

CITY SCHOOL ENDS ITS YEAR'S WORK

Dr. Titus Lowe Gives Commencement Address to Big Crowd in M. E. Church Last Night

EIGHTEEN IN THE CLASS

Diplomas Awarded by A. R. Davis in Behalf of School Board—Baccalaureate Sermon

The annual commencement of the Wayne high school took place at the M. E. church last evening. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The building was filled, and every one thoroughly enjoyed the program. The following students received diplomas which were presented by A. R. Davis at the close of the address: Alice Birch, Verma Fovos, Edward McHenry, Lucile Coffey, Nellie Stella Arnold, Leland Holtz, Helen Mendenhall, Florence Baird, Edna Hansen, Margaret Mines, John Johnson, Esther Johnson, Vera Laughlin, Vera Fetterolf, Margaret Milliken, Eloise Miller, Harold Huffaker. The ceremony closed with the piano duet, 'In Trovatore,' by Edna Hansen, 1919, and Madeline Bohannon, 1920. Following the singing of the girls' quartet, rendered a selection and Esther Johnson sang a solo.

Supt. J. R. Armstrong then introduced Rev. Titus Lowe, pastor of the First M. E. church of Omaha. His subject was 'The World's History as a Series of Battles.' He stated that the world's history has been a series of battles. There have been four and one-half years of mental warfare up to this time. The world has unsettled many things. It has stirred up a class of people that the kings and potentates of Europe would never have anticipated. They could possibly have avoided it. Rev. Lowe said that one great result of the war is that the world is now more united than ever before. It is the most wakeful time in the history of the world, referring to the explosion nine days ago, which gave the Germans, for the first time, the peace treaty.

Speaking of the present state of confusion in the various countries, the speaker said, "Russia is at the brink of a bigotous chasm. She is being torn by her people; the conflicting opinions of the widely differing factions and the temple will never stand."

Rev. Lowe is more decided than ever before. She had a dominating master but he is dethroned. The privileged group is dispersed. Germany is in a state of confusion, worse than the hardest day of the war.

Great Britain is about as solid today as a scalpel that has been compelled to alight on an angry ocean."

Rev. Lowe has visited Europe many times and is familiar with conditions there, his last visit being only one year ago, at which time he was in France, Germany and Italy. Basing her prophecy on opinions formed during his recent visit he foretold that in ten years there will be a great war between the nations in Great Britain. There is temporary chaos there, but from it will emerge big blood of character and strength on the part of the victors will be forgotten.

In France, "The Tiger," Premier Clemenceau is supported by the masses. It was in the Vosges Mrs. Clemenceau was appointed. He stated that the villages were wild with joy. The French people are full of hope of unity in Clemenceau. "The speaker declared that in the fall of 1917 Uncle Sam was almost completely triumphant. Then Clemenceau's name went like wildfire through France—"The great peace treaty is in the making. France is not in France but he is in danger of losing his power because there is no God—He is holding on by the teeth."

America must support the League of Nations. Imperfect as it is, it is the only hope for the world. Previous plan to secure universal peace. It gives one possible chance to end war. One should not condemn an action because of its imperfections for the constitution of the United States of which Americans are so proud today—in 1789 was a very imperfect instrument. The opponents of the League do not know the age long fables of Europe. They are not familiar with the American people themselves. The League is the only hope for the world. The world will not recover from its present confusion in a year, or two. Social revolution will result and for this the schools of America are responsible. The attitude of taking orders is not the normal attitude of the mentally trained youth of the world. The world is in a state of confusion. The world is in a state of confusion. The world is in a state of confusion.

CRYSTAL'S TIN CAN DAY PROVES LARGE SUCCESS

Theatre's Innovation Inspires Clean-up Habits of Youth

Managed Elmer Gailey of the Crystal theatre, introduced this year an innovation that has won popular approval and is being copied by the city of old cases. He staged a matinee yesterday afternoon for children, making fifteen or more cans strung on a wire, made one to admission. For the most part cans brought by individuals, prizes were awarded as follows: Clara Stalhamer, 37; Thea Clark, 24; Lawrence Gray, 21; Bert Johnson, 70.

After school children appeared from every direction, logging cans and headed for the theatre. A young boy named 'Lucky' received the distinguished honor and was nearly full when the show was ready to start. Three hundred children gathered in the theatre, and they were grouped about the tin cans. The children were grouped about the tin cans. The children were grouped about the tin cans. CASES IN COUNTY COURT

Council Bluffs Man Charged With Violating Liquor Law

The county court disposed of the following cases this week: John Ferguson of Council Bluffs was charged with violating the liquor law on four and was fined as follows: For intoxication $10; for violation of liquor law, $10; for violation of liquor law, $10; for violation of liquor law, $10.

Mr. Moran was tried on a charge of intoxication and was fined $10 and costs. He took an appeal to the district court. The court decided to grant the appeal and was fined $10 and costs. He took an appeal to the district court. The court decided to grant the appeal and was fined $10 and costs.

Normal School Notes

The indications are that the summer school enrollment will be unusually large. With one exception, all members of the faculty will be on duty. Miss Kingsbury has leave of absence during the summer to take special work in Chicago. Miss Margaret Schmitt will have Miss Kingsbury's work as preceptor and teacher of French.

John Rexkell will be special assistant in the department of mathematics. He has been promoted to the advanced course several years ago, and later graduated from Lehigh University in Pennsylvania. He just returned from France where he had been for more than a year a member of the emergency hospital corps.

Clarence Sabo who has been a special assistant in the physical-education department, will continue in that capacity during the summer session.

Births and Deaths

Dear Sir:—The result of birth records in the county for the year 1918. For 1917 we can only give the number of births reported, for the reason that deaths were not committed in statistics.

1918

Total Number of Births	251
Male	125
Female	126
Native Father	187
Native Mother	187
Foreign Father	58
Not Reported, Father	5
Foreign Mother	3
Not Reported, Mother	3
Sons of Triples	0

1917

Total Number of Births	207
Male	102
Female	105
Native Father	139
Native Mother	165
Foreign Father	68
Not Reported, Father	3
Foreign Mother	2
Not Reported, Mother	2
Sons of Triples	0

You can see just how the number of births reported for the two years compare. It is not to be assumed that birth registration was in either year complete because Nebraska is not recognized by the United States census bureau as a registration state for either births or deaths.

The recording of a birth in this office is a legal record, and of the utmost importance. It is done without expense to the family to which the birth occurs.

During the year 1918, we sent to each mother whose child's birth, including the name, was reported to this office a book entitled "Your Baby—How to Keep It Well," and if there should be any mother in your family who has not received this book it is almost certain that the birth was either not reported, or the name of the child was not sent.

The number of deaths occurring in your county for the year 1918 was 94, of which number influenza with its complication, pneumonia, ranked 37. Very respectfully,
Nebraska State Department of Health

Roosevelt Republican Club, Lincoln, May 21.—Articles of incorporation of the Roosevelt Republican Club of Nebraska were filed at the office of the secretary of state this morning. The association has as its object the promotion of the memory of the political ideals of Theodore Roosevelt.

The articles were signed by Frank P. Corrick, C. C. Plumburg, Charles W. Taylor, James C. Geary, and Clifford L. Remick of Lincoln.

Sioux Falls Herald: An Omaha man who had donated an old suit while he dressed the carpets and furniture assisted in the housecleaning and who had to go to the store around the corner for a cigar, was stopped at his own gate on his return by a hobo who informed him it was useless to go in, as the merchant woman in the city had done.

Howard Porter, Sam Reed, L. Larson, and Charles Bacon, of Randolph and George R. Kooker, of Tully and H. W. Burdman of Sibley, were in Wayne Monday morning on their way to Sioux City to attend the lodge of Scottish Rite Masons.

State Board of Assessment. Lincoln, May 24.—The state board of assessment is still wrestling with the subject of assessment of Liberty bonds, time deposits and the like held by banks and in response to a request of the attorney general for an opinion, Mr. Davis says:

"In answer to your question, I will say that the supreme court has held that the statutory provision relative to the taxation of banks in the state is a provision not for taxing the deposits, but for taxing their capital stock, but for taxing the shareholders upon the value of the stock held by them. State law is to the effect that the value of the stock is the real and ultimate fact to determine the real value of the capital stock. This is not necessarily measured exclusively and directly by the amount of the paid-up capital of the corporation, plus surplus and undivided profits, although the statute provides that those matters shall be considered in connection with the market value and the condition of its business, if it is a state bank, as shown by its last report to the State Banking Board, in determining the real value of its stock.

"If an informed, however, that the usual, and, in fact, the almost universal custom is to consider the market value of the capital stock, plus surplus and undivided profits, as being the measure of the gross value of its stock and then to make certain reductions in order to determine the net value for assessment purposes.

"If this plan followed, the deductions permitted should be allowed, in my opinion, in most instances, to the value of real estate or other tangible property belonging to the bank and otherwise assessed to it."

Following the advice of the attorney general, the board adopted resolutions that the secretary of the board be instructed to notify county assessors that the deductions from the valuation of the capital stock, surplus and undivided profits will be allowed, other than when the company or institution has acquired real estate or other tangible property which is assessed separately and in that case the assessed value of such property should be deducted from the capital stock. The items not proper for deduction are interest on savings accounts, certificates of deposit, Liberty bonds, time certificates of deposit, insurance interest on other property.

Nebraska's Wheat Crop. Lincoln, May 24.—Nebraska's 1918 wheat crop will be allowed to move only by the permit system, according to a bulletin released by the state railway commission today.

"This is necessary because of the big crop of other states which will be thrown on the market before the Nebraska crop is ready. As there has been a guarantee made by the government as to the price, there will be no incentive for holding the crop and this will throw the load on the railroads at one time.

"It is feared that there will be a heavy congestion at the Omaha terminal in connection with the wheat from Oklahoma and Kansas, and unless the Omaha terminal is open for the Nebraska wheat, there may be trouble. H. L. Clark of the Omaha Grain exchange, however, believes that the matter can be satisfactorily arranged by holding the Omaha exchange open for the Nebraska crop only.

The Democratic Little Car. Dallas News: One of the strangest things in the world is how many people seem to like the little major car and how few ride in the larger one.

Sioux Falls Argus-Leader: Luedendorff is not kidding much about the severity of the peace terms. He knows what kind of terms he himself had in mind for the defeated allies, and he hasn't the face to whine.

Willard STORAGE BATTERY SERVICE STATION

Your Battery's Different

There is one part of your new car that is different from all the rest—your battery.

For storage batteries are chemical—not mechanical.

The time to begin taking care of that battery is the first day that you get your new car. If you do this, your battery will not only last longer, but it will give you better service as long as it is in use.

So when you buy your new car, the very first thing to do is to come to us for full instructions. We will register your battery, and at the same time will be glad to give you a copy of the booklet, "Willard Service and You."

Wayne Storage Battery Co. Second Street, West of Main, Wayne, Neb.

We test, repair and recharge storage batteries, and always carry a full supply of battery parts, new batteries and rental batteries.

OUR MOTTO—CLEANLINESS AND GOOD FOOD

MR. FARMER, READ THIS

THE McCORMICK No. 6

It is not a new mowing machine made over the No. 4 embodied with many improvements added.

NOTICE THESE GOOD POINTS
Countershaft Easily adjusted.

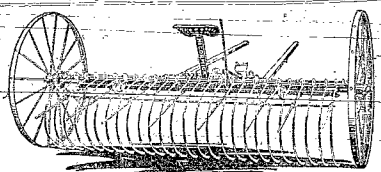

The outside end of the countershaft is kept in place by washers and cotter pins. This construction makes it possible to make an adjustment on the countershaft in a few minutes. You will notice also that the adjustments are made from the outside of bearings, which is a desirable feature.

FLEXIBLE GAG ARRANGEMENT

To do good work under all conditions, in rough meadows as well as smooth, a mower must have a flexible gag arrangement. It must be possible to raise the bar reasonably high without increasing the angle between the pitman and knife.

The McCormick No. 6 is an improvement over most mowers in this respect. The cutter bar can be raised to the first notch, and if necessary to the second notch while the machine is in operation. The cutter bar has the same angle in both positions in relation to pitman and coupling bar. You will appreciate this extra high lift in rough, stony, or lumpy ground, or in going over a heavy curf field and crossing windrows.

MCCORMICK SELF DUMP RAKE

The McCormick self dump rake will meet your requirements under all conditions. It has gained a reputation in every locality for durability and ease of operation. It dumps quickly, and the teeth return to the ground close to the windrow. As the rake fills, the cleaner rods float above and retard the hay so that it does not roll into aropy form.

WHEELS INTERCHANGE

The wheels of the McCormick rake interchange so that when one side of the ratchet is worn the wheels can be reversed, giving practically the wear of two rake wheels in one. The wheels have staggered spokes and heavy steel tires. They are large and keep the rake running smoothly when on rough ground. The inside ratchet is covered with a shield which prevents the hay from winding or interfering with the tripping device.

From the Ponca Journal, May 31, 1918.
We hear no more about the project to have waterworks. The plan was a good one; it would have been of great benefit and would have cost but little. It has probably gone up the spout.
On Friday and Saturday a school of fish, pickerel, came up the creek as far as the dam, and a host of men and boys went down with rods and lines and lifted quite a number of fat ones from their native element for the purpose of utilizing them by aid of the frying pan.
Wheat and oats throughout the county look remarkably well, and give assurance of a large crop. As to corn that is in stalks it makes a matter of doubt. Some of the seed was worthless and does not come up. The weather has also not been propitious for corn. Many fields will therefore have to be planted over again.
We learn that the buildings on the fair grounds have been the subject of depredations since the fair was held last fall. Windows have been smashed, even to the sash; doors, fences and gates have been broken, and everything that was capable of being injured has been. Why some persons should thus carelessly seek to destroy property is one of the mysteries of human nature and is a strong proof of the fact that the law is not sufficient in this condition of things the officers of the agricultural society desire to state that henceforth any person who commits depredations on the fair grounds will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Tables Reversed.
Fairbury News: Things have changed from the days when the comic papers printed those funny jokes and pictures about the bushy-whiskered farmer who came to town with hay-seed in his hair, and when the country boy could show his honest face on the city streets without being called "Reuben".
About now the authors of the stories said jokes are going out to be wondering where they can get trusted for their next month's bill of farm products. "Mefawdell" "Reuben" now an ambitious and advancing farmer, is riding into town in his own automobile. Country life and those daily papers to their credit, the telegraph and other modern methods of communication; the farmers of today are better informed on current events than their country cousins. Some people express the fear that farming will be done so popular, and be overdone; but as yet there seems to be no occasion for alarm on that score.

Arrested for Accosting.
Randolph Times: The idea prevails with some young lads around Randolph and nearby towns, that every girl they meet is smitten with their personal charm and is anxious to go joy riding with them. This is carried too far, will get them into trouble as it did a Randolph young man last Saturday evening.
He was in a car with two other boys when he asked them to stop the car. He got out and accosted three young girls walking on the sidewalk on South Main street. One of the girls was the object of his attention and he asked her to take an auto ride. She refused and he then took her by the arm and tried to lead her to the car. She jerked away and the three girls sought shelter in a nearby home where they told their story.
The father was informed of the occurrence and there was something stirring at once with the result that the fresh young lad was soon behind the bars of the city jail, with plenty of time in which to review his foolish act and deeply regret the folly that got him into trouble. On Sunday the matter was gone over carefully and the greatest leniency offered him. He was released upon his promise to make no more breaks along the line of attempting to lead young ladies into a car. The Times had occasion to speak of this matter last year and warn girls against accepting such invitations; we now warn young men against being insistent, for not always will leniency be shown.

Cure Is Complete.
St. Paul Pioneer Press: He noted that the president has fully accepted the verdict of experience in the matter of government operation of the railways and wire systems. He is completely cured of any public-ownership weaknesses and wants congress without unnecessary delay to end the government of these white elephants.

An Insuperable Obstacle.
Kansas City Times: If an ocean could always be depended on to be smooth and without fog, it would be a fine place to fly over.

Same Thing Here.
Detroit News: The man who used make his living selling to Reir signs must be starving to death now.

Not Exactly.
Omaha World-Herald: A flight across the Atlantic is not yet exactly what one would plan for a vacation trip.

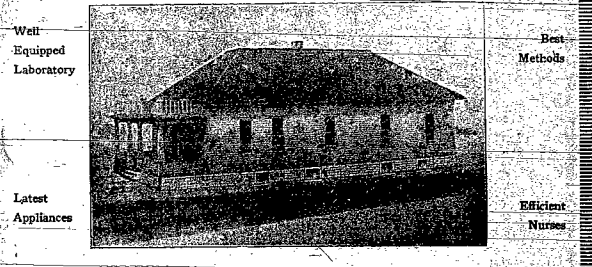

Board of Equalization.
Notice is hereby given that the board of county assessors and the county clerk will sit as a board of equalization, commencing on Tuesday, the 30th day of June 1918, for the purpose of equalizing the valuation of personal property of the county, as prepared by the present assessors. Any and all complaints in the assessment of personal property, or as complainants made on real property, which was assessed in the year 1916, showing an error on the face of the assessment must be made at this time, and all complaints will be heard at this time.
All that are assessed are especially urged to call and inspect the books relative to these assessments, as this will materially aid us in avoiding any gross errors. The board will continue in session for not less than three days and all complaints or protests must be made at this time.

CLOSING OF THE NORMAL

Piano Recital, the String Quartet, and Grand Opera "Carmen."

The afternoon program of the May festival at the Normal last Thursday began with a piano recital by Hazel Gertrude Kincaella, in the auditorium at 8:30. It was in all respects an excellent performance. Miss Kincaella showed a rare gentleness of temperament from the first notes of "The Star Spangled Banner" to the last of the "Vals de Concert" which closed a recital each number of which was a musical gem. Miss Kincaella is a musician of much experience, trained in the best of schools of modern technique. Her running comment on the different numbers of the recital was an attractive feature, making clear the musical significance of much that would otherwise have been obscure to the average listener. The unique feature of the program was the rendition of four McDowell pieces, played from a copy of the manuscript and intoned by the composer himself. As the performer has spent several summers in the McDowell home for artists at Pewee, and has been closely associated with Mrs. McDowell, wife of the late Edward McDowell, her rendition of these numbers is of special interest. It is a ready-made American composer. For those who enjoy the brilliant in piano playing, the "Albatross" by Schubert and the "Vals de Concert" by Wieniawski compositions much enjoyed in many, and rendered in a clear, intelligent manner were great favorites. The playing of the 188 "Tandier" "Scenes from Childhood" by Schumann also a much versatility in the rapid change of mood and style of playing. The entire program was much appreciated and received with much favor. It was a successful program last year, and rendered valuable assistance in the presentation of the opera. This organization plays nothing but the best of this most cultural type of instrumental music. The program was characterized throughout by excellent interpretation, reflecting much credit on Mr. Heizer, the director. The numbers about which most interest clustered were the "Song Without Words" by Chopin, and the quartet No. 17, by Haydn. At the close of the program, the audience was given an encore and responded by playing "Humoresque" by Dvorak.

Grand Opera.
The grand opera "Carmen," given by the Orpheus club under the direction of Prof. J. J. Coleman, greatly pleased the large audience which filled the auditorium last Thursday evening. The familiar story of the fascinating gypsy girl who trifled with the strictures of

A Beautiful Bungalow

When you build that home you've dreamed about, you want more than a shelter from the weather.

In this bungalow you get beauty both inside and out, and comfort and convenience on the interior. Study the floor plan. Notice the reception hall and the wide front entrance. The interior picture shows you only a part of the living room and its fireplace. Note the convenience of the CURTIS built-in dining room sideboard.

There are a clothes closet, two cupboards and a double window in the kitchen.

It is easy to reach the basement from the outside of the house as well as from the kitchen.

The rear bed room has cross-ventilation, and the front chamber has a daylight closet. The bath room is accessible from both chambers.

This beautiful bungalow is only one of many we can show you. We have other types, too—semi-bungalows, cottages, story-and-a-half, and two-story houses. Come in and see them.

Flowers and costumes: Misses Stocking, Luers, and Bechel. Decorations: Miss Pierce, and Messrs. Gulliver and Hehn. Singing: Miss Fairchild, Music: Mr. Coleman and Misses Fairchild, Addison, and Rahn. Accompanists: Misses Desires, Hirsch and Addison, and Mary House. Special thanks are due to those who served costumed: Messrs. Lackey, Hahn, Bruce, Coleman, Dragon, and Miss Jenks. Messrs. Denkinger, Ingwerson, and Merrill rendered much help in preparing the stage.

Minneapolis Journal: Even a congress made up of good business women would be pretty helpless without a budget system.

Return to Private Control.
Immediate restoration of the telephone properties of the country to private control, with such legislative purposes, the president took supervision as may be necessary to provide for the deficit of the government system of the telephone systems of the country, and has since operated federal control, is urged upon them. The war has practically ceased. The public press is strong. N. Val, head of the Bell Telephone system, and G. W. Robinson, president of the Association of Independent Properties are urging that they be returned to private control as soon as possible.

A statement making such a recommendation has been submitted to the members of congress, which is being reported by the president's press. The Bell and Independent telephone heads declare that it is present. It is urged that the credit of the operating companies will be impaired, proper expenses cannot be met, and needed extensions and necessary by reason of larger production.

portional increases by the railroads and industries of the country. The revenues are inadequate to care for such increases, and the deficit of the government on that account to date is large and steadily increasing. The postmaster-general ordered that steps be taken to secure adequate revenues, but contentions with the regulatory authority of the states, not yet settled, have prevented such adjustments.

If such conditions continue, necessarily the credit of the operating companies will be impaired, proper expenses cannot be met, the best operating forces cannot be retained, needed extensions and satisfactory service cannot be provided. A deterioration will ensue which in some localities may threaten a recurrence to public ownership or operation in order to care, even inadequately, for public needs. By prompt action congress can prevent this contingency.

Just and speedy settlements should be made for all properties taken under the existing law, such balances now in possession of the government may be restored to assist in the upbuilding and extension of the various systems for better public use. The conditions and regulation of operation should be improved so as to permit the companies to re-establish and maintain a satisfactory service with reasonable rates without discriminations and securing the benefits of legitimate competition. The principal operating companies of the United States are vitally interested in cooperating with the government and the officials of the government to accomplish these results.

G. W. ROBINSON, President of Independent Telephone Association.

THRO. N. VAIL, President American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

POSSIBILITIES OF MAIN STREET FOR MUD AND SLUSH. The above picture of a section of Main street, Wayne, was taken for the Herald one day last spring, and is presented as a powerful argument in favor of drainage and paving. The streets were a chaos of mud. Tracks had to be fortified with chains to travel. The city marshal who poses on the crossing, shovel in hand, was working to "frazzle" trying to keep walks clear enough for pedestrians to go from store to store without rubber boots.

Edison Has Made "The Talking Machine" a Thing of the Past

WHEN Edison invented mechanical sound reproduction 30 years ago the world marveled at his genius. The "talking machine" was the wonder of the age. But Edison himself was not satisfied. He had not reached his goal. This was not real music, but only mechanical approximation. Others, however, eager for commercial gain, closed their eyes to its imperfections. They adapted Edison's original ideas and exploited them by cleverly turned phrases. Even today "new" talking machines are announced which are really but adaptations of Edison's 30-year-old idea.

But meanwhile Edison cherished a higher ambition, one really worthy of his genius. For the last five years he has labored tirelessly and conscientiously, 18 to 20 hours a day, in his search for a true musical instrument. He has dug deep into the hidden secrets of acoustic science—the mechanical timber is the glaring defect of the familiar "talking machine." He aimed at the goal for which every music lover has hoped—

Music Recreation

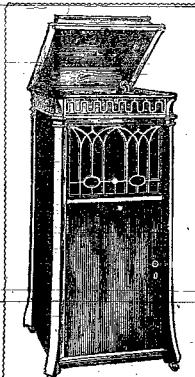

And now he has found it. He opened the doors of his laboratory and revealed a new musical instrument—the New Edison Diamond Disc. Mind you—not an adaptation of old imperfect standards—not a talking and revealed a new musical instrument that is DISTINCTLY NEW. It has made the "talking machine," which for thirty years people have considered the limit of human possibility, a THING OF THE PAST.

These are things which you must investigate and decide NOW. And investigate and decide in a way which will enable you to AVOID REGRETS.

Attend Edison Re-creation Concerts

Come in and hear the New Edison Diamond Disc. Even if you are not think of purchasing, you should hear this machine. If the familiar mechanical approximation-of-tone has seemed wonderful to you, then this new gift of the wizard's genius will be a revelation.

Don't let anyone tell you that you can't hear certain artists on the New Edison Diamond Disc. You can. The Edison can be made to play other makes of records. And although the music of these records is not as true to the original tone as Edison's own re-creations, because of his superior method of sound development, they really sound better than on the instrument for which they were made.

The Official Laboratory Model

Now, which will you have in your home? Which will you choose? This new musical instrument or the old-fashioned "talking machine"? Do you want the actual tones of the original artist, alive with that subtle breath of reality, or—the cold, metallic tone of the "talking machine" which makes even the greatest music unmusical? Do you want that eternal bother of changing needles, which wear out valuable records, or do you want the permanent "rotated diamond cone" which eliminates all the fuss and prolongs the life of the record indefinitely? Do you want the fragile record which you must fondle like a costly piece of china, or the unbreakable Edison re-creation disc?

CAPTURED A GERMAN GUN

Jack Wells, in Thicket of Argonne Drive, Arrives in Wayne.
Jack Wells who was in the thick of the Meuse-Argonne drive, last October, and who as an American soldier in the machine gun service in France, had a harrowing series of experiences, arrived in Wayne Monday to visit his friend and former employer, Oscar Johnson of the Wayne vicinity. Mr. Wells, who is in Oklahoma, worked on the Jonson farm last year and until he was called to the service in June. He sailed from the United States August 21 and arrived overseas September 3. He went to the front October 17 and took part in the Meuse-Argonne drive. He says the terrible experiences of that battle baffle description.
Mr. Wells brought back with him a rifle that he took from the hands of a dead German soldier. He also took possession of some German war trophies. The dead German was apparently about 50 years old. He was wearing an American watch. Mr. Wells has among his souvenirs an interesting collection of British, French, Belgian, and German coins.
Mr. Wells says the American soldiers outfit and outfit the German soldiers in all respects. He says the British and French are prouder slow. Like all other soldiers, he had to get used to seeing people killed. At first the experience was almost unbearable.

Inexcusable.

David, S. D., Eagle: "Having been an admirer and supporter of Wilson since his first campaign, it comes with a hard jolt to the writer to find him yielding to the hoose makers with a recommendation to congress to repudiate the boy-d order for July 1. It is something that would alienate our support from the best friends we ever had. No excuse for it."
Chicago Daily News: In the United States senate the republican margin of safety is so narrow that republican senators th, likely to be wrapped in tissue paper and placed in safe deposit vaults when not in use.

the ladies committee for last Sunday morning was a fine one—the scheme of decorations carried out by the ladies being very beautiful. Representatives of the three churches were present: the G. A. R., the Spanish-American, and the great American doughboy just back from Germany.—An address of welcome was fittingly responded to by Isaac Lyman, the very latest of our soldiers to come back from "over there." And it was equally fitting that the pinning of the bars on the service flag should be done by a Daughter of the Veterans, Miss Ethel Hunter. The evening Centenary Victory service was also a great success, the pastor reporting a subscription of $6,332, with more to follow, which puts us safely "over the top." On next Sunday the forenoon services will be held as usual, while in the evening we will join in the union service at the auditorium when your pastor is to preach the baucalaurate sermon. The Methodist church, also the Sunday school, at Wakefield, and the church at Pleasant Valley, on last Sunday adopted resolutions strongly protesting against the carrying out of President Wilson's recommendation for repeal of wartime prohibition of the manufacture of beer and wines. PHONE ASH 861. WAYNE, NEB.

When 18 years of age she united with the Calvinistic Methodist church and had always been a faithful worker. She took an active part in the Sunday school and will be greatly missed in that department. Besides her parents, she is survived by two brothers and one sister, as follows: Thomas Kenrich of Seattle, Wash.; William, of Lusk, Wyo.; and Mrs. D. E. Francis of Carroll. The many friends extend heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.
Methodist Church.
(Rev. F. E. Sala, Pastor.)
We had two large congregations Sunday. It will be a pleasure to meet all the members of the church, after so much illness and sad trouble.
The funeral of Mrs. William Mitchell was held at the church 6:00 Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock.
We cordially invite every patriotic citizen to help celebrate Decoration day this year. Meet at the church 2 o'clock. After a public service we will go to the cemetery and decorate the graves of our dead soldiers. A committee is working out a program.
The Carroll group, consisting of Carroll, Wakefield, Wayne, Sholes, and with Winside without appointments, is leading the other groups of the district by $1000 or more in centenary pledges. A fine spirit of cooperation was manifested throughout the campaign. In grade of percentage giving, Carroll leads, with Sholes, Wakefield, Wayne and Winside following in the order named. If you have not handed in your pledge it is now. Have a part in the first really serious attempt to evangelize the world. The churches in this district have subscribed the "Woman's Christian Temperance Union" will soon reach Nebraska if plans of state officials mature. Two Spanish women, natives of Uruguay.
Commencement exercises will be held in the Methodist church Thursday evening.
Everybody come to the church next Sunday morning. We are expecting one of the big men of the church here to speak at the morning service. I am not at liberty to give his name; come and see.
The pastor expects to be at Plainview and other points next Sabbath in the interest of the centenary.
The Woman's Home Missionary Society will meet June 5 with Mrs. Ed Fox. Mrs. Alex Laurie will be the leader.
The W. C. T. U. (By Committee): Concrete illustration of the world work already accomplished by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will soon reach Nebraska if plans of state officials mature. Two Spanish women, natives of Uruguay.

guay, have been sent by their government to the national W. C. T. U. of America to study the scientific temperance feature of industrial education. Their coming is the direct result of the work of Miss Hardyne Norville, W. C. T. U. missionary to Uruguay. Both have been active in temperance work and were especially chosen by their government for this training. The visitors will assist the American women in the last days of the million dollar-million member drive. Nebraska is making a strong bid for their services.

The present jubilee drive of the W. C. T. U. is spoken of as one of the greatest missionary movements of the age. Much of the fund being gathered will go to help fight the American liquor traffic in its education, the orient. Besides this foreign activity white ribbon paid workers are already being placed in foreign settlements as part of the country under the Americanization plan.

Miss Christine Tilling of Virginia, lecturer and writer on scientific temperance, has been appointed W. C. T. U. missionary to China.

The recognition of the W. C. T. U. in Nebraska churches on both last Sunday the W. C. T. U. started the whirlwind finish to its jubilee campaign. In Nebraska numerous workers are in the field. Mrs. Iva M. Lantz of Rushville traveling through the northern counties while Miss Lucy Herrick is busy in the southern counties. Mrs. Mamie M. Clafin and many other workers are putting the finishing touches to the middle of the state. Omaha and Lincoln have been well organized from the first to handle their own needs. Reports from all sections of the state give the work as booming. The St. Paul union is one example of unmitigated enthusiasm. Although its membership and cash quotas were completed the first week of the drive, the women are still hard at work "making hay." In University Place on May 1 membership, day, 200 new white ribbons were secured, making a total of 310 members.

The Nebraska W. C. T. U. will observe June 8 as its flower mission day. At that time flowers and cherry greetings will be taken to all shut-ins, either invalids or those forcibly detained by the law. This is a long observed custom in the Nebraska society.

York is already making big preparations for the 1919 state convention of the Nebraska temperance women which meets in the early fall. Among other interesting occasions will be the banquet for all the delegates when very notable visitors will be present. Although the banquet was a regular event when the society was a smaller organization, of late years, the custom has been dropped because of the great number of delegates. York with the facility of a big new hotel hopes to re-establish the banqueting custom.

In the picture shown above, taken on the treasury steps in Washington, are shown Frank W. Wilson, director of public debt, and Lewis B. Franklin, director of War Loan Organization (right). Wilson created a panic in the helmet market by buying the entire 85,000 allotment from the War Department for $1. It cost the German Government more than that amount to manufacture each one of the helmets. The helmets shown were a special supply held in reserve for a triumphant entry into Paris. Eventually they arrived there by freight.

SHOLES

George Noakes and family were here on Saturday. Mrs. Ted Wright was a Wayne shopper Monday afternoon. Miss Percy Malone left for her home at Pierce Friday evening. C. D. Barnham of Randolph was a Sholes visitor Wednesday afternoon. Peter Larsen went to Colorado Sunday morning to look after his land interests. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hatley of Bloomfield visited at the W. J. May home Sunday. Marion Philby was the guest of Evelyn Frost of Randolph Thursday and Friday. Miss Hill and two daughters of Saline, Kan., are here visiting Mrs. Will Mattingly.

closed last Sunday as follows: Superintendent, Mrs. H. W. Barnham; assistant superintendent, Mrs. W. E. Philby; secretary and organist, Daisy Larsen; treasurer, W. B. Philby; librarian, Oscar Obst; chorister, Paul H. Young. The commencement exercises were held in the M. E. Church Tuesday evening. There were three graduates, Robert Crosson, Eunice Larsen, and Hazel J. Dalton. Mrs. S. N. Cross, registrar of the Wayne State Normal, gave an inspiring address entitled "Go Forward." Eunice Larsen and Mary Barnham were the valedictorians for the senior and junior classes respectively, both girls having very high averages. The vocal solos rendered by Mrs. S. N. Cross, Miss Helen Larsen and Miss Helen Egan were very pleasing and much enjoyed.

City Council

Wayne, Neb., May 27, 1919. The city council of the city of Wayne, Neb., met in regular session at the council room at 7:30 p. m. The following members were present: Mayor J. H. Kemp and Councilmen Ernest Lundberg, C. W. Fiscox, Herman Bremer, C. Carhart, Absent, Councilmen W. H. Gildersleeve and L. C. Gildersleeve. The minutes of the meeting of May 13 were read and approved. The following bills were examined and read as follows: General Fund: Eli Bonawitz, street commissioner $9000 A. A. Chance, marshal $9000 Hammond Printing Co., job

Mr. and Mrs. John Brudenhold of Colorado visited Dr. S. Grant in Sholes Sunday. Rev. Mr. Jameson of Sioux City gave an extended talk in the church Sunday evening. E. H. Young and E. O. Gardner of Wayne attended commencement exercises Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McDowell attended the funeral of the late wife, at Winnetoon, Neb., last week. Miss Marie Stanton and Miss Gladys Kesterson of Carroll attended the program and class play Wednesday evening. School closed Friday with a picnic in Ellis grove. The youngsters brought well-filled baskets and had an excellent time. H. W. Barnham, W. E. Philby, and George Noakes were passengers to Sioux City Monday morning. They are taking higher degrees in the Masonic lodge. Mrs. Paul McCarthy, formerly Miss Ethel Ertresen, accompanied by her husband, came Monday evening for a short visit at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Larsen.

Close of School. The program and play given by the Sholes school Wednesday night was a great success in every way. An "O'Connell and Sullivan" operetta given by the primary pupils was enjoyed. The musical numbers given by the intermediate pupils showed careful and excellent training on the part of their teacher, Miss Madeline Stanton. The play given by the high school was a very laughable three-act comedy entitled "That Awful Carpet-ting." Robert Crosson showed great ability as the character of the Rev. Alexander Kirkwood, while Erwin Williams as the ignorant, noisy Patsy, was a source of veering amusement to the crossroads hotel landlord, the Misses Jarvis, played by Eunice Larsen and Ediz Hlenrickson, Mary Barnham taking the part of Susan Jane Gadham, a curious maiden of 39, with Hazel Dalton as Mrs. Briggs, the positive widow, among the members of "That Awful Carpet-ting." The cook, the maid and dead lady, played by Erwin McDowell, Evelyn Henriksen, and A. H. Hansen, respectively, did especially well.

No Room for Argument. St. Paul Pioneer Press: There is no more room for a discussion with Germany of the peace terms than for a discussion between a criminal lawyer and a sentencing court, of the justice of the verdict.

An Erroneous Inference. Boston Transcript: But they aren't think that the returning soldiers will take to farming just because on reaching New York City they express so much interest in Broadway roof gardens.

Expected. Omaha World Herald. The Germans ask for an extension of time in which to reply to the peace terms. That was just as certain as a sunrise for a continuance in a lawsuit.

A Wilsonian Paradox. Brooklyn Daily Eagle paper says President Wilson departed, "serious but smiling." Probably carefree, but worried; and doubtless in haste, but unburied.

Warship Worship Ended. Boston Transcript: With the practically done away with, and with no prospect of being allowed to build it up doubtless Germany will now give her attention to something more truly constructive and forget her former growing-worship of the warship.

On motion the above bills were allowed and warrants ordered drawn.

The appointment by the mayor of J. H. Merrill as special college police was approved by the council. The report of Robert H. Jones, city engineer, on the proposed new sewer district, was read by the clerk. By his survey he reports he found insufficient fall for said sewer district based on the outlet being at a point known as the manhole at the intersection on Fourth street between Nebraska and Winnetoon streets. The council therefore advised a further survey to be made to ascertain if a better drain could be obtained by having the outlet at the manhole on Third street.

Motion was made by C. E. Carhart and seconded by H. Lundberg that the following persons be appointed judges and clerks for the special election to be held on June 9, 1919, to-wit: Judges for First ward: Pat Dixon, R. P. Williams, John Soules Clerks: Clyde Oman and Martin Henge. Judges for Second ward: P. C. Crockett, E. Owens, Henry Bush Clerks: Henry Kellogg and James Finley. Judges for Third ward: P. L. Miller, J. W. Jones, W. B. Hughes, Clerks: A. E. Bressler, June Conner. The motion was unanimously carried. The matter of sprinkling the streets in the business section of Wayne was taken up with W. H. Hoguewood. The council accepted his offer which was $7.50 per 1000 feet. He is working under the supervision of the water committee, they stipulating the district to be sprinkled.

Fundamental Farm Economics

HARRIMAN spent millions on putting the Union Pacific in shape to pay dividends. He realized that the road could only make its greatest profit by being as near 100 per cent efficient as possible. The principle he demonstrated on such a large scale holds true in every business—the business of farming along with all the rest. Money spent to increase profits is an investment, not an expense. Applied to the farm this means good seed, good breeding stock, good machinery—and good farm buildings. All require an investment—and all go on paying dividends year after year. The farmers who have applied this principle to their business are the big money makers. Take the White Pine barn illustrated above. It is weatherproof—warm and dry in winter and cool in summer. Horses and stock are protected against disease. In winter cattle and dairy herd convert feed into beef and milk, instead of simply generating animal heat to keep warm. Horses require less feed. The additional profits that the farmer makes through this saving in feed goes pay for the barn. White Pine for all outside exposures makes a permanent barn, practically free from repairs. White Pine stays where you put it without warping, splitting, twisting or rotting. We have practical working plans, specifications and bill of material for the barn shown, or for any other farm building. Come in and get them or let us send them to you.

Broke Two Precedents. New York World: President Joseph S. Zela, president of Nicaragua, from 1883 to 1909, broke Central American precedents by the length of his tenure of power and by dying in his bed, full of years. Embarrassing. Chicago Daily News: It must be very embarrassing for the parlor
