We Have a Better Grain Binder for You

The next time you are in town, come in and look over the John Deere Binder. It's a machine that will give you extra years of service at less cost for repairs, and will do better work under abnormal field and weather conditions than other binders.

Stronger wheels, heavier frame, reinforced platform, self-aligned bearings, roller bearings, three packers instead of two, hardened wearing surfaces on knoter parts, ground and polished packer shaft bearing and quick turn tongue truck are a few of the many points about this binder that make it serviceable, light draft and economical to operate.

You will appreciate what binder satisfaction truly is when you get a John Deere, into your harvest fields.

UNCLE WALT
THE POET PHILOSOPHER

KNOWLEDGE
There's always something more to learn however. There are many important truths that through and turn, man ought to store he hind his brow. Physicians dwell in every town whose unguished minds have gone to seed; they turn the helpful journals down, they do not stop, think and read. They have diplomas on the wall, what else could any patient wish? They wait for the infrequent call, and sign, "Dad blame it," or "Odsfish!" And there are lawyers on our streets who squint their studies long ago; you fourth rate court rooms they repeat the few mouth-earn things they know. The doctors who are writing lame, the lawyers who are coming dust, know well that in life's long game, none can afford to err.

WORK.
I toiled long for many years at hoop bands and grooming stoves, with weary bone and tired hand, I looked forward to the day when I could throw the tools away and have no work to do. Then I would have no grievous task, no downy head of ease I'd lack, and drink red lemonade; for me there'd be no beasty grind. I'd sleep all day in so inclined; and through cheap notes I'd get the day's news. (I'm not for fame; bliss percolated through my frame; "At last," I said, "I'm free; this getting up at break of day to milk the cows and pitch the hay—no more of that for me!" Then for three weeks, or maybe five, existing that I was at the head of the village green, and monkey with the slot machine, and fancied I was glad. But, when the day came a bore; I yearned to have a man-sized chore, to make me tired at night; I longed to plow the rows of corn, and hear the old tin shiner horn, and have an appetite. Another month of gilded ease, and my old dome was full of fleas, and bats and things like those, and loathing he had lost its charm, and I went loathing to the farm, where toll all that goes in, and all that comes out, true bliss is for the man who works and sweats the long day through; who knows, when comes the close of day, that he has gained a bit of hay, or, peradventure, two.

PUNSTUALITY.
When I was young, my soul was tired, my heart was sore and hot; for I was nearly always fired from every job I got. I suffered many a grievous shock before I learned to see that one o'clock is one o'clock and three o'clock is three. I'd long to see a man or two in a day, and thought that fact no crime; but when I went to draw my pay, I always was on time. The boss would say, "At half past two, do this or that; at three, do that; and at four, do this." That stunts will do as well at half past four. So I was always being fired, as you will understand, no sooner was I nicely hired than I was neatly dismissed. It took me long to realize that promptness is a thing that all the merchant princes prize and all wise poets sing. It took me some time to grasp the truth that heedlessness of time is fatal to sprouting one's self; and that it is well to be on time. I'd waste the golden hours in talk, and seldom kept a date; it was due at six o'clock, I'd make my bow at eight. Then I resolved to mend my ways, these facts were realized, and I lined up with happy jays whose services are prized.

CREDIT.
I call upon the merchant prince, and ask to see his kin dried fruit, and see the price of the blue blood in his replies. "You bet your boots!" I last glance around the store," he cries, "and order anything you wish." I buy some fancy putty, fruit and boneless prunes and potted fish. "Tis thus in all the mart's of trade, I find the welcome sign in my veins; I brag not of my queenly grace, nor of my store of sizzling beans; when I'm inclined to tout my wares, I merely say, "I owe no man," and, saying, feel that I adorn the well known sex of which I'm one. Alas, I was not always thus; I used to owe all kinds of seeds and boniffs kicked up quite a fuss pursuing me through many grades. And well I know how, once and while, it has come to pass, and why, as Johnson clamors for his wheels, and Jenson for his iron, and sleep at night in some one's shed, than sidesteep merchants bearing bills, and have men say, "Your credit's dead."

DO IT NOW.
If there's work that should be done, do it now; if you wish to save your money, do it now; putting off from day to day is a foolish slipshod way, and such methods never pay—do it now. If you'd get a haircut, do it now. If you ought to set a hen, do it now; if you're billed to trim the lawn, do not wait till the morrow's dawn; you may then be dead and gone—do it now. If you'd build yourself a home, do it now; if you'd write an epic poem, do it now; oh, so many fellows cry, "We have plans for by and by!" If you'd climb to places high, do it now; if you'd renovate your life, do it now; if you'd cheer your way, do it now; if you'd visit to sit and wait till you get your mind on straight; if you ought to pull your weight, pull it now. If you'd buy next winter's coat, buy it now; if you wish to save a wall, save it now; if you want to see and say what may happen when today is worn out, and laid away, do it now. If you'd demonstrate your worth, do it now; if you hope to make it big, do it now; for the idler cuts no ice, and the dreamer lacks the price; if you'd get there once or twice, do it now.

THE FIGHTERS.
Now Willard's in his training camp, acquiring skill and vim, to put a ring round Dempsey's lamp, or send him limbo from limb. It seems to me a shameful waste of time and effort, to be so busy with a beef and brawn, for scrapping's an atrocious taste, since Ludendorff is gone. This Willard should have finer aims, a nobler path should tread; for there are more uplifting games than punching Dempsey's head. And Dempsey might be teaching school, or running a hotel, for people say he is no fool; his ears is upholstered well. I'd rather earn twelve bones a week, as sales-man in a store, than have some fellows split my cheek and draw a lot of gore, e'en though I drew a mighty check for letting "other" guys wind tentacles around my neck, and paste me in the eye. I'd like Jack better if he wrought with all the toiling throng; for punching Willard's dome of thought, won't help the world along. Oh, Jack may send in giant blows, and gain the victor's wreath; or, Jess may punch Dempsey's nose and drive in all his teeth; and sports may talk for many years about the buffs they'll give; but that won't make a penny of tears a better place to live. We brighten up no mundane place by pugilistic trend; and pushing in the human face achieves no worthy end.

The Best

The McCormick Binder Saves Down and Tangled Grain

When it comes to cutting extremely short grain, or grain that is down tangled, and lodged, as yours often is, the binder must have exceptionally right reel with a wide range of adjustment.

The Reel on the McCormick Binder

can be adjusted very close to the guards, so that the operator can force short grain, or grain that is lodged and tangled, on to the platform canvas. There is never any accumulation of grain in front of the cutter bar. No matter how badly the grain is down, the MCCORMICK binder picks it up and binds it all.

It is the unfavorable season that tries the worth of a binder. The MCCORMICK stands the test. Come in and let's talk it over.

McCormick Elevator Turns the Trick

Did you ever go into a field of grain where one side was tall, heavy, and perhaps lodged? Then on the other side find the stand crop short, and overripe? It's a pretty hard matter to set your machine so that it will take care of such conditions without loss from shedding or without clogging, isn't it? Here is where a MCCORMICK binder proves its true worth.

The McCormick Has an Elevator that Floats at Four Points

This means that if the grain is thick, tangled and matted, the upper elevator will expand to allow the increased volume to pass through, and then drop back to its original position for short, thin grain. There are no changes or adjustments to make—the movement is entirely automatic. Come in and see how simple this valuable feature is.

Sounds of Joy in Belgium.
Boston Transcript: It must make the ex-taxer feel mighty sorry to hear of the Belgian populace acclaiming President Wilson in the manner in which he had it all planned out they would receive him when the Huns had succeeded in making it "Germany over all."

The Problem That Remains.
R. L. T. in the Chicago Tribune: It is the universal consensus of concerted opinion that the "Germans begin to realize that hard surfaced roads are dividend paying investments and not an expense, then will up-to-the-hub mud roads be transformed into smooth highways that can be used at all times of the year, under all conditions, with a great saving of time and money.

Investment, Not Expense.
—Propos's Chief: When the public begins to realize that hard surfaced roads are dividend paying investments and not an expense, then will up-to-the-hub mud roads be transformed into smooth highways that can be used at all times of the year, under all conditions, with a great saving of time and money.

Why Doesn't He Do It?

These tablets are intended especially for stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation. If you have any troubles of this sort, give them a trial and realize for yourself what a first class medicine will do for you. They only cost a quarter. Ady

Reason Enough.
Kansas City Times: One reason why the Germans were not permitted to accept the treaty with reservations is that they had demonstrated that they had reservations when they accepted the treaty guaranteeing Belgium's neutrality.

The Joy of Living.
To enjoy life we must have good health. No one can reasonably hope to get much real pleasure out of life when his bowels are clogged a good share of the time and the poisons that should be expelled are absorbed into the system, producing headache and indigestion. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets will move the bowels, strengthen the digestion and give you a chance to realize the real joy of living. Try it—Ady.

Mr. Morgan who moved from the Wayne vicinity to Randolph the past spring, was in Wayne yesterday. He is now located near Hazelton, near which place he bought 160 acres of improved land. He may decide to move out there.

The strange change in his ways had come after he had been through two or three times in India. She had died and her loss, it was said, had broken his heart. There was a story about that he had brought back from India a portrait, or statue, depicting the woman he had loved and lost, and that one room in the house was devoted to her as a sort of shrine. Alford Marston, a young lawyer, was named as the executor of the estate. It was by his arrangement that the portrait or statue was placed in the modest, pleasant home of Vesta one evening and informed her of the rare fortune she had inherited. The acquisition of wealth did not spoil her simple, wholesome gentleness. Her parents, however, became very anxious when they learned that a flock of fortune-seeking young men at one became persistent callers at the Brill home.

Storm Clouds on Horizon - Carry Threat That New Constitution May Establish State Socialism of Extreme Type.
By a joint resolution the legislature of 1917 submitted to the voters the question of adopting a constitutional convention. It was endorsed by a majority of the electors and the legislature of 1918 worked out the details. There will be one hundred delegates selected from the present representative districts; delegates being appointed by the filing of petitions signed by one per cent of the voters as determined by the last election, but not to exceed any more petitions than the number of delegates to be elected. The petition shall be filed between July 3 and August 9, 1919. If there be no petition candidates for such place a primary election will be held September 16 to select two candidates to go to the election ballot of November 4, 1919. The election will be held on the 14th day of the month following the election. The constitution shall be submitted to the voters at the regular election in 1920 or earlier.

INDIAN CITIES VERY ENGLISH WANT COLUMN
In Architecture and Many Other Ways They Are Copies of Those In the Old Land.
The great presidency towns, Calcutta, Bombay, Madras, are European cities planted on Indian soil. All the prominent buildings are European, though the streets are Indian. The same endeavor has been made to adopt what is known as the "Indo-Saracenic" style of architecture. For the rest the streets are called by English names, generally the names of bygone viceroys and governors, or of the soldiers who conquered the land and ruled the country—heroes whose effigies meet you at every turn. The shops are English shops, where English or European articles are sold in English goods. English carriages and motor cars bow along the macadamized or tarred roads of old England. On every hand there is evidence of the influence exerted to reproduce, as nearly as the climate will permit, English conditions of life. In Bombay, indeed, the most European of all no longer Europeans but Hindus and Parsis. There are the most sumptuous palaces on Malabar hill, the most magnificent mansions on the Queen's road and the Apollo Bunder—in Calcutta, though commercial competition is less keen.

Threat of State Socialism
During the closing days of the late legislative session a challenge was thrown into the face of the citizens of Nebraska by the passage of a bill which would seek to control the convention and write into the new constitution the provisions that would give the legislature a voice in the convention. The proposed program, viewed from the experience of North Dakota, which under the control of the same kind of legislature, has undergone changes in the present laws on taxation, of land and loan and other matters, has been a disaster. #### Notice of Hearing.

To the heirs, creditors, and all persons interested in the estate of Wilson E. Durin, deceased: You and each of you are hereby notified that C. A. Berry has filed his petition in the County Court of Wayne County, Nebraska, praying that said Wilson E. Durin died intestate at his residence in Wayne County, Neb., in the month of November, A. D. 1876. At time of his death, he was seized of real estate in Wayne County, Nebraska, including the northwest quarter of section twenty-seven (27), township twenty-six (26), north, range four (4), east of the 6th P. M. in Wayne County, Nebraska, and left surviving him as his sole and only heirs at law, the following named children, to-wit: His daughter, Abbie J. Vroman; his daughter, Alice M. Vroman; his daughter, Emma H. Fox; and his son, Ira Durin. That all claims, debts, and demands against said real estate have been paid in full. That said estate has never been administered in Nebraska. That said C. A. Berry is the owner in fee simple of said northwest quarter of section twenty-seven (27), township twenty-six (26), north, range four (4), east of the 6th P. M. above described. Petitioner prays for a finding and decree determining the date of the death of said Wilson E. Durin, deceased; a determination of the heirs; the degree of kinship and right of descent of said real estate, and for an order barring claims of creditors and prays for such other relief as may be proper. Such petition will be heard at County Court in Wayne County, Nebraska, on the 21st day of July, A. D. 1919, at 9 o'clock a. m., at which time and place the heirs, creditors, and all persons interested in said estate may appear and show cause why a decree should not be made and entered as prayed in said petition. Dated this 18th day of June, A. D. 1919. J. M. CHERRY, County Judge. (Seal)

ABOUT COAL

Hard Coal, Soft Coal or Coke

All reports, government and mine owners and operators tell that the shortage the coming winter promises to be greater than two years ago. Why? The labor problem is assigned. Miners are quitting and migrating back to the other side of the pond, and promise to do so in increasing numbers as soon as peace is completed. They are planning to demand a 25 per cent increase in wage—a six-hour day, a five-day week—and if it must be paid to keep them going, coal supply will be short, the prices raise.

Just now we have a supply, and can fill your order promptly at a fair price—a money saving price, and you should not neglect to get the winter coal.

THRESHERS—We can supply you with that excellent coal for your work, the Youghany.

We want the public to know that the Farmers' Union Co-Operative Association is at Wayne to do business for the advantage of the farmer. We have no store or general stock, but we do sell to you saving a lot of things.

THE EARLY DAYS IN TWO COUNTIES.

Early days from the Wayne Herald, July 3, 1902:

Byron Hoile returned from an outing at Hot Springs, S. D.

Elmer Lundberg went to Lyons, Neb., to deliver the Fourth of July orator.

C. A. Chace left for an extended trip in Idaho and other western states.

R. G. Warnock and wife and daughter, Elaine, went to Sioux City to spend the Fourth.

W. H. Gildersleeve shipped 80 head of cattle to Omaha and received $7.25 per head.

John Ersh and H. Scheinfeld of Carroll were united in marriage June 30 by County Judge Hunter.

Witley Bonawitz of Wayne, and Mary Nelson of Winster, were united in marriage by County Judge Hunter.

A. M. Jacobs went to Sioux City to meet his mother and sister from Boston who will spend the summer with him.

Prof. Gibbins, formerly of the N. W. C. has assumed the presidency of the Missouri Normal college at Savannah, Mo.

Rev. Weldon and wife and the Misses Emma and Margaret Adist went to Creighton to attend the B. Y. P. U. convention.

Miss J. W. McGinty went to Stone City to remain with Mrs. E. W. Callen who was in a hospital undergoing treatments.

James Shannon loaded his household goods and went to Carroll to take up his residence and engage in the stock buying business.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Harrington went to Randolph to attend the wedding of the latter's brother, Dr. John Van Keren, to Miss Severen of Chicago.

Fred B. Woolston who had been postmaster here for five years, accepted a position under the civil service in Omaha. Miss Logan of Ponca, will be the new deputy in the Wayne office.

From Ponca Journal, July 5, 1883: Wakefield had a pleasant and enthusiastic Fourth of July celebration. From 1,500 to 2,000 people were in attendance.

J. W. Porter yesterday received a letter from Frank Porter at Ponca, Iowa, from which it appears that May, M. S. Porter was to start for this place on the 3rd of the month. All those who went with him four years ago will return with him.

We understand that the citizens of this place have made arrangements with the county commissioners, relative to having a court house built here. The town gives $3,500 and the county $1,500, making in all $5,000. This sum ought to build a good court house. The iron girders purchased by the county are to be placed in the new building.

The Fourth of July at Norris was fully celebrated. There was a large attendance, and speeches, music, horse racing in the day time and fireworks and a dance in the evening.

ing, filled the measure of happiness in Norris.

An exchange says that the new town of Talmage boasts of a citizen named Damian of Nebraska City another lives whose name is Danian and Lincoln has a Mr. Danow. Here are a number of names all derived from one root, viz, Dam. And the root is found in Wakefield, Dixon county, where A. B. Dam is a leading and respected citizen.

The Sioux City Journal publishes an interview with Mr. Peavey in relation to the extension of the railroad into Cedar county. Mr. Peavey stated that the line would go from Wakefield. He said, "I have just sent the Wakefield people this telegram: 'Mr. Winter desires me to say that it was the action of your enterprising people that brought this action about. Work will be commenced next week and crowded to completion without delay.'

The Wakefield people saw the advantage a junction would be for their town and gave right of way through Dixon county to secure the prize. The company owned a grade from Ponca west through Dixon county, and that was of course a strong inducement to build from Ponca. But the public spirit of Wakefield people carried Vice-President Winter, and Wakefield was selected as the point from which to start the line into Cedar county.

The route is from Wakefield northwest up the Logan creek, across low divide onto the Bow creek and down the valley of that stream to a point near the forks of the Bow. This will be as far as the road will be built this season. There is an open route west to Niobrara or north of Yankton. This terminus is near the center of Cedar county, and is sure to make a good town.

Mr. Peavey also said there would be two towns on the line in Dixon county, one of them near the center of the county and likely to be the county seat.

The country along the line is the best in the west. The soil is not excellent anywhere. The ground is slightly rolling, enough for drainage. It is well watered with creeks. Land is cheap in Dixon and Cedar counties, considering its excellence and accessibility.

In answer to the inquiry as to when the road would be built, Mr. Peavey said: "The contractor, Carmichael of Tama City expects to have the thirty-five miles of grading done so that the iron can be laid early in October. There is no heavy work, and Mr. Carmichael expects in country tonight ready to open the work on Tuesday. Enough right of way has been secured to begin on, and the grading is to be rushed. The people along the line are enthusiastic over the coming of the road."

WAYNE TESTIMONY.

Home Proof, Here, There and Everywhere.

When you see Doan's Kidney Pills recommended in this paper you must always first be recommended by a Wayne resident. It's the same everywhere—in 3,800 towns in the U. S. Fifty thousand people publicly thank Doan's. What other kidney remedy can give this proof of merit, honesty and truth? Home testimony must be true or it could not be published here. Read this Wayne recommendation. Then insist on having Doan's. You will know what you are getting.

Ole Hurst, retired farmer says: "I have had no occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills for some time. The pills they gave me and others from the family from back in the day other symptoms of kidney trouble has convinced me that Doan's are reliable."

How Chiropractic Adjustments Are Given

Many sensitive people who do not enjoy Health delay calling a Medical man because they fear that they will have to undergo a physical examination which will be embarrassing. In consulting a Chiropractor all this is done away with. The only part of the body which concerns the Chiropractor and which needs to be exposed is the Spine. The following illustration shows patient on Adjusting Table ready for an Adjustment.

Ladies' Pay Especial Attention

Many a woman neglects her Health because in consulting a Medical man she feels that she will have to expose her body. The following illustration shows that such a fear is groundless when a Chiropractor is consulted. Only the spine is exposed.

With the Bare Hands Only

A Chiropractic Adjustment is given with the bare hands only. No adjuncts such as stretching machines, vibrators, drugs, etc., are used, because none are necessary. CHIROPRACTIC, pure, straight CHIROPRACTIC is what you need and is what will bring the desired results.

Urging Every Consumer to Get
His Supply of Coal

Immediately

CCAREFUL INVESTIGATION is conclusive of the fact the fuel situation is serious. Unless something akin to a miracle occurs, there will be a worse coal famine in this western country next fall and winter than ever before experienced.

Labor Difficulties + Car Shortage = Coal Famine

Those Who Have Not Ordered Their Winter's Supply of Coal Should Heed well the Warnings Given.
The majority of the coal miners are aliens.

50,000 Coal Miners

Have left the United States since January 1. Thousands of others are now seeking transportation. Some return to their native land through curiosity, some to look up missing relatives, and others to contribute their help in the rebuilding of their countries.

Conscription of Labor

For mining, one of the chief war industries, together with an unusually mild winter, coupled with the foresight of the average consumer, prevented a serious coal shortage last year.

Obituary. Martha J. Neff was born in Indiana on May 15, 1847, moving to Illinois with her parents when quite young, and growing up in that state. She came to Wakefield in 1884, and lived here twenty-four years, and then moved to Happy Tex., in 1909, with her brother, Mr. P. J. Neff. She was married to Mr. J. Neff on Tuesday, June 25, at the age of 72 years, 2 months, and 10 days.

Mrs. Neff was a faithful Christian and was a beautiful character, and was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church of Happy Tex. She died at 11 o'clock in the forenoon. Quite a number of old friends gathered together in the cemetery, and Rev. Frank Williams, who officiated, gave a brief address of the departed.

The funeral services were held at 11 o'clock in the forenoon. Quite a number of old friends gathered together in the cemetery, and Rev. Frank Williams, who officiated, gave a brief address of the departed.

Presentation to Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Beebe. Last Friday was the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Beebe, and their friends of the M. E. church had thought to plan a big surprise visit on them, but discovered that there was to be the birthdays of the two ladies which came in the same week. After an afternoon of sociability the hostesses returned to the guests, who presented the two ladies with a purse as a birthday remembrance.

Twenty-Fifth Anniversary.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Busby, because of the rain Friday, were obliged to change their plans of holding their anniversary gathering at the home of Mrs. Beebe at the close of the morning service in the Methodist church on Sunday last.

The pastor Rev. F. Williams, introduced the subject, appropriately expressing appreciation of Mr. Beebe's services as steward teacher, secretary to the district conference, church treasurer, and Sunday school superintendent, and to Mrs. Beebe's contribution with the Ladies' Aid society, in the Sunday school and elsewhere. Mr. George Whipperman also voiced the sentiments of their fellow-members of church and congregation, in a short address that was full of feeling, and made a presentation of silver plates to Mr. and Mrs. Beebe as representing the unceasing appreciation and best wishes of their church members.

After a social afternoon the hostesses served refreshments.

Rybak-Dupont. The marriage of Miss Viola Dupont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Dupont to Rev. Theodore Rybak, son of Rev. Theodore Rybak, Rock Island, Ill., took place Thursday evening, June 26, at the Lutheran church. At 7 o'clock the wedding party took their places at the altar as the wedding march was played by Miss Martha Rybak.

After a social afternoon the hostesses served refreshments.

The Sunday school will have its annual picnic at John Erickson's grove at 10:30 next Friday. Next Sunday will be the 100th anniversary of the church. The evening service will be devoted especially to the interests of the young people. The meeting of the Sewing society has been postponed until July 9, but will be held then at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bengtson.

Olson-Anderson. A pretty home wedding took place July 25, 1919, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albin Anderson, residing five miles southeast of Ceresco, Neb. When their daughter, Mrs. Fred J. Olson, was married in marriage to Mr. Fred J. Olson.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Olson of Wakefield, who was recently discharged from military service, following his return from France, where he served in the Thirty-second division of the United States army.

At 4 p. m., to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Edith Anderson, the bridal procession marched down the aisle and through the rooms to the parlor where beneath a white wedding bell, the marriage knot was tied, who performed by Miss C. E. Peterson of the Swedish mission church of Ceresco. The procession was led by Miss Edith Anderson, followed by the bridegroom, followed by the bride, preceded by the bridesmaid, Miss Edith Anderson, followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Edith Anderson, followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Edith Anderson.

After congratulations, the guests gathered on the lawn where a four-course luncheon was served.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Olson of Wakefield, Mrs. Fred Hallstrom and daughter Doris of Orchard, Neb., Miss Edna Hallstrom and daughter Helen and Vivian of Wakefield, and Miss Hilda Samuelson of Plattsmouth, S. D.

The newly married couple will be at home after July 15, at Wakefield.

General Purpose Resolved. In Washington Post: Every attempt by the Huns to shield the Kaiser gives the lie to the statement that the German people are against the murder of free nations.

Commercial Body Warns Omaha Chamber of Commerce Asks Investors to be Careful. The Omaha Chamber of Commerce has issued a warning against investors who are promoting schemes. In the course of a letter to the Herald under date of June 30, the Omaha body says in part: "Each dollar which is sunk in worthless promotion means just that much available capital withdrawn from the development and upbuilding of this territory. Those who care easy money by such methods, soon dissipate it, and live in the stock of a corporation until he has carefully investigated the proposition. He should ask the advice of his business friends, not one, but several. Men who have been successful in their own businesses are admirably equipped to advise an investor. Investors should be careful that the permitted use in Nebraska by the state to buy commission does not impair the soundness of an investment."

OMAN GIRLS IN CONCERT Large Audience Hears and Appreciates Wayne Talent. The recital given by Misses Fern and Frances Uman and Miss Irma Wolfe, recited Friday evening at the city auditorium, was all that could be desired. Wayne is justly proud of the Oman sisters and their wayward brother. It is a fact that they have been making good use of their time while studying in Lincoln.

CHANGE IN HERALD STAFF Miss Elizabeth Durrie, With Paper Over Two Years, Resigns. Miss Elizabeth Durrie who had been a most capable and conscientious assistant in the Herald office for two and one-half years, discontinued such services Saturday night and left for her home at Laurel where she will spend the summer in deserved rest. Miss Durrie was popular in Wayne and in the other towns where she used her efforts in behalf of the Herald, and her pleasant personality was greatly missed.

During the balance of the summer Miss Elizabeth Mines will take Miss Durrie's place in most respects, handling Wakefield in connection with duties in Wayne. Mines will manage the Carroll department and Miss Dorothy will look after Winslow. All three will contribute to the Herald's different branches of service during the summer, and all are aspiring young ladies who take to newspapering as naturally as a duck takes to water.

E. J. RAYMOND SELLS HOUSE Former Wayne Man Gets $30,000 for Des Moines Residence. Ed J. Raymond, formerly of Wayne, sold his residence at Des Moines, Iowa, for $30,000 according to the following report appearing in a Des Moines paper.

The home of Ed Raymond of the X-ray Incubator company, 620 Country Club boulevard in Waterloo, Iowa, has been sold to Mrs. J. Paul of the Pratt Paper company. The price was $30,000.

As part payment Ed Raymond will take the title to the Russel J. Ward property, a piece of land 100 feet wide running from Ingersoll avenue to Grand avenue at Twenty-third street and Grand avenue in Wakefield.

The Raymond home is one of the largest and most attractive homes in Wakefield. It has three bedrooms and three bathrooms and a garage with room for three machines in the basement.

Distinguished Visitors. Boston Transcript:—With the Prince of Wales coming in August and the king and queen of Belgium and Cardinal Mercier in September, it looks as if there will be striking additions to the list of distinguished names in our guest book before the season is over.

Next on the Card. Sioux Falls Argus-Leader: The newspapers will continue to be interesting and a big thing in the line of news will be the trial of the case of The World vs. William Hohensollern.

Force Essential. Omaha World-Herald: An army of occupation may not be necessary, but an army of enforcement will be.

Thrice Welcome. Chicago Daily News: Pease has had a long vacation. Its return is thrice welcome.

"Der Tag." Philadelphia Public Ledger: "The Day" for Germany turns out to be one of reckoning.

AGRICULTURAL NOTES.

South to the Front in Road Building.

Recent reports received by the United States department of agriculture on Federal aid road projects show the south moving forward in the road-building campaign, with projects showing higher grade construction. Of the 16 Georgia projects approved for April, two were for concrete, for concrete and bituminous road, the others being for sand-clay roads. The concrete roads will cost from $30,000 to $32,000 a mile, indicating the highest type construction for the cost in the south is usually less than that in the north. Louisiana will build short bituminous macadam road at an estimated cost of $36,377 a mile. Virginia has one bituminous macadam and three concrete roads in line, projects approved.

Little Skim Milk Thrown Away.

Apparently very little skim milk was thrown away by milk dealers last year. The United States department of agriculture recently made investigations in dealers in Boston, Philadelphia, Detroit and Pittsburgh, cities selected as typical. Only one dealer reported throwing away any considerable quantity of skim milk. Others report manufacturing their surplus into various products including cheese, milk powder, condensed milk, buttermilk, and casing. In Boston, Philadelphia, and Pittsburgh, the largest surpluses came in May and June. The season of large surplus came earlier in Detroit, beginning in February and running through April. In the case of some individual dealers who do a considerable manufacturing business as well as a market milk business, the surplus appears to have been large throughout the year. The department of agriculture reiterates the importance of utilizing all skim milk to the best advantage and points out that the most economical way of handling it can not be determined as a general proposition, but must be worked out by each dealer for himself.

Demonstrate Grain Grading.

Demonstrations showing how grain is graded at terminal markets, from the first to the last step, are being shown by federal grain supervisors to farmers, millers, elevator men, and others in a series of meetings now being held in several states. The officials in charge demonstrate the equipment used by inspection officers at terminal markets and the methods employed in grading grain according to the federal standards. They demonstrate how to apply the grades with a limited and inexpensive set of equipment at the county mill and elevator. Samples of various grades of wheat, corn, and oats are carried with the demonstrations, besides type trays and charts showing the various grading factors, under the standards, and the effect of mixtures of foreign material on the milling and baking quality of flour. Samples of wheat, corn, and oats are taken from cars with the probe. These samples are mixed, and methods of taking an average sample by mechanical means is demonstrated. Special equipment, which tests for moisture, dockage, and weight per bushel, is also used. The main object is to demonstrate methods by which the United States department of agriculture, in carrying out the provisions of the grain standards act, determines grain grades at principal markets. Prices paid for wheat and shelled corn are based upon the grades of federal standards. Demonstrations are being held in a number of cities in Ohio, Indiana, Iowa, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Texas. Similar demonstrations are to be given in Michigan and other states in the near future.

Learn Sewing in Railway Station.

Arizona women are hustlers, if those who attend the clothing schools held in that state are typical examples. These clothing schools are conducted by the home demonstration agents under the direction of the United States department of agriculture and the state college. The women who attended there are taught various phases of dressmaking and millinery. Such a school was recently held at Saltmarita, Ariz. The waiting room at the railway station was the only available place to meet. Before it could be used, the walls and floors needed a thorough scrubbing and they were given it by the committee in charge. Three machines and two work tables were installed and twelve women came for instruction the first afternoon. The amount of work accomplished during the entire week by those in attendance was a surprise to the home demonstration agent and the committee in charge. One woman, in the three days she attended, made a voile dress, a white dress—a shirt (from an material), a hat, and a baby cap. While doing this she also mended the baby she had brought with her. When the youngest grew restless, she ran her sewing machine with one foot and rolled the baby carriage back and forth with the other. All during her work she sang a Dutch lullaby to the baby.

The Fact of the Matter

YOU can get for yourself that the Chandler is the most closely priced fine car in the whole American market. Printer's ink lends itself to the presentation of claims and facts alike. We make it our purpose, in speaking of the Chandler, to deal with facts only.

And this we believe to be the fact, that no other automobile, built so well, built of such good materials, built in such good design, is priced within hundreds of dollars of the Chandler price.

The Chandler motor is truly a great motor. There is none better. Fifty thousand Chandler owners know it. And countless thousands of their friends and neighbors know it. Now in its seventh year of constant development, without radical change of design, it approximates perfection.

The whole Chandler chassis, simple and sturdy, is dependable and enduring. And Chandler bodies, graceful in line, roomy and comfortable, luxuriously upholstered and beautifully finished, are suggestive of the best custom work.

The New Series Touring Car

will delight you and your family. It is big and handsome, seats seven grown persons without crowding, and will take you anywhere in comfort. The Chandler is fast when you want speed. It is flexible and instantly responsive in crowded traffic. It is powerful on steep grades.

Mrs. Mayne Peterson left Wayne Tuesday for her home at Peterson, Ia., after a week's visit with friends. She was a guest while here at the G. A. Wade, William Watson, and

C. E. Sprague homes. Miss Peterson attended the Wayne State Normal for two years, graduating in 1918.

Miss Esther Carlson of Wausau went through Wayne Wednesday en route to Denver, Colo., where she will spend the summer. Miss Carlson was a former student at the Normal.

Marion Surber, Lowell Rippon, Leslie Rundell, Rolland Henney, and Lehard Hertz went to Crystal Lake Sunday to spend the day. They took their fishing equipment with them, but returned with no fish.

Miss Margaret Pryor and Mrs. A. J. Kervin were passengers to Omaha Tuesday morning to attend the profession of Sister Mary Edmund (Loretta Croghan) in the Mercy chapel Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee James arrived in Wayne Tuesday to visit relatives. Mr. James was discharged from the army June 3 and he and Mrs. James since then have been visiting relatives in Missouri and Iowa. They expect to locate in Wayne or near here. Mr. James is a brother of John James of Wayne.

Nels Johnson of the Carroll neighborhood who was in Omaha to attend a meeting of representatives of farmers' unions, returned home Tuesday evening. He reports that the organization decided to form a corporation capitalized at $3,000,000 for the purpose of buying and selling in the interest of the farmers.

CHURCH CALENDAR

The Presbyterian Church.
(Rev. J. W. Beard, minister).
All services Sunday as usual.
At the morning service we will observe the quarterly communion.
Evening service at 8 o'clock.
Subject of the evening sermon, "Benediction."
Sunday school at 11:30. Classes for all.
Senior Endeavor at 7 o'clock.
Prayer-meeting at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, 8th Psalm.
You are very welcome at all services. Come!

English Lutheran Church.
(Rev. J. H. Fetterolf, Pastor).
Sunday school at 10 a. m.
Public worship at 10 o'clock at 11 a. m. Immediately before the regular sermon—the pastor will preach a five-minute sermon to the children. If our children continue to show an interest these object sermons by not going home after Sunday school, we intend to make them a feature in our worship every other Sunday.

Parents don't do much towards the accomplishment of our desire to bring a message of truth especially adapted to the children. After all it is said, we must admit that the service of public worship is the most important service of the church. If the children are impressed with this truth early enough there may be less inclination for them to run away from the preaching service.

Mrs. Eric Thompson will entertain the Ladies' Aid society at her home three miles southeast of town. The time is Thursday, July 10.

Sunday, July 13, our congregation will celebrate the Lord's Supper. Parents having children to receive the rite of baptism will please arrange to bring them to this service.

First Baptist Church.
(Robert H. Pratt, S. T. M., Minister).
Childhood has its rights. So has womanhood, and manhood, too. We are sensitive to our own rights, but are not so sensitive to the rights of others. What about God's rights? Worship, love, and faith—are his right, and man's blessing. Are you fair with God?
The church basement will be open on the Fourth of July for those who wish to rest or eat their lunch. A toilet is available for the ladies and children. The church is glad to help in this way, to make the day a brighter one for the guests of our town.

On Wednesday evenings the pastor is giving a course of studies in the problem of suffering as viewed by the bible. Next Wednesday the contribution of the Book of Job will be considered. This book is called one of the greatest in all literature. Come and study it with us. The regular services will be held on Sunday. Special notice of them will be posted in the postoffice. Look there for our announcements.

A Modern Miracle.
Reflections of a Bachelor Girl: To find your mate—that is good fortune; to know him when you find him—that is inspiration; to win him when you know him—that is art; to keep him when you've won him—that is a miracle!

Six Hours Insufficient.
Spingfield, Mass., Republican: The American Federation of Labor now regards as ideal the six-hour day, but it will require more work than a six-hour day can ever deliver to establish a workingman's day for any other man's utopia.

Gratitude.
Charleston Evening Post: They are singing hymns of hate against America in a good many countries, but they all know where to come when they want to make a loan, get something to eat or be protected from somebody else.

Optimism.
Detroit News: We will pay our college professors enough—one of these days, so they won't have to keep wishing they had elected to be jockeys or prizefighters.

Finance.
Minneapolis Journal: The real financiers today is the man who is taking money out of pigs and putting it into government bonds.

trough wall of them. I saw large battens all built up solid with concrete, with ladders for entering them and telephone lines running into them. They were probably used by some officer as his headquarters when the Germans held the lines.

Early the next morning I left for Verdun. I was told that there had been shot up and torn up by the Argonne. I passed through the Argonne trenches all over and around it.

There was no "X" or Red Cross mark but I had been tipped off by a French soldier who told us to go on the other side of town and that we were to get back where we started from.

We turned off on a wrong road after a ways and came to a stone quarry. We stopped at a house and got a drink and then went up toward a fort that stood on the hill.

We started toward it. The road had been repaired, but we could see where the shells had made holes in it. We reached the road around the fort and found it was a little ways down the road a water tank... I saw a hill so far away that it was a little ways down the road.

As we were going on all sides of us showing that some poor fellow had been shot. The water tank on each spot, and as we went we saw more and more of them. On the further side of the fort the large wire netting was cut and right on around the fort, one going straight ahead, and the other turning to the left.

We were in the valley between the hills. We were looking for it. We were looking for it. We were looking for it.

We were looking for it. We were looking for it. We were looking for it. We were looking for it.

We were looking for it. We were looking for it. We were looking for it. We were looking for it.

We turned to the right and after a few minutes as we didn't see any entrance, we decided to climb the top of the hill to the fort. We found it with leading wires that ran up the hill and were on the top of the hill and in the fort.

We walked around for a while and found the other end to find the entrance. We went out through the trench to the right of the hill and so hid in the shell holes. A French soldier told us that Fort Douaumont was over the next hill and that we were to go to the right of the hill and so hid in the shell holes.

We were in Fort Souville which were held by the Germans, so we examined it while we were in there. A French soldier in a gun turret said they were there. He said they were there.

After some time we passed through the valley and went up the hill toward the fort. We soon reached the fort and found it late in the day we took in the sights as quickly as we could.

There was no place to stay so we camped in the trenches. We had to get up at night and go to the depot, and slept until two. Then we had to get up.

We were in the valley between the hills. We were looking for it. We were looking for it. We were looking for it.

We were looking for it. We were looking for it. We were looking for it. We were looking for it.

We were looking for it. We were looking for it. We were looking for it. We were looking for it.

We were looking for it. We were looking for it. We were looking for it. We were looking for it.

Wednesday evening and went to at the Palace de Glass. I didn't see much of Paris the next day as everything was closed up. Being a French holiday so I walked around town and left that evening for Clewett-Thierry where I was to spend Memorial day.

I returned to Paris Friday morning to spend Memorial day there. I had dinner at the Palace de Glass and then went out on the special train to Suresnes cemetery to hear President Wilson speak.

The service was very elaborate. President Wilson gave a short talk, the graves were decorated and taps sounded over them, and then we returned to Paris.

I went to a special show at the Champs Elysees Theatre that evening given by the Y, and left the next morning for Clewett-Thierry to spend my last day there.

I went up to visit the Chateau de Suresnes afterward. This is an old place built about seven hundred A. D. but it all gone now. Only the underground tunnels and the wall are left.

The guide took us through the tunnels and showed us where the Germans had placed their machine guns when they held the place. They were able to command the town from their elevated position.

We went back to Paris Sunday morning to spend my last day there. I had dinner at the Red Cross and then went out on the special train in the afternoon. Versailles used to be the home of the kings and it was good enough for any king to live in Versailles.

I went back to Paris about four weeks ago and took supper at the Hotel Folies-Bergere in the evening. A fine Paris show.

I left Monday morning for St. Nazaire, France, on the boat. I stayed at the Hotel de France during my stay there. I was well satisfied with my trip as I had seen things I had never imagined. I will send you a post card to St. Nazaire wishing I could leave for the States the next day, but such good luck will never be mine. I am content to stay here a while longer yet.

WHY NOT HAVE PERFECT LENSES? Improvements and betterments in glasses are just as frequent as in anything else.

Until a few years ago no lenses were flat because no one had thought of a better way to make them.

Today nearly 90 per cent of the lenses are curved to follow the shape of the eyeball. We fit you with glasses that give a perfect range of vision from every angle—the edges do not blur when you turn looking from the corner of the eye.

ANDERSON CARS

Of Guaranteed Service

AFTER carefully investigating the merits of the Anderson car, we have accepted the local agency, and have no hesitancy in giving it our strongest endorsement. In service, dependability and durability, the Anderson will appeal to any buyer. Four were sold here during the past week. A car load of Andersons is now in transit, and deliveries may be made without delay.

A Few Words About This Car

The Anderson Motor Company has taken sincere interest in working out ALL the construction features of its cars. Minor points have received the same thoughtful consideration that has been bestowed upon the more prominent details—the complete car is one of exceptional worth and dependability as a result. Study of the general specifications given here quickly reveal this fact.

More than a quarter century's manufacturing experience to begin with, combined with long, thorough-going tests of completed cars before the Anderson line was formally introduced, insures users' satisfaction now.

Anderson motor cars appeal to the good taste of discriminating purchasers. Their attractive appearance is fully matched by their mechanical qualities—the high-powered motor, equal to any practical demand, and the reliable, accurate clutch, giving complete and instant control over a wide range of speeds. Anderson cars are justly popular among ladies who do their own driving.

Great care in designing all models has been provided a generous amount of seating space. Auxiliary seats in seven-passenger models fold completely out of the way when not in use. Storm curtains, carried in overhead retainers, completely enclose the car, making it a REAL all-weather conveyance.

Anderson Motor Cars include a complete line—Sedans, Touring Cars, and Roadsters. All provide the same high-class, thorough-going mechanical equipment and all are appointed in the same good taste.
