Ensign Young Tells About New Zealand

A letter written August 25 by the Ensign, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Young, who is with the Episcopal evangelistic party in New Zealand, will be of interest to Wayne people. It is in part as follows:

"We arrived in Auckland, N. Z., a week ago yesterday, after a four-day trip on the South Pacific sea. Now we are in Maori land. That is the name applied to the natives here. The people are very dark brown and some black. They are not at all like the Aborigines of Australia. The Maories are a very intellectual race with a language of their own. Most of them have become civilized as the whites and many are more so.

"In New Zealand we have four missions, Wellington, Dunedin and Christ Church. We spent almost a week at Rotorua, N. Z., and saw geysers, lakes, boiling streams, and pools and snowcapped mountains. The scenery is wonderful. The country is much like Switzerland but there is here the added interest of the Maories.

"In Australia the native blacks are rapidly becoming extinct, but here the natives are many and they are civilized and well dressed in European garb. In Australia the natives are uncivilized and they have retreated in tribes into very hot portions of the country where whites can scarcely exist. At Rotorua, which is much like the Yellowstone National park in America, our minister, who was our guide asked a group of twenty native children to sing for us. They sang in beautiful melody. The religion was a worship of wooden gods made by themselves, before the white men came. Another custom which interested me was that of using the boiling pools in Rotorua for cooking. These pools are close together and are about a yard in diameter. Natives have no stoves but use these pools instead. Potatoes, eggs and other foods are tied in bags and cooked in the pools. Many dwellings have no fires or fireplaces. The climate is warm, sometimes reaching as low as forty degrees in the winter.

"It takes fourteen days for a steamer to travel from here to San Francisco."

LaPorte To Have New Court House

Bonds Are Voted in 1874 for the Erection of Structure at Cost of $30,000.

The Wayne county commissioners, at a meeting January 19, 1874, at LaPorte, voted to pay Solon Bevin's sum of $75 for the block known as the "public square" in the plan of the town of LaPorte. On motion of I. O. Richardson the officers voted to submit to the legal voters of Wayne county the following proposition:

"Shall the county of Wayne issue its coupon bonds to the amount of $30,000, bearing interest at the rate of ten percent per annum, payable semi-annually at the city of Newman, Ark., $1,500 thereof being payable annually on the first of May, 1874, and $1,500 thereof being payable each year thereafter until the whole amount shall become due for the purpose of borrowing money to build a court house and jail at the county seat of said Wayne county, and a tax be levied annually upon the whole of said bonds, and an additional amount shall be levied and collected for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds as the same shall become due. Said bonds to be issued and dated on the first day of May, A. D. 1874."

It was further resolved by the commissioners that the election should be held on February 24, 1874, and the majority of votes cast was to determine the question. The vote resulted in twenty for the issue of bonds and twenty against the proposition. George Rutledge and W. E. Agler, together with county clerk C. E. Fly-fox, canvassed the vote. The board declared the bond issue carried for the majority of votes favored it.

The county voted to employ an attorney for the year and secured the services of F. M. Clark of Wisner at a salary of $100 annually.

It was decided by the commissioners that the material for the new court house should be brick and that the structure should be at least forty feet wide and fifty feet high. It was voted that the county advertise for bids on the new court house in the West Point Republican, Dakota City.

The plans and bids on the work were to be in April, 1874. On April 9 the commissioners Charles Erbeben, I. O. Richardson and Joseph Beckenhauer, and clerk G. E. Hunter, met to examine the plans and bids. H. O. Ball of Sioux City, Fred L. Clark of Covington, O., J. King of Corning, Iowa, H. C. Farup of Ottawa, Ill., and M. J. McBrid of Omaha, submitted bids. None of these were agreed upon and the commissioners voted to wait until April 10, 1874. The plan of H. O. Ball, as far as the elevation of the building is arranged, was favored by the officers.

The next date set for receiving plans and bids on the court house was May 16. Proposals were submitted by O. J. King, F. L. Clarke, L. Ash, Joseph Leach, John P. Wall, James A. Sawyers, A. B. Fuller, Simon Leewick, A. A. Burnham, W. H. Rose and Charles Mathewson, Moses Hermer, F. E. Krause, Solon Bevin, G. C. Franzer and James McKenna. The bids ranged from $7,993 to $12,500.

The contract was let to M. J. McBrid as his bid was the lowest. Mr. Wall was to give a bond of $15,000 before May 22. He and other bidders who did not have their bonds ready or withdrew bids so the contract was let to Sawyer & Leach for $10,200. The bid was let May 15, 1874, for the new court house in LaPorte.

ily of near Wayne, visited in the Fred Forbering home in Winer.

The following residents of Hoskins have petitioned for naturalization: Chris Eckmann, Magnus Eckmann, Hans Fustich, Otto Krueger, Henry Langlohn, Gustaf Knies, Karl Metzlich, William Schriber.
 The John Lane company of New York and London will publish a volume of fiction, "The Lonesome Trail," by John G. Neihart, this fall. Another volume, "A Handle of Myrrh," will be published in the spring.

Officers of the new order of Eagles are elected as follows: Thomas Wheeler, past president; F. L. Strahan, president; D. E. Miller, vice president; Wilson Rickabaugh, secretary; J. R. and many visitors participated in the event. After the Masonic ceremonies, Dr. E. C. Horn, pastor of the Wayne Methodist church, delivered an address. A. A. From Ponca Journal Oct. 31, 1889:
 The jail is now more densely populated than it has been before for some time. It has five members, all of them charged with grand larceny, and who can hardly fail to go to the penitentiary as soon as the district court gets a grip on them.

The Sioux City and Ogden Short Line road continues to remain blockaded at Covington and unable to cross the bridge. How long this condition of affairs will continue, no one can tell. In the meantime winter is coming on, and in a few days more cold weather will close up work until spring. The Short Line has been a pursuit of happiness under difficulties. Alas and lack, the bull butter railroad boom has busted. The twenty kegs of oleomargarine shipped to Kilpatrick Brothers, Newcastle, Neb., were wrongly shipped. It should have been Newcastle, Wyoming, instead of Newcastle, Neb. Thus we come down from the exalted pinnacle where imagination had placed us, and again resume our usual monotonous hash. No bull butter, no railroad. Texas ever thus from childhood's hour, we've seen our fondest hopes decay, and thus the how inspiring butter, has to Wyoming passed away. Twenty kegs of oleomargarine have been shipped to the firm of Kilpatrick Brothers, Newcastle, Wyoming, to be used to grease the panicles and corn Rodgers of the aesthetic gentlemen who are shoveling dirt on the railroad at that place. Little will those gentlemen imagine us, during the coming winter they sop their dodgers in the bull butter, that they are sopping up the cause and foundation of a great railroad boom.

Wayne Collegians Are Given Praise

Hartington Herald: The dance at the Bow Valley hall on Thursday evening, which was announced in the Herald last week, was one of the best held in that popular place of entertainment. In many years, people coming from Hartington, Randolph, Crofton, Wynot and all the neighboring towns, and everybody reports a delightful evening.

The Collegians Orchestra from Wayne furnished the music and established a splendid reputation in this community. The management of the dance was delighted not only with the music, but also with the personnel of the orchestra. This organization, which is composed mostly of college people, plays more classical than jazz music and those who dance say that their time is perfect and their music excellent. This orchestra will play again at a dance in the Bow Valley hall in a few weeks. Luncheon was served at midnight and the dance was a success in every way. It will be of interest to Herald readers to learn that two of the members of the popular orchestra are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Korr, and were born and spent their early boyhood in Cedar county.

Wonderful Farm Machinery

Famous McCormick Deering Lines

We have McCormick-Deering machines in stock and will have them on exhibition at the Wayne county fair next week. See these machines at the fair and note the distinct advantages they offer.

Four-Cylinder Power Plant

The Standard in Harvester Design.

All McCormick-Deering tractors—10-20, 15-30 and Farmall—have the modern power plant, a fully enclosed, heavy-duty 4-cylinder engine proved by our many years of power development to be the most practical power plant for the tractor. We began a quarter-century ago with a 1-cylinder design, progressed to the 2-cylinder type, and entered the 2-cylinder period just as the automobile has done. Our 4-cylinder tractors give the farmer liberal power, steady and wonderfully flexible, easy operation not to be obtained by other types. Vibration and surplus weight are reduced to the minimum, parts are properly balanced, all wearing parts are replaceable, and long life is assured the tractor. The performance of the many thousands of 4-cylinder McCormick-Deering in every part of the country is convincing evidence of correct design.

Great Labor-Saving Farmall

CULTIVATING CORN. The farmall cultivates two rows at a time. One man can cultivate 15 to 20 acres a day, which is doing the work of two to three men and four to six horses. The Farmall has ample power to pull two additional two-row cultivators. Where this equipment is available, six rows can be cultivated at a time.

PLOWING. Under average soil conditions the Farmall will plow 7 to 10 acres a day. This is equivalent to the work of three men and nine horses.

HARVESTING CORN. The Farmall furnishes steady, uniform power for pulling the corn-binder or corn picker. In doing this work it saves both time and labor. A man and a boy can pick three or four times as much corn with this outfit as they can by hand.

Sandwick Galvanized Alloy Steel Portable Elevator

Ordinary black steel is unsatisfactory for elevators. We use the best open hearth steel to which is added COPPER. This COPPER-ALLOY Steel fights rust and corrosion. We further treat it with heavy GALVANIZING insuring much longer life than ever before attained by steel elevators.

Corn Pickers

Do you look forward to corn husking time with a mind free from worry or are you wondering how the crop will be picked promptly and without loss? The owner of a McCormick-Deering corn picker can go about his daily task or retire at night carefree, for he knows that no matter how big the crop or how scarce labor may be, he can handle his corn crop easily with his own help.

Shell Before You Sell

When you own a McCormick-Deering sheller and shell your corn before you sell it, you can be sure of receiving payment for all the corn, and you have the cobs left to use for fuel. You can haul more bushels of shelled corn per load, and as a result, more of your crop to market in less time. The economy in this is very evident. It also pays to do your shelling for seed and feed. You can shell just when you want to, and you put the shelling profit into your own pocket. No matter what your shelling needs may be, you can find the right equipment in the McCormick-Deering line. The small McCormick-Deering shellers are ideal for shelling corn for seed and feed and will deliver the cobs in good condition for fuel. The larger shellers are well adapted to custom work as well as individual use, and will easily pay for themselves with what they save on your own crop and by shelling for neighbors.

Frequent Spreading Enriches the Soil, Feeds the Crops, Increases the Yield, Makes Land More Valuable.

A McCormick-Deering spreader saves time, lessens labor, and does the work more efficiently than is possible by hand.

Repairs

The right kind of repairs add new life to your machines. Use only genuine I. H. C. repairs for your McCormick-Deering farm operating equipment. A genuine repair part fits exactly and becomes a perfect part of the machine.

Future Needs—Talk to us about your future needs in the way of tanks, pumps, windmills, gas engines, corn planters, mowers and other machines. We will be glad to show you.

See Us For Anything You May Need In Farm Equipment. You Will Receive Prompt and Courteous Treatment.

Good Savings on NEW COATS

COATS are on sale here at much less than regular prices because our way of selling coats in thirty other towns besides Wayne enables us to sell cheaper. Come in and price the coats here and see what a good saving you can make. We have a big advantage here in the pricing of Ready to Wear and we will be glad of a chance to show you and get you to know that when you need a coat of dress you can buy it here cheaper than anywhere else.

What Is Bolivia?

Bolivia is the best looking and best wearing material ever woven for coats and its imitations are about the worst looking, poorest wearing materials on the market. Good Bolivia is of fine wool woven with a nap-like plush. The silkier Bolivias are of the finer wool yarns and keep their deep rich coloring for several seasons. Imitation bolivias are made of cheap wool and the real shiny imitations are made of mercerized cotton. Coats of these materials are lint catchers and neither hold their color nor wear to keep their shape. It will pay you to buy good wool bolivias, and we will be glad to help you select one and guarantee it for color and wear.

Dresses Fitted and Altered Without Extra Charge

Some little change is almost always necessary before a dress fits perfectly. We are anxious and willing to make these changes for our customers. It is a credit to our Ready to Wear Department to send out perfect fitting dresses, and Miss Fox is expert at this work—she having had charge of the altering department in a large department store. She knows just where and how to make the changes that are required and no matter how hard you are to fit she will please you. No extra charge is made for this work.

We will have a car load of Broadhead coal here this week, and invite people to place their orders promptly.

Broadhead

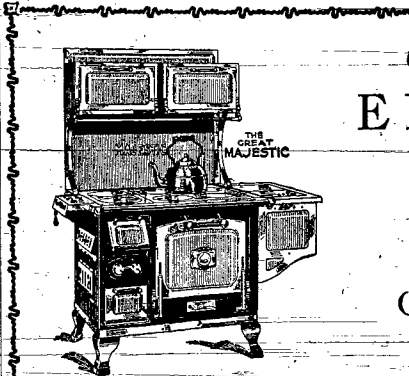

Is to the coal fields as the "Oak" is to the forest—it is the King of Coals. Highest in heat units, lowest in ash, clean in preparation, it stands first in desirability as a "fire-nace" coal. On account of the extreme purity of this coal the following suggestions might be the means of saving you money.

REMEMBER!—Keep the fire box full, a thin fire lets in too much cold air, and most of the heat goes up the chimney. Keep your fuel bed reasonably compact, and remember Broadhead is high in heat units and holds fire a long time; therefore, keep the fire under restraint. Check the draft, do not leave the damper on the furnace open. Control your fire, and thereby conserve your heat and make your coal last longer.

A steady glowing fire (not a full blaze) is the fire that gives the most heat and requires the least coal. Do Not Stir the Fire With Your Hand. Keep a good bed of ashes and shake the grate—only when absolutely necessary, as the fire burns too freely if the grate is kept too clean. Keep your smoke pipe damper closed off as much as possible at all times.

If you will adhere to these few simple rules, we are sure you will be as enthusiastic about Broadhead as we are. You will have plenty of heat and economy in your clean cellar and a small fuel bill. If you experience any difficulty, kindly phone us. Our attention does not cease until the last shovelful is burned.

He has also had a notable and successful career as a minister, having filled large and influential pulpits in the east. His bible conference work has taken him to all sections of America and has brought him into close association with world noted leaders like Dwight L. Moody, C. I. Schofield and C. H. Spurgeon. Dr. Martin is also the gifted writer of many famous hymns, some of which have been sung around the world.

Business.
(Sioux City Journal.)
The business momentum of the past summer now can be measured and appreciated. The most impressive proof of its strength is the way it is carrying forward into the new autumn season. Activity in all lines is being accelerated. There are steady improvements throughout the country. It is nothing that the good fall and good winter ahead. It will not take long now at this rate of improvement for the class 1 foods to get back to normal and make a fair return on the figure of a reasonable valuation. Perhaps that may mean, too, a chance for the shipper to observe a measure of relief in reduced freight rates. Volume is more important to the railroads than fancy rates. They can make more money by handling increased shipping than by making increased shipping. The corn crop is safe, despite frequent rains that threatened in some sections. The corn has matured nicely, but may be worry as a result of adverse weather conditions the last three or four weeks. No banner crop, nor even an average good one, but still enough production to prevent disaster in the corn belt. No one can see any possible menace to the live stock situation. Prices are bound to be good for general business. It means more shipping, more production and buying power, more demand and buying power. Greater expansion, increased employment—the creation of new and greater wealth. In a word, it means further progress.

A significant thing in connection with this feature of the business situation is that finally the railroads are promising to see change ahead. It will not take long now at this rate of improvement for the class 1 foods to get back to normal and make a fair return on the figure of a reasonable valuation. Perhaps that may mean, too, a chance for the shipper to observe a measure of relief in reduced freight rates. Volume is more important to the railroads than fancy rates. They can make more money by handling increased shipping than by making increased shipping. The corn crop is safe, despite frequent rains that threatened in some sections. The corn has matured nicely, but may be worry as a result of adverse weather conditions the last three or four weeks. No banner crop, nor even an average good one, but still enough production to prevent disaster in the corn belt. No one can see any possible menace to the live stock situation. Prices are bound to be good for general business. It means more shipping, more production and buying power, more demand and buying power. Greater expansion, increased employment—the creation of new and greater wealth. In a word, it means further progress.

This is the opinion of observers in all sections of the country, a composite outlook. It is almost automatic. No one has had to figure it out. The facts speak for themselves. Everywhere there is stronger confidence, more deliberate expansion, greater optimism. Also there is more justification of the whole trend of opinion that the business pendulum is to swing farther and faster along again. Railroad car loadings have exceeded 1,000,000 for the 16th week this year.—The week ending September 11 included Labor day, but in spite of the inactivity of the holiday, the figures showed 1,021,081 cars loaded with revenue freight. This was a decrease of more than 120,000 cars under the preceding week, but Labor day was responsible for much, or all, of the reduction.
The showing made by the railroads is excellent, not only for the lines but in view of the sure advance in corn. Corn cannot be held down to a low figure when the crop is below normal. The farmer can command the price. There is a good chance that the farm situation will be relieved somewhat through the operation of economic laws. The rest of the country can pay better prices, and it looks new as though it will have to do so. The farmer can command the situation better this year than for some time if they only will take advantage of conditions. It will depend on how the crop is dumped or held after the harvest. The market never should be flooded, and especially should this be avoided now. The farmer's best bet is to control delivery.

Following the news of last week to the effect that the atom is divisible comes a dispatch from Chicago to the effect that skirts are to be shorter and tighter this autumn.—New York World.

Some persons are beginning to fear that so much money was spent in the primaries that there's not enough left to have much fun with in the election campaign.—Charleston Mail.

There is a revival of optimism in France, if we may believe the report that a Parisian has been arrested for making counterfeit francs.—Punch.

One trouble with this world is that there are too many folks who use their horns when they see a pedestrian, instead of their brake.—American Humorist.

Methodist Church Notes. We have discovered after repairs for the old furnace were here, that a new one must be ordered, but a superior one has been placed in the church basement temporarily and we are assured of plenty of heat for all the services until the new furnace arrives and is in place. We are hoping for three new organizations on the charge for the coming year: a choir, a junior league and a men's brotherhood. In traveling about four hundred miles on our way to conference, we saw no part of the country where the crops were as good or passed through any town that looked quite as good as Winside. The leader of the young people's meeting Sunday night is Miss Cynthia Halpin and the meeting is es-

Lincoln Journal: Fifty years hence, we are assured by a radio authority, we shall be hearing our home news by radio. Through high frequency electric current structures placed on the highest city buildings we shall by that time cool the weather at least as to rainfall. An end, then, to the peril of sudden showers to spoil a world series baseball game or hurt a prize fight.

In fifty years we shall see as well as hear our favorite radio prima donna or political hero. The tens of thousands who cannot buy standing room at the big football game will be able to see it from their rocking chairs and in the comfort of their homes. It is following on the heels of radio hearing. Trans-Atlantic travel is by that time to be almost wholly by air. Our crops or rather the best thereof, will be "shipped" by radio. All our crops will be grown under glass by electric cultivation and four crops of grain a year instead of one will be gathered. Food growing will be more a manufacturing than an agricultural process.

It is easy to let the imagination range. Yet nothing proposed here for the next half century is more marvelous than the wonders developed in the last half century. "Television," the ability to see over indefinite distances, is a more reasonable expectation now than was wireless telegraphy thirty years ago. "Radio" coal from mine to mill requires no greater excess of imagination than was required fifty years ago, to see Syracuse lighted and its street cars propelled by Niagara Falls. As to the dream of an agricultural under glass the present rate of population increase, if maintained, makes that in the next century or two an absolute necessity.

England claims to have developed television to such a point that in the near future, perhaps in a few months, it will be possible to buy a television set for $100 and $200 a "looking eye" which will enable the recipient of radio sounds-to-see objects at a distance. It is described by a London correspondent as a rough looking affair with a revolving dial fitted with lenses and prisms and other appliances. The important thing is that seeing distant objects has been accomplished and not more crudely than the motion picture was effected in the corresponding stage of its development. The British are quite a bit exultant over the machine and are confident that they will have the honor of first bringing it into commercial use. Americans have been on the same track for several years and have claimed to have reached actual success for several months. The London television machine was demonstrated in a London store in April last year when the wireless transmission of outlines was publicly shown. Before the close of 1926 the transmission of images of human faces was successfully demonstrated at the Royal Institution. The British newspapers explain that the essence of the invention is a cell sensitive to light. The exact nature of this cell is the inventor's secret.

It is sad to reflect that most of the friction since the armistice of 1918 has risen over peace and disarmament programs—Kansas City Star.

What "dependable" really means

Ponder the basic elements underlying Dodge Brothers remarkable success and one simple fact stands boldly out: The Dodge Brothers Motor Car, they believe in the men who build it, and the men who sell it. That is why the word DEPENDABLE is associated with Dodge Brothers. It goes beyond the product and embraces every department in Dodge Brothers great organization.

Important Announcement LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE SERVICE CHANGES IN NEBRASKA Effective Oct. 1, 1926

Changes in Long Distance Rates For the longer distances, both to points within Nebraska and to points outside the state, substantial reductions will be made in toll rates, effective October 1. All changes for calls within the state of Nebraska and to points in Iowa, Minnesota and North and South Dakota are reductions, while there are some slight increases for shorter distances to states other than those mentioned. As examples of the reductions for longer distances, the day station-to-station rate from Omaha to North Platte will be $1.40 instead of $1.65; from Omaha to Alliance $2.25 instead of $2.50; from Omaha to St. Louis $1.85 instead of $2.15; from McCook to Lincoln $1.25 instead of $1.50; from Grand Island to Denver $1.85 instead of $2.30; from Norfolk to Crawford $1.65 instead of $2.05; from Fremont to New York $5.30 instead of $7.55.

Reversed Charges on Station to Station Calls Heretofore the reversal of charges has been available only on person-to-person calls. As a further convenience to the public, this privilege will be extended to station-to-station calls where the rate is 25 cents or more.

Longer Reduced Rate Period A new evening discount period, from 7 to 8:30 p. m. for station-to-station calls will be established. Between these hours, the discount will be approximately 75 per cent of the day station-to-station rates; from 8:30 p. m. to 4:30 a. m., the discount will be about 50 per cent of the day rates. These discounts will apply where the day station-to-station rate is 40 cents or more with a minimum reduced rate of 35 cents. These same discount periods will apply for station-to-station calls in Nebraska and to any point in the United States.

The net result of these rate changes will be a substantial saving for Nebraska telephone users. The service changes are made in the interests of public convenience and to furnish a still better and more useful long distance service.
