NUMBER TWENTYFOUR

FIFTY-THIRD YEAR

ELEVENTH FAIR IS SUCCESSFUL

Exhibits And Entertainment Please Good Crowds On The Three Days.

Wayne county's eleventh annual fair passed into history Saturday night at close of the three-day festival. Considering threatening weather the first two days, the attendance was good. Saturday's crowd was the largest and it is estimated that 6,000 people were on the grounds that day. Though final checking has not yet been done, officers think the fair was a success financially also.

Much credit is due the officers, H. J. Miner, H. E. Craven, W. E. Von Seggern and Rollie W. Ley, all of others who helped with the fair.

Exhibits were exceptional this year, and entertainment was also up to standard.

Plays Well Received. "The Push," comedy drama, and "Canned Hotel," musical comedy, directed by Henry E. Ley and Harry E. Fisher, furnished entertainment for evening performances at the fair.

Have Rural Chorus. The rural school chorus Thursday afternoon was a feature in which about 200 children took part. The group sang several selections.

Beever In Parade. Baby beeves and other livestock was on parade Saturday afternoon. Sioux City men came here and sifted the 81 baby beeves, selecting the best to enter the interstate show in Sioux City this week.

Editor Brownlee of the Sioux City Tribune, spoke Saturday afternoon in place of Congressman Edgar Howard of Columbus. Mr. Howard, who spoke at Bloomfield Friday, was in a car accident Saturday night and sustained broken ribs.

Indiana Are Here. Winnebago Indians were here for Saturday's program. They presented the pipe of peace ceremony that afternoon. In the evening the Indians enacted the story of "Hiawatha." They also gave tribal dances and one of the men sang.

Wayne Band Plays. The Wayne Municipal band, directed by Prof. F. C. Reed, furnished music each day of the fair. Songs with the band were by the following: Richard Pinkham, vocal; Miss Myrtle Johnson, piccolo; Miss Kathryn Lou Davis, saxophone; Bennie Kay, clarinet; Miss Davis and Herman Eickhoff also helped direct the band.

Schools Are Named. School exhibits at Wayne county fair were judged in two groups, town and rural. A first premium counted five points, a second three and a third two. Wayne city school placed first among the towns, having 249 points. Carroll was second with 191; Winside, third, 170; Hoskins, fourth, 73; and Sholes, fifth, 17.

District 33 placed first among the rural schools with 56 points. Miss Beatrice Cobb was teacher last year. Other winners and their last year's teachers are: District 71, second, 39, Miss Mercedes Reed; district 11, third, 33, Mrs. Estella Jones; district 86, fourth, 32, Miss Marian Anderson; district 31, fifth, 26, Miss Evelyn Nielsen.

Kittenball Winners. The Golden Rule won the county kittenball championship by defeating Hoskins by 16 to 5. In first rounds of the event Hoskins defeated the Bear Cats by 7 to 4; Schellenberger's team of Hoskins defeated the South County Stars by 14 to 12; the Golden Rule defeated the All Stars by 16 to 12; the College won over the Clover Farm by 9 to 8; and Hoskins defeated the Schellenberger team by 19 to 9. This placed Hoskins and the Golden Rule in the finals and the Golden Rule won.

Baseball Tournament. In the first baseball game Hoskins defeated Carroll by 10 to 9. Wayne won from Winside by 4 to 3. And in the finals Hoskins defeated Wayne by 2 to 0. This gave Hoskins the county championship.

Horseshoe Pitching. About 50 men and boys took part in the horseshoe pitching contest which was a feature at the fair this year. Pitching was better than usual, the scores averaging from 67 to 103 points, the best in five years. In the finals Saturday, Dan Lutt and Clifford Glederslev, winners of the first two days, competed for the pair of horseshoes and Lutt won.

Automobiles Many Finctions. The Literary Digest tells about the influence of the automobile on life's activities. It explains the way it has spread information—spread knowledge of modern living—conducted it has been the means of teaching one section how another section is living, conveying modern ideas.

WET WEEK AHEAD OF THE EQUINOX AND INDIAN DAYS

LAST week's spell of cloudy, damp weather, dispelled at the conclusion of a heavy down-pour Friday night, may have been a premature celebration of the equinox. The equinox really comes this week unless it has been knocked out of place by the unusual times, though equinoctial storms may be preliminary to rather than occurring on the exact date. So called Indian summer may now be in order—an agreeable period when the elements are mild with the sky clear and the atmosphere hazy along the horizon. This may be a little early for Indian summer, but everything—excepting the end of the depression—is hurried along in advance these days and habits of seasons may be expected to do the same thing. Probably Indian summer is the most agreeable period of the year. It witnesses fruits of the year's labors. It is usually free from violent storms. It affords opportunity to get the autumn's work out of the way ahead of the coming of icy winter. Indian summer dissolves as frosts grow in number and severity, and as signs of winter multiply.

Marriage Lines Read Wednesday

Miss Edna Krallman Is Wed To Albert Echtenkamp In Church Ceremony.

In a pretty ceremony at the Evangelical Lutheran church near Wayne Wednesday afternoon, Miss Edna Krallman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Krallman of Wayne vicinity, became the bride of Mr. Albert Echtenkamp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Echtenkamp of near Wakefield. Attendants of the couple were Miss Laverne Krallman, the bride's sister, Miss Norma Echtenkamp of Arlington, her cousin, Gilbert Krallman, brother of the bride, and Pearl Meyer, cousin of the bridegroom. Miss Laverne Krallman and Mr. Meyer entered first, followed by Miss Echtenkamp and Mr. Krallman. The bride and groom entered together, and Rev. F. C. Dogter read the marriage lines, using the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore conventional white satin trimmed with lace, and had a long tulle train falling in tiered effect. She carried a bridal bouquet. Her sister was gowned in dark rose silk taffeta, and Miss Echtenkamp wore Nile green taffeta. Each carried bouquets of roses.

A reception followed at the home of the bride, and over 100 relatives and friends were invited. Guests were seated at two large tables, overhung by streamers in the bride's colors, Nile green and dark rose, and large decorated bride's cakes ornamented the center of each table.

The case of the state vs. Louie Ehnre was dismissed by the county attorney. The case of the state vs. Grove Francis was dismissed for want of prosecution. In the action brought against Fritz J. LOTTERY SCHEMES NOT PERMISSIBLE IN BROADCASTING

IN ADVERTISING privileges the radio has finally reached a point where restrictions are the same as those surrounding newspapers. As the broadcasting phenomenon developed from an uncertain experiment into a practical and universally employed medium of communication, it was used as the vehicle for numerous lottery schemes which were not permissible in publications conveyed through the United States mails. This manifestly unfair advantage to the radio stimulated demand for increased regulations until now, thanks to the proposed code governing the broadcasting industry, the radio and the newspaper will be on a par in the matter of advertising privileges. The proposed rule provides that "no broadcaster or network, shall knowingly permit the broadcasting of any advertisement or information concerning any lottery, gift enterprise, or similar scheme, offering prizes dependent in whole or in part upon lot or chance, or any list of the prizes drawn or awarded by means of such lottery, gift enterprise or scheme, whether said list contains any part or all of such prizes." Thus, all chance schemes will be prohibited from the air as well as from all publications using the mails, and the result will be fair equality which none will fail to appreciate and approve.

EARLY RESIDENT OF WAYNE DIES

Mrs. Frank Northrop Passes Tuesday After Sudden Heart Attack.

Mrs. Frank Northrop of Portland, Ore., early resident of Wayne and sister of Mrs. H. S. Ringland of this place, died Tuesday morning, September 19, from a sudden heart attack. Mrs. Northrop had been failing in health for several years. Funeral services will be conducted in Portland.

Mrs. Northrop, whose maiden name was Miss Ida Ford, was aged 70 years and 5 months. The family came to Wayne in 1885 and lived here until 25 years ago when they went to the west coast. Mrs. Northrop was one of the earliest members of the Monday club of this place.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Northrop leaves seven children: Miss Helen Northrop of Portland, Miss Fred Wright of Los Angeles, Calif., Frank F. Northrop of Eugene, Ore., Harmon Northrop and Theron Northrop of Portland, Mrs. Harold Quigley of Ellensburg, Wash., and Cedric Northrop of Portland. She is also survived by three sisters and three brothers.

FIX CLASSES TO SUIT NUMBERS

English Placement Test Is Given And The Honor Students Named.

Unusually heavy enrollment in several classes at Wayne college has required sectioning, say Miss Clara Smothers, registrar. Foreign language and mathematics classes are larger than in former years, and music, art, sociology and physiology departments report heavy enrollment. Political Science I, taught by Dr. J. G. W. Lewis, has been sectioned and Dr. Myrick Sublette is in charge of the second class. Economics I, taught by Prof. O. R. Bowen, is also sectioned with Dr. Sublette in charge of one group. Several other departments report full class enrollment.

English composition, required of all freshmen, has enrollment of 360 and two additional sections have been created. Miss Olive Huse who has been on the college faculty the past two years, will teach these classes. Of the 360 freshmen, 101 are from Nebraska high school, and 27 come from high schools outside the state. Wayne (Continued on Page Three.)

DON LUTT HAS CHAMPION BEEF

DeForest Roggenbach Takes Reserve Champion Among Eightyone Head.

Don Lutt's baby beef was crowned grand champion of the Wayne county fair this year, and reigned over 81 choice calves in the 4-H competition. Don is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lutt of southeast of Wayne. Reserve champion was shown by DeForest Roggenbach of Altona, son of the R. F. Roggenbachs.

Representatives of the Interstate show at Sioux City were on the grounds during the fair and pronounced Wayne county's 4-H beeves of excellent quality, especially the 4-H records. They set Wayne's quota for the show at 31, which is largest of any county at the Sioux City trade territory, with exception of one county.

Junior Herefords. Winners in the junior Hereford class were as follows: Leland Herman, Wayne, first; Virgine Troutman, Winside, second; Raymond Walker, Hoskins, third; Marvin Muller, Wakefield, fourth; Theodore Nydahl, Winside, fifth.

Honors in the senior Hereford competition went to DeForest Roggenbach, Winsor, first; Donald Baird, Wayne, second; Donald Lutt, Wayne, third; John Ruhlrow, Hoskins, fourth; Gene Baird, Wayne, fifth.

Angus Class. The five awards in senior Angus class went to: DeForest Roggenbach, Winsor, first; Melvin Auker, Wayne, second; Verlon Troutman, Winside, third; Blaine Auker, Wayne, fourth; Francis Muller, Wakefield, fifth.

Senior Angus winners were: Don Lutt, Wayne, first; Arnold Hammer, Wakefield, second; Everett Newman, Hoskins, third; Harry Lutt, Wayne, fourth; James Troutman, Winside, fifth.

Shortorns. Honors in the junior Shortorn class went to: Melvin Stamm, Hoskins, first; Woodrow Anderson, Winside, second; Lucile Ruhlrow, Hoskins, third; Everett Newman, Hoskins, fourth; Albert Swihart, Hoskins, fifth.

Senior Shortorn premiums were distributed as follows: Irving Anderson, Hoskins, first; Lester Lutt, Wayne, second; Allen Spittgen, Winsor, third; Everett Newman, Winside, fourth; Donald Baird, Wayne, fifth.

Wayne Minister Enjoys Trip East. "Next to my wedding trip the reunion with my children in New York was the happiest trip I have ever taken," Rev. W. E. Braisted remarked after arriving home last Friday from the east.

Rev. Braisted left August 28 by bus for New York and spent two days enroute at the fair in Chicago. He liked the exhibition but thinks he walked 78 miles in two days. Continuing on to New York Rev. Braisted met his son, Rev. Paul J. Braisted, and wife, who have spent the past six years in India and Burma and who were accompanied by their three children. He also met another son, Wm. E. Braisted, jr., student at McGill university medical college in Montreal, and his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Palmer of Penn Yan, N. Y., who were married recently. Rev. Braisted had not seen his son-in-law or grandchildren before. Mrs. Paul Braisted's sister's home in Montclair, N. J., was turned over to the Braisted who spent several most enjoyable days together.

Rev. Braisted visited former charges at Red Bank, N. Y., and Oneida, N. Y. He also went to Rochester, Newark, Elmira, Hornell and Syracuse.

Conditions show a decided improvement in the east, Rev. Braisted found. Cars on highways are new, homes are painted and business streets look busy.

Constitution Is Kiwanis Subject

H. E. Siman Eulogizes Our National Constitution In Address Monday.

Tracing the development of our national constitution, and predicting its survival through the ages because of its elasticity, H. E. Siman delivered a stirring address before Kiwanis club Monday noon in observance of constitution week. The speaker defined our constitution as stating the "applications of internal principles of justice between man and man," and guaranteeing those principles of justice "which are the birthright of every American citizen."

This is the constitution under which we live today. When the principles of justice are determined, a government built upon them will last forever, said the speaker. The government may be subject to frequent and radical change, for such is unavoidable, but a constitution so constructed will allow for change. Our constitution is strong enough, big enough, elastic enough to last through these changes which are brought by the years, said Mr. Siman in closing.

President T. S. Hook was in the chair, and Prof. John R. Kiehl led group singing. Mr. Siman introduced his guest, Judge C. H. Stewart of Norfolk. F. S. Berry brought Don Mapes, Norfolk attorney, and W. I. Ellis introduced John Blezek of Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hahn and daughters of Randolph, were guests from Friday until Sunday in the Dr. T. B. Heckert, Dean H. H. Hahn and C. M. Craven homes here.

Crank Handle Is Cause Of Injury

Everett Helkes of Dakota City, had his upper and lower lips cut, and four teeth loosened Wednesday last week when a tractor crank handle struck him. He was cranking the tractor when it kicked and threw the crank. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Helkes spent Monday night at Dakota City with their son and found him improving.

Wayne High Grid Schedule Closed

Opening Game With Lyons On Home Field A Week From Next Friday.

With three weeks of preliminary practice behind them, Wayne high school pigskin-toters are really getting down to business. A lively scrimmage was the order for Monday evening, and Coach Robert Gibb used the following players in the first team: Milford Brown, r. c.; Raymond Sala, r. t.; Keith Cartwright, r. g.; Robert Cunningham, c.; Willis Pennhollow, l. g.; Melvin E. W. L.; Elwayne Fleetwood, l. e.; Vincent Swanson, q. b.; John Brugger, r. h. b.; Stanley Norton, l. h. b.; Wayne Bornhoff, f. b. This combination is working out in nice shape, according to the coach, and the line-up that will start against Lyons in the opening game, will include practically the same lads.

Schedule for the year is now complete, and includes: Lyons here, September 29; Laurel here, October 6; Hartington here, October 13; Bloomfield here, October 20; Oakland here, October 27; Walthill here, November 3; Wakefield here, Saturday, November 11; Randolph here, November 17; South Sioux City here, November 24.

Is Given Sentence On Second Offense

Wes Hansen pleaded guilty in county court Saturday to a charge of possession of liquor. As this was a second offense, Hansen was sentenced to serve 88 days in the county jail and to pay costs of $4.85. If he works for the county he will receive three cooked meals a day. Otherwise his ration will consist of one cooked meal and bread and water for the other two.

Think House Entered. When Mrs. A. R. Davis and Miss Kathryn Lou returned home Friday evening from the fair grounds they found a door ajar as though the place had been entered. They have missed nothing.

Miss Blanche Weaver went to Oakland Sunday to attend to business.

Wheat Producers Sign By Monday

All Contracts Much Reach Washington In December Liggett Says.

Wayne county wheat producers have until Monday, September 25, to file their applications for contracts to reduce acreage under the "Triple A" wheat plan, George H. Liggett announced today upon receipt of word from W. H. Brokaw, state wheat administrator and director of the agricultural college extension service.

Additional information received here also indicates that all wheat contracts must be in Washington by December 1. This will speed up the work of the county wheat association considerably.

Naming of a definite deadline for the signing of applications for contracts means that the entire "Triple A" program will be pushed ahead rapidly. Some producers who have been slow to sign up, believing no deadline would be set, now must get the applications in by September 25. After the county wheat association has organized, the allotment committee will go over the contracts and those meeting their approval will be sent directly to Washington.

No information regarding when the first benefit payment will reach Wayne county has been received locally but administrators in Nebraska say it will probably not be long after the first contracts are received in Washington.

Organize Teams For Kittenball

Wayne Junior High Lads Are Showing Keen Interest In New Tournament.

Lively competition has been developed among junior high school boys by introduction of a kittenball tournament by Coach Robert Gibb. Four teams, the Wolves, Panthers, Bears and Mustangs, are battling for the championship, and are entering into the tourney with a fervor which is worthy of their names. Coach Gibb states that probably no material award will be given, but possession of the championship is sufficient reward for the lads. John Brugger and Wayne Bornhoff are helping conduct the tournament.

The first round games started on Monday and Wolves and Bears battled to a 12-to-12 tie in five innings. This game will be finished later. The Mustangs are slated to win the competition by odds of 3 to 2.

Radio Program Brings Variety

Vocal And Instrumental Music Is Arranged For Broadcast.

Miss Ruby Hinnerichs played popular numbers on the accordion for last Thursday's radio broadcast from the Wayne Herald studio.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bard and sons visited at Orville Ericson's Friday evening. The writer picked lilac blossoms this week from a bush that bloomed profusely in the spring. We wonder if others have had a like experience. Jimmie and Helen Ericson spent Monday night in the Lawrence Ring home. Glen Lundahl, small son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lundahl, has been on the sick list. The Oscar Peterson family were dinner and supper Sunday guests Pavy Olson home. Donald and Helen Peterson were overnight guests Friday of Elces in the Paul Olson home. Jimmie Ericson tied for second place at the Wayne fair Saturday afternoon in the Shetland pony race. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ring and Merle called in the Wm. Victor home Sunday evening. The Carl Sievers family were dinner and supper guests Sunday in the John Grimm home. Our mail carrier is driving a new car, evidently co-operating in the Buy-in-September drive. Lawrence and Wallace Ring were in Sioux City on Tuesday when they purchased feeders. The Chas. Pierson family spent Sunday evening in Mr. Pierson's parental home north of Wayne. Mrs. Wesley Rubeck and Mrs. Russell Johnson were guests of Mrs. Chauncey Agler Monday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. August Longe were at Edgar Larson's Sunday evening and at Henry Nelson's Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sundell and the Albert Sundell family attended a family dinner Sunday in the Joe Ericson home. Mrs. Ed. Sandahl and Mrs. J. C. Bressler attended Mrs. Bert Fredrickson's birthday party Wednesday afternoon. Potato digging has been a chief occupation for many this week. Quality is excellent although the yield will not be so great. Mrs. Art Munson and Mrs. Dick Sandahl have been spending some time in town because of the illness of their mother, Mrs. Frank Nelson. Mrs. C. F. Sandahl, Mrs. Ray Agler, Mrs. Carl Sundell and Mrs. Edgar Larson attended LaPorte club with Mrs. Jeff Hale Wednesday afternoon. Great interest was shown in the airplane exhibition Sunday; in fact that seems to be the main topic of conversation among the youngsters this week. The Walter Herman family were in Sioux City Wednesday when LeLand had his prize winning junior Hereford at the stock show. The animals were sold Thursday. Ralph Ring was elected vice-president of the sophomore class and Forrest Sandahl, secretary-treasurer of the freshman class at Wayne high at their meetings last week. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bard and sons visited at Elmer Felt's Wednesday evening. Later they called at C. A. Bard's where Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hyspe and their guests were spending the evening. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hyspe and Margaret were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Munson Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson and Mrs. Ida Johnson were evening callers. Orville Ericson and Lawrence Ring assisted in entertaining the Lutheran brotherhood in the Lenus Ring home Monday evening. About fifty men were present, including a number from here. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Larson were in the Frank Larson home for Sunday dinner and supper. They and the Swan Lundahl family spent the evening with the E. W. Lundahls where Frank Hanson had spent the afternoon. Mrs. Lee Schwarm spent Wednesday night with her daughter at the college, leaving on Thursday to visit in Sioux City, before going to Worthington, Minn., for an extended visit. She had been a guest in the Wesley Rubeck home. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Chambers entertained all day Sunday, the Fred Lundberg family and Mrs. Lundberg's mother, Mrs. Griffith, all of Wausau. Elmer Lundberg, Mrs. Alberta Wilson and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sacrison and Mae. Mrs. A. O. Olson and Barbara, who were house guests in the Orville Ericson home, were supper guests in the C. F. Sandahl home and called at Dick Sandahl's Tuesday evening of last week. The Ericson family accompanied them. The visitors left for Lincoln Friday afternoon after visiting in the T. M. Gustafson and E. E. Hyspe homes over Thursday. Attendance at the fair kept our folks busy the last days of the week. Prizes taken in calf, pig and sewing clubs as well as individual exhibits were too numerous to mention, one of our ladies winning eighteen premiums. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ring and Gordon Nuernberger were in Sioux City Thursday. The latter has completed his summer's work on the Ring farm and is with his parents for the present.

COAL!

Bernice hard is the coal which has given our many customers the greatest of comfort. It has lots of heat, few ashes and holds fire for extreme lengths of time without attention. Bernice coal comes in base burner and furnace sizes.

qualities and extra preparation given it to insure clean, even sized chunks.

Our soft coals are the best on the market and we are carrying a choice line of these.

For school coal we have the best, Pinnacle lump is a free burner, giving honest value in plenty of heat.

Lincoln briquetts are semi-anthracite — especially adapted to small heaters and furnaces and have many discerning customers.

We carry the best Colorado and Pennsylvania hard coals.

Our coal prices have all been adjusted to the present code of merchandising. With an effort to give the best service to the greatest number of people, coal merchants have agreed to lower prices to a cash on delivery basis. We hope this plan will meet with our customers' approval and we are asking for your friendly co-operation.

Patience Essential
 THE traditional backbone of this country will finally lead it out of the depression and restore normal functioning. Forbearance is required. The blood of courageous antecedents still runs in the veins of the present generation.
 To cure disorders some experiments have been and will be tried. Success of all of them is doubtful. Success of any of them may be only partial. But no one has the wisdom to try the right thing all ways.

Some manifest inconsistencies have crept in—crop reduction on the one hand and means for increased production on the other. The fact that commodity prices have gone up while farm prices are still down has led the administration to move in the direction of retail price control. The disparity between prices paid for things the farmer has to sell and the things he has to buy was certain to retard trade activities, and this is the barrier which Washington authorities hope to remove. But the way to keep retail prices at a fair level is to regulate the source—the manufacturer. The retailer who is fully cognizant of conditions, would be glad to accept less for his merchandise. The manufacturer and wholesaler jack up prices, and then pass on the responsibility to the retailer who with the farmer's buying power trailing low, is placed in an uncomfortable predicament. Inflation or deflation of the currency is now proposed as a help, and this is believed a way to raise farm prices and ease the course of paying obligations. Let us hope so.

Hurting The Profession
 PRESIDENT Martin of the American Bar association, excoriated shyster lawyers in his address to that body recently, and urged a nation-wide crusade against such unworthy practitioners. The Jackson, Miss., Daily News took President Martin's suggestions as the basis for an editorial, winding up with these paragraphs: "The trouble with bar associations is that the incompetent and crooked lawyers are recognized as a serious problem in theory, but are ignored in practice. National and state associations will get together and acknowledge that their profession has its black sheep. They even know that a license to practice law is a most valuable weapon in the possession of an unscrupulous person; that he can do more damage as a lawyer than he could hope to inflict on the public as a mere citizen."
 "The place to start cleaning up the profession is at home and not in Chicago, Indianapolis, New York, Podunk or other communities. The task would be a disagreeable one, but it should be performed. If President Martin can impress his associates, as he has tried to do, that every decent lawyer in a community suffers from the dishonesty of a few, he may get something started. Lawyers who have remained indifferent to the public's suffering at the hands of dishonest attorneys may bestir themselves when they recognize they are acting in self-defense."

Democrats Out For Congress
 DEMOCRATS are already getting lined up for next year's congressional campaign. Hugo F. Srb of Dodge, has filed as a candidate. He was

The Country's Hope.
 Omaha Journal-Stockman: So much is heard of the distressful condition of farmers that the impression is created that all farmers are bankrupt and the only hope of the nation is in the relief measures proposed by the politicians. A glance at the other side of the picture creates an entirely different and more hopeful view.
 "The entirely forgotten man," declares the Federal Land Bank of Louisville, Ky., "is the farmer who lives on and operates the land which he owns and who, through industry and good management, has kept his debts and taxes paid."
 "Contrary to emphatic misstatements which are too generally accepted as facts, such farmers are very much in the majority. But it is a silent majority which is busy at work, battling against extremely adverse conditions, with grim determination to keep on top in the struggle."
 "Active farmers, in 1928, actually owned over 330 million dollars of farm mortgages—3.6 per cent of the total. Retired farmers owned more than 1,000 million dollars of farm mortgages—10.6 per cent of the total."
 "But the astounding fact, which the vociferously uninformed persist in ignoring, is that the United States Census taken in 1930 found that only 42 per cent of all the owner-operated farms had mortgages against them."
 "Stated in the reverse, 58 in each 100 farms which were operated by the men and women who owned them were clear of mortgage. At the end of January, 1933, 64 per cent of the 42,384 farm loans owned by the Federal Land Bank of Louisville were in good standing, with all sums due on them paid in full."
 "It seems reasonable to assume at one time a student in the Wayne State Teachers College, later taking a law course and now practicing his profession. He has served two terms in the state senate, and his friends believe he is of sufficient caliber to represent the Third district in congress. The present incumbent, Congressman Howard, has not made his intentions definite. He is considered well entrenched, but whether he decides to run again or not, democrats seem disposed not to wait for him to announce his retirement. It has been reported that J. P. O'Furey of Hartington, who floated into the state senate with the democratic tidal-wave a year ago, is a likely candidate for Congressman Howard's shoes. Other aspiring democrats have been mentioned, and before the filing date closes next summer, an imposing galaxy of democrats out for the nomination is probable. The big democratic victory last November inspires democratic confidence, but the continued security of this line of reasoning will depend on the way present and coming governmental experiments serve the public. For the time-being democrats with political bees buzzing in their bonnets feel completely and happily ensconced with a nomination equivalent to an election.

Certain events in a newspaper circle some months ago at Carroll led to the development of two newspaper circles and to two newspapers struggling where one struggled before. The Carroll News from which Nick Warth was detached some months ago by the owner, H. J. Whitacre, explains the trouble at considerable length in last week's edition. This explanation followed a suit in the district court in which Whitacre defeated the contentions of Warth. After Warth had been separated from the News, that newspaper passed into the hands of F. W. Ramaekers, and then Warth started another newspaper. Ramaekers has quietly attended to his own business without burning any red fire, with faithful service to the community a guiding influence—a fact which Carroll will doubtless appreciate in substantial fashion.

Mark Sullivan, Washington correspondent, warns the public not to get expectations over the powers of the NRA pitched higher than possibilities of accomplishment, because of the likelihood of later being painfully disillusioned. Sullivan points out that the NRA has gone beyond the original purpose to cure child labor abuses and to remedy faulty conditions in some industries. He deems it prudent to "provide the public with information tending to temper too elevated and excited zeal." As to this neighborhood, up to this time, expectations have not been lifted so high, as we judge, that any alarm over consequences of a slip is warranted.

Wayne was considered a good town before it was paved and before it had numerous other public and private improvements. With its substantial headway in the past ten years, it is a better town now. Soon a new municipal community house involving an investment of $40,000 will be under construction. Such forward steps will doubtless encourage private capital to loosen up and launch long contemplated building improvements.

The Herald has a combined newspaper and radio service that should be turned to advantage by anyone who has anything to sell or any public message to convey. The Herald's annual circulation audit—just finished for another year—shows complete coverage which anyone interested is invited to inspect. The morning broadcast reaches far in every direction and is a powerful aid to detailed newspaper advertisements.

The hog market ascended to an encouraging level this week. When the price dropped to $6 a few years ago, we commenced to kick. Now if it will go up to that figure we will quit kicking.

STIMULATING.
 Attendance at fairs and other attractions shows that people are determined not to keep their noses on grindstones and brood over economic conditions that are still unsatisfactory. It is unhealthy to pinch one's mind into a narrow groove and keep it there from day to day and from week to week, and think only of obstacles which appear more and more baffling. An incessant drive without periods of recreation, without friendly associations dulle the wits and depresses the spirits. People need an exchange of ideas, an understanding of one another's experiences and observations to lighten burdens and to help solution of daily problems. Too much sticking to one's task may be prolonged to one's injury quite as much as the other extreme of shiftless disregard. It speaks well for the courage and faith of people to be able to take attention away from accustomed toils and share it with diversified interests and different perspectives. The other fellow's experience and counsel are valuable contributions to hope and courage.

 "I don't know of any such alarm clock as that, madam," said the shopkeeper. "We keep just the ordinary kind that will wake the whole family without disturbing father." —Wheeler's Magazine.

TERRORS TO YOUTH.
 The Sioux City Journal suggests that the time may come when child psychology will be a necessary study for prospective parents. The habit of terrorizing sensitive children and perhaps permanently injuring them is often followed, in the name of discipline. Sometimes a wilful child persisting in the wrong direction, requires vigorously applied restraint, but often a parent does not fully sense a child's feelings and so exacts performance that does more harm than good. A parent must understand a child's immature nature, which recoils at a requirement which means little or nothing to a seasoned elder. An 8-year-old boy's attempt to kill himself rather than take a dose of castor oil inspired the Journal to offer comment. "That newspaper concludes: 'Fathers and mothers who vividly can recall their own childhood may remember some of the horrors they knew as little folk. They are better able to sympathize with the protests of their youngsters. The child is better off without spinach if it must be forced down its throat. It were better to let the loose tooth wig-wag itself completely out of the gum than to pull it when the operation fills the child with terror. The persuasion of an attractive bargain between parent and child is the safer way out for both.'"

Good Samaritan Hospital.
 A 7-pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Grone Saturday, September 16.
 Mrs. Roger Buchanan and infant daughter of Randolph, were dismissed Sunday.
 Mrs. S. G. Pierce and infant were dismissed last Friday.

More Pigs Will Be Bought In Plan
 An associated press dispatch quoting A. G. Black, advises that the government will buy 1,922,000 pigs above the 4,000,000 originally set. This addition in number of pigs is intended to offset the small number of sows sold.
 Instructions received advise that only drought areas in Nebraska and the Dakotas are eligible to sell on this additional number. The committee is now issuing permits on this basis and permits will be granted in the order in which requests are already filed. No requests not now on file can be considered unless present applications fail to fill the quota. Those who have not filed requests with their commission firms should do so because there may still be a chance for them to get in.
 The quota of 40,000 pigs allotted Sioux City on Sept. 12 was not reached that week, only 30,000 pigs of the 40,000 being delivered. This means that about 10,000 can be added to the 74,000 pigs allotted Sioux City to be bought between Sept. 18 and Sept. 29, or a total of 84,000 pigs to be bought in Sioux City during that time.
 The final date for selling pig or piggy sows on the emergency hog program is Sept. 29. So if you are in a drought area and have any pigs or piggy sows which you want to sell for the bonus you must get them in on or before Sept. 29.

New Stratton Chef Has Unique Record
 M. C. Johnson who came to the Stratton hotel as chef last week, should be called a master chef, judging from his history. For seven years he presided over the ranges at the Morrison hotel in Chicago, with title of assistant chef, and for four years was chef at the Androy hotel at Hibbing, Minn. Mr. Johnson is an ex-service man, and was in charge of cooking at the Brooklyn navy yards for a year during the war. He specializes in banquets, luncheons and afternoon parties, and is baking all pastries and rolls served at the hotel. Mr. Johnson's family is now in Detroit, Mich., and will join him later.

Rates Are Stated At Board Meeting
 State normal board, at its recent meeting in Chadron, offered to gas companies contract on a basis of a flat rate of 24 cents per 1,000 cubic feet with a maximum of $9,500 for heating Wayne and Kearney schools for one year. Free equipment for heating the boiler room at Wayne was to be installed.
 The board offered the city of Wayne 2-1-2 cents per kilowatt for electricity it uses, but reserves the right to make its own current.

Are Called Home By Father's Death
 Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Emery who went to Chicago last week, were called to Omaha Sunday by word that the former's father, William A. Emery, died that day. The senior Mr. Emery was 76 years old. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday morning at Greeley, Neb., and Dr. and Mrs. Emery returned to Wayne from Greeley Tuesday evening.

Market For Home Bonds.
 Home loan bonds were quoted in Omaha paper last week for the first time, thus establishing an open market for their sale. Opening quotation was 92 1/2 percent. In order to get loans shifted to the government, J. E. Brittain explains the man holding the mortgage must be persuaded to take the government's bonds. With only a discount of $7.50 on $100, it will be cheaper for the holder to accept bonds than to foreclose on the property.

Birth Record.
 A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gulliver of Ames, Ia., Sunday evening, September 17. Mrs. Gulliver is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Jacques and Mr. Gulliver is a son of Prof. and Mrs. A. F. Gulliver of Wayne. The baby weighed 9 pounds and has been named Esther Lorraine.

Corn Out of Danger.
 Lincoln, Sept. 14—The Lincoln weather man reported today that corn is ripening satisfactorily and rather rapidly and much of the crop in Nebraska will be out of danger of moderate frosts within two weeks.
 "Since the coming of rains and more moderate weather there has been a great improvement in the condition of late corn, especially in some southwestern areas of the state where much that was thought of little value now promises considerable yields," the weekly report said.
 "Soil condition is good throughout the state except in a few localities. Plowing has made good progress. It is too dry for plowing in Valley county and corn deteriorated there during the last week. Pastures and late feed crops are generally doing well. Fruit harvest is beginning in Nemaha county."

Alton.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lehmkuhl and family visited the first-named's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Boje, at Pierce Sunday.
 Miss Geneva Ertzler of Stanton, visited at the C. J. Erskelen home Saturday evening.
 The Phil Damms attended missionfest at Pilger Sunday and then called on the Carl Spittgerbers in the afternoon. Mrs. Damme is Mr. Spittgerber's sister.
 Mr. and Mrs. Valerius Nau left for Chicago Wednesday, making the trip by auto and expecting to be gone about a week. Elsie Nau remained with the Ed. Hogenbachs.
 Miss Dorothy Keese of Sioux City, came Thursday to visit the E. W. Lehmkuhls. She will remain until Monday.

White Cake.
 (By Mrs. R. J. Kingston)
 1-2 cup butter
 1-1/2 cups sugar
 Whites 6 eggs
 1 cup water
 2-1/2 cups pastry flour
 2 heaping teaspoons baking powder
 Cream butter, add sugar gradually and beat until fluffy. Sift flour and baking powder together. Beat egg whites until fluffy. To the creamed butter and sugar add water, flour and baking powder. Beat mixture until smooth. Flavor and fold in egg whites. Bake.

Cheese.
 (Mrs. W. F. Schroeder, Wayne.)
 3 gallons sour separated milk, clabber stage.
 1/2 tablespoon soda
 1/2 cup butter
 1 1/2 cups sour cream
 1 tablespoon salt
 1 teaspoon butter coloring, if desired.
 Heat milk to 115 degrees or until you can just bear to put your hand into it. Set back on stove and keep hot for 30 minutes.
 Drain through cloth and squeeze all the whey out. Then mix with soda and melted butter and let stand 2 hours. Mix 1 cup sour cream and melt in a flat kettle which is placed in a larger pan of hot water. Keep water boiling and stir mixture until free from lumps.
 Then add 1/2 cup sour cream into which the coloring has been stirred. Add salt and stir until coloring is even. Pour into buttered bowl, cover and allow to ripen for 5 days. If not used at end of 5 days, cover with paraffin.

 11:00 a. m. The worship hour. Real inspirations in song and fellowship with vital message: "Spiritual Depression and Recovery." You'll like this practical message.
 7:00 p. m. The young people's hour. Fellowship, discussion, prayer, really learning to live finely and well, and helping one another. All young people gladly welcomed always.
 8:00 p. m. The glad hour. It is always that when we unite to make it so in song worship with a living message. Tonight begins a series on "Jesus and The Mountains." Special tonight: "Jesus and The Mount of Prayer." You'll like these messages. Try to get them all.
 Special. After one of the very finest trips the pastor has ever known and experienced in the west, he is glad to come again to Wayne where businessmen and all have been so mighty kind and cordial, and is eagerly ready to share his best and all with any heart or spirit that may welcome love, fellowship, prayer. A phone will be in the church study in a day or two and number duly given.

Methodist Episcopal Church.
 (Rev. Harold Caspey, pastor)
 Special harvest festival services are to be held next Sunday. In the morning at 11 the pastor will preach on the subject "The Harps of God" and in the evening at 8 the theme will be "The Battle of the Barns." There will be special music at these services and the church will be decorated with gifts of fruit, vegetables and other produce. These gifts should be brought to the church by 7 Saturday evening. The committee asks that every member and friend of the church give something. Those who do not have gardens or farms may send canned goods or other foods or useful articles. The business men are invited to contribute from their stocks.
 Monday evening the harvest social and sale will be held beginning at 7:30 with a program of music by the Wayne municipal band led by Prof. F. C. Reed. The gifts used for decoration of the church Sunday and any other articles brought in will be sold by auction and a light lunch at a small charge will be served by the ladies. Plan to attend this social. Everybody is invited and admission is free.
 Thursday this week the Woman's Foreign Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. C. L. Pickett. Mrs. Grace Lutgen is in charge of the lesson. Next Thursday the Ladies' Aid society will meet.
 The pastor returns from the annual conference for another year of service with this church. We can all work together to make it one of the best in the history of the church in Wayne.

Presbyterian Church.
 (Rev. P. A. Davies, pastor)
 Services for next Sunday are as follows: Sunday school, 10 a. m.; rally day program by the Sunday school, 10:30 a. m.; C. E. services at 7 p. m. The college C. E. group will meet.

are making plans for a supper and business meeting next Sunday. An urgent invitation is extended to our college students to attend these worthwhile services from Sunday to Sunday. A large group heard Mr. Best last Sunday in his able talk upon the subject, "World Peace."
 The ladies of the church wish to thank all who helped to make their serving at the fair a success.
 A large congregation heard Dr. Dickey of Norfolk last Sunday morning. The pastor deeply appreciates the assistance the brethren are giving. Arlington Prince of Winside, sang for us at the morning service. His solo was greatly enjoyed.
 William Kuhn has kindly consented to take charge of the Bible class formerly taught by the pastor. We are confident that under his leadership the class will grow in numbers and interest. If you have not been attending will you not start on rally day which is next Sunday?
 We are always happy to welcome college students to all of our services. Two classes in our Sunday school have been organized for these young people. Mr. Hook has charge of the young men and Mrs. Davies, the young women.
 The offering at the rally day service next Sunday morning will go to the Board of Christian Education. Let us be generous with our gifts.
 In the absence of the pastor from Presbytery at Randolph this week and from synod at Fremont next week, Rev. Turner of Wakefield will take charge of his reports at these services.

Former Teacher Here Impressed With Europe

A tour of six European countries was the interesting summer's experience of Miss Glennie Bacon of Laramie, Wyo. Miss Bacon, teacher in Wayne city schools for several years, was here last Friday and left Saturday from her home at Randolph for Laramie to resume her teaching in the university. On one of the Stratford tours, Miss Bacon joined a party of 10, left July 1 for Europe and arrived home August 28. She went to France, Switzerland, Italy, Austria, Germany, Holland and England, being shown especially the points of historical interest such as art galleries, museums, palaces and cathedrals. The travelers spent a week in Paris and about 14 days on the ocean, and they visited 39 large cities. The boat trip was made on the Holland-American line and tours about the countries on buses. Ships carried about half capacity this summer. Miss Bacon reports there were 800 on the steamer bound for Europe and 500 on the return. The party traveled in the tourist group, or second class, and found accommodations and food excellent. The only difference between first and tourist class is that people are less formal in the latter. For instance, it is customary on first class to dress in evening gowns for dinner. Travel this summer was so light on the ocean that the steamship companies report they are not making expenses, Miss Bacon learned. All who are traveling are going to Europe. The Europeans seem not to be on the go. Miss Bacon found the people traveling very friendly and enjoyed visits with many. She met a sister of Carl Nicholson of Wayne, who was enroute to Europe from Chicago on the same boat. American scenery is just as grand as any in Europe, Miss Bacon found. The only difference is that America is young and things are new, while in Europe ancient structures are valued especially highly and they give historical background which is lacking in this country, especially in the west. These old things do keep the cities from looking so well kept as American places, but one becomes fond of the historical setting, Miss Bacon found. The Alps, the lakes of Switzerland and other natural beauties of the countries are wonderful. The German, Swiss and English people, the travelers found, are most friendly. Perhaps it is because we associate with these groups more here, Miss Bacon thought. In France and Italy one felt less at home. Miss Bacon liked the German food especially well. Europeans spend lots of time eating and visiting. Miss Bacon found in Paris, for instance, in the cafes which are along the sidewalks one finds people staying for hours. Some are in groups and others alone. They eat and drink. Often they sit for hours without talking or smiling. Miss Bacon found the French very quiet and sober. Quite the opposite in Germany. There she found everyone happy. Miss Bacon mentioned visiting a Heidelberg garden where she found young people singing, visiting and having a wonderful time. It seems customary in Europe not to serve drinks with meals. Often one is not even served water with his food. The object is to get one to buy wines and other drinks. Miss Bacon found that in France and Italy meals usually consist of three meat courses and no dessert. The meats are much the same as in this country, and cheese is often served as conclusion of the meals. The travelers missed the pastries and other desserts so common in this country. Butter is not served with a meal excepting breakfast and then it is a variety without salt. One reason butter and milk are not common in Paris and other places is that there are no ice boxes or other refrigeration systems in use. Some horse meat is sold in European countries, Miss Bacon reports. Any market selling this meat must have the head of a horse outside. Besides the lack of refrigeration, Miss Bacon noted another contrast between Europe and this country. Radios are very uncommon there. Just why, Miss Bacon did not learn. Paris didn't appear to the tourists to be the gay city one so often imagines. Many of the buildings are of black stone and the highest are eight stories. Streets are very narrow and winding. "One has no trouble finding English-speaking people in European countries, Miss Bacon found. Stores have clerks trained in English and they are very accommodating about showing the travelers around. In cafes one usually finds the waiters talk English. If not they bring food to one and let him choose. With the United States off the gold standard the travelers found costs higher abroad this year. Miss Bacon estimated that it cost this year about $10 for what one could usually get for $6. The thrill of actually being in the coliseum at Rome, in the Shakespearean country of England and the great cathedral was one that gives a new background to life. Usual Detour. And anything you tell a woman goes in one ear and over the back fence.—Judge.

WAYNE SCHOOL ELECTIONS HELD

High School Classes Are Organized And The New Officers Chosen.

Class elections were held Wednesday last week in the Wayne high school. In the freshman class of which Miss Mildred Clark is sponsor, Burdette Hansen is president, James Ahern, vice president, Forest Sandahl, secretary-treasurer, and Robert Merchant is student council representative. Robert Gibb is the sponsor for the sophomore class with Zaida Gifford as president, Ralph Ring as vice president, Douglas Canning, secretary-treasurer and Geraldine Gamble, student council representative. In the junior class, Leonard F. Good is the sponsor, Lindley Keeney is the president, Barbara Claycomb, vice president, Maragaret Jones, secretary-treasurer, and Robert Cunningham is student council representative. Gayle Childs is the sponsor for the senior class with Raymond Sala as president, John Brugger as vice president, Louise Heidenreich as secretary-treasurer and June Gail Jones as the student council representative. The high school and upper grades started school at 8 both Thursday and Friday mornings and then let out at 12:30 so that the students could attend the fair. Marlon Becker entered the high school the past week. Peggy Straban and Ruth Judson have been on the sick list the past week. Work on the state question, "Resolved: That the federal government should enact legislation providing for the regulation and control of radio similar to the system of Great Britain," has been started in Elmer Mortensen's debate class. The instructor believes this to be an excellent subject for work, since it touches everybody, and has been adopted by schools throughout the northwest and is the official state question. Debate material is mostly new as most of last year's team was graduated, but new recruits are showing up well. Junior class in American history, taught by Mr. Mortensen, is doing map work on the early explorations of America, and ancient history class is studying the early stone age. J. M. Lockard had an interesting project in the eighth grade when Mildred Ringer had charge of a microscopic experiment with bacteria. In the sixth grade English class Miss Helen Kellogg has had students working on the projects in making of airplanes and magazines. Miss Kellogg has also given posture examinations for the girls' athletic club which will be organized this week. Miss Maude Curley has started the project of taxation in the eighth grade arithmetic class. Students are discussing how the new community hall of Wayne will be paid for by taxation. Lower Grade Affairs. Fifth graders have been studying how the new government got started after our American revolution in history period, and in geography, are talking about the different ways of earning a living. Fourth graders had a test on 100 oral addition combinations last week and five out of the class had perfect score, and eight were between 95 and 99 percent. Two pupils entered late last week, Violet Reibold and Jane Beckner of Wayne. Miss Hazel Reeve is teaching music to both her own third graders and to second graders. One new pupil, Junior Beckner of Wayne, has entered third grade. For the lesson on a trip to a China shop, Jean Germer drew an attractive China closet on the board. In connection with the transportation project, Norman Ray Reynolds brought an electric train to school. In the second grade Miss Ruth Ross has started a community project. The grade has made a list of the business houses in the town and the public buildings. The children have also drawn pictures of the buildings and studied their value to the community. Miss Colla Fortes, reports that there was perfect attendance among the 24 first graders last week. In the kindergarten Floyd Kingston brought a large butterfly to school which will be kept as a pet the same as the turtle which is such a favorite. Constitution week is being observed with special emphasis on this document. Miss Leona Westover is dramatics sponsor. She also has charge of the school paper which will be produced in the commercial department. Elmer Mortensen is pep club sponsor. Return From Fair. John Austin and Henry Reynolds returned last Thursday from Chicago where they went to the fair. The former went to Lincoln Sunday to enter the university.

Secretary Explains Uses Of Wheat Land

The Triplo-A Wheat plan has brought about much discussion as to what may be done with the contracted acreage taken out of production, and G. H. Liggett, in charge of the work in this county, quotes Secretary of Agriculture Wallace as follows: The first choice, of course, is to permit the ground to lie idle where it can be done without serious loss due to soil erosion. In this case noxious weeds should be controlled by mowing before the seed develops. Along this same line it is permissible to practice summer fallowing, if the farmer so desires. A third choice is to plant the contracted acreage to permanent pasture and a wide choice of allowed seeds is given under this ruling. Land that is planted to permanent pasture is not eligible as contracted acreage during the second year when it is used for pasture and other acres must be chosen and used in such a manner as to conform with the terms of the contract. This acreage retired from wheat production may also be planted to a hay crop and the same ruling applies as to the pasture crop, namely that new acreage must be chosen the second year when the hay crop will be harvested on that acreage taken out the first year. The land taken out of production may also be used for weed control, either by a system of cultivation, by chemical treatment, or by other effective methods, but it is our present understanding that these areas must be of a sufficient size to facilitate inspection. If a farmer wishes to plant forest trees for a windbreak or for other farm uses such use of contracted acreage complies with the terms of the contract. Contracted acres may be planted to soil improvement crops to be plowed under. Any of the legumes or other cover and green-manuring crops may be employed for this purpose according to their adaptation. If a farmer shall shift food crops grown for home consumption or shift feed crops grown for the production of live stock, or livestock products for home consumption from land now in use for this purpose to the contracted acreage, he will be releasing other lands on the farm for the planting of crop or sale or for food for the production of livestock or of livestock products for sale, and it shall be deemed a violation of his contract. The contracted acreage for 1934 and 1935 shall not be used to feed or to produce feed for dairy cattle, beef cattle, hogs, sheep, or poultry kept for sale or kept for the sale of their products. Summing this all up, the secretary feels that farmers are being paid a good return on their land taken out of production, and the farmer will not be allowed to derive any further income in any way from the contracted acreage.

Will Go To Africa Early In October

Miss Laura Thompson of Omaha, who leaves soon for Africa, came here Monday and went to Concord that afternoon to speak at the Free Mission church. She was a guest of Mrs. L. W. Kratay, and the latter, also Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Young, went to Concord with her. Miss Thompson was here at Kratay's until Tuesday when she returned to Omaha. She leaves next Saturday for New York and sails from there October 4 with about 20 other missionaries for mission fields in east Africa. The Westons, who have been in Wayne, are among the group going to Africa.

Spilling the Beans.

A man was a witness in a hog-stealing case. He seemed to be stretching a point or two in favor of the accused, and the prosecuting attorney roared. "Do you know the nature of an oath?" "Sure." "Do you know you are not to bear false witness against your neighbor?" "I'm not bearin' false witness agin him, I'm bearin' false witness for him."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

National Contest To Be In West Point

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 14—Champion cornhuskers from nine cornbelt states will fight for the national cornhusking championship in Cumming county Nebraska, on Thursday, Nov. 9. After scouring the entire state and watching the development of the corn crop in a number of localities, representatives of The Nebraska Farmer, who will have the national contest in charge this year, have decided to locate the contest on one of the several farms they have had under observation in Cumming county. Cumming county is located in the heart of the corn growing region of Nebraska. The contest field will be in the neighborhood of West Point. Henry W. Biedermann is making final inspection of several fields this week and it is expected that the farm will be selected soon. This will be the tenth annual national contest and the second time it will have been held in Nebraska. Nine states including Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota, Minnesota, Missouri, Kansas, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio will have two entries each making a total of eighteen huskers in the field. Carl Soller of Illinois now holds the national husking championship with a record of 38.9 bushels husked in the allotted 80 minutes in the contest in Henry county, Illinois, last year. Local arrangements will be in charge of Clay Westcott, Cumming county agricultural agent, and the Cumming County Farm Bureau assisted by the West Point Chamber of Commerce. Several excellent fields are being offered by farmers in Cumming county, it is announced and it is expected that cornhusking fans will see some fast husking on November 9. As usual the National Broadcasting Company will broadcast an "ear by ear" account of the event over their national broadcasting chain. Dates for county and state contests in the nine states at which the state champions will be selected will be set soon. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perry of Norfolk, visited from Wednesday until Friday last week with their son, Dr. L. F. Perry, and family.

Lower Grade Affairs.

Fifth graders have been studying how the new government got started after our American revolution in history period, and in geography, are talking about the different ways of earning a living. Fourth graders had a test on 100 oral addition combinations last week and five out of the class had perfect score, and eight were between 95 and 99 percent. Two pupils entered late last week, Violet Reibold and Jane Beckner of Wayne. Miss Hazel Reeve is teaching music to both her own third graders and to second graders. One new pupil, Junior Beckner of Wayne, has entered third grade. For the lesson on a trip to a China shop, Jean Germer drew an attractive China closet on the board. In connection with the transportation project, Norman Ray Reynolds brought an electric train to school. In the second grade Miss Ruth Ross has started a community project. The grade has made a list of the business houses in the town and the public buildings. The children have also drawn pictures of the buildings and studied their value to the community. Miss Colla Fortes, reports that there was perfect attendance among the 24 first graders last week. In the kindergarten Floyd Kingston brought a large butterfly to school which will be kept as a pet the same as the turtle which is such a favorite. Constitution week is being observed with special emphasis on this document. Miss Leona Westover is dramatics sponsor. She also has charge of the school paper which will be produced in the commercial department. Elmer Mortensen is pep club sponsor.

Exhibits At Wayne County Fair Present Many Things Of Interest

I went to the Wayne county fair. All the folks for miles around were there. I saw the baby beaves. And the corn, and the sheaves. And I called it a gold-darned good fair.

Watching the others as they circle through the air to accompanying screams and laughter. Rare is the lad who can resist rocking a ferris wheel chair, particularly if it holds one or more excited girls.

Not a small part of the success of Wayne's fair is due to the farm and garden and home products brought for exhibition, and displayed in the various buildings set aside for each group.

The agricultural hall greets you with mingled odors of drying grains, autumn vegetables and baked goods. You'll find the women folks here—examining the needlework with practiced eyes, and admiring the triumphs of kitchen art in the foils section.

Down machinery row, with washing machines whirling industriously in anticipation of future attacks on piles of clothing.

The 4-H corn club boys made their initial entry this year with a large horn of plenty overflowing with hundreds of ears of golden corn.

Those cacklings, crows and quackings can mean but one thing—the fowl exhibit. A better balanced display than usual, says superintendent, and more ducks, geese, rabbits and turkeys than in former years.

This is the home of the plump pumpkins, the rough-skinned squashes, the smooth yellow carrots, waxy green and yellow peppers in Christmas vividness.

Near the fowl exhibit, several sturdy-looking brooder houses—along a bit, a casket exhibit with accompanying soft music.

Note the "specials" near the center doorway—a weeping willow of great height which droops its greenery over the aisle.

In front of the rural school building, a concessioner demonstrates how to make nebbey rag rugs with the skillful punch of a needle. The women-folks gather and are reminded of piles of carpet rags tucked away in neat balls.

Have you seen the large cucumber mysteriously encased in a narrow-necked bottle? Mrs. John Kuy of Wayne, put a small cucumber in the bottle, filled it with vinegar solution and watched it grow to full size, picking itself while still on the vine.

The school exhibit is a bit larger than usual, says County Superintendent Pearl Sewell, and every district in the county is represented. The walls are covered with every available inch of space is given over to display.

From hot, sandy Texas soil to the rich black loam of Nebraska came the black-eyed peas and okra exhibited by Mrs. J. R. Reynolds of Wayne. And they've really thrived in this alien soil, too.

"Picture for a nickel? Have a souvenir of the fair?" "Take a chance of the doll baby?" "Sure, the little fellow wants a balloon—don't you, sonny?"

The fruit exhibit is small, testing to the fact that Wayne county is not primarily a fruit country. Apples and a few pears complete it.

complete it. The buffalo head nearby was found by George A. Martens in a creek northeast of Wayne.

Variety is the key-note of the fine arts exhibit, and many novel and artistic pieces included. William Denkinger of Wayne, stuffed and mounted the two hawks and pheasant which were cause of considerable comment.

Quaintness and modern severity are combined in the wool flowers which grow in Christmas-tree decor, in a small pot and in a large flat piece.

Very precious to Mrs. John Hufford is the china-faced doll which she displayed this year, for it came into her possession just 56 years ago, and was recipient of all her small-girl affection.

Nothing is missing, not even the soap and hot water bag, in the miniature hospital scene constructed by Miss Sophie Wieland of Wayne.

Among the generous exhibitors are Mrs. B. E. Trump of Plainview, formerly Miss Mabel Hansen of Wayne, who brought considerable art work.

know, call it a mighty good collection of beaves.

Walter and William, known as the Huffman brothers, brought seven excellent Herefords for the cat show, and they're well worth seeing if you're a judge of cow flesh.

The horse exhibit shaped up fully as well as last year, according to the superintendent, and the Belgians are of special interest.

The sheep department is never large, but it has its devotees among spectators. The plaintive ba-a-a of the nervous animals mingles with the harsh grunts of their retund neighbors.

Some fine animals in the cattle barns—note the well-fed and well-kept look of the dairy cattle. The men folks park here for hours at a time, appraising the various breeds and "swapping yarns."
