

SIXTY-SECOND YEAR

WAYNE, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JULY 1, 1943.

NUMBER EIGHT

Wayne Young Man Leaves Southern Idaho for Southern California — Pay-as-You-Go Plan Starts — Contrasting Penalties — All Kinds of Weather in Past Month.

Vernon H. Cassel who is remembered as a popular Wayne store salesman, writes the editor from Burley, Idaho, that he is quitting that state to return to southern California, expecting to enter the employ of the Douglas Aircraft at Long Beach. He says the doctors who recommended the Idaho climate for his sinus trouble were mistaken. Aside from the sage brush and dust, animated by terrific winds, he has enjoyed visits to many scenic spots in southern Idaho. He mentions the Snake river valley as a beautiful and very productive. Water performs wonders in contact with the desert. Extensive irrigation turns waste into rich production. But irrigation does not cure defects in the climate, as our correspondent has found.

Mr. Cassel notes that people are prosperous and comparatively happy. They spend liberally for things they want, and they want plenty. In the southern Idaho area with which he has become familiar, Mormons—an overflow from the Salt Lake territory—are excessively numerous and uncomfortably clanish. In a helpless minority, gentiles are reluctantly allowed to occupy rear seats with no chance of projecting their opinions into current discussions. Vernon felt a painful absence of personal independence and brotherly love.

Our correspondent calls attention to the absurd war complacency charge sometimes hurled at the middle west by the doddering and dizzy east particularly. He alludes with pride to the mid-west's record in bond purchases, in scrap metal drives, in cash support of different government agencies, and in contributing stalwart young men to the armed forces. He knows the middle west and he has a fine appreciation of its iron will and unflinching spirit. Speaking of his native state and of precious memories rooted here, he says: "Here's one city who is mighty proud of Nebraska and of the town of Wayne, especially."

New Revenue Law. The new revenue law goes into effect July 1—the pay-as-you-go idea—and supplanting the annual income tax arrangement. It also provides for absorption of the victory tax. It will compel workers in all groups to dig up for the government as they are paid. Government experts are hired to reef off explanations and forms to be figured out and followed by citizens who do the paying. If makers' of government commands could simplify their diction, practicing war economy, they would give victims more time to apply to earning the wherewithal with which to meet growing costs. Most people want to meet obligations completely and promptly, dodging no responsibility, and they are anxious to avoid errors that later increase mental tasks. In all government requirements, the point should be reached without any unnecessary wording. The burden of figuring out what is what adds materially to that of torking over the cash.

Comparative Penalties. The anti-strike legislation which swept over the president's veto Friday, provides fines up to $5,000 and imprisonment up to one year for persons who instigate strikes in government-owned plants. Considering the enormity of blocking war production, the penalties provided in the measure are light. They contrast sharply with penalties printed on gasoline rationing books. Such warning reads: "Persons who do not observe the rationing rules and regulations of the office of price administration may be punished by as much as a fine of one thousand dollars or $10,000, or both, and are subject to such other penalties as may be prescribed by law."

Flecks June. The month of June has caused helpless humanity to experience all extremes possible in this season. It has been too cool, too hot, too wet and too dry. Early in the month we were fearful, that the elements would not warm up enough to give the corn a chance. Every day for 10 days moisture fell and prevented outbursting of the fields. Then rains ceased and the heat was turned on and tender corn stalks sprang up with wonderful vigor. Clear weather permitted farmers to rid fields of weeds. When we get too much of what we wanted, we are anxious to restore what we didn't want. We are kept in a state of fear from the start to the finish of the growing season. We will not cease to be uneasy until all barriers have been hurdled and the crop has been safely gathered and housed.

New Owner Takes Over Parlor Here. Victor's billiard parlor changed hands June 28, when Pete Petersen transferred management to a new owner. The date will be announced soon. Lawrence Victor plans to go west.

Injury Suffered Results in Death

Rites Are Conducted for Theodore Johann Here Tuesday Afternoon.

Funeral rites were conducted at St. Paul's Lutheran church in Wayne Tuesday afternoon for Theodore Johann of near Omaha, who died in Omaha June 26, aged 67 years, 7 months and 26 days. Rev. Harold Henriksen officiated. Mrs. R. C. Hahlbeck, Miss Patty Thompson and Gereon Allvin sang "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" and "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me," with Miss Charlotte Ziegler accompanying. Interment followed in Greenwood cemetery, with Crosby & Meyer of Omaha and the Beckenhauer services in charge.

Mr. Johann was injured Memorial day when he was thrown from a loaded wagon, the wheels of which struck his head. He was taken to an Omaha hospital. He was considered improving when complications set in and resulted in his death Saturday morning. Theodore Johann was born in Schleswig-Holstein, Germany, November 1, 1875. He was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran faith in Germany.

Decensed came to this country in 1900 and lived at Wayne until 1920 when he made a trip back to Germany and while there married Miss Gretchen Kruse. Together with his wife he returned to this country and located near Omaha, his home since.

Surviving Mr. Johann are his wife, a son, Herbert, who is in the service of his country in Washington, a brother, Wm. Harms of Wayne, a brother and two sisters in Germany. A sister, Mrs. Carsten Petersen, and a brother, Fred Harms, preceded him in death, the former in 1935 and the latter in 1936.

Among those here from out of town for the rites were Mrs. Theodore Johann and son, Herbert, Mr. and Mrs. Humsted, Wm. Schmidt, John Zimmerman, Walter Ehlers, Earl Plog and Mrs. Carl Hess, all of Millard, near Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Arline Ulrich of Wakefield, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oltman of Wisner. They were guests of Mrs. Mathilda Harms at dinner and luncheon.

Pallbearers were Carl Exleben, Aug. Matthes, Fred Oltman, Fred Ahlbers, Henry Brundick and Fred Ahrens.

Apply at Stations in Gas Rationing. Blanks Will Be Available After Middle of July in Wayne County. Distribution of the second gasoline ration books will be made soon, according to the county ration board. The ration office will mail applications to filling stations between July 15 and July 22, and applicants are to secure them at any station.

After the blanks are filled out, they should be mailed to the local board with the tire inspection records to date and the signed back cover of the A ration books.

According to information now at hand, the amounts allotted to individual drivers will be distributed on the basis now being used.

EDITORS OF THIS PART OF NEBRASKA MEET HERE SUNDAY

NORTHEAST Nebraska editors and members of their families held their summer meeting in Wayne Sunday afternoon. They were joined by A. C. Gardner of Crete, president of the Nebraska Press association, and by Miss Nancy Mahood of Lincoln, secretary of that organization. The afternoon session was held in the Woman's club room in the municipal auditorium. E. E. Pont of Stanton, president, and Fred Zimmer of Hartington, officiated as secretary. Matters of interest to the group were discussed. Mayor Herman Lundberg was introduced to the visitors, and he joined them in an inspection of the cadet training center at the college and a tour of the airport. Dr. Ray Bryan, head of the training school, received and directed the guests. Lieutenant J. T. Archer led in a tour of training headquarters. The editors were favorably impressed by the size and excellence of the college plant. In the evening the visitors were entertained by the Herald at a picnic luncheon in the D. S. Wightman home.

Start Big Drive in Selling Bonds

State Officers Visit Wayne Tuesday to Organize For Year's Quota.

State Bond Sales Chairman Stephen A. Spitznagle of Omaha, and John B. Smith of Omaha, state chairman of the agricultural committee for sale of bonds in Nebraska, were present at a meeting of the Wayne county war bond committee Tuesday afternoon in the State National bank at Wayne.

Nebraska's war bond quota for the fiscal year beginning July 1 has been set at $101,000,000 and the Wayne county quota is $831,000. To help raise this sum, a plan has been introduced to allot quotas of bonds to individual farmers. The county drive is organized according to precincts, and quotas will be assigned to precincts.

Russell L. Larson is chairman of Wayne county war bond committee.

Star Mail Route Contract Awarded

B. F. Tucker of Wayne, was awarded one year's contract for the star mail routes out of Wayne, starting this Thursday. He makes the Wayne-Bloomfield trip Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays and the Wayne-Crofton trip Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

Legion to Sponsor Dance for Cadets

Wayne Legion post is sponsoring a dance Monday evening, July 5, at 9 in the municipal auditorium to honor aviation students. All men in uniform will be special guests and will be admitted free.

Destructive Blaze Starts from Spark

A spark from a backfiring pump motor Monday touched off a blaze at the Standard Oil company bulk plant at Tokamah, resulting in a loss estimated at $40,000. Four of the plant's seven storage tanks exploded, shooting flames 300 feet into the air.

ACCEPTS POSITION IN GAMBLE STORE

Miss Evelyn Sorenson is replacing Miss Bonnell Grier as office clerk at the Gamble store. Miss Grier has accepted a position as secretary at the city clerk's office.

First Aid Rules Given for Club

Prof. K. N. Parke Stresses Need for Information in Emergencies.

Accidental deaths in civilian life total about 100,000 annually while American casualties in the present war have been 90,000 with 15,000 of these killed and the others wounded and missing. When one compares these figures, the importance of first aid is realized, stated Prof. K. N. Parke in speaking to Wayne Kiwanians Monday.

The first important procedure in first aid, stated Prof. Parke, is to stop bleeding, applying pressure above an artery and below a vein. The second is to get breathing started by artificial respiration. The third essential is to get rid of poison.

Other simple rules to follow were given as follows: Keep an accident victim lying down unless he has a head or chest injury which makes breathing difficult; cover the body to keep it warm in case of shock; call a doctor, giving essential details of what has happened, where and to whom; ally fears of the victim; and never try to give a stimulant to one who is unconscious.

Prof. Parke was a guest of the club. C. R. Anderson of Norfolk, and Rev. Wm. Bennett of Arcola, Ill., were guests of R. W. Ley.

Two to Complete Staff at City School

Board Elects Two Others At Special Meeting Thursday.

Wayne city school staff is complete with the exception of the principal and coach. Herman Baehr, who was principal, has accepted a position at the college. Henry Menke, coach, has received notice from Madison county that he will likely be called in July or August for selective service.

At a special meeting last Thursday Miss Elizabeth Krause of Albion, was elected to teach English in the high school. She attended Doan college at Crete and taught the past year at Crete.

Specialists Come To Give Training

Two specialists who have been engaged to come to Wayne college during the summer period will be here next week. Dr. Archer L. Burnham, executive secretary of the Nebraska Education association, comes July 7, and Miss Lula Eskridge, representative of the American Junior Red Cross, will be here July 8.

Dr. Burnham will discuss the critical problems in the field of public education. He will speak at convocation next Wednesday at 8 a. m.

Center Is Popular During Heat Wave

The service men's center proved very popular during the unusual heat wave last week-end. The basement rooms of the Baptist church, utilized for the center, are partially underground and remain from 10 to 15 degrees cooler than the temperature outside. Ladies of the town and church provided a cold drink and cookies for both Saturday night and Sunday afternoon. The continued assistance of many friends and the appreciation made so evident by the young men are convincing as to the worthiness of this endeavor.

County Agent W. R. Harder speaks on the radio broadcast from WJAC, Norfolk, Friday at 1:15.

Work at Airport Here Is Completed

Improvements at Wayne municipal airport have been completed, according to report made at meeting of the city council Tuesday evening. These included work on buildings and grounds.

Pete Petersen filed an application for on and off sale beer license, and Jake Miller for off sale beer license. Hearing on these is set for July 13.

Eight Men Leaving For Quota Tuesday

Wayne County Group Goes To Ft. Crook Next Week To Take Tests.

The draft board has announced a quota of eight men to go into the armed services July 6. Howard Furlong, Harold West, Nolan Holokamp, Walter Bredemeyer, Armin Fischer, William Leahy and Samuel Noyes have been selected to go. Jack Neely volunteered his services.

Rites Conducted In Wayne Church

Mrs. H. F. Wilson Passes at Wayne Home Following A Long Illness.

Funeral rites were conducted Monday afternoon, at 2:30 from the Presbyterian church for Mrs. H. F. Wilson, resident of Wayne more than half a century, who passed away Saturday evening, June 26, at 11:10, aged 85 years, 4 months and 18 days. Rev. Oliver B. Proett officiated and Mrs. H. A. Welch furnished organ music. The Beckenhauer mortuary had charge of committal at Greenwood cemetery.

Mrs. Wilson suffered a stroke in December, 1939, and since that time had been partially paralyzed. Miss Grace Gamble had cared for her three and a half years, and her sister, Mrs. R. E. K. Mellor, was with her until the latter passed away a few months ago. Mrs. Wilson was always patient and cheerful. She accepted loss and disappointment with grace and optimism, and not once in all her ill health did she offer a word of complaint.

Mrs. Wilson's maiden name was Harriet Emma Ringland. She was a daughter of Isaac and Mary Evans Ringland and was born in Marshall county, Ia., February 8, 1858. She spent her early years in Iowa, near Marshalltown, later moving to Malvern, Ia., and still later to Blkeman, Kan.

Deceased was married to H. F. Frank Wilson November 7, 1902, and to this union was born one son, Frank.

In 1889 the Wilsons came to Wayne and here deceased made her home since with the exception of a few years spent in Lincoln after her husband's death. In 1936 she returned to Wayne to live with her sister, Mrs. R. E. K. Mellor.

Mr. Wilson, who passed away June 8, 1924, was associated with the First National bank for 35 years, serving for a time as president of the institution. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wilson took active part in community life. Mrs. Wilson was a member of P. E. O. and Aerie club. She belonged to the Presbyterian church and was active in its organizations as long as her health permitted.

Mrs. Wilson was the last of her immediate family. Those who survive are her son, Frank, and three grandchildren, Hamer Wilson of Wichita Falls, Tex., Robert Wilson of Omaha, and Mrs. Mary Frances Roberts of Lincoln. The two great grandchildren are David Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts of Lincoln, and Kay Jean Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson of Omaha. Her husband, two sisters, Mrs. Eva Smith and Mrs. R. E. K. Mellor, and one brother, Harvey Ringland, preceded her in death.

Among those here from away for the rites were Hamer Wilson of Wichita Falls, Tex., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson of Omaha, Mrs. M. B. Wilson and Mrs. Charles Roberts of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mellor of Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Huffman of Elgin. Frank Wilson was unable to come on account of being ill in the veterans' hospital.

Will Be Announcer On Network Sunday

The Fitch Bandwagon program, broadcast over a national network, will have Merrill Mulready, formerly of Wayne, as announcer for the first time Sunday evening, July 4, at 6:30. On the radio Mr. Mulready will use the name of Tom Reddy. Mr. and Mrs. Mulready and sons and Miss Beverly Strahan have gone to Hollywood for the broadcasts which will originate there this summer. The Mulready will move to New York this fall.

To Observe Holiday In Wayne Monday

Business houses of Wayne will observe Monday, July 5, as a holiday, according to announcement of the Chamber of Commerce.

Passes in Wayne Tuesday Morning

Rites for Mrs. A. F. Bergt Will Be Conducted at Altona Friday.

Mrs. Adolph F. Bergt, 46, passed away Tuesday morning, June 29, in Wayne after being ill for more than a year. Mrs. Bergt suffered a stroke in May, 1942, and had been ill since. Her condition improved at the time of the holidays, but she was taken ill again in January. Mrs. Bergt was brought to a Wayne hospital for care April 11.

Funeral rites will be conducted Friday at 1:30 from the home and at 2 from Trinity Lutheran church, Altona, with Rev. Theo. Wieting officiating. Committal in charge of the Chittenwin service, will follow in Trinity cemetery.

Mrs. Bergt, whose maiden name was Ella Pflueger, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pflueger and was born at the Pflueger home farm north of Altona November 12, 1896. She was married to Adolph F. Bergt at Wisner May 20, 1923, by Rev. Mr. Tegler.

The Bergts established their home nine miles south of Wayne and resided there five years. They then went to their present home four miles north of Wisner.

Mrs. Bergt was baptized and confirmed March 20, 1910, in Trinity Lutheran church and had been a faithful member.

Surviving Mrs. Bergt are her husband and two sons, Lowell, 16, and Randall, 14. Mrs. Bergt also leaves three brothers, Anton Pflueger and Frank Pflueger of Wayne, and Charles Pflueger of Wisner, and one sister, Mrs. W. R. Schmidt of Wayne. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pflueger, two sisters, Mrs. Geo. Roggenbach and Miss Bertha Pflueger, and a brother, Frederick, preceded her in death.

Nephews who will serve as pallbearers are Rulo Schmidt, Wesley Pflueger, Gerold Daniels, Robert Bergt, Darrell Pflueger and Edgar Pflueger.

Price Fixing Panel Chosen in County

E. A. Jensen Is Chairman of Committee Passing on Ceiling Questions.

A price panel consisting of E. A. Jensen, chairman, W. C. Coryell and A. L. Swan has been organized as part of the Wayne county price and rationing board. The purpose of the panel is to disseminate ceiling price information to merchants and consumers within the respective communities and to receive and handle questions.

The panel will meet once each week to answer questions relative to price ceilings, to dispose of complaints as to price violations, and instruct consumers as to their rights under the OPA program.

The clerk of the Wayne price panel is Miss Shirley Powers, who will be on duty at all times at the office of the local board.

Enforcement will follow closely or the completion of this program with all questions being channelled through the local price panel.

Spectators Enjoy Saturday Review

From the spectator's point of view, probably the most interesting activity of the college training detachment of the army air forces at Wayne State Teachers college is the Saturday afternoon review, which is devoted to Aviation Student Norman T. Kenner. These reviews are held at 1 p. m., each Saturday on the parade grounds east of the college industrial arts and physical education building and the detachment's quarters.

The squadron is divided into flights, each of which has its officers and non-commissioned officers. These officers are in charge of the men at all formations.

The review is under the orders of the officers of the training detachment and the student officers of the squadron. The review is a parade of the men marching past the reviewing stand to music played by the squadron military band.

Detour Is Graveled From Wayne South

The detour from Wayne east a mile and south to Altona is practically all gravelled. This is in preparation for resurfacing highway No. 15 south of here. The Altona-Wisner highway will be re-gravelled soon.

Mrs. John Schorn, 82, died at West Point Thursday.

DESTROY WEEDS IN BEHALF OF LOOKS AND GOOD HEALTH

WEEDS are unsightly and obnoxious. They may hide noxious filth or harbor pestiferous bugs, insects and rodents. Evils lurk in weed patches. Flies and mosquitoes and other unfriendly members of creation's lower order like the smell of growing weeds. Therefore, they gather among them in great and fearful numbers when they want to retreat and rest from their labors. Besides, tall weeds obscure roads and highways and increase travel hazards. Why weeds were ever started leads to the same dead-end reached in discussing the wherefore of insect and rodent pests. In this busy hectic time, enough attention should be given to swatting the weeds to relieve the landscape and expose and eradicate possible perils.

Community Sing To Be Patriotic

Fourth Will Be Observed With First in Series of Entertainments.

Wayne college air corps detachment band and Wayne Striplers, in this busy hectic time, enough attention should be given to swatting the weeds to relieve the landscape and expose and eradicate possible perils.

Since Sunday is Independence day, the program that evening will be patriotic. It will open with the national anthem. The invocation will close with "God Bless America." The band furnishes numbers and the group then sings "America the Beautiful," "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "America." The pep's crest follows. Church hymns to be used are "Onward Christian Soldiers," "Lead On, O King Eternal" and "Church in the Wildwood." Dr. Victor West gives a brief patriotic talk. The closing hymn, "Day Is Dying in the West," will be followed by taps.

Prof. John R. Keith directs the music, and L. W. McNatt presides. Mr. McNatt is chairman of the Chamber of Commerce and Dr. West, chairman of Wayne Ministerial association, the groups jointly sponsoring the program.

Hoskins Is Asking For Bank Charter

Application Is Filed by Officers Planning to Handle Business.

Application for a charter for the Commercial State bank of Hoskins was filed with the state banking department at Lincoln, June 24.

The bank would have total capitalization of $17,352. Incorporators are Ed. Kollath, Stanton, Eric McEwen, W. A. Gutzman and Geo. Langenberg. Hoskins, and Ezra Joehens, Norfolk. Kollath is president, McEwen vice president, Gutzman cashier and Mrs. Gutzman assistant cashier.

Period Completed In Training School

Training school grades have completed their summer school term of four weeks and are having room picnics before their summer vacation begins. The 7th grade, Miss Ruth Paden supervisor, had a bicycle ride out to Beaver dam Wednesday last week, and the 5th, Miss Stella Traster supervisor, is having a picnic lunch at the city park Thursday. Miss Ruth Pearson's room, 6th graders, are picnicking at the shelter house at the college Thursday.

The 4th grade picnicked Monday in the city park under the supervision of Miss Coral Stoddard, and the 3rd grade, with their supervisor, Mrs. Clara Heylman, are hiking out to Goshorn's this Thursday. The 1st and 2nd grades had no picnic.

The kindergarten entertained the small folks who will be in kindergarten next year at a visitors' day. They demonstrated their activities and had their morning lunch.

Resigns Position In Training School

Miss Ida E. Fisher terminates her work with Wayne college training school Friday when the summer session closes. Miss Fisher, who has been with the school since 1925, will go to her home in Delta, Ia.

Warning System Will Be Tested

Daytime Alerts as Well as Blackouts Planned in Near Future.

Central defense command has ordered blackouts to train and test the air raid warning systems in this area in the near future. The series will begin with a test blackout, or an unannounced daylight alert, on an announced date. A second blackout or daylight alert will follow during a designated week, and after that will follow a series of unannounced blackouts or daylight alerts at the rate of one per month.

A series of four blasts will complete the warning signals used. A 30-second blast, followed by a 15-second interval will be the alert warning; another 30-second blast followed by the 15-second interval will be the caution warning, and another 30-second blast followed by a 15-second interval will indicate the actual raid. The all-clear signal is another blast.

Civilian defense workers assigned to jobs should get it their posts and report as quickly as possible, and in case of daylight alert, civilians should get inside and stay inside.

Wayne civilian defense system is organized with Martin L. Ringer as district commander, F. B. Decker is in charge of the air raid warden system, J. H. Pile is in charge of the air raid auxiliary police, and N. H. Brugger heads the air raid auxiliary firemen.

Relief Brought By Sunday Rain

Lowered Temperature and Moisture Are of Great Benefit Here.

Sheets of rain and heavy winds swept northeast Nebraska and western Iowa Sunday evening in a storm that sent temperatures plunging from 100 degrees to 70 degrees in an hour. The gauge in the State National bank of Wayne, reported a little over 4 inch precipitation and a 30-degree drop in temperature. Concord and Randolph had heavy rains and Pierce reported 5 inch. Winside had 2.5 inch and Carroll received from .5 to 1 inch precipitation. Bloomfield reported the most with a 2-inch rain and hail. Temperatures dropped there to the low 60's. Rain in Norfolk amounted only to .05 inch, and in Sioux City .44 inch for the day.

Very heavy damage was reported at Bloomfield and vicinity, and many trees were broken. Heavy winds broke a north window of the Gamble store here in Wayne, and this was replaced Tuesday. There was minor tree damage. Sioux City reported electric wires down in the city, but none fell in Wayne.

The rain was beneficial to Wayne and vicinity in providing needed moisture for crops and relief after the sweltering week-end temperatures.

Cars in Operation Must Have Stamps

Cars in operation on highways July 1 or after must bear the new car stamp which may be bought at the post office for $5. Cars not in use do not need the stamps until the time they are driven. Cars used only on farm premises and not on roads are exempt from this fee.

The new stamp is in force until June 30, 1944.

About 500 stamps had been sold Tuesday at Wayne post office. Some 2,200 car owners are expected to purchase the stamps here.

ASSISTANCE FUNDS COME FOR COUNTY

Assistance funds for June were received by Treasurer Jean Boyd this week as follows: Old age, $1,922.93 state and $1,901.29 federal; blind, $336 state and the same federal; child welfare, $328.61 state and the same federal; state administration, $146.19.

Plans for Cuming county fair at West Point are well started.

Marry at Service In Tucson Church Miss Jean Mines Is Bride Of Major H. B. Lane at Saturday Ceremony. Miss Jean E. Mines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Mines, became the bride of Major H. B. Lane, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lane, 2242 Fowler Ave., Omaha, in an evening ceremony at the Grace Episcopal church in Tucson, Ariz., Saturday, June 26. Father Francis E. Brown performed the 8 o'clock ceremony.

The bride wore a cream beige sheer crepe street-length gown, with a deep sweetheart neckline and short draped sleeves finished with self fringe and bows. The dress was fastened with a front button belt fastened with a small buckle. Mrs. Lane's hat was a series of bows of the same beige shade in grosgrain ribbon, with no crown and a birdcage veil of fine veiling in a taupe shade. Long suede gauntlets in the same taupe color, black patent leather slippers and handbag and a deep purple orchid completed the ensemble.

An army friend of Major Lane's played the organ and his wife was Mrs. Lane's attendant. The bridegroom and his attendant were in uniform. Major Lane's general granted him a seven-day leave as a surprise, and the couple left on a short trip. For travel the bride chose a suit of California cloth in suntan shade. Her gloves and Panama hat matched Major Lane's. Major Lane will report at Fort Huachuca Thursday.

Major H. B. Lane is a graduate of the national military academy, West Point, 1940, Artillery School of Fire, West Point, 1940, Command and General Staff school, Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., February, 1943. He has been with the 10th Army at Ft. Huachuca since April.

Mrs. Lane was graduated from the school of journalism of the University of Missouri, Columbia, in June. She is affiliated with Delta Delta Delta, social sorority, and Theta Sigma Phi, professional women's journalism honorary fraternity. She was graduated from Wayne high school and attended Wayne State Teachers college for two years.

Major and Mrs. Lane have their home at Rose Tree Inn at Tombstone, Ariz.

Bible Instruction Will Be Conducted Summer vacation Bible school will begin at the Service Center rooms of the Baptist church Tuesday, July 6. Nine mornings the children will meet for instruction and inspiration. The hours will be from 9 o'clock through 11:30 o'clock each weekday morning, except Saturday. The purpose of such a school is to give a concentrated study to Bible truths and memorization of Bible portions. The study themes will be: For the first week, "God's Word"; for the second week, "God's Day." Each morning session will include: Object lessons, chorus and hymn singing, work books, handwork, story hours, surprise hours and a recess with refreshments. A capable staff of teachers and helpers has been organized. Although additions to the personnel of the staff may be made, those engaged at present are: Miss Joan Barnes, Miss Marilyn Standley, Mrs. R. E. Standley, Mrs. H. H. Hazard, Mrs. W. C. Swanson, Mrs. C. McGinn, Miss Margaret Wade, Mrs. A. C. Norton and the pastor, Rev. H. H. Hazard.

Children of school ages are invited to attend. Classes and departments are established to care for children from 4 to 14 years. No charges will be made of the children. Everything will be free. Parents are urged to cooperate by sending their children each morning for the two weeks. This is one answer the Christian churches may give in reply to the juvenile delinquency of today. If parents and churches will cooperate, the combination will be practically unbeatable.

Farm Help Needed In Dixon County In making a farm survey in Dixon county it was found that the need of farm help is becoming a serious matter. Farmers are considerably behind in their work and the harvesting season is approaching rapidly. For the sake of going in the armed services it is going to be up to every able-bodied man to do his part in helping harvest crops and seeing to it that none are spoiled or wasted. In many places townsmen, and in some places women, are organizing into crews of a carload. They go out to the farms where greater labor shortages exist and shock grain or corn. Agent Howard Gillaspie hopes that many crews in Dixon county will be organized as a crop corps to assist. Many little crews can do a great deal between 6:30 and dark. All Dixon county crews should register with the county agent at Allen. Rev. and Mrs. H. G. Wilcox of Kearney, formerly of Randolph, observed their golden wedding anniversary June 27.

Dedication Service Is Held at Church The remodeled Presbyterian church at Randolph, also new Christian and American flags and new service honor roll were dedicated at special services Sunday afternoon at 3. Willis S. Ickler, who has served as pastor and who leaves soon for Chicago to continue his seminary study, was in charge. This was his last Sunday. Rev. Oliver B. Proett of Wayne, had charge of the dedication and delivered an address. T. S. Hook, J. O. Wentworth and Dr. W. G. Ingram also went from Wayne. Will Use Combines To Greatest Extent Preliminary returns of a county-wide survey of combine owners, show combines in the county and all will be used for custom harvesting this year, according to County Agent Walter R. Harder. As the small grain harvest season approaches, the greatest possible use of combines will be encouraged. A list of farmers willing to do combine harvesting will be kept at the extension office, and farmers with small grain to harvest are asked to contact the county agent. Port-of-entry officials in the state will direct incoming combine operators to areas of greatest need. Miss Aileen McQuistan of Bloomfield, and Ensign Warren Johnston of Lincoln, were married June 10 at Lake City, Fla.

THE KNOT-HOLE Vol. 6 Wayne, Neb., Thurs., July 1, 1943. No. 32 Sally: "What wartime occupation are you pursuing?" Polly: "Well, right now it's a second lieutenant." To the ever-changing feminine mode, a new note is introduced by our admired guest, Madam Chiang Kai-Shek. Every time she turns around, she hasn't a hat on. It is surprising how often we still get questions about the amount of building you farmers are entitled to do. We are glad to answer those questions and get you straightened out. Actually, you are able to build more than most of you think. Bring in your building problems. We'll be glad to give you the correct answers. Perhaps you didn't know that there was a guarantee on Balsam Wool insulating. It doesn't mean that this guarantee means that Balsam Wool must do the job it is supposed to do, or you get back the cost of the Balsam Wool and the cost of installation. That is a guarantee worth looking in to. Sure, we know the weather can be awfully hot at this time of year. We also know that you can be warm and comfortable next winter only if you have a supply of fuel on hand. It's a real satisfaction to have to look a bin full of coal in the face even if it's hot weather, isn't it? The talk is less and less of women's fashions since they found out they can get a man's wages without marrying the lout. Carhart Lumber Co. Phone 147 Wayne

Library News During July and August the library will close in the evening at 8 o'clock. Anyone wanting a book in the evening please remember about this. The children's department was singled out for some very special attention from several quarters during the past week. Mrs. Butterfield, librarian from Norfolk, and two of the board members called at the Wayne library to look over the set up and get ideas for establishing a separate department for children in the Norfolk library. They were very complimentary about the facilities, books and organization. Miss Dorothy Casper presented the children's department with 11 books which fit into our collection very nicely with the International Mind Alcove books. We are very grateful for the gift. The Phillip Briggs family also presented the library with some volumes which many other children of the town may now enjoy. Our attention has been called to an article in the American Legion Magazine for June, 1943. The title of the article is "Japs in Our Yards." It is a very timely article and concerns a problem which we will have to face here in the middle west as well as on the coast. We pass on a recommendation to you to read this commentary on the Japanese in our country and what we should do about them. The following new books are in circulation this week: The Story of Dr. Wassell, by James Hilton, Abundant Living, E. Stanley Jones, Paradise Street, Henry Griffin, Storm at Dusk, Ursula Parrott, I Wouldn't Be in Your Shoes, William Irish, The Chinese Show, by Patricia Wadsworth, 112 Elm Street, Ripperger, Death Takes a Bow (A Mr. and Mrs. North mystery) by Lockridge, The Spice Box, by Grace Livingston Hill, The Ship, by C. S. Forester, Kansas Irish, by Charles Driscoll, and Yours for the Asking, by Jane Abbott. The children enjoyed a movie about ocean liners in connection with their imaginary trip around the world when they met June 29. For the little folks in the group another film was shown about the zoo. The older group meets Friday, July 9, and the younger group will meet again next Tuesday, July 6, for stories.

Explains Rulings On Selling Corn Widespread violations of the corn regulation, according to P. M. Moodie, enforcement attorney for the Sioux City district, indicate that some producers, truckers and elevator operators have been misinformed as to the regulation. Mr. Moodie explained that different prices were specified as to every type of sale or purchase depending among other things, on the type of corn, the points of transfer, and the condition of the corn. He stated that if a buyer takes title to corn in the crib, he must do so on the bushel weight basis, and cannot pay more than the prevailing ceiling price for the farm for that particular type of sale. If title is taken to the farm on the ear weight basis, the buyer may shell the same at his own expense and transport it to any place he desires. If, however, ear corn is taken by the buyer with the understanding that payment shall be on a shelled weight basis, the expense for the shelling must be borne by the seller. If an elevator or trucker, for example, buys ear corn from the producer and shells the corn and pays the producer on the shelled weight basis, the expense of the shelling must be charged to the producer which will ordinarily be done by the buyer, deducting the shelling cost from the maximum price for shelled corn. Mr. Moodie also pointed out that if the producer transports his corn to the buyers receiving point, such as an elevator, the producer may not receive, in addition to the maximum selling price, any compensation for transporting the corn. It was pointed out that if these deductions for shelling or transportation are not made, then the buyer would be paying the maxi-

Survey Is Made Of Noxious Weeds A survey of the noxious weed situation was made last week in Wayne county by W. L. Klatt of Lincoln, and local district officials. A report of the finding will be available soon through County Agent W. R. Harder. Happy-Go-Lucky Club. Happy-Go-Lucky 4-H club met with Laverne Frevert in the Carl H. Frevert home June 23. The pledge of allegiance and the 4-H pledge opened the program. Nine members answered roll call, and Marjorie Splittgerber and Ruth Danjone joined as new members. After the regular session, Mrs. Frank Hicks demonstrated the vacuum seal. The next meeting will be Thursday, July 8, with Dorothy, Marjorie and Evelyn in the Paul Splittgerber home. Roll call will be answered with a fruit or vegetable canned already. Each is asked to bring a question for the question box on canning. Mrs. Frevert served. Will Announce Broadcast. Maneuvering menus for over the Fourth If you want to have a holiday with the rest of the family over the Fourth then do a bit of maneuvering with the menus for the long week end so that you can have some time off too. A little forethought preparation is all it takes. MENU STRATEGY To begin with, plan your menus for the full week end, arranging them so that one day in the kitchen can do the work for two days' eating. Serve the first dinner of the week end hot and family style and on the second day, plan a picnic-style dinner in the backyard, in a nearby park, or in the country. Next, plan your shopping list in full and do all the shopping for the full week end at one time! As a pattern to follow, we suggest the following menus to be altered to your needs. FIRST DAY'S MENU A Roast of Your Choice Mashed Potatoes Cream Gravy (Make plenty for the next day) Steamed Asparagus with Sieved Egg Yolk and Vegetable Oil Topping Hot Bread Butter or Substitute Deep-Dish Berry or Fruit Pie Beverage SECOND DAY'S MENU Sliced Cold Roast on Mashed Potatoes With Mustard-Mayonnaise Mashed Potato Salad Tomato Cole Slaw Additional Buns Butter or Substitute Fresh Fruit or Individual Fruit Pies Beverage OTHER WEEK END MEALS - When there's a bit of leisure time, as there will be in a number of homes over the Fourth, then plan for the breakfast to be a leisurely affair. Dinner may be a late meal and if another meal is in order, make it a "raid-the-refrigerator" affair. Know all the answers to those cooking questions which have been flying around lately? Julia Lee Wright answers them in her latest Family Circle article entitled "Answering Questions That Are Flying Around." Your copy of "THE FAMILY CIRCLE" is ready for you at your Safeway store. ### Elected to Posts In Baptist Group

Wayne Is Represented at Northeast Meeting Held in Obert Monday.

Rev. H. H. Hazzard was elected moderator of northeast Nebraska Baptists at the 47th annual meeting held Monday in Obert. He was also chosen to promote missionary giving. Mrs. Carlos Martin was re-elected secretary of the association, and Mrs. W. S. Bressler was re-elected president of the women's organization. Mrs. Hazzard was elected to promote vacation Bible school work.

Wayne was represented by 12 delegates, and others were in attendance from Chambers, Norfolk and Pilger. Besides Rev. and Mrs. Hazzard, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Bressler, Wayne was represented by Mrs. Matt Westberg and Mrs. Burr Standley. Mr. Westberg took five to the young people's session in the evening, this group including Margaret Wade, Lucien and Doris Barnes, Viola Westberg and Marilyn Standley.

Viola Westberg was elected vice president of the youth group. Margaret Wade gave a toast entitled "The Work" at the banquet for which the theme was "Workers with Christ."

Rev. B. G. Field of Des Moines, and Dr. Wm. Park of Omaha, directors of Christian education, were present as conference leaders and speakers.

Next year's meeting is tentatively set for Norfolk.

Is Making Survey To Help in Harvest

A survey to determine accurately the number of combines, their type and usage is now being undertaken in Wayne county. The resulting information will be used to help solve the harvest labor problem.

County Extension Agent Walter R. Harder, who is making the survey as a part of the farm labor program, has queried all combine owners in the county through the mails. By getting information on combines available for the custom harvesting this year it is hoped that the harvesting will be helped by directing those owning combines, and willing to do custom work, to various parts of the county.

The survey follows up preliminary arrangements made between Kansas and Nebraska whereby a large number of combines from Kansas have been lined up to come into Nebraska in exchange for any help which this state may give Kansas wheat farmers. Of course, the Kansas harvest is already underway. Harvesting here probably will start around July 10. Some fields that are well headed now may be ready earlier.

Will Observe Holiday.
The ration board office will be closed Monday, July 5.

To National Meeting.
Dr. J. T. Anderson was in Indianapolis, Ind., Monday and Tuesday to attend the National Educational association convention. Mrs. Anderson accompanied him.

Will Select Two In Naval Academy

Competitive Examinations Will Be Conducted Soon By Karl Stefan.

Two vacancies for midshipmen at the United States naval academy will accrue to the credit of the Third congressional district of Nebraska due to graduation of two Third district midshipmen in 1944. Nominations to fill these vacancies will be made by or soon after January 1, 1944.

Eligible candidates for these nominations, in addition to being actual residents of the Third congressional district of Nebraska, must be not less than 17 years of age or more than 21 years of age on April 1 of the calendar year in which they undertake to enter the naval academy.

Eligible candidates must, also, have graduated from high school or be assured of graduation not later than the spring of 1944. High school graduates who have also completed one or more years of college or university work will find the additional academic preparation of considerable value in meeting entrance tests and in pursuing the training following admission to the naval academy.

Congressman Karl Stefan will be initiated by a congressional designation examination conducted by the United States civil service commission Saturday, August 21, 1943. This is not an admission examination but solely an examination to determine the comparative qualifications of candidates for the purpose of enabling him to make nominations of principals and alternates on the basis of the comparative qualifications disclosed by the examination. The nominees for admission will subsequently be called upon to present themselves for physical and mental tests precedent to actual admission.

At all times between now and July 20, 1943, but not later than July 26, 1943, Mr. Stefan will receive the written applications of young men who possess the above mentioned qualifications coupled with a desire to enter the naval academy. The initial application will be to participate in the preliminary competitive congressional designation examination.

No vacancy at the United States military academy will be accredited to the Third district of Nebraska in 1944 because the number of Third district cadets now in school will not be reduced by graduation until 1945.

All applications and requests for further information should be addressed to Karl Stefan, M. C., at 1017 house office building, Washington, D. C.

Pfc. Robert Gustafson of West Point, reported missing for more than a year, is a prisoner of the Japs in the Philippines, according to word just received.

Extension Service Urges Replanting

With most Victory gardeners having their first crop out of their gardens, County Extension Agent Walter R. Harder this week urged them to replant crops for home food production. In this way, he said, more food will be available for later preservation.

The weather thus far this year has favored such crops as radishes, peas, lettuce, turnips and spinach. As soon as these crops are removed, a little raking will prepare the soil to receive a second crop such as carrots, beans, sweet corn or kohlrabi. Cucumbers could also be planted.

Short-seasoned tomato varieties might also be planted now.

The main thing is to get the greatest possible amount of home food production from the Victory garden area.

Student Aviators In Wayne Pleased

Robert F. Diel Writes of Detachment Setup Here As Being Ideal.

"The best of college training detachments" is the way Aviation Student Robert F. Diel describes Wayne unit. This young man, whose home is North Side Pittsburgh, Pa., writes about the detachment as follows:

"Last February the command of the army air forces decided that instead of letting the young men who were enlisted as aviation cadets stay at home and wait call to pre-flight schools, which were already overcrowded, they would give them some army training.

"In my estimation this was a very good move and I believe every other cadet is of the same opinion. Following this decision they decided to give everyone a course that would help him scholastically. This marked the beginning of the college training detachments. The air force picked suitable colleges all over the United States for this training. We who are stationed at Wayne State Teachers college in Nebraska are of the firm belief that we have the best in the land.

"The factors which lead us to believe this are many. The first one, which I shall discuss is the scholastic program, and it is probably the most important. The subjects in our curriculum are these: Physics, mathematics, geography, history, English, medical air, laboratory work and civil air regulations. Along with these is our physical training program which is the finest anyone could ask for. It includes calisthenics and games of all sorts. Just last week a competitive sports program was started. Each class will compete against every other class in every type of sport. The winning class will be awarded a plaque at a banquet to be held in honor of the victors.

"Second in importance is food. Probably to a soldier good food is the most important thing in the world. We want you to know that we consider ourselves the best-fed soldiers on earth. Our food is served in the college cafeteria by college cooks, which in no small way makes the meals much more pleasant. The food itself is of the highest quality and we here at Wayne know nothing of food rationing except what our folks at home tell us.

"Our living quarters are excellent. The rooms are situated so that each room gets plenty of fresh air and sunshine. Also we have a well equipped recreation room. It contains tables and chairs for writing, a radio-phonograph combination, crock, candy machines, a piano, a ping pong table and a small library. You can readily see how this provides recreation for leisure hours.

"We also have a band, and we are one of the comparatively few detachments to have one. It is a 40-piece band. In addition to this we have a 12-piece dance orchestra that plays for dances held every two weeks by the local Chamber of Commerce in honor of the cadets.

"The outdoor surroundings are perfect for both mental and physical training. A large campus, a football and baseball field, tennis courts, a large gymnasium and a swimming pool are available to us.

"Last but not least are the coeds. There is a large summer school enrollment of approximately 600 girls, or should I say morale builders? It makes things a lot nicer to see girls around the campus, and the fellows are continually looking forward to Saturday and Sunday when they can step out with their favorite coed.

"This training is climaxed by 10 hours of dual-control flying instruction. This is what every cadet has dreamed about since Uncle Sam's call—the day when he finally gets in the air. This completes the perfect college training detachment program.

"Upon completion of this course the cadet is much better equipped both mentally and physically to go to a pre-flight school where he will be classified. After he is classified and goes through pre-flight training, he will be well on the road to earning his silver wings as a pilot, bombardier or navigator."

WINSIDE Marry at Service In City Parsonage

Miss Ethel Lewis Is Bride of S. Sgt. F. O. Wickersham Thursday Afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lewis announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ethel Lewis, to S. Sgt. Frederick O. Wickersham of Camp Haan, Cal. The ceremony took place at the parsonage of the Ames avenue Methodist church in Omaha, Thursday, June 24, at 6 p. m. Rev. Herbert W. Jackman officiating.

Future Plenty
In the current Nation's Business, Merle Thorpe writes of post-war planning and of largely increased business volume.

Most of the plans, if not all, leave out one important factor. Business activity does not 'just happen'.

Under our system of economic freedom, we have developed a most valuable asset—management.

Management's spirit and know-how should be, must be, encouraged and developed if our business activity is to be doubled.

The manager is the symbol of economic freedom—freedom of consumer choice.

The glory of American democracy is its freedom of choice. Henry Ford, like all successful managers, was elected by the public no less than was Franklin Roosevelt.

Democracy does not claim perfection, nor does capitalism. Yet the union of the two has produced here a society of free men, who, in turn, have created a material well-being.

Here is a simple starting point for the citizen who must pass upon any national plan for the future: Does it arbitrarily create a social and economic order to which the individual will be moulded into subordination, or does it provide for the making of men and women who are themselves competent and well-disposed to exercise freedom of choice in politics and economics?

Overrides the Veto
THE public may well take heart from the rising spirit of independence shown by congress in promptly overriding the president's veto of the anti-strike measure.

It would seem that labor organizations should go along with prosecution of the war just as actively and anxiously as industry or business or other essential groups.

Davises Annoyed
THE Davises have been having rather tough going in official spots in Washington lately.

sidy program. Former President Hoover's recent statement upholds the idea of a single responsible head without subsidies.

The president was rather curt in accepting the Davis resignation, giving him no extra time to pack his belongings and move out.

Another Fourth
ANOTHER Fourth of July approaches, and the holiday finds the country making due headway in the world conflict to save and reinforce democratic institutions.

It does not seem reasonable for the government to dish out subsidies to any group in the present crisis.

We may not always agree with mid-western weather—sometimes may even want to kick it—but we may always point with pride to its surpassing power to effect sudden and stupendous changes.

The stress of war causes high nervous tension. People say and do things they would disdain in the course of orderly peace-time processes.

The latest from Washington is a clash between Vice President Henry Wallace and Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones.

Wouldn't men with life-long experience in industry and business know more about how to handle affairs involving production and distribution than the flock of theoretical professors who man many Washington bureaus?

Wm. Jeffers, rubber administrator who has scored highly gratifying results in rubber production, contrasts sharply with the mill run of Washington bureaucrats.

A Washington report suggests that coal may be rationed. This possible necessity will add to next winter's recollection of this summer's inexcusable coal strikes.

Forgetting that one has forgotten eases the subsequent mental strain.

A Thoughtful Food Program.

Former President Herbert Hoover had a great deal of valuable experience in the food problem during and after the first World War.

Mr. Hoover recommends a nine-point program on food as follows:

- 1. Consolidate all food production and distribution efforts under one administrator, who is also the secretary of agriculture.
2. Decentralize the work under state, municipal and county administrations so that varied local conditions can be met.
3. Increase manpower for farms above the level required before the war, and increase plantings by 40,000,000 or 50,000,000 acres in 1944.
4. Increase substantially the production of agricultural machinery and equipment.
5. Abolish retail and wholesale price ceilings on food which are stifling farm production and not stopping inflation.
6. Abolish so-called 'parities' for the duration and have prices for the farmers include floors as well as ceilings. Prices should be fixed high enough to include labor and other costs and to stimulate production.
7. Establish rations that will balance consumption with production, and eliminate rationing all nonessential food.
8. Recognize food processing and distributing agencies as essential businesses, and suspend left-wing reforms of economy for the duration.
9. Eliminate subsidies to farmers, to traders or consumers because they will not stop inflation and are a delayed aggravation. They must be paid sooner or later by the taxpayer, and meanwhile increase the government borrowing and debt, which is in itself inflationary.

A PROBLEM.

The Lincoln Journal attributes increased child delinquency to the fact that in many families both parents are employed in money-making jobs.

Former Teacher In County Tells Of Nursery School

Mrs. Lloyd T. Larsen, former teacher in rural school district 74, now of Bremerton, Wash., in a letter to County Supt. Freeman B. Decker, described her work at a Bremerton nursery school as follows:

The first three weeks at this job were spent attending lecture courses and observing in various schools in Seattle. The nursery school is a government project with the purpose of aiding mothers engaged in both defense and non-defense work.

Schools all follow the same routine: Health inspection, active play, rest, quiet play, lunch, more rest, and more play follow each other day after day with no variation.

We teachers also get our meals at no cost, and the time spent eating is part of our eight hours. Housekeepers are also employed to do the cooking, dishwashing and cleaning.

Mrs. Larsen's husband, Cpl. Larson, is stationed near Bremerton.

The last fox-hole wasn't deep enough," states Percy Rogers, Pender, who served in World War I and again in the present war.

Alva Forinash of Hartington, has been chosen to succeed Oliver Seims who resigned as head of Cedar county ration board.

Dist. Supt. J. W. Ekwall dedicated the new Methodist parsonage at Wisner, Sunday, June 20.

DEWEY.

Governor Tom Dewey of New York, has stood high in popular favor as a republican presidential candidate, but his popularity is likely to be deflated unless he can quote himself for a recently quoted remark that mid-western pigs should be slaughtered in order to release corn for eastern dairy cattle.

AS SEEN BY KARLISTEFAN

Washington, D. C. June 24, 1943

A majority of house members are against subsidies because they feel subsidies are not beneficial to producers and processors.

Some of the alleged experts in agriculture say that under war conditions most of our beef will have to be finished on grass.

There were scarcely more than 50 members on the house floor when debate on the 71 billion dollar army bill was finished.

Will the routes of highway 81 and highway 30 be changed in the planning of super-highways of the future? That question is being asked by many people who are here from the middle west.

Three members of the Nebraska Aeronautic commission have been in Washington several days. They are Chairman Harold Jensen of Ainsworth, Harold Sutton of McCook, and Donald D. Mapes of Norfolk.

The Nebraska Aeronautic Commission learned that aviation experts in Washington have great plans for the future of American aviation.

The farm security administration which was threatened with termination through transfer of functions to the farm credit administration, has been saved by compromise between the house and the senate.

The fight to increase funds for rural electrification has ended. R. E. A. will have sufficient funds to continue its work to the extent that critical materials may be available in wartime.

Many WAACs work in Washington. Some of them say the novelty of the uniform is wearing off. Those who work in offices with civilian girl employees who get big monthly salaries for the same work are beginning to complain.

Recently the war department announced it would discharge about 100,000 civilians. Now the war department says the report is erroneous and that 300,000 civilian employees may be added.

There is an active black market in Washington. If you have a friend who runs a meat market—and if you know him real well—you can get meat. Some even get it without sufficient ration points.

tion of the experts. The navy has ordered a lot of them. Ocean ships will carry some of them to rise from the ship's decks and fight off submarines, and the army has hastily planned bigger and faster helicopters, some large enough to carry 10 passengers, for war purposes.

Trust Leadership To Mississippi Valley

Political leadership in this nation should be brought to the Mississippi Valley for many good reasons. A majority of the population of this nation reside in this valley.

The Young Peoples congress, brought to Washington, D. C., for a few times, were recruited from New York and eastern cities, with a sprinkle from Detroit—many with socialistic and communistic tendencies who did not have any better manners than to boo the president when he addressed them.

At the end of this fiscal year on June 30, the total expenditures for war purposes during the year will be close to 59 billion dollars.

The people of Norway, Denmark, Belgium, Holland and other nations of Europe were happy and prosperous. But that great beast of Europe insisted they should try his brand of socialism and if they did not agree he would destroy them.

What this nation needs today is men and women of self-reliance, initiative and determination, who will succeed in the battle of life with joy and gladness in contrast with the whines of the socialistic class.

Even ideas are hard to put across now in wartime, when some of them are most valuable. There have been hundreds of inventions tried out, adopted and proved important, including the new devices for detecting submarines which may put a crimp in that kind of war-fare.

One day, the helicopter inventor, Mr. Sikorsky, came to town with one of them to demonstrate its qualities. Flying over the capitol, he stopped several hundred feet up in the air, then backed up, flew sidewise and went through other stunts.

Contour Farming Proves Profitable

Farmers in Dixon county who have tried contour farming have profited. In at least five ways it has proved its value, states Agent Howard Gillaspie.

Contouring has checked erosion of soil. Very little soil has moved down the hill where the true contour lines were run and followed.

In observations made on Dixon county demonstration fields, the fuel saving for tractor is about 20 per cent. The tractor worked steadily all day long with ease without no strenuous hill climbing to use extra fuel and no slowing up of work.

Those who used horse power increased their acreage of ground worked per day. The horses, at no time, had to strain themselves.

These things have made operations easier. No shifting of gears, less repair work, as there was less machinery strain, and during corn picking the picker was able to keep his team with him.

The soil was worked more evenly, leaving a more suitable texture for crops. Soil texture is an important factor in absorption of water.

Contour farming requires no new machinery. And the laying out of lines may be made available without cost to the operator.

In 1942 observations were made on three Dixon county farms. This year observations are being made on five or six farms.

Victory Gardens Most Productive

Victory gardeners in Wayne county are now reaping their harvest of vegetables and many of them are busy picking and caring for an abundant pea crop.

Because of the starch content and the possible closeness of the pack, the agricultural college recommends canning peas only in pints. Also when filling the jars, a head space of one inch should be left.

The home economists say that tender peas should be used and that peas should be prepared as for table use. When pre-cooking the peas, boiling water should be poured over them and the lid of the kettle should be slightly ajar until the air is out of the kettle.

The peas are simmered 5 minutes, packed hot into jars, covered with water to within one inch of the top of the jar. One-half teaspoon of salt should be added per pint and the peas processed 45 minutes at 10 pounds pressure or 180 minutes in the water bath.

Complete suggestions for freezing and canning peas and other vegetables are found in CC 60 and CC 55 free copies of which can be secured from the county extension office.

Jacob Sigrest, 75, died at Stanton June 22.

We have a welcome and a worship which makes everyone feel "at home."
Tonight, Thursday, at 8 o'clock, we will have another "Church Night." A time of fellowship and Bible study to which all are invited. Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the ladies of the church will meet for White Cross work.

Next Sunday the services will be at 11 o'clock. The theme of the worship hour will be "Four Other Freedoms." The evening Youth Fellowship will be held with the Students' Christian fellowship at the college. This group will gather in the shelter house north of Pile hall for an hour of devotions, hymn singing and Christian fellowship each Sunday evening during July. The time will be from 6:40 to 7:45 o'clock. All young people are invited.

Tuesday morning, July 6, the summer vacation Bible school will begin in the rooms of the service center. Classes have been provided for children from 4 to 14 years of age. Capable volunteer workers have their material well in hand. In addition to many helpers the department heads will be: Miss Jean Banister with beginners, Mrs. H. H. Hazzard with primaries, and Mrs. C. McGinn with juniors. Work books, chorus singing hours, object lessons, surprise hours and refreshments at recess will all be combined to make a full morning each day for two weeks. All children of school ages are invited to attend. This will be a Bible institute for the children.

Luncheon was served. NEWS ABOUT THE WAR. From Office of War Information. Though prices of 60 per cent of the family budget foods remain unchanged, others have increased. Fresh fruits and vegetables are up 8 per cent over May. Sweet potatoes showed the greatest rise, 30 per cent. Services have also made the home budget go up. While frills have been removed, the supply of sheets, pillow cases, towels and other domestic soft goods will supply the nation's needs. Blankets have been reduced in variety and size. Some fine linens are still available from Ireland. Foundation garments and infants' clothing made of rubber should have frequent but not hard laundering. Rinse well in lukewarm to put off excess moisture and then dry in cool or moderately warm place. Never use a hot iron on rubber. The soldier wants intimate details of life at home in letters, according to an officer just back from the front. He should not be bothered with troubles of the home but he should know the little pleasant happenings that make up the life he wants to live for and come back to. Some 50 items needed on farms will be available. These include such things as pails, pipe fittings, pliers, valves, chains, batteries, etc. OPA has set $1 apiece as the maximum price for low-quality used passenger car tires which are now permitted for the first time. Additions to the price are provided when tires are given emergency repairs before being sold. About 300 Americans who have been prisoners of war of the Japs have died from disease. Fuel oil shortages can be avoided, states OWI, if large consumers convert to use of coal, if home and industrial users of coal order supplies now and if householders place orders for insulation soon. Family allowances and voluntary allotments-of-pay are now in force for four and a half million soldiers who have more than seven and a half million dependents. Prosecution for violation of gasoline rationing regulations totaled 509 through April 30. A plan to make 100,000 dehydrators before September 1 for domestic food preservation has been approved by OPA. These will be used for saving farm and victory garden fruits and vegetables. A home food dehydrator removes moisture from raw food, thereby preserving its flavor and food value for later use. More than $6,800,000,000 in loans for financing construction, purchase and repair of 5,400,000 homes was insured by FHA since its establishment in 1934. Rumors that OPA plans to eliminate cigarette brands or to provide only one cigarette are "absolutely baseless." Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, jr., advises that it will be necessary for Americans to invest 25 per cent of their earnings in war bonds. Fishing is encouraged if it does not take extra gasoline. But gasoline for fishing trips will not be available, no matter how productive of food the sport may be, OPA rules. Evaporated and condensed milk are now on the rationed list with a value of one point per pound. Writing "round robin" letters to service men is discouraged by the war department. Persons using oil for heat are asked to have applications filed promptly with the local board. About one-third of the coupons will be valid July 1. This will permit early deliveries. The whole process may be handled by mail. Farmers who fail to plant 90 per cent of their war crop goals will not suffer the regular agricultural conservation deductions if weather has interfered with their crop plans. The action is designed to offset the effect of recent unfavorable weather. A total of 140 items are affected by a new WPB ruling that makes them available to farmers who sign a certificate showing they are needed for farm operation. To assure farmers sufficient gasoline to operate agricultural equipment, refiners in midwestern states have been authorized to increase their yields of motor gasoline temporarily to 90 per cent of the corresponding figure for the last half of 1941, as compared with the 85 per cent maximum ordered May 8. Shoes have been placed under ceiling prices. The war department has announced that mobile automobile repair units of the army have been helping farmers in flooded areas of six midwestern states repair farm equipment to put it back into working order. Traffic in April was 56 per cent of pre-war normal, according to a record made in 39 states by 479 automatic counters on rural roads. Writing interesting letters to men in the armed forces is a definite contribution to winning the war, states Gen. Dwight Eisenhower. The officer encourages use of V-mail and advises that soldiers want to know how the family is getting along, how the home folks are helping win the war, what their friends are doing. proved for the three quarters from October 1 to July 1, 1944. During the third quarter this year special emphasis will be given to manufacture of harvesting machinery for this year's crop. The whole farm machinery program has been stepped up. Tire inspections for commercial motor vehicles now may be made every 5,000 miles or every six months, whichever occurs first, ODT announced. Previously commercial vehicles had to have tire inspections every 3,000 miles or every 60 days, whichever occurred first. In Nazi Germany two-thirds of the newspapers are published by the Nazis, and magazines are feeling the same mobilization. Effective June 21 meat prices were to be lowered from 3 cents to 7 cents a pound, by order of OPA. New prices for cured and processed pork go into effect July 5. American soldiers in Iceland are not getting nearly enough mail, according to Chaplain Peter Culom. Mails are delivered promptly, there. Materials for knit underwear for men, women and children will be made available by an action of WPB. Manufacturers have been assured of supplies of cotton yarn, thread, fabrics and other materials to meet essential civilian requirements. A 383-mile, 16-inch pipeline from Sundown, Texas, to Drumright, Okla., having an initial capacity of 54,000 barrels of crude oil daily, has been approved by the war production board upon the recommendation of the petroleum administrator for war. Construction is expected to begin early in October, 1943, and should be in operation sometime in March, 1944. The administrator added, providing materials and workmen are available on schedule. The pipeline will serve to provide middle western refineries with additional supplies of west Texas crude oil, thus helping to relieve the national oil shortage.

On the SIOUX CITY MARKET

Receipts, comparatively light since the roll-back slump two weeks before, increased substantially Monday and Tuesday on the Sioux City market, and lower cattle and hog values resulted. A few fed steers and yearlings held their own Monday but the rank and file sagged 15 to 25 cents, and Tuesday suffered a like decline for an aggregate loss of 25 to 50 cents. The price spread was $13 to $16. Hens selling at $15.25 to $15.35 were steady but others ended up weak to a quarter lower. Cows and bulls ranged from steady to weak. Odd head of cows reached $13.50 and $13.75 and bulls $14.25. Stockers and feeders were 25 cents lower, though stock steer calves Monday reached $16, heifer calves $14. Marketed in near-record proportions—over 28,000 head Monday and Tuesday—hogs were hardest hit of all. Price break for the two days was 50 to 85 cents, bracketing good and choice barrows and gilts Tuesday at $12.75 to $13.10, and good sows at $12.25 to $12.40. Stags slumped to $12.50 to $13, and feeder pigs lost 50 cents to $1, to sell at $12 to $13. Fat lambs, in contrast, were steady to 15 cents higher, clearing native springers at $14.75 to $15.15 and clips at $14 to $14.50. Shorn ewes, were un-

For New Salads.
 If Mrs. America plans to give her family vitamins this summer in the form of fresh, green salads, she can provide variety with unexpected dressings. Here are some ways to turn half a cupful of home-made mayonnaise or bought-in-a-jar dressing into a cupful of something more interesting.

For quick Russian dressing, add an equal part of chili sauce.

For cheese dressing, thin the dressing with tablespoonful of top milk, add about one-third cottage cheese (unrationed) and a chopped, hard-cooked egg.

For sour cream dressing, mix dressing half and half with sour cream.

To make thousand island dressing, add an equal part of chili sauce to the dressing, one diced pickle and one-half hard-cooked egg, diced.

And to make ham dressing, add one-fourth cup tomato juice or a tablespoonful of tomato catsup and a couple of tablespoonful of chopped ham.

Will Get Commission.
Kenneth Peterson, U. S. Army, who has been stationed at Yale university, New Haven, Conn., will receive his commission as second lieutenant Thursday, July 1. Miss Dorothy Mann of Omaha, left Friday for New Haven to be present at the ceremony.

Undergoes Operation.
Cadet Wilmer L. Ellis, who has been in training at Manhattan, Kan., underwent an emergency operation for appendicitis Saturday morning at Fort Riley, Kan., hospital. He is improving nicely and will return to his studies in about three weeks.

Twin Brothers Train.
Warren and Willis Noakes, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Noakes, are entering service. Warren left Wednesday for Maryville, Mo., to take college training in the Navy V-12 program. He reports July 1. Willis left about a month ago for San Diego where he is training for the marines.

Likes Hunter College.
Pvt. Dolores McNatt, who is training for the women's auxiliary of the marine corps, writes from New York that she likes Hunter college with its beautiful campus. Some 5,000 seamen and privates are in training there. After three more weeks, the Wayne young woman goes to a specialized school.

Is Air Corps Pilot.
Byron N. Darnell, whose wife is the former Betty Ellis of Wayne, was commissioned lieutenant in the army air corps as pilot Wednesday, June 30, at Columbus, Miss. He has been classified for heavy bombers and will receive further training in that field. He expects to be sent to the southeast for special instruction.

Arrives on Furlough.
Pfc. Warren H. Austin arrived home Monday noon on a 10-day furlough to visit his family and friends. Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Austin met their son in Wisner as he was coming from Yorktown, Va. Pfc. Austin will report at the Will Rogers base in Oklahoma City, Okla., and from there will go to Shreveport, La.

Goes to Rhode Island.
Dr. Foy Cross who was teaching in Ellensburg, Wash., has gone to Rhode Island to take eight weeks' training for navy service. Mrs. Cross and children started from Ellensburg Sunday and plan to be in Wayne to spend the two months with Mrs. Jennie Schrupf. They also visit Mrs. S. X. Cross here.

Arrives in States.

Other college students who enlisted and reported at Camp Dodge at the same time are Arthur Thomsen of Wakefield, Eugene Brauer of Randolph, who is now stationed at Lincoln, and Richard Merriman of South Sioux City, who is also now stationed at Lincoln.

Brothers in Service.
Cadet Cecil Harper and Sgt. Dale Harper, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Harper of Winslow, are in Texas camps. Cadet Cecil was recently classified for pilot training at the San Antonio camp where the fliers are picked for pilots, navigators or bombardiers. He trained at Arkadelphia, Ark., before going to Texas. Sgt. Dale was at Fort Robinson, Ark., a year and has recently been moved to Tyler, Tex. He is in the headquarters detachment and helped establish the office at the new Camp Fannin.

Country Is Different.
Sgt. Arthur C. Wolters, in a letter to Mrs. Wolters from somewhere in England, writes that that country is different from what he had imagined from his study and reading about the islands. He mentions that he enjoyed seeing Scotland and that he is now stationed at a very nice location. He misses the Nebraska variety of weather. The officer is well and reports the food good. He had some difficulty understanding the English accent until he became accustomed to it. Sgt. Wolters arrived in the British isles early in June.

To Train at Field.
Cadet Vernie Brockman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Brockman of Wayne, is a student in basic flight training at Greenwood, Miss., army air field. He was accepted as an aviation cadet at Camp Crowder, Mo., last November 30. The young man will go through the transition stage, from student flier to combat pilot and will be initiated into the mysteries of night flying in addition to learning to overcome the problems encountered in handling the faster basic training planes. Upon graduation he will go to an advanced training school for the final step preliminary to earning the coveted silver wings.

Gets Navy Cross For Air Service
Major Loren Dale Everton of Crofton, formerly of Wayne, commanding officer of marine fighting squadron 113, was awarded the navy cross for "extraordinary heroism and distinguished service in aerial action in the Solomon area" at ceremonies June 25 at El Toro marine air station near Los Angeles. The officer has been promoted to major from the captaincy he held when here a few months ago. The citation which accompanied his recent decoration stated that August 26, 1942, he participated in a flight which intercepted 16 Jap bombers, three of which he personally destroyed. Major Everton wears the purple heart and has 10 Jap aircraft to his credit.

Shoots Down Plane From African Base
"We've been rather busy and I have shot down my first Messerschmidt," writes Lt. W. B. Canning from north Africa. "I had a week's vacation after seeing quite a little action. Have seen some beautiful scenery in north Africa and thoroughly enjoyed a couple of dishes of good American ice cream at a Red Cross U.S.O."

"Americans do not under estimate the Jerrys. These airplanes (German) are wonderful and their pilots good. We hear the Italian planes are not so good but their pilots fly beautifully though they aren't so good in combat."

"English and Arabs will trade articles for amazing prices," according to the officer. "An old wornout khaki shirt will often be traded for as much as $10."

"Haven't had any mail since April 18, but one of these days it will catch up to me."

Writes from Somewhere.
Sgt. Russell A. Olson, formerly of Concord, writes his parents June 9 of his return to "civilization" after being "nowhere for seven months." Sgt. Olson writes: "Well, here I am back at the old base again, and back to civilization. After seven months of being 'nowhere' I'm mighty glad to be even here. Had a four-day leave and went into town, put up at the best hotel, slept as late as I wanted to and then cleaned up leisurely and went out to order a big steak and enjoy it. In the four days I know I had a dozen or more. Can't see where I put all the grub but that's the way it is. Cost plenty but it was worth it after seven months."

"I really got a surprise the second day here. Bud Hancock of Concord, came up to me and said 'How you doing?' He came here after I left, but knew I had been stationed here at one time and would come in some time, so every time a group came in he inquired for me. I really was glad to see him as he's the first fellow I've seen from home."

Sends African Paper.
An Africa edition of Stars and Stripes, the official army publication, was received this week by Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Lerner from their son, 1st Sgt. Wm. A. Lerner, who is in the chemical service. The 16-page printed paper of May 30 date contains news of the world and special features from that part of the war theatre.

One cartoon in the issue shows Mussolini as a weary shoemaker trying to keep the heel of his "boot" sewed on.

The editor of the Stars and Stripes explains that that newspaper prepared by and for service men was started in the First World War. It adds that at that time General Pershing permitted full freedom of the press. "No Dr. Goebbels is directing the selection or suppression of news in an effort to support some ulterior purpose." The paper mentions this fact in defending the soldiers' right to know about coal strikes at home as well as about progress of the war campaigns.

S. Sgt. Lerner wrote a birthday letter for his father June 9.

The Wayne youth tells that he has visited African cities and has been swimming in the sea. Weather has been hot though some rain has fallen. The young man reports he is well and food is good.

Sends Special Poem.
Pvt. Robert B. Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Meyer, sends to his father from the Sheppard

Field Textacts, army air force base, the following Father's day poem:

Dad
(We sing the songs of victory, and the land which is our own.
"We sing of wives and sweethearts and the dreams of friends and home."
"We hail the courage of mothers, and the fighting sons she had,
"But the guy I want to sing about is my dear and great old dad."
"He may be stern and hard to please, and his smile you seldom see."
"But I've found that it is mostly caused by his worrying about you and me."
"When a fellow is down, and there's no way out, and things look mighty bad,
"The first guy along with a helping hand is dear and great old dad."
"When they say goodbye at the station platform and the woomen begin to cry,
"If you look along in back of the crowd you'll see him with his head still high."
"With a lump in his throat, his jaws set hard, he tries not to look too sad,
"I'm proud of the guy with his head held high, he's my dear and great old dad."
"I always write mother, at least once in every week,
"Just to tell her that I love her and would like to cove her cheek."
"But there's another letter that must be done before I close my pad."
"It's to one of the best friends I've got - my dear and great old dad."
The Wayne youth, who just recently went to the Texas field, played on a baseball team in which his nine won over another at the camp by 2 to 1.

Funeral Conducted For Young Matron

Mrs. C. F. Carpenter Passes Away from Pneumonia in Southern State.

Mrs. C. F. Carpenter, about 38, sister-in-law of Mrs. Herbert Reuter of Wayne, died early Saturday morning, June 26, in Tucson, Ariz., according to word received that day by the latter. The deceased had been ill with pneumonia a short time.

Mrs. Reuter left early Sunday for Dyersburg, Tenn., where funeral services and interment took place.

Deceased leaves her husband who formerly lived in Wayne. Mrs. Reuter is the only close relative of Floyd Carpenter.

Club Group Camps At Homewood Park

Twenty-eight boys and girls of Wayne county's 4-H clubs attended 4-H camp at Homewood park, Wynot, June 24 to 26. Ten of this group were from the Hearty Helpers club of Sholes; the other 18 were from other county clubs.

The 18 are: Harry Swinney, Virginia Meyer, Delores Lutt, Cyril Hansen, Billy Evans, Raymond Roberts, Glenn Lundahl, Lois Langemeier, Delores Baird, Lois Simonin, Lowell Owens, Milton Owens, Louise Osburn, Raymond Johnson, Arnold Ginn, Claude Harder, Mary Harder and John Parke.

The Hearty Helpers club members present were: Joy Hinkle, Mary Hinkle, Flo Ann Burnham, Glenna Baird, Phyllis Baird, Frances Gubhels, Phyllis Isom, Kuhl Elaine Samuelson, Margie Kuhl and Jacqueline Kuhl.

Glenna Baird was given recognition as one of the four best among 250 campers at Wynot. Extension specialists from the university at Lincoln, had charge of instruction and recreation. Guy R. Davis had general charge. Miss Dorothea Foltmer conducted handicraft and Miss Margaret Gardner assisted in handicraft. Ralph Copenhaver was in charge of recreation, and Earl G. Maxwell in charge of nature study.

Home from Hospital.
Mrs. Wm. Nelson, the former Alice Mae Young, returned home the first of the week from a local hospital where she had undergone an operation for appendicitis Friday, June 18. She and Mrs. Mae Young plan to go to St. Louis within a few weeks to visit the David Young family. Mrs. Nelson will also visit her husband, Pvt. Wm. Nelson, at Camp Crowder, Mo.

WAYNE OFFICER RECEIVES SILVER STAR MEDAL—Captain Douglas S. Canning, Wayne, steps forward to receive the silver star from Brig. Gen. Dean C. Strother, commanding general of a fighter command, at a base in the South Pacific. Captain Canning May 18 was awarded the silver star by Lieut. Gen. Millard F. Harmon for gallantry in action while participating in an air flight over the Solomon Islands on December 19, 1942. He was one of five fighter pilots affording protection for a formation of bombers in an attack upon Tonolei Harbor, Bougainville. As the flight reached the target it was intercepted by about thirty enemy fighters. In spite of the great odds, the Wayne Thor and the other pilots of the escort fought so well and courageously that not one of the enemy was able to reach the bombers or to damage seriously the fighter escort. The formation successfully bombed the target and returned unharmed.

Wedding Service Held in Norfolk

Miss Dorothy Voecks Bride Of Pvt. Fred T. Lehmann Sunday, June 20.

Miss Dorothy Voecks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Voecks of Hoskins, became the bride of Pvt. Fred T. Lehmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Lehmann of Norfolk, Sunday, June 20, at Norfolk Rev. Arthur Widiger performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was gowned in white silk marquisette, princess style, with long full sleeves and lace insets about the waist and yoke. She wore a corsage of pink carnations tied with blue and white ribbon and a sweetheart locket, a gift of the bridegroom.

The bride's attendant, Miss Blanche Martin of Hoskins, wore a peach net floor-length gown, with short puffed sleeves and lace insets around the full skirt and waist. Miss Martin wore a cameo locket and a corsage of white carnations tied with peach and white ribbons.

Pvt. Lehmann's attendants were Pvt. Gordon Hirabak and Pvt. Marvin Jendes, both of Camp Harrah, Mo. The bridegroom and his attendants were in uniform.

The bridal reception was at the home of Mrs. E. Diket of New Orleans, where the young couple is now in residence.

Pvt. Lehmann is a graduate of Norfolk high school and is now stationed at Camp Harrah, Mo.

Lumber Is Available For Needs on Farm

War production board has made available for use in Nebraska 17, 900,000 board feet of softwood lumber for specific farm needs. County USDA war boards have been authorized to assign to farmers AA-2 preference ratings for the purchase of such lumber during June, July, August and September.

War boards can issue these preference ratings only for maintenance and repair of agricultural buildings or equipment, new construction essential to the food production program and the reconstruction of essential buildings destroyed by fire. Lumber cannot be obtained by farmers through this special rating for dwellings.

The lumber made available through this allocation is only to supplement the lumber regularly obtained by farmers through AA-3 and AA-4 ratings. Only after failure to obtain lumber by giving a statement on intended use to the dealer should a farmer make application to his war board for an AA-2 rating. Dealers may extend these ratings for the purpose of obtaining supplies or replacing inventories.

Mrs. Ellen Soules Evans was here from Emerson Saturday.

Impress Endures Though Time Is Making Changes

Time brings many changes, but the impress of lives has a great and lasting influence on a community. When Mrs. E. S. Blair last Thursday left the home she and the late Dr. Blair maintained here for 49 years, the family's immediate contact with Wayne people was concluded. But the services which Dr. Blair performed as a pioneer physician and those of Mrs. Blair as librarian will endure.

Dr. Blair was practicing in Sioux City and Mrs. Blair taught there prior to their marriage. They later moved to Correctionville, Ia., and came to Wayne from that place 49 years ago. Dr. Blair not only carried on a lucrative practice, but he took an active part in affairs of the community. He retired a few years before he passed away here in August, 1941.

Mrs. Blair, along with her family and home duties, took active part in the community through the nearly half of a century. She was first worthy matron of the Eastern Star, was active in the Methodist church, P.E.O. and Acme club. Mrs. Blair became city librarian 26 years ago this July, and her 25th anniversary in this public service was duly observed last year.

Mrs. Blair, who spent a couple weeks with Mrs. C. L. Pickett and Mrs. O. R. Bowen and who was entertained by many in the community, left Thursday for Heron Lake, Minn., to spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Hawkins. This fall she plans to go to Sterling, Colo., to visit her other daughter, Mrs. G. F. Hodgson, and will likely stop in Wayne en route there.

Six Men Bail Out Of Plane on Flight

Six men bailed out of a B-18 bomber just before daylight last Wednesday when the ship was flying near Thurston. Two motors caught fire and the pilot gave the order to "hit the silk," fearing he might have to make an emergency landing. The plane, however, was able to reach the Sioux City air base. Three of the six who took to the parachutes suffered injury to their ankles.

Earns Degree and Is Camp Counselor

Miss Ann Ahern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Ahern, arrived home Friday evening from the University of Nebraska, at Lincoln, where she has completed the curriculum leading to the bachelor of science degree. Miss Ahern left Saturday morning for Holiday camps, Hackensack, Minn., where she will be a counselor for the summer.

Leroy Heesehold of Winslow, spent Sunday with his grandmother, Mrs. Emma Baker.

Close Spring Term In District Court

Judge F. H. Pollock Comes During Summer Only If Need Arises.

Divorce was granted Friday by District Judge F. H. Pollock in the petition filed by Geo. H. Otte against Jane E. or Jennie Otte. The plaintiff was granted custody of the minor son with the provision that the son be allowed to visit his mother and the mother visit the son at reasonable times and under reasonable circumstances. Plaintiff is to pay alimony of $700 with $300 to be paid now and $400 January, 1945. Plaintiff also pays $100 attorney fees for defendant.

F. S. Berry was attorney for the plaintiff and Mark Ryan for the defendant in the Otte case.

Judge Pollock came Friday instead of this Thursday, as he had intended. This was the last district court session here until fall unless some special need arises.

Tessa Naomi Richardson is seeking divorce from Arthur Richardson. Petition was filed Friday by W. A. Crossland, attorney for the plaintiff who asks restoration of her maiden name of Tessa Naomi Strange. The couple were married at Bloomfield 24 years ago. Mr. Richardson is employed at the Henry Bush farm northwest of Wayne.

A suit on a note was filed in district court by Mrs. Anna L. Kay against Wayne Sales Co., Inc. The note, given in 1936, is for $1,200 with interest due at 9 percent since May 8, 1941. F. S. Berry is attorney for plaintiff.

Will Let Contracts On Road Projects

State highway board will let contracts July 8 on road projects. Among those in this part of the state on which bids will be taken are graveling between Wakefield and Dakota City on highway 35, between Wisner and Bancroft, between Oakland and Madison.

ACCEPTS POSITION IN CLERK'S OFFICE

Miss Bonnell Grier, former employee of Gamble Stores, has accepted the position of secretary at the city clerk's office, to replace Miss Alice May Foster, who plans on being married July 3 to S. Sgt. Fred L. Sartain. Miss Grier will take up her duties July 1.

Boys Are Leading In School Census

Wayne city school census, completed last week by Mrs. Julia Haas, shows a total of 604 between the ages of 5 and 21. The boys number 303 and girls 301. The figures tied with 301 boys and 301 girls until A. J. Atkins, music instructor, moved to Wayne, and his two boys changed the figure. The total is quite a drop from last year's 661.

Damages Sought In Four Actions

Four damage suits totaling $42,920 were filed last week in district court at West Point as the result of a traffic accident in a practice blackout April 7 when Wm. Vogel was fatally hurt and others injured. The cars of Mr. Vogel and Anthony Ulrich collided at an intersection.

Annie Vogel, widow of Wm. Vogel, asks $25,420 for the death of her husband and $5,000 for injuries suffered by her sister, Cecelia Lummler.

The other petitions are filed in behalf of the Vogel twins, Richard and Leona, 2 years old. For Leona, who is scarred about the face, $5,000 is asked. For Richard the sum of $2,500 is sought for injuries.

Cuming county has 13 leaving July 5 for service.

Laurel Girl Dies In Swimming Pool

Miss Annabell Smith Loses Life Saturday When In Sioux City.

Miss Annabell Smith, 16, of Laurel, was drowned Saturday evening about 7:45 when swimming in a Sioux City pool where about 2,500 sought relief from the heat of the day. Efforts of soldiers from the air base and of firemen failed to revive the young woman.

Discovery of the body was made by Jimmie McMartin, 17, when he dived from the high board. When he first went down he thought he had collided with another swimmer. When he struck her after the second dive he notified officials who found the young woman's body in the pool.

Miss Smith had gone to the pool to watch Mary Kass, 11, whose mother was in the U. S. O. center. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Smith of Laurel.

Elected to Teach.

Lumber Is Available For Needs on Farm
War production board has made available for use in Nebraska 17, 900,000 board feet of softwood lumber for specific farm needs. County USDA war boards have been authorized to assign to farmers AA-2 preference ratings for the purchase of such lumber during June, July, August and September.

War boards can issue these preference ratings only for maintenance and repair of agricultural buildings or equipment, new construction essential to the food production program and the reconstruction of essential buildings destroyed by fire. Lumber cannot be obtained by farmers through this special rating for dwellings.

The lumber made available through this allocation is only to supplement the lumber regularly obtained by farmers through AA-3 and AA-4 ratings. Only after failure to obtain lumber by giving a statement on intended use to the dealer should a farmer make application to his war board for an AA-2 rating. Dealers may extend these ratings for the purpose of obtaining supplies or replacing inventories.

Mrs. Ellen Soules Evans was here from Emerson Saturday.

Crop Prospects Most Promising

Early County Fair Shows Progress Made During Year in County.

Early Days from the Wayne Herald for June 30, 1927: Crop prospects in Wayne county this season are more encouraging than in many years. Some of the corn will easily be knee high by the Fourth. Farmers are finishing their second cultivation and will lay the corn by soon. Prospects are also good for wheat, alfalfa, oats and barley.

J. J. Mellick, 70, formerly of Carroll, died at Neligh June 17, 1927.

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Brown of Wayne, were given $3,500 by Huron, S. D., court on a suit filed in contention with the accidental death of their son, Billy.

A new addition was built to the country club house.

E. E. Gailey bought from B. W. Wright the Union hotel building occupied by the Geo. Box boarding house.

Herman Lundberg underwent an operation for ruptured appendix.

A garage containing two cars, a truck and farm supplies was destroyed by fire at the Gustav Albers farm north of Wisner.

Ira Lyon of Madison, and Miss Clara Stallsmith of Wayne, were married June 27, 1927.

Henry Hollman, 56, died June 30, 1927.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. David Borg June 23, 1927.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Watson June 28, 1927.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Nygren of Wakefield, June 24, 1927.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Hancock of Bisbee, Ariz., June 25, 1927. Mrs. Hancock is the former Hattie Crockett of Wayne.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Evan Hamer of Carroll, in June, 1927.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Whitney of Carroll June 25, 1927.

Harry Hokamp of Carroll, and Miss Ann Hilyard of Mitchell, were married June 15, 1927.

Dr. A. Texley bought the L. K. King drug store at Carroll.

Herman Gathje of Winside, underwent an operation.

Arthur Jensen, 38, former resident of Wakefield, died at Hartington June 21, 1927.

Rev. E. Gehrke resigned as pastor of the Lutheran church northeast of Wayne, having served here 17 years. He will locate at Bancroft.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Erickson of Wakefield, June 27, 1927.

John McCorkindale of Wakefield, underwent an operation in Sioux City.

Cars belonging to Alvin Hurst of Wayne, and Gotfried Youngren of Wakefield, were damaged in a collision east of Wakefield. No one was hurt.

Gravel is being placed on the Wakefield-Alton highway.

Robert Erwin of Concord, was in a Sioux City hospital with blood poisoning.

From Dixon County.

Early Days from Northern Nebraska Journal, Ponca, for June 15, 1882: The county fair shows great advancement in all industries, especially in the past century. The ingenuity displayed in agricultural inventions all redounds to the common benefit of mankind... T. Hurley went to Martinsburg to take charge of a mill... Mrs. Mary Wilcox, 53, died in June, 1882... Mrs. Bigley reopened the Valley house. She had operated the place before and conducted a fine hostelry... The home of a widow near Newcastle was entered by an intruder. The man was covered with a sheet and pushed open a door against which a sewing machine had been placed. He blew out the lantern which was burning low. He grabbed one girl by the hair and attempted to catch another by the throat. The girls called for help and the intruder was forced to escape through a window.

The condition of affairs in Turkey bids fair to result in a speedy European war. Turkey seems to have provoked England and France, and Germany and Russia are likely to be drawn into the trouble... Mrs. Jesse James, widow of the noted outlaw, since the "removal" of her husband, has been so besieged by publishers that she was compelled to issue a statement denying she has been authorized to use the name in connection with any pretended history of her husband's life... The senate is considering a bill which asks a treaty with the Sioux Indians for cession of part of their reservation.

The sum of $10,000 was appropriated for those left destitute by the Mississippi flood... Gold valued at $2,000,000 was shipped to Europe... A vein of petroleum was found 41 feet below the surface at Baxter Springs, Kan... Virginians are indignant over the proposal to remove the remains of Jefferson from Monticello to Washington... The Iowa Greenback convention in Des Moines favors unlimited coinage of gold and silver, opposes monopolies and promotes temperance... Arabi Bey of Egypt, said he cares little for threats or promises and he would meet European aggression with his whole strength... The senate is considering a bill to extend mail routes at a pro-rata additional pay for distance not to exceed 25 miles.

Pierce county fair will be August 21 to 24.

Finishes Radio School.

Wesley Sundstrom, seaman second class, of Concord, writes from San Diego that he has finished radio school and is now at the receiving station waiting for transfer. The young man appreciates home contacts through the Herald.

Goes to Indiana.

Cpl. Gerald Swihart, who came from Camp Shelby, Miss., to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Swihart of Carroll, goes to Terre Haute, Ind. He stopped in Wayne Friday in express appreciation for weekly visits of the Herald.

Earns Promotion.

Ernest Sievers of Wayne, who is in the Pacific zone, was promoted to fireman first class in the navy service in June. One of his brothers, Pfc. Alfred Sievers, who is in the medical detachment, writes from Africa that he visited the city of Oran and has been swimming in the Mediterranean.

Earns Promotion.

John H. Gathje was promoted to sergeant May 27, just two months after he had been made corporal. The young man is stationed at Camp Haan, Cal. His unit is now on desert maneuvers and he sends a poem describing these. Sgt. Gathje enjoys home news through the Herald which reaches him each Monday.

See Victory Ahead.

"Victory is ahead. We can never fail," writes Pfc. John Hansen from the army air base at Ephrata, Wash. The Wayne young man recently moved from Camp Crowder, Mo., and likes the climate in the northwest. Nights are always cool. Pfc. Hansen is on duty nights. He finds that the Herald relieves him of a very lonesome feeling.

Is Here on Leave.

Lt. Leonard Martens of Ganite City, Ill., left Tuesday after being in Winside and Wayne since last Wednesday on leave. Mrs. Martens who had been with him, remained in Winside with her father, J. G. VonSeggern, Lt. Martens' mother was here from Pipestone, Minn., Friday and Saturday.

Has New Location.

Pvt. Louie E. Jensen of Wayne, who had been at Fort Ord, Cal., has a new address in care of the postmaster at Seattle, Wash.

Goes to Marine Base.

Pvt. V. R. Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hansen of Wayne, has been transferred to the marine corps base in San Diego, Cal.

Gets High Award.

David Eckhoff of Humphrey, received the "distinguished" flying cross for his assistance in shooting down Jap Zeros in the Australian area.

Goes to Texas Camp.

Virgil Lingenfelter of Phinney, Wayne student who is now a naval aviation cadet, has moved from Norman, Okla., to Corpus Christi, Texas.

Moves to Long Island.

Pfc. Dirk Luaders, who had been at Richmond, Va., moved last week to Long Island, N. Y. He telephoned to home folks at Chris Luaders' last Wednesday night.

Arrives on Furlough.

Pfc. Scottie Thompson is home from Ft. Sill, Okla., on an 11-day furlough visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles Thompson, and other relatives. He arrived Thursday and leaves this Saturday.

Leaves for New York.

Harold Fitch, who had visited in the Don Fitch home at Seattle, spent a few days here and at Coleridge the last of the week before leaving for Troy, N. Y., where he trains for the naval reserve.

Is Moved in Texas.

Pfc. John W. Bressler has moved from Camp Hood to College Station, Texas. He and three other students were selected to take special schooling for three weeks. The young man sends appreciation for the Herald.

Promoted in Service.

Robert A. Merchant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Merchant, has been promoted to the rank of staff sergeant. S. Sgt. Merchant has been in New Guinea for about six months in the photograph department of the army air forces.

first leave since he entered service 14 months ago. He enjoys home news each week through the Herald, especially the service column.

Returns to San Diego.

Sgt. John A. Weible, who had been in Orlando, Fla., for a few weeks' special training in the army air force school of applied tactics, spent a few days furlough with home folks at Winside before leaving this week for San Diego, Cal. Sgt. Weible appreciates keeping in touch with Wayne county folks through the Herald.

Takes Special Course.

Cpl. Theo. A. Witt, youngest son of the Fred Witts of Winside, is at Scott Field, Ill., to take special training in the operation and maintenance of portable oxygen generators. The oxygen from these plants is used for high altitude flying. The young man was promoted to corporal when he and five others were chosen at New Orleans for this special work.

The Winside youth had earned private first class rating when he with many others from Jefferson Barracks, Mo., recently helped in the flood area. For two weeks the Missouri camp boys were in the field helping control the waters. They slept on cots in tents and in schools. Food was prepared at a field kitchen and was even better than at camp.

Returns from Bivouac.

Pfc. Wilbur Ahlvers of Camp Blanding, Ala., has returned from bivouac. While out on the rifle range, he and a few others were chosen to coach six men each in using the new rifle. "It makes one feel that his efforts haven't been in vain." The Wayne youth earned his private first class rating the day he left for encampment.

Basic training is about finished for the Wayne youth who says this "is no picnic but after it is over one really appreciates this rigid and disciplined period."

Pfc. Ahlvers writes that when the Herald arrives he tries to pick a quiet spot and then pictures in his mind how every little incident mentioned might have taken place. He was greatly pleased, when on his six-day bivouac, to receive a paper. "Maybe you don't think that wasn't welcome out where you can't and don't have a chance whatsoever to buy any sort of reading material at all. And as it was from home it made it doubly enjoyable to me. Even one boy who lives nowhere near Nebraska found it profitable reading as well as I. Now, from 2,000 miles away, I thank you again for the service you have rendered to us."

LOCAL NEWS

PROTEINS—MINERALS—VITAMINS
ALL IN ONE BAG—READY TO FEED

Right now, when farm labor is hard to get, feeders in this territory are turning to Occident Mineral Hog Supplement to BALANCE their hog ration. Proteins, minerals, and vitamins, all in one bag—ready to feed.

If you are feeding corn alone, you cut your grain ration in half by adding Occident Mineral Hog Supplement. Yes, and you can save from 60 to 90 days feeding time, too, for Occident Mineral Hog Supplement has the proteins, minerals and vitamins necessary to build a good sturdy frame.

Occident Mineral Hog Supplement is a product that takes the place of tankage and minerals. It goes further than tankage, and costs less than minerals. Easy to feed—you just put it in the trough, and forget it.

Occident Mineral Hog Supplement contains the sunshine vitamin "D" of irradiated yeast, so badly needed during fall and winter. It has an easier to assimilate iron content. And, it has niacin—the all-important pellagra preventive vitamin.

Marry at Service In Republican City

Miss Ruth Winz Is Bride of Leo C. Eldhardt at Home Ceremony June 20.

Miss Ruth Winz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Winz of Huntley, became the bride of Leo C. Eldhardt, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Eldhardt of Carroll, in a single ring ceremony performed Sunday evening, June 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Barnes, grandparents of the bride, of Republican City.

The ceremony was played by Miss Edythe Howsden, cousin of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Howsden, uncle and aunt of Miss Winz, sang "Saviour, Like a Shepherd Lead Us." Rev. Hoffmann of Alma, performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a white gown with a lace yoke, and on her head an orange blossom wreath. Miss Harriett Rose Martin of Alma, the bride's attendant, wore a dress of jaggard brown and white. Each carried a bridge of Paul's Scarlet roses. The bridegroom and his attendant, Junior Bennett of Alma, were dressed in dark suits.

Miss Edythe and Miss LaDonna Howsden, cousins of the bride, served at the reception immediately following the ceremony.

Miss Winz is a graduate of Huntley high school, and for the past year has been employed as assistant manager of the Olympic commissary canteen at the defense plant in Hastings. Mr. Eldhardt is employed as a carpenter at the Hastings defense plant and the Harvard airport.

Treats for All With One Nickel

Classification is 4-F for Man Serving in Army More Than One Year.

A thirsty employe inserted a nickel in an automatic soft drink vending machine in midtown New York City and waited for soda to gush down into a paper cup. He lifted the drink to his lips but was interrupted by the sound of another drink gurgling into the cup. Then in rapid succession about 70 drinks spurted into cups in orderly fashion, and the dazed drinker treated the whole office staff. All on one nickel.

Cpl. Reuben Morse, 28, was mildly shocked at his latest official notice. It was from the draft board through which he had been inducted into the army a year ago. And it advised him he had been classified in 4-F.

At McAlester, Okla., a freight train pulled out of the yards with this crew: V. A. Drumb, engineer; V. A. Drumb, jr., fireman; R. L. Drumb, conductor; twins, Leo and Elmo Drumb, brakemen. The engineer is the father of the fireman; the brother of the conductor and the uncle of the brakemen.

Unnecessary telephone calls are no longer made from Camp Gillespie, a marine paratroop training center, at Santee, Cal. The reason is Tigge, an English bulldog mascot, has chosen the telephone booth in the guard house as his home. Anyone who wants to use the phone must first remove Tigge. Unless the call is vital, no one bothers Tigge.

Hailstones really came big at a recent hail storm in Hutchinson, Kan. One found by Richard Smith weighed 13 ounces, measured 13 inches in circumference, and was larger than a baseball.

When dump trucks filling in a housing project at Philadelphia dribbled dirt down the middle of their black and verbal protests failed, 50 housewives joined hands in a human chain and blocked off the street. One driver got caught in the chain and women kept him prisoner until he cleaned up his dirt.

Oscar Bjorgum's tree climbing horse at Billings, Mont., is back to earth again. It took the fire department, a block and tackle and three hours' work to do it. Bjorgum said the animal was frightened, tried to jump through a high fork in a cottonwood tree and got stuck. None aboard.

Attendants at Central Emergency hospital, San Francisco, must have looked a bit blank when Lolita and Loretta Scafield, identical 14-month-old twins, arrived. Their mother said one of them had eaten some poisonous paste—but which one?? Neither looked unhappy. A trace of poison was finally found on Loretta's lips and treatment followed.

A Milwaukee, Wis., commission firm truck driver was started at seeing a movement in a recently arrived carload of potatoes—took a second look and discovered a badly frightened fox terrier. The dog had apparently made the nine-day trip from Phoenix, Ariz., and appeared none the worse for living in the 40-degree temperature without food or water.

Six-year-old Jerry Larrimore and sister, Ellen, 5, went to Los Angeles theatre when it opened in the morning. The janitor found them at midnight after they had watched seven features, four newsreels, four government shorts, four cartoons, a preview and a stage show. Mrs. Anna Larrimore, their mother, said Jerry yawned when police brought him home and then asked: "Can we go back tomorrow, mom?"

At Idaho Falls, Idaho, Ray Smith, farmer, lit a cigaret. Gasoline he was using to clean an electric pump exploded. He went to the hospital, his arms and head swathed in bandages. He attempted to light another cigaret. Medicine-soaked bandages on his right hand caught fire.

It was a careful thief that stole a lawn mower from the Ross King home in Syracuse, N. Y. Neighbors reported the man cut a few yards of the lawn, apparently to see if the machine was worth stealing, then walked off with it.
