Home Baking Days Are Here Again!

Bake these easily, for October delight

TO MAKE this evening's dinner appetizingly different, why not bake some drop biscuits? Very little time is required!

DROP BISCUITS
Following your regular 2-cup recipe for baking-powder biscuits, but use enough milk (about a cup) so mixture will drop from teaspoon on an ungreased baking tin. Bake in a hot oven (450° F.) for 12 to 15 minutes. Makes about 16 biscuits.

Even more appetizing! Drop biscuits result if you add (depending on personal tastes) 1/2 cup of raisins or chopped nuts or diced cheese to the mixture before kneading it. Or, use tomato juice instead of milk for the moisture!

And for dessert, how about:

ICED APPLE DUMPLINGS
Using a standard pastry recipe, roll the pastry 3/8-inch thick and cut into 6-inch squares. Wash and peel 6 whole medium-sized cooking apples; remove cores and place one apple in the center of each pastry square. Fill each core-hole with brown sugar, and a dash of cinnamon and nutmeg, and 1/2 tbsp. butter or margarine. Turn edges of pastry, and draw up around apples, pressing securely together. With sharp tined fork, prick dough well all over. Place in well-greased drip pan. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 15 minutes. Reduce heat to moderate oven (350° F.) and bake 45 minutes or until done, basting every 15 minutes with syrup made by boiling 1 cup granulated sugar, 1/2 cup water, and 2 tbsp. butter or margarine. When baked, frost tops immediately with medium-thick powdered sugar butter icing.

Prepare for Game With Wausa Today

Assembly Program Group Meets to Make Plans For Wayne Prep.

Wayne Prep football game which was to have been held Friday afternoon last week was postponed because of injuries suffered by some of the Prep players, and in order that those injured would be in condition to participate in the Wausa game which will be played Thursday evening this week at the college field.

Assembly program committee, composed of Bob Shively, chairman; Jim Kemper, Bill Cross and Matt Belle James, met Friday.

Class meetings were held Thursday this week.

Student council met Wednesday last week.

Pep club met Monday evening.

Sixth Grade Notes.

Reports on important manufacturing districts of Britain were given.

In spelling, students are trying to reduce the total class errors as well as to improve individual scores.

Committees are responsible for stories or articles related to fire prevention.

As a part of the history unit on the growth of the United States, toward the west, Dr. Geo. Seek showed students a film on the growth and importance of railroads in this country.

From Fifth Grade.

Officers elected by the Road to Happiness club are: Jack Killian, president; Lois Harder, vice president; Thomas Daniels, secretary; Frances Marty, Gayle Thielman and Fred Feldman are arranging a program for the club.

The arithmetic class found fun in using addition and subtraction in the construction of magic squares. In these squares the sums of all the vertical rows and of all the horizontal rows of numbers must be the same.

Janet Wait was elected monitor to care for the ink and Gloria Johnson was elected to care for the pens.

From Fourth Grade.

Each student made a set of multiplication drill cards for the 2's and 3's. These were used in class and later taken home for practice.

Two of the three original songs the class has made and copied have been in six-eight time, usually studied in a later grade. Simple songs by Beethoven and Mozart made a nice study of this rhythm.

Joyce Ingram brought flowers and health bulletin board pictures; Thomas Myers, flowers and pictures; Ruth Mac Beeke, pictures and a good story book; Shirley Ann Kingston, flowers; Harold Surber, pictures.

After seeing moving pictures about railroads, students read a story about the railroad yard "bump" in the Weekly Reader.

Third Grade News.

Claude Harder and Kent Hall Friday showed 3rd graders how to make fire by friction. They also explained how to make fire with flint and metal.

Students showed 1st graders homes of primitive people which they had made of bark and clay. Students made talks explaining these houses.

Friday, almost everyone had all spelling words correct.

In English, children wrote in their booklets of simple experiments which they had performed to show how fire is put out.

Second Grade Notes.

Marlan Carlson observed his birthday Friday last week when he treated the students and teachers to cakes which he made. His mother and younger brother came to the party.

Students are painting buildings for the campus unit. They will build a large teepee for their Indian unit.

The store is proving interesting. Pupils have sandpapered the counters, built the shelves and priced the materials.

Students are well started in 2nd grade materials.

Linda Peterka's birthday was reported last week instead of that of Linda Kessler's.

From First Grade.

Pupils read "A Walk, with Mother" and "The Surprise" in the Alice and Jerry primer. They are beginning to read paragraphs and pages more independently each day.

The rural education class taught by Dr. H. D. Kemper observed 1st grade reading Monday morning. The class also observed Prof. Russell Anderson's music class Monday morning. Miss Patricia Sloan played for music appreciation.

Jimmie Bradensick and Patty Kemper are able to play a few pieces on the murrumb. Other students are also beginning to play "The Indian," "Sailing" and "Shortnin' Bread." Some recognize many pieces for ear training and rhythm.

Kindergarten News.

Students have painted wall paper for their home and are now making white curtains. Children know their fathers first and last names, their work and their addresses.

Room duties are assigned to certain children each day. This week Betty Jo Ebeke, feeds the gold fish; Jimmy Hughes and Sally Schreiner water the plants.

Wendell Wilkie The sudden passing of Wendell L. Wilkie, 1940 presidential candidate, and a vitally constructive force in shaping world affairs, caused deeply felt regret. He was manifestly sincere in supporting what he believed would insure the largest measure of universal peace and security.

Mr. Wilkie's campaign for this year's republican presidential nomination was abandoned when adverse returns were reported from the Wisconsin primaries.

Mr. Wilkie was a close student of national trends and of possible safeguards, and he was certain to continue an influential figure in molding postwar policies. However many may have disagreed with him, he was a liberal contributor to world thought, and his counsel would have served well in peace-time reconstruction. He was needed, and he will be missed as a counsel on world affairs.

Mr. Wilkie had not openly committed himself on 1944 presidential candidates, though Henry R. Luce, editor of Time and Life, is quoted as saying frequent conversations with the departed patriot were definitely against Roosevelt, and in favor of Dewey. Luce clinched what he said with this: "Wilkie's concern was wholly with what measure of support to give to the republican candidate and how and when to give in order to support the cause of liberalism for which he always stood."

Lure of Distance DISTANCE no doubt still lends enchantment, and those who sometimes have an urge to cut familiar home ties to try their luck in some remote El Dorado, may find peace of mind and content where they are by reading this experience related by the current Pathfinder magazine:

"As the war rockets along to its climax, thoughts of wandering war workers are turning to home. For instance, there's Eugene (Enie) Auvenshine, of Carnegie, Okla. His congressman gave us a clipping from the home town paper that we thought was a straw in the wind. Unie, it seems, was hired to the west coast shipyards by high wages, but he's back home now and glad to be there! The local editor said he had taken the 'West Coast cure.' "As he returned to Oklahoma—quoting the clipping—"and saw waving fields and white-faced cattle and American citizens who speak when they meet you, Unie said he never wanted to leave again."

"In the shipyards he received $11 a day and on week-ends he got time and a half. His check many weeks was nearly $100—and yet he couldn't save any money." "Congress probably had Unie in mind when it was debating the proposal to pay war workers' fare home after V-day."

and. The campaign preliminary to the general election which comes November 7, should not be allowed to interfere with interest in Wayne's special election less than two weeks ahead. The postwar period is certain to become more and more air-minded. Fast development of air transportation which is an assurance, means that live communities that expect to grow, must have adequate airports. Wayne must prove it is that kind of town on October 24.

One thoughtless republican says he opposes the new deal and will vote for Dewey, but wonders if continuance of Roosevelt and his satellites in power to cure the ills they have caused, would not be advisable. That would simply mean more ills and increased problems at the end of another term. The sooner Washington is cleared of new deal visionaries, the smaller will be the mountain of blunders and the sooner will the country begin to regain lost ground. The longer defeat of the new deal is postponed, the harder will be the task that follows it.

In his latest political speech President Roosevelt tried artfully to dissociate his new deal from communistic entanglements, though Earl Browder, leader of the wild-eyed radicals, has marshalled his forces in support of the fourth term. And that fact alone is enough to turn thinking people against it. The fact that the corrupt political machines of Kansas City, Chicago and New Jersey are out to capture another victory for the new deal is just ground for opposition to it.

Senator Claude Pepper of Florida peppered the air with fourth-term propaganda just before the Dewey speech Saturday night. Pepper was manifestly introduced to militate against the New York governor's talk, but on the contrary it drew a favorable contrast. Secretary Harold Ickes who has more fire than judgment, ought to furnish the next certain raiser for the republican candidate.

Putting off execution of governmental policies of doubtful popularity until after election, as often announced, amounts to telling people they can't be trusted to know what is going to happen to them. If changes or new regulations or additional restraints are to be imposed as soon as voters cannot thereby be influenced, there is ground for suspicion. There is ground to vote against the planners.

The president has expressed a desire to be elected or defeated by a whale of a majority. People hereabouts will be glad to grant the latter half of his wish and will do their best to carry it out. We agree that defeat or victory by a narrow margin would be unfortunate. A landslide against a fourth term would be wonderfully salutary.

Lieut. Gen. George C. Kenny of the south Pacific says "the Japs have only months—not years—left." He has been in the thick of the Pacific fighting and should know, and, anyway, he is the fellow we want to believe.

Local fellows who are behind the cause of aviation, are contributing liberally and substantially to Wayne's future values.

Few pupils in each rural school in times of teacher scarcity remind one of the practicality of more consolidations.

STATE SOCIALISM. Time magazine reports Great Britain, "the cradle of capitalism, peacefully, but irresistibly trending toward state socialism." That nation proposes benefits to begin at birth with a maternity allowance, and to end at death with a grant. Based on the Beveridge plan, the cost will be approximately $2,600,000,000 for the first year. General benefits cover sickness, invalidism, unemployment, retirement, widows' pensions, orphans' allowances, industrial injuries, family allowances, maternity and death grants. But payments for different reasons are small compared with individual earnings, and if they are allowed to take the place of individual effort, they would stifle initiative and reduce efficiency. Incentive to achieve and save cannot be supplanted by government paternalism without weakening the race. It is plain that individual planning and responsibility are essential. As to labor unions and capitalistic groups, neither should be allowed to dominate and force either extreme. The "great middle course" that does not overburden on the one hand nor coddle on the other is the right one to build a strong nation.

SEVEN REASONS.

Robert Moses, park, public works and planning official of New York city and state, contributes an article to the current Saturday Evening Post giving seven reasons why he is opposed to a fourth term. Summarized they are: First, because of the way the federal judicial system has been handled. Second, because administration policies are "destroying the very idea of a union of states." Third, because the president has increased the conflict between the executive and congress. Fourth, because he has "promoted factionalism, stimulated minorities, appealed to class prejudices and divided our people." Fifth, because the president's government is one of impulse and improvising, with too many bureaus and agencies. Sixth, because of the president's "fluctuating foreign policies, which are always veiled in rhetoric, gestures and smooth talk." In short, he has held on too long to give the service needed. Seventh, because of lack of confidence in the ability of the new deal to handle postwar problems. "His hostility to private enterprise and subservience to the more radical elements of labor will outlast both the election and the war. If past experience means anything, its gestures toward business and the right wing of the party are unconvincing, and good only until November."

NOTICE OF ELECTION

Notice is hereby given that a petition for the formation of a Drainage District, under the name of "WAYNE COUNTY DRAINAGE DISTRICT NO. 1," has been filed with the Board of County Commissioners of Wayne County, Nebraska, under the provisions of Sections 31-501 to 31-551, both inclusive, of the Compiled Statutes of Nebraska for 1929, as amended, which is now in full force and effect, under the title of "Drainage Districts Organized By Vote of Landowners" and that the full title thereof is as follows:

"An Act to provide for Drainage Districts to drain wet land; and land subject to overflow; and any land which will be improved by drainage; to provide for the levying of taxes to construct, straighten, widen, deepen or alter any ditch, drain, stream, or watercourse; to riprap or otherwise protect the bank of any stream (or ditch) to construct, enlarge, extend, improve or maintain any system of control of surface water or running water; and the rights, obligations and powers of such corporations, including the power of eminent domain, the creation of bonds, the issuing of negotiable debentures, and the levying of special assessments on such real estate and easements therein as may be benefited by such public work, and defining the duties and powers of public officials."

and said Board of County Commissioners has found in its judgment that said proposed District will be conducive to the public health, convenience and welfare by draining and protecting from water the lands, hereinafter specifically described, and to form a District for said purpose, and has fixed the boundaries of said proposed District, which, in its judgment, will do justice and equity to all persons and to promote the interests of said District, if formed, and has caused the same to be recorded in compliance with the aforesaid Act, as follows, to-wit:

SERVICE NEWS

More Service News on page 3, section 2

Now in France. Sgt. Milo Meyer is now with armed forces in France.

Here from California. Pvt. Douglas Russell arrived Sunday from Camp Roberts, Cal., to spend a furlough with his family, also with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Russell, and his brother, Melvin Russell. He leaves next Tuesday for Fort Meade, Md.

Promoted in Service. TS Wm. E. Miller, who is in the Pacific, has been promoted to a service company in an infantry division. He is on an island near the equator where men must take salt tablets to keep up their strength. For the first time he was allowed to tell his mother, Mrs. Jessie L. Miller, where he is. His company has been in the midst of battle and the Japs have now surrendered to his group. Billie, as he is known in Wayne, has been in the army three and a half years and has been home on furlough only once.

Petty Officer First Motor Mechanic Mate Donald U. Miller, who was here in July, has returned to submarine duty in the Pacific. His wife, who spent a couple of weeks with him in San Francisco, is now back at San Diego.

AIR MEDAL AWARD COMES FOR YOUTH

The air medal awarded to Lt. Lyle E. Seymour, co-pilot on a B-17 based in England, was received here Monday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Seymour. The citation from Brig. Gen. A. W. Kissner reads that the medal is given for "meritorious achievement while participating in heavy bombardment missions in the air offensive against the enemy over continental Europe. The courage, coolness and skill displayed by this officer upon these occasions reflect great credit upon himself and the armed forces of the United States."

LT. PHILIP CARLSON ARRIVES IN STATES

Lt. Philip Carlson, son of Mrs. C. T. Carlson now of Washington, D. C., and formerly of Concord, who was serving as navigator on a plane which was forced down in Yugoslavia in early summer, arrived in New York City October 1 and phoned his mother, and sisters, Miss Theodora and Miss Judith Carlson, saying he would arrive in Washington to visit them in a few days. The young man was in hiding several months after his plane went down and he was unable to write his family of his safety till a few weeks ago. Lt. Carlson attended Wayne college. Miss Theodora Carlson taught at Wayne city school for a number of years.

LT. MYRON ERICKSON EARNS CITATION

Second Lt. Myron E. Erickson, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard A. Erickson of Pasadena, Cal., formerly of Wakefield, is now serving as pilot in a B-25 Mitchell bomber group operating in the Mediterranean theatre, it is announced from 12th air force headquarters in Italy. Lt. Erickson's organization, cited by the president for outstanding service in the Tunisian and Sicilian campaigns, participated in the systematic smashing of Nazi communications targets in central and northern Italy, greatly speeding the capture of Rome, and the precipitous retreat of the Nazis towards the Po valley. The young man was inducted into the air forces in November, 1942, and trained at various fields maintained by the army. He went overseas in July, 1944.

CEILING IS PLACED ON SHOTGUN SHELLS

Lower retail prices for shotgun shells and cartridges will result from revoking of the 25 per cent premium previously allowed on ammunition for civilian use, when sold in less than box lots, M. E. Rawlings, Sioux City OPA director announced. All ammunition for hunters is under the OPA ceiling price regulation, and dealers should have prices posted. Maximum prices for single shells in the future will be determined by dividing the full box price by the number of shells in a standard box, Mr. Rawlings stated.

Library News

The big news at the library this week has been a face lifting job in the form of a coat of paint for the interior of the building. We have been closed to the public all week getting all fixed up with a bright new color on the walls. We are expecting everyone in next week to see how nice we look. Once in a while house cleaning has to come to a library as well as any place else.

There is a box outside the library door every afternoon and evening where books can be placed if anyone wants to return them. Anyone having a rental book or overdue book will not be charged for the time the library was not open.

When you can come in again the first of the week you will find the following new books ready and waiting to be read: Best American Short Stories, by Martha Foley. There Were Two of Us, by Vera Osborn. The Leaning Tower, short stories by Katherine Ann Porter. Bugles in Her Hair, by Lida Larimore. Some of My Best Friends Are Soldiers, by Margaret Halsey. Old Mrs. Camelot, a mystery by Emery Bonett. Married at Leisure, by Virginia Lederer, and The Sad Sack, cartoons by Sgt. Geo. Baker.

New Bulletin Available. One of the new bulletins available from the extension service is on how to select good layers. Colored photographs show good and poor laying hens. Free copies may be obtained from the agricultural agent at Allen or Wayne.

Leaves Hospital. Mrs. E. P. Caaway, who had been in a local hospital since July, was dismissed Saturday and is staying a while in the J. H. Spahr home.

Work Is Started In Demonstration

Home demonstration club work in Wayne county this year includes five demonstrations and three special meetings.

First special meeting was the home demonstration membership day meeting held in the local clubs the past week. The women joined with many homemakers throughout Nebraska in accepting the war-time challenge: "To improve their methods on every job possible, to make every motion count, to do their work in less time, to use time wisely."

First leaders' training meeting for the year, "A Wartime Christmas Lesson," will be held soon.

Precious Material Comes from Ocean

Miss Laura Lyons of Long Beach, Cal., formerly of Wayne, writes the Herald telling of interesting events on the coast:

"Nearly every day six small boats with nine diving-suit clad men on the sides put out from Long Beach. These men spend a few hours combing rocks on the bottom of the ocean for ferns which sell for $75 per wet ton.

Ferns are then dried and baled and shipped to San Diego to the American Agar and Chemical company. Agar-agar is frozen by the federal government at ceiling prices. It is a solidifying agent, a media for bacteria and fungi and is used in the production of recent precious penicillin.

"Completion of the Los Angeles river channel permanent improvement program from Lynwood to the ocean at the west portion of Long Beach at a cost of $10,000,000 is assured by army engineers. Another project which Supervisor Smith said is assured is the $15,000,000 Whittier Narrows dam across the San Gabriel river in the vicinity of Pico.

"The city prosecutor here has issued warning to persons going east on the 'share-the-ride' plan. So many have been taken in states adjoining California and left without warning in some hotel, or passengers have had to pay for all repairs, if the car breaks, before they can go on.

"Smoking in public transportation vehicles, with exception of taxi-cabs, is illegal in both Long Beach and Los Angeles. There are proposals for non-smoking coaches on transcontinental trains.

"Shutdown of government owned Torrance Aluminum plant has been ordered. Its 600 workers were offered other war jobs as fast as they left.

"Investment of $650,000 in a parochial school covering 20 acres in the northeast part of Long Beach is contemplated by First Brethren church. This is at Fifth and Cherry Avenue, across the street from where Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ley once lived.

"An after-school playground program in 27 areas of Long Beach is being employed by the board of education. About 1,100 teachers are working in this program.

Miss Lyons writes that she attended the Old Fashioned Revival Hour broadcast recently. She was especially impressed by the fine choir.

The former Wayne woman comments that the summer in California was not so very hot. She spent her vacation with a cousin in El Monte and at Verdugo City.

Sings Title Role In Favorite Opera

Pauline Pierce, mezzo-soprano, will sing the title role in the streamlined version of Bizet's "Carmen" to be presented at Wayne college October 18. Appearing with Miss Pierce will be the young American soprano, Jean Carlton, who just walked away with 1944 Naumberg foundation award, Frederick Schweppe, robust tenor, Gean Greenwell whose varied career included that of master of ceremonies on a sheep train out of Idaho, and Ruth Cumbie, pianist extraordinary.

Asks for Divorce.

In a petition filed in district court October 5 Esther Benschoff asks divorce from Gurney Benschoff. H. E. Siman is attorney for plaintiff.

Give to War Fund.

Wayne Legion post gave $25 to the United War Fund last Wednesday when the group met. The post convenes again October 18.

Missing Gunner Returns to Home

Sgt. Eldon Weseloh Is One Of Three Making Way Back from Europe.

Sgt. Eldo C. (Lucky) Weseloh, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Weseloh of Los Angeles, formerly of Wayne, reported missing since last February over Europe, is safe and has been in Los Angeles with his wife, Betty Lee, and parents from September 20 until October 4 when he reported at Santa Monica, Cal. The family had had no word from the youth until shortly before he arrived home and they then received a cablegram from England.

Sgt. Weseloh is a tail gunner and went down February 11 after a raid on Frankfurt. Four of the crew escaped through the aid of French people and General Patton's forces, one was killed and the others are prisoners in Germany. The former Wayne youth holds the air medal with three oak leaf clusters, the purple heart and special presidential citation.

During their hazardous return after being shot down, the four who escaped were riding in a big army truck when a boyish-looking war correspondent in a jeep yelled at them. It was Tom Treanor of the Los Angeles Times.

"Hey, are you the fellows from the Fort that was shot down in February and have been hiding with the French ever since?" questioned Treanor.

"That's right," responded Weseloh. "We were shot down February 11 after a raid on Frankfurt but made it back to France before we hit the silk."

"Where are you from?" asked the correspondent. In reply to "Los Angeles," Treanor asked the youths to get down in the jeep and talk with him.

Still pale and underweight, haggard and ragged from long paratroops and wounds received in parachuting, Weseloh visited with Treanor August 18. A few hours later Treanor was injured fatally when his jeep and a tank collided at an intersection and he was run over by the smaller machine, dying the next day.

Sgt. Weseloh, after parachuting 60 miles northeast of Paris, joined up with three members of the crew. During the ensuing four months they made their way to the southwest of Paris and then into the path of Patton's armored forces to which Treanor was attached.

"The French people were marvelous to us," Weseloh explained. "They'd invariably insist that we eat first and press us to take second helpings. We always held back, though, because we knew only too well that there never was enough for all. The French children were pitiable. A 14-year-old boy over there isn't any bigger than an 8 or 10-year-old here at home. They've just not had enough to eat for five years."

"From the time we first met up with Patton's outfit—I think it was the 14th that they reached us—I kept braving about Treanor. What a swell guy he was and how he liked to dig out the southern California boys so he could mention them and the folks back home would know they were all right and doing fine."

"Everybody in Patton's outfit, from the general down to the rawest private, seemed to be on the lookout for stuff that maybe Treanor could write about."

"Treanor gave me a piece of invasion money," states Sgt. Weseloh and told me if and when I got home to show it to the editor of the Times."

Weseloh parted from Treanor after a short ride in the jeep and later was returned to England and then to the United States. He gets a new assignment at Santa Monica.

Sgt. Weseloh's plane ran out of gas when it went down. On two other occasions overseas his plane was wrecked. Once all others were killed.

The Aug. Weselohs sent news of their son's return to the Geo. Hansens of Carroll, and to Henry Weselohs of Wayne.

Find New Insecticide.

DDT, the wonder insecticide that has attracted national attention, possesses great possibilities after the war, according to state entomologists. Dr. H. D. Tate reports DDT very effective in control of insects on potatoes, beans and other plants.

Sgt. Fred Lang, Pierce, whose wife is the former Bernice Voss, was killed in action in Italy September 14. He had been wounded in action twice.

Quality of Corn High for Season

Report in Early Days Tells Of Possible Discovery Of Oil Nearby

Early Days from the Wayne Herald for October 11, 1928:

Gathering of this year's corn crop has started and, while the yield is somewhat below normal, the quality is of highest standard. Eds are large and sound and contain the greatest possible amount of nutriment.

Fire prevention week is being observed by emphasizing the importance of ridding premises of rubbish and of having heating plants in good working order.

Mrs. Rebecca Warner, 63, died at the home of her father, Alexander Scott, October 6, 1928.

J. M. Jones of Sioux City, son of D. A. Jones of Wayne, suffered severe head injuries when he was struck by a car.

Ludwig Granberg and Lucy Anderson were married October 7, 1928.

The H. S. Space hardware store and the Tuxley garage at Carroll, were entered and robbed.

Claude Kopp and Miss Marie Vincent were married at Emerson October 2, 1928.

Mrs. Clyde Oman won a prize for a town slogan in a contest conducted at Sidney, Nebr. It was "Plan, work, pull, together and boost."

Gus Paulsen of Carroll, sold Poland China hogs and gilts with a top of $53 and average of $54.

Thomas Lutt underwent a goitre operation at Rochester.

George and William Forbes, formerly of Wayne, have formed a land company at Alhambra, Cal.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Murray of Allen, October 6, 1928.

Mrs. Harry Lemke of near Emerson, died October 7, 1928, aged 40.

Frank Peterson of Winside, suffered cuts and bruises when his car struck loose gravel and overturned.

Dixon county Masons met in Wakefield, Rev. P. M. Orr, of Wakefield, A. R. Davis of Wayne, E. F. Cole of Laurel, G. I. Parker of Newcastle, and D. H. Cunningham of Wayne, spoke.

Three human skeletons were unearthed northeast of Wakefield near the Francis Kimball farm. Their identity has not yet been possible.

Gus Hoffman and Gustav Rehms of Winside, had minor injuries when their cars collided.

Some farm buildings of James Gries of near Randolph, were destroyed by fire.

Early Wayne Happenings.

From the Wayne Herald for October 13, 1910: B. A. VonSeggern is building a new barn near Altona.

Mrs. Ella Pile went to New York to spend the winter. Mrs. Mary Jones went to Pasadena, Cal., for the winter. Senator E. J. Blazett will give a campaign speech in the opera house. A great amount of corn is being cut and shocked for fodder. Railroad officials were here to inspect the yards and plan improvements.

W. H. Benning rented the Geo. Thies land near Altona.

Masonry entertained Eastern Stars. A harpist played and talks were given by A. R. Davis, W. D. Redmond, Chas. Bright, Rev. W. H. Gortel, L. W. Roe and Mrs. A. A. Welch. Rev. and Mrs. Alexander Corkey gave a reception for instructors of all schools. Wm. Blecke and Miss Ella Bargholtz were married October 5, 1910.

A marriage license was issued to Miss Hannah Kai and Louis Hine-man October 10, 1910. Mrs. Leo Reymor who is visiting in Hoskins, expects to move to Omaha.

Walter Savage is storing his carnival property for the winter. Asher Hurlbert bought lots in Sholes from Mr. Schroeder. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. James of Carroll, went to Lincoln to the funeral of the latter's father.

Dixon County Events.

From Northern Nebraska Journal, Ponca, for September 17, 1931: College professors will do much for journalism if they will teach how to use good grammar and how to put ideas into the fewest and shortest words. The thermometer climbed to 104 in the shade. Norfolk will soon have a new electric street railway. Presbyterians in Emerson are building a new parsonage. Wayne county fair presented a valuable display of products and attracted 4,000 people. Dixon county fair takes place soon at Ponca and all that is needed is favorable weather. The special prize of $5 for the prettiest baby under 12 should induce a large attendance. A new bridge is being built over Agway creek in Ponca to connect the city with the new driving grounds. With a few more days of warmer weather, corn will be beyond the clutches of possible damage by frost.

A report that oil has been discovered at Bancroft is encouraging. Many places in Nebraska have reported findings of coal beds. In the election to vote on moving the Dakota county seat from Dakota City, 603 ballots were cast for South Sioux City, 249 for Dakota

City, 286 for Jackson, 21 for Hubbard and 4 for Homer. As no town received three-fifths of the total vote, a new election will be necessary. Nearly every resident of Dixon county will consent to abolition of the law paying bounty for wolf scalps. If premiums were given on mosquito and ledbug scalps, the county would likely meet with equally great success in exterminating the pests.

Basketball Starts For Local Students

Investments in War Bonds and Stamps Show Growth in Winside School.

Thirty high school boys reported at the gym last week for the first basketball practice. Juniors have begun work on the second act of the play, "Aunt Phillie Comes to Town," which they will give.

High school students and teachers have a total of $5,317.10 invested in war bonds and stamps. A gain of $23.65 was made last week. Freshmen purchased the greatest amount during the week. Linda Burnett worked in the stamp booth Tuesday last week.

Agriculture class has completed unit two, which dealt with different types of soil. Debates were held in American history class. Two topics were: "Resolved that the form of local government in New England required more education than did that of the south; Resolved that southern society produced better leaders than did the north."

Dramatics class organized a dramatics club and the following were elected officers: President, Peggy Francis; vice president, Charlotte Dillon; secretary, Arlene Cary; treasurer, Richard Farran. The club will meet October 13 to draw up a constitution. The committee working on this is headed by Norris Hansen. Dramatics students are learning how to apply theatrical makeup. Members of the class practice applying makeup on each other.

Typing students have learned the alphabet on the keyboard. English students are working on book reports. Oral reports were given Thursday and written ones Friday.

G.A.A. met in the recreation room last week Wednesday, under supervision of Miss Gladys Mottler. They learned several new games and did folk dances.

Intermediary Items. Third, 4th and 5th graders have enrolled in Junior Red Cross. Each will contribute 3 cents for their share in the organization. They will make various items for the organization during the year.

Grammar Notes. Sixth graders completed a unit on Canada and are beginning the study of Alaska. Seventh and 8th graders are reading "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow."

Eighth graders are studying surfaces in arithmetic. They are working primarily with rectangles and triangles. Sixth, 7th and 8th graders will enroll in Junior Red Cross.

Showers Received. Scattered showers in Winside the first nine days of October amounted to .71 inch, according to the gauge at Gaebler & Neely store.

FARMERS HYBRID SEED CORN

Corn seeds may look alike but be vastly different in yielding ability. Here is what the users who planted Farmers Hybrid seed corn say after buying many hybrids of seed corn—will say Farmers Hybrid seed corn is the outstanding corn in both yield and quality. Farmers Hybrid is very uniform in ear height, picks easily and has very few ears off. It has a better rooted, resistant to drought, rigidly detasseled, moisture tested, evenly graded. Farmers who plant Farmers Hybrid corn are quick to realize its outstanding yielding ability. Watch and see how Farmers Hybrid seed corn comes through drought and insects, watch your crib fill up. I still have all numbers for your soil.

On September 22, 1944, I became dealer for The American Corn Millers Federation to sell your real snow white seed corn. White corn commands a premium of 15c to 20c per bushel on the commercial market and the cost for seed per bushel is no more than yellow corn. I am sure that you cannot get better white corn. Look at it when I will be in Wayne with my corn samples or see your Farmers Hybrid seed corn dealer or phone 3173 out of Wisner, Nebr.
