School Grows This Autumn

Enrollment Reaches New Figure With Opening Days Of Session.

Announce Schedule

Practice Squad of Twenty-five Gives Promise of Winning Team For Football Season.

Enrollment in the Wayne high school, which opened Monday, has increased over last year by about twenty per cent, according to H. R. Best, superintendent, who on Wednesday completed a check on students. Grade school enrollment has risen a good fifteen per cent, he added.

Total number of pupils in the grades has reached 240 this week. There may be some increase after this date. In the high school, there is a total enrollment of 185. One of the chief factors in enrollment increase, said the superintendent, was the fact that high school activities were made so attractive last year, and that courses of study have been expanded and improved to meet student tastes and needs.

New courses which have been added this year include those of the expanded history branch. Under the present arrangement, students can make eight credit units. Formerly it was possible for an individual to make only six units a year. The change has been arranged through a substitution of the old general history course, an ancient and mediaeval course. This study may be supplemented, if the student's plan demands, by the course offered this year in European and modern history.

Commercial courses have been expanded to include special work in commercial arithmetic and law. Music will be emphasized this year, under the direction of Miss Arlene Urban. Special instruction will be given in a limited class of advanced music students. Harmony and appreciation will be taken up, and individual attention given.

Directed study will be adopted this year in the school. Recitation periods will be shortened to make care of this matter, giving the teacher an opportunity to take charge of the study, leading the child in an independent perusal of his lessons.

Open Kindergarten.

Special attention is being called by Mr. Best and Miss Will to the fact that children who are now four and one half years old may enter the kindergarten. If their birthdays will occur before the first of March, making them five years old, they are eligible to this department. Special attention is being given this year to the work in this branch.

W. A. Behl promises half a dozen debate teams. Each team will have an opportunity to give scholastic performances, although only part of them will have an opportunity to go into the big meets. In all probability, said Mr. Best, the question will deal with some phase of the chain store problem.

Announce Football Schedule.

Football practice began Monday afternoon with a squad of about twenty-five lads out for practice. R. K. Holder feels sure that, with the material out for scrimmage, the fine team can be developed this year.

A sum of $300 has been expended for new football equipment. New pants, shoulder pads, and helmets have been supplied, and the old navy blue jerseys have given way to royal blue and white jerseys which will be more striking on the field. Socks of the new colors have been adopted to match the shirts.

Mr. Holder, who has had special work under Coach Bible of the University of Nebraska, has high hopes even with the short period of practice ahead. He believes he can whip into shape a good team (Continued on Page Three.)

Enter Pavilion Monday Morning

Urn, Steve and Confections Valued at $125 Are Missed From Kay Hill Here.

The Kay pavilion just south of Wayne was entered early Monday morning and a coffee urn, one-burner Coleman stove, candy, gum, cigars and cigarettes, valued at $125, were taken. Entrance was gained by clipping the door lock.

Mrs. Henry Kay and sons were at the hall until 1:30 Monday morning and the loss was discovered about noon Monday by Benjamin Kay who entered at that time.

Parties who entered the Corvelli garage here Wednesday night last week, taking a car and accessories valued at about $500, have not yet been traced. Officers are searching for them.

HEAT YIELDS TO CHILLY WEATHER SNOW HITS WEST

SEPTEMBER ushered in cooler weather following a light rainfall Sunday night. The last day of August was one of the hottest of the month, but before the next morning the elements, true to the versatility of this climate, turned from hot to chilly. Temperatures here were well above the frost line, but in Montana and Wyoming the mercury sank below freezing. Yellowstone national park reported 26 degrees above zero, and Montana had a snowstorm. Kansas had a fever in the east and a chill in the west. The Associated Press report of a minimum temperature of two below zero at Cut Bank, Mont., reads like a typographical error, or the suggestion of a crazy imagination. It is too early to be below zero even at a point known by the powerfully suggestive name of Cut Bank. The weather is favorable for the maturing of corn in Wayne county, and if frost holds over another month, we will have more good corn than the most optimistic had expected. Returning travelers are loud in making contrasts in crops and other conditions favorable to this section. "The best looking country we have been anywhere" is the invariable exclamation.

Take Communion At Wayne Church

Six Little Folks Are Vested at St. Mary's Catholic Ceremony Here.

St. Mary's Catholic church, filled to capacity at 9 o'clock mass Sunday morning, was the scene of an impressive ceremony at which first holy communion was administered to Genevieve and Richard Ahern and Frances Denesa of Carroll, Jackie Penhollow, Beverly Ann Strahan and Marie Kirwan of Wayne. Each was vested with the scapular of the blessed virgin, Mary.

The church interior was beautifully white flowers for the occasion, an arch in white forming a canopy over the chancel railing. Each of the six, dressed in white, with veil and wreath also in white, was led to the altar to receive the sacrament by two little angels. Mary Claire Jordan of Winside, Barbara Heine, Marie Post and Dorothy Smolski acted as angels and each was dressed in white. Mary Alice Strahan and Gwendolyn Mulvey acted as guard of honor at the altar doors.

After each child had been invested with the scapular, Rev. William Kearns spoke of the innocence and purity of childish hearts and commended them as a worthy dwelling for the holy eucharist. He charged parents to keep the lives of their children holy always.

The services, marked the close of the vacation bible school which was conducted by Sister Annie Marie and Sister Mary Emily of Omaha, during August. Of the forty-five attending the school, the six were old enough to receive the communion. Other older ones had done so a year ago. A number were too young.

Leave Monday For Points In East

Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Jones and children of Sioux City, left Monday for the east where Mr. Jones will attend a convention of his insurance company at Boston, Mass. They will stop at Chicago and visit Niagara Falls enroute there. The Jones family will also visit Mr. Jones' grandmother at Binghamton, N. Y. The latter mother of F. H. Jones of Wayne, is 95 years old. At Buffalo, N. Y., they will visit a school friend of Mr. Jones. Before returning home they will visit at Mt. Herman, Mass., where Mr. Jones attended school.

Drive To Canada For Short Visit

While waiting for harvest of grain on their land near Water-town and Webster, S. D., Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Space and family drove to Canada. They went to Fargo and Grand Forks and then to Winnipeg, Canada. Contrast between the customs houses was notable. The United States house at Pembina, N. D., was found a meager building, while the one at Emerson, Canada, was very imposing. The Space family fine crops of wheat through the Dakotas and in Canada. Prices for grain are low in Canada. The family arrived home Tuesday.

Club Workers Plan Exhibits

Wayne County 4-H Groups Have Important Display At Fall Festival.

Present Features

Members Will Give Short Prelude To Each Evening's Program on Fair Days.

Wayne county 4-H club workers number almost 200 this year and each member plans exhibits at the Wayne county fair next week. Baby beehives, hogs, poultry, sewing and cooking will be placed on display by the young folks. Club work started in 1923 with the beef and pig groups, and organizations have multiplied and grown with each year. Baby beef club members of Wayne, Winside and Hoskins will have eighty head at the fair. A fifteen-minute feature will also be well represented. Combined strength behind any worthy and helpful action works wonders.

UNITED PULL IS WHAT COUNTS IN FORWARD ACTION

In reporting the victory of Pat McGill's team in the pulling contest at the Cuming county fair, it is explained that the two animals have been taught to work and pull together. They use their strength to best advantage, pulling together and neither trying to shift the burden to the other. If either slowed up in the belief that the other would carry the bigger part of the load, they would never win leadership. Same with a community or any group. Members must pull together in the same direction to keep out of ruts and to gain headway. Though having the welfare of the community at heart, people cannot pull against one another and hope for progress. No one can doggedly demand his own way in opposition to the judgment of the majority. Each must make reasonable concessions, accept feasible constructive plans and then unite in a forward movement. Combined strength behind any worthy and helpful action works wonders.

Fair Week Is Event Of Year

Omaha Man To Touch Off Evening Firework Before Grandstand.

Describe Features

Entries Closing Wednesday With Excellent Showings Predicted by Fair Men.

Carrying a liability insurance of $100,000, Wayne county fair, opening Wednesday, September 10, and continuing to Saturday, September 13, will provide expensive features of entertainment, as well as a complete showing of harvest wares. Each day will be marked by free acts, shows, and competitions on the grounds. Special exhibitions of Wayne products have been arranged.

A new attraction has been announced in the eight-horse sorrel race which Mr. Seeger of South of Fingers will parade before the grandstand. The animals are beautifully matched, and have taken prizes at several fairs.

Livestock will be paraded before the grandstand at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, giving a living review of the year's progress on Wayne county farms.

Baseball games have been scheduled for the four days. Horse racing will be features of the last three days of the show, with a varied program. Horseshoe pitching will fit into a tournament starting Wednesday, and continuing to the last day, when a championship match will be pitched.

Concert music will be provided by the Wayne and Winside bands, and other entertainment specialties will follow as announced.

Entry Day Is Tuesday.

Entry day is Tuesday, September 9. All entries will close at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, September 10.

Judging will begin Wednesday morning, to continue, it is thought, through most of Thursday. W. E. von Seggern, who is this week attending the state fair at Lincoln, is arranging for a set of about six judges to take care of this matter. Judges are usually chosen from officials and instructors at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture.

Announce Big Fireworks.

A sum of $600 has been expended in making this year's pyrotechnic display one to surpass any other year. Wednesday and Saturday evenings will have the largest spectacles, although set pieces will be shown every night while the fair is in session.

Pieces will be touched off in front of the grandstand by Lack, the manufacturer, who comes here from Omaha to take care of the technical end of the display.

Members of the fair board believe that competition for premium money on exhibits will be keen this year. A large attendance is expected, and arrangements for the accommodation of numbers have been completed well in advance of Wayne county's biggest fair.

Theobalds Return From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Theobald motored Tuesday morning to meet their son, Robert, who has been away this summer. In the afternoon they went to Omaha, meeting Miss Marion Jo there.

Robert had spent the early part of the summer on a motor tour of the New England states. The party with which he went is in the form of a traveling school, making the trip twice each summer, with forty boys each time.

After returning from the early summer tour, Robert went to Camp Warren at Evelyn, Minn., where he spent five weeks.

Miss Theobald enjoyed ten weeks in Cheyenne camp in Estes Park, Colorado. Camp work is of the girls scout type, in which she is interested especially. Before going to the camp, Miss Theobald spent some time with girl scouts at Mesa Verde, Colo.

Cattle Men Note Totals Of Week

A. Carlson shipped one car of hogs to Sioux City August 27. Monday shipments of cattle included one car to Omaha by Henry and Edward Frevert, one car to South Omaha by George McCahey, and two cars to Sioux City by A. Carlson.

Gilbert and Nookes sent two cars of cattle to Chicago on Monday, and William Woehler sent two cars to Sioux City. Two cars of Will Peters' cattle were shipped on that day to South Omaha.

Cattle received this week were one car for William F. Wright, and one car for Jack Denon, two carloads of sheep for Don Beckenbauer and one car of cattle for C. A. Preston.

Exotic Scenes In Philippine Islands Intrigue Former Resident Of Wayne

Mrs. Glenn Wilhelm Describes Life In Army Circles As Filled With Varied Interests.

Two years of life in the Philippines, at army quarters in Manila, have completely fascinated Mrs. Glenn Wilhelm, the former Miss Isabel Clark. Mrs. Wilhelm, whose husband is a major in the United States army, has been the guest this week of Mrs. D. H. Cunningham.

Mrs. Wilhelm describes the army headquarters at Manila as most beautifully planned and arranged for comfort. The large bungalow in which Major and Mrs. Wilhelm and their son, Glenn, Jr., lived was situated next door to the one occupied by Gen. Douglas McArthur, who will be chief of staff in Washington, D. C., Wilhelm's next post.

Houses are built with unglazed windows, the frames being fitted with sliding panels of wood, fitted with light-admitting strips of sea shell. Coconut palms, betel nut trees, acacias, and flame trees surround the army quarters, giving an almost park-like effect. A vine, cadena d'amor, or chain of love, covers many of the buildings, says Mrs. Wilhelm, who remarked on the especially delicate pink flowers of a heart shape. Hibiscus hedge, and green lawns contribute to add to the tropical appearance. Gardenias are to be had in quantities, and there are other flowers even more typically tropical.

Visits Exotic China.

One of the most intriguing experiences, Mrs. Wilhelm explained, was a trip into China. She visited Peking, Tientsin, Shanghai. Of the cities visited Mrs. Wilhelm found Peking primitively oriental. Canal trains coming in from Pung, quaint markets, natives living picturesquely, were part of the panorama.

In Shanghai, the Thieves' market, where old brocades, fine silks, exotic carvings, silver, old pewter and brass are to be had cheaply, tempts purchasers.

Rug factories in the northern Chinese provinces send alluring arrays of beautiful rugs into the city markets. Furs to be had in Chinese cities include leopard and squirrel.

Mark Spanish Occupation.

Marks of the Spanish occupation of the island are to be found everywhere. Most interesting perhaps, are the copies of the old Spanish furniture which have been made in fascinating native woods. Mrs. Wilhelm mentioned especially the narra wood, a heavy material resembling mahogany.

Another wood is camagong, an ebony, dark in color but streaked with tan. It takes a high polish, and makes up well. Tindolo, another wood which polishes well, resembles mahogany. Most of the furniture follows the Sheraton period, although some of it is heavily carved in true Spanish fashion.

Housekeeping in the Philippines is possible only with the assistance of servants. Natives, well trained, and available at low wages, solve the servant problem.

Officers going to the hill camp at Baguio, where they spend a month out of every year. The camp is situated on a 5,000-foot height in the pine-clad hills of the northern part of the island on which the city of Manila is situated. A feature of the entertainment there is dancing by the Igorotes in the amphitheater. Weird dances are presented in costume on one moonlight night of each month.

Asiatic Fleet Comes.

Manila bay harbors the Asiatic fleet from October to May. During the holiday season, the ships in the harbor are lighted each night, and the port takes on, says Mrs. Wilhelm, an appearance of fairyland.

Schools in the colony she described as good. The session is from June through to the following March. Glenn Wilhelm, Jr., attended school in Manila.

A special pet of young Wilhelm's was a small monkey, Zamboanga. This animal will be shipped to Washington, D. C., the Wilhelms hope, to be kept in a zoological garden there.

Roads in the islands are generally good, said Mrs. Wilhelm, although in the remote provinces they are very poor. Automobiles are of American makes, although European, making the right-hand drive more acceptable.

Meet Roy Chapman Andrews.

One of the most interesting personages met during an interesting sojourn in China, was Roy Chapman Andrews, famous explorer and writer on oriental subjects.

Mr. Andrews is an interesting and vivacious personality. Mrs. Wilhelm stated, and enjoys polo and social life as diversions from the rigors of scientific research.

Mrs. Wilhelm brought many interesting curios with her, and a number of beautiful photographic studies made in the islands. She expressed genuine regret at leaving so interesting a location, and hopes some day to return to the orient.

PLANS FOR FAIR NEAR FINISH AS DATES APPROACH

OFFICERS and directors are busy putting the finishing touches on plans for the big Wayne county fair to be held here next week. The fair is a distinctly constructive institution. While it holds but a few days, its benefits are lasting. One outstanding value is its inspiration to young people in learning to raise pure bred live stock. Displays of best specimens of production often surprise local people as well as strangers. The headway made by the county is revealed in condensed form. Justifiable pride is stimulated, and greater effort is fired. Aside from the exhibits in different departments, the program sets forth as ample variety of amusement features. All need to reach high expectations is due attendance which will be insured by favorable weather.

Store Moves To New Space

Larsons Arrange Goods In Black-White Grocery For Opening Friday.

Grocery stock was transferred to the fresh black and white shelves of the newly completed department of the store the first days of the week, preparing for Larson's opening Friday and Saturday. The new department, which is situated at the east end of the building, has south entrances on the street.

Goods have been placed in such a way that customers will have easy access to whatever they desire to purchase. Few counters will be used, but these will stand in a central position near the doors. In this way the passage of customers from shelf to shelf will not be obstructed.

Completion of the new grocery department gives the dry goods section the addition of space formerly occupied for groceries. Goods have been moved back, and a transformation of this part of the store will take place during the next month.

Plans have been made to add a new front, to change the shelving and the counter arrangement, and to give the clothing and notions departments space which has been needed for some time. Carpenter work will begin as soon as possible, making the entire plant conform to a new standard of modern store equipment.

Opening day activities have been planned for Friday and Saturday to give the public an opportunity to see the new annex. Souvenirs will be presented.

The bride taught two terms of school in district 49 in Wayne county and one term in district 8, Stanton county. After returning from a wedding trip through the Black Hills in South Dakota, the young couple will be at home on a farm one and one-half miles northeast of Stanton.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon were attended by Miss Esther Matthes, friend of the bride, Valentine Leiner, cousin of the bridegroom, and Harold Zechin, brother of the bride. The three are from Stanton.

Laundry Schedules Opening For Soon

Opening of Colson's Careful laundry is scheduled to be within the next few days, says Myron Colson, who is in charge. G. F. Gibson, technician in charge of the equipment, has spent the week in preparing the place for work. A color scheme of green and white has been adopted by the plant, and redecoration will be finished this week.

Farmers Equip In New Style

Nebraska Statistics Reveal Wayne County Plans To Be Fitted In Modern Manner.

Wayne county farms stand well, according to state statistics, in the matter of modernization of equipment. Homes in the county are equipped with the conveniences which mark comfortable living everywhere, city and country alike. Home lighting plants are to be found on many of the farms, and other conveniences with through power lines. Pumping systems provide running water for the farm households, and natural gas systems give heat with which to warm it. The same gas system is used, in many homes, to provide heat for cooking and other purposes. State statistics for 1929 say that 251 Wayne county farm homes have water piped indoors, a vast improvement over the old way of carrying filled water pails from well to house.

Farmers Enjoy Radios

Radios are enjoyed in farm homes by a total of 775 families, states the bulletin, and these figures were compiled in 1929, so an increase has followed since then.

There are telephones on 1,156 farms in this county, giving easy communication between farmers and the rest of the world. This figure runs about the same as for other counties in this section of the state.

Other conveniences to be found on the modern farm include tubs or showers in the house. A total of 209 farms in this community are so equipped.

Modernize Equipment

Modernization of farm equipment has extended from the house to the outlying buildings of the farm plant. Silos are found on twenty farms in this county, an average number. Sixty-five silos on the farms in Cedar county tops the list for northeast Nebraska.

Brooders are a part of farm equipment on 151 Wayne county farms. Where chicken-raising has been taken up as an industry, new furnishings have been essential. Incubators number 238, and cream separators, 1,184.

There are only eight combines in the county. Threshing outfits number 96, and there are 662 gas engines. Tractors have reached a total, say state figures, of 439 for Wayne county.

On farms in the county there are 1,696 cars. In towns there are 1,975. Trucks for farms in the county number 139, and in town 152, making a total of 291 trucks.

Cows Being Fed Produced Best

Three-County Association Shows Profits on Animals With Balanced Ration.

Do you feed your cows during the summer months? According to Arthur E. Anderson, leader during the month of August, the cows fed a balanced ration paid the biggest returns. The average in the Canning, Wayne, Dixon association for the cows fed a balanced ration was 26.6 pounds of butter fat per cow with an average profit above feed cost of $5.99. For the cows fed just home grown feeds the butter fat average was 23.3 pounds with an average profit above feed cost of $5.40 per cow. The cows fed no grain had an average of 19.3 pounds butter fat and a profit above feed cost of $4.60 per head. Handling cows so they will net the largest returns possible is the object of the dairy association.

The high cow for the month was a purebred Holstein owned by McGuire and Rees of Wisner. She produced 70.4 pounds of butter fat.

The high herd in the group of sixteen or above was owned by Hugo Nicholson of Wisner. These cows produced on an average of 36.1 pounds of butter fat per cow. Wm. Von Seggern's Holsteins of Wayne, were second high in this group.

The high herd in the five to sixteen group is owned by Wm. Morris of Winside. This is the second consecutive month for the Morris' registered Holsteins to lead in this group. They produced on an average of 39.0 pounds of butter fat this month. John Krause of Alicot, was second high in this group with his milking Short-horns.

The following members have cows on test which produced over forty pounds of butter fat during the month of August: Earl Feyherm, West Point; McGuire and Rees, Wisner; Otto Hass, Wisner; Hugo Nicholson, Wisner; Wm. Morris, Winside; Frances brothers, Winside; Lyric Gamble, Wayne; H. J. Nuernberger, Wakefield; John Krause, Allen; Wm. Von Seggern, Wayne; C. D. Ankeny, Dixon; and Gail Selton, Laurel.

THE KNOT-HOLE

No. 27 Wayne, Nebraska, Thursday, Sept. 4, 1930. Vol. 4

This issue of our publication will be devoted largely to the Wayne County Fair because that will be the big event here next week.

They call those little trick golf links that people are planting around in their back yards, Chic Sale courses. Most of them are 6-holders.

Carl put up a bunch of sheep and hog troughs last week. They're all bolted together and sold like hot cakes.

And now they have Wall Street whiskey—one drink and you get a seat on the curb.

Spittiger Bros. are now in out of the rain. They just put on a complete new roof of our labeled Canadian shingles. Those shingles should last 15 years.

Visit our display at the fair and go through the new, modern houses we are showing.

A Jewish lumberman has composed a new song: "Why Go To Heaven When Business Has Gone to H—"

You will see roof shingles of a dozen different kinds and styles at our fair exhibit.

4-Square lumber requires no squaring, no measuring, no sawing. Saves all that work. See it at the fair.

The guy the doctors have it in for is the fellow who fell off a load of hay and died before they could X-Ray his teeth.

Robert Roggenbach was up from down on the county line getting some of those big cedar posts and soft pine boards. Robert knows quality lumber and is Okey with us.

One of those tree-sitters will eventually stay up so long he'll develop a tail.

That new garage on the Fred Heier farm is sided with 4-Square drop siding. They made quick work of it, too. 4-Square is ready-cut. Just pick it up and nail it on.

If you were to offer to hire a maid to half the work in your kitchen, you'd think we'd gone daff.

Even if your job is soft, that is no excuse to lie down on it.

If you have a house and no garage you should see our booklet of garage plans. A garage is as necessary as a front door these days.

It costs no more for genuine American fence than for the imitations. That's why we handle the American.

Happy Chick News

Well, I am back on the job again. I surely appreciate what Pat and Bill did for me while I was away. Wouldn't mind if they would write this junk every week. The Stanton fair was handicapped with several days of rain which cut the crowd quite a bit. At West Point they had large crowds. Had the largest entries of exhibits they have ever had. Next week is the Wayne county fair and we have the promise of the biggest fair in history. You hear people planning to spend from one to two days here from all the nearby towns. They all are of the opinion that this is the biggest fair in this part of the country. Traffic officer: "Hey! What's the idea? Didn't you hear me whistle to you?" Pretty girl: "Certainly I did, and if you try it again I'll report you." Delivered a six-pen hog house to Albert Casper southeast of Wakefield, last Saturday. Mr. Casper surely was well pleased with it and has invited several of his neighbors in to see his new house. "Is your husband a good provider, Dinah?" "Yessum, he's a good providah all right, but I see altus skeered dat niggah's gwine er get caught at it." Phil Damme is pretty busy with his hog pens at the fair grounds. The thing that is bothering Phil the most is that he has them all spoken for and more too. Small son: "Grandpa, when are you going to play football?" Grandpa: "Football? I can't play football!" Small son: "But dad said we'd get a new car as soon as you kicked off."

We are building a couple of Shic Sales buildings for the fair association. A vice president is a man who isn't smart enough to be president but who owns too much stock to be fired. Those Red Top steel posts are surely moving out these days. A lot of people are fencing their stubble fields for fall pasture. Not a bad idea at all. We received a fresh car of piaster this week. Satan: "Why the laugh?" First devil: "I just put a woman into a room with a thousand hats and no mirror." Got an order for two hog chutes to be used at the fair grounds. They surely are expecting a lot of hogs this year. Be sure and meet me at the fair. I will be there with the original Happy Chick line. Also am planning to put on a little free attraction. Just look for those bright red buildings and I will show you how to eliminate a lot of the work in the raising of pigs and chickens. Teacher: "We should never be discouraged too easily. Look at Napoleon. He would stop for no obstacle. He refused to be turned aside by anything but kept relentlessly to his destination. And what do you think he became?" Pupil: "A truck driver."

Arkansas Woman Made Rugs to Found Library for Farm Folk

IF you told 73-year-old Mrs. Ada Check of Check Corners, Sulphur Springs, Ark., that she had extraordinary abilities as a social worker, chances are she wouldn't know what you were talking about. Yet she has accomplished in her little corner of the Ozarks what trained sociologists would consider an achievement of a lifetime. She has given the country folk of three states an escape from their farm routine and; in making them conscious of a communal spirit, has lifted them from an ignorant to an intelligent atmosphere. And she did it by building a free library from money she earned weaving rugs and coverlets from wool of her own sheep! First Impressions It was 35 years ago that Mrs. Check came to this remote and isolated region. The life about her impressed her. She saw that the men worked hard in the fields and the women in their kitchens. But after work there was no place to go, nobody to talk to, nothing, in fact, to do. Young people, she observed, grew old prematurely for lack of play. Mrs. Check noticed that when neighbors visited her they invariably made a dash for the few papers and magazines on her sitting room table. The young visitors especially were interested in them. Starts Reading Circle That gave Mrs. Check an idea. She would invite the boys and girls to her house one evening a week for a reading circle and would read aloud to them. The plan worked. It was so successful, in fact, that the children, too, interested to wait another week to finish the book, pleaded to take it home so that they might pass it around from one to the other. Then came one of those accidents of fate. A woman tourist stopping at the Check home one day for a drink of water, became interested in the coverlets and quilts Mrs. Check weaved on her grandmother's spinning wheel, and a conversation ensued. Under a barrage of questions, the usual ly reticent Mrs. Check revealed the existence of her reading circle and its crying need for books. Fair Exchange A few weeks after this incident a box of books arrived from the visitor. Mrs. Check wove a rug and sent it to the donor of the books as a gesture of gratitude. Profiting from this experience, Mrs. Check made it a point to interest other tourists who stopped at Check's Corners in her circle. She proposed to make them rag rugs, tacked quilts, or comforters filled with wool from her own sheep if they, in exchange, would send books. The response was generous, and Mrs. Check decided to build a library. Everybody chipped in and erected a one-room library across the road from her house. Mrs. Check, as librarian and board of trustees rolled in one, is happy because people from three neighboring states avail themselves of the library, and that they meet there to talk and make contacts only too rare in rural communities. As for the younger folks, they were never more studious than at present. And the reason is they are anxious to read every one of those treasured volumes sent by the generous donors. California Civil War Veteran Saw Lincoln's Assassin Trapped and Shot

A STORY which often is brought up whenever the death of Abraham Lincoln is discussed is that John Wilkes Booth, his assassin, got away from pursuers and lived to a ripe old age under an assumed name in either Texas, Oklahoma or London.

The man taken for Booth, so the story goes, was an innocent Confederate soldier who had changed coats with Booth during the assassin's flight through Virginia and whom the Federals had killed to save the face of the government.

If there is one man able authoritatively to dispute this theory it is W. A. McDonald of Westminster, Calif. He helped pursue and corner Booth, saw him get shot and die. And he is the last living man who witnessed these events.

A Case of Shock
McDonald, who enlisted when 17, was a member of the Eighth Illinois Cavalry, the bodyguard of the president, and stationed outside Ford's theater in Washington the night of the assassination. He recalls vividly the pandemonium in the theater soon after Lincoln, "The American Cousin" from a box seat, was shot.

After all these years the veteran is still mystified at the fact that Booth managed to escape with the theater filled as it was with soldiers. But it was a case of shock. No one seemed to know what to do. In fact, 12 hours had elapsed before anyone thought of starting out in pursuit of the assassin.

It was then that the president's bodyguard, divided into detachments of 12 men each, was directed to begin the search.

"Our detachment," said McDonald, "was the first to pick up the trail. It being learned that the noted actor was accompanied on his flight by Daniel C. Herold. The hunt led us to the large plantation of Dr. Samuel Mudd, in Virginia.

"We learned from the negro servants that Booth and Herold had been in hiding there for several days. Dr. Mudd was placed under arrest and sent to Washington as a conspirator and later to jail for aiding the fugitives. He had given medical aid to Booth who had broken his leg making his escape from the theater the night of the assassination."

John Wilkes Booth, above, and W. A. McDonald, below, last living man who pursued him.

As far as Boston Corbett, the man who killed Booth, is concerned, McDonald has this to say: "Corbett was court-martialed for disobedience to orders. Severe punishment was suspended and he later toured the country. He finally died in an asylum."

After 12 days of search the fugitives were found in a barn belonging to a man named Garrett near Fredericksburg, Va. McDonald recalled.

"It was an easy matter for us to surround the building," McDonald remembers. "Our leader, after giving instructions not to shoot unless necessary, ordered the men to surrender. Soon a dark form emerged from the barn. It was Herold. We could hear Booth cursing him for surrendering.

"Convinced that Booth was determined to stay in the barn and fight it out, we set the building on fire. Through that knot holes we could see him leaning upon a crutch and holding a carbine, crouching in a corner.

"The flames crept nearer and finally Booth started for the door. At this moment, Boston Corbett, a sergeant, aimed his gun through a knot hole, shooting Booth in the head and back. We carried him from the barn and laid him in the open field. He suffered painfully in dying and his last words were, 'Tell my mother I died for my country.'"

The Secret Burial

The body was taken on board the monitor Montauk, where it was identified by Dr. John F. May. Because of the feeling against the dead assassin, he was secretly buried under the floor of one of the warehouses in the arsenal grounds on Greenleaf's Point. It was customary at that time for felons to be buried there.

The body remained there until Feb. 20, 1869, when it was reinterred at the request of Edwin Booth, a brother, in the family plot in Baltimore.

Tweed Weaves to Feature Fall Suits

WITH STYLES MORE FEMININE, HARRIET RECOMMENDS SPORTS TYPE SUITS AS FIRST CHOICE FOR AUTUMN WEAR

BY HARRIET

STRIPES and checks will usher in the autumn days.

Most of them are tweeds in a new, soft weave.

Browns, soft, rich bluish greens, black and white and all of the rust tones of red are, very becoming.

For your first suit, you cannot go wrong picking a sports type. They are always good. And this winter, when most styles will be more feminine, there will be a certain zest in a tailored sports outfit.

Quite new is the sports suit with coat that comes clear down to the bottom of the hem. Such a coat can be used with other dresses to have a change of outfit.

So far as the dresses are concerned, there are several things to note. All are belted. Most of them have fullness in the skirts. The dress with a light top is newer and smarter than the one without.

One of the smartest outfits is a soft, brown tweed, trimmed with a brown and yellow shepherd's plaid collar and lining. The coat is strictly tailored, with a few stitched darts at the waistline to ease it from being a straightline. It has a self-belt that fastens in front; while the coat pulls over to the side.

Under this is a cute shepherd's plaid dress in the sage color, blue and yellow. It has a jaunty frill's better effect and its sleeves have deep cuffs coming out from under the rather flaring tops, like boleros themselves.

The skirt of this frock has a pleated flounce all around it, of the material running diagonally. It is most decorative and gives a jaunty originality to the frock. It belted in yellow.

A typical autumn sports hat is the brown trimmed hat, with facing of yellow and banding of the same. Chamote gloves and a brown purse are good with this suit.

Quite a different type of sports suit is the Worth model in brown and pink. It has one of those light-topped frocks, this one with pink jersey fashioning the top of the waist and all of the sleeves, except the cuffs, which are of the tweed.

A smart sports outfit for fall is the soft, brown tweed, left, trimmed with a color of contrasting tweed. It has a self-belt fastening in front. A different type sports suit is the Worth model, right, in brown and pink. An unusual feature of the coat is its inverted pleats which flare toward the bottom to give fullness.

The frock of tweed is made using the goods horizontally, while the coat, which does not fasten shut, but is belted and left open, is made with it running vertically. The coat has several new features.

On the sides are inverted pleats which flare towards the bottom to give fullness. Down the back, below a stitched yoke, is an inverted pleat which flares from the belt

Modern Barns House Cattle

Holstein-Friesian Herd Lives in Up-to-Date Quarters on Fair Acres Dairy Farm.

Eighty head of sleek Holstein-Friesian cattle live at Fair Acres farm. They constitute D. S. Wightman's herd of thirty-five to fifty milk cows which daily produce 160 gallons of certified milk. Cows are milked three times daily by experienced milkers. Milking is done at 7 o'clock in the morning, 3 in the afternoon, and 11 at night.

Dale Hanks.

Dale Hanks, Wayne boy scout, recently received the bronze palm which represents five merit badges and six months' scouting above the requirements for eagle scout. He was first in Wayne to become an eagle scout, which requires twenty-one merit badges.

Robert Gulliver, Miles Tyrrell and Alphonse Martischang are other Wayne scouts who recently were awarded eagle medals.

The four boys are members of the troop sponsored by Prof. A. F. Gulliver, now if any troops in the state have so many eagle scouts as the one here.

Newest of the buildings on the place is a modern cow barn. The two barns for cows hold thirty-four and twenty-four animals each. These modern, concrete-floored barns, are fully-equipped with drainage, ventilation, and lighting systems of the approved type. Electric lights furnished from the farm's own plant, and the windows are fitted with glass which admits the ultra-violet rays of the sunlight.

Exercise Special Care. Special care is exercised in the management of the barns, which are washed daily, sprayed and kept closed against flies during the summer months. The cows are washed, their udders scrubbed with a disinfecting solution, and their coats milked before milking.

Fresh milk is run over a tubular cooler and bottled at a temperature of 55 degrees. Bottles are placed in a refrigerator room, reduced to a temperature of 32 degrees, and delivered. Refrigeration is accomplished in a cork-insulated room of a ten by fourteen by seven dimension by a three-quarter ton capacity ammonia machine.

Bottle washing, cleansing of cans, and daily testing and weighing of milk are provided for in the plant. The produce of each cow is watched for butterfat content, and no cow is kept which has not standard production. Highest test cow in the herd is a 672 pound butterfat animal, and there are number of 500 pound cows in the herd.

The high production animal since freshening in March is a cow which has had 92 pounds at one milking, with a 3.8 test for butterfat. In such production lies the profit of dairying, say experienced cattle men. There is the daily profit on milk and butterfat, and the yearly income on breed stock.

Equip Entire Ranch. Electric light and power are furnished by the ranch's own plant. Water power comes from a four inch tubular well, emptying into a 12,000 gallon capacity supply tank. Steam boilers provide steam for sterilizing and heating. Cattle have slightly-warmed water from automatic fountains in the barns during the winter.

Calves are cared for in a barn which has twelve pens. This place is used during the winter and the calving season chiefly.

Pasture land amounts to 140 acres of land seeded down to good grass. This total is divided into separate pastures for wet and dry stock, heifers, bulls, milking stock, yearlings, and calves.

It is impossible to raise enough alfalfa at Fair Acres to supply the demand. What is raised on the farm is cut and put into the barns without stacking.

Corn raised on the ranch is utilized, a great amount of silage being used.

Discuss Feeding Ration. A succulent, nourishing ration is the dairy feeder's problem. A cow can produce milk no better than the ration which it is fed.

Summer diet is a fourteen per cent protein ration, and the winter ration is about twelve per cent protein.

Animals consume about 1,200 bushels of corn, the same amount of oats, and around 35 tons of commercial feed during the season.

Low cost of production and good climate make this section ideal for dairying. Eastern states, where dairying is established, have found production costs high in the last few years. Nebraska climate is such that cows do not have to be housed up for more than ten whole days in a winter.

Join Improvement Group. A member of the Madison county Dairy Herd Improvement association, Fair Acres milk is tested officially by Paul E. French.

Stores Stock Autumn Goods

Fair Week Displays Show Merchants' Interest in Newest Styles and Colors.

Wayne stores have stocked for the autumn season with a view toward keeping up the standard of style. Changes in design, in pattern, in fabrics, colors and lines of women's clothing have been noted daily by buyers, and the new note is expressed in the fall stock now on display.

Gowns for women, shown in local stores, reflect the metropolitan favor expressed for the more feminine type of dress. Colors are dark; blues, black, brown, wine and dark green predominating. Lingerie touches are observed on many of the frocks, and the draped, fitted line seems to be the one most favored.

New materials are found in the travel prints and crepes. One of these is a benberg yarn material warranted not to wrinkle. Colors of the travel prints are mixtures of the popular blacks, browns, and dark shades. Materials resemble wool tweeds, but remain in the silk range.

Dresses Has Interest. Interest in that which is dull is one of the vagaries of the fall mode. Hose is consistently dull; either in the new silks, or fine, imported lises for sport wear.

Shoes express dullness, too, in a renewed popularity for suedes, mat kids, and other dull leathers. Lines tend more to slenderness and narrowness than in some seasons.

Hats have brand new, off the head lines, shallow crowns, and intriguing brims. City shops show no more of these models than do Wayne merchants, who have been quick to anticipate the demand.

Accessories to dress are important. New richness, say Wayne merchants, has come into this particular branch of dress.

House Furnishings Lead. New furnishings for homes lead in importance as the fall season advances. Merchants have stocked in advance of the fall cleaning episode, and find interest in house furnishings looking up.

Convenient appliances for lightening housework are making their appearance in local shops. With the renewed interest of the housewife who has just returned from a vacation, the acquisition of new household supplies is a point of pleasure, say local salesmen.

An added volume of business is anticipated for fair season and school opening. Local shops and stores are prepared to meet an accelerated demand during this period.

Home From Outing In Colorado Camp

A month's outing in a cabin three miles above Estes Park, Colo., proved a delightful vacation for Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Carhart and Braden Carhart who arrived home Sunday afternoon. The mountain scenery, air and water were invigorating. The men enjoyed trout fishing in the mountain streams and kept the group supplied with fresh fish. Mr. and Mrs. Jones visited the former's mother, Mrs. Annie Jones, in Denver. The Carharts visited Mrs. Magdalene Hahn Buckley at Fort Collins. The group spent a few days at places of interest in Denver. They found fine roads and experienced good weather all of the time, making the trip especially enjoyable.

Three Hurt When Car Is Smashed

Bernice Anderson suffered bruises and a shoulder injury, and Forest Anderson and Pat Murphy each sustained broken ribs when the Ford roadster in which they were riding late Monday night collided with another Ford roadster near Wayne. The accident, which occurred two miles north and one east of Wayne, was disastrous to the car in which the party was riding. The machine was abandoned, and passersby took the three injured persons to Wayne, where they received treatment.

The other machine was not damaged.

Grain Yield Good In Western County

Wheat harvest in the vicinity of Dalton, Neb., is averaging about forty bushels to the acre, according to C. E. Gildersleeve who returned Monday from western Nebraska after spending a month there. Some fields made more and some less.

Mr. and Mrs. Gildersleeve were accompanied home by Rev. and Mrs. C. D. Gearhart of Denver, Colo., who met them at Sidney. After spending a few days here in the C. E. and W. H. Gildersleeve homes, Rev. and Mrs. Gearhart will go to Sioux City and then to Florida in the winter. Mrs. Gearhart is a sister of Mrs. C. E. and Mrs. W. H. Gildersleeve.

Have Family Dinner For Anniversary

The forty-ninth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. June Conger of Wayne, which fell on September 1, was celebrated Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Conger entertained at a family dinner for them. The Congers have lived at Wayne forty years.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. June Conger, members of the family in the group were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ellis and family, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Conger, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Conger, Mr. and Mrs. Elaine Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Conger. Miss Kathleen Smith and Vern Waller were other guests in the Conger home.

Return From Trip To Northern Points

A two weeks' outing in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Canada proved interesting as a sightseeing tour but not so good as a fishing expedition for L. B. McClure, Oscar Liedtke, Frank Thielman and E. E. Fleetwood, who arrived home Friday evening. The men went to Crane lake in Minnesota and also visited Hibbing, Virginia, Duluth, Minneapolis and other places of interest in that state. When they Stopped in front of a bakery in one Minnesota town they were surprised to find there Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lowe, the latter, formerly Miss Nita Foster of Wayne. The men went to Canadian and Wisconsin points also. They traveled on good roads most of the way. Crops were not up to normal in the sections visited.

These United States have a number who either drive their own automobile or play peewee golf. Which also seems to be about the Chicago Tribune.

The Strollers' Revue

Complete change of program each afternoon and evening of the fair.

The Girls' Chorus

Dainty girls, trunks and trunks packed with beautiful costumes, good singing voices, fast moving feet and plenty of rib-tickling comedy, are some of the features in store for those who patronize the grandstand show during the engagement of the Lewis Strollers. The Strollers Company is under the management of J. Y. Lewis, conceded to be without a close competitor in the production of outdoor musical shows.

Conrad Hipp—Famous Comedian

Conrad Hipp, who will be seen in a leading part with the Lewis Strollers, a musical Revue, was for many years a popular screen comedian. Although he has not appeared "on location" for a number of seasons, his services are still sought by Hollywood producers, and if it were not for the fact that he is a dyed-in-the-wool troupier, from a family of troupers, and loves the speaking stage best of all, he would no doubt, respond to the call of filmland and run his chances of some day becoming a national favorite.

Many of the funny skits and acrobatic stunts that Hipp originated while in the movies are still seen in some of the newest comedies. For the benefit of those who will remember him, he will revive a part of his picture work, as it always provokes hearty laughter.

The Harmony Four

The male quartet with the Strollers' Revue is one of the big features of the company. You'll enjoy their voices and specialties.

Marsh Sisters and Sunshine

Marsh Sisters and Sunshine, high, trick and fancy divers, offer one of the best outdoor thrillers of the year. There are four people in this sensational act, three pretty and daring girls and a young man who clowns throughout the performance in a series of stunts that create as many laughs as thrills.

As an added attraction at night, one of the divers plunges into a seething caldron of fire from the top-most point of the towering ladder. A match is applied to the gasoline-soaked costume of the diver just before the downward flight to the tank is made.

The Francis Trio

The Francis Trio, engaged for the Wayne county fair, has a pantomime novelty different from anything of its kind ever seen in front of the grandstand.

When they hit the high-spots in their comedy nothing can stop the audience—smiles are turned to giggles and giggles to roars. It is a fact that the act has on a number of occasions purposely slowed down their fun-making to give the crowds a chance to catch their breath.

The Thrillers

The most spectacular feature that any circus can offer its patrons, is that of the "Flying and Return Acts." The bird-like grace of the athletes, as they soar through space between swinging trapeze bars, is always exciting, and a source of pleasure to watch.

COME TO THE HARVEST FESTIVAL

Wonderful Farm Machinery

Famous McCormick-Deering Lines

We have McCormick-Deering machines in stock and will have them on exhibition at the Wayne county fair next week. See these machines at the fair and note the distinct advantages they offer.

An Investment In Power

Owners everywhere are considering McCormick-Deering tractors an investment in power—an investment that is paying regular dividends by making it possible for one man to do more, to do it easier, and do it better. In other words, by materially reducing the cost of production. McCormick-Deering tractors are widening the range of profit and making farming more pleasant.

McCormick-Deering P & O Little Wonder Tractor Plow

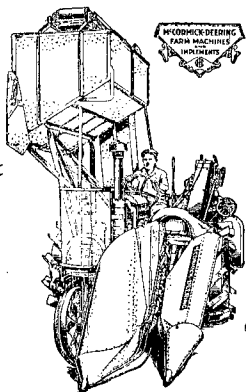

The No. 2 Little Wonder combines every feature essential to good plowing with a mechanical design which puts plenty of strength where it is needed yet produces a plow that is very light in draft and as light in weight as it is possible to build a good tractor plow. It is all plow—there is no dead weight.

REPAIRS

The right kind of repairs add new life to your machines. Use only genuine I. H. C. repairs for your McCormick-Deering farm operating equipment. A genuine repair part fits exactly and becomes a perfect part of the machine.

Corn has got to be harvested

...the New McCormick-Deering FARMALL One-Row Picker is the machine to do it

If you are interested in the most modern farm machinery you'll want to know about the new McCormick-Deering FARMALL One-Row Corn Picker. It is a power-operated unit, attached to the left side of the FARMALL Tractor (the belt pulley can be used if desired without removing the picker). It has a capacity of 10 to 12 acres a day. One man easily controls it from the tractor seat.

Its 20-bushel tank has a capacity which is usually sufficient for a trip down the field and back, and the necessity for hitching and unhitching wagons is eliminated. Steel and iron construction provides ruggedness, and the weight is evenly distributed throughout.

The FARMALL One-Row Picker is a remarkable asset to the corn grower—it takes the drudgery out of a tough farm job and at the same time enables its owners to harvest their crop at less cost than ever before. Come in and ask us about this new machine and also the new McCormick-Deering (pull-type) One-Row Tank Picker.

Four-Cylinder Power Plants

The Standard In Harvester Design

SANDWICH-NEW IDEA Portable Grain Elevator

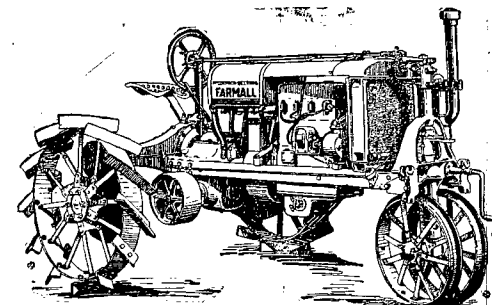

Here is the modern machine for saving time and money and eliminating the drudgery from the unloading of corn and small grain from wagon to cribs and bins. It helps solve the problem of scarce and costly labor during the harvest season.

Strength, durability, smooth running and light draft have been built right into the Sandwich-New Idea Portable Elevator. One of these elevators on your farm will enable you to store your grain crops quicker, better, with less work and at a lower cost than can be done in any other way.

There is a Sandwich-New Idea Elevator in either the Portable or Bucket type to meet every individual requirement. Come in and get complete information about these machines.

All McCormick-Deering tractors 10-20, 15-30 and Farmall—have the modern power plant, a fully enclosed, heavy-duty 4-cylinder engine proved by our many years of farm power development to be the most practical power plant for the tractor. We began a quarter-century ago with a 1-cylinder design, progressed to the 2-cylinder types, and outgrew the 2-cylinder period just as the automobile has done.

Our 4-cylinder tractors give the farmer liberal power, steady running, and wonderfully flexible, easy operation not obtained by other types. Vibration and surplus weight are reduced to the minimum, parts are properly balanced, all wearing parts are replaceable, and long life is assured the tractor. The performance of the many thousands of 4-cylinder McCormick-Deerings in every part of the country is convincing evidence of correct design.

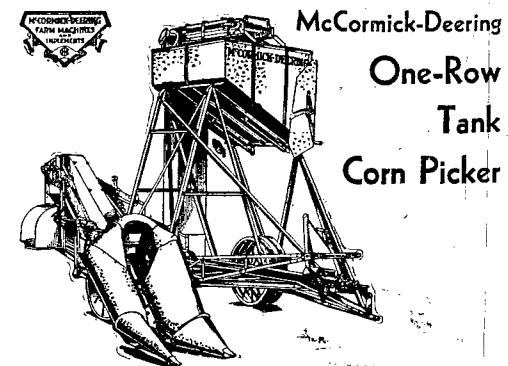

Great Labor-Saving Farmall

CULTIVATE your corn the new way with a Farmall! Two rows at a time! One can, with the new Farmall, cover 15 to 25 acres a day, the work of two or three men and four or six horses. Two additional two-row cultivators can be pulled by the Farmall. Where such equipment is available, six rows can be cultivated at a time.

PLOWING can be accomplished, if soil conditions are normal, to the extent of 7 to 10 acres a day with the Farmall. This is equivalent to the work of three men and nine horses.

CORN can be harvested with the Farmall at a more uniform, steady rate than ever before. Farmall can be used for pulling corn binder or corn picker, saving time and labor. With the Farmall, it is possible for a man and a boy to pick three or four times as much corn as is possible when only hand power is used.

A High-Speed, One-Man Outfit

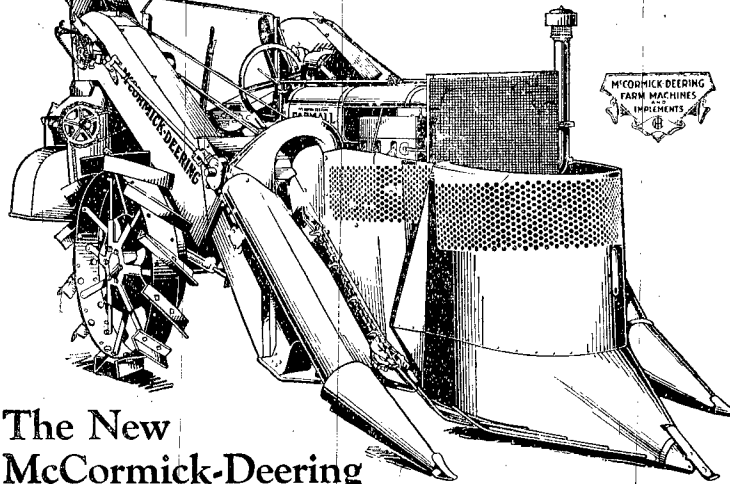

HAVE you seen the McCormick-Deering Power Corn Picker with the 25-bushel tank? We would like to have you come in and look it over. It does the back-breaking, knuckle-bruising job of picking corn at a rate of 10 to 12 acres a day—very much faster than by hand—and exceptionally clean.

One man on the tractor seat handles both the tractor and the picker. It is operated through the power take-off of the McCormick-Deering Farmall, 10-20, or 15-30 Tractor.

The tank is a great convenience. Its capacity is usually sufficient for a trip down the field and back, and the necessity for hitching and unhitching wagons is eliminated. Steel and iron construction and evenly-distributed weight provide exceptionally light draft. Trash is eliminated by an exclusive process.

Step into our store any time you are near and we'll be glad to tell you more about it.

Here's the Fast Way to Pick Your Corn

The New McCormick-Deering FARMALL Two-Row Picker

The new McCormick-Deering Two-Row Power Corn Picker—built especially for the FARMALL Tractor and operated through the power take-off—provides plenty of power and speed to handle your corn crop. It picks and husks 16 to 18 acres a day... enabling two men to pick and husk as much corn in one week as 4 hand-huskers could pick in 4 weeks.

This modern corn picker is easily controlled from the tractor seat. It will enter a field on any two rows and pick them clean without disturbing adjacent rows.

The gatherers raise the down and leaning stalks, chains carry the stalks back, forcing them against snapping rolls, the ears are quickly snapped, elevated to the husking rolls, and then delivered to the wagon which is hitched directly to the center of the tractor drawbar.

Flexible paddles attached to a revolving beater located above the upper end of the snapping rolls force the trash down through the snapping rolls and discharge it on the ground. This feature is exclusive on McCormick-Deering Corn Pickers.

See us now about the FARMALL Two-Row Picker. We can also give you information on the FARMALL One-Row Picker and the One-Row Tank Picker.

Travelers See Unique Scenery
 Black Hills Country Provides G. W. Albert Family With Real Vacation Trip.

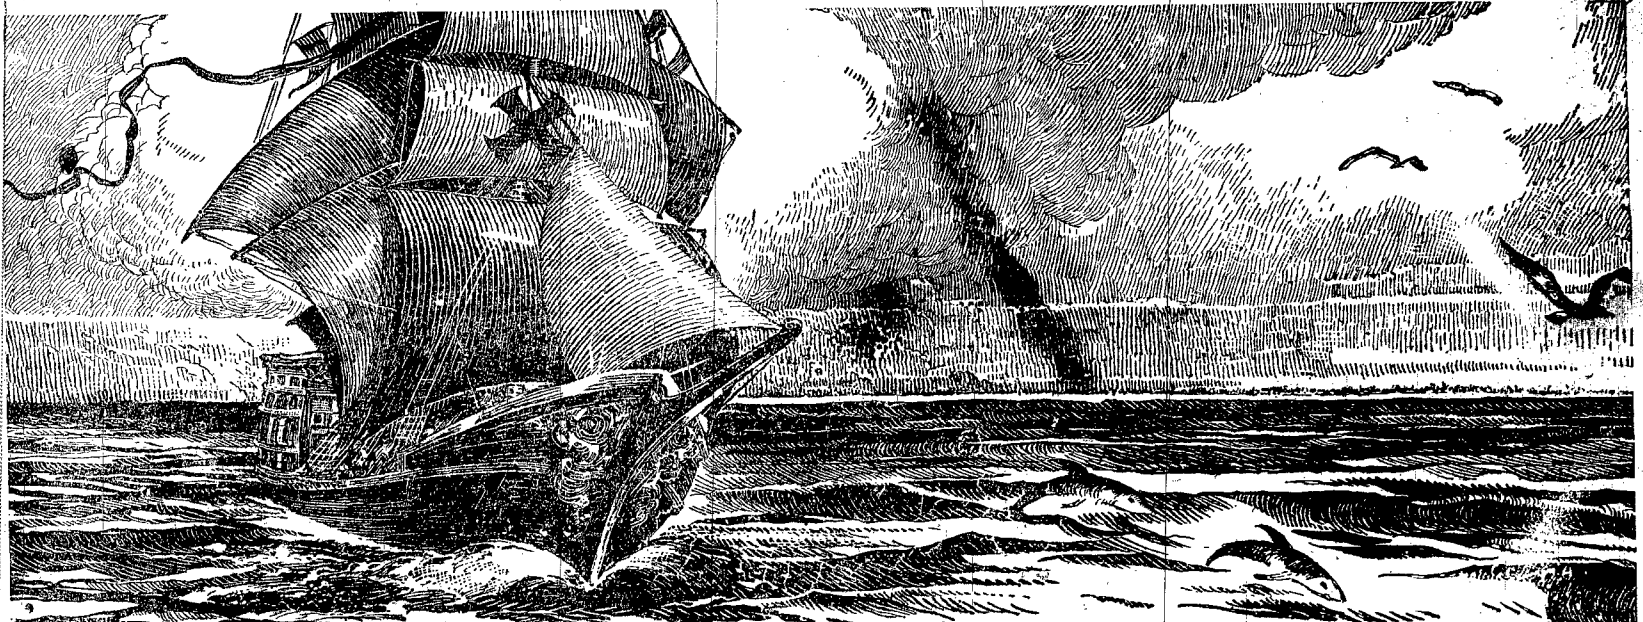

That home in Wayne county looked "more like the Garden of Eden" than any other spot visited in a 1,200 mile trip, was the opinion of G. W. Albert and family, who returned from the Black Hills Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Albert, Earl, Horace and Donald left home on Wednesday morning, August 20, at about 10 o'clock. At noon of the next day they were in Rapid City, S. D.

 Following highway 16, which reaches the hills by way of Chamberlain, the Alberts found travel pleasant. The road was in excellent condition, and superior to highway 20 by way of which the travelers returned home on the Nebraska side. The South Dakota route was found to be more direct. Interesting sights abounded, says Mr. Albert, and the family revealed in an opportunity to view scenery which was new and unaccustomed. Sylvan lake, the Needles, the Homestake mine, were among the most striking sights. The Alberts brought home with them a number of rocks and other curios which they collected in the hill country.
 See Grazing Buffalo.
 Buffalo were seen grazing on the game preserve. Wild scenery in this section was refreshing. Mr. Albert, especially, enjoyed seeing the pines and evergreens to which he became accustomed when he resided in northern Minnesota.
 Wild flowers, for which the Black Hills region is famous, were not to be observed in their usual profusion. Dry weather and the lateness of the season are said to be responsible.
 Mountain roads the Alberts found, in general, good, and the scenery along the wayside most inspiring. In more remote sections, where the scenery is more rugged, roads have not been improved so much.
 Leaving a dry, parched Nebraska, the Alberts were surprised to encounter daily showers during their stay in the hills. While only a small amount of moisture fell each time, the showers were sufficient to lay the dust and to give the air a delightful freshness.
 Visit Petrified Forest.
 An hour and half was spent by the Albert family in visiting the petrified forest northwest of Rapid City. This area of 450 acres in which once-thriving forest has been turned to stone, comprises one of the unique attractions of the section.
 A guide conducted the party through the area, explaining the nature of the various formations.

One of the most interesting, Mr. Albert remarked, was a large petrified log which had cleaved a boulder completely into two sections. It was evident, from the appearance of the rocks, that many different kinds of woods had existed here, ages ago.
 Another visit of consuming interest was that which the Alberts family paid to the famous Homestake mine in Lead. Couriers accompanied the party, explaining in detail the above-ground practices in the smelting and preparation of the ore brought up from the rich veins beneath the surface.
 Special permits to visit the mine below were not obtained by the Alberts, who were in haste to be on their way. Miners of many nationalities have employment here, and the company provides for them free hospital and medical treatment, a large recreation hall and many modern facilities calculated to add to their well-being and happiness.
 See Cement Works.
 South Dakota has established near Rapid City a large cement plant which Mr. Albert enjoyed seeing. A sandstone rock is extracted from the hills in the vicinity and is processed to produce cement of high quality. Machine labor is used to extract, prepare, and sack the product. Human labor is minimized amazingly in the operation of this plant, stated Mr. Albert.
 Observations of crop conditions made by the Alberts brought them to the conclusion that Wayne county corn will not be far from the best. Between here and Fordyce, there is excellent corn, considering the season. Much of the South Dakota crop has been burned by drought and hot winds. East of the hills there is some corn, but the crop in the real corn region is not going to make a crop, Mr. Albert believes. He described the condition as "spotted" both in Nebraska and Dakota, however. Grain was good in many sections of South Dakota.
 The filling-stations still lead, but the Tom Thumb Golf courses are gaining on them.—American Lumberman.

Emma E. Richardson
Candidate for County Superintendent of Schools of Wayne County

To the voters of the county, I wish to state that I am no stranger in your midst. As a child I came to the county and have been educated almost entirely in Wayne. Under the inspiration received from the late J. M. Pile I completed both the Professional and Scientific courses of the Nebraska Normal College. When our school was taken over by the state I again returned to the "hill" and completed both the Normal and four-year college course and received my A. B. degree in 1927. Through all these years Wayne has been my home although I have taught in various towns of the state after having begun teaching in the rural schools of this county. I have kept in touch with the progress in educational lines and should the schools be entrusted to my care I assure the voters that every effort shall be put forth to do the best possible for the children of the county.

I wish to express my appreciation of the consideration tendered me at the primary and assure the voters of the county that their support in the November election will be greatly appreciated.

Wayne, Neb., Sept. 2, 1930.

To Wayne County's Populace-Friends:

You are no doubt aware of the fact that in order for one to be a good public servant, he or she must submit themselves to the wishes of those they serve.

Being your candidate for the office of state representative, I am ready to receive your orders so that we may gain for our betterment that which will be a benefit to our local community and the commonwealth of Nebraska at large.

The greatest good I can do at this time is to urge your attention to legislative issues (such as roads, taxes, and so forth) so that we can better understand the program as it comes to be passed on by us.

Your support in this campaign will be rewarded by my giving back to you that measure of reward in legislation labored for that you are entitled to since you have inspired me to labor for you as your man.

With you and for you from Wayne county.

FRANK KLOPPING.

Pearl E. Sewell

Mrs. Gertrude D. Morris

Thos. J. Pryor
Candidate For County Commissioner
Third District

Came to Wayne county fortyfive years ago last March, and he has lived all those years on a Wayne county farm. He has held a number of minor offices, but has never held a county office. He is conversant with the needs of the county, and if elected his policy will be constructive and comprehensive. In road building and in all other matters of general public interest, his idea is to treat all sections of the county with equal fairness. His idea is to serve all parts of the county all the time, enforcing all possible economy consistent with progress.

Votes for Pryor and confidence in his ability to serve will be well placed.

Friend Said "Take Konjola" Now Has Health

Rare Merit Of New And Different Medicine Is Shown In Stubborn Case.

MR. VERNE HINDS
 "I tried medicines for a year and a half but without any lasting relief from my ailments," said Mr. Verne Hinds, 907 Reber avenue, Waterloo. "I bloated with gas after every meal and I became very short of breath. My stomach was sore even to touch. I suffered from severe headaches daily. Occasional dizzy spells came over me, and I could never enjoy a meal no matter how little I ate. "A friend recommended Konjola and so I put it to the test. The first few doses went right to work on my poisoned system and as I continued the treatment my ailments vanished. Gas bloating is gone. I never have headaches any more, constipation is relieved, and the pains are gone from my side. Now I eat anything and enjoy my meals. In fact, I feel a hundred percent better in every way. I shall be glad to tell anyone personally this wonderful Konjola did for me."
 An unusual case, you ask? Not at all; the cases of Konjola are piled to overflowing with such sincere and grateful endorsements. It is recommended that a full treatment of from six to eight bottles be used for thorough relief.
 Konjola is sold in Wayne, Nebraska, at Felber's Drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.
