

In the Pig Yard — Planning a County Fair — An Aid to Boys in Camp — Gigger Extremism — Baseball — Government Plans — In Rural Field.

Familiarity with names used in a pig catalogue reassures one that while the crowned heads of the world may disappear, royalty in the animal branch will remain. Witness Queen Beauty and her offspring, Prince Charming and other princes and princesses, scramble for the feed trough on sound of a sonorous voice.

More Letters About Fair. We have a few more letters of comment on the county fair—all anonymous. It is a generally observed rule that the editor must know the name of a writer even if identity is not disclosed to the public.

Gratifying Response. We are gratified by response to our announcement to send copies of the Herald free to boys in the military and naval service.

To Settle Championship. Wayne furnished neutral ground Sunday to decide the baseball championship which oscillated between Pender and Winside.

Approves Wheat Insurance. W. F. Cramly of the Fairbury Farms, who also adds a number of farms in that vicinity, approves the agricultural department's wheat insurance plan.

One may have good intentions, but flatten out through exercise of poor judgment.

Fewer Newspapers. Many towns that used to have two or more newspapers now have one or none. So much is expected of rural publications these days that ten columns of type per week and low overhead no longer satisfy the public.

To Consider Air Show. Chamber of Commerce aviation committee will meet in Russell Bardsell's office Friday evening to consider the proposed air show.

Trip to Southeast Proves Interesting To Wayne Travelers

Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Griffin arrived here Friday from a month's trip through southeastern United States which included Fort Smith, New Orleans, central Florida, Miami, St. Augustine, Savannah, Columbia, S. C., Asheville, N. C., the Smoky mountains, Knoxville, Tenn., Lexington, Ky., and St. Louis.

In New Orleans, where the Griffins spent a day and a half visiting the old French quarter, they found very old but picturesque houses coming clear to the edge of the narrow streets, but a glimpse past the dilapidated doors showed beautiful courtyards with palms, great ferns and lovely flowers.

Key West impressed Dr. and Mrs. Griffin as a rather "sleepy town," old, quaint and slow. It was a thriving place at one time, but since it is no longer a special-to-look-for place, financial lethargy has resulted. Key West is the last of a series of coral islands which must be crossed to reach it. The ocean is not at any time out of sight during the trip which is known as "going to sea in an auto." In many places the water is so shallow that from the bridges, the coral can be seen working. The longest bridge is seven miles long.

Miami, the central point of the Griffins' trip, has grown up mostly in the last 25 years, with an architectural style set by the Coral Gables section. Houses are mostly some pattern of stucco in either cream-white or pastel colors and many have patios. Spanish and Bahaman influences are noticeable. A law making the city more harmonious than many is the zoning in the residential districts. Homes must be built with price and style consistent with the zones in which they are located. Since Miami has coral foundation on which little vegetation will grow, fertile soil must be bought, and laid before a lawn can be made. This soil must be replenished about twice a year. Coral has to be dug out and the hole filled with dirt in order to plant trees.

A good many islands around Miami, even Miami Beach, are man-made and very new. To drop a part of the ocean, sand-sucker machines pull sand from the bottom into a great pile. When the pile of sand is big enough for a few houses, and well settled, large Rowland and other palms, ferns and flowers are planted, streets are laid out and homes built. Some of these are great estates.

North of Miami is Fort Lauderdale, a beautiful residential city. One section, called Venice, has canals running between the houses and right up to the front doors. Little arched bridges span the canals at intervals.

Another interesting place visited by Dr. and Mrs. Griffin was the aquarium, largest in the world, south of Saint Augustine. The fish are fed twice a day and the Griffins were able to watch. Dolphins will jump out of the water to catch their food, while the sharks and eels, among others, are fed under water by keepers in diving suits. The tanks and pools in this aquarium are large enough to allow the fish all the room of their natural habitat.

Merritt island, a reef 150 miles long and about 1/2 mile wide, along eastern Florida, grows as the multi-colored fish are plainly visible.

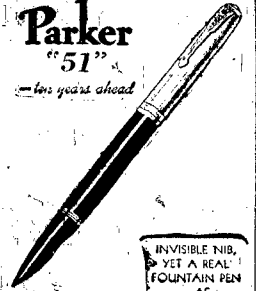

Sanita Rosa island, a reef along the gulf coast east of Pensacola, is of snow-white sand and is covered with little evergreen trees and shrubs. Set off by the blues, purples and greens of the gulf waters in late afternoon, it was one of the most effective pictures the Griffins saw.

Many beautiful summer estates line the coast near Gulf Port and Polosa. The houses are white, low-setting buildings, surrounded by pines and live oaks, hung with Spanish moss.

Party Purges NOW comes an announcement that Wendell Willkie, defeated republican candidate for the presidency a year ago, proposes to purge the party of members who are not in full accord with the Roosevelt foreign policy.

The platforms on which President Roosevelt and Mr. Willkie ran for election last year declared against participating in foreign wars, and speeches of both candidates during the campaign stoutly upheld that determination.

COLLEGE reopening is the signal for renewed application to intensified study. College years are few, and they may be made the brightest in one's life.

Education cannot rationally be considered merely as a means to material wealth. It facilitates thinking and deepens comprehension of life's innumerable values.

College background does not flee before economic disaster. It cannot be destroyed by fire or flood or drought.

With prices going up and demand for labor increasing, the need for big non-defense spending is not apparent. Billions for defense should supplant unnecessary government projects.

It is encouraging to hear from W. A. Behl, Brooklyn teacher who talked to Wayne Kiwanians Monday, that only about two per cent of the students in New York schools and colleges have communist leanings.

Whether people shall be permitted to have a voice in their government or shall be ruled arbitrarily by a dictator is the question involved in the European war.

Among obstacles in the path of the re-arming program, the United States News says: "Labor is taking advantage of defense to entrench itself, to get with government help sweeping new powers and rights that won't be easy to take away."

Harold Ickes, secretary of the Interior, and gasoline and oil administrator, has been out of the limelight for a few days—so long that we are becoming fearful lest he has slipped from normality and is not hitting on all cylinders.

Martin Dies, house member from Texas, and chairman of the committee to root out un-American activities, is on the trail of government employees charged with communist affiliations. The more men like Dies, the better for the future of the country.

Cool elements, suggestive of frost, remind us that the warm season, free from the need of fires for comfort, has been shorter than usual. A few more weeks without a killing freeze will be necessary to insure good corn.

Hitler and Stalin send word to contending forces in Russia to fight on at any cost. That means more slaughter, more ruin and more misery. The struggle between communists and nazis shows modern warfare at its worst.

The next and by no means least emergency in the new deal series will come after the war is over and economic readjustment sets in.

Back to School. (Industrial Press Service)

Although the average American boy who returns to school after the summer holiday may not consider himself lucky, he is one of the most fortunate youngsters in this troubled world today.

The truth is that there are not many countries left where young folks have an opportunity to acquire unbiased information, free from censorship and enslaving propaganda. There are not many countries left where they can grow in freedom and prepare themselves for the kind of work they want to do.

Yet such freedoms are but part of the liberty that has been traditional with us Americans—so traditional, indeed, that we tend to wear it as casually as our familiar clothes. To appreciate its real value we need only compare our way of life with that in many other countries.

As we see our children return to school we need to remember that and to be grateful for it. Although we can not go back to classes with them, we can—and should—reflect on the value of our freedom and consider how we may best preserve it from destruction.

Save the Livestock Industry. (Omaha Journal-Stockman)

In the present national emergency no industry is functioning more perfectly than the livestock industry. We have plenty of meat, available to all at reasonable prices, and we are able to provide England with the meats and fats she so sorely needs.

The immediate danger is excessive importation of livestock and meat products to slow up and discourage our own stock growers. For this reason the livestock organizations of the country are protesting vigorously against the removal of sanitary and tariff restrictions against such importations.

Such a course of action, as is favored by our state department, "is inconsistent with Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard's program of insuring adequate food supplies for the United States and her allies to propose measures that imperil our great livestock industry," the American National Livestock association declares in a recent letter of protest to Washington.

Indications are that it is going to require constant watchfulness and repeated vigorous protests from stock growers and farmers to prevent these demoralizing and wholly unnecessary importations.

Information Sources. (Lincoln Journal)

A Journal reader asks a question about the authenticity of war news. He had read a dispatch from Berlin quoting an "authoritative source" as the basis for information. Frequently he had read dispatches from Berlin quoting the "German high command." What he asked was which of the two sources was entitled to the greater credence.

In a country where every source of information is owned or controlled by the government, it is difficult to place accurately one source above another. In Germany, the radio, the newspapers, all news sources are controlled by a one-man government. That would appear to give every source of information official status.

It is encouraging to hear from W. A. Behl, Brooklyn teacher who talked to Wayne Kiwanians Monday, that only about two per cent of the students in New York schools and colleges have communist leanings.

Whether people shall be permitted to have a voice in their government or shall be ruled arbitrarily by a dictator is the question involved in the European war.

RINGS.

There are many different kinds of rings—rings for fingers, for bulls' noses, for auction sales, for prize fights and wrestling matches, rings around Saturn and sometimes around the moon. Sundry other rings serve a useful or useless purpose.

The Third district member has been here less than two weeks. The Norfolk and Washington offices are open for business while the member is traveling over the district transacting official business and meeting many friends.

The oleomargarine trust has spent many millions of dollars trying to teach the public to eat margarine. Today a branch of our department of agriculture is doing the same thing.

As war approaches people are buying various things fearing a shortage later. Even the cold storage boxes in the various towns in our district are being rented long in advance in order to fill them with the meats and fats which we raise in Nebraska.

Owners of small machine shops in the various counties of our district are wondering why we are not getting some of the national defense business. The real defense spending has not yet taken place.

Each division is equipped with a U. S. O. service club where dances may be held any time a company desires to have one, and where the fellows can meet for jive and classical music sessions or other activities.

At Fort Knox, Ky., where the Wayne youth spent his first two months of army life, tents, in groups called cities, were living quarters. Furnace-heated barracks are provided the 21,000 men at Pine camp, where extreme cold and heavy snow are the rule in winter.

Shows Hogs at Fair. O. G. Nelson showed his Poland China hogs at Hartington fair this week.

POOR ADVICE.

This country got along so well so long without the advice of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, the president's wife, that we would be glad to see it try it again.

The matter of extending financial aid to Russia is to the fore. Already war-planes and other equipment are being sent across the Pacific to Siberia.

The reconstruction finance corporation of which Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones still is boss, announces that the RFC can make loans to Russia without security, if need be, to pay for supplies obtained here.

The war department has issued its order as to releasing many National guardsmen and selectees now serving in the army. The war department has been insisting upon retaining the full strength of the army for an additional training period of 18 months.

There has been some criticism in congress and in the press also, of the difficulty in learning just how much has been accomplished toward supplying Britain and in building up our own armed strength.

Defense Workers Cause Congestion

Even thousands of new houses—some of them, immense factory additions, several large new schools and rebuilt highways do not serve to eliminate the congestion in Wichita, Kan., caused by the large numbers of defense workers in that city.

So wrote the Byron C. Rutlis, formerly of Wayne, in a letter to the Herald this week. Mr. Rutlis is employed by an aircraft company in Wichita.

Occupants of 400 homes just completed by the government will be selected from about 2,000 applicants according to their present housing conditions and the number of their children. Work has been started on 500 demountable homes to be completed before cold weather.

Rent in government homes is one-fifth of the worker's monthly income plus $5 flat rate for utilities, making a total of $30 to $40. Thousands of houses are built by real estate firms to be sold from $25,000 up at 10 per cent down and $25 to $40 monthly payments.

Regulations are being set up in an attempt to hold rents at a reasonable level, while foodstuffs are about the same prices as at other places.

Factory additions are continuously being erected in order to handle new contracts. One Wichita aircraft company will soon start to build 1,400 AT 10 planes—a two-motored ship, metal except for a plywood covering, and another will be making Boeing "flying fortresses."

The plant where the Wayne man is employed is building seven or eight different models.

"Everything is increasing so fast the city managers cannot possibly keep up," write the Rutlis. "Schools are going to be very congested though several new large schools have been erected."

Traffic conditions are unpleasant at present in spite of building and rebuilding roads and streets to meet requirements of increasing numbers of autos. Accidents are numerous although increased police force, severe courts, and a safety campaign to check every car for lights, brakes, etc., are expected to reduce them.

The Rutlis declare they are feeling more and more at home in Wichita. Pvt. Ralph Van Allen, who has moved to the army air base at Bangor, Maine, from Langley field, Va., spent his furlough with Mr. and Mrs. Ruth recently. Pvt. Van Allen is head cook for his group.

Christian Science Services

"Substance" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientists, throughout the world, on Sunday, September 14.

The Golden Text is: "The things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal" (II Corinthians 4:18).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Let them praise the name of the Lord; for he commanded, and they were created" (Psalms 148:5).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Spirit is the only substance, the invisible and indivisible infinite God. Things spiritual and eternal are substantial. . . . The universe reflects and expresses the divine substance of Mind; therefore God is seen only in the spiritual universe and spiritual man, as the sun is seen in the ray of light which goes out from it. God is revealed only in that which reflects Life, Truth, Love, sea, which manifests God's attributes and powers even as the human likeness thrown upon the mirror, repeats the color, form and action of the person in front of the mirror" (pp. 335, 300).

THE IMPORTANCE OF SEEING

No. 4—What About the Pedestrian

- PLACE a circle around the letter "T" if a statement is true and around the letter "F" if a statement is false. When finished, turn upside down to read correct answers at bottom of this test. Your score is the number right minus the number wrong. How good are you? 1. At night a pedestrian can be more easily seen on a concrete road surface than on an asphalt road surface. T F 2. It is advisable for the pedestrian to keep to the right on crowded cross-walk crossings. T F 3. A pedestrian who has the right of way on a cross-walk in the daytime does not have it after dark because the driver cannot see him very well. T F 4. The intelligent driver takes for granted that all pedestrians on a rural road will walk facing oncoming traffic. T F 5. Since there is greater congestion of traffic at intersections, it is safer for pedestrians to cross between rather than at intersections. T F 6. The safe driver does not have to know sound pedestrian practices. T F 7. If an adult pedestrian lacks mature judgment, the driver of a car has no responsibility toward him. T F 8. It is safe for a pedestrian to step into the street from between parked cars if he doesn't see any other cars approaching. T F 9. It is a foolish driving practice to assume that every child playing on or near the street may suddenly dart in front of your car. T F 10. The man on foot often makes the mistake of believing that he can be seen by the driver from a far greater distance than is actually possible when walking facing oncoming traffic. T F 11. Whether a pedestrian on a highway wears light clothing or dark clothing at night has no bearing on the distance at which he can be seen. T F 12. It is wise for the man on foot to look first to the left then to the right before crossing two-way streets. T F 13. At intersections unprotected by traffic lights, it is not wise for a pedestrian to follow a clockwise path in reaching a diagonal destination. T F 14. It is definitely established that adults can learn new habits and attitudes. T F 15. When sidewalks are crowded, it is entirely safe to walk short distances in the roadway as long as one faces oncoming traffic. T F

More Defense Foods Needed

More milk, more eggs, more pork is the food-for-defense appeal being made to American farmers by the U. S. department of agriculture. Farmers are responding unilaterally, the department says. Ten lettermen and 25 new recruits reported for grid practice at Wayne State with Coach Jim Morrison who is endeavoring to get the squad in shape by September 19 when the Wildcats tangle with Dakota Wesleyan, who appear fairly strong this season. "Prospects are poor but possibilities of development by at least the third or fourth encounter are expected," was Morrison's deduction of the grid season outlook. Undoubtedly Coach Morrison will miss the grid services of Joe Lindahl who, gained Little All-American recognition at the wing position, plus three other regulars, namely, Bob Childs, Bud Braunsch and Eddie Nitzel of whom he bolstered the Wildcat lineup last season and who this year are with Uncle Sam's armed forces. The 10 lettermen returning are V. South, Allen, Dick Peterson, Norfolk, H. Fitch, Wayne, Bob Westphal, Tilden, Corryell, Wayne, "Pi" Page, Pilger, Horace Pirtzer, Madison, Jim Warren, Lyons, Bud Best, Stanton, Pete Kozisek, Stuart. Veterans of last year, who barely missed their letter and who will be battling for varsity lineup are W. Steeber, Stanton, B. Dale, Wayne, Bob McKnight, Tilden, Bob Webb, Madison, C. Mac Dermott, Merville, Jim, Pile, Wayne. Other squad members include "Jo" George, D. Wenbowine, Jack Atkins, Joe Gatewood, C. O'Conner, Allen Hayek, V. Jacobs, Russ Lempe, M. Johnson, L. Reimer, W. Kent, J. Pennington, P. Anderson, Mackey, Pucey, Kuhn, G. Olson, A. Amidi, D. Sturb, Robinson, G. Savage, Joe Heene, L. Graham, D. Bright and Thomas.

More Defense Foods Needed

More milk, more eggs, more pork is the food-for-defense appeal being made to American farmers by the U. S. department of agriculture. Farmers are responding unilaterally, the department says. Ten lettermen and 25 new recruits reported for grid practice at Wayne State with Coach Jim Morrison who is endeavoring to get the squad in shape by September 19 when the Wildcats tangle with Dakota Wesleyan, who appear fairly strong this season. "Prospects are poor but possibilities of development by at least the third or fourth encounter are expected," was Morrison's deduction of the grid season outlook. Undoubtedly Coach Morrison will miss the grid services of Joe Lindahl who, gained Little All-American recognition at the wing position, plus three other regulars, namely, Bob Childs, Bud Braunsch and Eddie Nitzel of whom he bolstered the Wildcat lineup last season and who this year are with Uncle Sam's armed forces. The 10 lettermen returning are V. South, Allen, Dick Peterson, Norfolk, H. Fitch, Wayne, Bob Westphal, Tilden, Corryell, Wayne, "Pi" Page, Pilger, Horace Pirtzer, Madison, Jim Warren, Lyons, Bud Best, Stanton, Pete Kozisek, Stuart. Veterans of last year, who barely missed their letter and who will be battling for varsity lineup are W. Steeber, Stanton, B. Dale, Wayne, Bob McKnight, Tilden, Bob Webb, Madison, C. Mac Dermott, Merville, Jim, Pile, Wayne. Other squad members include "Jo" George, D. Wenbowine, Jack Atkins, Joe Gatewood, C. O'Conner, Allen Hayek, V. Jacobs, Russ Lempe, M. Johnson, L. Reimer, W. Funeral Rites Conducted Here

Andrew J. Johnson Passes Away Friday Following Failing Health.

Andrew J. Johnson, 77, passed away Friday, September 5, at 5:15. Funeral rites were conducted Tuesday afternoon at 2 from the O. P. Lundstrom home and at 2:30 from Concordia Lutheran church, of which deceased was a member. Rev. W. T. Chell officiated and committal followed in Concord cemetery.

Andrew J. Johnson was born February 11, 1863, in Kopinge, Kristianstad, Sweden. His parents were Jonas and Klara Okeson. In 1883 he emigrated from Sweden and located at Red Oak, Ia. The following year he came to Wakefield, Neb. This trip was made by teams during the cold weather. For about five years Mr. Johnson worked at Wakefield, and later purchased a farm east of Concord which he farmed. In the year of 1909 he moved to Concord and became an implement dealer which business he managed several years. After disposing of this business he worked a few years in Sioux City for the Knapp & Spencer hardware and later acted as watchman for Davidson company. However, most of the time he had made his home with the O. P. Lundstroms, Mrs. Lundstrom being his sister. Three different trips were made by him to his homeland of Sweden.

Mr. Johnson had been failing for several years. He became seriously ill last February. Medical aid was sought and tender care given him but slowly he continued to grow weaker.

Closer relatives left are one brother-in-law, O. P. Lundstrom of Concord, two nieces, Hilda and Mrs. Sadie Johnson, both of Concord and community and one niece and four nephews in Sweden. He had two sisters who preceded him in death, one being Mrs. Lundstrom who died June, 12, 1937. Thus Mr. Johnson was the last to pass away from his immediate offspring.

Young Man Tells Of Virginia Camp

Fort Eustis, Va., where T. J. Leonard of this vicinity is stationed, is an army training camp of about 16,000 soldiers now. When completed, the number will be increased to 20,000. This is a training and replacement center for coast artillery. After 12 or 13 weeks there, the men are sent to permanent posts.
The camp is well planned, built in blocks the same as a city or town. Each block is a battalion, which consists of four batteries. Each battery has four platoons or four barracks and a mess hall. The center of the block is for recreation and training.
Young men are allowed two or four hours off in the afternoon every week for recreation such as baseball, softball, volley ball and horseshoe pitching. Those not on detail work are allowed passes to go to town week-ends. Newport News is 18 miles, Yorktown 8, Williamsburg 12 and Richmond 65. A post theatre is operated each night. Nearly every week-end a convoy takes a group to Washington, D. C., which makes a nice trip.

"Plenty of sugar for consumers and improved outlook for sugar beet growers." This sums up the current sugar situation, according to word received by T. P. Roberts. A ceiling of 3.5c per pound has been placed by Administrator Leon Henderson on 96 degree raw sugar.
"Consumers should feel sure there is plenty of sugar," added Mr. Henderson. "The supply available exceeds the 1940 consumption by a million tons and is sufficient to give the highest individual consumption on record."
"In addition, beet sugar growers have a most favorable outlook. The average return to them will be more than $7 per ton. This compares favorably with $6.52 in 1938 and $6.70 in 1939.

Is in Grandstand Destroyed by Fire

When fire destroyed the grandstand at Missoula, Mont., rodod, Miss Marilyn Stratton, formerly of Wayne, was one of the large number who escaped from the burning structure. No lives were lost but the huge grandstand was demolished. Many chickens were trapped beneath the seats where the blaze originated. Several other buildings and parked cars were also destroyed. Considerable chaos reigned for a time when people were seeking safety and animals, released from burning stalls, were frantically running about the grounds.

In spite of the fire, the fair continued the following day. A grandstand was moved from the university grounds to the site for the occasion.

"Dates and places of these meetings will be announced later."

Rain Saves Area From Desert Class

Light Frost Is Recorded in Early September for Northeast Section.

Early Days from the Wayne Herald for September 10, 1925:

"The fear that this vicinity would again find a place in geographies as a part of the Great American desert and have no further use for umbrellas or rubber coats was dispelled Monday when a great flood of moisture spread over northeast Nebraska. An inch and one-third fell here, an inch at Carroll and an inch and one-quarter at Wakefield. Over three inches were recorded at Norfolk and filled the big gulch of the town to overflowing for the first time in several years. The rain will freshen the corn and especially help that planted late. Pastures are greatly benefited and the soil is put in good shape for fall plowing. The rain cooled the hot atmosphere and relieved people's feelings as well as revived suffering vegetation."

Various types of songs were depicted in tableaux as a Wayne county fair feature. Schools symbolized national holidays in their float parade.

Rev. H. L. Borneman was honored at LaPorte St. Paul church for serving 25 years as pastor.

Ralph Horstmann, 4, only child of Mr. and Mrs. John Horstmann of near Wayne, died September 6, 1925.

Miss Mabel Miller and Ernest Kohrt were married September 7, 1925.

Greater Wayne club has asked the city council to make a levy for maintaining a band.

Fire thought to have started from an electric wire damaged the grocery store of Kahl & Fleer.

Harold Jensen and Miss Margaret Whorlow were married September 9, 1925.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ahlvers September 9, 1925.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John F. Ahern September 5, 1925.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Perry Owen August 26, 1925. The Owens formerly lived here but are now in Brazil, Ind.

Sioux City sent the Monahan post band, drum corps and other boosters to Wayne, 120 in all, the group coming by special train.

Regarding the Snore.

"We have never heard of any cure or remedy for snoring, and we are surprised that nothing has ever been accomplished in that direction. No one ever admits that he snores, but he knows the other fellow does if he happens to be in the same house or on the same quarter-section. Snoring is not restricted to the fat or lean, rich or poor, high or low. It is caused by currents of air sweeping through certain relaxed throat fixtures — the uvula and soft palate — and making them vibrate and roar. Wind cave in the Black Hills, with air coming and going, would snore if it had such appendages. We do not wish to enter into conflict with fundamentalists, but we would suggest that science might well exercise itself in behalf of finding something that would make the throat hangings lie down and behave themselves during hours when everybody and everything should be asleep."

James T. Wachob of Omaha, formerly of Wayne, and Mrs. Margaret Hynes, also of Omaha, were married in Paris in September, 1925.

Mrs. Margaretta Thieboldt, 52, died at Winside September 8, 1925. Miss Hazel Arnold underwent an operation here.

Miss Miriam Johnson had an operation at a Wayne hospital.

Mrs. C. A. Ash returned home after undergoing an operation.

Dick Vanister and Miss Fanchion Hoskinson were married September 3, 1925.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Malmberg of Concord, September 1, 1925.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller of Wakefield, died September 1, 1925.

Seed Brome Grass On Several Farms

Seeding of brome grass is in progress on many of the CCC camp cooperators' farms. Those who have seeded brome or a mixture of brome and alfalfa for hay or pasture or both are Lloyd Morris, David Rees, T. P. Roberts, Paul Splittgerber, Wm. Doose, Wm. Larson, Albert Watson, John Petersen, Herman Frese and Lawrence Thomsen. Most of the above seeding included some permanent waterways.

The CCC camp enrollees constructed check dams in one waterway on the Lloyd Morris farm and in two waterways on the David Rees farm. One deep gully was bled shut and the channel widened and seeded on the John Petersen farm. A small gully on the T. P. Roberts farm was bladed and seeded.

Two diversion terraces were built on the Bernard Splittgerber farm. A 1940 fall brome and alfalfa pasture seeding was fenced to permit grazing.

Trees were weeded on the farm operated by Louis Willers.

Fifty years ago A. L. Wyman, hauling a load of wood from Randolph to Bloomfield, called "yoo hoo" to a girl he saw on horseback herding cattle. Last week these two celebrated their golden wedding. Mrs. Wyman was formerly Sylvia Howell.

Why not choose the NAVAL RESERVE!

AN IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT by the Secretary of the Navy

"All men now enlisting in the Naval Reserve will be retained on active Navy duty throughout the period of the national emergency, but they will be released to inactive duty as soon after the emergency as their services can be spared, regardless of the length of time remaining in their enlistment."

SECRETARY OF THE NAVY

HERE IS THE OPPORTUNITY THAT THOUSANDS OF MEN HAVE BEEN LOOKING FOR

Here is your opportunity to have all the advantages and privileges of Navy life but with a shorter enlistment.

Many men do not realize—but it is a fact—that your pay, your training, and your chances for advancement in the Naval Reserve are exactly the same as in the Navy itself.

FREE TRAINING WORTH $1500

Take your own case. Let's assume that you have had no special training. In that case here is your opportunity to learn one of the Navy's 45 big-pay trades, from aviation engineering to radio. You may receive training worth $1500 the first year alone. In addition you get all the advantages listed in the second column of this announcement.

HIGHER PAY OPPORTUNITIES

But perhaps you have had special training or know a trade. In that case the Naval Reserve offers you the opportunity to use your knowledge. If you qualify (high school or college not necessary), you can join as a petty officer right away—with higher pay and allowances. Also, if you have two or more years of college credits, there are special opportunities to become a Naval aviator or a commissioned officer.

LOOK WHAT THE U. S. NAVAL RESERVE OFFERS YOU

- FREE TRAINING worth $1500. Nearly 50 trades and vocations to choose from.
- GOOD PAY with regular increases. You may earn up to $126 a month.
- EACH YEAR you are entitled to a generous vacation period, with full pay.
- GOOD FOOD and plenty of it.
- FREE CLOTHING. A complete outfit of clothing when you first enlist. (Over $100 worth.)
- FREE MEDICAL CARE, including regular dental attention.
- FINEST SPORTS and entertainment any man could ask for.
- TRAVEL, ADVENTURE, THRILLS—You can't beat the Navy for them!
- BECOME AN OFFICER. Many can work for an appointment to the Naval Academy or the Annapolis of the Air at Pensacola.
- FUTURE SUCCESS. It's easy for Navy trained men to get good-paying jobs in civil life.
