There's no makers stretch of the lunchroom was just over, and she was talking to a little knot of women. The first words I heard, as I slipped quietly into a nearby seat, were "National Biscuit," recalling pleasantly to my own. I heard her say "National Biscuit" again, my pen nib scribbled on the paper.

"I've never had one," she said, and I made up my mind to get one for her. I went to the counter and bought a box of National Biscuits. I took it home and gave it to her. She was very pleased and she said she would give it to her children, as we must feed them. I was glad to hear that, for I always like to see my children happy. I will give her another box when I see her. I will give her another box when I see her. I will give her another box when I see her.

Bringing to the door of your dining room—as close as your own kitchen—the matchless facilities of the best and most wholesome bakeries in the world. Uneeda Biscuits come to you as fresh and immaculate as when they were taken from the oven.

NELSON'S PERPETUAL LOOSE-LEAF ENCYCLOPEDIA

Down to Date

In these unusual times when with stirring and momentous events of vital importance to nations and men the world over, an Extraordinary Encyclopedia has become an absolute necessity.

American enterprise has solved the problem by making a foot-leaf Encyclopedia that is perpetually new. Born in America—made in America—by Americans for Americans—it covers the whole world.

Down to Date

The war is now history. Nations are being in step with the world today. All old fashioned reference works have been simply marooned time during the greatest years of history. Nelson's changes with the changing world.

ALWAYS NEW—Every six months all subscribers to NELSON'S receive their renewal pages, 250 pages or more, between 500 and 700 pages each year. These include over 2,000 changes and keep Nelson's perpetually accurate and up to date.

Save Time, Look it Up in Nelson's!

Nelson's Reading and Study Courses in United States History, Business Economics, Nature Study, Agriculture, and Home Economics are declared by educational authorities to be equal to a college course and training in each of these departments. By their use—a boy can remain on the farm and yet receive all the advantages of a college course in Scientific Farming; a girl may have the services of the leading authorities on household economics without leaving her home; while the professional and business man may receive a business training superior to that which can be obtained from any of the widely advertised business institutes.

Nelson's Research Service Bureau For scientific reports and special information and correspondence. Every purchaser of Nelson's is entitled to free membership in this bureau. If at any time you are in doubt on any subject, old or new, write to this bureau with the positive assurance that you will promptly receive the latest obtainable and most dependable information.

The prosperity of a community is reflected to a great extent in the bank statements. The above statements show an increase in deposits in the past 12 months of $263,748.25, and figuring that this bank and its customers have purchased and paid for $740,950.00 in Liberty Bonds, War Saving Certificates, and other government securities, it is evident that Wayne county is prosperous, even beyond expectations.
The State Bank of Wayne, with its resources of over $1,200,000.00, is working for the interests of Wayne and Wayne county in every way, and very glad to serve you.
Henry Ley, President. C. A. Chack, Vice-President. Rollie W. Ley, Cashier. Herman Lundberg, Assistant Cashier.

C. E. Business Meeting.

The regular business meeting of the C. E. society of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday evening with Miss Mary Mathewson. Eight new members were received. Following a social hour refreshments were served.

Mrs. Mathewson Entertains.
Mrs. R. H. Mathewson entertained twenty guests Friday at her home in honor of Mrs. G. H. Bannon, Mrs. Guy Stone and Mrs. M. S. Cook. The rooms were decorated in cut flowers, roses, and cypripediums. "Visiting" made up the afternoon's entertainment. Mrs. Mathewson served a two-course luncheon at small tables decorated for the occasion.

Show for Miss Astroppe.
Mrs. L. C. Nuernberger and Mrs. Dean Cornell entertained twenty young ladies Friday afternoon at a miscellaneous show for Miss Olive Astroppe. The bride-to-be received many beautiful gifts. Miss Katherine Owens of Carroll favored the company with a number of vocal selections. At the close of a social afternoon, a two-course pink-and-white lunch was served.

Eastern Star Entertains.

Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Coe's home was the scene of a most pleasant social event Tuesday evening when members of the Eastern Star entertained their conductress, Miss Olive Astroppe, and her fiancée, Mr. Earl Leonard. The bride-to-be was presented with a beautiful cut-glass vase. At the close of a very pleasant evening, delicious refreshments were served.

Honor Future Bride.

Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Iule Kilroy and her sisters, The Miznet Ethel and Edith Johnson, at the Johnson's beautiful country home, entertained forty ladies at a shower in honor of the future bride, whose marriage to Mr. Earl Leonard will take place December 3. During the afternoon, a mock wedding was held. The bride-to-be acted as bride, Ethel Johnson as groom, Edith Johnson as flower girl, and Mrs. Dean Cornell as the minister. Mrs. the flower girl had presented the gifts to the bride-to-be, a two-course lunch was served.

Birthday Surprises.

The members of the birthday club organized last week, met at the P. M. Orr home Monday and honored Mrs. M. Orr with a birthday surprise. About thirty were present. The guests brought fried chicken, and all accompaniments for a 6 o'clock dinner. The evening was spent in an interesting group of automobile races. Those present were separated into four groups, each representing one of the four cities as filling the radiator, represented by filling a bottle with peas, were of much interest. The next surprise party will be December 14 for Bert Ellis.

School Notes.

School will be dismissed Thursday and Friday for Thanksgiving vacation.

The Hartington football team defeated the Wakefield team last Friday at Hartington by a score of 33 to 15.

WAYNE WINS FROM LAUREL

Local School Football Team Scores Six to Laurel's Nothing.

Wayne high school defeated Laurel high school by a score of 6-0 in a closely matched football game on the Laurel gridiron Friday afternoon. The local team was not expecting as hard a game as they had and were a trifle over confident of their own prowess.

There were no spectacular plays such as characterized the game with Randolph the previous week, with the exception of a few long passes. Although there were no stars in the game, the Wayne team work was good. Both teams were near scoring several times when the tuck of the game failed.

The game was characterized by clean action on the part of both teams, and the rooters. The Wayne men met with fine treatment.

Miller made the touchdown for Wayne in the first quarter. The kick was taken from a long angle and just missed. The teams were evenly matched, both of them averaging about 130 yards to the man.

More Honor for Wayne Girls.

In the course of a writer of an operatic program participated in by state university students, the Lincoln Journal makes this reference to two Wayne girls, Miss Fern and Miss Frances Oman, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Oman:

"In the gypsy scene from 'Carmen,' Miss Fern Oman made a convincing gypsy and sang dramatically. The other soloists for the scene were Miss Emma and Miss Dollic Densberger and Carl Schaefer. Frances Oman has a soprano voice of unusual purity of tone and flexibility. In an earlier solo, 'Araditi's 'Se Sa Saron Rose,' the beauty of her performance surprised the audience into spontaneous applause in the middle of the song. A series of 'emotional' attitudes through which Madame de Vilmar led the class furnished a graceful and novel feature."

The Penny in Trade.

Sioux City Journal: Merchants find considerable trouble in educating the buying public to an understanding of the relation of the penny in retail prices. A few years ago in the western states, the cost of standard price money, articles costing 2 cents, 3 cents, 7 cents and other odd amounts, was reduced.

In the west, where money was more plentiful and the people less conservative, the nickel was the smallest piece of money in trade. It is some of its multiples were the only prices quoted. Then came the period of the marked down prices, when the article actually priced at $1 was marked and sold for 99 cents. But the present difficulty is the reverse of that psychology of business. People are not willing to have odd cents added to the price. If butter is quoted at 71 cents, they cannot understand why it could not be sold at 70 cents so as to make the price by nickels instead of cents.

Merchants assert, and they are correct, that the addition of 1 cent on the price of an article makes considerable difference in the total profits realized. They contend that the retail price that the addition of 1 cent to the retail price means a cost which is taking 1 cent from the consumer's pocket. On the same ground they assert that the addition of 5 cents instead of one cent to the price would mean an increase of 5 cents on the buying public and materially increase the cost of living. How much of this argument is correct and how much is questionable the public must determine for itself, judging the merchant by the standard of business honesty which he had before the days of trading developed.

The joint coffee trade publicity committee representing the coffee importers and roasters in the United States, asserts that a cup of coffee with sugar and a dash of cream costs but 1.2 cents. Retail retail prices are 3 cents. If the committee statement is correct, the cup of coffee could be sold for 3 cents with 100 per cent profit. Yet the price based on the nickel instead of the penny unit and the profit on the nickel basis is 233 per cent. At any rate, the people must become accustomed to the penny in prices, because the days of close margins will come if they are not here now. When inflation collapses, prices will be close and prices will be made within small ranges. The penny will come into service, at the demand of the people. It might as well be recognized now as later.

Coleridge Woman Dies.

Sioux City Journal: Word has been received in Sioux City of the death of Mrs. Ellen Lacy, of Coleridge, Neb., age 77 years. Mrs. Lacy was born in Limerick, Ire., and came to America with her parents in 1825, and ten years later was married to Moses Lacy, at Madison, Wis. The young couple moved to Marion, Lin county, Ia., the same year they were married, where they remained until 1881 when they moved to Morgan township, Woodbury county, being among the early settlers of that section. The year 1900 saw them located on a ranch in Cedar county, Neb.

She is survived by her husband, three sons and two daughters: T. F. Lacy, Mrs. F. J. Smith, Mrs. W. J. Flynn, all of Sioux City; John Lacy, of Arpsch, Okla.; Henry and Amber Lacy, of Council Bluffs, Ia.; T. J. Lacy, of San Francisco, and J. W. Lacy of Laurel, Neb. A brother, Patrick Gleason, resides in New Richmond, Wis.

In 1901 Mrs. Mary Gleason, mother of Mrs. Lacy, died at Laurel, Neb., at the advanced age of 104 years, having lived in three centuries. The late John Redmond, Irish member of the Catholic church.

Women May Vote.

Lincoln, Nov. 21.—Election Commissioner Harley G. Moorehead has written the attorney general for information as to whether women can vote for president and vice president in the next election.

The attorney general's office has notified Mr. Moorehead that the statutes of the state in a law passed by the 1917 session, Chapter 30, Section 1940, specifically state that:

Every person who is at least 21 years of age shall be an elector, and shall have the right to vote for all officers to be elected to public office, and upon all questions that propositions submitted to the voters at any and all elections, authorized or provided by the constitution or laws of Nebraska. Provided, however, that no female person shall be permitted to vote for United States senator, United States representative, or for any officers specified in the constitution of the state of Nebraska, or upon any question or proposition submitted to the voters, the manner of the submission of which is specified and designated by the constitution of Nebraska."

In short the statutes prohibit the voting by women upon any of the officers provided for by the state constitution. They can vote for president and vice president.

Nebraska Wants Him.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 22.—Requisition was issued late yesterday by Gov. McKeive for return to Nebraska from the Iowa penitentiary at Fort Madison of Harry Thompson, wanted in Stanton county on charges of kidnaping the late Charles Augustus Young, former mayor of Stanton, on September 26, 1918.

According to reports here, Thompson has been in the Iowa prison on a grand larceny charge.

If a man works and saves, he is an abhorred tightwad. If he spends freely and without question, he is a spendthrift and needs a guardian. The right moderation, to carve out exactly the right course, is no snap.

The streets where the trench digger is at work preparing for the storm sewer, are probably in worse shape than they were last year, but should be remembered that the traffic process is preliminary to an improvement that will be a joy forever.

If the Niobrara river had been harnessed and its power used to generate electricity, northern Nebraska would not now be suffering from coal shortage. The electricity thus made would furnish clean, unlimited light and power, and the cost would be comparatively low. It is surprising that some group of capitalists had not undertaken such an enterprise long ago. As it is, rivers are running to waste and we are piling up unnecessary cost for fuel.

The late Theodore Roosevelt made this statement in the course of an address to striking stevedores in Chicago in 1914: "I am an honorary member of one union, but the union must obey the law, just as the corporation must obey the law, and as every man, rich or poor, must obey the law. As yet no action whatever has been called for by me, and I shall try to do exactly justice under the law to every man so far as I have power. But the first essential is the preservation of law and order."

A man who can mend a shoe well deserves more credit and is a more useful member of society than a man who plugs along half-heartedly and unsuccessfully in a vocation or profession of the highest distinction. Whatever a man's occupation, if he gives satisfactory service, he earns appreciation and is duly rewarded. The one who thought he was called to preach, but who followed a false alarm, disappoints himself and everybody else. Others, who think the Lord intended for them to sing or write or doctor or practice law, but who were mis-called, could have been useful and praised ornaments of society, if they had correctly interpreted the summons. Whatever one does, he should do it well and do something else.

Some justification is claimed for the striking miners on the ground that they want to work more intelligently, and that the demand for a five-day week and six-hour day is made for a better life. If they are restricted in the line they may pursue, they cannot do better than they are doing now.

The government may readily ascertain the exact facts, and find a fair and just basis for settling the differences. The popular judgment is that the strike is not warranted, and that needless deprivation and suffering have been caused. If it is a union, it is not altogether at fault, the government ought to be able to require desired concessions from it. It is a matter of work. In any event, a whole nation should not be permitted to suffer loss merely because the two conflicting elements cannot reach an agreement. The government, carefully weighing claims, ought to cause settlement without forcing. Any law need to meet such an emergency ought to be passed.

The recurrence of Thanksgiving day reminds us that we are approaching the season of special good will and generosity. A year ago we concluded the anniversary of the world war and the victory for democratic governments. But not long after a period of rejoicing, labor troubles started, and have since kept the country in hot water. It sometimes looks as though people were fatter than ever removed from the real spirit of Thanksgiving and Christmas. Witnessing four years of war did not have a beneficial effect on the mind. While the struggle was in progress, there were many opportunities and extended happiness, it has unfortunately been followed by a period of depression, discontent, and often disorder. People do not turn attention to the need of reconstruction as they did to the need of winning the war. Many of the people who were looking out for the government during the war have turned attention exclusively to looking out for themselves during the reconstruction. The result is enlarged greed, indifference to service, decreased production and greatly stimulated prices. Abnormal conditions are said to be the inevitable sequence of the war, and we are encouraged to believe that an era of peace and tranquility and better fellowship will set long dawn. Let that world will then, reflect the righteous purpose for which the war was fought and for which great sacrifice was made. We may be truly grateful that the war is over and that a year of the reconstruction has passed. It is to be hoped another year will restore the normal conditions of the world and the people to better temper and to better habits of industry and usefulness.

Ordinance No. 267.
 An ordinance creating and establishing a certain street improvement district within the city of Wayne, Nebraska, to be designated and known as Paving District Number Two, defining and fixing the limits and boundaries thereof, providing for securing plans and specifications for the grading, curbing, gutting and paving of the streets and alleys situated thereon, and estimates of the expense thereof, and providing for the grading, curbing, gutting and paving of said streets and alleys, and the assessment of the expense thereof, and for the issuance of district paving bonds or district paving warrants and interest-bearing bonds to pay the cost and expense of said improvements.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Council of the city of Wayne, Nebraska:

Section 1. That for the purpose of grading, curbing, gutting and paving certain streets and alleys situated within and forming a part of the real estate hereinafter described, a certain street improvement district, to be designated Paving District Number Two, is hereby created and established in and over the City of Wayne, Nebraska, to wit: that part of the southwest quarter of section 26, township 26 north, range 4 east of the 6th Principal Meridian, bounded as follows:

There are many advantages. In the first place there is a real shortage of merchandise in many lines and there may not be enough to go around. Most of our lines are ready for the holidays and we are not so busy now that we cannot give you the attention you deserve. Sometimes at the holiday season we cannot give you real service.

Bring your propositions to us and we will try to suggest something entirely suitable and practical for the men of your family.

The Sugar Situation

We are promised more liberal shipments of sugar in the near future. It will be at a considerable advance in price. Jobbers are unable to secure more than 20 per cent of their requirements of beet sugar at a government set price, and to relieve the situation orders are being placed for southern cane on the basis of $18.00 per hundred to the jobber plus a freight differential. Southern planters are demanding an increase in price on the basis of increased cost of production and Attorney General Palmer has confirmed the new price. Retailers are in the same boat as the jobbers. Either submit to the present sugar shortage and accept sugar at retail (when we can obtain it) or buy the southern cane sugar to retail at about 20 cents a pound, and have sugar more plentiful. This is an aggravating condition, which confronts the retailer.

Apples from $2.00 Up

We have the largest supply of apples in northeast Nebraska. Bulk box or barrel at prices which reflect the fact they were all bought in large quantities.

Specials for Friday and Saturday

100 Boxes Fancy and Extra Fancy Jonathans	$3.45
50 Boxes Extra Fancy Large Delicious	$5.00
Pancy Bulk Apples	$6.00

These are rare offerings at considerably less than replacement costs. Apply the maxim "An apple a day keeps the doctor away." There's a lot of truth in it.

Pure Country Sorghum

We have it and it has that good flavor you like so well. We also have a new lot of Blended Sorghum. Sugar is scarce—you can use sorghum for table or cooking. Many folks like sorghum if they can get the good kind and we have it.

Lincoln and My Kind Flour

CARLOAD ON TRACK

We are surely selling plenty of flour. Most everybody understands with wheat over $3.00 at Minneapolis that flour must be higher and with the embargo lifted on wheat and flour, both, next month the tendency will be in favor of further advances. Best advice say flour in 90 days will be $4.50. Get it down on your calendar—this figure will not miss it very much. We can make you some good propositions on quantity purchases. We will guarantee against decline and you are buying the best flour on earth.

Fresh Cookies

Owing to scarcity of sugar the complete and superior line of cookies always on hand accounts for the unusual demand. Two shipments each week—stock is always fresh. Cookies always on display, 25c to 40c per pound.

Iten Fairy Crackers

When it comes to real "honest-to-goodness" crackers, there is none that equals Iten's fancy cracker. In family tins, about 7 pounds, 25c a pound.

hance in the north part of Wayne, was the scene of a merry gathering. The rain fell in torrents, the walks were muddy and slippery, and members of the W. C. T. U. are especially dry bunch, but they braved the storm and enjoyed a wonderfully good time. Members and their families gathered to the number of about seventy-five. The evening was spent in games and contests—the following program was given and greatly enjoyed: Piano solo, "The Palms"; Lella Mitchell, violin solo, "Angel's Dream"; Doc Hines, vocal solo, "The Old Home Town"; Mrs. C. O. Mitchell; reading, "The Tramp"; Mrs. George Fortner, vocal solo, "I Love You Truly"; Francis Beckenbauer, recitation, "Landing of the Pilgrims"; Florence Beckenbauer, piano solo, "The Storm"; Mrs. C. O. Mitchell, piano. Some of the numbers in the original program had to be omitted on account of sickness and the storm, but the Beckenbauers, especially, are especially gifted and they graciously consented to fill in.

Pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee were served. When the lights winked their warning the guests departed thanking their host and hostess for their hospitality, and left a liberal donation to the W. C. T. U.

The members of the W. C. T. U. gave a jelly shower to the new hostess Tuesday. The next meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be this Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. H. Foster. The following seven ladies will be given Devotional, Mrs. Ed Ellis; music, Mrs. S. A. Lutgen; roll call, "Things to Be Thankful for" paper, "Social Meetings, Their Importance," Mrs. Wollert.

We are thankful today with hundreds of our customers who will sit down to their Thanksgiving dinner around which there are no empty places as there were a year ago.

We are also thankful for the generous support that Wayne county has given to this store during the past year which has made it by far the largest year in our history.

Order of Hearing on Original Probate of Will.

The State of Nebraska, Wayne County ss.
At a County Court, held at the County Courtroom, in and for said County of Wayne, on the 22nd day of November, 1919.

Present, J. M. Cherry, County Judge.
In the matter of the estate of E. E. Driskell, deceased.
On reading and filing the petition of William R. Driskell, praying that the instrument filed on the 22nd day of November, 1919, and purporting to be the last Will and Testament of said deceased, may be proved, approved, probated and allowed and recorded as the last Will and Testament of said E. E. Driskell, deceased, and that the execution of said instrument may be commuted and that the administration of said estate may be granted to May E. Driskell as executrix.
Ordered, that December 12, A. D. 1919, at 11 o'clock a. m., 1919.

signed for hearing said petition, when all persons interested in said matter, may appear at a County Court to be held in and for said County, and show cause why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted; and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this order in the Wayne Herald, a weekly newspaper printed in said County, three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing.

A YOUNG GIRL SUICIDES

Miss. Rosa Jensen of Bloomfield Burns Herself to Death.

Bloomfield Journal: The suicide of Miss Rosa Jensen which occurred on Sunday afternoon last, is one of the most shocking and saddening things that has occurred in the community for a long time. Miss Jensen was 20 years old and her death just in the first bloom of young womanhood is sad indeed.

For some weeks past she had exhibited signs of a disordered mind and the family had kept a close watch upon her. But on Sunday afternoon she managed to elude their vigilance, slipped out to the corn crib, soaked her clothing with kerosene and touched a match to it. F. C. Gartner who was in the basement of the house inspecting a recently installed furnace, was attracted by her agonizing screams, and rushing out, saw what looked like a veritable ball of fire rolling around on the ground. He grabbed it by the tail and rushing to the scene, succeeded in smothering the flames, but not until the poor girl had received frightful burns. She was removed to the house and a physician summoned. The doctor held out no hopes for her recovery and although everything that loving hands and tender care could do was done her case was beyond human aid, and she passed away at 8 o'clock Monday evening at the age of 19 years, 4 months and 27 days, having been born the 20th day of June, 1900.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jensen, prominent citizens of town, and besides the heartbroken parents, is survived by six brothers—John, Chris, Peter, Henry, Otto, and George, and one sister—Mrs. Anna Stark, Mrs. Marie Kappelman, Mrs. Maggie Sumner, and the Misses Emma and Alvin, all of town. She was a member of the community and was highly esteemed by all who knew her and well liked by her associates.

One brother, Peter, who was recently operated upon for appendicitis, is still in an Omaha hospital and has not yet been informed of his sister's tragic fate.

Advertising Situation.

About 200 hundred inches of advertising have been recently omitted from today's Herald on account of late arrival of copy and consequent lack of time to arrange for additional pages and therefore adequate space. By multiplying its pages, the Herald is able to accommodate all advertisers, but in order to do so it must know requirements sufficiently far in advance to meet them. Advertising is one of the most important details in business, or in public sales, and it is eminently worth early and careful attention.—Wayne Herald, November 15.

The Wayne Herald is a large and important newspaper. Nearly every paper of consequence that reaches the Signal carries notices of this character. Every newspaper is beset with so many troubles these days that extra care must be exercised. Wages are high out of proportion to the natural income of a newspaper and paper is equally high and scarce.

It is simply out of the question for any newspaper with a large circulation to print unnecessary pages because of the cost of the paper and the labor. Therefore a publisher must know at least three days in advance of the publication day how much advertising he will require.

The news matter remains about the same every week and some portion of it can be varied to suit the circumstances. Advertising must be taken as it stands or be refused. It is all very simple. All an advertiser has to do is to make up his mind about this important feature of his business and turn out his copy the first of each week. The paper can then easily be made large enough to accommodate him.

The volume of business continues large in all lines of merchandise and there was never a more important time for business men to write careful copy and use large space. In times like these slipping back is just as easy as going ahead and the slovenly, slothful business man is pretty likely to slip back.—Geneva Signal, November 20.

Makeup of Convention.

Lincoln, Nov. 21.—According to reports to Secretary State Amosberry, there are two men whose vocations are not known who will be members of the constitutional convention. These are Harry R. Clegg of Nebraska City and R. A. Wilson of Omaha.

Summing up the list it is shown that there will be one lawyer, thirty-two farmers, four bankers, four teachers, four merchants, three laborers, two editors, two insurance men, two preachers, one doctor and one city clerk.

Played in the Dark.

The Randolph high school football team defeated the Laurel team Monday, November 17, by a score of 9 to 0, on the Randolph field. The game was called after supper. In order that the spectators might be able to see the ball, it was covered with chalk. The team wore off and those watching the game stayed to the finish merely out of respect, not because they could witness the game.

Notice of Referee's Sale of Real Estate

Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of an order made and entered by the District Court of Wayne County, Nebraska, on the 8th day of November, A. D. 1919, in an action pending in said District Court of Wayne County, Nebraska, for the partition of real estate hereinafter described between Amelia Johnson, Selma Syle, Hilma Carlsson, Edna Olson and Thelma Holloway, the plaintiffs; and Matilda Okblom, Charley O. Okblom, Fred A. Johnson, Andrew S. Johnson, Frank Eppinger, John Albert Okblom, Edwin Olson, Roy Okblom, Christ Holloway, Harry Okblom, a minor, Leona Okblom, Nellie Okblom, Richard Okblom, a minor, and Verla Okblom, a minor, are defendants, the undersigned referee was directed by said court to sell said real estate and premises. Said referee will, on the 15th day of December, A. D. 1919, commencing at 11 o'clock a. m., on the 15th day of the month of December, at the dwelling house situated on the West Half of the Northwest Quarter of Section 1, Township 27, North of Range 2, East of the 6th p. m. sell at public auction to the highest bidder the following described real estate, to-wit: In Wayne County, Nebraska, to-wit: The West Half of the Northwest Quarter of Section 1 and the Northeast Quarter of Section 2, all in Township 27, North of Range 2, East of the 6th p. m. in Wayne County, Nebraska. Said sale will remain open at least one hour. The terms of said sale are as follows: Bids will be received on any part of the above described real estate and will be offered for sale in tracts of any size, the bidder may choose, and will be sold in tracts of such size and location as considering the bids received will bring the largest price for the whole of said real estate above described. The purchaser will be required to pay 20 per cent of the purchase price on the date of sale for land purchased, the remainder of the purchase price to be paid March 1, 1920, on delivery of deed and without interest. Deed to be given March 1, 1920. Said real estate to be sold free from incumbrance.

Dated at Wayne, Nebraska, this 10th day of November, A. D. 1919. -S. Berry, Referee. -13165

Notice of Settlement of Account

In the county court of Wayne County, Nebraska, on the 26th day of November, A. D. 1919, the account of Mary Weaver, administratrix of said estate praying a final settlement and closure of her account filed in this court on the 28th day of November, 1919, and for distribution of residue of estate. It is hereby ordered that you and all persons interested in said matter may, and do, appear at the county court to be held in and for said county, on the 29th day of November, A. D. 1919, at 11 o'clock a. m., to show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted, and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this order in the Wayne Herald, a weekly newspaper printed in said county, three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing. (Seal) M. Cherry, County Clerk.

Notice of Summons

To Gordon H. Allenworth, now resident defendant. You are hereby notified that on the 26th day of February, 1918, Mildred Roberts Allenworth filed a petition against you in the District Court of Wayne County, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which is to obtain a divorce from you on the ground that you being of sufficient ability to provide maintenance and support for plaintiff has wilfully and wantonly and cruelly neglected so to do, and for the further reason that you were an habitual drunkard. You are required to answer said petition on or before Monday, the 22nd day of December, 1919.

NO FUEL AT HARTINGTON

Paving at Geneva—Cash Register in Emerson Store Rifled.

The fuel scarcity in Hartington is so serious that Mayor Ready and the president of the commercial club were called upon by the railroad administration to appoint a local fuel administrator. Chief McGinty was selected and now those wishing to purchase coal have to get an order from him. However, as the Cedar County News declares there is no coal for sale in Hartington, the new official may not be very lucky. Many of the business houses have less than a ten days supply and the school is also short of fuel.

The town of Geneva which is not so large as Wayne, is getting ready to award contracts for forty-one blocks of paving.

When the new watchman at Emerson was in Sioux City to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, A. Weindrich's store was entered, the cash register rifled and a few cartons of cigars stolen. The Emerson Enterprise admits that breaking into business houses to that extent has become a common occurrence.

The coal shortage has made it necessary for Wausa to do without electric light or power service in the forenoon. The current is supplied only from noon to midnight and an hour before daylight.

The new school building at Allen has been accepted by the board of education, but the board did not accept the plumbing, which was incomplete.

Rev. Father O'Toole, probably the oldest Catholic priest in point of service in northeast Nebraska, has retired as pastor of the Catholic church at Newcastle, after serving there nearly forty years. When he came to Newcastle from Wilkes-Barre, Pa., the Catholic church was not even complete. Under his direction the first frame building was erected, the first stone of the new church was erected. Father O'Toole was the guest at a reception Sunday night. The members of his parish of Wausa citizens did not intend to behind their neighbors in the matter of paving streets. They held a mass meeting last week to arouse enthusiasm for paving Main street and a half block each way in the business district. The Wausa public is also considering the possibility of a municipal auditorium.

The Carnegie library at Hartington attracts a large number of young people Sunday afternoon, according to the Herald. The custom of keeping the library open Sunday afternoons has only recently been adopted there, and the members of the library board, who have charge of the building on that day, find a great deal of interest manifested. The magazines in particular are in special demand and government bulletins on all subjects are generally read.

Gaston Boosts Wood. -Fremont, Nov. 20.—A "Leonard Wood for President" club was organized at a meeting at the court house Tuesday evening when William L. Gaston of Lincoln, deputy secretary of state, was the speaker. The crowd was not up to expectations. Donald C. Hanson, who issued the call for the committee, presided, and Rev. R. B. Favright introduced the speaker.

Gaston here reviewed Mr. Wood's public career, showing how his training, experience, knowledge of men and affairs adapts him for the position of chief executive. "Many think of him only as a soldier of the highest type," Mr. Gaston said, "but he is more. He is a man among men, statesman, brainy, a scholar and diplomat; a man of administrative ability, as witness the excellent work he did in bringing order out of the chaos in Cuba at a time he was governor; he established a railroad system that was a model. Later in the Philippines he did excellent work as military governor. His entire record is one to be proud of."

Improve Branch Line. Randolph Times-Enterprise: Work-trains and gangs of men are busy on the track of the Omaha road dumping cinders on the track for ballast. At this time the tender ballast has been placed from Wayne to the bridge just below the water tank at Randolph. The work is now going forward from Randolph to Siguan and by this time, or earlier, work on the track will be done to Bloomfield, completing the job. In addition to the ballast the track is being raised from six to eight feet above the water level, even more in order to take out the sag. This work of raising the track has been done to Randolph as far as the above-mentioned bridge. With the opening of spring the work of raising the track will be completed to Bloomfield. New heavy steel rails, capable of carrying the heaviest traffic are also being laid on this branch and the work is now within two miles of Randolph.

Fatal Accident. -Wayne Point, Neb., Nov. 21.—Lloyd Thiele, the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Thiele, accidentally killed himself by the discharge of a shotgun Wednesday evening. Young Thiele, with two companions, was in an automobile on the way to a neighbor's to spend the evening and intended to shoot rabbits on the way. In reaching for the gun the hammer caught on the seat of the car and was discharged. The load struck the forehead, an upward slant, completely blowing off the top of his head. Death ensued three hours afterward.

CHURCH CALENDAR

English Lutheran Church. (Rev. J. H. Fetterolf, Pastor.) Sunday school at 10 a. m. You can help the school by your presence. Adopt this—your mother's am but one, but I am one; I can do everything, but I can do something—what I can do, I ought to do; what I ought to do, God helping me, I will do." Public worship at 11 a. m. The attendance last Sunday was gratifying. Let us duplicate it next Sunday. Luther League at 6:45 p. m. The subject is "The Connecting Link Between the Old and New Testaments." From the close of the re-

ords of the Old Testament to the events recorded in the New, there is an interval of 400 years during which the sacred writings are silent. It may be largely secular history, but it throws a flood of light on the Jewish struggle for liberty, and it helps to prepare us for an understanding of the religious and political condition of the Jewish world at the time of Christ's birth. Young and old will be welcome.

The evening service at 7:30 will be in charge of the Woman's Missionary society. A special program of music, addresses, and readings has been provided. This is the annual Thank Offering meeting, at which the members will open the mite boxes. Let us encourage the missionary spirit by our presence.

Mrs. Will Bark will entertain the Aid society next Thursday afternoon at her home six miles northwest of town. Catechetical instruction next Saturday at 2:30 p. m. The class is increasing. New pupils are added at nearly every meeting.

Methodist Church.

(Rev. William Kilburn, Pastor.) Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Preaching at 11 o'clock a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Epworth league 6:45 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Presbyterian Church.

November 30, 1919. (Rev. J. W. Beard, Minister.) Morning worship at 10:30. Theme of the morning sermon, "The Great Interrogation." Evening worship at 7:30. Theme of the evening sermon, "A Deal in Furs." Sabbath school at 4:30. Classes for all.

Sunday Endeavor at 6:30. Subject—Ezra's study, "The Health of America." The leader is Lowell Henny.

Home like church, and a hearty welcome is here for you if you will come.

First Baptist Church.

(Rev. Robert H. Pratt, Minister.) At the morning service at 10:30, the pastor will speak on the topic, "The Challenge." The Sunday school meets at 11:30.

The B. Y. P. U. meets at 6:30. The evening preaching service is at 7:30.

About seventy-five people enjoyed the social held last Friday night at the church. The committee which had the matter in charge deserves many encomiums for their good work. The pastor has heard many say that they have not so enjoyed themselves before for years. The Mission circle will meet on Friday, November 28, at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Mary Cross. The topic will be China and the leader is Mrs. Dorothy Nelson.

Holiday Opening

Variety Store

Beginning

Next Saturday

Up To Christmas Eve

Santa Claus will be the ruling spirit at the Variety Store.

All the Toys and Holiday Goods will be out on display right after Thanksgiving day and ready for your inspection. Considering the very abnormal conditions and the pronounced shortage the display is better and larger than anybody could expect.

And yet, many lines were entirely unobtainable, others were obtainable only in limited quantities. It would be, therefore, unwise to enumerate even those toys which are in stock now, as they might be sold out in a very short time. The best thing to do is to come and look all the nice things over, but—

Come Early

The demand is far in excess of the supply, and this condition will grow worse daily. The one who waits this year will either pay a higher price later or will not get what he wants at any price. This refers to toys especially.

UNCLE WALT THE POET PHILOSOPHER

THE HUSBANDMAN.

The farmer milks the towing kibe, and carries grape juice to the swine, the kind of dope they like; he starts to work ere break of day and bling along till dusk is gray, and hasn't time to strike. He stands in need of shorter hours, more time to sleep, more time to read, more time to rest; and read; but he can hear the horse-neigh for bundles of refreshing hay, the mules faw for feed-plead. The old gray mare is beasly sick, the colic makes her roll and kick, and stand upon her head; and so he nesses her all night, until she's feeling well and right, instead of being dead. He has to hunt a mowing sow, or saw the artillery from a cow, or she won't brook again, he has to crawl beneath a crib and spoil his tucker and his ribs, to find a setting hen. The farmer has more cause to strike than Jonathan and Peg and Mike, who in the cities live, but has many changes in view, and without stunts would never do a profit would they give. But if the farmer struck, ah, me! Oh, where in tiller would we be; and where would we get off? There'd be no bacon and no beans, no flour or meal or helpful greens, no skim milk in the trough. If er the far-ness organic, and there ar strike the other guys, there'll be a frightful death; and we'll fold up our weary limbs, and have a sign and close our glins, and just fall of the earth.

CHANGE OF HEART

I used to hate the Thorpe Hun, and longed to slay him with a gun, but now that war has had its day, my hatreds seem to melt away; I find it hard to grind my teeth, and stamp upon my laurel wreath, and call down curses on a foe, when such a gent I do not know. I can see that at any rate, who'd make it worth my while to hate. This time some chaps have brought me some—they handed me a bitter pill but forget them and their deeds, and spend my evenings stringing beads, and thinking of the boys I've known who never caused me grief or groan. And there are men who hate me well, and of their enmity they tell, and say that on some day remote they'll happily beat away my goat. My neighbors tell me of their words, and still I warble like the birds, and tell my melodies sublime, and have the merchants grant me their woe. I'm all get tired of hating me, when my indifference they see; whereas, if I indulged in sweats, and handed back their foolish threats, the air would soon be full of fur, and teeth, and whisks, as it were. And hatred is the thing I hate; no man can keep his mind and heart free from it, and he's accounted fully sane, if he has hatred in his brain.

HIGH CREDIT.

If you've kept your credit spotless, ill may trail you in a bunch, but bad luck is rendered swatless; evil fate has lost its punch. For the merchant merchant princes will not answer you, "Nay, nay!" when you call to buy some quinces or a luscious bale of hay. You can buy all things you're needing, from a cook-stove to a cheese, without argument or pleading, without falling on your knees; for the watchful merchant princes have your record writ in black; and each one of them exines confidence that you'll come back with the same chips as you left when it eats the first June hay; you can buy a flaxseed poultice, and when ready, you can pay: "If you wish to buy an auto or a house, to call your own, you can go and ask the banker for a little timely loan; and the banker will embrace you and caress you o'er and o'er, and around a block tell chafe you, asking you to borrow more. But if you are slow and heedless in the merchant prince's eyes, you will and your children feedless when arrives the day of ill. And your wife, who proudly minces, in her new and modish gown, will approach the merchant prince, and they'll snarl and turn her down.

THEN GO AHEAD.

Long years ago Dave Crockett said, "Be sure you're right, then go ahead." And this is counsel safe and sane; we'd save ourselves all kinds of pain if each would but step it on his head, and do as good old Davy said. In these excited (troubled) times, we go ahead with breaks and rimes, nor query as we whom along. "Is this course right, or is it wrong?" We tread on t'dther feet.

When we are right, we gain a bottle or boost some interest of our own. Old customs and old notions drop, and precedents are left in the soup; we mutter deep content for laws, and Self becomes our only cause. If I can get what I desire, I care not if your horse is afe. This is the spirit of the time, and precepts are not worth a dime. We do not care if we are right when we lack up a useless law; we do no care if we are wrong, so that our bank account is strong. And Davy Crockett sleeping lies; he left behind a message wise; but wisdom has no present lot in this mad world of ours. I TOT.

THE VAGS.

Now the times are bleak and chilly, for the homeless Weary Willie, there's no light in any window for the boys at the Rum Holes are abolished and no harksep, bland and polished, sets the tall and foaming schooners in a row. There's no welcome for the vagrant when he comes, all soiled and fragrant, and requests a little handout at the door; we have cut out careless giving, and we don't distribute wienies any more. So the Weary Willie jounces on the boards of rich attorneys to the squall huts of poets, all in vain; no one hands him pies or muffins, or the other standard stuff, and he's left to starve and shiver empty, in the rain. Even at the village prison, where a welcome once was his, he is held to be a nuisance and a fret; for he adds to care, expenses, and the situation tense is, when we strive to make reductions in the cost. There's no welcome for the Willie, and no attention still seems to gain a fresh-momentum every day; people say he ought to be put in the hoose, plodding to neighbor, ought to earn his right to victuals and the hay!

HAPPY GO-LUCKY.

Oh I envy Ebenezer, of the ragged coat and hat—a heedless,

RAILROAD MAN

WINS HIS FIGHT

Was On Verge of Giving Up Run. Tanlac Keeps Him on Job.

I put on a game fight to keep my job on the railroad because my health was just about to make me give it up, but with the help of Tanlac, I am still on the job feeling like a new man and with more endurance than I ever had."

"When a man has been on the railroad for eighteen years like I have, working long hours and eating irregular meals and just watching sleep like I had to, it's bound to tear down his constitution, and that is what happened to me. I was so weak that I could force myself to eat but I didn't taste it and would take a sick in my stomach."

THE EARLY DAYS IN TWO COUNTIES

Early Days from the Wayne Herald, November 27, 1902. W. H. Buctow went to Sioux City on business. Thos. Rawlings of Wakefield, was in Wayne on business. Mrs. Edward Perry entertained a number of friends at a 5 o'clock tea.

A son was born to Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Karpenstein, November 26, 1902.

The corn huskers are making good use of the beautiful autumn days.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mellor spent Thanksgiving day with friends in O'Neill.

E. K. Surber sold 730 acres of land near Correctionville, Iowa, for $67 per acre.

Edna's market met, Nov. 26, when 57¢ oats, 21¢ hog, 53¢ eggs, 13¢ butter, 15¢.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Chace entertained several relatives from Stanton for Thanksgiving.

J. J. McCarthy was elected to congress with his campaign expense amounting to only $28.30.

The ladies of the Baptist church were very successful in their social, realizing about forty dollars for it.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Dwyer of Ponca, spent Thanksgiving with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Segan.

Dr. Harry Gamble of Missouri Valley, Iowa, was called here by the serious illness of his sister, Miss Daisy Gamble.

Old Granatnik has returned from Minnesota having repurchased his farm which he sold a year ago. He paid $2,000 more for it than the price for which he sold last year.

November 27, 1902, Miss Mary Harmon was united in marriage to Mr. Edward Stephens of Winnebago.

Dr. J. Leuenberger received his new automobile this week and has been kept busy learning to manipulate it. He has been delayed several days in getting it, not because of some damage to the parts, it is shipping. This was the first automobile owned in Wayne.

John Loebach was hauling sugar beets to load into a car for shipment. Driving near the track he unhit his team but left the wagon so near the track that while a freight engine was switching an extra large car struck the rear end of the wagon. One of the hind wheels and the box were demolished and beets took another tumble.

A union meeting of the Evangelical churches was held Thanksgiving morning at the Methodist church. The following was the program: Hymn, Miss E. Burlington, Hymn, Congregation, Prayer, Rev. C. R. Weidon.

Vocal Solo. Sermon Lesson, Rev. C. J. Ringer. Hymn, Congregation. Thanksgiving Offering. Sermon, Rev. Peter Birrell. Benediction. Congregation.

From Ponca Journal, December 1, 1881.

L. E. Baltzley's saw mill has sold for $100,000. The mill was situated between First and Second streets. It could have supplied it. It requires seven men to run the mill to its full capacity, which is now being done.

On Friday of last week, near Emerson junction in the southeastern part of this county, an accident took place on the railroad. The section foreman and one of his men were on a hand car, and while going with great speed on a down grade, were, by setting the brake too suddenly, thrown from the track. Both men landed in the ditch with the car on top of them, and both were badly hurt, though no bones were broken. Dr. O'Connell of this place was telephoned for, who went and dressed their wounds.

The most exciting event which took place on Tuesday afternoon was the attempt by D. Hurley, assisted by a number of others, to dig a 100-foot long along Third street. The log was willing to go in any direction except the way they wanted him to go. Hence he came and broke through the lines, scaled a sidewalk, crawled through a hole in a neighboring fence, and performed in an outrageous and unbecoming way. Finally one of his helpers jumped on his back and rode him astraddle, guiding him by his arms and tail, and in that manner he was rushed through town and into his pen, which he entered at full gallop and squeaking as though the devil was after him.

Mr. Taft's Conversion. Lincoln Journal: President Taft's conversion to woman-suffrage is quite, and he was given a commendation with true-Taftian frankness. His slowness in the matter is perhaps explained by a recent remark. "Now that I am not in political life," he said the other day, "I am able to speak and think as I wish which I have not always been able to do."

Stole Tire Off Wheel

When Dr. O. J. Colwick tried to answer a call in his car last Saturday night, he found he had no lights. He tried to start a car and made the trip and it was not until Sunday morning that he discovered his car had been robbed of the light bulbs and a tire, which was taken of a car wheel. He had left the machine standing in front of his office. He is under the impression that someone ran the car into the country before stealing the tire as there was mud on the car.

Miss Bertha Webster a teacher in the high school, has resigned and expects to leave soon. Miss Webster's home is in Gordon. She resigned to accept another position. Although the board of education has several applicants for the place, none can take it before the end of the first semester.

Dr. O. J. Colwick has completed the physical examination of students. He made a talk last week before the high school in which he explained the reason for the examination and the results of it.

The high school had an average attendance of 80 per cent for the last month. The enrollment is 63 and there were 33 tardies.

There were only five tardies in the second and third grades last month, with an enrollment of 22 and an average attendance of 97 per cent. With 29 enrolled in the first and second grades, there were only four tardies and an average attendance of 94 per cent.

Some changes have been made in the schedule of study. The eighth grade students are substituting a study of the geography of Nebraska for agriculture. The high school seniors are taking mental arithmetic instead of a study of reading, which has been dropped.

SOCIAL

Entertained Country Club.

Mrs. C. J. Nairn was hostess to the members of the First National Country club, November 19, at a Kensington. A program of Thanksgiving poems was rendered. Miss Nairn served a luncheon. It was announced that the club would give $31.00 as a Thanksgiving offering to the orphan's home in Council Bluffs.

The money was earned by the club members at a husking bee at Griffith Garwood's farm, several weeks ago.

Epworth League Social.

The members of the Epworth League two miles east and one mile north of Carroll, held the 29th convocation of the Methodist church Friday night. No program has been arranged, but the cabinet promises a good time to all who attend.

Dinner Guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Gomer Jones were dinner guests of Mrs. W. H. West at dinner Sunday.

H. C. Bagells, Misses Ruth and Dorothy Bartells were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Franzen Sunday.

Mrs. Hannah Williamson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Luckin Carter and daughter and Lloyd Keesteron at dinner November 18.

Lutheran Church.
(Rev. N. Sereres, Pastor.)

Regular church services will be held Sunday at the usual hour. The pastor will be present to conduct the services.

Methodist Church.
(Rev. F. E. Sala, Pastor.)

Regular services will be held Sunday at the usual hours.

A union-prayer service will be held at 7:30 o'clock Thanksgiving evening, at the Methodist church. Rev. Mr. Sala will preach the sermon at the union meeting at the Baptist church that morning.

Baptist Church.
(Rev. E. Bishop, Pastor.)

There was a fine attendance at Sunday school last Sunday morning, but it could have been better. We hope that new pupils will continue to come each Sunday and every student is urged to work to that end.

The Young People's class will hold its monthly business and social meeting at the home of L. B. Cobb Friday evening. All members are urged to be present and bring others who ought to belong with them.

Prayer meeting last Wednesday was well attended and a good interest taken.

Subject for Sunday morning, "Birth Marks of a Christian." The evening subject will be "Man in Christ."

Protect Your Child's Eyes

Many school children have trouble by the compulsory examinations conducted in this state. Many there are that have not as yet had their corrections made. For the sake of efficiency, have your children's as well as your own eyes tested.

Our method of testing eyes is harmless and accurate. We prescribe lenses only after we have discovered the cause of the trouble and the remedy. Don't neglect your child's or your own eyes.

Facts About Census.

The fourteenth decennial census is to be taken during the month of January, 1920.

The first census of the United States was taken in 1790, during the administration of George Washington. It related solely to population.

The constitution of the United States requires that a census of the United States be taken every ten years. It is by this means that the apportionment of members of the House of Representatives is made to the States.

The bureau of the census is a part of the department of commerce. It was established as a permanent organization in 1840. Before the census work was done by a temporary organization known as the census office.

A census of the country's manufactures was made for the first time in 1810. Under the present law a manufactures census is to be taken in connection with the fourteenth decennial census and every two years thereafter.

An enumeration of the mines and quarries of the United States was made for the first time in 1840.

The sixth decennial census, taken in 1840, was the first one to cover agriculture statistics, now one of the most important parts of the entire census.

The Department of Agriculture assisted the Census Bureau in preparing the list of questions to be asked of every farmer at the coming census.

United States marshals acted as enumerators at the first nine decennial censuses. Each marshal had as many assistants as were necessary to properly cover his allotted territory.

Almost 650 people were engaged in taking the first census of the United States. The 1920 census will require the services of 90,000.

The statistics of the first census of the United States were published in one small volume consisting of 56 pages. The statistics of the 1910 census required 12 volumes having an aggregate of more than 40,000 pages.

There were 6,361,502 farms reported at the last decennial census, valued at more than 40 billions of dollars. The 1920 census is expected to show more than 7,000,000 farms.

The census bureau prints a special supplement for each state in the United States containing all the census figures relating to the state in question. Congress extended the scope of the approaching 1920 census by providing that a census of forestry and forest products should be taken. These subjects were never specifically covered by any past census act.

It required 18 months to complete the enumeration work for the first decennial census in 1790. In 1920 the census bureau plans to complete the enumeration work for the entire country in from two to four weeks and announce the population figures in less than three months from the date the enumeration work is completed.

A heavy concentration on ages ending in five and zero are always reported at a census. The census bureau has made many efforts to overcome this inaccurate tendency on the part of the people when stating ages.

Every census has disclosed the fact there are more men in the United States than women. In 1914, the year the last manufactures census was taken, there were 273,000 manufacturing establishments reported. The census bureau expects about 300,000 establishments to be listed in 1920.

The statistics gathered by the census bureau in regard to farms are used quite extensively by the department of Agriculture in its work of aiding farmers.

The ingenious machines used by the census bureau to count, sort and tabulate the information gathered by the census enumerators are the product of the bureau's own laboratory. The sorting machines will take care of 300 cards per minute, the counting machine can do 500 cards a minute, and the tabulating machine is capable of handling 400 cards each minute.

Four Months Too Late

—Michael Republican.—The United States senate after nearly a century and a half of unlimited debate, has at last been forced to confess that it needs the gag. By its own action, it has adopted a rule of closure. If the senate had taken this action about four months ago, it might not have lost the respect of the public as it has done by its interminable partisan assaults upon that which expresses the object for which we performed our part in the war.
