

Speaker Tells About Russia

Nation Has Possibilities If Stability Follows Present Status.

Ideas Are Unique

Hope Lies in Power of Women, Education of Peasants and Natural Resources.

Russia is a country of great possibilities and will be a nation of power in the world if it becomes stabilized...

The second experiment is the consciously and purposely planned policy of abolishing religion.

The third experiment in the country is the making of farming a government matter instead of a private one.

The speaker corrected a few often mistaken impressions of Russia. Family life, he said, under communism is not greatly different from what it has always been in Russia.

Education of the peasants, Mr. Hindus said, does much for the country also. And the unlimited natural resources are of great value.

First Offenders Fined In Court

On the plea of being first offenders, the Herald is yielding to a request to omit the names of five young men who were arrested by Marshal W. A. Stewart on Sunday night and who were the next day fined $10 and costs each in the county court for intoxication.

Equally as deserving of protection as first offenders were two other young men, one sent to jail for thirty days for intoxication and the other fined $100 and costs for transporting liquor, his car being confiscated.

Yielding to a plea of somewhat modified circumstances as reason to withhold names from court proceedings burdens a newspaper with responsibility which it should not carry and weakens its performance of public duty.

THE KNOT-HOLE No. 36 Wayne, Neb., Thursday, February 27, 1930. Vol. 4. It's a discouraging task trying to keep ordinary floors in a good looking condition. Soft wood floors were laid several years ago because hardwood was comparatively high in cost at that time. But time has changed and remedied the price difference, until today beautiful oak flooring can be laid at less cost than most soft woods. Besides, they are so much easier to take care of, look better and wear a life time. Measure your room, tell us the size and we will be glad to give you an estimate of the cost that will be accurate, no extras. Well, it won't be long now until spring and young onions come along. During March and April there are many who do not want to lay in a load of coal. That's why we have nothing but hard and soft coal put up in clean, tight, three-ply paper bags. It can be hauled in the finest "EVERYTHING TO BUILD ANYTHING WITH" Carhart Lumber Co. Wayne, Neb.

Kiwanians Hear Address Monday

Patriotic Program is Presented by Prof. J. G. W. Lewis and Club Singers. In keeping with the birthday anniversaries of Lincoln and Washington, Kiwanians enjoyed a patriotic program Monday following their regular monthly luncheon at Hotel Stratton. Prof. J. G. W. Lewis spoke on the life of George Washington, pointing out his traits of character as new biographers have found them. Prof. Lewis compared Washington and Lincoln, stating that the estate of the former and his wife was probably the largest in the early colonies while the estate of Lincoln was meager. He showed that Washington had a violent temper and other impulses which he had to control. Present biographers picture Washington as more human than previous ones. Such findings should sharpen one's appreciation of his fine characteristics. The Kiwanis octette and the college male quartet sang patriotic selections. The Kiwanis president, district trustee and inter-club relations committee are planning to sponsor organization of clubs in some nearby towns soon.

About Nebraska and Nebraskans
Will M. Maupin.
It may have been noticed that this writer has made something of a specialty of chronicling golden wedding anniversaries. But Harry Braher, historian of the Nebraska Press Association, has completed an almost accurate check-up of wedding anniversaries of 50 years and more for 1929. His report is interesting. During last year there were 516 wedding anniversaries celebrated in the golden, and beyond, December months to have been the favorite marriage month in the good old days, for there were 75 old-time weddings celebrated in that month. The oldest married couple celebrated their 69th anniversary. Solomon Ricker of Columbus celebrated his 109th birthday on Feb. 18. He spent the day at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Corbett, who is 68 years old. A grandson aged 40 was present, together with several great-grandchildren. Mr. Ricker admits using tobacco for something like 90 years, but says he never indulged in intoxicants. He was born in Pennsylvania, coming to Nebraska when he was 51. At the age of 58 he homesteaded in Keya Paha county. He was too old to serve in the Civil War. There may be older printers in Nebraska than W. E. Pollock of Ewing, but it is doubtful if there is one who has worked at the same trade as long. He began as an apprentice in the office of the Hollidaysburg, Pa., Register, 65 years ago, and has been working at the trade ever since. He celebrated the 65th anniversary of his apprenticeship by pegging away in the office of the Ewing Advocate. William Conrad, with 27 years of service, and Dayton Austin with 19 years of service, are rural mail carriers out of Ponca. In their combined 46 years of service they have traveled a total of more than $25,000 miles. That's nearly 16 times the distance around this whirling old globe at its greatest girth. Gov. Weaver's call for a special session of the legislature to consider the banking situation will recall a bit of banking history. The first banking act enacted in Nebraska was passed by the first session of the Territorial legislature in 1855. The year 1854 saw the flood tide of bank note inflation in the United States, and the panic of 1857 put an end to banks issuing their own currency. The first legislature saw a strong anti-bank element. So strong was the sentiment against banks that it was necessary to secure authority to establish banks by a species of camouflage. Instead of chartering banks the legislature chartered the "Franklin Insurance Co.," authorizing it to do a general insurance business "and such other acts of things as may be prescribed by the company's by-laws." But the company did not engage in banking. The "Western Exchange Fire and Marine Insurance Co." was next chartered and authorized to receive deposits and issue certificates therefor. The Gov. on the same farm near Edison for 56 years. The farm was homesteaded by her parents, and the patent from the government bears the signature of Grover Cleveland. W. D. Leach, 85, said to be the oldest Mason in Nebraska at the time of his death, died at Bayard on Feb. 14. He was a veteran of the Civil War. Three hundred and eighty-eight farmers sat down to dinner together in Hastings on Monday of last week, guests of the Hastings Chamber of Commerce. The total number at the tables was 610. Feb. 15 was a memorable anniversary, not only in Nebraska but throughout the nation. It was the 32d anniversary of the destruction of the battleship "Maine" in the harbor of Havana, Cuba. It resulted in the Spanish-American war, to which Nebraska contributed three regiments, one, the First Nebraska Infantry, serving in the Philippines. As a result of that war Cuba was freed of Spanish rule, the Philippines, a Spanish possession, was acquired by the United States, together with the island of Guam, and Theodore Roosevelt became governor of New York, then vice president and later president. As president he brought about the construction of the Panama canal, which upset the transportation schedules of the country. A long train of incidents resulted from that war. Roosevelt was lieutenant colonel of the "Rough Riders" regiment, commanded by Colonel Leonard B. Wood. As president Roosevelt promoted Col. Wood to major general, and it became General Wood's duty to locate the training camps when the United States entered the World War. Albert El Fall was captain of a New Mexico company in the "Rough Riders." He later became a congressman from New Mexico, then senator, and lastly secretary of the interior in the Harding cabinet. The rest of it is too recent to need relating here. The first session of the Nebraska legislature was a special session. It had been elected in the fall of 1866, and was convened by Governor Saunders Feb. 20, 1876. Gov. ## FAMOUS INDIAN BATTLE FIELDS TO BE MADE PARK

WHEN the Nebraska legislature appropriates $75,000 to aid in the purchase of a monument to mark the site of the famous Indian battle near Trenton, there will become available another $75,000 already appropriated by congress, then the selection and construction of the monument proceed.

The American Legion post at Trenton has launched a campaign to raise $9,000 which to buy the 128 acres comprising the tract on which the famous engagement was fought. If their project succeeds the tract will be a memorial park.

In July, 1873, about 600 Pawnee buffalo hunters and warriors, with some Indian and children, started on a hunting trip up the Frenchman river with Sky Chief in command. Word was brought in by hunters that a large war party of Brule Sioux had crossed the Platte and were then in the Republican valley, evidently looking for an opportunity to battle with their hereditary foe, the Pawnees.

On the morning of August 6, 1873, the two forces met in what is now known as Messa-cre Canyon. The Pawnees were greatly outnumbered, but bravely endeavored to protect their women and children. A white agent with the Pawnees who escaped molestation gave the number of the Sioux at 1,200 to 1,500 warriors. The Pawnees made a valiant retreat and after losing most of their young warriors were driven out of the canyon and were preparing for a last stand on the prairies, when the shot and bugles was heard and the army of U. S. cavalry. The soldiers hastily gathered the spoils of war and driving before them the 300 or 600 ponies of the Pawnees, hurried off before the arrival of the cavalry.

This was the last major Indian battle. The Pawnees lost 146 who were buried in the field and the Sioux loss was estimated at 50 or 60 warriors.

Lincoln, Neb.—Argument on the dispute of the 10 children of Nicholas and Ida Wecker, Pierce county, were heard by the supreme court. Hugo, Oswald, Gus and Nicholas Wecker are suing Anna, Selma, Clara, Ida, Lena and Oscar. Wecker, sr., died 14 years ago. In his will, Oswald was left $20 acres of land. Hugo, Gus and Nicholas had been given a farm each. The will provided that at his wife's death, the other six children were to get the personal property, which amounted to $19,000. When Mrs. Wecker died, however, the personal property had increased in value to $30,000. The question now is do all 10 heirs share in the $30,000 or only the six not provided for at the father's death. The district court found to divide the estate were entitled to divide the original $19,000 that all 10 should share in retaining $11,000. Both sides appealed. The defendants claim that they should divide the $30,000. The or would divide the $30,000. The or your claim that all share.

THE PURCHASE of an automobile involves a considerable amount of money and it should be carefully considered from all angles before a final decision is made.

The value of the car to you depends on the value built into it at the factory, how much extra you pay the dealer for distribution, selling, financing and accessories and what it will cost to operate and maintain the car after purchase. Each of these factors, as it relates to the Ford car, is frankly explained below.

Economy in production

THE FORD CAR is made economically because of the efficiency of Ford production methods. The money saved through this efficiency is put back into the car in improved quality of material and in greater care and accuracy in manufacturing. The constant effort is to eliminate waste and find ways to make each part better and better without increasing cost—frequently at lowered cost.

Because of Ford economies in large production and because the Ford organization operates on a low-profit margin, the price you pay for the car is much less than it would be under any other conditions. Yet it brings you many unusual features of construction and performance.

At least $75 extra value is represented alone by the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield, the Rustless Steel, the four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers, and the five steel-spoke wheels. The unusually large number of ball and roller bearings and the extensive use of fine steel forgings instead of castings or stampings are additional features that reflect the high quality built into every part of the car. Throughout, it is a value far above the price you pay.

Low dealer charges

THE SAME PRINCIPLES of efficiency and economy that characterize the manufacture of the Ford car are applied also to distribution. Obviously it would do the public little good to save in production if these savings were sacrificed later in excessive costs of selling, financing and accessories.

The Ford dealer, therefore, operates on the same low-profit margin as the Ford Motor Company, his discount or commission being the lowest of any automobile dealer. He does a good business because he makes a small profit on many sales instead of a large profit on fewer sales.

NOTE THESE LOW PRICES

Roadster	•••	$435
Phaeton	•••	$440
Coupe	•••	$500
Two-window Fordor Sedan	•••	$600
Three-window Fordor Sedan	•••	$625
Convertible Cabriolet	•••••	$645
Town Sedan	•••••	$670
(All prices f. o. b. Detroit)

The lower cost of selling, combined with the low charges for financing and accessories, means a direct saving of at least $50 to $75 to every purchaser of a Ford, in addition to the savings made possible by economies in manufacturing. The money you pay for a Ford goes into value in the car. It is not wasted in high dealer charges.

Low up-keep costs

IT IS IMPORTANT to remember that the cost of your automobile is not the first cost only, but the total cost after months and years of service. Here again there is a decided saving when you buy a Ford.

The cost of operation and up-keep is lower because of simplicity of design, the high quality of material, and the reduction of friction and wear through unusual accuracy in manufacturing and assembling. The reliability and longer life of the car contribute to its low depreciation per year of use.

The intelligent, painstaking service rendered by Ford dealers is under close factory supervision and is a factor in the low up-keep cost of the Ford. All labor is billed at a flat rate and replacement parts are always available at low prices through Ford dealers in every section of the United States.

In two, three or five years, depending on how much you drive, the saving in operating and maintaining a new Ford will amount to even more than the saving on the first cost of the car.

ERIC A. ANDERSON
"I felt myself slipping physically for five years. It was an everlasting problem with me to eat and digest my food to keep up my strength to carry on with my job, and I got mighty weak and rundown. I knew I had a different medicine from any I had ever taken almost as soon as I began Sargon, and by the time I had taken three bottles I felt like a new man. I am eating more than I ever ate before, without a trace of indigestion, my strength is returning every day, I rest well and get up mornings feeling stronger and better than I have felt in years. Sargon Pills put my liver in fine condition."—Eric A. Anderson, 1014 Miller St., Omaha, C. E. & Q. Railway employe.

McCORMICK-DEERING FARM EQUIPMENT

McCormick-Deering Farmall

"Good Equipment Makes a Good Farmer Better"

Speed Up Cultivating —this New Horseless Way

The McCormick-Deering FARMALL and 4-Row Farmall Cultivator in first cultivation cleans 35 to 50 acres a day—without horses. Cultivating without horses? Sure! Not only without horses—but with twice as much speed. How? With a McCormick-Deering Farmall and Farmall Cultivator! Here is an easily handled, one-man power cultivator that more than doubles your cultivating effectiveness. It is a winning combination of good tractor and good cultivator that knows no equal in speed, efficiency or performance. With it you can finish clean, 35 to 50 acres of first cultivation in a day—and you'll like the ease with which you did it. Later, you can drone along at the rate of 50 to 60 acres a day in succeeding cultivations.

Motorized All-Crop Farming

The McCormick-Deering Farmall has set a new standard of tractor efficiency. It is truly an all-purpose, all-year tractor, ideally suited to the corn and hay farmer's needs. As the name implies, the Farmall handles all the usual farm jobs with complete success—drawbar, belt, and power take-off, and in addition plants and cultivates corn and other row crops, and helps gather the hay crop.

McCormick-Deering Spreader

Come in and see this new McCormick-Deering Spreader. See the new pulverizing and spreading mechanism; the efficient widespread spiral; the positive chain drive; the patented feeding mechanism; the roller bearings; the low, reinforced, wedge-shaped, easy-loading box; the conveniently located levers; the forward swinging seat; narrow width; and heavy-duty wheels. It has six conveyor speeds, Alemite lubrication, cold-drawn, Brighton steel rear axle, tracking front and rear wheels, short-turning radius, protected working parts, and a big 57 1/2 to 67 1/2-bushel capacity.

The new McCormick-Deering is easy to load, easy to operate, spreads evenly, pulverizes thoroughly, is light draft, and because of its all-around excellence, does the work faster and better. It is so good that it deserves your immediate inspection.

McCormick-Deering Little Wonder

The No. 2 Little Wonder combines every feature essential to good two-furrow plowing. Light weight. Light draft. Rigid. Flexible hitch. Positive power-lift, good trash clearance, and patented 2-lever adjustment that instantly regulates depth and level.

McCormick-Deering Farmall and Farmall Planter

Farmers in thousands of communities are rapidly getting acquainted with the unusual possibilities of the McCormick-Deering Farmall and Farmall Planter. Here is an easily controlled machine that more than doubles your effectiveness at planting time. It is a winning combination of good tractor and good planter that knows no equal in speed, efficiency or performance.

Belt Work and the Farmall

The Farmall does unusually satisfactory work on the belt because the speed of the powerful engine is kept practically uniform by the built-in factory-sealed throttle governor, even though the load may vary. It has plenty of power to operate at full capacity the 20-in. thresher, also the silo filler, husker and shredder, feed grinder, etc., of proportionate size.

A NEW Dress! Coat! Hat! Shoes!

Choose Them Here at SAVINGS!

It promises to be a very interesting season—the new styles are here to stay a while—adapted of course to our needs and modified, so that every figure can find a style suitable. Once you start, we know that you will be as enthusiastic as we are.

Beautiful Styles Flat Crepes Prints

Unheard of Values Georgettes Lace

Truly, this spring's creations are exquisite—how the designer and manufacturer have been able to produce such artistry in these inexpensive dresses is still a mystery. Early it was predicted that price ranges of dresses would be raised, but in spite of more material and notwithstanding the increase in making, we still are able to offer clever versions of the new modes at these surprisingly low price ranges.

Modified Styles Developed for Larger Sizes

Longer skirts—more fullness—swathed hip lines adapt well to large models. Already we are in receipt of a number of large sized dresses in plain flat crepes and in printed crepes. After modeling them it is our opinion that the problem of securing suitable styles in the large sizes will not be so difficult as in past seasons. More opportunities to vary the lines in larger sizes will be possible.

The New 1930 Showing of Pumps and Ties Now Ready

Goodly Selection of the Latest Spring Patterns

$4.85 $4.98 $5.85

We are ready—at these reasonable prices, too—best styles in both patents and kid leathers—lights will be very much in favor this spring—high spike heels—Queen military and low—slightly narrower toes—a little longer vamps—pumps in a variety of patterns—straps and sport oxfords. Our shoe department gives utmost values.

"Brimful" Styles Creating Hat Enthusiasm

During the past several seasons women have assumed an indifferent attitude towards millinery—styles so similar—with so much sameness—no variedness in materials—all of which destroyed what is known as hat consciousness.

This spring it is different—dress styles have influenced millinery trends. We now hear the cry "Going Brimwards"—"It's all in the brim." Brims that shadow the face ever so slightly but droops—yes, sweeps backwards or to the side—gracefully carrying out the silhouette of the flowing skirt. Straws, of course—Palimo—Palimo and Felt—Panama-lauquer Cloth—Baku and Crochet Visda—high sounding names but terms that refer to soft body straws that adapt modishly to the flowing lines that will be so evident.
