Where Lies the Blame?
The Omaha Journal-Stockman discusses causes of the depression which has prevailed notwithstanding more money in the country than ever before.

Did the politician warn the farmer and planter against excessive production of grain and cotton? asks a speaker before the Illinois Bankers' association.

That's the point. Let us acknowledge frankly that we ourselves are probably as much to blame as anybody else for present conditions and proceed to shape our future course so as to avoid some of the mistakes of the past.

Genuine Fellowship
TWO STORIES of Christian fellowship come from Wichita, Kas. The proprietor of a music store employing two married women, found it necessary to get along with one, and accordingly notified the one on the job the shorter time that her services would have to be discontinued.

Flying High
PROF. AUGUSTE PICCARD has established a new altitude record, flying up ten miles and staying long enough to find out that there isn't anything there excepting space and cold weather.

Home patronage is a beautiful theory, and it is especially practicable for the other fellow. Often the individual who frowns hardest over sending money to distant haunts, quietly does the same thing himself.

Reinstate Parole For Wayne Man
Parole for Chelsea Thompson was rescinded last Saturday, in order that he might provide for his family. He was sentenced to serve a term in county jail and was out on parole which he violated last week Sunday.

FUTURE WORK
The Sioux City Journal wonders what will become of the armies of students released year after year, from American colleges with ambition to engage in occupations in which their minds have been trained to function advantageously.

The supreme court decision to bar Dr. Douglas Clyde Macintosh and Miss Marie Averil Bland, both Canadians, from citizenship in the United States on the ground of conscientious scruples against war, has aroused a conflict of opinions.

Of 180 fatal accidents over the United States on Memorial day, more than half were due to automobiles. The fact that more automobiles figured in the holiday than other instruments of death accounted for their leadership as destroyers.

The impression grows that the men who are mad enough to farm a third party haven't money enough. -Wichita Eagle.

RESPONSIBILITY
The suicide of a former superintendent of schools at Madison gives rise to a question of the responsibility of employers beyond legal requirements.

With arrival of June, lakesides and mountain resorts are signaling for attention, and many vacationists are journeying to chosen spots for rest and recreation.

Grasshoppers have descended on the South Dakota counties of Gregory, Tripp, Jackson, Lyman and Jones, and farmers are taking means to destroy the pests.

In deciding to dispossess itself of the American dancing chorus, France was doubtless actuated by the belief that it has enough choruses of its own.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

BRITISH INVADERS SEEKING U. S. OPEN GOLF TITLE AT INVERNESS JULY 1 WILL FIND THE GOING ROUGH EVEN WITH JONES OUT OF COMPETITION

DO you play hunches? Can you see anything significant in the fact that Inverness Country Club at Toledo, O. will stage the 34th annual U. S. Open golf championships July 2-7?

For one who likes to play his hunches, the Open at Inverness next month offers a fertile field for an imaginative soul. Here is what I mean:

In 1920, the last time the Open was played at Inverness, an Englishman, Ted Ray, triumphed and carried the championship away to his native land. A British force this year plans to invade Inverness immediately following the Ryder Cup matches at Scioto, Columbus, O. late this month.

In 1920, five of the greatest golfers of the last decade—Bobby Jones, Gene Sarazen, Tommy Armour, Johnny Farrell and Leo Diegel—made their debuts in U. S. Open competition.
