Passenger TWO railroad representatives, J. H. Johnson, traveling passenger agent from St. Paul, and Lew A. Thomas, general agent from Sloux City, were in Wayne Tuesday to try to find out reasons why passenger traffic has been shrinking despite every effort on the part of the ompany to improve service. For convenience in regulating their stops, the two travelers came in an automobile. And the reason they were traveling in an automobile is the reason people generally use their own cars reason people generally use their own in preference to patronizing the passe trains.

A modern train is undoubtedly safer forever run passenger trains without engers, and it is not conceivable they can do anything to wean travelers away from using their own cars. It is the branch lines that have suffered. Transcontinental trains fare much better. With them the automobile cannot compete in time or service.

Republican CHARLES J. Warner of Waverly, who is now tour. Nominee ing the state for the governorship as the republican nominee, has devoted his life to farming and public service. A current leaflet gives this brief account of his experience:

"Mr. Warner's parents came to America from Sweden in 1888 and after three years in Ullings."

As against the word of ten or more communists, we would believe Lindbergh without knowing the facts. If he made the statement, charged to him, he was undoubtedly so convinced. He might not know, but we do not believe he would intentionally misstate what he thought. Instead of trying to discredit Lindbergh, the Russians had better get busy preparing for the trouble which they are evidently inviting.

Dictator Hitler made another speech Sunday and offered the usual threats, at the same time expressing desire for peace. While he is conceded all he asked, he still rattles his sabers. His shout for greater armaments than ever is a hint to representatives of other nations to be prepared for a possible outbreak of hostilities. Hitler says he is ready for a hetter understanding for a possible outbreak of nostines. Inter-says he is ready for a better understanding with neighbor nations and then tells all statesmen in other countries to mind their own business. He forgot to take a breath between his conflicting ideas. He is evi-dently afraid he won't have a chaince to fight and kill people in order to preserve the peace which he says he wants.

The proposed constitutional amendment to legalize slot machines will appear on the ballot at the general election in November, and people should not be fooled into supporting it by the provision that revenues will be used to bolster the state assistance fund. The slot machine captures the small change of children and others who can least afford to lose. It is an affront to the capture is the same of the same to to the cause it claims to want to help. Persons who have had long and successful experience in lying, don't always know and never care where the truth begins or leaves off. The main idea is to serve an immediate purpose, and then be impervious to inevitable boomerangs.

As between belligerent CIO Chairman John L. Lewis and William Green, head of the American Federation of Labor, who are engaged in bitter conflict, the orderly and hopeful populace will sympathize with the latter.

It used to be said when the birth record showed a preponderance of girls, there would be no war. If that is a true gauge we are going to have peace, because most of the youngsters coming into late are girls.

The Open Season.

(Omaha Journal-Stockman.)

The hunting season in this state opens
Saturday and this usually means an increase in the number of accidental shootings. Veteran hunters, familiar with the deadly character of fire arms, do not have to be cautioned as to their use but they can perform a valuable service to the small army of amateur shooters who will take to the fields and streams at the end of this week. In no other country in the world is hunting more free and unrestricted and it should be kept that way.

Farmers Need Customers.

Farmers Need Customers.

A noticeable turning away from support of the administration's farm program is reported from various sections of the middle west. Whether the defection of farmers who have heretofore strung along politically with the administration is sufficient to bring about the election of republicans as members of congress will not be known until the election returns are scanned, but it is a fact that republicans in at least two Nebraska districts now represented by democrats stand an excellent chance of election.

This turnabout of farmer is easily understandable. None of the restrictive measures connected with the Wallace plan of agricultural aid has brought tangible results. The weather still remains the most potent factor in crop production, and it is

A modern train is undoubtedly safer and more comfortable and imposes less cost than one's own car, but it cannot make short cuts, cannot start and stop to suit one's wishes, and cannot park uptown where one wants to go. The railroad does everything within its power to serve the public, but it cannot equal the convenience of the private automobile.

Time was when passenger coaches were filled going and coming. Stations were trowded with jostling travelers waiting for trains and eager to get started. Traveling salesmen were constant users of trains and had big trunks to load and untiload. Extra coaches were required for circus day and other special occasions. Introduction of the privately owned automobile changed habits of travel both for business and pleasure. The salesman serves economy by making more towns in a day than is possible by depending on trains. He fallows his own schedule and changes it.

Mr. Wallace has dome his best, but it is a members of congress will not be known until the election of the known until the election returns are starned, but it is a fact that republicans are moment of a farmers in a fact that republicans in at least two Nebraska districts now represented by democrats stand an excellent change of election of the known until the election returns are stanned, but it is a fact that republicans are moment of extract hat republicans are moment of extended with the election returns are stanned, but it is a fact that republicans are moment of extended with the election returns are stanned, but it is a fact that republicans are moment of extract hat republicans are moment of extended with the election returns are stanned, but it is a fact that republicans in at least two Nebraska districts now represented by democrats stand an excellent change of election.

Mr. Wallace, has done his beet, but it is not enough. He has sought a volume of production of foodstuffs limited to the demands of the domestic market, only to find that the domestic market is curtailed by other policies of the administration that have chilled business enterprise, and it cannot absorb all that the farms have produced because of the wide unemployment. So many solutions for the farm problem have been tried that one hesitates to offer another, but the fact seems to be evident that if the Wallace policy of produc-

and by encouraging industrial production give the farmer a wider market for his foodstuffs. This does not involve any abandonment of sound objectives. It is merely a realistic approach to the problem of finding more jobs and thus giving farm-

Mr. Smith, therr living at Norris, which was a little settlement near Coledidg, recalls that winter set in October 14 that year with a heavy snow and a suddern drop in the therrometer. The snow never melted more than enough to form a crust over the top, and one snow fell on top of another every few days all winter until the ground was covered to a great depth.

The heavy show coming so early caught farmers unprepared. Many did not have their potatoes dig and most of the farmers had not finished corn picking. Mr. Smith recalls that his father-in-law made a hand sled to pull along the corn rows on top the snow and pick the ears on the stalks. Geese and ducks

Are You Prepared For Winter?

Every good Nebraskan knows that winter is soon due. To make preparation for its arrival is good and sound judgment. Here are a few of the points to check on-

COAL—Fill your bin now. Save from 25 to 50 cents by buying on off-car prices. We have a complete line of quality coals at moder-ate prices suitable for your particular heating plant.

STORM SASH—Here is the one improvement which will help yo more on your heating costs than any other factor. The iment is small, the benefits large. STORM PAPERS—For foundation protection. Genuine Sisalkraft is ideal. However, we have other suitable papers at a lower price. Use class cloth to cover storm doors and porches. It is wind resisting but can be penetrated by the sun rays.

REPAIRS Last but not least, check your house for repairs Does your house least? Reshingle with our No. 1 grade. The best shingle possible for you to buy. Inspect your chimney. You may avert a disastrous fire. Whatever your needs, consult—wells that would produce good water."

Rainfall, however, does play an important part, in increasing the supply of ground water. As the anteresty geologist points out, the mean annual rainfall in Nebraska is 22.88 mehes, or approximately 96.900.000 acre feet, which would cover a strip of land one mile wide, the length of the state to a depth of 518 feet at the east and 259 at the west. This, a rain over a large area does provide a tremendous amount of water, a considerable quantity of which perfectates, in many types of soils to the underlying storage beds.

At the present time the conservation and survey division is keeping tab of some 500 wells located in every coanty, are being taken from as many more located in the power, irrigation and game refuge districts. To supplement this vast store of knowledge, Dr. Condra's membave been making special studies of the voter to the Open and the power have been making special studies of the voter to the Open and the power have been making special studies of the voter that Open and the power.

"America is at war with the bugs. Our financial losses in the fight are greater than the annual appropriations by congress to carry on the army, navy and several other branches of the federal government combined." Istates Mr. Longnecker.

Aside from the aid given by birds in reducing this high cost of bugs, the game birds are a welcome variety for table diet. More than seven million hunting licenses are sold annually, and millions are spent for leases of hunting rights on farms and for meals and accommodations.

One may question the logic of increasing the supply of game birds which are good insect destroyers and then allowing them to be shot by hunters. The answer lies, states Mr. Longnecker, in the fact that any effort to increase game birds also results in increasing other insect eating birds. The result is more birds of all kinds.

U. S. 275 into northeastern Nebraska.

The road now runs from St. Joseph. Mo. to Council Bluffs, Iowa, and then to Omaha. Tilkey's plan is to extend it to Valley and Fremont, thence on No. 8 via West Point to Wisher, Norfolk, Neligh to O'Neill, where it would junction with U. S. 20.

day, the same as the September 1 prediction.
August 1 prospects were for a 180.280,000 Bushel crop. High temperatures, grasshoppers and lack of moisture were responsible for the drastic cut then.
Last year's corn crop production was 82.292,000 bushels. The 1927-36 ten-year average was 180,280,000 bushels.
Nebraska's 1938 all wheat crop was estimated at 59,589,000 bushels. The September 1 figure was the same.

Reports from farmers in the vicinity of Lincoln are that the grasshoppers are rapidly disappearing.
Those who have investigated say the hoppers are the victims of parasites. One is a gray louse that works on the body and the other is a red mite that appears to eat holes in the wings. One farmer reports that he has found hoppers in his field with

Where the ground is protected by weeds and grass, the eggs may be entirely datch off. Other farmers report that there are fewer grasshoppers in the fields at the present time than there were a year ago, and they look for the spring hatch to be much less than it was last year.

I. W. Jacoby, whose farm is located east of Havelock, says that the hoppers are disappearing, and the ascribes their disappearing, and the ascribes their disappearance to the work of parasites. He reports that in the spring of last year he had fewer grasshoppers in his fields than he was able to find in safety also calls for a pavement that is free from chuck holes, ruts and bumps . . . and stays that way with minimum maintenance.

catch dirt.

You want a pavement that makes the whole neighbor hood look modern, prosperous, attractive. ncrete and only concrete . . . completely meets all of se specifications.

Nebraska municipalities have built the equivalent of more than 130 miles of 20-foot concrete pavement during the last 10 years. Many towns are now making use of Federal funds and each year are continuing their streetpaving program using concrete, the standard by which all pavements are Judged.

Visitor Notes

One of the most impressive sights witnessed by Mrs. Minne Struckland, who attended the American Legion convention held recently in Los Angeles, Calif., was the fleet. As the sea was very rough she was permitted to visit only those ships which were in close to shore, the other larger ones not being able to come in close. Mrs. Strickland went aboard the Tennessee, Arizona and other smaller ones carries two planes. They are washed daily, planes. They are washed daily, planes. They are washed daily, planes are strickland to the brass is shined almost every day. The unemployment situation in California is very serious, according to Mrs. Strickland. Pershing Square, across from the Biltmore hotel, is about twice the size of a city block in Wayne, and is filled day and night with unemployed. During the recent publicity on the European war situation, business was paratyzed glong the coast, particularly automobile business.

Over 150,000 delegates attended the European was seemen, mess was paralyzed slong the coast, particularly automobile business.

Over 150,000 delegates attended the Legion convention and during the coast.

Over 150,000 delegates strended the Legion convention and during the short time they were in Los Angeles, they left $22,000,000.

Mrs. Strickland did much sightseeing and visited many relatives and friends during her stay in California. She was at the RKO studio which plans to move into a new building October 15. The new structure will include eight studios as compared to four in the old one. Both parts of life in California were seen byMrs. Strickland. She visited in the more exclusive hotels and also visited the slum districts. In Harlem she saw white and black races intermingling. In old Los Angeles were many open tricts. In Harlem she saw white and black races intermingling. In old Los Angeles were many open-front stores which were closed at night by iron gates which were locked. In one of these open places Mrs. Strickland witnessed a wedding which was performed amid much hollering and excitement among the guests.

Wayne people visited by Mrs. Strickland were Mrs. Eva Alter than who is teaching in the Hollywood schools in a very high position and in five years will receive a pension; her father, I. W. Mrs. Clara Dunham and son, Douglas, of Wessington, S. D., were here Saturday night, guests in the home of Mrs. Clara Dunham and son, Douglas, of Wessington, S. D., were here of Mrs. J. G. Mines. They spent Sunday in Nyfrolk with another son of the Fred Dunhams, a teacher there.

land, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Guy Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bean and Miss Alva Lewis. A very scenic spot in California is the Oriental gardens. These are owned by a man who has made 17 trips to the orient to get plants and to study the natural oriental beauty.

The state corn picking contest will be held October 31 at the Andrew Peterson farm at Madison. The field will yield 60 bushels to the acre.

plit-second starting is assured by D-X because volatility is adjusted to prevailing winter tempera-tures. In addition, the exclusive lubricating con-tent of D.X reduces motor wear and tear—es-pecially during cold weather. For better all-around performance and extra mileage—try D.X or D.X Ethyl at your neighborhood Diamond D.X station. MID CONTINENT PETROLEUM CORPORATION

LUBRICATES UPPER-CYLINDER PARTS

There are Hundreds of Gasolines but only one D-X
