Still Hold Hope For Wayne Youth

E. J. Hunters Get Letter From Officer Who Was On Ship with Jean.

The fact that the navy department still reports Ensign Jean Hunter "missing" leads his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hunter, to cling to the hope that the young man may be found on an island in the south Pacific where his ship was torpedoed.

The captain explained that when the battle started, Jean was on the bridge with him and had directed the fire of torpedoes into the Jap battleship.

Perhaps the boys had in mind later, shooting into enemy camps the choice scrap they had collected.

SERVICE NEWS

Has New Address. Pfc. Donald Sherbahn, who had been in Pennsylvania, now has a New York address.

Has New Address. Pvt. Donald Clark has a new address with the bomb squadron, care of the postmaster, San Francisco, Calif.

In Engineer School. Capt. Lawrence Johnson is now located with the engineers' school regiment at Ft. Belvoir, Va.

To New Location. Pfc. Edwin Morris, brother of Mrs. Wm. Lucders, has been transferred from Oklahoma City, Okla., to Hattiesburg, Miss.

Comes for Visit. Sgt. Earl Fox, who is stationed at the Scottsbluff air base, had visited in the Cliff Fox home in Walthill and came here Tuesday to spend a few days with relatives. He has 10 days leave.

Comes for Furlough. Sgt. Henry L. Jones of Fredrick, Okla., here from May 21 until next Wednesday in the Dave Jones home near Carroll, likes home contacts afforded by the Herald.

Writes from Missouri. Pvt. Lawrence Lass, stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., writes the Herald his appreciation of the paper, especially the service column. He also said that due to the great amounts of rain they have had, flood conditions prevail.

Appreciates Herald. Cpl. Arnold Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hansen of Carroll who is home on a 15-day furlough, was in Wayne Tuesday and expressed his appreciation of the Herald. Cpl. Hansen is now stationed at the army air base in Homestead, Fla.

Version of Texas Life. "A Soldier's Version of Texas" is the title of a short sketch written recently by Pvt. Allan J. Perdue. In this the young man describes the life of the soldier as he works hard to defend America. Always in his heart is the longing and determination to finish the task and return home to his loved ones. Pvt. Perdue, who had spent a few weeks at Rapid City, S. D., now has a New York address.

The Wayne young man writes his sincere appreciation for home contacts through the Herald.

Home on Furlough. A. S. Donald Echtenkamp arrived Sunday from Point Reyes, Calif., to spend about 12 days with his mother, Mrs. Alvina Echtenkamp. The youth is on beach patrol and this is his first leave since he entered service eight and a half months ago. He says the Herak is most welcome each week.

Twins in Armed Service. The Noakes twins, Willis and Warren, sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Noakes, have both been accepted into the armed forces. Willis, who enlisted about two months ago, leaves this Thursday for the marine base at San Diego, Calif. Warren, who passed the navy V-12 test in April, was sworn into that branch Monday in Omaha and returned to Wayne to await his call.

Studies Meteorology. "After about three months of wandering, I have finally reached my desired destination," writes Pvt. Herbert C. Temme from the University of Minneapolis. "I enlisted in the enlisted reserve corps while attending the engineering college at the University of Nebraska. I became interested in the meteorology program offered by the air corps. I made application by sending in my college credits and other details. I was accepted and awaited call to active duty. I was called to Carleton college at Northfield, Minn., to begin my meteorology training. My previous college education qualified me for the first grade or class B training instead of class C training at Carleton.

"I was sent to Jefferson Barracks, Mo., to await the beginning of a B class school. Finally, after 11 weeks' stay at Jefferson Barracks with its basic training and detail work, I was shipped. I was sent to the University of Minnesota where I have now begun my meteorology training. Bob Haas, another Wayne boy, a good friend of mine through high school, has been with me all the time, at Carleton, Jefferson Barracks and here. We see each other often for his lives just two doors down the hall.

"Our course here is to cover intensive mathematics in the form of calculus and physics. Geography and English are also on the schedule. My only hope is that the work will not be too difficult."

The Wayne young man includes his appreciation for the Herald as a means of keeping up on happenings at home and as a way to keep in touch with others in service.

Comes from Pacific Area to Recuperate. Cpl. Harold McPherran arrived from San Diego, Calif., Saturday evening to spend about 30 days in his parents' Adam McPherran home. The young man, who is in the marines, had been in a San Diego hospital recovering from bayonet wounds and shock suffered while serving on the Samban islands. He had been in the southwest Pacific area 15 months.

Young Men Meet On Easter Sunday In North Africa

Easter was a wonderfully happy day for Cpl. Archie Wert and Cpl. Byron James of Wayne, for it was then that they met in north Africa and it was the first time the former had seen another Wayne youth since he reached that region March 20. Cpl. Wert has been there longer. Cpl. Wert and his roommate had attended Easter services at the American memorial cemetery and were waiting in the Red Cross room for a bus ride. It was then that Cpl. James happened along, also looking for a ride.

The Wayne men learned that they are in the same building about once each week so they manage to see each other at that time. Cpl. Wert is with the quartermaster service and headquarters are in a school building in Oran, northwest of Algiers. Cpl. James is with the signal service.

Cpl. Wert reports the food excellent. Africa has much beautiful scenery. Dances are held in the courtyard, and motion pictures are shown occasionally for the men. Shots and pills are used to guard against malaria.

Captain Speaks To Prep Seniors

Lunch was served, and ball games and group games furnished entertainment.

Plan Summer Period. A month's summer period is planned for the training school for kindergarten through the 8th grade. The session opens June 7 and it is planned to hold instruction mornings and afternoons. All children of the community are welcome.

Fifth Grade News. The grade is enjoying reading some stories from the "Arabian Nights Entertainments."

The children are getting practice in using correct forms of verbs during the language period. Students have been comparing and contrasting life in the late colonial period with the way the early colonists lived. It has been interesting to discover how nearly the length of time from the settlement of Jamestown to the Declaration of Independence equals the length of time that has passed since the Declaration of Independence.

Fourth Grade News. Geography lessons about Norway will be continued in the summer term.

The bulletin board this week shows pictures of dogs at war.

Attendance again is regular following an epidemic of measles.

Third Grade Items. Barbara Brumm entered the 3rd grade, coming from Hays, Kans.

The children wrote letters to Mrs. L. W. McNatt to thank her for knitting blocks for their Afghan. Fifty-four blocks are now completed.

Thursday morning, the class visited the laboratory to see the birds and animals of interest.

Tuesday, a successful bird trip was taken. Cat birds, orioles, wrens, turtle doves, robins, brown thrashers, flickers, warblers and red-headed woodpeckers were seen. Various nests are under observation.

Frances Jane Marty has returned from her mother's school which she has been attending the past few weeks.

The children constructed a Viking house, a project developing from the study of Viking Tales.

Second Grade News. Miss Esther Peterson told the story Elephant's Child, and Miss Dorothy Smith told the story of the Three Sillies to the 2nd grade children. Both young women are from Mrs. R. R. Smith's class in children's literature.

Harold Surber brought some snails and Dr. S. B. Shiveley gave the 2nd grade some tadpoles. The children are interested in watching them grow.

First Grade Items. The 1st grade went with Miss Lebeck Friday to see the college flower beds. They also saw Bill Ebersole's and Don Denkinger's gardens. They expect to see some of the gardens of the other 1st grade students.

The children were interested in a little song sparrow that had been hurt. Dr. Shiveley took it over to his laboratory and revived it so much that they decided to let it out again.

Miss Seitzinger is using a home unit in her work in reading. It is teaching something about lots and house building in such a way that the pupils understand and like it.

Kindergarten News. The kindergarten children and Miss Virginia Carper received a picture post card with a message from Sandra Korff. Friday the children finished a group letter to Sandra.

The children have made a miniature farm scene in their sand box. John Dawson made a large, red paper barn. Margaret Ann and Linda Kessler made a silo. Fences are constantly being built around the house and pig pen.

Marian Carlson brought a newspaper article for the bulletin board.

Tuesday, the pupils enjoyed outdoor play in the small public park.

Thursday the children took a trip to the greenhouse. They bought marigold and petunia plants. John Dawson, Robert Fay Bryan, Wyoma Griffith and Linda Kessler planted these flowers. Steve Pawlowski set out two tomato plants that he had brought to school. There are radishes, lettuce and onions growing in the garden.

Friday was Wyoma Griffith's last day at school because she is going away for the summer.

Future Is Bright For Young Folks

Honors Are Announced for Wayne High Graduates Friday Evening.

"When the Lights Go On Again" is the title of the encouraging address presented by Prof. R. F. Patterson of Vermillion, S. D., Friday evening, in addressing Wayne city school's 62 graduates at commencement in the auditorium. The words of this song convey the fine expression of hope for the future just as "Over There" did in the first World war. This perpetual hope must not be lost. It is like the bright sun that rises after the blackest night.

The speaker gave three reasons to support his assurance that the lights will go on again all over the world. First, history for 2,000 years has confirmed the fact that the great conquerors fall and the right triumphs. Secondly, the truth cannot be killed. The fact that people everywhere in unopposed countries as well as in freedom to their worship of God and hold to their beliefs that good will triumph give assurance. So, neither Hitler nor any other dictator can destroy kindness, goodwill, charity and such things that are true. Thirdly, liberty and freedom have become so firmly embodied in the hearts of men everywhere that they cannot be erased. The speaker mentioned a radio program in which little English children in this country talked to their fathers during the blitz. The confidence expressed by these youngsters in the ultimate triumph of the principles for which their folks are fighting proved that democracy will live.

Graduates of this year go out with hope and determination to take their part in freedom's crowning hour, concluded the speaker.

Scholarships Awarded

Phillip Briggs was presented the University of Nebraska regents' scholarship. Alternates for the regents' award are Leatrice Pflueger and Ralph Germeroth. The state school scholarship was presented to Irma Back. The church school scholarship was awarded to Ralph Germeroth. These were given by Principal Herman Baehr.

OPA awards for meritorious service were presented to Irma Back, Betty Meister, Lucille Palmer and Faunel Wittler.

Entering Service

Millard Bahe enlisted in the navy last August. Ray Murray was inducted into the navy and Bob Stull into the marine corps in late March. Jimmie Allen and Jack Beale have been accepted into the army air corps reserves.

In the army-navy college examinations given April 12, Roland Splittgerber received word that he is eligible for further examination in the navy program. Homer Biermann, Phillip Briggs, Oliver Kellogg, Bob Wright, Thomas Johnson and Ralph Germeroth were notified that they are eligible for further examination in the army program.

Wayne Instructor Will Be Married

Miss Marcia Cook, kindergarten and girls' physical training teacher in Wayne city school the past year, and Pvt. Lawrence Muckey, (flying with the air corps at Superior, Wis.), plan to be married in the Pilgrim Congregational church at Superior, May 29, at 5 p. m.

Miss Cook is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Cook of Sioux City, and Pvt. Muckey the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Muckey of Mapleton, Ia.

The bride-to-be plans to wear light blue wool gabardine with white accessories. Her attendant will be her sister, Miss Vera Cook, Ames, Ia., student, and Miss Lawrence Edwards, Wayne college student and from Sioux City. Miss Edwards will wear navy blue.

Pvt. Muckey and his roommate, who will serve as his attendant, will wear their military uniforms.

The Clarence Cooks, parents of the bride-to-be, and Mrs. Muckey, mother of Pvt. Muckey, plan to attend.

Pvt. Muckey was graduated from Wayne college last year. He taught for a time at Charter Oak, Ia., and left February 23 to serve in the air corps. He has been stationed at Superior since entering and for the past few weeks has been acting training lieutenant.

Miss Cook attended Wayne college two years and has been teaching in the Wayne city school the past year. She has been rejected to teach next year.

ident of the board, gave the diplomas.

The service opened with the high school band playing. Other music was by the girls' sextet and clarinet duet. Rev. S. K. de Freese gave the invocation, and Rev. O. B. Proett the benediction.

Announce Honors In Wayne School

Number Earn Attendance Awards for This Term In City High

Wayne high school had 81 students, about a third of the total enrolled, on the honor list for second semester. Scholastic records are high in spite of numerous enforced absences due to shortage of labor. Most students who were out any length of time made up their work and kept their records even with those of previous years. Only eight failures are recorded for second semester.

Besides the 32 seniors on the honor roll, named elsewhere in this issue, the honor list included the following: Eleanor Bentback, Jack Fitch, Aletta Pflueger, Jacqueline Wightman, 1; Jane Bridgman, 1.2; Alice Mae Biermann, Marjorie Cauwe, Wilma Dunklau, Lois Lindsay, Patty Thompson, 1.25; Lois Finn, Fernie Hesenan, Maxine Johnson, 1.4; Violet Allen, Patty Drenesia, Ardene Hill, Dean Hoferer, Joan Jones, Bud Kilian, Nancy Mines, Norma Otto, Sallie Welch, 1.5.

Don Temme, 1.6; Wilma Alleman, Lila Mae Brammer, Cleone Heine, Bonnie Lessman, Margery

McCullough, Verdel Ruwe, Howard Sala, 1.75; Marcella Bruggen, Norma Powers, Darlene Roberts, 1.8; Don Ballard, Elsie Bentback, Doris Gildersleeve, Nadine Jorgensen, Marvin Kellogg, Patty Love, Lois Lubberstedt, Delores Lutt, Mary Ann Newton, Beatrice Preston, Norman Rockwell, Wilbert Stuthman, Delores Tietzort, Neva Wieland, 2.

Attendance Records. Lucille Palmer, Howard Sala, Lois Zepplin, Nadine Jorgensen and Loueva Pflueger have perfect attendance records for the entire year. Jack Fitch and Bob Lass missed only a half day each. Margie Davis, Patty Drenesia, Joan Jones, Abee Smolsky and Marjorie Swinney had no absences and only one case of tardiness.

Students with perfect records for second semester are Violet Allen, Phillip Briggs, Dorothy Casper, Patty Fickie, Leatrice Pflueger, Richard Sala, Allen Shuff, Elizabeth Thill, Kathryn Thompson, Faunel Wittler. Those who had no absences and only one tardiness for second semester are Lois Gamble, Rayoma Heikes, Rosalie Hoeman, Dean Hoferer, Albert Milliken, Evelyn Sorensen, Luetta Voss and Don Ballard.

West Point Youth Is Reported Missing

Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Thompson of West Point, have received word from the war department that their only son, Lt. Walter B. Thompson, is reported missing on the Australian war front since May 12. Lt. Thompson had been flying big transports bringing the wounded from the New Guinea front to hospitals behind the lines.

Lt. Thompson was graduated from West Point high school in 1937, attended Wayne State Teachers college and received his commission at Lake Charles, Ill. The youth's mother, the former Delilah Muller, taught in Wayne a number of years ago.

Date Set in County

June 16 is the day set for the 4-H judging and demonstration day in Wayne county. All 4-H members and leaders are urged to attend.

Republicans Hold Meeting Tuesday

The importance of work on the home front was stressed at the meeting of the state republican central committee in Grand Island Tuesday, May 18. T. S. Hook, member of the state committee, and F. S. Berry, serving for John Newton, went from here, Philip Robinson of Hartington, state committee member, accompanied them. Mrs. Berry also went and visited Mrs. E. J. Huntemer.

Mrs. Edna Basten Donald of Grand Island, was chosen national committeewoman from Nebraska. She succeeds Mrs. Minnie Freed Watson, Lincoln, who resigned.

Mrs. J. Knox Jones, Lincoln, formerly of Wayne, is state vice chairman and in this capacity heads the women's work in the state.

T. S. Hook was in Whiting, Ia., last Wednesday on business.

Working Nights In Farm Fields

Grand Army of Republic Is In Charge of Services Memorial Day.

Early Days from the Wayne Herald for May 26, 1927:

Farmers have been running tractors at night to catch up with plowing and corn planting which have been delayed by wet weather. The ground is filled with moisture and it is in good shape to encourage growth. So far the weather has been too cool for corn but small grain and alfalfa are reported doing well. It is believed that nothing will be lost by delay in corn planting if weather the remainder of the season is favorable. The outlook for crops of all kinds is good.

Capt. Chas. Lindbergh suddenly leaped into fame by flying from New York to Paris. His courageous spirit and lack of vanity show finest American stock.

Memorial day will emphasize the thinning ranks of the G. A. R. Wayne now has only three Civil War veterans, Sommers Fox, A. J. Hyatt and R. P. Williams. Pres. U. S. Conn speaks at the Decoration day service.

Improvement of the Wayne-Laird and Winside-Hoskins sections of highway is going forward. Dave Longnecker, 66, died at Winside May 24, 1927.

Grace Lutheran congregation will build a bungalow chapel at 9th and Logan.

Geo. Swigard, jr., of Hoskins, and Miss Wynnie Stinson of Niobrara, were married May 25, 1927. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Millner May 21, 1927.

Fire damaged the L. R. King drug store at Carroll. The blaze started in an ice cream cabinet. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs.

Clarence Woods of Carroll, May 23, 1927.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Star West May 22, 1927.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Peters May 25, 1927.

Fire destroyed a shed at the Chas. Buetow place.

Formal opening was held at the Kay swimming pool.

Mrs. L. W. Ellis underwent an operation.

Everett Dennis underwent an appendicitis operation.

Carroll high school graduates are Donald Linn, Lemuel Jones, Ernest Meyer, Arthur Link, Frank Stanton, Blanche Collins, Beatrice Tift, Lillian Follette, Doris Jones, Dorothy Bartels and Marianna Henrich.

Wayne high school's class of 28 graduates includes Isabel Adams, Leslie Baultell, William Benshoof, Ivan Davis, Gerald Dennis, Esther and Hilda Downing, Crystal Dragon, Elmer Exlehen, Natalie Exlehen, Ferris Gifford, Bessie Green, Ethie Hansen, Edna Jeffrey, Siras Jones, Natalie Johnson, Viola Kopp, Amelia Kugler, Margaret McMurphy, Helga Nelson, Luella Noakes, Bernard Pollard, Walter Reeg, Louise Rickabaugh, Alice Shields, Claire Wright, Mildred Wright.

Winside school graduated a class of nine. Scholarship honors were earned by Alma Lautenbaugh, Anabel Illhier and Lucille Bruce.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pfeil of Hoskins, May 17, 1927.

John Matheson died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. H. Heckendorf, at Pilger, May 16, 1927.

The small son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shirmeier north of Pilger, suffered burns when he fell into a pail of hot soap suds.

Wm. Liever, 13, suffered injury to a foot when the member slipped and struck disc blades.

LaRue Miller and Clarence Allen earned high scholarship at Sholes school.

A daughter was born May 22, 1927, to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rasmussen of Wakefield.

Enoch Deerson, 78, former resident of Wakefield, died May 17, 1927, in Kansas.

Early Wayne Happenings.

From Wayne Herald for July 18, 1907: A new elevator is being built at Hoskins. . . The Benson elevator is being remodeled and enlarged. . . Ed. Ellis went into the cafe business in Gregory, S. D.

John Mellick's new residence at Carroll is near completion. . . S. M. Clark, brother of Mrs. Huff and Mrs. McLaughlin, died at his home north of Wayne July 13, 1907.

On the 10-day chautauqua program in Wayne, the Kitties band was the featured musical outfit and Senator Benjamin Tillman of South Carolina, the main speaker. . . Dr. R. B. Crawford came from Chicago to plan the old settlers' picnic, he being president of the association. . . L. S. Needham has taken his brothers, Louis and Charles, into partnership with him in the grain business at Winside.

Dixon County Events.

Early Days from Northern Nebraska Journal, Ponca, for May 11, 1882: The state board of agriculture set apart $1,500 to provide farmers' horse trots for the fair in Omaha. . . No additional legislation is needed to suppress lawlessness in territories. . . A bill introduced in congress would provide for building the Illinois-Mississippi river canal. . . The United States had 45,000 post offices in April, 1882, a growth of 250 in one month. . . Nevada sent one of the most attractive stones to Washington for the Washington monument, it being a huge granite block with the state's name in six-inch letters of solid silver.

In the plan to illuminate the Kremlin in Moscow with electricity was revealed a plot to destroy the structure during the coronation ceremonies. . . Brazil and Uruguay are threatening trouble because Brazilians complain that some of their people were not treated well in Uruguay. . . A report from Egypt says that an insurrection broke out in the Sudan. . . Great Britain is leading a movement to establish a chain of magnetic and meteorological observatories in the polar region.

The death of the notorious gangster, Jesse James, recalls the fate of an equally desperate bandit, Sam Bass, who made the plains of western Texas the scene of his exploits. This robber was finally trapped in Round Rock in 1875 when he and two of his deputies were shot in the streets. Bass fell from his horse in the outskirts of the town. His gang was broken and many of his followers joined the Jesse James bandits in the upper Missouri river region.

Wet weather has been uncomfortable but good for wheat. . . A fearful tornado traveled down the Missouri, hit St. James and sucked up part of the river for six to eight miles. . . J. Hewitt makes several thousand bricks each day. . . Newcastle people still ask if the railroad is to make that town this summer. . . If one wonders if the town of Norris is thriving he should stop at Darrow House some evening and see the newcomers and land seekers. The town is so full that one family moved to a granary, two to the school and one to a tent.

Wakefield continues to boom and carpenters keep very busy when the rain stops long enough to permit work. . . Rubber overcoats and boots have been much in demand. . . W. H. Allen opened a butcher shop. . . Rev. Mr. Lodge holds divine services in the school. . . T. B. Seelye & Co. have a neat lumber office. . . Dane & Nelson are new proprietors of the American hotel and have renovated the structure from garret down.

The Wakefield poet has been robbed of his machine, the poetophone, so he can't manufacture "poetry and his future hopes are blasted."

Returns to Ship.

Seaman First Class Kenneth Kelly left Wednesday of last week for New York where he will rejoin his ship after visiting his mother, Mrs. Janie Kelly at Dixon. Seaman Kelly recently returned from the British West Indies where he had been seriously ill with malaria.

Mail Means Much.

"If you know how much mail means to one far away from home, you know how much I enjoy your paper," writes Ensign Quentin Whitmore from somewhere in Alaska. "It is just like a letter and regular every week."

"I might add that there is no navy air corps. It is known as 'naval aviation' and each squadron is a unit of the fleet just the same as a ship. Not very many people are aware of this technically. I know I wasn't until after I had been in naval aviation for some time."

Likes Marine Corps.

"I like the marine corps fine and think that everyone who wants an interesting experience should join this fine branch of the service," writes Pvt. Bob Stull of San Diego, Calif. "We just came back from spending three weeks on the rifle range. I fired 304 out of a possible 340. I missed expert rifleman by two points. One has to fire 500 for expert. I fired a high sharpshooter so I feel pretty good."

"I have been receiving the Wayne Herald since I have been stationed here. It is really swell to read a paper from home and to know how everything there is in progress. The fellows here think that it really is a swell paper because of the wide variety of news it carries. A person cannot keep track of his friends in service, but the service column helps tremendously. I have found where many of my friends are located."

Is in North Africa.

Pfc. Herbert Obst, who is in north-Africa, writes in a V-mail letter May 9 that he received the April 1 and 8 issues of the Herald on May 6 and 9, only a month after they are printed. "I want to express my sincere appreciation for I enjoy reading the paper even if it is a little late. We seldom see papers."

"As I know the boys in the armed forces, I especially appreciate this news in the Herald. It helps to get the home news and also to know where the boys are located. "I am somewhere in north Africa," continues the youth. "I have visited one of the cities here and there are many interesting sights. In our spare time we play baseball and have shows here once or twice a week. We get plenty of good food and have plenty of good drinking water."

Pfc. Obst closes with greetings to home folks and all his friends.

Trains at Great Lakes.

Erwin F. Splittgerber, 30, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Splittgerber, Wayne, is receiving the basic training that will prepare him for sea duty as a fighting bluejacket in the navy at the U. S. naval training station at Great Lakes, Ill.

For the next eight weeks he will be put through a period of "boot" training stressing physical conditioning, military drill, and the fundamentals of seamanship, naval customs and procedure. Upon graduation he will be given a nine-day leave, after which he will be assigned to a service school for training as specialist, or be sent directly to active duty at sea or at a shore station.

Men are selected for service school upon the basis of a series of aptitude tests and a personal interview given to each recruit. Some "boots" who have had sufficient experience in a particular trade needed by the navy are given ratings as petty officers upon completing recruit training and sent to active duty immediately.

Oakland Young Man Sees Ancient Egypt

Pfc. Edward Bolin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar E. Bolin of near Oakland, stationed somewhere in Egypt, writes that he receives mail regularly as it is flown in by big transport planes.

At Easter time the youth had a three-day pass which he spent visiting the pyramids and Sphinx near Cairo. The largest pyramid is over 460 feet high and was built 5,000 years ago. It covers 13 acres of ground. After going inside the pyramid, Pfc. Bolin climbed to the top, which he found a real job. There he could see the fertile farm land stretching out from 10 to 50 miles along the Nile. "When flying over it looks like a green ribbon in the endless desert," states Pfc. Bolin. Crops grown there are barley, potatoes, clover for pasture, bananas, oranges and dates. Each farmer has about three acres. Very little modern farm machinery is used. One sees natives using oxen and wooden plows.

The donkeys and camels are the main means of transportation, the people being too poor to afford automobiles.

Cairo is the melting pot of the east where one finds Americans, English, Greeks, some fighting French and Jews.

Most of the natives are Moslems, the women being dressed in black and having their faces covered.

Pfc. Bolin says it gives one a funny feeling to see something so old as the Sphinx and pyramids which were even old when Christ was on earth still standing, defying all the elements and silently keeping watch over the Nile.

Writes from Pacific.

Pfc. Gerald Andersen, who has just been promoted, in a V-mail letter from the Pacific, writes that he has received all the issues of the Herald though they do not arrive regularly. One week he got three copies. "They are always welcome and are appreciated a great deal." The young man was glad to read of the Sardi's program honoring the Herald for this service.

"I was very pleased to read that Wayne college had been selected as a training center for air cadets and also that the citizens of Wayne have done so much to make them feel more at home. Wayne has always been a friendly little city and I am sure the cadets will like it there. Dale Fuerst, who left Wayne at the same time I did, has arrived here and is in the same office I am. As you probably know, he remained in California for a while for an operation.

"In closing I wish to express thanks to the Herald and send best wishes to all my friends at Wayne," concludes Pfc. Andersen.

Time Is Extended For Ration Stamp

Washington, May 21—To avert an end of the month buying rush, the office of price administration today extended for one week the expiration date of blue stamps G, H and J in war ration book No. 2.

Previously scheduled to expire May 31, the three processed food stamps will be good through June 7.

OPA at the same time made the next three sets of blue stamps—K, L and M—good beginning Monday, May 24, and extended their expiration date from the end of June to July 7.

Blue stamps G, H and J which have been valid through May, and K, L and M therefore will all be valid during a two-week overlap period from May 24 to June 7.

OPA pointed out, however, that sugar and coffee stamps will expire May 30 and 31, respectively, and cautioned shoppers against waiting to spend their stamps until May 31—Memorial day—when stores will be closed.

Make the Prophecy of Henry Clay Come True

(By E. S. Kingsbury)

It should be explained that the author of the following article lives in the deep south, Mississippi. He is a brother of C. A. Kingsbury, long-time lawyer and banker of Ponca.

Henry Clay, on his way by stage to Washington for the opening of congress, stopped for the night at an inn atop the Blue Ridge mountains. The next morning all passengers were seated in the stage coach ready to go, save Mr. Clay, who was observed by the driver standing in a listening attitude, his head inclined toward the west. The driver approaching said: "Mr. Clay, for what are you listening?" Mr. Clay replied: "I am listening for the footsteps of the millions of people who will some day inhabit the Mississippi valley and govern the destinies of this nation."

In this Mississippi valley stretching from western New York and Pennsylvania to Montana and Idaho, from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico and from the Carolinas to Texas and New Mexico, lies an empire. A fertile land, rich in clay's natural resources, Henry Clay caught the vision of its possibilities early in the 19th century before its resources had barely been touched. Here lies coal, oil, iron, building stone and other minerals; millions of acres of timber; millions of acres of fertile land, lakes and rivers, fish, and forming natural means of transportation. Here lay the soil, the products of which make it the breadbasket of this and many other nations and the clothes press of the world, all waiting for the hand of the coming millions to convert this wilderness into teeming cities and farmsteads for a happy people with the necessary comforts and luxuries of life.

The prime requisites of existence are food and clothing. These we can produce in this valley in very great abundance and we have all the requirements necessary for education, culture and the highest standards of living in the world. The people of this section represent more fully what we call the American way of life, than the people of either the oceanic coasts, and the American way of life is seriously threatened. Here not like the people in sufficient numbers to elect a president and congress—to make the dream of Henry Clay come true.

"Agriculture" is the dominant business of this region and it would seem the natural and logical thing for the farmers particularly, and the voters of the entire valley to be affiliated together politically. Even the cities in this territory are greatly dependent on agriculture, as witness Chicago with the largest livestock and grain market in the world, and Memphis with the largest inland cotton market in the world. The needs of farmers are everywhere almost identical. It is universally admitted that the farmer does not get his share of the national income. The political union of the people of the middle west and the south (where agriculture dominates) would secure a more equitable income to the farmer and will help solve the farm problem that has been so acute in recent years. Since their interests are so identical, why do not the northern half and the southern half of the Mississippi valley join hands politically and control "the destinies of this nation"? Let us take a brief backward glance at our history in an effort to see what has kept these two sections apart for the last 100 years.

Virginia and the Atlantic coast states ceded to the general government all land lying west of the Appalachian mountains and extending to the Mississippi river. This territory was known as the northwest territory. Congress passed the ordinance of 1787 which declared that slavery should never exist within this territory. Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin are carved out of this northwest territory. South of the Ohio river slavery was permitted. Thus was formed the first political barrier between the north and the south half of the Mississippi valley. Yet the vision of Clay made some progress.

Jackson of Tennessee was president from 1829 to 1837; William Henry Harrison of Ohio was elected president in 1840; Polk of Tennessee was elected president in 1844 and Taylor of Louisiana was elected president in 1848. All four of these presidents came from the Mississippi valley. The election of these men showed the national trend of political power moving into the Mississippi valley. The Ohio river and the Mason and Dixon line became familiar terms in all political discussions.

Nine years after the death of Clay, the political struggle concerning slavery broke into the flames of war, arraying the people of these two sections against each other. During the war there was much opposition to Lincoln's management of the government, especially of the military part. A committee of United States senators and members of his own political party called on him in a body and asked him to resign the presidency. He was abused and traduced more than any other president. He was inaugurated for the fourth term as president on the fourth day of March, 1865. The whole world knew at that time that the end of the war was only

Top Honor Scored By Four Students

Solves Digging of Worms But Fails to Find Way To Put on Hook.

At Sand Springs, Okla., school officials carefully averaged the grades of Sand Springs high school seniors to see who would be valedictorian. The answer: Betty Fortner, Bruce Gavril, Barrie Hughes and Lloyd Huneryager. They each had 96—the first tie in the school's history—to give their school a four-star final.

Fire Chief Art Westerfeld of Albuquerque, N. M., doesn't need a spade to dig fish worms. He uses a screwdriver. The screwdriver is electrically charged. The chief says he just pokes it in the ground, turns on the current and soon the worms come up for air. One problem the chief hasn't solved: He still has to stick the worms on the hook by hand.

Mrs. Clara B. Payton of Springfield, O., testified that Spring gardeners pays. She reported that while pulling onions in the garden she found her wedding ring lost 20 years ago.

A thoughtful husband is this Grand Island man. His wife was confined to a bed in her home the morning after a minor automobile accident and her husband did the morning household chores, even to feeding the dog. When he quit work at the sugar factory at noon he did a bit of shopping and returned home to inquire of the wife what she would like for dinner. "First," she said, "I'd like to have some breakfast."

Petticoats—literally—are ruling the range county. Rancher Floyd W. Lee at Grants, N. M., tried hiring 80 Navajo Indian women as sheep herders, and said men herders were never like this. Each squaw wears at least a dozen flaring gypsy skirts, he explained—doffing them as needed to wrap up chilled, newly-born lambs.

Smiles greeted Staff Sgt. Alan B. Citron of Philadelphia as he requested and received a copy of Form 52 at Boise, Idaho. More smiles when he presented the document to officers at Gwena field for their signature. Next he presented it at the dispensary, seeking treatment for a cold. Then he learned that Form 52 is a death certificate.

Johnnie E. Lee, 19-year-old Navajo Indian, Denver, was accident-that the cab he had used to report the other cab was missing. He made another trip to the station but this time he walked.

Taxi Driver Richard Midson slowed down for an intersection in San Francisco. His passenger, a woman wearing a fur coat, jumped out, ran across the street to a parked vegetable truck, climbed in and drove off. The truck was found abandoned several blocks away—minus some vegetables.

Policemen William McNary and Shepard Hutto found an all-night lunchroom in Kansas City with the lights out, the cook gone and the door unlocked. They called the owner—then turned on the lights and waited on trade for over an hour until a relief cook arrived.

Here's a war job EVERY homemaker can do!

Keeping your family well fed and healthy during wartime is not a simple job. It requires the very best talent you can give to it. Wise use of your food coupons, careful selection of fresh foods, correct cooking methods... they add up to a big job for you.

In solving your wartime cooking and nutrition problems your NATURAL GAS RANGE can be a big help. It provides the low cooking temperatures recommended for maximum vitamin salvage in food. It provides regulated oven heat for proved roasting and baking operations. It gives you quick measured heat for hurried meal preparation.

Take good care of your GAS RANGE! It has many years of service built into it. You can add more years by careful use... without abuse.

Natural Gas service costs less now than ever before!
