Your Business Efficiency. Do you know that your own double your business efficiency by taking chiropractic vertebral adjustments? You may think you are perfectly healthy just now, but you know that there are times when you feel "off color," when your brain seems fagged, when you find it hard to concentrate. Call on your chiropractor, get him to give you a spinal analysis. The chances are he will find that one or more of the vertebrae (small bones of the spine) is subluxated (out of position), causing an impingement (pinching of the nerves). He will at once adjust the bones to their normal position, the pinching will be relieved. The result will be that you will be able to concentrate more readily, your brain will not seem fagged, and you will not feel "off color" but, on the contrary, will feel "fit as a fiddle." Consultation and spinal analysis free. DR. LEWIS & LEWIS Chiropractors. Phone Ash 491. Wayne, Neb.

THE EARLY DAYS IN TWO COUNTIES

From the Wayne Herald-Tribune, November 22, 1886.

Mrs. H. E. Nye was very barely able to get along. Coming at this season of the year, the storm caught everyone unprepared, and especially those who had sheds to build for their stock, among which there was considerable suffering and some loss. Harry Pilly living near Martinsburg, is the heavy loss of stock that has been reported. His loss being about forty fat hogs that were buried in the snow and smothered. Others lost five, ten and some as high as twenty-five, while a few cattle are said to have perished.

The storm visited all parts of the northwest, breaking down telegraph wires, stopping trains, and doing a large amount of damage. As far west as Dubuque snow fell while at Chicago a most terrific wind storm was felt, which forced buildings and carried with it general destruction.

The first day of the storm the train was four hours coming from Covington to this place, and on Saturday it made no trip over the road at all. Sunday an engine and snow plow came up from the other end and cleared the track, and it was supposed trains would commence running again next day. The train did start out Monday morning, and when it had gone about two miles the force of the engine gave out. The cars were left standing on the track and the engine started to make the rest of the trip alone. It succeeded in getting as far as Summit and was there obliged to lay up. During the day another engine came up from Covington, collected the various parts of the train and towed it in. Since Friday's mail had been received at this place, and on Tuesday, when things were once more straightened around, by some act of carelessness at the other end, it again failed to be brought up, so that this town received no mail for six days, or until last night.

"Those who have lived in this country twenty-two years, say that never before in their experience has it been visited by a snow storm in October, and on but very few occasions has there been a storm of like severity at any time of the year. It was the worst kind of a blizzard, and one of the sort that is read about."

F. E. Moses has bought the set of abstract books heretofore owned by Rossier & Patterson.

Miss Van Emmon who has been visiting with Mrs. P. C. Maurer for several weeks returns to Cincinnati.

The bill for being freight over the river at Sioux City has caused a gasoline famine.

D. W. Britton ships two carloads of hogs to Chicago and four carloads of cattle Monday.

The mill shut down for the purpose of putting in a new and heavier engine and will be fifty horse power and the boiler fifty.

The people of Wayne and Wayne county should keep a sharp watch on the projected road from Omaha north. We believe that if the proper effort is made the road can be secured.

The Ponca Journal of Oct. 21, 1880, had this to say of the first snow storm of the hard winter of 1880-1881:

"The snow that fell was so wet and heavy that in many places where leaves were yet on the trees, the branches were bowed to the ground and in some cases the whole trees broken down. Roads in all directions were drifted full, and passage over them by team was entirely prohibited; while horsemen were barely able to get along. Coming at this season of the year, the storm caught everyone unprepared, and especially those who had sheds to build for their stock, among which there was considerable suffering and some loss. Harry Pilly living near Martinsburg, is the heavy loss of stock that has been reported. His loss being about forty fat hogs that were buried in the snow and smothered. FATALLY INJURED BY COW
Ernest Harrigfeldt of Emerson Dies From Injuries Received.

Ernest Harrigfeldt of Emerson and vicinity were shocked Tuesday when the news came from Sioux City that Ernest Harrigfeldt had succumbed to injuries received last Sunday while attempting to tap a cow that had gotten into the corn and foandered.

He had the cow in a stall, and when attempting to tap her, she lunged him against the manger striking him in the stomach.

Mr. Harrigfeldt was taken to the house and Dr. Evans was called. Dr. Evans realized the condition of his patient and immediately called Dr. Maxwell of Dakota City. He was taken to Sioux City where an operation was performed and it was found that he could not survive, so his relatives were informed and several of them were at his bedside when he passed away.

The deceased had been a resident of Dakota county for over a third of a century, coming here from Weston, Iowa, in 1853. Through his thrift and good business judgment he succeeded in accumulating several hundred acres of Dakota county land and had one of the finest farm homes in northeast Nebraska. He was a devoted father and a kind, friendly and loving husband. He was married to Miss Fredrika Enike at Weston, Ia., in 1853, just before coming to Nebraska. To this union twelve children were born, all of whom survive him. He is also survived by three children by a former wife. He was a man of health and vigor and was well liked by all who knew him. He was a member of the German Lutheran church. The remains will be laid to rest in the Rose Hill cemetery.

The deceased was born in Germany, but came to this country while still a young man.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING
Pioneers of Cedar County Observe Fiftieth Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Lauritzen, two Cedar county pioneers who live at Hartington, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last Thursday. All their children and grandchildren were present for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Lauritzen were born in Schleswig-Holstein which was then a part of Denmark. Mr. Lauritzen has lived in Cedar county 52 years and his wife 51 years.

Because his wife opened the spigot and spilled several containers of kerosene on the cellar floor, Charles Deuschler, a Wynot barber, took out her clothing and cut it to ribbons. His wife did the same with his clothing after which there was a physical encounter. Mrs. Deuschler went to the home of her parents and a warrant was issued for the arrest of Deuschler, but officers have been unable to locate him.

When Reuben Lovejoy of Bloomfield took his eyes off the road a minute in order to shift the position of a watermelon that kept rolling around his feet and bothering him, the car he was driving slid into a ditch and upset, pinning his mother under the car and throwing out two other persons who were accompanying him. The help of a passing motorist was secured to lift the car and Mrs. Lovejoy was extricated. None of the party was seriously hurt.

A meeting of the Good Roads club of which William Day of Wakefield is president, was held at Wakefield two weeks ago. Seventy-five persons were present among whom were several citizens of Emerson.

Whoever is elected president will have a big job on his hands, and comparing fields from which to select advisers and helpers—if for no other reason—we would choose the republican nominee.

Condemnation of R. E. Decker and his dirty last December when he responded to the call for fuel for the Wayne municipal plant, but he did it so promptly and helpfully, without desire for appreciation, that we believe it ought to stimulate his vote here. Congressman Evans has been quick to get in behind the students, and he is thoroughly alive to the interests and welfare of his district. His action in last winter's coal crisis only to make Wayne's support for him unanimous.

Both William Howard Taft and Billingsley, the world's leading statesmen have expressed themselves in favor of some kind of a world agreement in the hope of preventing war. But oppose the league pact as it came from the president, and as it was demanded by him. Both Taft and Root are very firm in their belief that the way to get an acceptable international covenant is to vote for Harding. Mr. Taft insists that the contest is now so much on the league of nations as it is over the approval or disapproval of the Wilson administration. Mr. Root declared that "we shall promote the peace of the world" by electing Senator Harding.

A good deal of humbug is dished out to the public over the present league of nations. Any presidential candidate who tells exactly what he will do or not do is bound to be considered as a shabby congressman will let him do. Governor Co. favors the league as it came from the president, whereas Senator Harding believes in reservations, depending necessarily, as he agrees on the action of congress. Senator Harding sees the importance of a cabinet obedient to the wishes of congress and the advice of cabinet members. With many and varied interests to a president must be successful, have wise counsel and intelligent co-operation. This Senator Harding will have, as may rest assured.

In reporting news accurately, the bundle does not alter the rest of the newspaper. People often put on the muffler when they attempt to detail facts, or speak so inarticulately that the liveliest sense cannot understand. People often tell half the truth or guess at the facts. Some-

Another inexcusable annoyance—One may be a victim of newspaper without apparent reason, while another, after failing to communicate a story, will kick because it does not appear. Aerial intemperance or inconsiderate omission is made the basis of complaint. It should be understood that newspaper reporters are no less capable of error than other people, that mistakes are often the result of faulty information, and that a measure of responsibility is charged to the public if a newspaper should give all the news without prejudice and without bias, and that is what the Herald tries to do. Unless persons have absolutely nothing more useful to do, he should not call to the attention of the publisher unimportant misadventures or happenings to create in even under strictest regulations, you stub your mental anatomy on an occasional error of no serious consequence, just kick yourself up, miss on, and try to forget it.

STATE TEACHERS MEETING

Members of Wayne Normal Faculty to Take Part in Sessions.
There is a special effort being made by the faculty of Wayne Normal Faculty to take part in the sessions of the State Teachers' association to be held at Omaha, November 4, 5, and 6. Arrangements have been made for a Wayne luncheon at the Home Hotel on November 4 at 12:15. Many friends and former students of the Wayne Normal will welcome this association. Miss Betcher with the help of President Conn and Miss Marquardt, has the preparation in charge.

Headquarters for Wayne will be at the Pontanelli hotel where former students and friends of the Normal will be welcome at any time during the teachers' sessions.
The high standard of the members of the Wayne faculty has been recognized by the officers of the association. Miss Betcher has been appointed secretary of the education section. Professor Gallagher is to be chairman of the child study section and Dean Hahn is to speak before both sections on "Technique of Instruction" and "Individual Differences Among Children."

Miss Pierce will serve as secretary of the fine arts section. Professor Reed has the honor of being a member of the executive committee, and he is also to deliver a talk before the normal section on "Open Country Consolidation." Doctor House is the chairman of the literature section. Mrs. Watersworth is to talk in this section on the cooperation of children in regard to their reactions to the classics. Doctor House is also to act as the official reporter of the section.
Miss Piper has been asked to discuss "Why We Teach Latin" at the meeting of the language section. Special interest is excited from the fact that Miss Tamin will present her speech before the language section in the French tongue.

Miss Dewey will bring before the hygiene section the problems of training girls in physical education. In the psychology section Professor Lasker will explain "Technique of Problem Instruction."
Most of the members of the faculty intend to be present at the meeting and at the Wayne-Normal luncheon.

Explanation.
Editor Herald,
Dear Sir:
The fine and generous article by Miss Pierce in the last issue of the Herald affords me opportunity for a word that I have, for some time, felt should be spoken in this community. It is the very nature of genius that it works alone, absolutely and completely. I have had nothing to do in any way with Nehardt's achievement. It was because he had already achieved that I cared for his work later on for him. No one knows better than I that my friendship has not inspired him to create, that he would go on creating without friendship and without recognition, if necessary. When I became acquainted with him, he had already published ten volumes, including "Hugh Glass" and was ranked among the foremost American poets.

Several years ago, Nehardt suggested that I become the interpreter of his work and aims. Acting in this capacity I furnished the notes for the school edition of "The Song of Hugh Glass" and wrote the recently published study of the poet and his work. Thus far the effect of my efforts has been local, but my means for the monograph and in other ways I hope to widen the field of my influence. My thanks to Miss Pierce for her discriminating analysis of the little book.—T. House.

The New Prices

Our stock is marked down to meet every change in the market.

We will sell you Dry Goods, Ready-to-Wear, Shoes and Groceries of honest, dependable quality as cheap as you can buy them anywhere.

Our goods were marked at a fair price in the first place, and our reductions are genuine and just what the new low market justifies.

We don't try to fool you by marking a $75.00 suit $125.00 and then cutting the price to $69.56 to make it look like a wonderful bargain. We never could see the wisdom of this kind of merchandising. Selling merchandise at the right price all the time is our method and you will find our $75.00 suits marked down to $62.50 were priced fair in the first place, and are priced as low as any suits of equal value can be bought for now anywhere.

$1.10 Wide Sheeting marked down to 90c looks like a fine bargain but we never at any time asked over 90c for such sheeting and now we are selling it at 85c. Our cut in price is not so large but you really get more for your money here.

We have never asked $18.00 for our shoes and so have no $18.00 marked down to $11.98 shoes to offer. But we have mighty fine Kid Shoes to sell you at $9.00 and $10.00 which are better values.

We are selling overalls of Glover's best quality at $2.50 and best work shirts at $1.50 which prices are exactly what the new market justifies and you will find them correct.

We follow the sugar, flour, and other grocery prices closely and you can depend on us for the low price at all times.

We sell quality merchandise only in all lines. We have found the only way to get top value was to buy the best. By sticking to that rule we never waste our money, never get stuck, and are never disappointed. It's hard sometimes to pay the price when the cheaper stuff looks just as good, but it always pays to do so. We have found that bargain deals are traps baited for foolish spenders. You can depend on our goods and prices.

WARREN G. HARDING Your Kind of Man and—

The Next President of the United States

As certain as anything can be, in this world, is the election of Senator Harding. To readers of this newspaper, the many family groups to which it comes a regular welcome visitor, Senator Harding's face shines as that of a friend.

What is Senator Harding's outlook upon life? It is YOUR OWN. Read these extracts from one of his recent speeches: "This government is your government, not that of somebody who is placed in office."

How He Lives. He lives as you live, simply, in the old fashioned American way. The main residence street in any little American town, boasts half a dozen homes more elaborate than Senator Harding's, and many as good.

What Kind of Man. Harding is a big American in physical size, thanks to vigorous farming ancestors. He is a big American also in heart, in understanding, in sympathy and in simplicity.

Your Servant, Not Autocrat. After you have elected him, you will find in Senator Harding an earnest, conscientious, straight thinking servant of the people, not an autocrat, but a man respecting the traditions of American government, and the Constitution of the United States.

Women Voting. Women especially have reason to congratulate themselves on the fact that Senator Harding will be the next President. Their sons are taken in war. Their husbands and fathers are taxed to pay for war.

His Ambition. Senator Harding has no ambition to be called a political superman, or RULER of America. It is his ambition to be known as a good American, a faithful servant of those that trust him.

After the War. After a war that has destroyed old conditions, cost many lives, squandered many billions in reckless extravagance and dishonesty, and weakened respect for the Constitution, you need for President a straightforward, constructive American.

National politics are discussed this year less than at any election since the republic was founded. Why? Because men do not discuss, to any great extent, that which is DEFINITELY SETTLED.

But it is important that demonstration of the popular will should be of the most overwhelming kind. Therefore the good citizen will do what he can to increase the vote for Harding, should there be any doubtful votes within reach of his power.

But if you do find one, show him or her this picture of the next President. And express in your own way the reasons that inspire you to approve and vote for him.

And you will have such a man in the White House after the 4th of next March, for after that the President of the United States will be Warren G. Harding, your kind of man, one that you would gladly trust with your own affairs, and the affairs of your country.

WAS MISERABLE FOR THREE YEARS

Mrs. Becker Was Too Weak To Walk Before She Began Taking Tanlac.
"I was so helpless I could hardly raise my hand to my head, but since taking Tanlac, I am perfectly well and for the first time in three years am able to do my housework," said Mrs. H. L. Becker, of 229 North Twelfth St., Lincoln, Neb.

"I had an operation which left me in an awful rundown condition, and for quite a while I was too weak to even walk. My stomach was left very badly upset and I had almost no appetite at all and couldn't get back my strength. Headaches almost drove me frantic and at times I had alarming dizzy spells. My nerves were all unstrung."

"I was hardly able to walk. My shoulders ached, my knees ached, I might sometimes I could not get to sleep until after four o'clock in the morning. It was impossible for me to do a bit of my housework and I was simply in constant pain and suffering and was almost ready to give up in despair."

"Soon after starting on Tanlac my appetite returned and my food agreed with me. It wasn't long until my nerves were quiet and I was sleeping soundly at night. The pain in my legs, shoulders and arms and I was no longer troubled with headaches or dizzy spells. I have now gained ten pounds in weight and feel as well and strong as I ever did in my life."
Tanlac is sold in Wayne by H. J. Folber, in Carroll by L. R. King, and in Winside by B. & C. McIntyre—adv

Thank You!

It was a pleasant surprise, indeed—while I was in the hospital—to have so many folks remember me with visits and flowers. Being almost a stranger I thought the time would seem very long, but I did not have a lonely day. Since many of my visitors were strangers I had no way to thank them except through the papers, and I feel I must show my appreciation in some way.—Mrs. N. B. Frank.

The Hoover lifts the rug from the floor, like this—flutters it upon a cushioned air, gently "beats" out its embedded grit and so prolongs its life

precisely as twelve photographs.—Craven Studio. 071

Harold Lloyd at Crystal tonight and tomorrow, Thursday and Friday.

The perennial beauty of a valuable rug is the reward of frequent and thorough cleaning. Such cleaning is easy to perform with the Hoover because it beats—as it sweeps, as it suction cleans. All injurious embedded grit is fluffed out by a gentle beating. All stubborn-litter is detached by swift sweeping. All loose dirt is withdrawn by strong suction. Only the Hoover combines these three essential operations. And it is the largest-selling electric cleaner in the world.

You may have a Hoover placed permanently in your home for a nominal sum, and its purchase arranged on convenient terms. You may also have it demonstrated for you at any time, either in your home or in our store.

Ford THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Out of more than 3,000,000 Ford cars now in use, about sixty per cent have been sold to farmers. Probably no other one thing has brought to the farm so much comfort and profit as has the Ford car. It has enlarged the social life, doubled the facilities for marketing, brought the town next door to the farm, multiplied for the farmer the pleasures of living, and by the same token the Ford Touring Car has brought just as much pleasure to the residents of the towns and cities, because it is an every day in the year utility, answering the demand of quick transportation at low expense. A family car without an equal in low cost of operation and maintenance. We solicit your order for one. We have the full line of Ford cars. We carry the genuine Ford Parts and assure you the best in mechanical service and the most reasonable prices.

BOLTED DISHES
Could Not be Made Air Tight Because They Would Break

So it is with cast or enamel stoves or ranges. If you bolt either, tight enough to make air tight, you break it. If a stove is not bolted tight, heat and fuel are wasted and one never can depend on the oven.

Cast and enamel ranges are temporarily made tight by bolting loosely, then filling the cracks with stove putty, or cement, as it is now called. Thus the cast or enamel stove is made air tight—until after the first fire is built. Then the oil drips out of the putty, the putty drops out, and air seeps into the stove from all sides.

No so with a Copper-Clad malleable range. Malleable iron can be riveted and hammered until it is as tight as a steam boiler.

We handle the Copper-Clad. Come and see it.

Revival News.

The Rev. Charles Harrington and party began the revival campaign last Sunday afternoon at 2:00 and the attendance was good at the opening service. At the evening service the large new tabernacle was filled with people. The Miss Esther Gatzert and any two churches of Carroll and vicinity could accommodate. At the evening service there was great enthusiasm shown on the part of all present and judging from the many remarks heard in the congregation it was believed that the shed once considered too large to fill with people would not be large enough to accommodate the crowd as the interest increases.

The evangelist delivered two strong sermons. Speaking at the afternoon service on the "Breaking of the Bread" or "The Power of Prayer" in the evening on the subject, "The Power of a Name."

The chairs on the choir platform were nearly all filled with singers and the musical director, Prof. T. D. Gately, evidently pleased both the choir and congregation by his pleasing and earnest style. It is expected that before the end of the week the full chorus of 150 will be in evidence. Mrs. Gately rendered a solo at the evening service and presided at the piano, in a manner which pleased the large audience. At the close of the sermon the evangelist made a strong plea for a better type of Christians and about 300 of the large audience present rededicated themselves for Christian service. A large delegation of people from Stanton motored to Carroll to attend the tabernacle service. It is reported that a delegation will be in attendance from Wayne during the week.

There will be services every afternoon at 2:30 and 7:30 o'clock each evening during the campaign. Many plans are being made for the next Sunday services.

School News.

A basketball tournament was held in the high school last week. The freshmen beat the sophomores and the juniors beat the seniors. A championship game was then played by the two winning teams, the juniors and the freshmen. The juniors won in this game and are now basketball champions of the school.

Nine pupils were absent from high school Monday for corn husking. It may be necessary to close school for a short time since so many are absenting themselves to work in the corn fields.

Hugh Lynn had an accident while playing basket ball in the gymnasium Tuesday. His lip was so badly cut that the doctor took two stitches in it Wednesday.

John and Millie Ernest have the sympathy of the high school for the loss of their aunt, Mrs. L. B. Cobb, with whom they made their home. Their class, the sophomores, attended Mrs. Cobb's funeral in a body.

The eighth grade and the senior citizens class attended the speech of ex-Governor Moorhead on Tuesday of last week.

The high school girls organized a team and began playing basketball last week. They show promise of having a good team.

EXIDE BATTERIES

The First Automobile Starting Battery

Not so long ago all automobiles were cranked by hand. The year 1911 saw the first car regularly furnished with electric starting and lighting equipment. It had an Exide Battery. Every car of this make since then, and hundreds of thousands of other automobiles, have placed their reliance in Exide Batteries.

The first starting and lighting battery was made possible through the experience of the manufacturers of Exide building batteries for every industrial and government purpose since the beginning of the battery industry. In fact, the entire evolution of the storage battery is little else than a record of the makers of Exide Batteries.

Today Exides are used by the navies of various nations, the Bell telephone system, Marconi wireless, in 95 per cent of the central stations of our great cities; in industrial trucks, mine locomotives, for lighting farm homes, and for a score of other purposes where a battery must have lasting power.

Bank of every Exide is the experience and resources of the oldest and largest manufacturers of storage batteries in the world.

NEBRASKA TELEPHONE COMPANY

Omaha, Nebraska
October 20, 1920

A STATEMENT TO OUR PATRONS, EMPLOYEES AND INVESTORS REGARDING PROPOSED INCREASE IN TELEPHONE RATES IN NEBRASKA

Because the telephone is an essential public service, it is important to all telephone users, as well as to telephone employees and investors in telephone securities that this Company's revenues shall be sufficient to meet its requirements.

Considered on a yearly basis, our present revenues in this state are approximately $93,000 less annually than are necessary to pay operating expenses and earn 8 per cent interest annually on the money invested in our property.

In order to provide for the extension of our service to new people and to new areas we must obtain over $1,000,000 of new money annually from investors. To get this money we must be able to pay our operating expenses and earn such a rate of interest as will prove attractive to those who have money to invest.

This condition has made it necessary for us to ask the Nebraska Railway Commission to approve an increase in our rates. But even with the increase asked for, our total revenues will only be sufficient to enable us to earn approximately 6 per cent annually on our investment in this state.

An increase of 10 per cent has been asked in exchange rates to be applied as a sur-charge. This course has been followed rather than to request complete new schedules of rates, because it is impossible under present conditions to determine what permanent rates should be.

A change in long distance rates has been requested which will produce approximately a 7 per cent increase in our toll revenues. These changes apply only on person-to-person calls. No changes will be made in station-to-station toll rates.

You are well aware of the increases which have taken place in wages, material prices, freight rates, fuel prices, rents and interest rates. The price of all these items and others affect the cost of furnishing telephone service. To illustrate: We are now paying over $1,700,000 more annually in wages in this state than three years ago, of which only $750,000 is for new employees added during that period. And the cost of materials used in the up-keep of our property has just about doubled the last few years.

This statement is made in accordance with our policy of giving the public full information about our affairs, and we feel sure that it will be accepted in the same spirit of fairness and co-operation that has always characterized the public's attitude toward this company.
