raoch, a huge tract of land at Encino, Calif., together with several of the sound stages on the Hollywood lot. A whole city block of Paris was reconstructed, as were two palaces, two magnificent cafes, extensive gardens and nearly a mile of front line trenches. Military equipment used was valued at hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Extra people employed exceeded the 2,000 mark and included 500 infantrymen, 100 cavalrymen and mounts, 100 machine gunners, a motor transport train and personnel and a squadron of French cavalry. These men were recruited from ex-service men's organizations and the National Guard.

The cast, in addition to the fifteen principals, included over thirty "bit" parts.

It means that three bands, two orchestras and three choruses were employed, including the RKO Pearl Eaton dancers, and the "Tiller Girls," famous English trained dance troop. The bands included a Scotch Kiltie organization.

no one appeared at the hearing to object to the new schedule, which covers common battery service, where formerly the magento type was given. The commission says that the fair value of the property is in excess of $53,000, and that the rates authorized will hold but a fair return on the investment. These rates are found to be more favorable than in most cities of the same size for the same kind of service. Salaries of officers and clerks are especially low, and other expenses are lower than the average company.

Our Sahara furnace coal comes from a large, modern mine having every facility for attention to quantity output. The care devoted to the preparation of this coal is reflected in its clean appearance and absence of impurities. On the basis of heat units per dollar of cost we believe that Sahara represents the greatest value in the world. The present price is $8.50 per ton. It's worth trying.

She: "I wasn't so anxious to marry you. I refused you six times." He: "Yes, and then my luck had to give out."

Note the bulb on the "backbone" of the Banner Posts. It's like a railroad rail, providing unusual strength in all directions. This is the secret of the strength of Banner Posts. More value for your money on relative strength alone, since steel posts are principal by prices and weight. Note, also, the extra thickness on the sides of the face.

A Scotchman's tip to vacationists: "Stay at home and let your mind wander."

AMERICAN fence is a harvesting machine. It saves labor and reduces costs. It is automatic in its function of guiding and routing livestock over the farm. It aids in producing greater returns per unit of livestock and land. It is invaluable to any man who has corn to hog down, or corn to pick by machinery through the fields. A small investment

In American fence will pay for itself in a short time and will give good service thereafter for many decades.

Give us a list of your storm sash requirements. We will quote you prices that will be surprisingly low.

Gladden your furnace with a real feed of HOT LUMP coal.

A Galveston paper says: "Man is found dazed by heat fifteen days after his funeral." It doesn't take that long if you use our coal.

Platt B. Walker says, "It is a perverse trait that leads a man to complain that his grocer is charging him a little too much for provender for the family table, but who will not hesitate to pay a bootlegger ten dollars a quart for a poor quality of hard liquor."

Not everybody has room for a load of cobs for kindling the furnace fire. That's where our Thirty cents worth will usually last a month. No dirt, no noise. Just a quick, sure fire.

The big stock of white cedar posts we had two weeks ago is almost gone. We have a fresh supply of those big fellows on the road though, so we care to take care of all requirements.

When you paint your barn and sheds you expect the paint to stay on for four to five years. A pure linseed oil paint will do that if the lumber is dry when you do the painting. See us for good paint.

It is not difficult to get good hard coal. Just a question of knowing how and where. We have it.

Sold a 16x16 Happy Chick Brooder house to Hugo Fischer, southwest of Wayne, this week. Jimmie: "I wonder why they say 'Amen' and not 'Awoman, Bobbie'?" Bobbie: "They sing hymns and not hers, Stupid." Those poor pullers have arrived and believe me they are going out. One thing about these portable cribs you get lots of crib for a very small investment. Jones: "Why so depressed, old man?" Warmth and Comfort In Every Room for the Cost of Heating One Room

The Ideal Vecto Heater. Tailor: "How'll you have it—a cuff in the pants or belt in the back?" Customer: "Say, do you want a sock on the nose?" How about base burner coal? We just unloaded five cars of Eastern Hard Coal for this very purpose. You may rest assured that a telephone pole will never hit an auto, except in self defense. Red Top posts are sure going fast. It seems like we load one load right after the other. Well, people are learning what it takes to make a good fence. Eve is the only woman who could believe her man when he told her that she was the only girl in the world for him.

We have just received a shipment of the large size Vectos that heat from 5 to 8 rooms which we are authorized to sell for $65.00.

How the Vecto Circulates Steady Warmth in Every Room

The Vecto may be likened to an air pump. The air is drawn in through the openings at the base and is heated by an extensive scientifically designed heating surface. Being warmed, it rises, according to the law of gravitation, and flows upward and outward carrying warmth and comfort to every corner in every room.

There has been a great change in appearance of these Vecto heaters and we invite the public to come in and see them.

NEBRASKA COUNTY UTILIZES LABOR OF JAIL INMATES

WHENEVER there are as many as four prisoners in the Knox county jail at Center an industry starts—the making of brick—and continues so long as there are four men in the jail to man the plant. The prisoners may not know it but they are doing preliminary building on a new court house which Knox county will have in the near future.

County Attorney Peterson of Knox county is the thrifty chap who is credited with thinking up this plan to employ idle jail labor. There is an abundance of good brick making material at Center. Why not profit by this labor of the men and produce some building material? The county supervisors liked the idea, adopted it and there are no idle able-bodied men "laying out" fines in the Knox county jail.

A merit system was adopted by which prisoners can cut down their sentences by displaying zeal in turning out brick. Nearly 100,000 brick have been manufactured by prisoners. Refusal of a prisoner to do his stuff results in curtailment of his food allowance and incarceration in solitary confinement. This has brought every slacker to time so far.

The best record to date is of two Wausa youths who labored so mightily that they raised the daily quota of brick to 2,600 and got their sentences cut just about in half.

It is considered a good policy in criminology to compel the law breaker to make recompense to society for what his criminal carelessness, ignorance or defiance of the law has cost. Making brick has proved in Knox county to be one way in which men sentenced for petty crimes can be kept from spending their time idling in jail while they reimburse the state to some extent for their criminality.

To Scoreless Tie In Randolph Game

New Players on Wayne High School Team Make Good Record Last Friday.

Randolph and Wayne high school football teams played to a scoreless tie at Randolph last Friday, each team showing good work and the two being well matched. Kicking goal featured the contest.

Terry Zimmerman, backfield, Everett Heikes, tackle, and Melvin Brown, center, all new men in the lineup, played especially good game for Wayne. Zimmerman and Walter Sund, the latter an old man at fullback, were outstanding. The rest of the Wayne lineup was as follows: Charles Berry, tackle; Walter Bressler, right end; Murray Powers and Donald Whitman, guards; Orville Rhoades, left end; Maxwell Hunt; rickson, quarterback; and William Miller, halfback. All were playing a good game Friday. Walter Bressler had a small bone broken in one foot in the last quarter and Dean Hughes went in his place. Bressler will probably be unable to play this week.

Morningside Wins College Contest

Defeats Wayne State School Team Saturday at Sioux City by One Touchdown.

Morningside and Wayne State Teachers College met at Morningside Saturday for a night contest and the former team won by 16 to 0.

Morningside kicked off to Dennis of Wayne and the latter started the game by eluding tacklers until he traversed the field 30 yards, toyed his goal. A series of the plays at various parts of the line followed. Dennis, half back, made a number of star plays. Hanson, Wayne tackle, kept in prominence through his defensive work. Grubb, Wayne fullback, charged at the line with good gain.

As the first half was near an end, Dennis sneaked out to one side on a pass play and ran 40 yards down the sideline for a touchdown. The placekick failed.

The third quarter was spent in an even battle between the teams. Morningside made a touchdown in the last quarter and the game ended with a ball in midfield.

Wayne's lineup was as follows: Evans, I. C.; Hanson, T. R.; Hunt, J. G.; McKinley, C.; Keeter, R. G.; Pahl, R. L.; Lindamood, R. E.; Anderson, Q. B.; Andrews, H. B.; Dennis, H. B.; and Grubb, F. B. Substitutions: Ambrose for Keeter; Sexton for Hunt; Copland for Andrews; Arbuthnot for Dennis; Copland for Grubb; Croft for Andrews; Evans for Anderson.

Passes attempted: Morningside, 8; Wayne, 12. Passes completed: Morningside, 2; Wayne, 3. First downs: Morningside, 12; Wayne, 1. Penalized: Morningside, 15 yards; Wayne, 29. Times out: Morningside, 3; Wayne, 4.

Finding Of Bones Leads To Mystery

ground surrounding for a considerable distance, and while thus engaged they found the gold bridge-work. Teeth were taken from the ashes but they were said to be hog teeth from an animal thrown into the stack early in the season. The bones are claimed to be larger than those of the hog and they have been sent to a chemist for analysis to determine whether they are from a human skeleton. Not enough bones were there to make a complete human skeleton, which led to the opinion that possibly somebody might have been dismembered and scattered. The stack burned about a week ago but no particular attention was paid it because of frequent haystack fires, until an odor became so strong to farmers passing over the highway that they decided to investigate, and in so doing discovered the bones. The authorities are awaiting the report of the chemist before proceeding with their investigations. Denver educator says school is taking the place of nome. But Dad, as he helps Willie build that Caspian bridge and trail sine and chain to their lairs, eggs the idea that the situation is entirely vice versa.—Arkansas Gazette.

John Barnes Has Pair Of Unique Kinds Of Hobbies

John W. Barnes, Wayne, has the distinction of having raised a vegetable so unusual that it has not even a name. This vegetable, which resembles a very large light-green gourd, is said to be a cross of several varieties of pumpkin, squash and gourd, is edible, and easily raised. One specimen, about 28 inches long, with a long, gourd-like neck, was the first one to ripen. It is said that the meat can be prepared in the same way as pumpkin for pies, or baked, as squash, and served as a vegetable. Mr. Barnes is entering in a seed company contest to name the vegetable, seeds for which came marked "Garden Wonder," the only name the vegetable bears until a better one has been chosen. Mr. Barnes has an interesting hobby in wood-carving. He has completed recently a chain made from a single piece of wood, which he fashioned into an exhibit containing several objects. Linked together in the chain are a ball contained in a box, a swivel, and a pair of pinches. The objects and links move freely in the chain, although they have never been severed from the original solid block of wood from which Mr. Barnes fashioned them. The chain is about three inches longer than the original piece of wood. Mr. Barnes carved it in about eight hours' time.

Plans Are Made For Farm Course

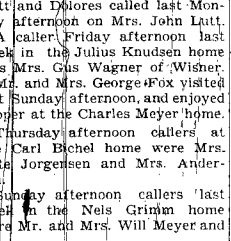

Although the opening of the farm operator's course at the agricultural college, Lincoln, is two months away, many boys from Wayne county are inquiring at the college about it, according to H. K. Douthit, short course director. Douthit is of the opinion that one hundred twenty-five boys will go to Lincoln for the operator's course this year. Seventy attended last year. General farming conditions have made it impossible for some boys to attend the agricultural college course and those who probably enroll for the farm operator's course which lasts four months, starting November 24. The boys will be off the farm when things are slack and back in time for spring work. It is expected that 25 second-year boys will return this year to complete the course. It is divided into two terms. The first ends on January 24 and the second term opens January 26. Boys graduating are given certificates. The farm operator's course gives farm boys actual work in farm management. Wayne county boys entering do not have to be high school graduates, neither do boys from other counties. Director Douthit declares. Try a Wayne Herald-Want Ad.

Here's the Fast Way to Pick Your Corn

The New McCormick-Deering FARMALL Two-Row Picker

NO SIDE DRAFT
One of the big advantages of the two-row picker is that it places an equal load on each side of the tractor; that is, each side has the same work to do and since the wagon is pulled from the center of the tractor drawbar, there is absolutely no side draft. This makes the outfit extremely easy to handle.

WORKING PARTS GUARDED
The picking and pushing rolls are completely enclosed, and all working parts located where the operator might come in contact with them are covered by guards. The McCormick-Deering Corn Pickers are safe as well as efficient. The screen in front of the radiator prevents leaves from accumulating on the radiator and impairing the efficiency of the cooling system.

SPECIFICATIONS
Width overall..... 7 ft. 9 in.
Length overall..... 23 ft. 6 in.
Height overall..... 10 ft.
(Note: The above dimensions cover the picker complete with wagon driver)
Weight..... 3,000 lbs.
Acres 10 hours per day..... 16 to 18

STEEL CONSTRUCTION
All drive chains are high-class roller chains. The conveyor chains and all flights are of steel. The sprockets over which the heavy-duty chains work are equipped with extra large roller bearings. The gears are of the same quality as those used in automobiles, that is cut steel, and hardened. They are enclosed and run in grease. Where there is a change of direction in the power transmission, high-grade universal joints are employed. These are so designed that they can be assembled only in perfect time with each other, the result of which is the elimination of the vibration so common to many machines employing universal joints.

Petersen Polands Make City Record

Sioux City Daily Live Stock Record, October 3: Every time an exceptionally large hog comes to market, it attracts special attention in the hog bars. Every few months an animal arrives that tips the scales at 1,000 pounds. But it remained for J. M. Petersen, a Poland China breeder of Carroll, Neb., to market three hogs of his own raising that tipped the scales at 3,030 pounds or a little over 1,000 pounds average. The hogs were all purebreds of the best blood lines the breed affords, and had been used as herd sires in Mr. Petersen's large breeding herd. The hogs were four, three and two years old. One of the hogs was bred and raised by Mr. Petersen while the other two were bought as pigs. One came from the Wheelreaver herd at Emory, S. D., and was a son of Cerro Gordo, grand champion at the Iowa, Minnesota and South Dakota state fairs a year ago. The third hog was bred by Alexander Farms at Monticello, Ill., and was the son of Night Hawk, grand champion at the National Swine show.

stags sold to Swift and company for $650 per hundred, close to $65 per head. A large crowd surrounded the scale pen all morning amusing themselves by guessing on the weight of the animals. Jack Bender proved the most competent, marking the exact weight of the hogs. While the hogs attracted attention at the yards a visit to Mr. Petersen's farm is more interesting. He is one of the pioneer Poland breeders of the state and has always specialized in the big type hogs. He has many sows that tip the scales at around 700 pounds. While the hogs are large they also mature early. Mr. Petersen had a picture of the hogs taken in Sioux City.

Choose Outstanding Pupils In New Way

Selection of valedictorian or outstanding pupil in a class will be this year taken off the strictly grade basis, and a new basis for selection will be adopted, it has been announced from the high school. Faculty members will decide on which pupil has made the best general development of himself during the four high school years. Principles on which judgment will depend will include: Scholarship, highest grade, character, attitudes and skills, conduct and cooperation, general development of the individual. Arguments in favor of the change are several. Students who compete for the honor may be within one or two points of each other, but some of them may have elected easy subjects, others, difficult ones, and there is no standard. The important qualities in school as in life, are personality, executive ability, leadership and other qualities not entirely academic school men feel. Therefore, the basis of award will be placed on the development side.

Chilcote Brothers Have Big Offering

On Thursday, October 16, Chilcote Brothers bring to Wayne sale pavilion their annual Hampshire boar offering. While not new in this business, having been located near Wisner for the past fifteen years where they bred and sold pure-bred Hampshire hogs with great success, they however are new in their present location. Having moved to farms near Wayne the past season it is their great desire to get acquainted in this locality. Chilcote's Hampshires are known throughout the middle states and in fact from coast to coast. Their sale offerings from year to year are of the high quality, clean cut, real breed improvement kind, and this offering placed at your approval on the 16th of October is nothing short of any of their former offerings. It has been the desire of this firm to work along the lines of producing a type of hog that meets the demand of the general pork producer of today, a hog with the frame and bone that denote size yet having plenty of the much needed substance and body. Just one look at the herd sires at the head of this herd is evidence indisputable that the offspring of such sires will fulfill the requirements of the pork producer of today. This firm does not cater to the breeders' trade, but does aim to keep in close touch with the requirements of the farmer and feeder demand, thus offering the local buyer a world-wide opportunity to solve his hog problem—a chance to get what he wants here at home and at a price he can well afford to pay. It is the desire of the members of this firm to see each and every one interested in good hogs and in the improvement of the hog industry inspecting this offering before the sale. Your presence is appreciated whether buyer or spectator. For information see large bills or ask for a catalog which is yours for the asking. 0911.

Konjola Ends Ten Years Of Neuritis Pain

New Medicine Gives First and Only Relief To Omaha Man—Will Never Be Without It, He Says

MR. CHARLES W. WINTER "I had been ill for about twenty years," said Mr. Charles W. Winter, 816 North Forty-first Avenue, Omaha. "For the past ten years I endured frightful suffering. Almost blinding headaches lasted for days. The neuritis attacked my shoulders and back of my neck. My arms felt numb and useless. This condition appeared to be getting steadily worse. "I noticed a change for the better after I had taken the first bottle of Konjola. I continued the treatment and have taken six bottles to date. Today I feel fine and really know what it means to be able to do my work without constant pain. I feel it my duty to tell others of this great medicine. I shall never be without it in my home. "Is it not logical to believe that what Konjola has done for others, it will do for you—for everyone? Give Konjola a chance to prove its splendid merits. Konjola is sold in Wayne, Neb., at Felber's drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

"Why I Believe in Prohibition." "I believe in prohibition because I believe in the new industrial order that America is creating. It is as much out of place in that new order as a horse and buggy in downtown Detroit—and a lot more dangerous. "The horse and buggy order is gone and liquor had to go with it. Society could take chances back of a dashboard that it can't afford to take behind a steering wheel. "Perhaps," he said, "you don't recall the aid hitching post days. Well, a lot of folks seem to have forgotten them. They shouldn't. The streets on Saturday nights were lined with wagons and buggies and the saloons were filled with customers. At closing time a crowd of irresponsible men backed their rigs into the streets, the horses were headed toward home, the reins dropped over the dash and forgotten. The horses were sober. "Well, if we want our streets lined again with shops that do that kind of business we shall have to put up our automobiles and go back to hitching posts. Automobiles won't go straight unless they are driven straight, and they don't know the way home. "An industrial order that has discarded the reins, dashboards and a team that knows the way home, can't afford to line its highways with regulated liquor shops." Not with a forty-horse-power motor under the hood of a drinking citizen."—Henry Ford in the Lincoln Journal.

Sentiment Grows. York Republican: One of the biggest questions—if not the chief one—before the next legislature will be paved roads. Sentiment in favor of a larger and a faster paving program is developing rapidly. It only needs a trip around the state by automobile to understand why.

Bus and truck service has made a great difference. One who has conceded to be an authority said the other day that there had been fifty per cent increase in a year. Graveled roads that were excellent a year ago are badly worn now. The SYA between Grand Island and Lincoln was an excellent road a year ago. It is in need of extensive repairs now, due to the heavy traffic diverted to it while the DLD was being paved out of Lincoln.

Bonds for paving to be paid out of future gas tax collections are the most popular method of financing that conservative policy into cold one that will undoubtedly be presented to the legislature as the choice of the good roads association and business organizations. It provides a method of repaying bonds with a certainty. The receipts and expenditures can be figured to a penny almost and there is little or no guess work.

The pay-as-we-go policy is very likely to receive the brunt of an offensive next winter when the legislature meets that will put that conservative policy into cold storage while building for future needs takes the right-of-way.

And success a cabin in the clearing, rough hewn and rude. Home spun clothes and humble food. Tradition scarcely tells us from whence you came. I only know that you lived and multiplied. Riding over these gravelled highways of ours through a land of well-kept farms, through fields of ripening corn, past the nesting towns, we could not help but compare these days of "modern conveniences" to those of the men and women who were first here. The sacrifices that they made in order that we might enjoy this land of ours as it is today provides a theme for song and rhyme that should inspire us to go on in the development of Nebraska.
