HEAVY STORM VISITS THIS VICINITY SUNDAY

About Two Inches of Rain Fell Here Causing Some Damage.

A heavy rain, accompanied by a high wind, visited Wayne and the surrounding country Sunday night. No serious damage to property resulted, although a number of trees were flooded, about two inches of rain fell here, 1.9 inches being registered by the gauge at the State bank of Wayne. Wakefield reports a rainfall of 2.10 inches. Winslow and Carroll also had a large amount. Local train service suffered no handicap owing to the storm. It is reported that the track between Norfolk and Winner, S. D., was washed out by the heavy rain. Trains were able only to get to Winner on Monday and Tuesday morning. By Tuesday evening they were able to get through to Winner and by the middle of the week train service was restored to normal.

Creeks about Wayne were considerably raised by the rain. The lowlands were covered with water and probably a number of them will have to be re-planted. The bridge over the track between Wakefield and Wayne overflowed and passengers on the trains Monday and Tuesday were surprised to find the water level. From the overflow near the track. The Sioux City passenger last Thursday evening was delayed at the crossing. The track between Wakefield and Wayne overflowed and passengers on the trains Monday and Tuesday were surprised to find the water level. From the overflow near the track.

Part of the grounds on the golf course at the country club were slightly damaged by the rain which fell during the storm Sunday night. Water draining several valleys south of the course covered the grounds. However, little debris was left. The greens will be in good condition for use the latter part of the week.

The bridge over the Country club creek was badly washed and automobiles were unable to go over it until the first of the week. It was repaired yesterday. Water in the creek rose considerably higher but night was too stormy to permit the aeroplane that was left in a field west of town was blown over and badly wrecked.

The excavation of the proposed Blair and Heckert building was flooded with about two or three feet of water. Work on the paving beyond the bridge south of town was at a standstill several days on account of the high water level. Branches of trees were twisted off by the wind and in some instances trees were entirely blown down. The members of the class were damaged to some extent.

MOVE STARTED TO REORGANIZE BANK

Mass Meeting of Depositors of Suspended First National Bank of Carroll is Held.

PLAN OF ACTION PROPOSED

Depositors Asked to Leave Four Per Cent Two Years—Balance to Await Liquidation.

A mass meeting of depositors of the suspended First National Bank of Carroll was held at Carroll last Friday night to consider a proposition looking to the reorganization of the bank. About 400 were present. Explanations were offered in behalf of the proposed plan in the person of R. Day of Norfolk and C. E. Burnham of Norfolk. It is proposed that depositors agree to leave four per cent of their deposits in the bank for two years, and leave the remaining fifty per cent for purchase of bank assets to be placed to the benefit of three trustees for liquidation. As understood, the sixty per cent would be returned to depositors as fast as assets could be turned in cash. The bank would be an entirely new organization with a new name supported by new capital. It is believed the depositors will gain advantage by agreeing to the proposition. Then the bank would not go into liquidation. The plan would not be an indirect benefit to the bank. More than half of the total number of depositors have agreed to the plan, and a committee is busy making a list of those who have not. There are about 400 depositors. They have given their approval and signature as fast as they have understood the proposition, and the plan. It is thought another week will complete the canvass, and that account reports will finish liquidation. The trustees proposed to handle the bank assets are: M. S. Whitney, Ed Troutman and James Stanton.

Knox County Tornado Causes Heavy Damage

Verdigris, Mo., June 15.—Sweeping a path from 100 to 200 yards wide and several miles long, a tornado did considerable damage to crops and farm buildings in a vicinity between 4:30 and 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. However, no injuries or fatalities had been reported here this morning.

Citizens Scurry to Cellars.
The storm missed the village of Verdigris by about a mile, but the clouds were plainly visible from town and caused great excitement, the villagers scurrying to cellars and other places of safety until the storm had passed.

Starting about three miles south-west of Verdigris and apparently ending at the Otto Jedlicka farm one and a half mile south of Verdigris, the storm swept bare all fields in its path. Alfalfa and small grain were torn out by the roots, or swept to the ground, the haystacks left completely devoid of vegetation after the storm had passed over.

Heavy Damage on Farm.
Except at the Jedlicka farm, the damage was confined wholly to crops. At that place, however, practically all of the outbuildings were destroyed and timber scattered all about the place. A big, fine orchard in the path of the twister also met a similar fate, and hardly a tree was left standing. Other big trees on the farm were torn out by the roots and strewn over the farm in every direction.

From the Jedlicka farm the storm traveled in a northeasterly direction and it was feared that other damage farther east had been done, although on account of hampered telephone communication it was impossible to get further trace of the tornado from here.

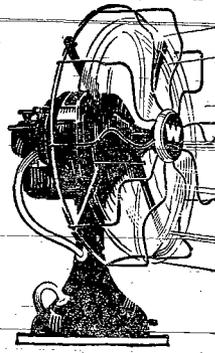

No Further Trace.
The tornado in the vicinity of Verdigris yesterday afternoon, reported to have taken a northeasterly course after leaving the twister's farm, apparently lifted or spent its force immediately after leaving that vicinity. All efforts of The News this morning to trace the course of the storm after it left Verdigris failed. Bloomfield, Center, Crofton and Wymonah all reported there were no indications of a storm in their vicinities yesterday.

Two Killed by Lightning.
Omaha, Neb., June 15.—Special reports received here last night told of two deaths from lightning and serious property damage incurred as a result of the rain and electrical storm which swept over the midwest west yesterday. William Oaken, 49 a farmer residing near Greenfield, Ia. was instantly killed by lightning while at work on a corn crib. Another report said that Frank Greisen, 40, well known Platte county farmer living seven miles north of Platte Center also met death in the same manner. Both men leave large families.

Two inches of rainfall was reported from Hooper, Neb.—The deluge followed an electrical storm which caused the business houses of the town to be in darkness for an hour. Fifteen feet of the old dam of the Southern Nebraska Light and Power

Homescoming Event Is Gala Day at Normal

The twelfth annual homescoming for alumni of the Wayne State Teachers College was the occasion for an interesting program of festivities Friday. About two hundred graduates attended. Many who had planned to come were unable to do so on account of the rains.

Members of the alumni met shortly before eight at 1920 and marched by classes into the auditorium where the middle section of seats were reserved for them. The program in charge of F. G. Dole, president of the alumni association, opened with a welcome address by Dr. U. S. Conn. The president expressed the school's appreciation of the interest shown by the alumni in each homescoming. He briefly reviewed the changes taking place in the school, discussed the superintendent and teachers are taking advantage of the additional two years recently added to better fit themselves for their positions, he explained. This is proved by the fact that fifteen graduates will have received degrees before the opening of the fall term. There is no intention, he declared, of making this a university. The primary aim will be, as always, that of training teachers.

A musical number, consisting of four violins played by Miss Elvera Malloy, Miss Albin Putnam, Myron Myers and Prof. W. C. Hunter, was loved. The players responded with an encore. Miss Cathryn Bohner was accompanied.

Prof. A. H. Brittel was introduced as the next speaker and talked on "Reminiscences." He recalled the opening of the various activities. His talk dealt with the humorous side of the school life and yet through it all he stressed the fact that the same spirit of cooperation and work has been present since the beginning.

Miss Mary Fitzsimmons of O'Neill, a graduate of the class of 1922, sang two vocal solos. She was accompanied on the piano by Prof. L. F. Berry.

Prof. O. R. Bowen, the last speaker on the program, had for his subject the "Future." Looking ahead ten years, Mr. Bowen prophesied that the Wayne State Teachers College would witness a number of changes. He predicted that a new training school equipped to care for twelve grades and kindergarten would be built; that seven new dormitories would be erected; that an auditorium to seat 1,500 would be added; and that more and more increasingly the school would be regarded as the educational center of Northeast Nebraska. In closing the speaker declared that at the end of even twenty years he could see the same mat in the work of the institution.

Following Mr. Bowen's talk the quartet, Prof. E. E. Lackey, Prof. A. P. Gulliver, Prof. L. F. Berry and Prof. Elmer Rogers, sang two selections.

The chapel program closed with the memorizing of the alumni chant. The words to the song were written by Mrs. S. A. Lutgen of Wayne, and the music by Prof. W. C. Hunter. Mr. Hunter, assisted by Miss Fitzsimmons, Miss Fern and Miss Frances Oman and the quartet, directed the singing of the song.

At 12:15 the alumni met for luncheon in the "Nook" in the northeast part of the campus.

Adrian Stevens of the University School of Music in Lincoln, entertained the alumni and students of the school Friday afternoon with a lecture on his experiences in traveling about the country. He told interesting experiences and humorous stories. Mr. Stevens is a reader of prominence and is entertaining as well as being able to give something worthwhile to the audience.

Orange and black were carried out effectively in the decorations for the banquet served Friday evening to about 210 alumni. Tables in the gymnasium were arranged in an oblong, the nut cups, candles and shades, bouquets of flowers and place cards carrying out the color scheme. The one S. C. Klemmstrang was used on the candle shades and electric light fixtures around the room. At one end of the gymnasium was a garden fence with sunflowers was worked out in orange and black crepe paper. Flowers and streamers of paper were draped about the balcony. The four-course dinner was served by girls who wore orange and black head bands and aprons. The college orchestra, directed by Prof. W. C. Hunter, played during the serving. Class yells and songs enlivened the occasion.

Conrad Jacobson, class of 1914, presided as toastmaster at the program which followed. Miss Jessie Watson of the class of 1919, dealing with the subject "What I Remember," told what wonders had been accomplished in the history of the school in the increased attendance and improved buildings. The wonders will not cease, was her prediction. Miss Mary House, class of 1921, responded with a toast on "Seemingly," stating that after all the things that seem to be, are real and delight the imaginations. "Never," stated Tracy Kohl of the class of 1914, is an overstatement of the truth power and is one of the strongest words in history. In the late World war, and in particular at the battle of Verdun, at the time of Charlemagne's rule, in Paul Jones' victory, and in other instances in history, stated Mr. Kohl, "never" has been the word leading to successful accomplishments. Vocal solos by Miss Ardath Conn, class of 1914, pleased the alumni and were followed by a song on "At Home" by Prof. U. S. Conn. In his talk Mr. Conn told of the need of young folks to make attempts and he expressed his satisfaction over the reports reaching the school from the work of the graduates, their attempts having been successful in the fields of education. Representing the new class, Myron Myers spoke on "To" and expressed the hope that graduates make attainments for the school. He favored the homescoming event each year with possibilities of keeping in touch with the school. The closing toast, given by Fred S. Beery, was "Cease." He told of Wayne's having the best equipped normal school in the state, the best faculty and one of the best school executives in the state. Miss Fern and Miss Frances Oman, of the classes of 1916 and 1918, concluded the program by singing two duets. Mrs. James Miller accompanied them as well as Miss Conn at the piano.

Officers for the coming year, elected at the business session which followed the toasts, are: President, Conrad Jacobson, class of 1914; vice president, Miss Gladys Kline, class of 1914; secretary, Richard Hall, class of 1922; and treasurer, Rollie W. Leav, N. N. C. It was decided that the alumni association start a student loan fund to help worthy students complete their school work. The initial sum will be $300. The money will be loaned with interest for short periods of time and it is thought will be of real benefit to ambitious students. The association has had a surplus which is being used for this purpose.

Among the alumni who were here from out of town for the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. John D. Hersh of Coleridge, Miss Vern Anderson of Chicago, Frank Brokenidge, Roland Hersh, Frank W. Randolph, Miss Bessie Bacon of Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Young of Murdo, S. D., Miss Marie, Miss Ruth and Miss Edna of Chicago, Miss Mary, Miss Madge Milner of Fairfax, S. D., Miss Mary and Miss Julia Fitzsimmons of O'Neill, Miss Lena Anderson of Dewey, Miss Amy Culbertson of Dakota City, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Beebe and Mr. and Mrs. L. F. A motor parade will replace the usual floral parade. Three band concerts will be features of the day. A fire free act follows immediately after noon and a contest will be staged to decide the champion horseshoe pitcher in northeast Nebraska. Emerson plays Wakefield in baseball for a purse of $250. Emerson fire department will compete with the Wakefield department in a top-of-war. A water fight will also be a feature. A big fireworks display, dance and concert will entertain the visitors in the evening.

The American Legion of Randolph has charge of the celebration there and a day of unusual entertainment is being planned. Wakefield and Randolph, Hartington and Wausa are to compete in the baseball games. The Clearwater and Blomfield bands will furnish music all day. De Ford's orchestra will play for the dances both afternoon and evening in the new Legion pavilion. A big display of fireworks will be shown in the evening.

Wisnide is to remember the Fourth with "good old-fashioned celebration" staged by business men of the town. Committees have been appointed and plans at present are that the celebration will include a baseball game, band concerts, fireworks display, minor sports and concessions.

The American Legion of Laurel is in charge of arrangements for the Fourth there. Floats will make up a parade in the morning; a talk by a prominent speaker will follow; Laurel have urged the students in baseball; minor sports, dancing and picture show will entertain in the evening.

Homewood Park near Wynot is planning a suitable program, and will be an ideal place to spend the Fourth.

Wallace Warns Farmers.

Washington, June 16.—Warning to American farmers that unless production is fairly well adjusted to demand, prices will be disappointing, and that low prices of the last three years have not been due to reduction of agricultural exports was given yesterday by Secretary Wallace of the department of agriculture.

"A great many people seem to have had the notion that the low price for farm products during the last three years have been due to a reduction of our exports," said Mr. Wallace. "Under this misconception they have urged the adoption of various political and economic devices which they thought might increase agriculture exports. The fact of the matter is that our exports of farm products during the last three years have been far greater than before the war and greater than even in the war years."

The school boys who have hired out to farmers for the summer instead of leaving away time, will in the fall have desirable bank accounts and robust health to show as a result of their industry.

So much delayed work, on account of frequent rains, has been pressing for attention that customary line has not been given to road dragging, and as a consequence the roads are not up to the usual standard of smoothness.

Beatrice voted Tuesday overwhelmingly against a proposed merger-plan for city government. The opposition rolled up 1,421 votes against 461. Notwithstanding such a defeat, it is likely a city manager of sufficient caliber and impartial judgment would bring a real boon to efficiency and economy.

We want to thank J. H. Kemp for being as honest as carried a letter addressed to his wife in his pocket nine months before delivering it. The suit in which the letter snugly nestled, was laid aside last September, being fastened it last Sunday, the letter was discovered. Our gratitude is based on the comforting knowledge that forgetfulness is not confined to this editor.

The member of the city council who proposed against replacing the original city water supply with a new variety, now comes forward and changes responsibility for local ailments to absence of a letter which was in the old water and which he says, was healthful, despite its drab look, funeral smell and manly taste. We fear his allowing prejudice to influence his usually sound judgment.

This week the Omaha Bee has been reproducing from its columns of the early newspapers, editorials written by the newspaper's founder and original editor, the late Edward Rosewater. These editorials show the concise and aggressive style of this pioneer editor. They show his wonderful resourcefulness, his dynamic expression. He went directly to the point without any circumlocution or any unnecessary rhapsody along the way. Mr. Rosewater's fine literary production and brilliant newspaper success were due mainly to hard work—a thing, within the reach of all, but not very popular or often followed to excess.

An exchange offers vigorous criticism of the practice of young men who, in automobiles, accost young women whom they have never met, and ask them to ride. The newspaper points out the infinite folly of girls in accepting such invitations from strangers. Careless disregard of conventions will inevitably lead to a decadent civilization.

The internal revenue department of the federal government for Nebraska has explained the elimination of unnecessary helpers in the interest of economy. Of course, the employees did not like to lose their jobs, but disappointment to some necessary had to follow a general policy of retrenchment. If every department of the public service would reduce operating cost to the minimum, the burden of expense would be materially lessened. The example of the internal revenue department may be an inspiration to economy along other lines.

We have been informed that the price of ham and bacon will become constant with the price of hogs on foot until stocks bought on higher markets will have been disposed of. Then when hogs go up, smoked meats should not become uneasy and hurry upward until supplies purchased at reduced levels are sold. If the price works both ways, there will be no reason to complain. But if we are to have high-priced ham and bacon because stocks on hand have been bought at high figures, and then later have the same experience because hog markets have gone up, we can see no relief for consumers.

With reference to the reported need of checking accommodations at the railway station, Agent Wm. Schumpert explains that there is no ready cash department. He says the places arranged to take care of suit cases have been filled, but if at any time they should prove inadequate to the demand, other quarters would be found. He says all baggage for checking will be properly taken care of. The need of a checking system was mentioned in connection with the influx of strangers coming here to attend the State Normal. Probably it would be a wise stroke of enterprise at the opening of the summer term as well as the fall term if the school those who have given the problem meet incoming trains and direct students who are unacquainted here.

The congestion of automobiles in the business district Saturday night could be relieved by side parking, according to the belief of those who have given the problem earnest consideration. As pointed out at a meeting of the Kiwanis club at the first of the week, the number of cars that may be parked by using the sides instead of the centers of the streets would be doubled. It is understood that committees of the Kiwanis club and Greater Wayne club will consider the question at a meeting tomorrow night, and then present it to the city council for action. If it is deemed advisable to change the parking place there should be no delay. Should the change be made, as seems likely, it is suggested that parking may be facilitated and the streets utilized to better advantage by having spaces properly marked.

It is amusing to note the enthusiastic co-operation with which some so-called professionals will seek to instruct women who are accomplished cooks in the art of cooking. The professional often knows more about making "fudge" or "divinity" than about creating fluffy bread or delicious strawberry shortcake.

While nature has interwoven with regularity somewhat by moving out rain as frequent intervals, it has dealt more kindly with us than with the settlements around Mount Etna where, instead of water, the people have been compelled to flee before an outpouring of molten lava. And find these children of men go back to their homes they won't merely find things water-soaked and covered with silt, with here and there a dead fish; they will return to a sickening mass of formidable volcano ash.

The reason mothers-in-law do not always have perfect content is because they have so much spare time to devote to figuring out suggestions were-making out new plans and specifications for the family to follow. They are usually sound in arrangement of blueprints, but often are rather too prescriptive in presenting them. But the mother-in-law is a wonderful help in time of need, and it is likely if her experience were more often consulted and her advice followed, there would be less rough sailing for the young family.

Damage by Floods.

Fremont, Neb., June 19.—Danger of increasing high waters in the Platte in this vicinity is believed passed with reports that the river has begun to recede. About three boys Scouts, marooned during the night on Fremont island where they were holding their annual outing, were safely brought to the mainland this afternoon.

Residents of the island have moved their possessions to higher ground.

Harry Webb, president of the scout council, and Frank Snyder, scoutmaster, brought the boys to the mainland by boat, carrying three lads at a trip. They rowed back and forth across the half-mile expanse of swiftly rushing waters until every boy was safely on land. The two men labored under a scorching sun in taking the boys from the island—rescuing the minds of many anxious parents.

Scout Riska Life.

Cabins and farm houses on Fremont and Thompson islands were inundated and the occupants forced to seek higher ground. George Nagel, son of Chief of Police Nagel, member of the scout camp, risked the roaring torrents and swam to the mainland to bring word that the bridge had been washed out and the camp cut off by floods.

When Nature Blows Off.

Omaha Bee: Volcanoes resemble men in some respects. The heaviest eruption is not always the largest, nor does the size of a crater have a great deal to do with the intensity of the eruptions. However, old Etna, which is again being heard from, always gets respectful attention. It is of a peculiar formation, in that it rises almost abruptly from a deep sea. The Mediterranean is 5,000 feet or considerably more than a mile deep, while Etna rises up 10,700 feet into the blue sky of Sicily, making a total elevation above the sea bed of well over three miles.

One of the most remarkable groups of fire-spouting mountains, the others being Vesuvius and Stromboli, Etna has figured in human history for many centuries. It does not hold the place in public estimation accorded to Vesuvius, for no Pompeii or Herculaneum has emerged from a burial of eighteen centuries from its ashes. However, the peasants around its base know something of the terror of its eruptions, and the people of Catania have paid a fearful price for the privilege of living at its base. The eruptions are neither so frequent nor so violent as those of Vesuvius, but are violent enough to do enormous damage.

While the world's these great chimneys of nature's fire furnace give vent to the everlasting flames, and stir the imagination to visions that have found reaction in literature, art and religion of all times. People dwelling in sight of one of these monsters will have little difficulty in understanding Phlegethon, the river of fire of Grecian and Roman mythology, for example. Nor to it to be wondered that the ancient Hawaiians found in Pele the dwelling place of a goddess whose anger required to be soothed by the sacrifice of a maiden.

From Ponca Journal June 24, 1880:

During recent wild storms the elevators at both Dakota City and Jackson were demolished. They were most structures at best, and being sadly out of repair it took only a slight breeze to topple them over.

It now being the time of year that many of our farmers are engaged in the raising of all it is bound to slip over, Alvin Linke steps to the front and shows his devotion to the stars and stripes by doing it to the human stock a pair of twin girls, which put in an appearance Tuesday evening.

The census enumerator will please take notice.

Logan Grove, Neb., June 14, 1880.

After being in Logan Valley for the past two months, and becoming fully acquainted with its surroundings in this country, I thought proper to note the little I know and have seen of this section. Yesterday I made a trip on horseback to the little town represented in yours of two weeks ago, and found there a most hospitable family in that of Mr. Morrison.

From Delaware county, Iowa, with whom we parted on the refreshments of life, finding also Mr. La Valley whose acquaintance we formed. We also understand there are two other families there marking the center of at present the almost air-castled city, but surrounded with a fine lay of the country as is west of the Missouri river, and has all the outlook of soon to be an enterprising town. We passed along down the Logan by Mr. Toule's manum herd of a thousand head of cattle and horses, chasing up three wild deer as we went, and coming to the farm of Mr. Groff, we met the eldest settlers on the main Logan, above the Battle creek; formerly known as the Logan slough. Passing on down from there we leave the more hilly country and come out in the most central of the Logan country which is now the best settled and most desirable found from the mouth of the head of the main Logan, and is destined to be the richest on the Logan on account of its every advantage for stock raising. We now have a store, a blacksmith shop and a postoffice, and it is soon expected to have the addition of other houses. This place is from where we write and it is known throughout the union as Logan Grove. Everything is favorable to this country, being one of the richest and best settled in the state. There have already about one hundred settlers made their way from the east into the Logan valley this spring, principally from eastern Iowa. The stock on our prairies look like thoroughbreds—fitted for continents, and crops universally are of the very finest growth, though little damage was done in the spring to some of the most advanced crops of the world. And now, as Nebraska is considered by many a dry country, I will state that in Logan City, we began to Ponca today, we found eight out of eleven bridges impassable on account of high water, and the one place one and one-half feet of water was driven through for more than a mile; but the land in this country is of such a nature that in a day or two the farms may be cultivated—Sparks.

School Problems.

Some of the schools are employing swimming instructors. None have so far been convicted of employing reading instructors, but few if any have arithmetic, geography and grammar instructors. There is no move to have dancing instructors installed, but no perceptible move in favor of installing instructors in the common branches. The free schools were once called the "common schools," but that name has been dropped. This is not saying they are worse or better than they once were, but they are different.—T. E. Sedgwick in York Republican.

E. Sedgwick, returned in the law, in philosophy and in the experiences of life and he can quote Shakespeare by the yard, because we have heard him do it, but he doesn't really believe all that he suggests in this comment on school matters of today, the high school in particular probably. One thing most of us overlook is the fact that half a million of our young people are in the colleges and universities of this country. They are doing far greater army-at-work-in-our-high-schools. Some day the average intellectual development may be sufficiently great to make use of this vast army of young people of high school age good scholars, good readers and good grammarians but that day is not near.

We must remember that we have had but few Miltons, Gladstones, Paleys, Lincolns, Washingtons and Jeffersons. Why expect a large per cent of accurate speech, well modulated voices, distinct articulators and grammatical prodigies? Look at what has happened to us within a couple of centuries. We are now engaged in the process of trying to teach everybody to spell and read and write and it is a tremendous task. We have had all sorts of devices, from vocational studies to sports, to keep our young people in school and make all of them able to spell a book, give a lecture to turn out a small per cent of good spellers. Unquestionably we have raised the general average but we have failed to produce a reasonable number of experts in spelling and the other common branches that Mr. Sedgwick and the editor of the York Herald are so persistently important—Geneva Signal.

IF STOMACH IS SOUR, FOOD WON'T DIGEST

No stomach filled with sour poisons can digest food. Everything you eat turns into more poison and gas, making you nervous and weak. Simple laxation gives relief, as mixed in Ad-Terka, expels all sour poisons and gas from BOTH upper and lower bowels. Removes foul decaying food matter, and never thought was in your system which caused sour and easy stomach. Ad-Terka is EXCELLENT to guard against appendicitis. Wayne Drug Company. 12111 suggests the independence one should enjoy in carrying on his farming operations. One should not be a slave to worn-out machinery. He should not be a slave to a condition of equipment that kills time, hinders work and cuts down production. In accordance with the spirit of the day, one should sound a note of independence and discard machines that are beyond repair and that obstruct headway. If a machine can be repaired, one should not delay coming to us and letting us supply him with the parts needed to speed up work and make it easier.

Approach of Independence Day

The having season will cause less anxiety and delay if you have the right equipment. We have the unsurpassable International and Dempster lines of stackers, mowers, rakes and sweeps. Bear in mind that we have repairs for all machines.

We are here to serve you promptly, courteously and economically. Let us know your needs, and let us help you.

Big Alfalfa Crop. Hand-pick Farmers around Randolph are looking for a bumper crop of alfalfa when the first cutting is put up. A number of farmers already have begun to cut their hay. Plenty of rain within the last month was conducive to rapid growth of the alfalfa. Reports indicate that the crop is equally plentiful throughout this section of the state.

Cultivation of the corn is well under way now. The cold wet weather of the past week has hindered the growth some.

THE STUDEBAKER LIGHT SIX SEDAN

Where Quality Counts Above Everything Else

Quality is more important in an enclosed car than in most any other product in daily use.

Regardless of price, it is not economy to buy a makeshift job in which the quality is skimmed and cheapened at every turn. Paint, imitation leather and fibre board too often cover serious structural defects and cotton-and-wool trimming cloths are short lived. The chances are that the buyer will more than pay the difference later—in higher upkeep cost, frequent repairs and excessive depreciation.

The price of the Light Six Sedan is the lowest at which it is possible to obtain a substantial, high grade hardwood and steel body, upholstered in mohair, in combination with a chassis of proved dependability and performance.

Studebaker's South Bend plants build more high quality closed bodies than those of any other automobile manufacturer and consequently over-head costs are reduced and the price to the customer is low.

The in-built quality of the Light Six Sedan is evident the moment one gets behind the wheel, and is appreciated far more after twenty-five or thirty thousand miles of service.

The Light Six Sedan, with its sturdy four-door body, its improved L-head motor, and the excellence of its chassis, combines distinction of appearance with a reliability of performance, a degree of comfort and economy of operation unknown in any other car at anywhere near its price.

Power is surplus measure to satisfy the most exacting owner

The Most Extraordinary Farm Electric Plant Opportunity Ever Offered to the Farmers of This County

A Whole Carload of the Famous Delco-Light plants—Your Chance to buy at a big Saving!

Notice

The Delco-Light Plants referred to in this special offer are standard Delco-Light Plants, fully covered by the regular service guarantee as to material and workmanship, and fully protected by the liberal service policy. Each plant has the famous 4-cycle, air-cooled, valve-in-head Delco-Light engine, and the thick-plate, long-lived Delco-Light Storage Battery. Any one purchasing a Delco-Light Plant as a part of this special carload order is assured of the same satisfaction he would receive in placing his order individually, — the same satisfaction now enjoyed by 175,000 Delco-Light users.

You have visited your neighbors. You have seen the bright atmosphere of their homes,—happy, joyous children whose lives have been gladdened, the mothers from whose shoulders the burdens of toil have been lifted, the fathers whose interests in life have been broadened, and whose profits have been increased,—all because of Delco-Light. And now, folks, I come to you with an amazing offer. Only a few of you—only those of you who will join me in a great project of co-operative buying can share in this remarkable offer. To you I am going to offer

Delco-Light—the standard electric light and power plant—installed, equipped, including the lighting fixtures, all ready to flood your home with the blessings of electrical sunshine at a price that has heretofore been unheard of. You can save by acting now.

Will You Join Your Neighbors In Buying a Carload of Delco-Light Plants?

I have made a proposition to the Delco-Light Factory. I have told them that I want to place a large quantity of plants in this county during the next few days. I have asked them if they will ship a whole carload of Delco-Light Plants direct from the factory to me.

I explained to them what a tremendous benefit it would be to me to have that many more satisfied users of Delco-Light in this county. These new users would show Delco-Light to their friends and neighbors and talk about it, and as a result it would help me wonderfully in selling more and more plants. The Delco-Light Company is willing to ship the carload, which will result in a great saving in freight. And I have added my generous bit. I will do the wiring at a ridiculously low figure. I will give absolutely at cost a generous part of the equipment that is needed to get the benefit from Delco-Light.

Are You Ready?

Due to this wonderful plan you can now have Delco-Light for less money than ever before—probably half of the cost that you expected.

Through the wonderful benefits of co-operative buying you can now give your family that joy and happiness that is only possible through electric light and power. You will have power to do the chores, for the washing machine, the separator, the churn, the feed grinder; electricity to heat the iron, to pump the water, and light—clean, safe, economical light that transforms your home from a place of danger and gloom to one of cheerfulness and deep content.

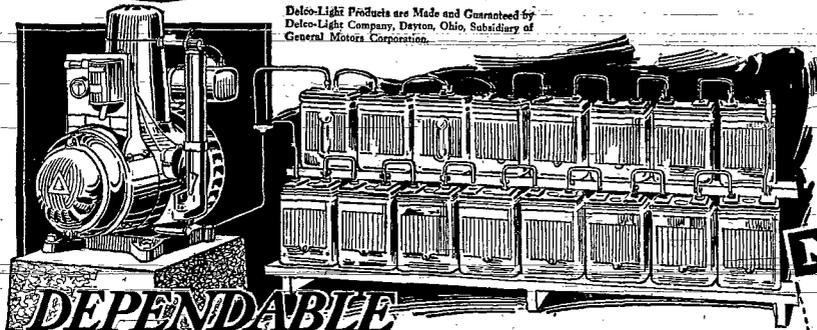

The number of plants that we have arranged to get on this plan is limited. You will have to act quickly. You will have to respond immediately. But the terms are so generous, the price so low, the advantages so great that if you ever at any time in the future expect to modernize your home, to make it a better, healthier, happier place in which to live and work, now is the time to do it.

Don't wait one minute. Simply mail the coupon. This does not obligate you in any way. It merely indicates that you are interested, and we will send you full details of the plan; we will tell you of the wonderful savings, and quote you a price such as you have never believed was possible. Mail the coupon or telephone now. This is the first time such an opportunity has ever been offered, and it may be the last. Act now if you want to save.

WAYNE, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JUNE 21, 1923

VOL. 38, NO. 49

Monday Luncheon of The Kiwanis Club

Following the noonday luncheon of the Kiwanis club of Wayne Monday, President C. E. Carhart called attention to a proposed change in the parking system of Wayne. He mentioned the congestion due to parking in the center of the streets and explained that the number of cars accommodated could be doubled by parking on the sides. The change to side parking has been made in many cities with advantage. Side parking also reduces the possibilities of accidents, as Mr. Carhart pointed out. The center of the street was advanced before having and when visitors to the town were not so numerous. The proposition was referred to the public welfare committee with recommendation that it be given careful consideration in conjunction with the Greater Wayne club and the city council. The latter body would be authorized to act.

Following the speech of the hour by Fred S. Berry who spoke in support of the approach of the annual Independence day, stressed the dangers that confront the nation and the necessity of government and exercise of best citizenship. He called attention to menacing radicalism in this country, and the supreme need of this city of patriotic thought and effort.

J. H. Kemp asked the Kiwanis club to encourage and support the Red Cross movement, which in his opinion, his suggestion was agreed to unanimously.

Damage Caused by Storm Sunday Night

Lynch, Neb., June 18.—Many families were driven from their homes along the banks of the Ponca river yesterday afternoon following a deluge of almost cloud-burst proportions that caused the worst flood Lynch has had in thirty years. It is estimated that between 8 and 9 inches of rain fell in a little over two hours.

Families Caught by Flood

Ponca creek rose rapidly and went out of its banks in twenty-five minutes. So swift was the rise of water that families living close to the water were marooned in the rapidly rising flood before they had time to make their way to safety and many women and children were rescued on horseback.

At least twelve homes were inundated by from one to three feet of water. This coming with the water slowly receding into the banks of the stream, houses are left with a foot of mud and debris on the floors and it will be some time before they can be occupied.

Cellars in every home on the north side of town were flooded and the water in the main business section, which is on higher ground was half a foot high. However, basements of business houses were not flooded.

Bridge Reported Out

Chicago and Northwestern train No. 1017, which was stuck here for the night on account of washouts on both sides, a bridge and 400 feet of track being reported washed out north of here.

Damage to crops and homes and loss of livestock will amount high into the thousands of dollars, it is believed. Hundreds of head of livestock were lost by farmers living near the banks of the Ponca. Phil Bault, farmer at near here, lost between 200 and 300 head of hogs and several head of cattle and many other farmers are believed to have suffered heavy damage.

Several highway bridges in this vicinity are out and it is believed that many tourists are stranded. Several abandoned cars can be seen on the highways where they were left by their occupants when the water rose.

Seven or eight carloads of Lynch people, who comprised a picnic party held on the banks of the Niobrara river, were temporarily marooned north of here when the wagon bridge went out and left them stranded. They abandoned their cars on the north side of the stream and walked over the railroad bridge to town.

This morning the sun was shining brightly and the water slowly receding into the banks of the Ponca. Much work was getting underway to make the flooded homes habitable.

Bristow, Neb., June 18.—Following a four-inch rain here yesterday afternoon between 5 and 6 o'clock Ponca creek went out of its banks flooding the streets of Bristow and homes in the south part of town, several families having moved out.

Water on the main street of Bristow was a foot deep and several cellars were flooded in the business district, while in the south part of town cellars in every home were flooded to a foot deep.

Heavy damage was done to crops adjoining the creek.

The Hard Coal Situation 1923

It is not only possible but quite probable that there will be a strike called by the miners in the hard coal fields of Pennsylvania on September 1, 1923.

In any event, it is the belief of almost every miner, operator, dealer and consumer of hard coal in the east that there will be a strike.

During the winter of 1922-23 just past many consumers of hard coal in the east had great trouble getting coal and inasmuch as they have stoves, furnaces and other heating equipment suitable only for burning hard coal they are not going to take chances this year.

Right now the demand for hard coal in the east far exceeds the capacity of all mines to supply prior to September 1. 90 per cent of all the hard coal produced is consumed in the east. The eastern consumers are trying to get 90 per cent of all the anthracite that is normally produced in twelve months in the next four months.

Nearly all factories in the east are now running full time, many of them two and three shifts. This condition not only consumes coal, but requires the available car supply.

Normally it takes from three to five weeks to deliver hard coal from the mines to Missouri river points. After considering the situation as it exists today do you think you can afford to wait?

Buy your hard coal now and have it delivered to you while you can get it.

Red Star Detroit Vapor Oil Stove

We Have the Size to Meet the Needs of Every Kitchen

The above illustration shows the six-burner range which we would like to demonstrate to any one contemplating purchase of a new stove. Over is equipped with two burners. Four-burner cooking top—elevated glass door—sanitary base—white porcelain splashes and drip pan.

The Red Star is an oil-burning stove which can be relied upon for all kinds of cooking. It matters not whether you are toasting bread, roasting fowl or baking pastry; this wonderful stove will do the job to a turn and do it with far less attention than a coal or wood stove, for the burners may be set to maintain an even, low heat or regulated to produce a brilliant intense heat.

FORCED TO QUIT, STATES SWANSON

Became So Run Down Work Was Impossible—Restored Him, He States.

"A pain of fifteen pounds and a return to healthy strength and working efficiency," is what B. F. Swanson, 1721 P. St., Lincoln, Neb., says Tanlac has meant to him. "Before getting Tanlac I was so rundown I had to quit work. I was working on a farm at the time and it even tired me out to walk across the field. I was nervous and shaky like one with the palsy, and my digestion was so upset that even good country beef and fresh vegetables made me miserable. I slept poorly, ached all over, and could hardly drag around."

"Well, Tanlac has ended all my troubles and made me eat, sleep and feel fine. It seems like years, but have been taken from my age and I feel like a brand new man. I keep Tanlac on hand and take it occasionally just to keep me feeling fit. It's in a class by itself."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

for the transportation of crude oil was the achievement of Independent Oil Men. These men of vision built a pipe line in the face of opposition and expert advisers who contended that crude oil could not be pumped for any distance through a pipe line without being converted into an uncontrollable vapor. Results demonstrated their wisdom and justified their courage.

Multipled millions of dollars are now invested in pipe lines. All oil fields are a network of gathering lines and crude oil arterial highways—but the vision, the initiative, the courage to prove the pipe line idea sound and feasible was supplied by the Independent Oil Man.

As truly Independent Oil men we have organized a great national association known as the Independent Oil Men of America, for the purpose of telling to you (the great consuming public) the true story of Independence in the oil industry.

When you think of Service—Progress—Quality—and sincere personal appreciation for your patronage go to the Independent Oil man.
