

MOTOR TRUCK HIT WEST OF WINSIDE

Henry Jensen and Son, Lyle, aged 4 and 3 years, were killed and the locomotive was wrecked when it struck the motor truck west of Winside, Mo. on Tuesday at a crossing two miles west of Winside. Mr. Jensen was accompanied by his son Lyle, aged 4 years.

The train was quickly stopped and Mr. Jensen and son were picked up unconscious and taken to a hospital in Norfolk. Both were critically injured, but neither was seriously hurt.

The truck was demolished and the children, valued at $200, were killed and the eggs were destroyed. The front of the locomotive was covered with egg stains. The escape of Mr. Jensen and son from the wreck is considered almost miraculous.

Both Mr. Jensen and son recovered consciousness yesterday, and Mr. Jensen says he cannot understand why he did not see the approaching train.

College News Notes For the Past Week

The seniors of the Wayne State Teachers College have elected Lella Munk as their delegate to the state conference, the school annual, for this year. Elmer Holm of Wakefield, was chosen business manager. The boys of the Wayne school, who were in charge of the book sale yesterday, elected Henry Ley assistant business manager of the Spitz and George Hall of Randolph. The editor for the book sale is already beginning on the annual and students are arranging to have their pictures taken.

Members of the junior class were unable to decide Wednesday what should be the colors and the yearbook was left to a committee.

DISCUSS CLUB PLAN AT LIBRARY TUESDAY

Professional and Business Women May Effect an Organization.

Thirty-eight business and professional women of Wayne gathered at the city library Tuesday afternoon with the purpose of sounding the opinion of the group as to the possibility and interest in organizing a club. Miss Nellie Gingles, Miss Marie Nelliges, and Miss Edna Auker, acting chairmen, introduced the discussion of the plan and purposes of such an organization and briefly sketched the work of the Inklings and Holdrege clubs which are maintained largely for recreation and a social medium for all women of the town who devote their time to teaching or to business life. She spoke of the possibilities of having luncheons, basket ball, swimming and other recreations as well as more serious meetings with programs and speakers from out of town. Miss Marsha Pierce outlined briefly the work of such an organization in Lincoln, which provides largely educational programs for the members and is of a more serious nature. She also sketched the work of the Inklings and Holdrege clubs which are maintained largely for recreation and a social medium for all women of the town who devote their time to teaching or to business life. ### Wayne is Defeated By a Close Margin

Many Wayne and Emerson fans witnessed the football game played last Saturday at the Normal field between the Wayne and Emerson high school teams, which resulted in a 7-0 victory for Emerson.

In the first quarter Emerson received the kick-off and starting off with a rush, carried the ball back for an good gain. Emerson never down the rest of the field for the first touchdown, and also succeeded in this try for point. Emerson kicked a Sunbeam returned the ball for a substantial gain. Wayne being unable to make their yardage, Brainard punted, and Will recovered the ball. Emerson was forced to punt, the Emerson safety man touching the ball before it crossed the goal line, where Right-center of Wayne got on the ball for Wayne's only touchdown.

T. Midner, who has not missed a try-for-point this year, again chalked right end for a two yard gain, which drop kick. Emerson received the kick-off and made a good return, but were held for downs. Willis made a take the five yards, then a well made drop kick. Emerson received the kick-off and made a good return, but were held for downs. Willis made a take the five yards, then a well made drop kick.

In the second quarter, after a punt, Emerson was forced to punt, but Brainard was forced to punt. Miner recovered the Emerson fumble, following Peterson of Wayne got a line plunges by Reed, and an end run by Willis brought the ball under the shadow of the Emerson goal.

Wayne was stopped and good runs for the touchdown with only three yards to go, lost the ball on downs and Emerson punted to Willis as the Emerson punters' attentions from start to finish.

Although Wayne excelled in the act of passing, Emerson obtained more yards than Wayne. Wayne, and proved more consistent on line plunges and end runs.

Wayne during this last onrush of Emerson's offense, was stopped by Davis for Sund, Emerson kicked to Willis who made a great return, and with one minute and forty seconds to go, Wayne kicked a field goal.

First Degree Murder Is Jurys Verdict

Butte, Neb., Oct. 16.—Gulley of murder in the first degree was the verdict of the jury trying the case of Walter Simmons, charged with the murder of Frank Paul of Sponawick, Neb., on Monday.

The jury was out all night, the case having been given to the jury at 10 o'clock Saturday evening. The case was returned at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Judge Robert R. Dickson called the court into session and received the verdict at 10:30. He will sentence Simmons today.

It is believed that a motion for a new trial will be made today and if affirmed, the case will be brought to the supreme court.

Arguments Not Limited. The taking of testimony closed Saturday at 1:30 p. m. and the attorneys began their arguments. Judge Dickson decided to make no time limit for the speeches, only to require that the attorneys' arguments should be completed by the closing day for the defense.

Charles Matson of Lincoln, who was designated by the attorney general to represent the state in the speaking for the state in a scathing denunciation of Simmons, and the story of the defense. The closing arguments will be made by the attorney general.

Instructions Were Explicit. The instructions of the court by Judge Dickson began at 9:40 and consumed twenty minutes in the reading. They were very full and explicit and the attorneys agreed with the judge. Promptly at 10 o'clock the jury was given in charge of Bailiff Nale, and marched to the room where they had been kept yesterday, where they had been kept yesterday, where the audience was permitted to go, and the public proceedings were done.

Mrs. George Sebald Died Here Thursday

Mrs. George F. Sebald died last Thursday morning, Oct. 15, at her home in Wayne at the age of 71 years, 6 months and 27 days.

Funeral service was conducted at the residence of her parents, Oct. 16, at 2 o'clock, in charge of Rev. H. A. Teckhaus, and interment was made in Greenwood cemetery.

She was born in Germany, 14 1851, in Provinz Posen, Germany, and came to this country in 1874, settling in Omaha, Neb. On April 1, 1881, she was married to George Frederick Sebald. To this union were born three children two of whom died in infancy. The family moved to Wayne, Neb., in 1884 when they came to Wayne.

Besides her husband the deceased is survived by one son, Otto Sebald, of Sioux Falls, S. D.

Edgar Howard Talks To Small Crowd Here

Edgar Howard, democratic candidate for congress, and Harry B. Fleahy, democratic orator from Omaha, addressed a small crowd of voters here last night.

Mr. Fleahy denounced the tariff and Mr. Howard put himself in a position as well as possible to receive votes for his party in the forthcoming congressional race.

YOUNG MAN KILLED BY FREIGHT TRAIN

Tom French, aged 23 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave French of Concord, was instantly killed at that place Monday afternoon at 4:35 by an east-bound freight train.

The young man was on his way home, and was running. As he passed the depot he ran in front of the moving train. The driver of the locomotive took his head nearly off. Life was extinct when the body was picked up and carried home.

The father, Dave French, who is a farmer living at the edge of Concord, happened to be on the train which struck his son. He was horrified to find what happened.

Funeral services were held at the home on Tuesday, conducted by Rev. Oscar Anderson of Concord, and the body was taken to Laurel for burial.

The young man leaves his parents and several brothers and sisters.

Grand Officers Here For Masonic School

A three-day school of instruction for Masons will be concluded here today. Three sessions have been held. The last meeting, Tuesday night, will close with a banquet for both Eastern Stars and Masons.

An Effective Cure.
Geneva Signal: Last week a Fremont girl of fifteen took poison because her parents objected to her staying out late at night. She had no other complaint about them. The doctors used a stomach pump in time to save her life and the girl and her parents have become reconciled. If the cure is permanent a lot of silly little girls ought to try it.

Puritan Flour It's Guaranteed

We have just received our first shipment of this well known flour, made by the Puritan Mills since they opened up a short time ago under new ownership. This new company has installed several new machines and put the old machinery in a first class condition, so they are now making even better flour than that made by the old milling company. Read their guarantee on every sack. We have been appointed their dealer in Wayne and we stand back of this guarantee. "Puritan flour costs a little more to get, but never does it cause regret."

Our price on 48 lb. sacks is $1.95
Five sacks or more $1.85

Western Cream Flour (made by the Puritan Mills) is as good $1.65 as other flour selling for less than two dollars. Price per sack

PROOF!!

Performance Durability Riding
Introducing

The New F-50 Mitchell Famous Mitchell White Streak

In Wayne, Friday, October 20

Proof of Riding Qualities and Durability

Riding at speeds of from ten to thirty miles an hour, in high gear, with full loads, over railway tracks, ties and street curbing, through ditches, and over banks, without passengers leaving the cushions and without any damage to the car.

It is impossible to break the NEW MITCHELL springs (no shock absorbers are used), or the MITCHELL frame, both of which are guaranteed for the life of the car. This is the TOUGHEST TEST that can be given to a motor car to prove durability, strength, riding qualities, control, and flexibility.

Carburetion and Acceleration

From less than one mile an hour to sixty miles an hour without a single vibrating point to be found in the motor. From one to forty miles in twenty seconds. From five to thirty miles in ten seconds. All in high gear. It is impossible to choke or load the NEW F-50 MITCHELL motor.

Power

Lead up to your toughest hills for convincing demonstrations.

Any Other Test You May Desire

You may have thought that you have seen motor cars demonstrated before, but you have never seen such a convincing demonstration as we give. All those interested in a NEW STANDARD OF PERFORMANCE in a motor car are urged to witness our tests. Every one is invited to ride. Everyone there will know why the NEW F-50 MITCHELL is held in such high esteem and is rightfully called THE PROVEN CAR.

This is the season when the curbstone politician parks his jaws at some conspicuous intersection, turns on his gas and lets them out until the cows come home or until it is time to go to supper.

W. J. Bryan's speech-making pyrotechnics in behalf of Brother Charley lasted one week. The distinguished orator practicing fine political ledgerman during his brief sojourn, and then left Brother Charley to hustle for himself.

If the government lacks authority to regulate the price of coal, it ought to get it and make haste in the direction of the restrictions and modified avarice in behalf of the consuming public. The cost of coal has become too great before it reaches retailers, and it seems unwarranted by any reasoning that the most active imagination can advance.

The code law over which the two leading parties are now battling, is just a sensible, practical business system, as we understand it. It is a condition of different subjects branches to look after the state's affairs, the same as any big business institution employs to insure efficiency and success. This code will be able to change personality. Some need to reflect more animation of pep; others need to have the rough edges sandpapered down. There are

An eastern college has installed a department for the teaching and development of personality. We think it is a good idea. If looking at a beautiful picture or comely stature will beautify the countenance, so a little training ought to be able to change personality. Some need to reflect more animation of pep; others need to have the rough edges sandpapered down. There are those who need to develop affability without becoming soft and glib. There are others who need to learn to smile without appearing idiotic. Wonderful possibilities are opened by the new department and every school ought to have one.

A democratic candidate has been upbraided for offering a record in support of his candidacy on the ground that it gives strength to the republican position. In defense, he said he was resting on the Gibraltar of truth—fact—taken from the official record. But the truth, as his powerful critics would assume, is not to be advanced if it lends comfort or aid to the political opposition.

It is reported that when the code bill was before the legislature, Edgar Howard, candidate for congress, went down to Lincoln and spoke in its behalf. Politicians are unreasonable in asking people to change their opinions so suddenly. They are unreasonable in asking voters to travel in one direction and then abruptly opposite direction. Few people are political acrobats, and they have not been trained to turn-about-face on such short notice. Politicians usually understate the people's power of analysis and discrimination, but most of them offer a semblance of consistency; Edgar does not appear to exercise himself much in that respect.

The impression sought to be created by W. J. Bryan in his speeches over the state that Brother Charley has served the city of Lincoln as a sort of modern Hercules is discredited by some of the home folks. It is so easy for one member of a family to play up his achievements to any other member who has been away and who has just come back that it is to be assumed that Brother Charley crew over-enthusiastic. The former municipal coal yardmaster of Lincoln is quoted as saying that Brother Charley did not save the people of that city a dime of coal. A writer in the Lincoln Journal October 15, says that Brother Charley "had no more to do with the Lincoln gas suit and the rebates which came out of it than had the man in the moon." And there you are.

Congressman Robert E. Evans is not a designing politician. He is as far removed from the crafty sophistry of mere office-seeking as one could imagine. He has sought earnestly and all the time to represent in the most effective manner possible the agricultural interests of Nebraska. His heart is in support with the farmer. He has been on the job early and late to look after and help the farmer's business. He belongs to the farm bloc, and has been one of the leading members of that organization to secure to the middle west the rights to which it is justly entitled. Wonderful as it is a grandstander, not a neutral-born windjammer or adjective shooter. He is a plain American citizen with keen brains and a big soul, all attuned to the best interests of the people whom he represents.

The man who is never up on his toes, and who waves his legs carelessly around the legs of a chair where he sticks all day, idly dreaming, and putting forth no effort, will of course fail and finally go to his grave, charging the world with lack of appreciation and lack of opportunity. Truth is, there are more and greater opportunities today than ever before. The world's inventions have opened new fields for endeavor, or have facilitated effort and increased production. The young man or woman can find more things worth while to accomplish, with larger rewards than ever before. Requisites are knowledge of the task undertaken, integrity of character, exercise of energy and tact and determination to win. Opportunities abound, but they must be grabbed and turned to advantage. They won't hunt out a sleeping sluggard and force themselves on him. He must be alert, and be fairly cognizant of a good thing when he sees it.

Business.

St. Louis City Journal: The commerce department's announcement covering August foreign business indicates a development in favor of American concerns, although the gain had only to do with the export of manufactured articles. Loss of raw materials showed a export. Exports—increased for the month—compared with the same period a year ago was $28,000,000, an amount not significant in itself as to size but one of importance as indicating that the trend of foreign business is upward. Admitted that the only gain was in manufactured articles and that raw materials showed a loss, it still is possible to obtain from this the evidence of a development in favor of American business interests.

Europe has not carried its industrial reconstruction far enough to be in the market with normal strength in manufacturing, hence the decline in interest in American raw materials for which there always is a heavy demand under ordinary circumstances. Notwithstanding the fact that the old world is still far behind America in reconstruction. Europeans find that they need manufactured articles of American make and the orders are placed. Following the world war and its general ruinous effect on industrial Europe, with disorders prevailing over enormous areas, it would be natural to expect that manufacturing would be at a low ebb. Necessities, however, continue to impress the Europeans, who find they can purchase here sufficient for their needs while awaiting the time for industrial adjustment that will make them more nearly self supporting. Buying abroad on the part of Americans will help business relations on both sides, and the practice is to be encouraged.

One of the most interesting developments in the financial field at home was the oversubscription by two-thirds of the government's $200,000,000 bond issue. The bonds sold at slightly above par and went rapidly. The amount of $1,500,000,000 represents the federal reserve estimate of the total subscriptions. Secretary Mellon, if he had any doubt as to the success of the issue, which he probably did not have must feel gratified that it showed such strength right from the beginning. Another feature in the financial world is a broadening and more active stock market. New York has witnessed such a development with trading more general and a more optimistic tone in both the money and the stock markets.

The government crop report shows 50,000,000 to 55,000,000 more bushels of corn than the grain-trade had anticipated, but records a loss of 25,000,000 to 30,000,000 in oats and 12,000,000, in wheat. The grain market is very strong regardless of the fact that the Mudania conference adversely affected the situation in the near east and eliminated all war talk incoming from the boards of trade. Exporters are buying heavily, and it is so observed that domestic buyers are stockpiling up principally for milking purposes.

The railroads continue busy. Chicago estimates that 1,000,000 cars were loaded on six western systems last month, since which time shipments have greatly increased. The problem of transportation will not be fully solved until far into next month, according to the executives who see the various system tried to the limit of their capacity for several weeks hence. Coal production is near a record, with distribution becoming more orderly, but with no promise that the price will be reduced. Trade optimism is growing everywhere, which is not surprising in view of the gains everyone is witnessing.

Says It Made a New Person of Him

Thousands of people needlessly endure a half-dazed, nervous, run-down condition when they might enjoy a sturdy, robust health and all its manifold blessings if they only knew what to do. People in this condition find Tanlac soon ends their trouble and builds up abundant strength, energy and vitality. Joseph O. Stone, 1235 Sixth St., West, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, says:

"I was in a miserable run-down condition, with very little appetite and feeling depressed and good-for-nothing all the time. Tanlac built me up seven pounds in weight and made such a big change in me that I can't remember when I ever felt better in my life."

Nervousness and a run-down, tired-out feeling are the common symptoms of a hidden cause, which usually lies in the stomach. Tanlac enables you to digest your food properly, eliminate waste and regain your old time strength and vigor. Get a bottle today at any good druggist. 0191

Married on Parents' Silver Anniversary

A pretty wedding was solemnized Friday, Oct. 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hypse when their daughter, Miss Myrtle, became the bride of Mr. John Lawrence Bergman of Omaha, the day being the silver wedding anniversary of the bride's parents. Rev. E. G. Kneek of the Lutheran church performed the ceremony before about one hundred relatives and friends and Rev. E. G. Kneek of Concord gave appropriate talk for the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hypse.

The Hypse home was decorated in rainbow colors, Miss Myrtle Hypse's chosen color scheme. The fireplace was banked with ferns from which a canopy of ribbons, woven with smilar, reached to the lights in the center of the room. Shades of rainbow colors were used on all the lights in the home and hangings of these were attractive decorations about the rooms.

At high noon Philip Helgren of Omaha sang "Oh, Promise Me" after which the bride and groom marched to the altar while Miss Helen May Johnson of Omaha, played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride wore a dress of white Spanish lace over white satin and a tulle veil made in coronation style on which were orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses and white sweet peas. The bridegroom wore a black evening suit.

Miss Euvodia Hypse, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore lavender. Miss Gail Hypse, cousin of the bride, wearing blue and Miss Marie Bergman, sister of the bridegroom, wearing pink, were bridesmaids. Each of the bride's attendants carried a basket of flowers tied with the color of her dress. Arlene Hypse, dressed in pink, was flower girl and Margaret Hypse, dressed in yellow, was ring bearer. Arthur Peterson of Omaha, was best man and Henry Sandberg of Omaha and Glen Hypse of Wakefield were attendants. The bride's father, A. M. Hypse, gave her to Mr. Bergman. Mrs. Hypse, mother of the bride, wore a dress of brown tulle and crepe.

Following the ceremony and talk by Rev. P. Pearson, a wedding dinner was served. Between courses Philip Helgren sang two solos; Miss May Johnson sang a short solo, which were given by Rev. M. Knock, for the young couple, by Rev. J. T.

Kraft for the bride and bridegroom of twenty-five years ago, by Rev. P. Pearson and Bert Page.

Mr. Ernest Bergman went to Sioux City where they stayed until Sunday, returning to Wakefield and then going to their home in Omaha. Many most of gifts were received by the bride-couple of Friday and by Mr. and Mrs. Hypse. Mr. Bergman's gift to his bride was a platinum hat pin set in diamonds.

Saloonkeeper a Law Violator. Lincoln Journal: There is something a bit startling in the declaration of Clarence True Wilson of the Methodist Episcopal board of temperance, that "prohibition at its worst is better than the license system at its best." Yet on examination it will be found that this slogan is substantially correct. It fits in perfectly with the claims made by so many authorities on the subject that more clandestine liquor is sold under license than under prohibition.

maintained his calm demeanor, standing the ordeal with never a sign of flinching. As the attorney made the closing address and denounced him with all the fervor of the impassioned orator he seemed, however, to shrink somewhat, and turn pale. At the close, however, he was alert as ever, and got up quickly to the court room from 7 o'clock in the morning until the close of the judge's instructions. Some attempt was made the first few days to limit the size of the crowd but this was abandoned later, and all who could get in were permitted to do so. Once Saturday afternoon, some remark or incident was applauded, when Judge Dickson sternly reproved the crowd, and threatened if the demonstration was repeated he would clear the court room. There was silence after that.

John Rinehart, C. R. Curry, and Arthur Eveland assisted Sheriff Heenan in handling the crowd.

Why Your Well Feet
Need a "Built-in"
Bridge

Civilization has decreed that shoes be made with heels of varying heights. When your foot is lifted onto a heel it leaves the middle of the foot (the arch) to sag.

Nature intended the entire foot to be supported. Arch Preserver shoes eliminate such strain by providing a concealed built-in bridge, that offered exactly the same support as when you are barefooted.

Arch Preserver shoes are smart, upstanding, following the style trend. They keep your feet well. They keep your feet well groomed. They'll give you a new idea of foot comfort.

Dave.

Geneva Signal: Day before yesterday Dave stood by and saw an auctioneer sell his horses, mules, cattle, Hudson six, hogs, tractor and much other farm machinery and other chattels at a public sale under an order of the bankruptcy court. The editor of The Signal knew Dave in his boyhood and knew something of him after he began farming for himself and after he married. He worked hard and with at least average intelligence and he chiefted on large farming operations soon after he got started out for himself. He is now approaching middle life and it is not probable that his property paid his debts.

Dave knew how to choose hogs, horses, mules and cattle, but he made wild guesses when he chose a wife. Or perhaps he merely allowed himself to be chosen. The record is incomplete on that point. Perhaps he had a boy to allow himself to be chosen was the better way. However it was, Dave was unlucky. His wife turned out to be idle, indifferent, reckless in expenditure and wholly thoughtless of the future. The local village was a pretty good trading point but not nearly good enough for Dave's wife. She had to make very frequent trips to a much larger town. Of course a common driver wouldn't do for driving to the large town.

Dave's wife head and heart were as empty as her cellar and her kitchen shelves. Her yard was full of tin cans and paper cartons where there should have been flowers and vegetables. She had no boy to prevent her taking her proper place by the side of her frugal and hard working husband. The bankruptcy came as a matter of course. The wonder was that it did not come years before. Dave's energy and resourcefulness were all that stood in the way of an earlier wreck.

With proper co-operation on the part of his wife, Dave would have made the grade. The family would have been well fixed instead of being penniless. Fortunately there are no little children to suffer from the disgrace that has overtaken the family. If the wife had done her part they could have ridden in the Hudson six, or something better, to the end of their days instead of having it swallowed up in the bankruptcy court.

The difference between satisfaction and unsatisfactory plans is not in the price that you pay but in the skill and knowledge of the man who fitted them. I guarantee satisfaction.

Wayne Teachers Elected at Norfolk

The annual teachers' convention at Norfolk last week had an attendance of nearly 900, according to report and the program was well organized and proved helpful to the teachers.

The election of officers, announced Saturday morning, resulted as follows: President, T. J. Surface, Albia; vice president, W. B. Ireland, Madison; secretary, Pearl Sewell, Wayne; treasurer, E. E. Lackey, Wayne; Harry Reimund, this year's president, was elected a member of the executive committee.

The Norfolk Daily News gives the following in the course of its report:

The executive committee now consists of Messrs. Surface, Reimund, Ireland, Lackey and Miss Sewell. The selecting of the next convention city is in the hands of this committee and no action will be taken for some time. It is understood, however, that the contest between Norfolk and Wayne. The sentiment of the teachers is that the city which offers the best entertainment and best assistance to the officers in making the convention successful should be awarded the convention.

The resolutions as adopted at the closing session called for an endorsement of the Americanization plan of the American Legion with the selection of a committee to help work out that program, support of federal and federal recognition of the public schools "without federal interference in state and local control as embodied in the Tower-Sterling bill," recommendation of a code of professional ethics; favored legislation looking toward creation of a state board of education elected by the people and which board would select the state superintendent; endorsement of the national association's program at Boston; recognition of the assistant John C. Neihard, recommending that his works be included in the general approval of the assistant secretary of Native organizations which helped make the convention successful.

Members of the resolutions committee were: R. H. Bailey, Newman Grove; Emma Schwerin of Hartington and T. W. Cooper of Plainview.

Federation of Club Women to Meet

The twenty-seventh annual convention of the Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs will be held at Norfolk, Nebraska, on October 24, 25 and 26. The first session will be at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning.

North Platte will be the most cordial invitation and royal welcome to each and every club in the state to be present at this meeting.

Officers of North Platte in general are as follows: Mrs. J. H. Johnson, president; Mrs. J. H. Johnson, secretary; Mrs. J. H. Johnson, treasurer; Mrs. J. H. Johnson, reporter; Mrs. J. H. Johnson, delegate.

Plans for a very attractive and highly inspirational program are being completed.

Tuesday night is district president's night, at which time the district presidents will be heard from. Our state president, Mrs. Edgar B. Penny of Fullerton, will address the convention on Tuesday evening.

Speakers of national prominence at the convention will be: Dr. Caroline B. Hedger, noted child specialist from the Elizabeth McCormick Memorial Foundation of Chicago, who will speak on different phases of the subject: "Duties that the Community Ows the Child," and Mrs. W. H. Phillips of St. Cloud, Mont., second vice president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, who on Thursday evening will address the convention, her subject being "Community Service."

Nebraska club women will be afforded the privilege and honor of personal contact with Mrs. Perham as she will spend the entire time of the convention with the Nebraska Federation.

The program, "America's Call," will be staged during the convention under the division of Americanization by the Girls' Organizations.

Bryan vs. Bryan. Lincoln Journal: "If a candidate says the issue is settled, call him a liar. The last democratic national convention was controlled by wets who got places as legislators on the pretense that the question had been settled."

This is an extract from the published report of a speech delivered by W. J. Bryan at a gathering of 300 men and women held in the Grand hotel in Lincoln on April 29, 1922. That was less than six months ago. What has happened since then to settle the question, except the nomination of Mr. Bryan's brother for governor and the need of Hitchcock vote to pull him through?

This may be a tiresome matter for many of our readers, but a great issue is here presented and must be faced squarely. It involves the political good faith, the moral standing of a man of national fame who has always borne a good personal reputation.

Less than four months ago Charles W. Bryan denounced J. N. Norton's candidacy for the governorship to

Hartington Paper Explains Code Law

Hartington Herald: The code has been made an issue in the present campaign by the democrats who hope by misrepresentation of a system adopted under a republican state administration to win votes from the unthinking. They reason thus: Nebraska has the code; state taxes have increased; ergo, the increase is due to the code. This sort of reasoning, of course, is utterly fallacious, but some do fall for it; and, since the code has been made an issue in the campaign by the democrats, it is only just that the people should know the facts. The Nebraska civil administrative code was adopted by a republican legislature in 1919, but it had been repeatedly recommended by democratic governors. The code is simply the application of modern business principles to the state's business, and, instead of increasing the cost of the administration, it has effected a substantial saving, as the facts show. Experience has revealed some defects in the Nebraska code, which Randall proposes to remedy, but the principle of it is sound, and, when the democrats attribute increased taxation to the code, they misrepresent.

The code is one of the issues in the present campaign, and the average voter, who does not have the time to make an exhaustive study of this system will find the following queries and the democrats' answers to the code enlightening. Nobody should condemn the code without at least giving it a fair and impartial hearing.

Q. What is the code law?
A. A law passed by the legislature of 1919 which combined twenty-six boards and commissions, each of which had a head of its own, into six state departments all under the governor, with a secretary in charge of each.

Q. What is the object?
A. To apply to the conduct of the state's business the same methods used in efficient management of successful private enterprises.

Q. Is it something that was added to the existing form of government?
A. No. It merely consolidated under six heads a number of state activities that had been authorized from time to time by state legislation.

Q. Is it something new in the way of running a government?
A. No. In operation it is much like the president's cabinet at Washington.

Q. Did this require any great changes in the old laws?
A. No. The code system is merely a method of administering the business functions of the state government, and it did not disturb the substance of the laws already on the statute books. The apparent bulk of the code law is due to the fact that it was necessary to gather up the old laws from various parts of statutes, combine them and re-enact them.

Q. Has its operation increased state taxes?
A. It has not for the reason that most of the code departments are supported by fees collected for services performed by employees. It would follow that if these departments were abolished state taxes would not be decreased a dollar.

Tradition teaches us that China in order to impress upon her people, generation after generation, that their own county, state, locality and city had in store, all worldly rewards would relate this legend:

"Yang Ye Yo, aged 45 had spent his life in search of gold. Discouraged he left China in quest of gold traveling and prospecting on every known continent. After twenty years of searching he returned empty handed and settled down on his former plot to till the soil for a livelihood. While hoeing he unearthed gold which made him the richest man in China."

The Early Days in Two Counties

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Francis drove to the farm and found the house looked at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Thinking Mr. Kenrick had gone to Carroll, they entered the house through a window and found Mr. Kenrick dead in bed. There was the remains of a fire in the stove and it is thought he got up as usual Friday morning, started a fire and went back to bed. Death was due, it is thought, to a stroke of apoplexy.

Mr. Kenrick was an early settler in this vicinity, having lived on his farm more than thirty years. Besides his widow he leaves one daughter, Mrs. B. E. Francis, of Carroll, and two sons, William Kenrick, of Winner, S. D., and Thomas Kenrick, of Seattle, Wash. One daughter, Mrs. Mitchell, died about two years ago.

From Wayne Herald for Oct. 29, 1902:

Ed Lundberg came from Lincoln for a few days' visit.

E. Cunningham and Phil Kohl went to South Dakota on a business.

Archie Lindsey received word of the death of a brother in Illinois.

Vote For ROBERT E. EVANS For Re-election to Congress

In four years there has been no public criticism of his record. He has voted right on every question affecting this district. He is identified with the farm bloc. He supported the Sweet bill for the relief of disabled soldiers. He strongly supported the soldiers' bonus at every step. He is in favor of strict enforcement of the Volstead Act. He voted to reduce normal income taxes from six to four per cent, thereby saving more than twenty million dollars to the ordinary taxpayer. He supported the emergency tariff, which aided Nebraska farmers. He advocated and voted for acts increasing powers of War Finance Corporation and Federal Farm Loan Board, thereby releasing millions for the relief of western farmers. Judge Evans is in a position to make his influence felt in the next congress as no new man can do.

You never tasted Corn Flakes so joyously flavored, so crispy-crunchy as Kellogg's

That's why big and little folks who know the difference insist upon KELLOGG'S! The thing to do is to make comparison—Kellogg's against any other kind of corn flakes you ever ate! If it's quality, or all-the-time crispness—or delicious—or appetizing flavor you want—well, just wait till you eat Kellogg's! And, what a delight to know they're never lastings!

You'll get so cheerful about Kellogg's that the day's best hours will be when it's time to sit down with the family in front of generous bowls all filled most to bursting with those big, sunny-brown Corn Flakes! Never was a better time than tomorrow morning to prove that KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes are about the "gladdest of all good things to eat."

Insist upon KELLOGG'S—the kind in the RED and GREEN package—if you want to know how wonderfully good corn flakes can be!
