starts working higher." starts working higher." Abdication by the king of Spain trans-fers, one of the oldest monarchies—at one time the istrongest—into the hands of the people. Sweeping republican vic-tories and the pressing advice of those wishing to avoid serious conflict finally per-suaded the king to quit and get out. As contrasted with removal of kings in the old days, no dangerous rioting or bloodshed marked the change. People generally re-joiced over the new form of government, but offered no threatening demonstrations. We are glad to see Spain go out of the king business, though it retained its so called royal leader longer than wistom and prog-ress would have advised.

ress would have advised. The Lincoln Journal suggests that a good deal of politics is being sifted into consideration of appropriation bills by the governor and legislature. It seems that the legislature's cost cutting is Rot deep enough to satisfy the governor, though it must be apparent to all having hands in the business; that necessary state institutions cannot be run on hot air. If the state could stand the jolt, it might be advisable for the legislature's wrong: the medations exactly and then let him ex-plain what's wrong.

Farmers of the county have asked the Herald to resume printing butter, egg and chicken imarkets, and we shall do so, get-ting the correct figures each Wednesday. The service was discontinued some time ago because markets at the time received often underwent so much change by the time the newspaper was published that they were misleading and of little or no value. If the service can be made of prac-tical help, we shall be glad to give it. While talking to his young son about

While talking to his young son about the future of football at Notro Dame, Khute Rockne, famous coach who met a tragic death, mentioned some outstanding mem-bers who would leave the team, fearing less good fortune as a result and then add-ing that it is not well always to win. Rockne knew that boys should learn to be good losens as well as good winners, and he was disposed to stress character development above importance of football victory.

In nature's call to accustomed spring-time roles, as birds begin to nest, cows revel in green pastures and vegetation takes new root, we can discern direct refer-ence to members of the legislature who are wrestling with state problems without get-ting far in any direction. We would arge them to think hard and reach decisions in harmony with their highest wisdom, and then wrat up their belongings and hurry to their respective homes.

In reapportioning congressional dis-tricts of the state, it is now proposed by the senate committee of the legislature to add Polk county, home of Congressman Norton, to the Third district, thus pitting Norton and Congressman Howard. both democrats. and Congressman Howard, both democrats, against each other. With the two jarty stalwards, battling for supremacy, a dark horse might run in and capture the prize.

Interests in all northern Californial except for the bay section, and in western Neva-da. Mr. Kemp went to California. His family will remain in Wayne for the remainder of the school year and will then locate in Sacramento. As superintendent of schools here about 20 yearsi ago Mr. Kemp began his career which has been one of public service and individual success. He entered the insur-ance business about 17 years ago and has been district agent practically all that timd. He has served the city as mayor, and was a member of the school board sev-eral years. He has always been one of public service and in of ficial capacities. Mr. Kemp has been president of the Kiwanis club and also district trustee. He was food admin-istrator during the World war period. In these and other given generously of his time and talent to serve others. Affairs of the Wayne agency will be continued as in the past with no change of policy. Mrs. Kemp has been active in church and club circles of Wayne. Miss Kathryn, John and Harry have been active among younger groups of Wayne. The family will be missed.

The Students Supply Store, located ust off the campus of the State hers College, invites you to come and visit their store. This store, plished in 1922, has steadily grown until we find it necessary to l more room. Built originally as a supply store at the college for eachers and students in that institution, it has been found that the ands of school districts, and teachers over northeast Nebraska are that we have increased our stocks and ever widened our territory. here and larger stocks will be added during the coming summer.

This store has built its business on quality goods and honest service. To further meet present day needs this establishment is opening a mail order department and will fill all orders by mail promptly. We invite superintendents, teachers and school boards to mail us their lists of the supplies they will need and we will qude them, on these items: Text books, equipment, maps, auxiliary books art and athletic supplies, etc.

To our good friends and customers in Wayne: Call at the store. Buy your favorite magazine, latest popular music, social and business tationery, greeting and special occasion cards from the Gibson and Volland lines. If in need of a fountain pen, choose from the Schaeffer, Parker, Moore or Pencraft lines.

While at the store, be refreshed with cold sparkling bottled drinks our favorite ice cream special from the up-to-date sanitary soda ntain. Open evening for your convenience.

Fail in Agreement

Jury in Cedar' county district court last week failed to reach an agreement in the $10,000 damage suif filed by Luther Andorpon of Wayne county, father of Guy An-derson, a minor, against E J. Frost of Coleridge, the suif grow-ing out of an automobile actident near Randolon in October, 1929. The jury vote stood nine to three in favor of the defendant. The jury was dismissed without gring a decision.
