INTERESTED IN FARMING

Farmer-Near Wisner Tells Experience With His Two Sons.

Drivers Journal-Stockman: E. E. Breuker, a conservative farmer of Wisner, Neb., is losing no time in getting his sons interested in farming so they will ignore the counterfeit appeal of the city. He has two sons, Earl and Ervin, 15 and 13 years of age, respectively. Both boys are studying the market like the most tried stockman. They are just as much concerned over the rise and fall in prices as the next man and furthermore, they make it a point to keep in touch with the current affairs on the stock markets. If a shipment of hogs comes, at this one did today, they don't look at it flippantly as some farmer's sons, but show just as great concern over the matter as I do. They realize that it affects them just as much as it does me.

Don't Like Market.

"The three of us are thoroughly disgusted with the prevailing condition on the hog market and we are going to give the grain end of farming more attention in the near future. The inability to secure a car for shipping these hogs to market has cost us a tidy sum. We landed cars in February. Along in April when we were in the midst of our spring work making up for lost time, a car was set for us. We couldn't delay our spring work long enough to bring the hogs to market, so we passed it up. Yesterday was the first time we were able to get a car since then and at that time we could hardly afford to take time from the farm for the trip. We still have loads of work to do."

"Just as soon as we get home we are going to make the first cutting of alfalfa. We also have a lot of heavy rams of late washed it out. If it were not for the fact that I have two sons on the place this year, I don't know what would do for help. Hired men are as hard to get this year as profit on hogs."

A Coincidence.

Chicago dispatch to the Washington Post: After the exposures at Washington, it seems a little queer to read a big sign in the Congress hotel:

"Gov. Izod's headquarters in the gold room."

PIERCE CLAIMS CURIOSITY

Piece of Petrified Wood Unearthed Other Nearby News.

A curiosity was found at Pierce last week when Fred Glue, who is excavating for a new brick building. It was a piece of petrified cork wood, about 10 inches long, 6 inches wide and 1 1/2 inches thick. The wood appeared as hard as stone. It will be polished and put on display.

The Beechel family, according to the Laurel Advocate, is having a reunion at the H. R. Bessire home in Laurel. The paper says: Miss Edith Beechel of the Wayne Normal is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. R. Bessire. Miss Beechel has a leave of absence for the summer which she will probably spend at Boulder, Colo., where she can study a little at the university on the side. Other guests at the Bessire home recently were: Mrs. Bessire's brother, John Beechel, and family of Ellsworth, Minn., and her sister and family, Mrs. John Halstead of Fairfax, S. D.

Mrs. Elizabeth Clark of Wayne, has been visiting Mrs. N. C. Gwin of Laurel the past week. She is an intimate friend of Mrs. Gwin. Mr. and Mrs. Gwin are to celebrate their sixtieth wedding anniversary on September 1. They will spend the winter in the Soldiers' home, where they will go after the celebration.

G. W. Griffith of Laurel, while at work on a car in the garage, suffered severe burns on his eyes last Sunday when a gas tank in the battery exploded and threw the contents into his face. Both eyes were burned, but it is thought the sight can be saved.

The Knox county soldiers' fund which it was thought would be used to erect a monument at Center, will be turned over to the American Legion posts of the county and used as they see fit.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Johnson of south of Emerson are celebrating their silver-wedding anniversary Saturday, June 5. A large number of friends came from a distance for the occasion.

Mrs. J. R. and Mrs. H. K. Durrie entertained about sixteen young women last Friday afternoon at a candlelight tea at their home in Laurel, in honor of Mrs. Elizabeth Durrie whose wedding to Mr. Carl Durrie is to take place July 8.

Sixty men from Emerson went to Homer last week to help the people there clean up the town after the recent heavy rains. Some of the men filled with mud to a depth of 10 feet and much of the furniture and rugs was ruined. The Red Cross organization, Emerson, Colo., told about one hundred volunteers of these people.

A movement has been started for the purchase of the "Newman Grove" Shares of $100 are to be sold and if the total reaches $15,000, a residence there will be bought and turned over to the state.

Plans have been made to hire two men to patrol the state highway between Albion and Madison. The road is being worked and will soon be in excellent condition.

Truck Goes Into Flood.

O'Neill, Neb., June 12.—One of the log quad trucks of the Holt county highway department, weighing 8,000 pounds and loaded with two and one-half cords of gravel, crashed through a temporary section of the old bridge over the Elk-horn river just south of O'Neill, Thursday, without in the least injuring Chauncey Porter and Ace Hubbard, patrolmen on the truck. The accident was caused by the gravel bridge joints sagging under the load and slipping off the pile cap at one end of the bridge. The truck and occupants were dropped into the flood waters ten or twelve feet deep and very swift, and while were rising as the result of a cloud burst a few hours before. The nose of the truck was held above water by a pile, but the rear end started to sink in the quicksand.

Porter, who is a retired soldier, and the son of the county clerk, jumped as the truck hit the water and was brushed by a couple of logs. The truck, however, remained at the wheel and scrambled after the truck started to settle. The truck was taken up by the bridge crew Friday and is injured. The bridge, which is on the Harvest Trail, is being wrecked to be replaced by a heavier one of two truss spans.

Logic and Politics.
St. Paul Pioneer Press: Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the democratic national committee, finds something illogical in the advocacy by Senator Lodge of a policy of intervention in Mexico and non-intervention in Europe. Mr. Cummings' party policy, of course, favors intervention in Europe and non-intervention in Mexico—"Wait and wait," in Mexico—the logic of which position is just as clear as mud.

Wayne's trade circle is manifestly growing. Stimulated by paved streets, watch the circle widen during the next year.

A third party, now threatened, could not hope to win for itself. Its only hope lies in possible injury to the republican party.

The weather has been about right during the past few weeks for growing crops. We will have the usual harvest if frost next fall is properly delayed.

Southern California offers a good trade advantage for our climate, though we would think a country filled largely by idlers and the sick and lame would be an intolerable bore.

Up at the Montreal meeting of the labor federation, a movement has been started for a six-day week. But why not make it a four-hour day with an even twenty-four hours of undisturbed rest?

Take an interest in the State Normal students. Protect them against profiteering or other impositions. See they are treated with respect and led to like the town as well as the school. Inspire them to shout the praise of Wayne wherever they go.

After the democratic national convention it is hoped the department of justice will have time to devote some effective attention to oppressive discrepancies between live pigs and smoked hams, wood pulp and finished papers, raw wool and completed garments.

Governor Allen of Kansas would have made a good running mate for Senator Harding, though the latter would have gone solidly against him—not because he would have favored giving the animals a rest, but because he would not have favored yielding more than they deserve.

The third party movement by LaFollette and others would seem justified only on the ground of unselfish political ambition. The use of the word "progressive" is charged to the republican party, which is not in power, and the record of the party when in power justifies confidence in its ability to lead sound and progressive lines. Then there is no warrant for a new party excepting in the hope of personal prestige on the part of disappointed politicians.

Complaint is made that the Chicago platform is a compromise. If it were not a compromise, it would be extreme and propose to serve one interest class against another. As a compromise, it considers a multitude of interests and classes, giving preference to none. It endorses the platform of the United States, and in supporting a league of nations with reservations, but it places Americanism above the demands of other nations. In a country where so many conditions involved, a political platform could not be fair without being a compromise.

At the labor federation's annual meeting at Montreal, The switchmen's strike was condemned as un-American. Another group of strikers strikes the public just the same. Whether a strike affecting transportation or the fuel supply of a city, either necessary or called according to union rules or not, the public is stung. The public will not suffer a strike with complete resignation and indifference. The laws of the land, and shorter hours, less work, decreased production and more pay become the fixed, inevitable and accepted policy of one privileged class.

Stimulated by favorable weather, planting operations are moving forward rapidly and triumphantly. The time is not remote when the city streets and inconceivable width of their concrete sidewalks in the winter of early spring will have again found the business district a desert of foaming mud. It is especially the cry of the kind of judgment of the council that the kind of paving used was adopted. Every one who knows, commends the selection of brick set in concrete and filled with asphalt. It will be in good condition long after the entire city has been paved.

HARDING AND COOLIDGE.
The nomination of Sen. Warren G. Harding of Ohio and Gov. Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts for vice-president by the republican national convention last week, has been a surprising development, "beet the hearty approval of the party. Either is big enough for the Presidency—an unusual result of a national convention. Both are free from an inclination to ultra conservatism on the one hand or ultra radicalism on the other. Capital will get a square deal, but no more. Labor unions will get a square deal, but they will not be favored at the sacrifice of farming interests and all other interests of the country.

Men of the ability of Harding and Coolidge will be surrounded by men who are not mere automatons, but who are real statesmen, counselors and helpers. Men of this type are needed right now to insure reconstruction along safe and progressive lines, with guarantee of special privileges to no class or interest.

Hide-bound democrats who find no good in anything outside of the democratic party, no matter how incompetent its administration nor how futile its efforts at constructive achievement, will find fault with the nominations. Capitalistic institutions that have been profiting by converting low-priced raw material into high-priced finished products will not think they can manage such sound-business heads as Harding and Coolidge. Such labor unions as are afraid they will not be able to coerce the country into granting special and intolerable concessions, will pick up support candidates who are more susceptible to prejudiced and unfair propositions.

The record of the convention shows that the nomination of neither Harding nor Coolidge was accomplished by the dictates of bossism. The record of the convention is a testimonial of high character and sound, impartial judgment—the supreme need in these troubled times is to control factions, dissipate social unrest, and stabilize conditions. The two men will bear acquaintance. Their record will be stated in the next few days. It should be studied and considered carefully before judgment is passed.

EFFICIENCY PROPOSED.
It is announced that Senator Harding will, if elected, look out strictly to efficiency on the part of office-holders, and will see that service to the country will be safeguarded. It is suggested that he make known his proposed cabinet members who will be surrounded. These men for cabinet places have been mentioned: Secretary of agriculture—Senator Dulaney-C. Knox.
Attorney general—Charles Evans Hughes of New York.
Secretary of the treasury—Frank Vanderlip.
Secretary of war—Leonard Wood or Lindley A. Garrison.
Secretary of agriculture—Senator Capper of Kansas.
Secretary of labor—Senator Kenyon of Iowa.
Secretary of the navy—Former Senator Weeks of Massachusetts.
Secretary of interior—Gov. Lowden of Illinois.
Secretary of commerce—Herbert Hoover of California.

"SPURIOUS PATRIOTISM."
Omaha Daily Bee: Mr. Charles B. Hughes, in his address at the Wesleyan college commencement, struck a note or two that will have a generally favorable response. His reference to "a spurious patriotism that is linked to the triumph of any great class" is both timely and happy. Spurious patriotism—there is a deal of it masquerading around in various disguises.

No school will understand, either, what he means when he mentions the "tendency to crave and assert arbitrary power," and to use it with a weakness appearing toward large discretionary powers as the disposal of officers. That is a menace to liberty, whether invested in a president or a policeman, and it is true that the readiness to suppress individual freedom by administrative departments of a supposed free country is "nothing short of a reign of terror."

When Mr. Hughes talks he says something. In the slang of the day, his last utterance is an excellent Cattle and Hog Markets.

Drovers' Journal-Stockman: June 16. Hogs—The market was estimated at 166 loads, or 1,000 head. Quality showed a little improvement over yesterday and, while the fore part of the early sales were strong and active, there was a tendency to ease up a little on the close. Trade was uneven at prices that were 10 to 15 cents higher than yesterday.

Yesterday's trade continued of a lifeless nature throughout the session. The market was quiet, with no variation in prices to the close.
Shipper buyers were well supplied with orders this morning, seeking practically all classes, buying strong weights and heavy mixed loads around $14.35 to $14.45, reaching up to $14.50 to $14.60, where a little more business was done. Mixed and heavy mixed went to shippers at $14.60 to $14.70, with the best grades on up to a top of $15.00.

ket opened, paying up to a top of $15.00, which was 25 cents higher than anything they purchased yesterday, and 15 cents higher than from shipper top. This price was paid in several times during the session by both packers and shippers for prime beef. Movement was not very brisk on the big end of the supply, however, and where a little quality not much advance was conceded, most of the packer market being around 10 to 15 cents higher than yesterday.

Trade was uneven, strong to 25 cents higher covering most angles. Bulk-of sales was $14.00 to $14.85, showing more of a spread than yesterday, both packers and shippers paying a top of $15.00.

Receipts are not quite as heavy as a week or a year ago, reaching a total this week of 31,000 head, compared with 34,300 head last week and 36,200 head the corresponding period last year.

Arrivals of cattle showed a decided falling off today as compared with Monday and Tuesday. The estimate calling for only 3,200 head. For the three days the total reaches 13,900 as compared with 13,800 a week ago and 17,600 during the corresponding time last year.

Prices on the closing market yesterday were not much different from earlier in the session but sales were slow until the end. It was an uneven affair with both cows and steers steady to a quarter lower, and a top of $16.00 for the latter.

Beef steers—With shortening of receipts activity was more noticeable today and the supply of both heavy and light weight steers was cleaned up on the early rounds. Prices showed strength right from the start, the better kinds being 23 cents higher, with some sales to shippers perhaps a little more, quantity considered. The run as a whole did not show anything exceptional in the way of quality with the exception of a couple of loads each of heavy and light yearlings, which sold for $16.25, or a flat quarter above the top yesterday.

For the three days good to choice heaves and yearlings at $15.50 to $16.25 are pretty close to steady, but the in-between grades all show a decline of 25 to 50 cents.

Is Car Owner Liable?
Lincoln, Neb., June 16.—On March 10, 1918, a baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Marion Childs, of Omaha. On the third day thereafter it was decided to hold a christening and the husband set out in search of John Sealestin, who had been chosen as godfather. While waiting for a street car James Corr, a manufacturer of South Omaha, came along with a truck and invited Marion to ride with him. A few blocks further on the truck skidded and Childs was thrown on a pile of bricks and received injuries from which he died shortly thereafter.

The widow thereupon sued Corr for damages, alleging that he drove the truck at an unallowable and excessive rate of speed and that it was this conduct of his that caused the death of her husband. Corr defended on the ground that the accident was not due to any speeding on his part, but because of a dog that ran out in front of the car. In an effort to avoid hitting the animal he dispartaged the steering gear.

A Douglas county jury awarded the widow $1,000, and Corr has filed an appeal in the supreme court. One of the legal questions involved is the liability of a person who invites another to ride in his car in case an accident occurs and the driver is injured or killed. Childs was 33 years old and left a wife and three small children.

Sick of Supermen.
Chicago Times: The country is sick of supermen. The superman gets by because he is a novelty and because he sets boys and young men wild. Mr. Wilson is distinctly of this type. His intellect progresses always have remained a mystery to 99 to 100 per cent of the people. All that most of us ever learned about Wilson's mental operations was the result of them, when we were told where to head in at. They were geared so high that they broke down. Froyer was appointed to be another superman; yet intensively press-aggrieved as such. We imagine that it is reason why his candidacy did not catch on. McAdoo is also claimed for the tribe of supermen. He built the Hudson tubes, married the president's daughter, was Pool-Bah during the war, and received $100,000 a year from Chaplin, Pickford and Fairbanks to be his personal attorney after the war. If McAdoo is chosen, he will be getting larger. If Harding doesn't make any fool breaks during the campaign, he doesn't measure up like a man who would—and more important yet—if he doesn't make any fool breaks on many fool breaks on his behalf—the election looks a certainty for him.

The Four Style Leaders in Low Shoes

Quality Footwear That Stays Good Looking

All new shoes look good, but it is only the well made shoes that keep their neatness and snug fit after weeks of wear. These J & K low shoes stay good looking for months because the workmanship, leather and linings are the best to be had. It pays to buy such shoes.

Priced Moderately

These quality shoes priced at $10.00 and $12.50 are very reasonable. City stores lack considerable more for this best grade footwear.

There are cheaper shoes in price but they are dearer when you consider the difference in wear and appearance after a few weeks' use.

The Theo Tie
Combining the beauty of a pump, the snug fitting qualities of an oxford and the newness of a tie. Made of the finest kid, in black, brown or white.
Graceful wood heels and latest vamp; all sizes now from AAA to D.

An Elegant Oxford
Made of fine kid, in black or brown and fitted with the dainty celluloid covered wood heel.
A graceful and practical low shoe that will also be very popular this fall.

The Colonial Tie
The buckle may be removed and a ribbon tie inserted in the eyelets concealed beneath it, giving you the advantage of two of the most popular styles in the one shoe. Made of the finest black kid, that looks like a glove upon the foot.

Military Heel Oxford
Combining style with every purpose, usefulness.
Note that although the heel is low, the arch is cut high to give the neat fit and style effect of the daintier high heel oxfords.
Made in brown or black kid or calfkin.

The Washing Ring.
The prosaic side of life will be forgotten and childhood's dreams will be lived over again by witnessing the coming production of The Washing Ring. This musical extravaganza will be presented June 24 and 25 at the opera house. The washing ring is really a wonderful play, and many of the features are so novel and delightful that it has fairly taken its wings by storm. In many ways the production suggests The Bluebird, of Maeterlink, in which the youth and the children who are waiting for little Jean and Allen in the land of the fairies. All the familiar periods of their realm are portrayed by the most modern dramatization. The story of the nymphs, roses, poppies with their filmy, flowery costumes, is the quintessence of grace and charm.

Quality in Flour Means More Than Words Can Tell
Good results mean a production of bread in which the housewife takes particular pride; bread for which apologies are not necessary; bread that pleases "hubby"; bread filled with energy that puts back in the body the food and fuel consumed by a hard day's work. Good flour means as much to the housewife as does a perfect working plow or an automobile to the husband. Would you put kerosene in your gasoline because it's cheaper? No. Then why not be particular regarding the quality of flour you put in flour bin? Flours of real quality cost less, in reality, they make more loaves of bread—they create a peace of mind and body on baking day. Men! Would you deliberately buy a cultivator that would not scour, something to "drag" your horses, make you cuss and swear and produce poor results, because you could save a couple of dollars? You men folks want the best. There are flours that do not "sour," you can buy them for a trifle less. Be fair—your wife really wants and deserves flour of high quality but she fails to assert herself. Be fair—make the same rule apply to husband and wife. Buy Lincoln or My-Kind, flours of known high quality, and never fail to please.

One of the attractions at Sioux City on the Fourth, is to be a ball game between the high school which will carry up into air a renowned performer on the trapeze.

From present appearances there will soon be a telephone line between Sioux City and Dakota City. The same line will probably be extended to Jackson and Ponca.

G. D. Russell came over from the Wakefield on Monday. He states that the building boom in that place has now been constructed will soon be finished, and about twenty others will be commenced within days.

We hear that a gentleman from Wayne will soon start a newspaper at Wakefield. That is a prosperous and growing town, it has a liberal and progressive class of citizens, and a newspaper there cannot fail to do well.

We have just received a very interesting letter from our old friend Colonel Bates, formerly of Dakota City, but now at the Ft. Peck Indian agency, Montana territory.

The idea is simplicity itself. Like other synthetics it is late in development, as was the simple device of the electrical rectifier which has eliminated mechanically so much friction and added so well the process of election. But does it not convey its own recommendations.

The partisans in any one locality gather, talk it over, choose one of themselves. They can instruct him or her, they can give him or her what a delegate or send him as pure representative relying on his discretion to interpret their wishes and forwarded them practically.

This manner of choosing delegates would be so frictionless as to be well nigh automatic. It would be so simple that it would be the voters expression of their will and make them responsible for getting their will registered through the representative they selected. All the promises for the primaries that didn't eventuate would be fulfilled by this device except the inherent impossibility of the representative chosen would be a popular choice, capable of registering his constituents will in the convention and much more likely to secure an approximation of such will than the primaries have done.

The pure delegate idea doesn't function. As getting of pure delegates, each a rigid mouthpiece of his community, would be mis-called a convention, his power of ret the purest delegate becomes a representative as soon as he participates in a convention. In order to give anywhere the name of a delegate must mean in agreement and result in decision, and the process is dependent upon conference, negotiation, concession, which results commonly in a better judgment because collective instead of individual.

The primary as we have it must go, but the convention will remain. After all the primary has been no substitute for the convention, has merely provided the makeup of the convention in a different manner.

This simpler form of primary will answer all demands and furnish the collection with better brains and more direct mandates. The convention remains anyhow as the decision it does the choosing. It formulates the principles. It can not well be displaced, can only be deteriorated.

It ought not to be displaced but together be improved. This Dewey idea might improve it. The convention is valuable, educational. It brings men of various kinds together. It is a great part of ideas. It acquaints Americans with one another. Also it is engagingly picturesque and dramatic. It stages our national consciousness, so to speak, in highly effective manner. It has no substitute and it would be a national loss. The primary loses out in actual test. It doesn't provide the vehicle for the popular will which its sponsors guaranteed. It costs scandalously. And it tends to disintegrate instead of to crystallize. The primary must go, but we are not required to go back to the old discredited system, which for all its discredit, delivered better than Valparaiso seem to do.

A community, whether precinct or ward, township or county, can choose whom it wishes and instruct them as far as it likes. It can do so undeterred by any mode of organization if it desires, and if it is constrained by less or organization there is no mechanical method that can deliver it from its own disability. A community has to exert its character. There is no substitute for such exertion.

We Must Expect to Pay. Iroquois Chief: The public lost another million dollars last Friday. Property to that amount belonging to the Standard Oil company was lost in a fire and following its usual custom, the company will pass the buck along to the people.

Another Royal Suggestion
PIES and PASTRIES
From the NEW ROYAL COOK BOOK
CHEER UP! There is no further reason for worrying about table variety. The new Royal Cook Book gives new suggestions for every meal every day. The book is so full of surprises there will never be another dull meal in the home. Here are a few suggestions from the new Royal Cook Book.
Plain Pastry
This recipe is for one large pie with top and bottom crust.
2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon Royal Baking Powder
1/4 cup shortening
Cold water
Sift together flour, salt and baking powder; add shortening and rub in very lightly with tips of fingers the less it is handled the better the paste will be. Add cold water very slowly, enough to hold dough together. Do not work or knead dough. Divide in halves; roll out one part thin on flour board and use for bottom crust. After pie is filled roll out other part for top.
Rich Pastry
2 cups pastry flour
1/2 teaspoon Royal Baking Powder
1/4 cup shortening
Cold water
Sift flour, baking powder and salt; add one-half shortening.

Every Tire Signed
We insist that Millers must be uniform. Each tire is signed. A record is kept of the maker, the inspector and the process.
If a tire comes back for adjustment we learn the reason. If the workman is at fault he is penalized. If the inspector overlooked a flaw he is held responsible. If any process or material is at fault, we correct it.
After years of this checking we've attained uniform tires. There are whole large cities from which not a Miller Tire came back last year.
Treads Must Endure
Miller Treads, by our standard, must outwear the balance of the tire.
We have attained a tread which outwears rivals by 25 per cent.
Every day our tread stock is vulcanized, then tested, in our laboratory. We permit no variation.
Not a single Miller Tire with these new-grade treads has ever come back with the tread gone.
Not 20,000 Miles
Countless reports come to us on Miller Cord Tires showing 20,000 to 28,000 miles of service. And tales of that kind are told everywhere, we learn.
But mileage depends on conditions—on size, care, load and road. Millers are uniform, but they are not used under uniform conditions.
In our factory-tests we average 15,000 miles on Cords.
But a Miller Tire will outlast—almost always—any tire that you place opposite, no matter what it costs. Compare them under like conditions, and see what mileage modern tires can give.
You will gain a new criterion.
When you buy a new car make on Miller Tires. Twenty car makers now supply them and there is no extra charge.

Extra Grade Tires
Tire Prices
Some False Ideas About Them
Should an extra price buy an extra grade tire?
We Insist on This
There are three requirements which Miller Tires must meet.
First, they must average greater mileage, type for type, than any rival tire.
We constantly prove this. Eight machines in our factory run two tires each under rear-tire conditions. Each tire is run 650 miles daily by running extra-fast.
Here we constantly compare the best other tires with Millers. Also in ceaseless road tests. Thus, day by day and week-by-week, we are guarding the Miller supremacy.
And Miller Tires—both Cord and Fabric, cost about the standard prices.

CHICAGO ARTISTS TO APPEAR
Their Concert Here a Musical Event of Importance.

The C. Edward Clarke Concert company is announced for our Chautauque and means that there is a musical event of some importance approaching. Mr. Clarke and the other members of the party having made a very favorable record in musical circles in Chicago. Mr. Clarke takes his work seriously and to have made such a record is credit to his ability. He has been in London and with Boudy and Seagle in Paris, after graduating from the Toronto university. After several years of concerting with noted artists in this country he returned to Paris and spent three years studying with that world-famous teacher, Jean de Reszais, and is now considered one of Chicago's leading cantos and recital artists. His recent appearance with the Chicago Apollo club indicates his standing.

Rachel Stetman Clarke possesses the distinctive temperament and individuality of the Polish artist, having been born in the city of Wladowek, Poland, a country which has produced some of the world's greatest violinists. She studied in Chicago, New York and later with Jacques Thibaud in Paris and in addition to her striking and pleasing personality possesses a peculiar ability to play her way into the hearts and minds of her audiences. Elizabeth Knowlton is a very soprano with her voice changed. Earl Victor Prahl gave himself seriously to the study of the piano, being a pupil of that world-renowned pianist, Mme. Julie River-King, and has appeared with gratifying success as accompanist and piano soloist with some of our leading singers and with symphony orchestras. The combination is certainly one to command our attention and their long experience enables them to put on a program of interest to all.

NORTHWEST WAKEFIELD

Lee Mason shipped hogs Wednesday. Annual school meetings were held in the various districts Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eichtencamp were Friday evening callers at Chas. Levine's.

Park Hill held their annual threshers meeting Tuesday evening at Chas. Oaks. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ring attended a family gathering at the residence King home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sals and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lessman were Sunday guests at Peter Miller's.

Miss Esther Hoogwerf spent last Thursday at the Oaks. Levine home en route from Anoka to Minneapolis.

Mr. W. C. Ring and Mabel were among the lady relatives who enjoyed a social Tuesday afternoon last week at the T. M. Lindholm home.

About thirty-five friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Carl Helgen Friday evening. The time was spent socially with games. The guests enjoyed delicious refreshments from their well filled baskets. All report a fine time. Adjoining to Sioux City to shop and seeing sights at Homer drew quite a crowd from around here. Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Levine, Bernard Helgen and Le Roy on Saturday. On Friday Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ring, O. P. Dahlgren, Miss Anna and Mrs. Edna Dammgren, Clifford Oak, Levi Dahlgren, Lenus Ring.

The Ticket.

Minneapolis Special: Senator Harding's availability won. A constructive conservative, he had the good will of the liberals. There had been a feeling of a Harding-Johnson alliance in Ohio. A son of the state that had given the union four presidents, Hayes, Garfield, McKinley and Taft, to the name of Grant and the younger Harrison, who were born in Ohio, he would bring the campaign with the tradition of victory.

If elected he will restore the presidency to its proper place in the fabric of government. He has no interest for controversy. He would never be a self-worshipping intellect cloistered in the White House, burning incense before his own independent decision, insisting that all the world must prostrate itself in adoration before the fame of his greatness.

Harding would be a president to co-operate with congress, not to control it. He would be a president to the country out of its critical situations, not one to insist on his own way. He would function as the chief of the government, but not as the head and all the other members as well. He is a trimmer. His vote for the anti-strike clause in the Cummins railroad bill shows that he followed Lodge all through the life of the struggle. He voted for prohibition through from a doubtful state. He was a free loyalist throughout the war congress. He has been a member of the Republican Party since its founding, as became the name of a leading country newspaper.

The naming of Coolidge to the special place in the ticket was a fine thing. For once, at least, a man worthy to be president has been put in the line of succession. And not since Senator Johnson says only a heart beat lies between the vice president and the chief magistracy.

Gomper's Rubber Stamp Beaten.

Stou's Falls Argus-Leader: In the political campaign he has started on the slogan that "congress must be returned to the people" the designated Representative-McArthur of Oregon, as one of the men to be relegated to the scrap heap. McCarrour had voted for the anti-strike clause of the railroad bill. He must go. So there was a special effort to defeat him in the primaries. The result was a complete discovery was brought out—a man with a creditable record in the world war. McArthur not only defeated the candidate who bore the Compromise stamp of approval, but he had a majority of votes over all his adversaries. The people of his district have a lively preference for a congressman who has a mind of his own, and the courage to use it, rather than a man who will be a rubber stamp for Mr. Gomper's.

Back to a Constitutional Basis.

Minneapolis Journal: President Wilson refused to direct himself to the extraordinary powers with which congress clothed him to meet the emergency of the war. It may be that the greatest danger to the country is the reservation of his treaty and his veto of the resolution declaring a state of peace were somewhat prompted by his reluctance to part with the last excuse for retaining his extraordinary powers. To accomplish the divestment of the executive of those powers will require a republican administration and adequate republican majorities in the senate and house. To expect an so soon renunciations of the democracy is to expect too much of human nature. The southern democratic leaders are especially anxious to give up the fruits of power. They fairly revel in the opportunities

Can Haran Come Back.

Lincoln Journal: Where it might have nominated him, the convention leaves Senator Johnson a much straighter beaten figure. Can he come back? Only on one condition. Should events discredit in the coming four years the principle of international co-operation, Johnson may regain his prestige. But events are about as likely to discredit that principle as to discredit the ten commandments. The chances are against Johnson's ever rising as high again as he rose before last week's fall.

Cautionary Signal.

Whitling Intelligence: People who are rejoicing that the high cost of living has turned, had better be careful not to be caught in the undertow.

Delightful to Think About.

B. L. T. in the Chicago Tribune: As one wipes one's gleaming brow and jumps the shade side of the street it is a sweetly cooling thought that snow is falling in Mars.

Call of the Farm.

Kansas City Star: Anyway the farm was calling pretty loudly for "Farmer" Lowden. What with the weeds getting a start on his late crop and a lot of thinking around with the binder to get-in-shape for the wheat cutting, and some fence repairing needed on the other side of the struggle things were sort of piling up. Now that he is shif of all this political bother he may be able to get the place into shape again before the jimson weeds take it.

Better and Better.

B. L. T. in the Chicago Tribune: Mr. Coolidge, we read, is noted for the brevity of his public speeches. And all other speeches it should be added. Compared with the gentleman from Massachusetts, a claim is a laudacious one.

Proof of Conservatism.

Chicago Daily News: Another thing that proved the stalwart conservatism of the republican convention delegates was the majority of suspenders over belts.

CONSOLIDATED WITH THE WAYNE REPUBLICAN

WAYNE HERALD, THURSDAY, JUNE 17, 1926

VOL. 34, NO. 2

SHIPMENTS FROM WAYNE

Live Stock Leaving for Market—Car Shortage Relieved.

The following are the stock shipments made Saturday:

Herbert Peters, one carload cattle; Geo. Hofelds, two carloads hogs; Carl Erxleben, one carload hogs; Erxleben, one carload cattle; J. T. Bressler, one carload hogs; Ed Grier, two carloads cattle; A. Stamm, two carloads cattle; W. Shields, one carload hogs; E. M. Griffith, two carloads cattle; Frank Strahan, two carloads cattle; Albert Doring, two carloads cattle; Ray Bros, two carloads hogs; Ray Bros, two carloads hogs; L. C. Gierslevie, two carloads hogs.

Orders have been received for ninety-six cars to go by June 25. However the car shortage is being relieved and the supply will be back to normal in a week or ten days.

The Bluffton branch is still short of cars, but the Hartington branch of the Northwestern and the Burlington line have their stock shipments pretty well cleaned up and are supplying cars to be used in this locality. The line from Norfolk to Fremont is also supplying cars to relieve the local shortage. The cause of the unusual shortage here is the great amount of feeding done in the territory surrounding Wayne.

JOHN ALGER PASSES AWAY

Dies at Home of Sister, Mrs. C. O. Fisher, in Wayne, June 12.

John De Morse Alger died at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. O. Fisher in Wayne, Saturday morning, June 12, aged 76 years, 4 months and 29 days. Funeral services were conducted at the home Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. A. S. Buell of Tekamah, former pastor of the Wayne M. E. church. Interment followed in Greenwood cemetery.

Mr. Alger was born at West Liberty, Ia., January 22, 1844, and was the son of a family of ten children. He was married to Mrs. M. W. Alger in 1883, and lived for several years on a farm north of town. After the death of his father and mother, Mr. Alger made his home with his sisters.

In October, 1918, Mr. Alger was suddenly stricken and remained in bed for several weeks.

Speaking of the deceased, the pastor said, "Mr. Alger was a devoted church member, a member of the Methodist church in Wayne. He was not demonstrative, but carried a tranquil confidence in the Saviour, and was invariably lived up to the light of Christian discipline. He died in Christian faith."

Meals for Convention.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church met in regular business session last Friday afternoon. At that time the ladies made arrangements to serve meals during the Norfolk district convention which will be held in Wayne Thursday and Friday. The Ladies' Aid society is divided into three groups, each of which raises a certain amount of money during the year. The members having birthdays in the months of September, October, November and December will serve the Thursday evening supper. The January, February, March and April group will serve dinner on Friday, and the May, June, July and August group will serve supper Friday. The twenty-five ladies constitute each group. The meals will be served in the dining room of the Methodist church.

To Extend Railroad.

St. Louis City, Ia., June 15.—Representatives of business interests in Casson, Bose, Cliff, Parkersburg and Theford, Neb., conferred with the railroad committee of the chamber of commerce Saturday concerning an extension of the O'Neil branch of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad.

The extension has been proposed by the chamber of commerce and business men of the town named are in favor of the improved connection to St. Louis City. This will enlarge St. Louis City trade territory in northern Arkansas.

The desirability of the extension was discussed at the meeting. A question of doubtless be submitted to the Burlington railroad to extend their line to the towns mentioned.

Grandma Davies is 96.

Grandma Davies celebrated her ninety-sixth birthday anniversary Tuesday, June 15. She was born in Wales and has lived here for about thirty-three years. Many friends called to see Mrs. Davies on her anniversary and brought her remembrances of gifts and flowers.

BODY OF WALTER BARRETT Arrives From Overseas—Taken to Malvern for Internment.

The body of Walter Barrett who died in France in October, 1918, being the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Barrett of Wayne, arrived here Sunday morning, accompanied by Private William F. Ehnbrock of Company B, Forty-first Infantry, Camp Upton, N. Y. Funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon, conducted by the pastor, Rev. John W. Beard. Six members of the American Legion acted as pallbearers. The casket was covered with an American flag.

Walter Barrett enlisted in the medical corps of the United States army and having been in training six weeks was sent overseas. When he arrived in France, he was suffering from pneumonia, and soon afterwards he passed away.

Monday morning the body was taken to Malvern, Iowa, former home of the family, for interment and was accompanied by the parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Barrett, and two sisters, Miss Edith Barrett and Mrs. Clyde Harfield.

RARE MUSICAL TREAT

Milano Sestetette in Neapolitan Fantasy.

A critic for one of the New York papers describes the concert of the Milano Sestetette as follows: "The Italian Milano Sestetette gave a concert. We have become used to speaking in superlatives this week and our vocabulary is getting pretty well worn by saying deservedly good words of unusually fine features. The Milano Sestetette was a decidedly fine feature and gave a decidedly good entertainment. They sang in classic Italian, then they sang in just Italian, then they sang in English. But whether it was the 'Muses' with its entrancing melody, the 'Macaroni Song,' 'Do You Like the Macaroni?' 'Annie Laurie' or any other of their numbers they sang the best. They are not only full of music, but they are full of fun. They laugh for the people, they laugh with the people, and they make the people laugh whether they laugh or not. They gave a laughing song in the afternoon and everybody laughed. To give them their own superlative, I would say that they gave the nearest, the most entertaining and the most thoroughly appreciated entertainment of the week."

Venerable, the tenor, was formerly a soloist with Liberti's band, and before acting in that capacity sang in opera in the leading theaters of Europe. Madam Calico, the contralto, was for several years the leading contralto with the Savage Opera company. Mrs. Carmela, the soprano, is a former member of the Hammerstein Opera company. Armano sang in grand opera with Mascagni several years ago and Tibaldi, the accordion soloist, is a graduate of the Royal conservatory of Naples. On program here for about the middle of Chautauqua week.

HOG LOSS DUE TO FEEDING

One Farmer Living Near Battle Creek Loses Fifteen Pigs.

"Norfolk Daily News: County Agent Stewart warns farmers to be careful about feeding stock food to their hogs. He reports a heavy loss sustained by Jess Johnson, a farmer living seven miles south and two miles east of Battle Creek. More than fifteen pig died on this farm, the county agent says. Dr. Lee, the government representative with stock food which was left in a self-feeder and drank too much water from a near-by tank.

Should be Fed Carefully.

"I would advise that if farmers are going to feed the stock food, they should do it very carefully," said Mr. Stewart. "The animals on the Johnson farm showed signs of hog cholera a month ago. Six or seven were not active and lay about the yard as if in a drunken stupor. When killed, they would not get up and rolled over in a relaxed condition in the hot sun."

Any information needed in this regard may be secured from the county agent.

BIG "RUSH" ON SATURDAY

The Thronged Business District Suggested Circus Day.

Saturday night was like circus day in Wayne. Main and side streets were crowded with parked cars, and people from every direction thronged the district. All lines of retail business had to throw their machinery into high gear to accommodate customers, and it was nearly midnight when activity subsided. Automobiles with jammed roads were so abundant that they extended its trade territory at this time, as abundantly evidenced in Wayne Saturday night.

Alleged Rustler Caught.

O'Neil, Neb., June 15.—Otto Smith, alleged Holt county cattle rustler, who is charged with stealing twenty-one head of cattle from the Ditch Camp ranch here and shipping them to Fremont where he sold them to a banker, reached here in custody of Deputy Sheriff Bergstrom Saturday night and now is in the county jail. He probably will take a plea and not stand trial.

Smith was apprehended at the mountain home of his relatives in Arkansas and Sheriff Bergstrom had to go into the mountain wilderness on foot to get him. Smith walked in on Smith at his sister's home he merely asked if the rustler was ready to come back to Nebraska without a fight. Smith not even waiting to bid his relatives goodbye he started out with the deputy sheriff and came back to Nebraska without a fight. Smith was located in Arkansas by several checks he wrote on the Fremont bank to which he sold the cattle. Throttling Governor Gives Steady Speed

Every "Z" Engine is equipped with a sensitive throttling governor. Regulates the amount of fuel and air admitted to cylinder—maintains uniform speed—summer or winter, regardless of work being done.

Throttling governor enables the "Z" to use kerosene as well as gasoline—saves you money.

Governor is a complete high grade assembly unit—not a makeshift device. Discard hand-cranked contact-part-resist wear. Heavily important details. Help maintain uniform cylinder temperature—insures better lubrication—gives smooth, steady flow of power that saves wear and tear on driven machinery.

Other "Z" features are: built-in Bosch high tension oscillating magnet more than rated power; every part interchangeable; clean-cut, efficient design; long-lived endurance.

NEW REPORT OF DAMAGE

Effect of Storm May 30 as Seen by Herald Representative.

The damage by rain, hail and wind during the last three weeks seems to have been somewhat greater in the territory southwest of Wakefield than in other localities. Among losers from the flood following the heavy rain of the night of Monday, May 31, Nels Munson living four miles east and west of Wakefield, lost two head of cattle. The fences on Mr. Munson's farm were swept away, and he thinks the cattle must have been drowned, although he has been able to find no trace of their bodies. The creek which crosses his farm is back to its normal depth and Mr. Munson is sure the bodies of the cattle are nowhere along the creek for a distance of three miles below his farm. Nearby farmers who lost cattle in the flood are: Swan Lundahl, two head; Herman Tietch, two head; Carl Lundahl, one head. Wm. Drehsen of the same neighborhood, lost four head of cattle for a time but finally found two head three miles east and two head two and a half miles east of his farm. The bridge that was on the main road south of Mr. Drehsen's house now lies lodged against some trees in his meadow which is crossed by Coon creek. Mr. Drehsen while working near the creek after the storm disked up a four-horn ewe or pair of double trees with a pole attached. The owner of the ewe has not appeared to claim his property.

It seems that most of the farmers were compelled to put in almost the entire night of the storm cutting wires to liberate stock, resetting gates from the flood, etc., some of those living near the creek wading in waist deep while thus engaged. Mr. Drehsen and hired man noticed that a hot wave came at midnight and lasted for about ten minutes when the air became very cool. It is certain that the storm came very near to assuming cyclonic proportions in that locality. Some of the farmers say that they have been set a month behind on their work. However, with favorable conditions, the crops will have time to mature and the usual bounteous harvest will reward the labor of these rainy weeks. Human life has been spared and that is by far the more precious heritage.

When you were a kid--

You used to beat the dirt out of the carpets for Mother. But now you're grown-up, and Mother hasn't any little son to keep her carpets clean. So she writes to sweep them and it's pretty hard on her. Besides, sweeping doesn't half-clean them. Of course Mother doesn't like that but what can she do?

You know "Mother's Day" was celebrated all over America on Sunday, May 11. Some boys sent their Mothers flowers, others candy—some wrote or wired—or wrote congratulations in their buttonholes. That's mighty nice, but wouldn't it be still nicer to remember Mother in a practical as well as a sentimental way?

Why don't YOU do?

Dearest Mother:

I can't whip your carpets like I used to but I can send you a beater that will do even my best efforts and supply its own music. And it will also sweep and vacuum clean for you. This is my remembrance to you on Mother's Day—a Hoover Electric Suction Sweeper. May it take the place of the little son who used to clean the carpets for you. And I am sure you will find it a lot more willing and a lot easier to get to do the work than perhaps it ever was with the "little son" in those yesteryears.

Lovingly, etc.

We'll supply The Hoover—of easy terms, too, if you wish. The Hoover is the only electric beater on earth. You give Mother the best help when you give her a Hoover.

AGRICULTURE NOTES.

Dasheen Comes to Aid of Potato.

The first carload of American-grown dasheens recently arrived in New York. The dasheen is a vegetable, east coast of Florida. Owing to the limited quantities shipped to market at present the vegetable, which is recommended as a substitute for the potato in locations where that crop can not be grown, is high in price, selling for as much as 15 cents a pound in New York within the past week.

The "Irish" dasheen, which is a particularly flavored variety, is the rarer, but one of 40,000 foreign plants introduced into the United States by the department of agriculture. It is brought here on the belief that it would yield the starchy tuber crop which could be used to supplement the potato. It contains 20 per cent more starch and 50 per cent more protein than the potato.

Dasheens can not be grown in the north, but they are finding a favor among consumers in that section of the country. Dealers in Washington and New York report that they are having a steady demand for the new tuber even at the high prices.

Live Stock Decreasing, Reports Show.

A falling off in the numbers of cattle and hogs in the United States occurred during the first four months of this year, as compared with the like period last year, according to reports of special livestock reports of the bureau of crop estimates, United States department of agriculture.

In the case of hogs, the births during January, February, March and April were about 10 per cent fewer than in the same months last year. The marketings have fallen off about 15 per cent; the farm slaughter was about the same in both seasons, but the deaths on farms this year are over 40 per cent heavier than last year to May 1.

Taking into consideration both the births and the deaths (from all causes), it appears that there has been a relative reduction of about 3 per cent during the first four months of this year, as compared with the trend during the first four months of last year.

The births of calves from January to April were about 2 per cent fewer this year than last year. The net disposition of cattle by marketings, farm slaughter, and deaths was about 10 per cent greater than last year; it appears that there has been a relative reduction of about 6 per cent in total number of cattle as compared with last year during the four months January 1 to May 1.

Home Canning Necessary This Year

Home canning of utmost importance during the war—will be just as important this year, according to present indications as they are viewed by the United States department of agriculture. The shortage of labor on the farms makes it necessary for the canneries to pay high prices for the commodities that will be canned later in the season. Labor in the canning factories is expensive and difficult to obtain. Everything from cans to cartage costs, has increased in price, and transportation is slow and more expensive than usual. As a result, all this increase must be paid by the ultimate consumer; and there is not even assurance that there will be enough canned goods to go around. The solution is home canning.

That sugar is higher in price than it has been hitherto is advanced by some for a reason for canning less fruit or nothing but vegetables; but unless one intends to give up sweets altogether there seems no good reason for not using canned fruit on account of high-priced sugar. There are few desserts that do not take from one-half to one cup of sugar, and no dessert is more healthful than fruit. It is not necessary to use such thick syrup as was used in the days of plenty. A 10 per cent sugar made of one part sugar and nine parts water will make palatable any of the acid fruits. Such fruits as apples, pineapples, and the like can be canned without sugar. In fact, ordinary glucose or corn syrup may be substituted for sugar in making the syrup. A palatable syrup is made by mixing one-half cup sugar, one cup glucose, and eight cups of water. This requires about seven ounces of sugar for a pint of canned fruit. A pound of sugar will make 20 cups. This is an amount of sugar made for twenty pints of canned fruit. Where the ten per cent syrup is used the cost of the sugar to can a pint is one and one-half cents with sugar at thirty cents a pound. It is not so expensive after all.

America is Building Good Roads.

The remarkable rate at which the number of federal road building projects has increased since the war is shown in a summary relating to all such work from September 30, 1916, to April 30, 1919, which has been prepared by the Bureau of public roads, United States department of agriculture. On the latter date the states had filed with the bureau 2,885 project statements, of which 2,790 had been approved, representing 27,796 miles of highway. The totals on April 30, 1919, were little more than one-third these amounts. Up to May 1 of this year

Guaranteed:

We guarantee all pneumatic automobile tires, bearing our name and serial number to be free from imperfections in material and workmanship. Tires returned for consideration under this guarantee will be accepted only when all transportation charges are prepaid. If, upon examination, it is our judgment that tires are defective, they will be repaired or replaced at our option.

When tires are replaced by us charges will be made to owners at the time new tires are delivered for such amounts as in our judgment will compensate for the service rendered by such replaced tires.

Tires worn out in usual or unusual service, abused knowingly or unknowingly, misused, used on rims not bearing stamps No. 1 or No. 2, or on wire wheels not bearing stamp No. 3, injured through accident or design, are not covered by this guarantee.

Tires are not guaranteed to give any definite miles of service, and any such guarantee is expressly waived by any purchaser of these tires who uses therein any substitute for air; or who uses them under weights in excess of those for which the various tires are recommended; or who does not keep tires inflated to the pressure recommended by us.

When McGraw Tires are adjudged defective under the above conditions and are replaced, the adjustment basis for Fabric Casings will be 6,000 miles and for Cord Casings 8,000 miles.

1,974 projects had proceeded to the stage at which plans, specifications, and estimates had been delivered to the bureau of public roads. The plans, specifications, and estimates of 1,827 of these had been recommended for approval, representing 13,845 miles. Project agreements had actually been executed and construction work was in progress on 1,599 projects, totaling 11,987 miles. In addition, work had begun on about 100 projects for which agreements had not actually been signed, thus expediting the progress of the work and bringing the total mileage under construction to 13,540. The summary shows that a great reduction has been made in the time required for preliminary work before actual construction is begun. On the average the states have submitted project statements for nearly 98 per cent of their respective allotments and have entered into agreements to construct highways which call for about one-half of their federal aid money. The projects actually completed and paid for are comparatively few, but they are materially exceeded in number by those which are practically completed. California, Delaware, Illinois, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Utah, Washington, West Virginia, and Wyoming have each submitted approved project statements for all or nearly all of their allotments.

Lodge's Unpardonable Offense.
Jay T. House in the Philadelphia Public Ledger: The fitness of Senator Lodge for the presidency is conceded by many, but his most serious fault is that he is a candidate for the nomination faked up to significance with the delivery of his keynote speech. It was a good enough speech, but the senator read it to the convention. No candidate for the presidency was ever nominated after reading a speech to the convention. That is one thing the American people will not stand.

Money.
The Rotarian. Money-like learning is a means, but so and it is a means of service both to God and man. The learned man who out of his knowledge gives nothing for his neighbor is his fellow man's sterile indeed. How much more barren is the hoarder of dollars, each one of which might be used for the relief of the needy and to those in sorrow and misfortune!

Senator Borah Explains.
Chicago letter in the Washington Post: Senator Borah was asked if he could explain why it was that the very senators who insisted the United States should never, never draw into European affairs were always first to vote to free Ireland, no matter what the cost. "Oh," he replied, "the Irish question is an American question."

A Plank That is Missing.
Lincoln Journal: Doubtless it was left out because some of the candidates might have taken it as a personal matter, but a promise of a full-toothed law governing the use of money in presidential and other campaigns would have looked good among the Chicago planks.

Mr. Debs' Position.
Kansas City Star: Mr. Debs, who is conducting his campaign as socialist-nominee for president from his cell in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, appears to have about the most secure position of any of the numerous aspirants for the presidency to date.

Inevitable.

Don't Live Another Winter in a "Refrigerator"

A Round Oak Pipeless Furnace will keep your house as warm as a toad—for a generation of winters. One newspaper says that nearly half the fire-floors only one fire to tend—burns any and all fuels.

But you had better look into it once, though water seems far distant. The building boom is gobbling up these quality furnaces and soon they will be hard to get, if at all, certainly they will be a higher priced.

credits she earned at the Wayne State Normal, she can finish by going a year and one summer term. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pryor and children drove to Carroll Sunday. Mr. Pryor returned Monday, but Mrs. Pryor will spend the week with her parents who live there. Miss Darcy who is attending school at Wayne accompanied them. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Davis, Miss Esther Becher, Miss Clara Linn, and Miss Maude Williamson went Monday morning to Fremont on their way to Omaha where they will attend the bankers' convention. Mr. W. O. Jones went to Omaha Friday to meet his wife and children who came from California. They arrived here last Saturday. Mr. Jones has lately been installed as pastor of the Welsh Presbyterian church near Carroll. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Roe were delightfully surprised last Friday night when a group of twenty-five people came to their country home, all bringing lunch for the party. The purpose of the gathering was to celebrate Mr. and Mrs. Roe's eleventh wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Allen are living in the home of L. R. King while waiting for the Geo. Linn home to be vacated. Mr. and Mrs. King and two sons are in Auburn, Washington, where they were called last week by the illness of Mr. King's father. Arrangements for the past week are as follows: Charlie Closson, two loads of cattle and one load of hogs to Sioux City; Dave Thomas, one car of cattle to Sioux City; Farmers Union, one load of hogs to Sioux City; William Roe, one load of hogs to Sioux City; Jim McLintire, two loads of cattle to Omaha.

The Dredemeyer store is being enlarged by the addition of a fifteen foot extension which makes the main store seventy-five feet long. A warehouse twenty-five feet in length is also being added at the rear. There is a new south entrance through a hallway into the main part of the store. A ladies' toilet room opens from this hall. The basement of the store has also been enlarged making it as large as the main store. The cellar way has been changed so that it leads down from the new hallway instead of from the main store. The work will be finished by July 1.

Trade Dull and Limited.
Sioux City Journal: Advancing summer and transportation handicaps were predominant influences in trade during the last several days, as they have been for several weeks. The freight blockade is gradually lifting. Conditions are improving as the railroads respond to the guiding hand of experienced management. In case of the untraded goods, it is not so much a matter of policy, but it will require considerable additional time for the increased business of the lines to be handled with safety and certainty. Until transportation is brought up to normal, business which is dependent on shipping facilities will lag.

The normal slackening of trade because of summer is a fixed element in business, but the present slackening is abnormal. The seasonal elements enter into it, and in addition there is the uncertainty of future prices which is holding up the placing of even early fall orders. The general tendency of trade is to get stocks now on hand worked off and to wait for future developments before entering into operations for future supplies at current prices. The visible result of this policy, found principally in the retail trade, is that there would be a tendency to reduce prices in wholesale trade if there were sufficient buyers to create a market. As there are not, the same apathy is shown in the wholesale, and in a modified degree in the jobbing trade, as in the retail trade. The wave of price cutting at retail which swept over the country has died out, and except for the advantages which thrifty purchasers took of these special opportunities, the effects are not discernible. It was recognized at the time as only an expedient to unload bulging stocks rather than gamble on having them underwritten by a slump in prices. Yet it might have resulted in a price reduction had not speculators in merchandise checked the sentiment in favor of lower prices in its downhill glide by indicating that higher prices are to be expected. The nomination convention month is always a poor business season. The uncertainty of party declarations and candidates leaves business in the air, for while the success of one party or the other does not affect business until the party takes over the management of the government, the individuality of the men nominated does have a decided influence on business confidence or lack of confidence. But this year business conditions are so abnormal and the influences which affect them so varied that the usual convention influences are negligible. Labor conditions show a slight improvement. Strikes are less pronounced and the inclination of employers to let constructive business slide rather than yield to demands for the adjustment of wages to the cost of living is manifesting itself in almost every city. Money rates are holding in check increased inflation of credits, but as yet they have had only a physiological effect in reducing inflation. Banks are discriminating between classes of accommodations, but the heavy demands for money with which to finance crops have made it difficult to reduce the tidal volume of loans. They have changed in character, but not in bulk. The change is for the better, however, as the new loans are for productive instead of speculative purposes.

Receiving the I. W. W. in Kansas. St. Paul Pioneer Press: No loyal member of the I. W. W. can afford to miss the reception prepared for his clan by the Kansas wheat growers. Cross country runs ahead of the bull dogs under a sun of unrivaled burning power, a cold bath afterwards, to be followed by rail fights contests, a picnic in the cat-pens, with an address by the town marshal and a free ride out of town are among the entertainment features provided. And that is the opportunity to pose as a martyr forever after!

Gen. Pershing's Retirement.
New York Times: The case of Gen. Pershing is one to make the judicious grieve. His great achievement in France about which he is mute always, will never be forgotten by the American people, and they feel that congress should have found something for him to do worthy of his ability and zeal. It is a flaw in the army reorganization bill that the problem was not solved.

Now and Then.
New York World: According to the preacher of the baccalaureate sermon at Vassar college, "we are no worse off than were men in days gone by, and we have far more to recompense us than they had." Praise of the "good old times" nowadays less often heard, and curiously enough, at a period when the world might seem to be having more than its allowance of troubles.

Mr. Gompers' Omission.
Springfield, Mass.: (Springfield) Mr. Gompers at Montreal strongly reiterates the right of labor to strike, but he continues strangely silent on the question of where the public comes in. Frank and constructive recognition of this element in the industrial scheme is needed to complete the honors of his notable career as the foremost American labor leader.

The Rights of Plumbers.
Minneapolis Journal: Cleveland plumbers are striking for $12 for a day of eight unwhirled hours—and perhaps a limousine in which to go back for the tools.

Temptation Absent.
Saturday Evening Post: In a small town there is no place to go where you shouldn't be.

vocabulary and the thinking of 1912 to the battle of 1920 after the whole world has been in eruption and peace is being sought to avenge it.

There are bigger things to discuss this summer than the influence of the country. It is a student at the Wayne State Normal, visited over Sunday at the Wm. May home.

Lincoln Journal: In passing upon the nomination of Senator Harding for the presidency, Mr. Bryan said that the language of ten and twenty years ago.

He Had It Coming. Springfield, Mass., Republican: The man who has been spanked the hardest at Chicago is Senator George F. Moses of New Hampshire, and it is no exaggeration to say that he got what was coming to him.

Challenged Statement. Washington Star: The announcement by Col. Bryan that he will be in San Francisco in a more important capacity than in Chicago is a statement likely to be challenged by several prominent Democratic affairs.

A Grave Defect. Chicago Daily News: One defect of the excess profits tax is that it smites the unsuspecting consumer more heavily than it does the profiteer.

The "Business-Man's" Candidate. New York Star: When the politicians say they want a business man for president, they mean a man who will do business with the politicians.

Democratic Opportunity. Washington Post: Twenty days in which to commit any blunders that the republicans leave uncommitted at Chicago.

On a Barren Quest. Lincoln Journal: Gov. Edwards will continue his fight for greater sovereignty over saloons, he says. It won't work any better than did squatter sovereignty over slavery.

The Golden Gate Still. Omaha World-Herald: San Francisco may be passed in population, like the battle of Gettysburg, but it will still be the Golden Gate.

Whence Is Death?

William Dean Howells. Whence is death, and out of what awful void is death? All along the line of living, from the moment of birth when we first catch our breath and cry out in terror of life, death has set its signals, beckoning us the way which we must go.

Chicago Daily News: Oregon's announcement that he is going to "bet Villa" lacks novelty but carries a certain degree of conviction because everybody seems to realize that if Oregon does not get Villa, Villa ultimately will get Oregon.
