Dixon County's Tenth Annual Fair Will be Held August 28, 29, 30 and 31 CONCORD, NEBRASKA

Our cattle and hog departments promise to far surpass any previous year and the management, upon request of exhibitors, are now engaged in enlarging the facilities and room for taking care of these two departments by about fifty per cent.

Our art and agricultural hall is full to overflowing. Good, clean entertainment and amusement of every description will be found on the grounds during the three days' program, including: Baseball games between the best teams in northeast Nebraska.

One game each day. Fast horse races. Every stall in our race barns has already been reserved with more request being received every day.

Free attractions—the best obtainable.

Horseshoe pitching—the game that is fast becoming a national pastime. The Grand Starch Parade, which will be something different this year, will be held the first thing on the program on Friday, August 31. Don't fail to see it if you love the thoroughbreds.

One of the best stock show companies on the road will furnish good, wholesome entertainment for both young and old each night during fair week.

Very exceptionally good bands will furnish plenty music. Space will not permit us to tell you any more about it. Come and see if we make our assertions good.

Write the president or secretary for information, Concord, Neb.

shine through us into these darkened and ignorant hearts. It is an impossible task to change these hearts but with God all things are possible.

This letter is full of awful things as I might as well tell you another thing. One man happened to see some very doors almost. Several weeks ago when a body of defeated soldiers were expected in Hope the people were panic stricken and streams of men into the compound bringing their possessions to us for safe keeping.

I have received letters from some of you—from the pastor, Mrs. Rhoades, and two from Mrs. Pritchard—and though I may not be able to answer personally, at least not right away, you can be very sure that I am most happy to receive letters from any or all of you.

additional parties in said action, the said John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company, Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company and Edwin W. Davis co-defendants. That the object and prayer of said cross petition, so filed by said First Trust Company of Omaha, Omaha, Nebraska, is to foreclose a certain $20,000.00 mortgage executed and dated the 1st day of September, 1921, by John Davis and Ann May Davis, husband and wife to Stephen Davis, co-defendant herein, and the interest on the indebtedness secured by said mortgage which said mortgage and the indebtedness secured thereby was duly endorsed and assigned by said Stephen Davis, co-defendant herein, to First Trust Company of Omaha, Omaha, Nebraska, co-defendant and cross petitioner herein, that said First Trust Company of Omaha, Omaha, Nebraska, is now the owner and holder of said mortgage and the indebtedness secured thereby. Said mortgage is upon the following described real estate, situated in county of Wayne and State of Nebraska, to-wit: The east half of the northeast quarter and the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section eight (8), and the west half of the northwest quarter of section nine (9), all in township twenty-six (26), north, range two (2), east of the 6th P. M., which said mortgage above described was duly filed for record in the office of the county clerk of Wayne county, Nebraska, on the 10th day of September, 1921, and which said mortgage is upon the premises described on pages 309 and 310 of Book 43 of Mortgage Records of said county, Nebraska. That the assignment of said mortgage and the debt secured thereby from the said Stephen Davis, co-defendant herein, to First Trust Company of Omaha, Omaha, Nebraska, cross petitioner herein, and co-defendant was on the 16th day of September, 1921, duly filed for record in the office of the county clerk of Wayne county, Nebraska, and was then and there recorded on pages 310 and 311 of Book 43 of Mortgage Records of said county. The First Trust Company of Omaha, Omaha, Nebraska, defendants and cross petitioner, alleges that there is due to it, on said notes, and the indebtedness which the mortgage was given to secure, the sum of $20,000.00, represented by two promissory notes, in the amount of $10,000.00 each, together with the interest on $10,000.00 at 5 1/2 per cent from March 1, 1920, interest due and payable annually as provided in the promissory notes for said amount, and the interest on $10,000.00 represented by note at 6 per cent from March 1, 1920, interest due and payable annually as provided in said note. And that said notes and the interest thereon as provided in said notes, remains wholly unpaid and is now due.

By virtue of an order of sale, to be directed, issued by the clerk of the District Court of Wayne County, Nebraska, upon a decree rendered therein at the November term thereof, in an action pending in said court wherein James Anderson was plaintiff and William Kallstrom and Columbia Kallstrom were defendants, I will, on the 17th day of September, 1923, at 10 o'clock a. m. at the door of the office of the County Clerk of said Court, in the court house in Wayne, in said county, sell to the highest bidder for cash, the following described real estate, to-wit: Lot (10) in Block Eight (8) in Bressler and Patterson's first addition to Winslow, East of the 6th P. M., Wayne County, Nebraska, to satisfy the aforesaid decree, the amount due thereon being $1358.23 with interest at 10 per cent from November 8th, 1922, and costs and accruing costs $19.60. Dated at Wayne, Nebraska this 23rd day of August, 1923. 4916 O. C. Lewis, Sheriff.

Culled From Herald's Exchanges For Week

Among the members of the faculty for the Omaha schools for the coming year are: Prof. and Mrs. R. A. Dawson, the former, superintendent and the latter in charge of the second grade; Miss Marian Bertrand and Miss Erna Anderson. The latter two were graduated from the Wayne State Teachers college last year.

There was a large attendance at the second annual Tri-County tennis tournament held at Bloomfield Monday and Tuesday of last week. There were almost forty entries in the tournament. At a business meeting it was voted to hold the tournament at Pierce next year.

Dr. C. E. Peters and Wm. E. Egan, of Randolph had a narrow escape last week while on their way to attend the tournament at Bloomfield when the coupe in which they were riding turned over. They were going down a steep hill when the accident occurred. Neither of the men was seriously hurt. The car was badly damaged.

A farm belonging to Erank Theil near Pierce was recently sold for $237.50 an acre. There are eighty acres in the farm.

Hugo Carlson, a farmer living near St. Edwards, was struck by lightning Saturday evening, August 17, and died following a long illness. He did not recover consciousness.

Bert West and Robert Dyer, two Albion boys, appeared at the Rex theatre at that place in a number of acrobatic and gymnastic acts. Miss Myrtle Dean of Atlantic, Ia., formerly of Pierce, Nebr., plans to leave soon for Turkey where she will be associated with the American Red Cross.

A farm near Plainview consisting of 484 acres was sold at public auction Tuesday of last week at $79 per acre.

Livestock breeders of Madison made a tour of the county yesterday to interest people in their work.

The Madison Kiwanis club which had discontinued its meetings during the summer resumed them again Monday.

On Tuesday of last week a car came to Madison bearing a large sign on each side which said "I am looking for Sidney Leroy Whitaker. Any information will be gratefully received." The mother of the lost boy and a brother were in the car. They were on their way to Lincoln where they had been that a young man by the name of Whitaker was living. The woman was selling post cards of the car and herself to pay expenses.

Tony Betz of St. Helena, was instantly killed Thursday afternoon, August 9, when the car in which he was riding turned over several times throwing him to the ground with terrific force. Lester Saxe, who was in a car directly behind Mr. Betz witnessed the accident. He could see no reason for the car turning over as the driver was not speeding.

Band Gives Concert At Norfolk Monday

The concert which the Wakefield band gave in Norfolk Monday evening under the auspices of the Elks lodge, attracted the largest crowd Central park had ever seen. Thirty-five members of the band and Conductor Esklund accompanied by other Wakefield people made the trip. In regard to the success of the concert the Norfolk News reports that the music produced by the band was unsurpassed by any band that had previously played in that city.

The band members were entertained at dinner at the Merchants cafe. The mayor of the city extended welcome to the guests, and Rev. P. M. Orr, formerly of Wakefield, gave a short address.

Peter Lundahl Dies In Omaha Saturday

Peter Lundahl, who had been a resident of Wayne county for thirty-two years, passed away on Saturday, August 18, at the Clarkson hospital in Omaha. He had undergone an operation two weeks earlier and there had seemed to be no doubt of his ultimate recovery, so that a relapse was most unexpected and his death came as a shock to his family and friends. The remains were brought to Wakefield Sunday. Funeral services were held both at the home, igo and one-half miles southwest of Wakefield and at the Salem Lutheran church, on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. P. Pearson of Concord was in charge. Internment was made in the Wakefield cemetery.

Peter Lundahl was born in Sweden and at the time of his death was aged, 62 years, 11 months and 2 days. He came to this country in 1882, first locating at Stanton, Ia., later removing to Red Oak, and then coming to Wakefield in 1891. He is survived by his widow, two children, Ernest and Ellen, two brothers, Andrew and Swan, of the Wakefield vicinity and one sister, Mrs. Mary Lindell, of Omaha. The deceased did much for the early development of this county and his passing is regretted by many friends, who extend sympathy to his family.

Church Kensington.

The Kensington of the Wakefield church was held last Thursday with Mrs. Dawes as hostess. There were fifty ladies present. The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Anna Snyder of Harrisburg, Pa., Mrs. Laura Dodd of Mexico, Miss. Miss June Smith of Tokamah, Neb., Mrs. L. A. Lansing, Mrs. Gertrude Sonner and daughter, Miss Donna, of Wayne. Miss Sonner gave two enjoyable readings. Punch was served to the ladies.

For Mrs. Tyner.

Mrs. Charles Tyner, who with her husband is to move to St. Louis, has had many parties given in her honor the past week. The first of these was given at the Howard Cranmer home Friday evening by Miss Mable Holmgren, Miss Georgia Bowers and Miss Myrtle Carlson. Fancy work and cards furnished entertainment. Refreshments were served to the fifteen guests by the hostesses. Mrs. W. S. Ebersole entertained for Mrs. Tyner Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Tyner held a picnic supper at the park Sunday evening in their honor. Monday evening the "Jobby Guild" gathered at the home of Mrs. Joe Johnson for a 7 o'clock dinner, followed by cards. Mrs. R. H. Mathewson entertained the Phillips home on Tuesday. The Wakefield Sunday school on Tuesday evening was a farewell for Mrs. Tyner.
