completely in the responsibility of business, as men do," she went on. "She is a woman first of all, and she never sees one that didn't remain so, no matter how important her work in the business world might be. Her clothes, her manner, her little vanities all proclaim her sex. She never becomes impersonal as men do."

Asked why she did not portray a sentimental business woman, she answered in feminine attire—in "The Venus Model," the sprightly star shot an amused glance at her questioner as she replied:

"Because as I said before, there isn't any such thing. Even though Kitty O'Brien—that's the character I assume—is the lead designer of the clothing—quite unostentatious with no end of cares and problems, she is just a girl—and in love, too. Her business instinct—and her heart's protest—keep her constantly at bay. You see, Kitty is in love with a man who is supposed to be under her supervision, and the poor girl has a hard time trying to be strict and exacting and at the same time warm-hearted and appealing. She wouldn't have the man know she cares for him, yet she wouldn't treat of equality. The cast comprises the most interesting part of it, too. I was disappointed. I can see an air-raid on any star-ling night, but at a movie, and a Fairbanks one at that, is an epoch here."

Mabel Normand, herself most feminine and piquant, would have a hard time being anything but the favorite of a public which loves her for those qualities.

MOVIES AT THE FRONT.

The popularity of the motion picture is equally as tremendous in the American camps in England and behind the lines in France as it is at home, says the August Motion Picture Magazine. The part it plays in the lives of our soldier boys "over there" is graphically depicted in a letter written by a New York boy to his mother from a training camp near London.

"Our amusements here are limited," he wrote. "American movies are paramount (not a pun). I was watching Doug Fairbanks in some of his latest stunts the other night when the show was interrupted by the boom of guns, and the clatter of bells, and across the screen there flashed the notice that the air raid warning had just sounded. Of course the show stopped, and right in the midst of the most interesting part of it, too. I was disappointed. I can see an air-raid on any star-ling night, but at a movie, and a Fairbanks one at that, is an epoch here."

"THE WHISPERING CHORUS"

"I consider 'The Whispering Chorus' one of the finest examples of the perfect motion picture that I have ever seen," said Emil Kehrlein, manager of the Los Angeles Kinema theatre just prior to the production's opening there. "It contains all the essential elements of a drama of life—sympathy, humor and interest, thrill, love, tragedy and hope. And it is also the strangest story I have ever seen in photoplay form. It is tribute to the art of Cecil B. De Mille."

A CHINESE CELEBRATION.

A Chinese New Year celebration in which three hundred Celestials take part is announced as one of the big scenes which Cecil B. De Mille took recently for "The Whispering Chorus," the forthcoming Lasky production. A replica of a village in China was constructed and the scene was photographed at night. Lights hung from the rafters and were strung across the street on streamers, and Chinese dragons, spitting fire, were dragged along by prancing Celestials.

Marie Dressler launched a patriotic drive among the fat women by

"A MAN'S MAN"

A picturization of the novel by Peter B. Kyne, famous for his short stories, with J. Warren Kerrigan as the star and an excellent supporting cast.

A smashing, big, romantic photodrama, this with a role that fits the versatile star like a glove. Full of rapid-fire action and quick transition of scenes, with enough thrills and suspense to tickle the palate of the most jaded "movie fan." As the young mining engineer returning from the West where he has made a great strike, John Stuart Webster makes a visit to the little Central American republic of Solobruca. What happens to him there makes an all too short five reels of action. You'll like it.

"THE SEVEN SWANS."

Dainty Marguerite Clark, following her custom of making one fairy story each year, will be seen in "The Seven Swans," a delightfully whimsical fantasy adapted from Hans Anderson's fairy tale by J. Searle Dawley, who is also the director. The story is for children of all ages and deals with the adventures of a certain princess Tweedledee and her seven brothers. A wicked queen, desiring to gain control of the rich kingdom over which they rule, transforms the brothers into seven white swans, and orders Princess Tweedledee thrown into a dark and gloomy dungeon filled with rats. How she escapes, and after three years and a day succeeds in saving her brothers and returning them to their human form, make a fascinating photoplay. The cast comprises Miss Clark includes handsome Richard Barthelmess as the Prince Charming, Daisy Bellmore as the Queen, and others equally well known.

MARGUERITE CLARK in "The Seven Swans"

THE IDEAL WOMAN.

George Walsh: "Of course, all girls are ideal in one way or another, but girlish prettiness of all styles pleases my eye, and being of the black-haired type I naturally prefer a blonde with blue eyes—natural, if possible, not of the peroxide and blue eye-pencil persuasion. You see, from my experience around the picture studios, I know all the little tricks of 'make-up'—most of them go to yesterday. Being tall myself, I like a girl as high as my heart, which means that she must be over five feet for conventional kissing without straining the neck; and she must be fond of children and kind to animals—especially me. She may dress in any style she please, because if she is the right girl, any style will suit her as well as to suit me. She must like music—any kind—because she's got to put up with my singing which is of the long distance athletic sort, strong in wind and endurance, even if it scarcely rivals Caruso's quality and technique. Only one habit I bar: she must not chew gum. I chew it myself, sometimes, to keep my throat moist, during a race or some athletic stunt, but I simply cannot abide gum-chewing girls. It ranks third, guesse."

Douglas Fairbanks—It was a sunny day in the fall of 1917, when I first met this "ideal woman" of mine. New York was the great town for a great parade, and Fifth Avenue was lined with eager spectators. The United States had been at war for several months, but it had not yet become OF it. The American pocketbook had done its share even as it had since the days of the Revolution. My own American heart had not been touched. It needed just the touch that this splendid woman was to give it. As she came toward me, I saw her eyes through of people, a hand someone where flared into the strains of our National Anthem, and far up the Avenue could be seen the dynamic flash of the white figures of women advancing in steady rows. Four after four they passed the reviewing stand, and I saw the light of a supreme resolve and sacrifice, and I thought came to me then, that, as nearly as possible, this American Red Cross was, after all, the nearest possible approach to "ideal."

MOVIE DICTIONARY.
(Motion Picture Magazine)

Actors—The only honest hypocrites.

Baby—A soft bundle of love and trouble; a padlock on the chain of love; it makes home happier, love stronger, patience greater, hands busier, nights longer, days shorter, purses lighter, the past forgotten, the future brighter. Very few photoplays are produced that are not based on one of these precious nutcases.

Coiffure—An insurmountable obstacle obstructing the view; to be found in all public places, particularly in the picture theaters.

Discase—Nature's inexorable penalty for broken laws.

Economy—Going without today's pleasures in order to be able to buy pleasure, what we are to do by refraining from going to the movies because we might need the dime in our old age.

Fan—(1) A red-hot movie enthusiast. (2) An instrument designed to prevent one's getting hot. Gum—Movie refreshments.

Health—A sound mind in a sound body.

Influence—The light which a good character in photoplay sheds; the shadow which an evil character spreads.

Limburger—A cheese of the first rank. Makes a delicious refreshment when carried to the movies and eaten between the acts.

Math—A monster invented by D. W. Griffith with the hands of Briareus but the head of Polyphemus—strong to execute but blind to perceive.

Originally—Judicious imitation. Porter—(Pullman)—A train robber.

Queered—A theme for a thousand photoplays. A contract couched in parliamentary language, between two persons who agree to disagree.

Tomorrow—A bird that is always flying toward us, but which never gets here.

Vices—Our neighbors' bad habits.

Widow—An expression used by learned philosophers such as the Answer Man, meaning simply the knowing-how-to-keep-the-wolf-and-the-dog-in-the-door.

Youth—The age of an ordinary man till he is twenty, and of a woman till she is forty; the age of an actor till he is fifty and of an actress till she is seventy.

The friends of "Fatty" Arbuckle had a good laugh at the rotund comedian's expense at Arrowhead Springs, Cal. the other day. Some of them told them he would gain "pep" and added joy in life if he would take the baths, and "Fatty" fell for it. It wasn't but a very few days before he began to fall away quite perceptibly, whereupon he suddenly quit the bathing and went on an unlimited diet of milk and eggs. Latest reports from Arrowhead are that "Fatty's" fortune is no longer in jeopardy.

Roscoe Arbuckle is the proud owner of an identification tag presented by Company C, 159th Infantry, of which he is godfather. This tag is solid gold, bears the company's identification number and an inscription to the comedian from the 159th.

Sessue Hayakawa has gone to Princeton with his company, whence they will proceed to picturesque Monterey Bay to film a story which the Japanese actor wrote two years ago and patiently saved up until such time as he would be an independent producer. Marin Sais and Mary Anderson will have fine roles.

There is, according to reports from the Hollywood studio of Famous Players-Lasky, a treat in store for the fair film fans when "Old Wives for New" is released. The gowns are said to be gorgeous.

Fatty Arbuckle is some Liberty Bond hooster, for he's not only a member of the First National Bank here, but has subscribed $50,000 to the third edition. His previous buys represent quite a regal sum, too.

The story of "Miss" Artcraft believes, will offer the most unique opportunity. Mary Pickford has yet had to display her diversified talents, her versatility and her charm of characterization.

Mae Marsh is the busy little good Samaritan these days, says the Goldwyn press department. Since her return from Georgia where "The Glorious Adventure" was filmed, she has been sending the "Miss" news presents.

Wakefield News

Miss Elizabeth Durrie of the Herald staff is editor of this department, and will visit Wakefield every Tuesday for news contributions to these columns from town or country will be gladly received by her. She is also authorized to receive new or renewed subscriptions.

Miss Hildar Larson visited the latter part of last week with relatives in Carroll.

Miss Georgia Bowers left Friday morning for a course in nursing. Mrs. E. Wallin and baby of Chicago arrived in Wakefield last Thursday to visit with the former's father, J. A. Seagraves.

Mrs. Lillian Brown and daughters, Mrs. Nellie Ross and Miss Frances Brown, spent Sunday with friends at the home of Mrs. E. Wallin. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ekeroth and family drove to Sioux City Saturday and while there witnessed the building of the Ruf Dug control building.

Mrs. Noah Weaver accompanied her son William and family to the home of Mrs. E. Wallin, Wakefield, Thursday, to their home Friday.

Miss Edith McGinnis, whose home is in North Dunning, arrived here Friday evening to spend ten days at the home of her aunt, Miss Frances Mitchell.

Miss Edith Williams returned home Sunday afternoon. She took a week's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Bressler at Pleasant Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Johnston and two daughters, Omaha spent a few days in Wakefield this week with the former's mother, Mrs. J. W. Shellington and other relatives.

A large number of young people members of the Wakefield Luther League, attended the Luther conference which was held in Concord Friday to Sunday of last week.

Mrs. J. T. Marriott left the latter part of last week for Bennettsville, S. C., to visit her daughter, Mrs. Baird Koenigs. Mrs. Koenigs will be remembered as Miss Caroline Marriott.

Cards were received in Wakefield this week announcing the marriage of Miss Louis Patrick of Rosalie, Neb., to Mr. Charles Wells of Kansas, which took place in Omaha, June 25. Miss Patrick taught in the high school at Wakefield about four years ago.

Miss Esther Lundberg completed her course in nursing at the Clark hospital in Omaha and last week received a call from the government to report at Washington, D. C., July 10. She expects to sail for France shortly on a Red Cross nurse at the front.

Mrs. Walter Caulk and children and Mrs. Vondrak of Sioux City, arrived last week in Wakefield to visit the former's father, William Harrison and other relatives. Mrs. Vondrak returned to Sioux City Tuesday, but Mrs. Caulk and family remained for an indefinite period. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Carlson and Mr. and Mrs. Alva Bowman drove to Wakefield by automobile from Camp Funston, Saturday. Mr. Carlson and Mr. Bowman who are in training at that place, are enjoying a five days' leave. Mr. and Mrs. Bowman drove to North Saturday evening to visit the latter's parents. Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Alsen and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Anton Holmberg and family drove to Sioux City, Sunday, and spent the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Faus and family. They returned to Wakefield that evening accompanied by Mrs. Faus and two sons who are visiting at the Holmberg home. Mrs. Faus and Mrs. Holmberg are sisters.

A congregational meeting was held in the Presbyterian church, Sunday morning when it was decided to extend a formal call to Rev. Peter Orr of Lincoln to become pastor of the Wakefield Presbyterian church. Rev. Orr has been pastor of a Reform church in Lincoln for fourteen years, but is desirous to take up the work in the Presbyterian denomination. He comes highly recommended as a student and will no doubt satisfy the people in this place.

Birth Record.

A daughter, Marion Emily, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Howard, June 29. Mr. Howard who has been stationed at Camp Funston, was expected home the first of this week. The mother and child are both getting along nicely.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. E. Sandahl, June 26, at the home southwest of Wakefield. The little lad has been named Carl Forest.

War Savings Societies.

A meeting was held in the high school auditorium Friday evening for the purpose of organizing war savings societies. A plan was decided upon in which the town of Wakefield was divided into ten war savings societies at the head of which are to be a president and secretary. The plan is to include every resident a member of a society. A meeting was arranged for the first of this week among the officers to make definite plans for carrying on the work.

Flag Dedicated on the Fourth.

In addition to the already published program for the Fourth at Wakefield, there will be the dedication of a Community Service flag, upon which are to be placed stars representing all those who have gone from Wakefield and surrounding community. This will become the property of the town and will fly from the poles on the school grounds, probably at other times being kept at the auditorium. For this flag the town is indebted to the students of the Red Cross chapter and to the committee of the Commercial club in charge of the arrangements for the Fourth, the former being responsible for the work of securing the flag and putting on the stars and the latter for the cost of the same. The ceremony of dedication will be part of the program after the picnic dinner at the park, and in form will be somewhat as follows: Rev. F. Williams, presiding; Dedication of the Roll, John D. Haskell, Dedicatory Declaration, Rev. J. T. Kraft, Dedicatory Prayer, Rev. C. J. Holm.

Miss Faith Haskell will be glad to hear of any young men who have gone from the community, whose names might otherwise be missed, either before or after the flag dedication, so that when complete it may be fully inclusive.

Four Minute Men.

For the next week or two the subject which the Four Minute Men are to deal with is "The Meaning of the Fourth of July." They will include a thorough exposition of our history, teaching and ideals, and should be heard by everyone, for they will help us to understand better just why America is in this war and what sort of a settlement can be agreed to at its close. Help the speakers by your attention and readiness to hear. No one should leave the theater or the bandstand until these talks are over. To those who do not attend, it is less than one hundred per cent loyalist in the eyes of all our neighbors.

Concord News.

The local chairman, Rev. F. Williams, will be glad to hear of every conscientious volunteer who will be ready to take a turn now and again in this service. The appointments for the ensuing week are as follows: Wednesday, 8:00 p. m., at the theater on Saturday evening, A. Swanson, and on Wednesday evening next week, Dr. E. G. Fleetwood; Thursday, 8:00 p. m., at the theater on a special message from President Wilson to the American people will be read by Rev. Williams, and at the regular band concert on next Wednesday evening the speaker will be C. S. Beebe.

Society News.

Miss Myrtle Carlson was hostess at an afternoon party Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alva Bowman, who was held at Camp Funston, Kas., where her husband is in training. Fifteen guests enjoyed a program which consisted of several piano selections by Miss Hazel Eberole, readings by Miss Martha Hoogner and vocal solos by the hostess. After this entertainment the ladies knitted for the soldiers. At an appropriate hour light refreshments were served.

Birthday Party.

Paula celebrated her tenth birthday Monday afternoon with party in which fourteen boys and girls were invited. The guests were provided with outdoor entertainment consisting of games and had a jolly time. Light refreshments were later enjoyed.

Surprise Party.

Twenty-four ladies took their lunch and knitting bags to the home of Mrs. W. J. C. Smith Sunday afternoon to help her celebrate her birthday. The ladies enjoyed the afternoon very much doing Red Cross work and visiting. Light refreshments were served.

Big Celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ring, who live southwest of Wakefield planned a big celebration for Friday evening and Saturday morning to honor their fortieth wedding anniversary, but on account of the war savings meetings being held on that night, the celebration was postponed until Tuesday evening, July 2, when all the relatives were invited to their home for a 6 o'clock dinner. Besides enjoying an elaborate dinner the guests also enjoyed a delightful social time. Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Kraft were also present.

Mrs. Ring invited a number of her lady neighbors to her home Friday afternoon. The time was spent in knitting and other kinds of sewing. The hostess served lunch. Mr. and Mrs. Ring were presented with a chest of silver, a gift from their children, in remembrance of the happy occasion. All the children were home at the time of the celebration with the exception of one daughter, who is living in Canada.

Swedish Lutheran Church.

(Rev. J. T. Kraft, Pastor.) "The town district of the Ladies' Aid society met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Ring, hostess. Regular services will be held in this church the coming week beginning July 7.

The Mission Church.

(Rev. C. J. Holm, Pastor.) Sunday school 10 a. m. Teaching at 10:30 a. m. The young people have their monthly meeting on July 11 at the home of John Lennart.

A large number of young people were present at the service last Sunday evening, which goes to show that the young people like to attend the services in English. This is right and proper. If we are ever going to get anywhere, we must start at some time.

Methodist Church.

(Rev. Frank Williams, Pastor.) Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Preaching services at 11:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. Epworth League at 7:00 p. m. Wednesday at 7:45 p. m., prayer meeting and mid-week service. At the splendid patriotic service held in our church last Sunday evening, stars were affixed to service flag for the following young men who have recently gone from our homes into the army, the stars in each case being pinned on the flag by the relative named: Earl E. Bruce, by his wife, Mrs. Bruce; Phillip T. Chinn, by his sister, Miss Alta Chinn; Walter J. Scott, by his brother, Mr. Guy Scott. All other services at the usual hours next Sunday. It being the first Sunday in the month the pastor will, in addition to the sermon, give a short address to the children and young people, and would like all such to stay to church service.

THE BRISCOE

The car with the Half-Million Dollar Motor

Nearly everyone who sees the Briscoe motor for the first time says, "What a clean, simple-looking motor." It is just that; simple, well enclosed, and with the minimum of wiring or outside pipes, in fact no complicated mechanism.

The Briscoe 4-24 motor was built, tested, and the first series manufactured in France in 1912 under the direction of Benjamin Briscoe, who has been prominent in America automobile manufacturing since the beginning of the industry. Associated with him in the designing and developing of this motor were the greatest automobile engineers of France. The result of the work of these men is a motor more powerful, more economical, and at the same time smoother running than any of its size yet produced.

When the manufacture of Briscoe cars was begun in America the better production methods in this country made it possible to lower the price and from the first the Briscoe has been a success.

A car so well built, made so beautiful, so strong, yet light, so powerful and economical of upkeep that every obstacle that is in the way of enjoyment is absolutely removed.

GRIEF KILLS OFFICER.

Maj. John G. Workizer Dies at St. Petersburg, Fla. Lincoln, Neb., July 1. - Maj. John G. Workizer, formerly commandant of the University of Nebraska cadets, and one of the best beloved officers ever assigned to supervise the military department of the state school, is dead, according to word received in Lincoln. Maj. Workizer, familiarly known to hundreds of Nebraskans as "Big Jack," died at St. Petersburg, Fla., on June 24. It is reported that he was unable to take an active part in the war greatly hastened his death, according to word received here.

HIGH IN PRODUCTION.

Lincoln, Neb., July 1. - Nebraska, youngest of the leading states of the union, stands third in the list of all things brought to the soil. Its total is $774,000,000 for the year 1917. This includes the value of all animals of a domestic nature. The states following the Hawkeye are Illinois, Texas, Missouri and Ohio. Nebraska is first in the production of wheat and corn and hogs and cattle. In these four items it leads the country. Nebraska's winter wheat crop will total 43,000,000 bushels, according to the department of agriculture's last estimate. This is a reduction of 4,000,000 bushels over the estimate of May 1. A further reduction it is thought, may come out as of July 1, and will make a further reduction. Seventy-eight per cent of Nebraska's farmers bet on their crop this year on raising a big crop. Last year only 43.3 per cent made the bet. The crop is being raised in Nebraska exceeded in only one other state in the union.

REPRIVE ASKED FOR COLE

Lincoln, Neb., July 1. - Gov. Keith Neville said this afternoon that Attorney General Willis E. Reed had asked him to temporarily revoke the pardon to Alton B. Cole, toward young men youth under sentence of death for the murder of Mrs. Vogt, an aged woman of Ellis. The governor said he would take Reed's request under consideration and announce his decision within a few days. Cole's execution is set for July 12.

PREST-O-LITE BATTERY. Annabel Lee of the Prest-O-Lite Clan, Drove the Family Car 12,000 miles in 18 Months. Of course Annabel had help - good help - from two sources. - Help from the little Prest-O-Lite Battery which started the big engine and fed the bright headlights. - And help from a proud father who taught her what she should know about the merits of the road and the folly of exceeding the speed limit. Thanks to the surplus power of the Prest-O-Lite, Annabel never experienced a minute when the little helpmate failed to spin the husky old engine at a touch of her toe. And thanks to the skill acquired from her clever tutor, she backed the car into only one ditch - killed only one chicken, and barked only one telegraph pole, in all that time. To keep her faithful little Prest-O-Lite Helper in one hundred per cent condition, Annabel relied solely on the Prest-O-Lite service man down on Main street. For Annabel, herself, dreadful as it may seem, did not even know what kind of grids were inside of that battery. And not once had she found it necessary to take even a peek at the heiroglyphics in the battery booklets which came with the car. You who read this, and envy Annabel, certainly can't do better than to follow her lead - join the Prest-O-Lite clan while the joining is good. Write us today for name and address of the nearest Prest-O-Lite service man, who will be glad to welcome and install you as a member of the clan in good standing.

TRAFFIC 4,000-POUND CAPACITY TRUCK.

The compelling demand for a truck—built entirely as a truck to do hard work under all the adverse conditions that a truck must operate—has made necessary the Traffic Truck of 4,000-pound capacity. In presenting to you the specifications of our product, we do so with the thorough knowledge that we are filling a long-felt want for every man and every business which has been compelled to rely on the maintenance of horse-driven vehicles. The Traffic Truck requires the smallest possible investment in transportation service and we know that it will maintain that service at less cost per ton mile than any vehicle or means of transportation now in existence. Although the price of $1,095 is approximately half the price of the conventional truck of 4,000-pound capacity, the TRAFFIC is in no sense of the word a cheap truck. Its remarkably low price is the direct result of unusually careful buying, very economical manufacturing expense, systematized selling expense, quantity production, and further, the devotion of the entire manufacturing organization to the specialization on the one model.

The TRAFFIC truck is built of the very best materials obtainable. It has unusual power, but will give unusual gasoline mileage. The frame, load-carrying member, bearings, and all load-carrying parts are oversized to insure great wearing ability. Chrome vanadium steel is generously used, and only the best materials obtainable are used in every part of the chassis. Realize there is no better truck built than the TRAFFIC 4,000-pound CAPACITY.

It will be found that the TRAFFIC TRUCK is built and powered to handle a 4,000-pound load under any circumstances or conditions—whether adverse or favorable, and the truck will prove satisfactory for years of clear and bright driving.

In the TRAFFIC 4,000-pound CAPACITY TRUCK at $1,095 this company is offering all of the very best in truck construction and at a price that would be impossible under the usual conditions.

Study the specifications carefully.

TRAFFIC SUPERIORITIES.

The lowest priced 4,000-pound capacity truck in the world. The most economical 4,000-pound capacity truck in the world to operate. Oil cup lubrication throughout. Gasoline tank mounted on dash, insuring perfect feed on all grades. High tension ignition with impulse starter, permitting quick and easy starting in any temperature. Three-joint propeller shaft with self-aligning bearing. Internal gear drive rear axle built of the highest grade materials throughout. Twenty per cent over size. Ease of control. Six-footably long frame back of driver's seat, to allow for long size body. Powerful overhead valve motor, and many other features too numerous to mention.

HARVEST COMES EARLY.

Virtually Two Weeks in Advance—Causes Anxiety for Labor.

Lincoln, Neb., July 28.—Nebraska's harvest coming practically two weeks earlier than the state in direct competition with Kansas for men and completely upset the government and state plans for solving the labor problem. No men are coming into the state from Kansas. Wyoming has announced definitely that it cannot furnish men and the Colorado harvest is on so close at hand that no men can be expected from that state.

Up to Small Towns.

E. L. Rhoades, government agent stationed at Lincoln, said that it is simply up to the small towns and cities of Nebraska to furnish the harvest hands for the state. Help may come later from without the state, but at present no aid can be expected. Nebraska's harvest is on in full blast. Early next week it will be at a peak and men will be badly needed in southern and central Nebraska.

Several counties have taken the council of defense's registration of labor and are using it to locate men. In some counties only the men in the towns have been organized. Other counties have registered on their own basis. Hastings plans to release street workers for the harvest fields. From Omaha, industrial laborers and some commercial men have gone to expect to go into the harvest fields.

Mr. Rhodes estimated that 200 men would be needed at Holdrege Monday. The entire South Platte county must be supplied at once, and no other source of supply exists but the towns of the state.

Local Bureaus Help.

Harvest help is being distributed locally by the county agents or bureaus established by the agents. The county agents in turn draw their supply from government and county agencies which have been established in the state as follows. State Department of Labor, Lincoln; United States Employment Service at Lincoln, Fairbury, Hastings and Sidney; Cooperative Employment Bureaus at Omaha and Sioux City courthouses; county agents at Holdrege, McCook and Fremont; and the Commercial clubs at Norfolk and Superior.

Eastern Nebraska is paying 45 cents an hour generally, with some farmers paying straight $4.50 a day. Western Nebraska is expected, on account of the distance to that section, to pay 50 cents an hour.

SCHLACK FARM RAIDED.

The farm home of Robert Schlack, located near Battle Creek, was raided Thursday morning by Constable Carl H. Pilger, assisted by Deputy Hermon Schick and his son. Heron was arrested on a charge of having alcoholic liquor in his possession. They both pleaded guilty to selling whisky at retail prices, 30 cents a quart and cost in Justice Norvell's court Thursday afternoon. The officers, after searching the house found two bottles of whiskey.

The raid followed the arrest of Oscar Kesterman of Meadow Grove on a charge of being drunk. He notified the police here that he had purchased the liquor from Schlack. The court made no decision in Kesterman's case, but ordered him to report in court on July 5. It is likely that Schlack would include fines in the provision for remission of fines of persons arrested for being drunk who tell where they purchased or received the liquor.

THE DRAFT AGE LIMIT.

Washington, July 28.—The senate late today rejected by a vote of 40 to 25, the Fall amendment to the $12,000,000 army appropriation bill extending the draft ages to 20 and 40 years respectively. Senator Norris of Nebraska favored the amendment, while Senator Hitchcock was opposed.

To Push Aircraft.

Settlement of the controversy, which has held senate attention for several days, clearly indicates passage of the $12,000,000 appropriation. Besides disposing of the draft age question, the senate adopted several other amendments to the authorized organization of the $10,000,000 aircraft production corporation proposed by the Aircraft Production board as the vehicle for co-ordinating aircraft production as shipbuilding is co-ordinated by the Shipping board through the emergency fleet operations.

Another authorized the plan of basing draft quotas on the number of men in class 1, instead of upon state population. The senate previously had adopted the draft quota legislation, but it had been held up in the house.

Neutrals Affected.

An amendment adopted affecting neutrals provides citizens of neutral countries now subject to draft who have declared their intention of becoming American citizens shall not be eligible to citizenship if they claim exemption from the draft. The provision offered by Senator Hitchcock, was adopted as a substitute for an amendment approved by the State department, providing for exemption from the draft of all citizens of neutral countries.

ENLARGE STATION.

Washington, June 28. Secretary of the Navy Daniels announced that orders had been given for the immediate construction of barracks at the Great Lakes naval training station to accommodate 12,000 additional men.

The extension plan, the secretary said, contemplates facilities for training at the Great Lakes station 40,000 men during the summer months and from 20,000 to 25,000 during the winter. Cost of the barracks and general enlargement of the Great Lakes plant to take care of the increase of men will approximate $4,000,000. The improvement, the secretary said, would include extension of the water supply and other improvements.

"The buildings to be erected," said the secretary, "will be of wooden construction of the substantial type. While they are called temporary, they are designed as permanent improvements, permanent, at least, for present emergencies. The buildings should last for ten or fifteen years at least." In addition to plans for enlarging the Great Lakes station, the secretary said that facilities would be built to accommodate ten thousand additional men at Pelham Bay, and 10,000 at Newport, R. I.

MUST SPEAK ENGLISH.

Hartington Herald. A meeting of the local business men was held in the basement of the K. of C. building on Tuesday evening for the purpose of organizing a movement against the use of the German language in the conduct of business. It was stated, that it was the wish of the state council of defense that the use of German should be abolished in the conduct of business. "Speak the Language of Your Country," and see that it was enforced. The meeting was addressed by W. S. Weston, Dr. F. O. Robinson, and others, and, almost without exception, the business men present pledged themselves to carry out the rule.

WORLD'S RECORD PRICE.

Omaha, Neb., July 29.—The world's record price of $18.25 per 100 pounds for heavy beef cattle selling on the open market, which was established at the South Side market Wednesday when Elmer Gram of Crofton, Neb., sold 33 Hereford and Shorthorn steers at that figure, was equalled Thursday when a load of seventeen steers shipped by Ezra Boeckenhauer of Wakefield, Neb., was sold by the Wood-Osborn Live Stock Commission company to a local packer. The steers averaged 1,505 pounds and brought $274.84 each.

CAN THERE BE WORSE.

Philadelphia Public Ledger. The statement of the report should publish some of the documents in his possession "they might cause another war" is calculated to arouse curiosity. How could they be more sensational than the documents which the various governments have already given to the world?

SUPERFLUOUS.

Sioux Falls Argus-Leader: Austria doesn't need a food controller. Great days; she has no food to control.

NOTICE OF HEARING.

To the heirs, creditors and all persons interested in the estate of Carolina C. Swanson, deceased: You and each of you are hereby notified that Luther E. Swanson has filed his petition in the county court of Wayne county, Nebraska, alleging that said Carolina C. Swanson died intestate at their residence in Wayne county, Nebraska, on the 4th day of April, 1905, seized in fee simple of the southeast quarter of section fifteen (S. E. 1 of Sec. 15), township two (2) north by range twenty-six (26) west of the 6th E. M., in Red Willow county, Nebraska, and left surviving her, her husband, Alfred Swanson, and the following named children, to-wit: Alfred N. Swanson, Otto S. Swanson, Samuel E. Swanson, Luther E. Swanson, Amanda C. Neff and Sophia Sederstrom as her sole and only heirs at law. That all debts, claims and demands against her estate have been paid in full. That said estate was never administered in Nebraska. That said Luther Swanson is the owner in fee simple of an undivided interest in the said real estate and has contracted to deliver merchantable title thereto. Petitioner prays for a finding and decree determining the date of the death of said deceased, determining her heirs, the degree of kinship and the right of descent of said estate, and prays for an order barring the claims of creditors and prays such other relief as may be proper. Said petition will be heard at the county court room at Wayne county, Nebraska, on the 23rd day of July, A. D. 1918, at 10 o'clock, A. M., at which time and place, all heirs, creditors and all persons interested in said estate may appear and show cause why a decree should not be made and entered as prayed in said petition.

Dated this 19th day of June, A. D. 1918.
(Seal) JAS. E. BRITAIN, County Judge.

Bethany Church Dedicated. Sunday was a red letter day among the people of Carroll and vicinity, the occasion being the dedication of the new Welsh Presbyterian church, which is called "Bethany Church." Best of all, money poured in so fast that in less than forty minutes the new edifice was paid for and thus dedicated free of debt.

Built of maroon brick and fine arches, the Yaryan church structure presents a most attractive appearance, an ideal rural church, costing nearly $20,000. It is lighted by a gas electric plant, and has a tower with two Lennox furnaces. The C. E. society donated the arched glass window in the front; the window to the south the gift of Seastedt brothers, and a memorial window to Mr. and Mrs. Jenkin Davis. The north window was donated by the Williams and Davis families.

The dedicatory sermon was preached by Rev. John Hammond of Scranton, Pa., who also made the appeal to people for donations. Rev. Robert Evans led in consecration prayer, and Rev. Daniel made the presentation speech in behalf of the building committee, handing over the keys to Stephen Davis, who as president of the board of trustees, made a happy response. Preceding the dedication was a flag service in honor of the six young men who are serving Uncle Sam. They are: Richard Collier, who was present at the meeting; D. E. Edwards, Elwyn J. Evans, Arthur Glass, Howard L. Jones, and David Roberts.

Music was a feature of the service and was directed by E. J. Davis. The new hymn book edited by Dr. Daniel Propher of Chicago, was used. Enos Davis and Miss Amanda Davis rendered a duet. Richard Pankam gave a vocal solo.

The ministers present were: Rev. John Hammond of Scranton, Pa.; Rev. Robert Evans of Postville, Neb.; Rev. John Williams of Denver, Colo.; Rev. H. W. Owen of Long Creek, Ia.; Rev. W. W. Hughes of Red Oak, Ia.; Rev. J. Glen Williams of Brown, Mo. Besides the local pastors, Rev. D. T. Davis, and Rev. D. Perry Davis.

At last it's been done. Famous Players-Lasky have produced "Uncle Tom's Cabin" for the screen, with Marguerite Clark in the popular role of Little Eva and also as Topsy.

"Believe Me, Xantippe" is the first comedy in which Wallace Reid has appeared. It is a Paramount picture taken from the Harvard Truce Play by Frederick Ballard.

Wanda Hawley, who played so cleverly with Doug Fairbanks in "Mr. Fix-It" and in Cecil B. DeMille's "Old Wives For New," is also playing in his "We Can't Have Everything." Wanda made her debut in the silent drama as Wanda Pettit, which was promptly shortened to "want to get it." So many people expressed this desire, and since she believes in "Safety First," Wanda discarded the "Petit" and adopted the Hawley.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin," the play which is said to have been responsible for the abolition of slavery, is now being filmed as a Paramount picture, with Marguerite Clark as Topsy.
