Wayne Team Plays Kansas Wesleyan

In a football game more interesting to watch than the score would indicate the Wayne State Teachers Wildcats were defeated by the Kansas Wesleyan Coyotes at Salina, Kan., Saturday evening. The final tally showed Wayne on the short end of a 27 to 7 county. The Nebraskans outplayed the Kansas team in the first quarter only to see the Methodists count three touchdowns during the second quarter. The first marker came as a result of a 35-yard run by a Kansas back.

As the last quarter began, Wayne was on Wesleyan's 18-yard line from where Retzlaff, Wayne half-back, took the ball across the goal on an end run. He also made the extra point.

Retzlaff showed up well for Wayne in the backfield while on the line Henkel, Brenn, Lamson and Cunningham were especially useful in aiding the Wayne cause.

Wayne will play Morningside at homecoming games Saturday, October 31.

On The Eve Of Election
 THE Saturday Evening Post devotes the editorial page of its current number to summing up issues involved in the presidential campaign and emphasizing the frantic endeavors of the New Deal to sugar-coat the public into forgetting broken promises and believing new ones. "Today there is only a weak economic check on politics," says the Post, "and four more years of the present political rule will leave business with a bad case of arthritis."

The Post goes on to say: "A democracy cannot live without a balanced check on economics and politics. It cannot survive a government by, and for politicians, or by, of and for big business. Today the former is the overshadowing threat, and we are facing government by, of and for politicians. Government in business simply means politicians running agriculture, mining, manufacturing and distribution, and no business, no matter how honest and efficient, is strong enough to add politicians and bureaucrats to its other liabilities."

"This is the most important election in the history of the country. Every citizen must vote his conscience and his convictions, forgetting his emotions and the threats that demagogic politicians have stirred up. A voter must be extraordinarily glib who trusts the before-election promises of politicians who have broken their past pledges. To paraphrase a famous saying: It is the way we do things while in office, not what we say for a few months preceding election, that is the measure of our sincerity."

"There is a growing body of radicals and pink internationalists that pooh! pooh! patriotism. But patriotism is the first and guiding principle of the honest citizen. A patriot gives largely of devotion and service to his country, and asks for nothing from it but sound and just government. He is never to be found in the ranks of those crying, 'We must get ours while the getting is good,' and who vote at the sign of the easy dollar."

In another editorial, the Post says in part: "Reduced to its simplest terms, this question is now before every voter: Do I want the government to regulate my affairs and run the business of the country?"

"The voter should carefully consider how recent tendencies and acts have affected him personally and decide just which of our major problems the New Deal has solved. It has not solved the unemployment problem—in fact, it bids fair to make unemployment a vested interest. It has not solved the farm problem, unless limiting production and flooding the country with foreign farm products that we should be raising ourselves can be called a solution. Today we are a wheat-raising country importing wheat; a corn-raising country importing corn; a dairy country importing butter; a stock-raising country importing cattle, and so on down a long list of farm products. Some of this is due to the drought, but a good deal of it goes back to plow-under subsidies, when the small farmers who needed them most were getting least, while the big benefits, up to a million dollars or more, went to the big-time farmers and corporations."

Senatorial Contest
 THE Omaha World-Herald sees no reason why democrats who believe in the New Deal should not vote for Carpenter, or why those who, regardless of party, look with suspicion and fear on the New Deal should not vote for Simmons. Here are a few paragraphs from a World-Herald editorial discussing the senatorial triangle:

"Those who, while democrats, nevertheless support President Roosevelt, but are not willing to see their party replaced, will support Carpenter; the regular party nominee. Logically, in fairness, according to the rules, he is entitled to their votes. "Republicans who believe in Governor Landon and want to hold up his hands have no reason for voting for other than their own nominee, Mr. Simmons. He and Landon stand together, and both battle for the party and its principles."

"And as to democratic and independent voters, who oppose a continuation and development of the new deal, with its bureaucratic centralization, its magnification of executive power, its strong tendencies toward a totalitarian state—these can be no more at home with Carpenter, or with

Dramatics Class Managers Chosen
 Dramatics class of Wayne State Teachers College, under direction of Miss Florence M. Drake, has chosen production committees for the three one-act plays to be given Thursday, November 12, at 8. For "Facing East," a drama, the student directors are Edith Horstman and Milton Evans; producing manager and electrician, Edith Bulls; art director, Eileen O'Malley; property managers, Dorothy Tolle and Robert Bromie; costumes, Harriet Lamson and Dorothy Brande; "There's a Crowd," a comedy, Royal Barnhill is student director; Muriel Hanson, producing manager and electrician; Helen Petersen and Deweyne Gramly, property managers; Wilma Elake, costumes.

Norris, than they could be with Roosevelt himself.
 "If they are voting for Landon in order to preserve the American way of life, to testify their dislike of alien systems, their abhorrence of the drift toward autocracy, they have no recourse but to vote for Simmons."

Governor Landon
 UNLIKE his opponent, Governor Landon had no inherited fortune to aid him. He had to hoe his own row, dependent on no one but himself for his achievements and success. Early in the campaign he was contemptuously referred to by Chairman Farley as the product of a "prairie state." His attitude towards education in Kansas has been outrageously misrepresented. Like Lincoln, he came from the "grass roots," and like Lincoln, he possesses the rugged individualism and high resolves inherent in one who rises above the "grass roots."

Governor Landon belongs to the common people, knows what they think and what they want. He may be ridiculed as a commoner, as Lincoln was, but he will carry to the presidency the fine American metal needed to unravel the economic tangle to be bequeathed by the New Deal bureaucrats, and the task will require all the wisdom and courage that the administration can muster, aided though it will be by the support and confidence of the nation's ablest and soundest statesmen.

Announcement is made that the senate campaign expenditures committee had ordered an investigation of the charge that Ohio industries were "coercing employees politically." Mention is made that one company had informed its employees that it would close down if Governor Landon were not elected. The committee should also investigate charges that government employees, drawing taxpayers' money, have been assessed to help pay the New Deal's campaign expenses, and that WPA workers have been warned to line up in support of the New Deal's battle for reelection. Which is the more reprehensible—an industry responsible for its own financial success, or the New Deal, supported by levies on the general public, a large part of which is an unwilling contributor?

Freedom of the air which is as important to insure a free people as freedom of the press, has been brought to the fore of discussion by Senator Vandenberg's experience in having his recent address partially banned. The Christian Science Monitor points out these conclusions: "Safeguarding free speech is the American people's first interest in the question. That interest is paramount over any partisan feeling or private purpose. Radio, as a new medium, requires new methods to insure free speech." The Vandenberg experience is likely to develop future legislation to guarantee freedom of the air as well as freedom of the press—both indispensable to freedom from dictatorship. No autocracy could ever be established with free expression maintained.

At a democratic rally in Blair Monday night, C. A. Sorensen in Lincoln, was denied permission to speak in behalf of Senator Norris. The meeting was addressed by Governor Cochran and Congressman McLaughlin. The committee in charge explained that Carpenter was the party's regularly nominated candidate and that no Norris speeches would be allowed. Not to be kept from talking, Mr. Sorensen later mounted a truck and circulated his speech in the open air.

Hunters seemed to come from everywhere to take advantage of the open season on pheasants, and farmers had more visitors than ever. If a farmer had any relatives or friends who were inclined to hunt, the occasion was usually made a get-together session. And we suspect that most farmers and their guests enjoyed revived friendships in connection with the pheasant-hunting sport.

"The most sinister political machine in our history," is the way Governor Landon referred to the New Deal in his Philadelphia speech. "This administration," he said, "wields the same ax which has destroyed the liberties of much of the old world. An unbalanced budget, inflation of the currency, delegation of power to the chief executive, destruction of local self-government."

If President Roosevelt should happen to be reelected through the required support of numerous government dependents he will immediately give a fireside talk to announce acceptance of the result as a mandate from the people to swing on to the left with intensified vigor. He may draft hard-boiled Gen. Hugh Johnson to help him crack down on industry and business.

The campaign revolves around men largely as issues are involved. For public places in which shaping government has no part, the party label arouses little interest. It is when changes in fundamental principles are attempted or threatened that sharp differences develop, and those for or against certain public policies are arrayed against one another.

tragedy, has as director Margaret Jones; Veva Sasse, producing manager and electrician; Janette Cummings, art director; Olivia Diefenbarger and Guy Raff, property managers; Betty Grosvenor, costumes. For the three plays Guy Raff is stage manager; Robert Brown, general electrician; and four student directors, make-up.

INDEPENDENCE
 Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick says moral independence is all rooted in childhood and the family. The standard of the home fashions characters, that go out from that home. Noble examples, consistently observing the right and shunning the wrong, impart qualities that are not lost by a developing generation. Says Dr. Fosdick in conclusion: "For what Jesus Christ would say to us if he could speak to us in audible voice now would be something like this: Be a person. Be a real person. Stand on your own feet. Do not be pushed about by passing fads. Live by an inward light. Be true to an inward loyalty. If skepticism divides the church, vulgarly discolors social living, the profit motive makes industry often cruel, and nationalism blockades the way to peace, do not yes, yes the situation. Have a conscience of your own, and, when in private life the clamor of public custom grows very loud, do you grow quiet, quiet enough to hear the beat and catch the rhythm of that inward drum."

of evil, while two other boys rise to unusual heights of benevolence?
Joy in Independence.
 This philosophy written by Emerson in 1842 could have been written today with equal appropriateness:
 "The harvest will be better preserved and go farther, laid up in private bins, in each farmer's corn barn, and each woman's basket, than if it were kept in national granaries. In like manner, an amount of money will go farther if expended by each man and woman for their own wants, and in the feeling that this is their all, than if expended by a great steward, or national commissioners of the treasury. Take away from me the feeling that I must depend on myself, give me the least hint that I have good friends and backers there in reserve who will gladly help me, and instantly I relax my diligence."

Team Plays Tuesday.
 Wayne high school football team meets Oakland here Tuesday, November 3, at 3 o'clock at the college field. The date was changed from Friday because of the teachers' meeting.

MORALE.
 Tendencies of the times have weakened morale, and have forced people to relinquish much of the self-assertion necessary to hold self-respect and command popular respect. Weakened human fiber makes the lash of immediate needs often felt to be crushed; pride and self-respect are trampled. In the mid-western farm area, drought has aggravated economic high blood pressure, and made living from hand to mouth an unusually perilous task. Many who have turned to the government for jobs, are now warned to contribute to the New Deal's campaign fund and otherwise support its thirst for more power on penalty of being thrust into the flood of unemployed. Taking advantage of human necessities and forcing favor contrary to conviction, constitute a new, all-time high mark in using public service to which all taxpayers contribute, to perpetuate an administration regardless of consequences. Thus, often under the nagging of personal need, people yield, though secretly resenting the imposition and realizing that the swing to the left involves mounting dangers to cherished freedom. Popular judgment may be expected to come to the rescue, restore the ship of state to the middle, onward course, and recapture and reinstate the spirit of independence.

Conditions Are Good In Germany Minister Reports

Conditions in Germany at present are good, according to Rev. H. A. Teckhaus, who spent the summer in that country with his father and other relatives. Rev. Teckhaus arrived in New York on the Europa October 15 and is spending a few weeks in Bennington with his daughter, Mrs. H. J. Goede. Rev. Teckhaus and Mrs. Goede were here Friday and Saturday. Rev. Teckhaus has been extended a call to a Philadelphia, Pa., church and will decide within a few weeks whether or not he will accept.

People in Germany have work and are in happy frame of mind, according to Rev. Teckhaus. In that nation of 65 millions, Rev. Teckhaus reports that only one million are out of work. To care for these the government takes subscriptions of money. The German government owns and operates railroads and the postal system and loans money by which individuals finance their industry. All work hard and earn salaries. Though their wages are not like American salaries, they are sufficient, according to Rev. Teckhaus, to provide a living that is good in comparison with European standards.

Germany had a good growing season this year and the country has sufficient products to provide for the nation. Small grains and some corn are the principal products. Prices for selling and buying produce and manufactured articles are fixed by the government. People there pay heavy taxes but they have been used to this through the centuries so expect it.

Law and order are established in Germany because all are willing to obey Hitler. The dictator has built a strong military machine but has expressed his desire for peace, saying the military machine is to be used only in defense. Germany, says Rev. Teckhaus, is the quietest nation in Europe. Other countries are dissatisfied but in Germany there is no strife.

Hitler and German socialist party are opposed to communism and socialism. Hitler in 1933 overthrew such movements in Germany and established a fascist state which has for its motto "One for all and all for one." Rev. Teckhaus says that Hitler receives no salary. His revenue comes from the sale of his book, "Mein Kampf," (My Fight) which he has written to explain the rise of the fascist government.

Rev. Teckhaus sailed on the ship which was stopped at mid-ocean to transfer a passenger who had swallowed part of his false teeth which lodged in his larynx. The eastbound ship stopped about 200 yards from the Europa, transferred the man in a small boat, and the Europa brought him to New York for an operation.

Students Served Fresh Vegetables

In an effort to create a desire for vegetables in the students of the first grade at the Wayne high school, Miss Coila Potras has started a study of vegetables and the children are taught to eat them. Tuesday noon, Mrs. Carl Shuck prepared a lunch for the children which was served in the classroom. Twenty-four students were served. Howard Ulrich and Lynelle Shuck were guests. The menu consisted of carrots and peas which were furnished by Alvin Rewinkle and Marilyn Shuck; spaghetti and tomatoes, the latter which were furnished by Clarence and John Ulrich; beets, pickles and cauliflower by Marilyn Shuck; potatoes which were made into salad were furnished by Clarence and John Ulrich; and Brussels sprouts by Alvin Rewinkle. Halloween decorations were used on the tables. Mrs. Earl Petersen baked a birthday cake which was decorated in Halloween colors for the four children who had birthdays this month. They were: Clarence Ulrich, Boyd Whalen, Shirley Longe and Stanley Petersen. Halloween baskets filled with candy were at each place.

 Every student who ate all of the vegetables put on his plate was given a large gold star to put on a chart after his name.
 Mrs. T. C. Bathke served a salad made from vegetables to the students Thursday. Friday Donald Franzen served fresh tomatoes to the students.

Study Of Parties Being Conducted

Students of Wayne high school are taking active interest in the presidential campaign. Political science class, under direction of Miss Leota Hall, is leading discussions. The class is divided according to convictions and leaders have interviewed men in public life and have collected material for their sides. This campaign will culminate in a student election next Tuesday with clerks, judges and board to preside.

Civics class, taught by Miss Theodora Carlson, has also spent considerable time on discussion of the campaign. Each is gathering material for a bulletin and the class will dramatize a voting booth.
 Significance of the ballot, political organizations and other details of the election system are studied to prepare students for future citizenship.

Federation Of Clubs Will Meet Next Week

The Dakota-Dixon County Federation of Women's clubs will hold its annual meeting Friday, November 6, at the Dakota City Methodist church. Mrs. J. B. Plantenberg of Emerson is president; Mrs. D. G. Evans, Homer, vice president; Mrs. Henry Peters, Emerson, secretary; Mrs. Horace Culbertson, Dakota City, treasurer.

Mrs. Wm. Hasbrook of Scribner, state chairman of music, will lead convention singing. Mrs. E. O. Oetting of Dodge, state chairman of education, will speak on financing schools. Mrs. J. L. Vandenberg of Scribner, third district president, will give highlights of the state convention. Rev. Orrin Loy of Stanton, will illustrate a lecture on "Old Glory in Story and Song." The meeting starts at 10 a. m. Methodist Aid serves luncheon. All club members are urged to attend.

Play To Be Given By Junior Class

Junior class of the college high school will present the play, "New Furs," November 4 at the college auditorium. Many Hunters Here For Pheasant Week

Hunters from many states have been in Wayne county this week for pheasant season which opened last Sunday and closes next Sunday. New York, New Jersey, Oklahoma and North Dakota are more distant states represented. One party came by plane Saturday from Michigan. Though birds seem plentiful the hunters work harder to get them because the pheasants do not come out of hiding as readily as when there are lots of corn stalks.
 Eugene Perry spent Saturday in the Lou Baker home.

You Need This Man in the United States Senate

Senator Norris never has betrayed his State, his constituency, his Nation, nor the common men and women of America. He never has faltered in his fight for justice, in his battle for human rights, and in the struggle for better government!

Senator Norris has to his credit the greatest number of achievements of any member of the Senate, and he stands before the American people as one of the greatest liberal leaders in all the history of the Nation.

Senator Norris has waged a consistent battle against arrogant special privilege, against strongly entrenched greed, against those who would shape government to suit their own ends. He has the hatred and the emnity of those who would exploit the people. He has the faith and the love of the people themselves. They believe in him because of the enemies he has made.

Senator Norris drove "Cannatism" from the federal legislative procedure, he abolished the "Lame Duck" Congress, he championed the cause of the farmer, and he has fought the battles of labor. In that vital matter of government, taxation, he has insisted that great wealth, always seeking its avenue of escape, should be made to pay its just proportionate share. He gave to Nebraska a comprehensive program of conservation of natural resources. He gave Nebraska and the nation rural electrification. In him Nebraska has a representative whose prestige and whose influence are recognized generally.

Senator Norris voted against the war with Germany, and at this time, in a troubled world, he represents the trusted champion of peace for America.

Thanks To Many Voter Friends

I desire to sincerely thank the 32,935 voters of the Third Supreme Court District who at the Primary on April 14, 1936, took the trouble in preparing their ballots to mark a cross after my name as candidate for Supreme Judge. These votes have placed my name on the printed official ballot to be used in the coming general election as the sole and unopposed candidate for that office. It is hoped that the confidence so evidenced may be continued and again expressed by the voters of this district in casting their ballots on November 3, next, for the office of Supreme Judge.

Respectfully,

Deductions From Pay Start January 1

Beginning January 1, 1937, your employer will be compelled by law to deduct a certain amount from your wages every payday. This is in compliance with the terms of the Social Security Act sponsored and signed by President Roosevelt August 14, 1935.

The deduction begins with one percent and increases until it reaches 3 percent. There is no guarantee that the fund thus collected will ever be returned to you. What happens to the money is up to each congress. No benefits of any kind before 1942.

This is NOT a voluntary plan. Your employer MUST make this deduction. Regulations are published by the Social Security Board, Washington, D. C.

YOU MUST CHOOSE!

The American people will not merely elect a President on November 3rd—they will choose a form of government. For that reason, we ask you to consider carefully the facts before you vote.

Several prominent economists have said recently that this may be our last election . . . that Fascism is coming to the United States. They point out the similarity in national affairs here now, and in European nations before popular government was overthrown there.

Our national budget is unbalanced . . . national debt near the danger point and growing daily . . . political carpet-baggers wasting the taxpayers' money . . . millions still unemployed. Only our Supreme Court stands as a bulwark against regimentation of farmers, laborers and business men.

The Republican campaign is a crusade to save the American form of government for the protection of your home and family life . . . for the free opportunity to work and live as your fathers did.

Freedom and tolerance in all walks of life has long been the prime concern of government . . . if you wish to keep America free from regimentation and dictatorship . . . if you want to continue to follow the dictates of your conscience and to practice your rights as granted you in the Constitution of the United States, cast your vote for those who will safeguard your liberties.

VOTE REPUBLICAN

DONT BE FOOLED by eleventh hour rumors, or efforts to stir up racial prejudice by injecting issues that belong to the past. There is just one issue now—the form of government under which we choose to live.

Amelia, Neb., is a friendly town and the people there all join together to make people feel at home when they visit Amelia. The town is about twelve miles south of Chambers. The old-fashioned "hitching post" is on the main street of Amelia and there is a flowing well that offers excellent, fine cool water. It is to be found near the filling station.

The country between Albion and Cedar Rapids is very dry and dusty. The small grain is coming up slowly. Russian thistle is thick in the fields, and when looking over a field, it looks as though the thistle had been planted in long rows. Some of the farmers are feeding this to livestock. The thistle is turning red this year.

At Boone, Neb., Charles Grapes has one of the finest collections of Indian relics in the United States. He is building a museum, and expects to show relics which are mostly stone and used by the Indians many years ago. That is, relics that were left behind by the Indians many years ago in Boone, Nance and Platte counties. Hundreds of people come to visit Mr. Grapes' Indian museum.

Farmers who are forced to sell chickens these days are complaining about the market. Nine cents was the average price paid during this week. However, the dockage for chickens with crooked breast bones or deformed feet or legs is high, amounting to three cents a pound. Farmers say feeding chickens at the present prices is not profitable. The same complaint comes from butterfat, which is bringing 28 cent in most of the cream stations during the past few days. This is quite a drop compared to 35 cents some months ago. The cream station operators seem united with the farmer in complaining over the low prices for cream. In face of the facts, the price to feed milk cows is going up rapidly. One explanation is the importation of foreign butter, vegetable fats and oils. That is having something to do with the lower price of American butterfat. The imports of vegetable oil in six months of 1936 amounted to 202,107,000 pounds.

The house by the side of the road near Hooper still stands on the old highway, and attracts just as much attention as ever.

Among the many invaders in our district is Mrs. Hattie Hancock, of Pender. She tells us that she is slowly losing her eyesight. She is unable to leave her bed, but remains one of the most cheerful persons in the Third district.

C. A. Bowers Shows Serious Status Of Education In Nebraska.

Dr. C. F. Dienst, E. W. Wright, Edw. Seymour, John Garhart and Paul Mines attended a meeting of superintendents and school board members Thursday, October 22, at Norfolk. C. A. Bowers, secretary of the Nebraska State Education association, spoke to the men, outlining the issues of public education in the community.

Mr. Bowers presented some startling figures to the group, concerning the status of education in Nebraska today in comparison with neighboring states. Support of public education in the state seems to have dropped considerably in the last few years. In 1929-30, Nebraska ranked 23rd in the survey of the cost per pupil. At that time the state spent $93.08 per pupil annually. In 1933-34 it had dropped in rank to 33rd, with a per pupil cost of only $60.47. This last survey ranks the state among the southern states, whose costs per pupil are much lower than the northern states, due to the negro population. The comparison of Nebraska with surrounding states shows that the state spends considerably less than Wyoming, Colorado, Iowa, South Dakota, Kansas and Missouri. Why is it that Nebraska does not seem to value its youth as other states do?

The speaker presented other interesting figures from the table on percent of tax resources expended by the states for the current costs of public education. In 1921-22, Nebraska ranked eleventh in the proportion of tax money used for education. At that time the state gave 39.6 percent of its taxes to the schools, which was much above the average of 30.2 percent for the United States. But in 1931-32, the figures were greatly changed. Nebraska ranked 43rd in the percent of tax resources given to education, spending only 22.7 percent of its taxes for this purpose. Since that time there have been even further reductions in this percentage.

Mr. Bowers pointed out the seriousness of the situation with Nebraska at the very bottom of the list of states which do not provide separate schools for negroes. That action is necessary immediately, and the part which each school district should take in this action were discussed.

Accident Occurs Friday Evening

Two cars, one driven by George Macklin of Wayne, and one by August Stahnke, Pukwana, S. D., collided Friday evening on highway 35 two miles north and one mile east of Wayne. Mr. Macklin was traveling along the highway and Mr. Stahnke was coming off the side road when the cars hit. The Stahnke car was completely demolished and the Macklin car was badly damaged. Mr. Macklin, who was traveling alone, received a cut over his right eye and Mrs. Stahnke, who was with her husband, was bruised.

Eph Beckenhuwer brought Mr. Macklin to Wayne where he received medical care. The Stahnkes were brought in by another car that stopped. Mr. and Mrs. Stahnke were here last week to visit Mrs. Louisa Mau.

(Continued from page 1 section 1) clared that he believed that a senator should represent the people of his state, and speak for the state, and all of its people in all sections. He further declared that it was his policy while a member of congress and that it will be his policy as United States senator to support any proposal for legislation coming from any source, that is sound in principle, helpful to national recovery and within the constitutional authority of congress. By the same token he stated that he would oppose any proposal that in his opinion was unsound in principle, harmful to the country, and that was not within the constitutional authority of the legislative branch of government.

Simmons discussed at length the agricultural situation. He stated that he would continue to work for agricultural parity, and said his belief that prosperity for the farmer, jobs for the man who wants to work and a permanent recovery for the businessman in the towns and cities of Nebraska could be had only by the adoption of progressive policies that are economically sound.

Imports Hurt Farmers. The speaker pointed out that the importation of food stuffs such as has been going on throughout the last three years was detrimental to the farmer, denied jobs to the laboring man and was harmful to business. "Profitable prices are necessary for farm produce, but in order that they may be profitable, it is necessary for farmers of Nebraska to be permitted again to produce sufficient amounts of food and livestock to feed the American people, for it is the number of units, as well as profitable units, that means prosperity and jobs." He also expressed opposition to the policy of government in encouraging the development of northern crops in the southern states on cotton lands. "We must protect the Nebraska farmer and the Nebraska laboring man in his right to feed and supply the American people. We have lost a large part of our market for grains and livestock to Canada and South America. Southern states are also taking a part of that market, and that market must be recovered. It is estimated that for every acre of land in the United States that has been taken out of production in the last three years the production of a foreign acre has been imported into the U. S. That must be stopped. It is likewise estimated that the imported foods brought into this country in the last three years have furnished employment throughout the year to a foreign population larger than the entire population of the state of Nebraska."

Mr. Simmons also stated that it was his belief that cooperative marketing, lower interest rates, cheaper transportation and a better system of distribution would all help in bringing prosperous conditions back to the farmer and to the town. However, all of those things to be fully effective must depend upon a return to production in this state.

Local Share of Debt. Mr. Simmons said that Wayne county's proportionate share of the national debt had increased $1,113,000 in the past three years. On March 4, 1933, Wayne county's share of the national debt was $1,802,000. That had increased on June 30, 1936, to the sum of $2,915,000.

The speaker stated that the United States spent over $9,500,000,000 last year; that Nebraska has one percent of the nation's population; that Nebraska's share of that spending last year was $95,000,000 while the share of Wayne county was $763,200. Of that amount Wayne county's proportionate share of $413,400 was borrowed money. Mr. Simmons continued by saying that last year the general levy for Wayne county for state, county, city, and school purposes was $327,100 and that the federal spending proportionately chargeable to the people of this county was over 2.3 times the general levy for state, county, and school purposes.

"I favor spending where and when necessary, but we must stop the extravagant, wasteful and useless political spending," Mr. Simmons declared that it is not an answer to these charges of spending to say that the average citizen who does not pay income or inheritance taxes to the government will not pay any part of this indebtedness and extravagant spending. President Roosevelt himself is authority for the statement that hidden taxes collected by the federal government amount to over 60 percent of the nation's income; that those taxes rest most heavily upon the person of small and reduced income. "They are consumers' taxes for which we never receive a tax receipt, but the cost of running the federal government is collected from the American people when they buy the necessities and luxuries of life. You and I pay it. While they have not yet begun to tax for this tremendous spending, the fact remains that the citizenship of the United States will pay the bill. The government has no money other than what it collects in taxes for what it receives from the sale of bonds which are mortgages upon the property, the income, and the earnings of the American people. As taxes go up, living costs increase, standards of living go down. Money paid in taxes cannot be spent for wages, nor food, nor clothing, nor fuel."

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Ley and Barbara plan to spend today in Omaha.

Mrs. J. R. Miller had charge of the banquet. Mrs. McClure presided and used letters of the name Landon, to begin words which were subjects of brief talks: These were scheduled as follows: "Loyalty," Mrs. McClure; "Ability," J. M. Ettersen of Carroll; "Nobility," H. E. Siman; "Desirability," Mrs. V. A. Senter; "Opportunity," Clark Wilson of Wakefield; "Nominee," Dave Hamer.

Mr. Simmons spoke briefly praising the courage, confidence and determination shown by republicans. They are concerned with preserving the American form of government and are determined to fight to a successful victory. He complimented women for their interest. "Women want to retain America for themselves and their children. They want peace and prosperity, and they want leadership that will keep us out of European affairs. American democracy was established because its founders were willing to fight old world tyranny to gain liberty. Now many realize that if we are to maintain American institutions we must fight for them in this election."

Mr. Griswold complimented republican volunteers who work with an interest that shows they are enlisted in a holy cause. They want the salvation of the state and nation. Leadership that will protect the American home, family and church is the greatest need of the present. Display Truck Here. One of the Landon and Knox display trucks showing how imported articles harm American agriculture was in Wayne for examination Saturday.

Kansas-Nebraska High In Education

The contention that Kansas has cut its educational standards during Governor Landon's term of office is without basis...

Kansas is 26th and Nebraska 33rd in the 1933-34 report in amount of money spent per pupil for education in the state...

In 1931-32 Kansas again led over Nebraska with a rating of 34th and expenditure of $25.20 per pupil.

The reports show that both Kansas and Nebraska have maintained high educational standards.

Karl Stefan Urges Election Of Simmons

Congressman Karl Stefan, conceded by most Third district political observers as assured of reelection, recommended in warmest terms the election of Robert G. Simmons as Nebraska senator.

"I knew Bob Simmons before I ever dreamed of being a candidate for office. I found the marks of his beneficial work during 10 years in congress after I went there.

"Men on both sides of the aisle in congress, both democrats and republicans, told me of his work—work that earned him the title of 'Fighting Bob.' Because of him, such legislation operating to Nebraska's benefit is on the statute books."

"So I say to you, if you are going to send another senator back to Washington, for heaven's sake send a man who really is going to represent you—the people of Nebraska."

Heartening indication of the political trend in northern Nebraska also was brought to Simmons Wednesday by R. H. Harris, Boyd county republican chairman, in the form of a final canvass of county poll books showing Simmons leading better than two to one over his two rivals.

Snow Stops Journey Of Local Travelers

Traveling 1,800 miles in six days, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beckenhauer arrived home Wednesday of last week from a trip into Canada where they visited the latter's sister, Mrs. John Lamport, who resides 200 miles west of Winnipeg.

Enroute home the Beckenhauers stopped at Williston, N. D., to visit their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Volk and son. They also visited at Bismarck, N. D., the home of Mr. Beckenhauer's nephew, H. W. Graunke, financial manager of a large hospital.

Mr. Beckenhauer thought the country west of Winnipeg was very pretty. The soil is black and there are few hills. However, he found that it was much cheaper to travel in the states as gas in Canada is 37c per gallon.

Mr. and Mrs. Beckenhauer drove in a great deal of snow and were forced to discontinue their trip at Mitchell, S. D., one night.

Although Mr. Beckenhauer did not talk politics much while on his travel he did encounter some democrats who are voting the republican ticket this fall.

ON DISPLAY at all Buick Showrooms SPECIAL CENTURY ROADMASTER LIMITED FOUR WONDROUS NEW REASONS WHY: "It's Buick again!" SENSATIONAL is the fervor with which the American public has taken to its heart the brilliant motor cars offered by Buick this year. Indeed, the sweeping success of the 1936 Buick program flatly challenged us and our great parent General Motors to a momentous decision. Should we continue this amazingly popular line of cars into next year, perhaps the prudent thing to do—or should we dare broad improvement upon their spectacular excellence? We felt there was only one right answer to that question, the bold and progressive answer—and that's why insiders now forecasting 1937 are already saying: "It's Buick again!" That's why on top of $15,000,000 recently spent re-tooling and re-equipping Buick's great plant, we appropriated and are now spending $14,500,000 more. YOU'VE GOT WHAT IT TAKES! $765 You can afford the new Buick. It's easy to buy and thrifty to own. With all its quality, its phenomenal performance and styling, prices start as low as... Former Wayne Students Report Many Experiences of Interest

This week-end grads of the Wayne State Teachers college from the four corners of Nebraska will be coming to Wayne for homecoming. An elaborate program is being planned for the occasion. Cards have been sent out to former Wayne college students to complete the alumni record. These show that the Wayne college is represented in western and eastern states, as well as having many teachers throughout Nebraska. Insurance salesman, secretary, doctor and journalist, each claims representatives from former classes of the college. The two most popular professions are, however, housekeeping and teaching. Some of them have reported interesting facts about their work. Harry Nelson, '31, sails the last of November for Hawaii where he will accept an army position. He is at present located at Carlisle, Penn. Paul M. Crossland, '24, is a medical officer in the United States navy. He is located at Dahlgren, Va. Miss Pauline Dutton, '33, who is teaching at Akron, Ia., spent the summer of 1935 touring in Europe with an International Mirlimba orchestra. Miss Gene Murphy, '17, now Mrs. Floyd Detweiler of Compton, Calif., is field director of the junior Catholic Daughters of America, which is a character building organization for Catholic girls between the ages of 12 to 18. Her work takes her through California and many other western states. Miss Frances L. Peterson, '32, of Sioux City, is supervisor of adult education at the community house. She reports that she is a professional social worker and has specialized in adult education. She finds her work absorbing and contacts interesting. She is also assisting in the supervision of a negro community center in Sioux City. Edward H. Schindler, '26, is at Kearney and is probation officer of the state industrial school there. Another Edward, Edward W. Syggs, '33, is owner of a dental laboratory in Pasadena, Calif. Mrs. Ray R. Krusch, '28, formerly Miss Carol Vlasnik, is at Wood Lake with her husband. They have recently purchased an airplane and both of them are taking flying lessons, in preparation for giving instructions. Teachers out over the state and in other states who have received their education in Wayne report many interesting experiences in connection with their work. Rex L. Olson, Gebo, Wyo., is a teacher in the high school there. He reports that the schools are somewhat different there from those in Nebraska. Some of the children and most parents are foreigners. The state board requires one to take an examination and read two educational books a year. Paul Smith Jacobsen, '22, is in Hamilton, N. Y., and is an assistant professor in politics at Colgate University. He is also in charge of a selected group of Colgate students who are studying government and administration in Washington, D. C. G. David Koch, '29, is at Lincoln where he is doing some teaching working on his doctor's degree. From May, 1935, to July, 1936, he worked on the plains shelterbelt project. He has also taught geography at Miami university in Oxford, Ohio. Miss Glennie Bacon, '18, Laramie, Wyo., is assistant professor of mathematics at the University of Wyoming. Miss Anna M. Baer, '16, is a fourth grade teacher at Los Angeles, Calif. Miss Baer also writes that she has adopted a little girl. Miss Estella M. Carter, '35, Brookings, S. D., had a student the last year who had the highest average in the county. Miss Carter spent the summer traveling in the west and south. Miss Jessie Mae Halsted, '30, of Laramie, Wyo., is a critic in the fifth and sixth grades at the University of Wyoming. The past summer she traveled in the United States and Canada, taking a steamer to New Orleans. She missed the hurricane along the coast by a few days. Many other graduates and former students have entered a line of interesting work. This week-end will bring together some who have not seen each other for many years.

Party Leader Gives Facts On New Deal Plan

Everett Sanders, former secretary to President Coolidge and republican chairman in 1932-34, gave information last week Wednesday when in Wayne as follows: The new Deal today spends $2.12 for every $1 it collects in taxes. Instead of cutting government cost 25 percent, the New Deal has increased it 72 percent over 1932. The democratic platform in 1932 pledged "sound currency to be preserved at all hazards." And the New Deal has made the dollar worth 59c. "Sound currency has been abandoned and the government has entered business on a socialistic scale." Since March, 1933, the New Deal administration has spent more than that cost to run the government the first 121 years, a total of 25 billion dollars. "Unless this stops it will mean either repudiation or inflation, either of which is the greatest cause of suffering and distress, falling first and most heavily upon the poorer people." For every acre taken out of cultivation in the United States under the New Deal, production of a foreign acre was imported. For every pig killed a pig was shipped in from a foreign market. This penalized the American farmer, giving his market to foreigners. The republican platform will retain the American market for products of the American farmer. Women are more interested in this presidential election than in any other in the history of this country because hidden taxes and high cost of food and clothing are an everyday menace to the family pocketbook. A 59c dollar does not go far. Women are concerned over the fact that every baby born today starts life with a debt of $237. Communist headquarters in Moscow, Russia in August, 1936, issued instructions for support of the New Deal "not because we support its policies or intend to stand responsible for actions, but because we wish to strengthen our influence among America's many radical groups." The pay of the Kansas school teachers ranks higher than the pay of teachers in any other strictly rural state. The Kansas teachers are also paid in cash. Due to drought and depression they took salary cuts of 19 percent while most teachers took cuts of 25 to 30 percent. Many people in the drought area feel that the killing off of millions of little pigs and the plowing under of thousands of acres of productive land was in direct defiance of God's law. They look upon this drought as a divine judgment. To attempt to make political capital this fall out of parched, stricken, arid lands is deeply resented. Place Gas Vents. Gas fume vents have been placed the past week at the city auditorium in the city clerk's office, Woman's club rooms and apartment. The pipes carry the fumes to the outdoors. The work was completed the first of this week.

OIL-PLATING DONE HERE

(BUT BE SURE YOU READ ALL THE OTHER WINTER OIL ADS, TOO)

You will find most of the emphasis these days, on oil that flows freely.

Well and good. You SHOULD use your correct Winter grade, but... You can see that the more freely any oil flows, the more freely it FLOWS DOWN OFF the pistons, cylinders, and other parts when you stop.

Then in starting up cold, where is mere free-flowing oil?

It is waiting to be pumped up on the job. And even in much warmer weather than this—according to engineering opinion—those oil-starved waits can cost you more engine wear than all the rest of your driving!

But this Winter with free-flowing Germ Processed oil, you can have your engine Oil-Plated! ... much more than a change to OUR Conoco Germ Processed oil... really a change to unbroken Winter lubrication for YOUR engine. It may stand cold for hours—days—weeks. Yet the slippery Oil-Plating formed only by patented Germ Processed oil, will always be UP IN ADVANCE. Pistons slip easy. Starter spins. Oil-Plated engine obliges—and lives the good life, on a stingy diet of Conoco Germ Processed oil. Continental Oil Company
