Mother-Love Novel Coming To Gay

"Sarah and Son," Timothy Shea's great best-selling novel of mother-love, will be seen in its talking filmized version at the Gay theatre Sunday and Monday, May 4 and 5. Ruth Chatterton, of "Madame X" and "The Laughing Lady" fame, is starred in the central role of Sarah Storm, the impoverished young wife-mother who, stimulated by a burning ambition to raise herself from obscurity to regain the baby boy who had been snatched away from her by her worthless husband, finally achieves fame and glory as an operatic star and eventually is reunited with her son. How she accomplishes the final step of her plan furnishes some of the most tense and exciting scenes the talking screen has yet given us.

National Music Week . . . May 4-11

"Music For Everybody -- Everybody For Music"

Musical harmonies will salt and pepper the atmosphere this week as schools, churches and clubs cooperate in musical activities. Wayne will be "in tune" with the spirit of the occasion and gives assurance that no "blue notes" will be found to disturb the harmony of its business district whose values and service invite attention and comparison.

Majestic Radio Wins

Enthusiastic Endorsements From America's Leading Colleges, Universities and Conservatories.

All over the United States leading educational institutions are equipping their music departments with Majestic Radio-Phonographs. Such an acceptance from music schools is the greatest endorsement a radio or phonograph could have. There are no more expert judges of tone and reproduction than the heads of music departments, and nowhere would the Majestic combination undergo more rigid and exhaustive tests than in a music class room where every ear is trained to detect any inaccuracy or distortion of tone.

WE SERVICE WHAT WE SELL

Wherever there are children
there should be a piano

YOUR children . . . your boys and your girls . . . today they are with you following your guidance . . . tomorrow they are out in the workaday world. Now while they are close beside you is the time to set before them those things that will serve them best in the years to come.

Music is your children's heritage. It is bred in their bone. Those little flashes of rhythm that bubble out of every child are the heralds of a desire to make music.

Encourage them. Give them the chance to learn to make music and by so doing not only will you add greatly to their talents, but you will enable them to get a greater share of the joys of life.

The piano is the natural musical instrument upon which your children should begin the study of music. Music teachers will tell you this. All authorities agree on it.

Wherever there are children there should be a piano.

You will find that we sell some of the world's finest pianos at money-saving prices . . . such as the Knabe, Mason & Hamlin, Bush & Gents, Schiller, Haddorf, Krantz & Bach and a few others. COME ANY DAY to hear and see the pianos we have for you and your home.

Yes, we sell them on monthly payments.
