SIXTY SECOND YEAR War Bond Drive To Open Monday

Quotas Are Announced and Leaders Chosen in Sixth War Loan Campaign.

Sixth war loan drive in Wayne county is scheduled to begin Monday, November 20, and will continue through December 15.

Thought of events culminating in Armistice day is not dampened by keeping up urgently needed service. People are busy, and they want what they want without delay.

Wayne's Future. Wayne might well fix goals of growth, and then set out to attain them.

These in charge have made plans for a war bond premier to be held at the Gay theatre. Tickets will be given to one when a bond is purchased.

The community drive will be carried on as intensively as it has been in previous drives. Mr. Larson indicated, and special emphasis will be placed on drives in the rural areas when farmers will be asked to buy more and bigger bonds.

State Agricultural Chairman Carlyle Hodgkin points out that farmers have more money to invest in war bonds than ever before.

Hodgkin believes that farmers will buy more bonds to win the peace, to assure money that will put their farms and homes in first class condition after victory.

Dale Clark, state chairman, in announcing county figures, urged that every effort be made to meet the quotas as quickly as possible.

Robert Anderson of Wakefield, is chairman of the drive in Dixon county. Lawrence Hossler of Hartington, chairman in Cedar county.

Lt. Lyle E. Seymour, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Seymour of Wayne, captained on a B-17 Flying Fortress of the 95th bombardment group with the 8th air force based in England.

The Wayne youth entered service in October, 1942, prior to which he was attending Iowa state college at Ames.

Miss Louise Wndt left Tuesday for Ames, Iowa, to attend Clover recognition meeting Wednesday.

Stanton authorities escaped damaging Halloween pranks in a very practical, sensible way. Let the Stanton Register explain the plan and how it worked.

Virginia Bessler was to go to her home at Wisner Friday after undergoing an operation a short time ago.

Miss Neale Local Hospital. Miss Neale Fox was able to leave a local hospital Tuesday. She had received medical care.

STORM FOUR YEARS AGO ON ARMISTICE OFFERS CONTRAST

ARMISTICE day this year was sunshiny and mild—ideal for picking corn or doing other outdoor work, and everybody with a pressing task turned it to advantage.

Winside village board, in special meeting Monday evening, tabled a request that the officials in the future deny all requests for permission to obtain electric current from REA lines.

The board's attorney, H. E. Simon, explains that the board has followed the policy of granting permits to use REA alternating current only when the local plant's direct current can not be used in equipment operated.

Prohibition amendment, 13 yes, 139 no; gas tax amendment, 106 yes, 34 no.

NATION AND STATE REAP RECORD CROP OF CORN FOR YEAR

WITH the maturing and gathering of the corn crop, total estimated production for the nation has been revised upward. Results are better than the estimate of a month ago.

The nation and Nebraska are reported to have scored an all-time record. November figures for the nation put the total at 3,258,378,000 bushels, as compared to the 1943 production of 3,076,159,000 bushels.

Wayne county is 50 bushels. Farmers in this area are losing no time in getting their corn out of fields. The crop is too valuable to be wasted, and no one can guarantee favorable weather for the task.

Submit Proposal On Airport Site

Curfew Ordinance Is Being Published by Council in Herald Today.

Wayne city council, in regular meeting Tuesday evening, asked J. T. Bressler, jr., to submit a proposal of sale of land on which the municipal airport is located.

The council discussed the curfew ordinance passed in 1942 and ordered its publication so that young folks and their parents may be informed about its requirements.

Accident Results In Severe Injury

Carl L. Anderson Badly Hurt In Tractor-Car-Pickup Mishap Thursday.

Carl L. Anderson who lives south of Wakefield, and F. Zimmerman who is a salesman from Lincoln, were severely injured Thursday evening about 8:15 in a tractor-car-pickup accident.

Mr. Anderson was badly cut about the face. One gash beneath his jaw measured about eight inches. Another deep cut peeled off part of his scalp.

Mrs. Anderson and daughters, Mrs. Everett Rees of Wayne, and Miss Leone Anderson who teaches in Alton, Ia., and a son, Clayton Anderson, with the navy, stationed in Omaha, have been with him. The daughter came from Iowa Thursday night, and the son came from Omaha Friday.

Mr. Zimmerman, a man of about 70 years, was badly bruised and shocked. He suffered chest injuries and was cut about the legs. A Lincoln ambulance came for him Thursday night.

Mr. Anderson was on his tractor going north when Mr. Zimmerman, alone in a car, came from the south. Lights of an approaching car blinded Mr. Zimmerman so that he did not see the tractor at first.

Mr. Zimmerman noticed the tractor and swerved sharply to the left. In doing so his car caught the left hind wheel of the tractor. The tractor turned onto its side and the impact threw Mr. Anderson back of the Zimmerman car, which stopped on the highway.

Reward Bravery Of Infantryman. Lt. George F. Fox Is Given Bronze Star For Work In French Sector.

Bravery in action in the infantry in France while under enemy fire has been demonstrated by Lt. George F. Fox, whose wife, the former Betsy VonSeggern, makes her home here at W. E. VonSeggern's.

District Program Will Be in Laurel

Number of Farmers Expect To Attend Meeting Held Next Wednesday.

District pasture-forage-livestock finish-up program for Wednesday evening, November 22, at 8 at Laurel auditorium has been arranged with E. A. Kelloway of Omaha, O. S. Bare and Dr. L. E. Hanson of Lincoln, as special speakers. Wayne and Cedar county farmers will attend, also Dixon county farmers who are unable to go to the district meeting at Emerson.

Mr. Kelloway, secretary of the Omaha livestock exchange, will speak on "Livestock Ahead." Farmers will be interested in his outlook on the livestock situation. Mr. Bare, professor of entomology at the Nebraska college of agriculture, will discuss insects and diseases which affect crops in this area. Dr. Hanson, in charge of swine production and feeding experiments at the Nebraska experiment station, will consider feedings and production problems.

In addition to the speakers mentioned, L. F. Larsen of the engineering agricultural department at Lincoln, will have an exhibit of labor saving devices which can be made on the farm. He will display posters showing feed lot arrangements which save time and feed in livestock production. The pasture-forage-livestock program has been carried on in the state for several years to encourage and assist farmers in arranging a better balanced livestock and feed program on farms. This year the fencing and lot arrangement as well as other labor saving devices have been added as special features.

Laurel business men are cooperating with the extension service in sponsoring the program. Free coffee and doughnuts will be served. Wayne county pasture-forage-livestock cooperators are: Walter A. Carpenter, E. L. Pearson, Lloyd Texley, Owen P. Owens, Wm. P. Higgins, Alfred H. Utecht, Oliver Stamm, John Hamm, Otto C. Carstens, B. M. Eilers, Fred H. Green, W. J. Riggert, Ernest Strate, Jr., John T. Bressler, Jr., Arnold Brudigan, C. Claire Buskirk, Mortenson brothers, Ernest Froyert, Ed. Caruwe, R. S. McGuire, Albert A. Killion, Robert E. Jones, Geo. H. Owens, Irvan Graves, Arthur Young.

Condition of Trees Is Found Excellent

Earl F. Maxwell and E. H. Hoppert, state extension forester and horticulturist, were in Wayne county last week inspecting the Clarke-McNary trees purchased by Wayne county farmers last spring for windbreaks. Mr. Maxwell found that the red cedars are in excellent condition with a very high percentage of survival. While the western pines and Austrian pines were growing nicely there was a lower percentage of survival than of the cedars. Maxwell is quite strong for red cedars for northeast Nebraska. He advises those who are planting red cedars, however, to plant varieties of apples that are resistant to the cedar apple rust disease that arrives on the red cedar and the thrips. Mr. Maxwell also suggested that the red cedar be planted in the old farmstead shelters among all trees. Maxwell visited a number of Wayne county farmers who have followed this practice and the cedars seemed to survive among the older trees where other evergreens would not. Wayne county farmers are buying more evergreens for their shelters than most counties in the state. Maxwell and Hoppert think that the farmers are looking ahead to a much more effective windbreak where they have selected evergreens along with the broad leaf varieties.

THE KNOT-HOLE

Vol. 7 Wayne, Nebr., Thurs., Nov. 16, 1944 No. 22

One of the navy's little newspapers defines a knot-hole as a depth-bomb with a southern drawl.

The nice fall we have had has helped to relieve the coal situation to some extent. A prolonged spell of bad weather could put it right back where it was before. Take no chances of being out of fuel this winter by always having at least a ton of coal in your bin at all times. Right now would be as good a time as any to put in a ton or more of Harco furnace size coal. It costs only $9.95 a ton and gives plenty of heat.

Meat packers claim they use "all the pig but the squeal." But the forest industries beat that record by using all the tree even the bark.

Do you want to fix up that basement room so that you can use it this winter? Then paint the walls with Spread. Do you want to clean up the dirty wall paper in that bed room?

Do everything you can to conserve fuel this winter, regardless of the type of heating equipment you are using. You can do this to your own advantage, by having storm windows on every window in

Easy to bake for Holiday eating THE HOLIDAY season is "just around the corner" and now is the time to think about the good things we can bake—good things to top off any fine dinner! For example, a fruit cake or a special pie or a holiday pudding. DARK FRUIT CAKE 1 cup enriched 2 cups seedless flour 1/2 tsp. nutmeg 1/2 cup thinly sliced 1 tsp. cloves 1/2 cup citron 1/4 tsp. salt 1/2 cup thinly sliced 1/2 cup shortening 1/2 cup candied orange peel 1/2 cup brown 1/2 cup chopped nut-sugar, firmly packed, 4 eggs etc. Sift and measure flour; sift again with spices and salt. Cream shortening; add sugar gradually, creaming until light and fluffy. Add eggs one at a time, beating well after each addition. Add flour mixture gradually, combining thoroughly. Fold in fruits and nutmegs, mix. Pour into loaf pan (8x5 1/2x3 1/2) lined first with well-greased manila, then waxed paper. Bake in slow oven (275° F.) 2 1/4 hours or until done. Makes 1 loaf. Note: Cake is the "quick-baking" type. May be stored for only a few weeks. TWO-IN-ONE PIE 3 medium-sized 1/2 Enough pastry for cooking apples 2 crusts 2 tps. flour 1 tps. butter or 6 tpsps. sugar 1 tps. margarine 1/2 tsp. cinnamon 1/2 cups mince- 1/4 tsp. nutmeg 1/4 cup fruit juice or cider Peel and slice apples; sprinkle with combined flour, sugar and spices. Divide pastry in half; roll out each half. Make two large turnovers using apple filling dotted with butter or margarine in one, mince-meat with fruit juice or cider in the other. Seal well and place together in one 9-inch pan. Bake morning in top of each turnover, using A for apple and M for mince-meat. Bake in hot oven (460° F.) 10 minutes; reduce heat to moderate (350° F.) and bake 40 minutes longer or until done. Safeway Homemakers' Bureau JULIA LEE WRIGHT, Director

To Present Play.

Junior class will present the play, "Jumpin' Jupiter," at the auditorium November 24 under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Fisher.

The story tells of Abby, Dot and Pat who share an apartment in New York. The girls are trying to crash Broadway and the going has been hard. Above them lives Bob, a playwright, engaged to Pat. Bob hopes to sell his new comedy and give the girls their break. They are down to their last dollar and have a rent bill staring them in the face when Gilda, the maid, tells them that Mollie, the landlady, is on the warpath. Mollie appears and tells the girls to pay up or else just as Pat comes in with a box she took from a waste can. Her curiosity got the best of her when she saw a man get out of a car and drop the box so she brought it home. The girls find that the box contains $50,000 in cash. They find that the FBI listed the serial numbers on the money as being the ransom money for return of Irene Manning, a kidnapped girl. Oscar, a young astrologer, happens on the scene to sell magazines to work his way through college. The girls draft Oscar to help return the money and they run into many difficulties.

Automobile Accidents
A LETTER FROM C. J. Sanders of the Nebraska law enforcement patrol, expresses high satisfaction over a twelve per cent reduction in automobile fatalities during ten months of this year as contrasted with the same time last year. It is figured that most accidents are due to carelessness, and the department is doing its best to awaken motorists to their responsibilities. Lack of an orderly nervous system may cause one to pass stop signs, take chances and invite death and wreckage. The department makes this observation. "Accidents can be reduced because they are not truly accidents. They are caused occurrences. What are the more important circumstances of accidents—those which figure in thousands of accidents every year? One of the more common is the failure of drivers to observe STOP signs. A STOP sign means that you MUST bring your car to a complete stop. Slowing down and shifting into second gear is not enough. After stopping, look both ways to make sure that no cars are approaching before you drive onto the highway as vehicles on the highway have the right of way. STOP signs are always eight-sided."

Nominating Candidates
IT MUST BE that George Olsen, defeated candidate for governor, is able to resent any implication that he is not qualified for gubernatorial responsibilities. He is cheered by the fact that he carried one precinct in the state. It happened in Greeley county. According to custom, Olsen is now the titular head of the democratic party in the state, and he may seek up some comfort from that. The Norfolk Daily News is wondering if the new primary law will help voters decide according to qualifications rather than according to popular names. A lot of drawing power in the Olsen name enabled its bearer to outdistance the well fitted Pat Heaton whose qualities were not known by enough people. The News hopes, as many hope, convention discussions under the new law will bring out the relative merits of candidates and result in strengthening candidate stature.

Philip Wylie, columnist, thinks the world is still inhabited by barbarians, and that people are controlled by emotion rather than by intelligence and reason. He suggests that individuals are often kind and generous and self-sacrificing, but asks: "What wonderful, self-sacrificing thing was ever done by a mob?" It would appear then that barbarism is expressed most by groups, and thus large numbers headed in the wrong direction may do great harm in the process of civilization. He suggests: "People today are still as hateful as loving, as destructive as creative, as blind as seeing, as vicious as decent." The Golden Rule has been preached for two thousand years. Perhaps the next two thousand will see this noble rule put more into practice.

A strong and active opposition is a safety-brake on a victorious party. Nearly half of the nation opposed a fourth term. That half can't change its thinking, but it can and will go along wholeheartedly in support of sound national and international policies. Many voted for the Roosevelt regime in order that it might be given a chance to cure its accumulation of ills. Disagreement over a change was settled in favor of the status quo. The time will come—may be here now—when Washington groups will see the wisdom of swinging more to the right and away from costly and entangling government dependence. A strong, supervising minority will be wholesome.

The idea that isolationism was a dominant issue in the late presidential campaign, as suggested by Marquis Childs, columnist, is disputed by the fact that Gov. Thos. Dewey and Gov. John Bricker expressed themselves repeatedly and firmly in support of cooperation with other nations. The more than twenty millions who voted for Dewey and Bricker will be found solidly behind any practical plan to insure future world peace. They will be found traveling between dangerous extremes and exercising themselves in behalf of a safe and sensible middle course.

Congresswoman Claire Boothe Luce has strong political friends as well as strong political enemies—those who liked her style of campaigning on the one hand and those who didn't like it on the other. Her criticism was not clothed to modify or soft-pedal facts. She said what she thought, and she gained enough favor in her Connecticut district to be reelected. The many who think she contributes to rational thinking, will be glad.

Secretary Harold Ickes has tendered his resignation as head of the interior department, as he has been wont to do at the approaching conclusion of a four-year term. This is of course a mere gesture, but we would surmise him by accepting it.

We doubt if any real altruism appears in the course of international diplomacy. Boiled down to plebeian thinking, we imagine it ranks with horse trading. Results often depend on clever juggling of facts.

ELECTORS.
Supported by the federal constitution, the electoral system for choosing a president and vice president is still alive and operating, but it is wholly unnecessary and no doubt should be junked. States vote their preferences, and then appointed electors meet in December to carry out the will of the majority. One elector is named for each congressman and one for each senator, and therefore in this state there are six electors. As Nebraska polled a majority for Dewey, the six republican electors will cast their ballot for the New York governor. At proper shifting of the popular vote could result in enough electoral votes to elect a minority candidate. This is said to have happened in the choice of Rutherford B. Hayes in 1876 and Benjamin Harrison in 1888. Election by popular vote rather than by appointed electors would be the surest and fairest way to express majority choice. A change has been talked and urged, but to do so would require removing the constitutional barrier. As it is, electors are mere figureheads.

FROM MARTHA.
Hoskins, Nebraska

Dear Editor:
There ain't nothing much going on in our neighborhood these days except corn bunting on the bang boards. In some fields there's two or three wagons a going down the rows, especially where the women folks is picking too. Some schools has been a having a corn picking vacation, but I don't reckon in the long run it will be such a good idea, as the kids' jus is going to be needing them just as bad in the spring, maybe worse, and school will be out later on account of taking time out now. Most young ones got their full share of work this summer anyway, some of them getting more than their share. It's funny how we don't hear nothing about child labor no more, but there's some parents that's putting far too heavy a load on young shoulders and the children is going to pay for it later in weak backs and other physical ailments.

SOUND ADVICE.
The Christian Science Monitor which in pre-election weeks looked with disfavor on the fourth term, now urges the president to cut out politics and turn to the single task of carrying out the mandate handed to him by a majority of the people. It reminds him that his popular vote was reduced, and that without the war-peace issue and the powerful PAC aid he would have been defeated. It urges during the trying times ahead a government of agreement, and in that direction suggests a remaking of the presidential cabinet. The Monitor concludes: "If he will, he can go a long way toward obtaining republican help in congress on the peacemaking. Governor Dewey has taken the initial steps in that direction, and the force of his campaign—combined with the possibility that he will be his party's candidate in 1948—should make his influence effective among senators of his party. The president, in search of unity, would do well also to avoid any such concessions, to special labor interests as would make it appear that he is paying a political debt at the expense of the national welfare. The national picture today offers the materials for a unity which will shorten the war and strengthen the framework of peace. The people have given leadership a fresh opportunity and obligation to weld those materials firmly. But the people's part was not ended at the polls; they must continue to think and pray and speak, insisting that their voice be obeyed."

ing them we'll be helping ourselves, too, and speed the day when our boys will be able to come home.

Let 'em Eat French Fries!
(Saturday Evening Post)
We nominate for the Hall of Fame Miss Lorna Slocomb, of Cambridge, Mass., who while ordering dinner in a restaurant, asked whether she could have squash instead of potatoes. The waitress made the conventional response for these times, "Don't you know there's a war on?" This, according to the management of the restaurant, caused Miss Slocomb to upset a whole tray of dishes and stride from the room. She was arrested and tried and, as the whole nation knows by this time, her cause became the cause of millions of harassed Americans who are getting pretty tired of the way people with something to sell act as if they were too busy bayoneting Japs to answer a civil question.

Molly Pitcher, Betsy Ross, Barbara Fritchie and Dolley Madison have their place among American women who have struck a blow for liberty. Some of them have been sung by the poets. Because, so far as is known, no mute, inglorious Whittier has come up with anything relevant to the exploit of Lorna Slocomb, we should like to contribute, by way of suggestion, a couplet of our own:
"Spill the water, forget the bread,
But don't blame your brains on the war," she said.

Anyway, this is the second time in a century and a half that Massachusetts has fired a shot heard round the world. Students of history should take note. Revolutions have started on lesser issues than indifference to a request for squash instead of potatoes.

Kenneth Okeson Killed in Action

Wakefield Youth Awarded High Honors for Work in Two Invasions.

First Lt. Kenneth N. Okeson, 27, navigator on a C-47, was "killed in action," according to a telegram from the war department coming November 3 to the young man's father, Andrew Okeson. The officer was reported "missing in action over Holland September 19" according to a message coming a month ago.

Kenneth Norman Okeson was born February 2, 1917, in Wakefield. He completed his grade school education here and then because of his mother's death, went to Omaha to make his home with a brother. He was graduated from Tech high school at Omaha and later attended Iowa State college at Ames. In 1938 he accepted a position as civil engineer with the Sahara coal company and went to Harrisburg, Ill. He and Miss Lorena Lee, niece of Mrs. J. H. Montgomery of Wakefield, were married November 11, 1939, in St. Louis. They made their home in Harrisburg until deceased entered service.

Lt. Okeson enlisted in June, 1942. In October, 1943, he earned the commission of second lieutenant at Miami, Fla. He had a short furlough and was in Wakefield visiting his father before leaving for England. The officer was awarded the distinguished flying cross with oak leaf cluster for participation in the invasion of Normandy and was promoted to rank of first lieutenant. He later took part in the invasion of southern France.

Besides his wife, who makes her home at Fort Wayne, Ind., and his father here, deceased is survived by two brothers, Anton, of Eau Claire, Wis., and Nels of Tucson, Ariz., and a sister, Vera, in Chicago.

Navy Plane Pilot Killed in Action

Lt. (jg) Conrad Crellin Is Lost When Operating in Pacific Area.

Lt. (jg) Conrad Crellin, 22, pilot of a navy plane operating from a carrier in the Pacific, was killed in action in the south Pacific, according to word received here November 3 by his grandfather, N. N. Sackerson. Besides his grandfather the young flier is survived by his wife and 8-month-old son, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Crellin, all of Los Angeles, a brother, Gene, in the merchant marines. The officer had never seen his small son.

To Help Install Offices in City

Several members of Dixon county Purple Heart chapter will go to Lincoln December 4 to participate in the installation of officers in a newly formed Purple Heart chapter in that city. Roy W. Kohler, with the city health department in Lincoln, organized the chapter.

Infantry Soldier Reported Missing

Pfc Howard Fleetwood Is With 7th Army Serving In Southern France.

Pfc Howard Fleetwood, who was 24 in January, is reported "missing in action in France since October 25," according to a telegram from the war department coming November 7 to his wife in Omaha, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fleetwood of Wakefield. He was a member of the infantry with the 7th army fighting in southern France.

The young man entered service December 26, 1943, and went to Camp Blanding, Fla., where he trained until June when he went to Fort Meade, Md. He soon left for overseas duty and arrived in Italy July 17. He joined the 7th army in southern France after a few weeks in Italy.

Pfc. Fleetwood was born and spent his childhood days at Wakefield. After being graduated from Wakefield high school he went to Omaha to accept a position with the Union Pacific shops. He and Miss Florence Franzen, formerly of Wakefield, were married soon after he went to Omaha.

The young man's wife, parents and his sisters, Miss Elaine Fleetwood of Wakefield, and Mrs.

Elmer Franzen of Sioux City, and other relatives and friends anxiously await favorable news from Pfc. Fleetwood.

Will Decide Victor By Soldier Vote

A late report shows that Louis M. Jeppsen, candidate for reelection as state senator from 14th district, representing Dixon, Thurston and Dakota counties, is leading by a few votes. Roy D. Carlberg, of Pender, is the opponent. Results will not be final till the soldier votes are counted.

Visits in Wakefield.
Don Krueger of Pender, with the army air corps in Texas, arrived to visit relatives. He is a brother of Mrs. Lavinus Packer of Wakefield. The youth goes to Madison, Wis., for a special course at the university.

Is Much Improved.
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Montgomery arrived home last week Thursday from Rochester, Minn., where Mr. Montgomery had received treatments at the clinic. He is much improved.

Home from Hospital.
Mrs. Gus Grubb, who had undergone a major operation in a Sioux City hospital three weeks ago, was able to come to her home Monday. She is getting along fine.

Wakefield Wins In Armistice Game

Basketball Season Opening For Coach John Kyl's Players Soon.

Wakefield football team defeated the Allen team 20-7 Saturday afternoon in a game played at Allen as a part of the Armistice day program. Merle Schwarten and Warren Borg made touchdowns and Don Erickson returned an 80-yard punt.

The game Saturday was the last in the season. Coach John Kyl's team, during the period, piled up a total of 168 points as compared to 62 made by their opponents. The team won six games and lost two. Wakefield players defeated the conference champions, West Point, 40-0.

There are 24 boys out for basketball. Four letter-men, Lee Stauffer, Don Erickson, Jim Anderson and Warren Borg, reported. Other boys which hold promise are Bob Paul, LeRoy Swanson, Jim Hypse, Lyle Park, Bob Erickson, Don Olson, Merle Schwarten. Regular practice is scheduled to begin next week. The first game will be with Wayne Prep December 8.

Senior class met Friday evening and decided to have a pheasant fry Friday, November 24, at Mac's cafe.

The music department will present a program Friday evening. Proceeds will go for new band uniforms.

Pep club met Tuesday evening and elected a cheer leader from the freshman class. She will help out during the half and when one of the regular leaders, JoAnn Holmberg, Joyce Shellington and Elaine Dahlgren, is absent. A schedule of events for the year was planned.

Results of the election which the government class sponsored last week Tuesday were much the same as outcome of the election in Nebraska. Dewey received the most votes for president and Griswold was elected governor.

Junior Red Cross Campaign Is Held

Junior Red Cross is seeking 100 per cent enrollment of all Wayne county schools for participation in the Red Cross "in-school" program this year.

From November 1 to 15, every home room in every school of Wayne county has been invited to join in this wartime service program.

Enrollment forms have been supplied to home room teachers in all the schools and sponsors have been announced for the individual schools.

Today in Wayne county and communities throughout the nation 18,000,000 boys and girls are participating in a battle against boredom for hospitalized fighting men and to bring cheer to children in war-torn countries. Also of great importance is the fact that they have been learning the essence of future citizenship by participating personally in the life of the community, our nation and the world.

Following is a list of the schools enrolled thus far and the amount contributed: Wayne prep high school, $6.35; Wayne prep grades, $0.14; Winside high school, $1.13; Winside grades, $1.50; Carroll high, $1.00; Carroll grades, one room, $0c; district No. 21, $0c; district No. 57, $2.00; district No. 18, $0c; No. 72, $0c; 28 south, $0c; 68, $0c; 45, $0c; 61, $0c; 47, $0c; 60, $0c; 35, $0c; 41, $0c; 15, $0c; 31, $0c; 7, $1.00; 32, $2.50; 24, $0c; 83, $0c; 10, $0c.

The Junior Red Cross wishes to express thanks to Don Banister, Janene Griffith and Harold Kemper for making the posters which were exhibited downtown announcing a radio program. That is also one way in which all can serve.

Mrs. Roosevelt Peterson is Junior Red Cross chairman.

SERVICE NEWS

Wm. Parenti, two weeks. The family will return to Ft. Lewis where Capt. Lessman receives six more weeks' training before a new assignment.

Writes from Texas.

Pvt. Wilbert Stuthmann writes from Camp Walters, Tex., that he appreciates home contacts afforded through the Herald.

Weather in Texas has been agreeable most of the time.

Has New Address.

Mo.M.M.I.C. Fay Hampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hampton of Carroll, who had been stationed at the amphibious training base, Little Creek, Va., now has a San Francisco address. The young man expresses appreciation for the Herald.

Arrives from West.

Clemeth Johnson arrived Monday from Camp Stoneman, Cal., to spend a 15-day furlough here with his mother, Mrs. Jennie Johnson, and other relatives. The young man has made two trips to the Pacific on a hospital ship. He has spent the past six months at Camp Stoneman where he will report again.

Arrives from East.

Cpl. Stanley J. Haglund arrived at Wakefield from Cherry Point, N. C., Sunday to visit home folks. He came by plane to Fort Worth, Tex. The young man witnessed recent storms on the east coast and did guard duty until order was restored after the destruction. He has been studying the rockets. Cpl. Haglund is in the marine air corps and his visit at home is his first in a year.

Arrives from England.

Wm. O. Armstrong, aviation machinist's mate instrument specialist second class, arrived in Jacksonville, Fla., Saturday from England where he had served with the navy air corps for 18 months.

Mr. Armstrong was employed in Mines jewelry store in Wayne before entering service. His wife is now employed there. He expects to go to Hutchinson, Kan., this weekend. The navy man plans to come here soon for a leave.

Meets Wayne Soldier.

T. Sgt. Wm. Weiershauer of Wayne, former German instructor at the University of Nebraska, is with a surveying outfit recently interviewed by Lawrence Youngman of the Omaha World-Herald somewhere in France. Youngman visited with three of the surveyors who said they had not been in combat but they worry some about "Red Check Charlie," the Nazi pilot who comes over after dark.

Files With Marauders.

Cpl. Harold E. Thompson of Wayne, is flying in B-26 Marauders of the 32nd AAF based in Italy. Recently arrived overseas, the 25-year-old armorer gunner is serving with a veteran Marauder squadron that has fought through both the Tunisian and Sicilian campaigns, and is currently smashing enemy targets in Italy and southern France. Before entering the army in October, 1942, Cpl. Thompson was a farmer. His wife, Evelyn, and his mother, Mrs. Mary Thompson, reside in Wayne.

Taken to Hospital With Knee Injury

Charles Nichols, ship fitter third class with the Seabees, is in a hospital in England with his right knee in a cast, the result of an injury the member while working at the base. The Wayne man will be there for some time, according to word coming to his wife here.

The Seabee hurt his knee once and was able to stay on duty. When he suffered a similar injury again the last of October, the knee was dislocated and he had to be hospitalized.

Back With Outfit After Bad Injuries

Pvt. Raymond E. Ehlers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ehlers of Dixon, has been reported seriously wounded while stationed in the central Pacific. Pvt. Ehlers writes his parents that the bullets ripped him by the left back at his post. The young man states that the flies and mosquitoes are terrible where he is located.

Hungry for Fresh Potatoes in Camp

Sgt. Elwyn Fleetwood, stationed in Greenland 18 months, comments on the food situation in a recent letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Fleetwood, of Wayne. "Fresh vegetables are few and far between and go rather limp in a short time. We still have rat butter, but please double your milk order when I return. I'll eat this milk of course. All this salt-preserved, powdered, evaporated and dehydrated variety is nourishing, not appetizing. We have very good bread, rolls, etc., baked right here. The grapefruit juice is dynamic when stale. Pour a little on the ground and it eats a hole right through to China. Easy way to open up new transportation routes.

"We received fresh potatoes a few days ago for the first time in months. All winter and summer (both days of the latter) we have had dehydrated potatoes served in the only manner a dehydrated spud may be prepared—mashed. Sort of droopy, soupy, hot-up mess. Day after day these mashed potatoes are placed in the 'chow line.' (Musical accompaniment in the background changes to a live-ticker tempo here.)

"Now come the fresh potatoes! After long, weary, heart-breaking months, at last! Rumors begin to fly (taster tempo), visions begin to form, and everyone begins to talk about, dream about, write about baked potatoes, fried potatoes, boiled potatoes, potatoes on the cob, potatoes off the cob. (Crescendo, loud music and voice here.) Potatoes everywhere! (Rolling of drums.)

"We wait expectantly in chow line, two, three, yes four hours. Finally the line begins to move, slowly at first, gradually picking up speed, faster, faster, nothing can stop us. Closer and closer we approach to our final objective, the potato pot. Visions in our minds of melted cheese and butter dripping from a luscious baked potato. (Faster and louder music here.) Three steps, two steps, one and a half steps, three-fourths step. We are here! We gaze expectantly into the pot. (Sudden cessation of all sound.) We see mashed potatoes. (Tearful notes.) No, no, it cannot be. But it is. Squishy mashed potatoes. Climax—one more cook disappears. We lose more darned cooks this way."

On the SIOUX CITY MARKET

Award Will Come To Nebraska Man

The nation's farming spotlight will be centered on Nebraska Saturday, November 18, when Albert R. Saizman, Brown county farmer-rancher, receives the W. G. Skelly award for superior achievement in agriculture. Saizman operates a 12,000-acre ranch and has an outstanding wartime food production record. But he won the award, the committee announced because of his superior farm management practices, his sound soil conservation methods and his community leadership. In spite of increased production, he follows a program that holds down erosion, and maintains soil fertility. He keeps 1,000 head of Hereford cattle, markets 225,000 pounds of beef and 25,000 pounds of pork, raises 80 acres of corn and puts up 2,500 tons of hay annually.

Although he is chairman of his county rationing board, he finds time to do a superior farming job by careful planning and hard work to offset labor and machinery shortages, the committee said. He also is active in church, school, American Legion, Commercial club, and his feeder cattle producers association and has been a leader in every war bond drive.

Stinson Is Winner

Guy Stinson, Norfolk, won over Fred Hansen, also of Norfolk, for director of Consumers Public Power district No. 2. Precincts in 16 counties voted on the candidates. Hoskins precinct is the only part of Wayne county casting votes on the two. Here Stinson won 80, to Hansen's 84 votes.

He came to have dental work done. Mr. Lamberson spent a month in Oklahoma for a gas line company and is now back at Beatrice. Jimmie, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Lamberson, was 4 years old Wednesday this week.

First Lt. Doyle Simons

who just completed 35 missions over Europe as pilot of a Fortress, visited his sister, Mrs. Edgar Meese and family from Thursday till Monday. His wife, who had been at Des Moines while her husband was overseas, and his sister, Miss Joy Simons of Carroll, Ia., were also here Monday all went to Glidden, Ia., to visit the officer's and Miss Simmons' parents. Lt. Simons will report in California the last of November.

Responsibility Great

The United States, the world's strongest power, has a definite responsibility to itself and to humanity in the post-war period. Mr. Woodson explained that both political parties are pledged to favor an international council to maintain peace, favoring use of armed forces if necessary to see that peace is maintained. Such policing is an instrument of peace, Mr. Woodson stated. The speaker stated that he does not fear war for the present or the next generation but failure to assure the peace could easily lead to another world conflict for the third or fourth generation. Mr. Woodson quoted from new books, "Germany Will Try It Again" and "The Nazis Go Underground." The authors point out that the nazis now admit that they have lost the present war. But they think that by obtaining marginal superiority in manpower and booty in each of a series of conflicts, they will eventually conquer the world. Their plan calls for reducing man-power one-third in adjoining territory by destruction and also by starvation. Organized underfeeding not only makes the nazis stronger physically but it causes others to grow up weakened. The nazis plan also calls for plundering all property in territory evacuated, killing or taking live stock and poultry and burning or bombing bridges, homes, barns and other property. The scheme of the nazis is to plunder valuables that are easily moved so as to establish their own credit in world trade.

Need Modest Leadership

"America is the strongest nation in the world today. This fact gives her responsibility of leadership but does not make it right to impose her will on others. We must be internationalists as a people and as a nation. We must go into the world council willing to lead and also willing to make concessions." Mr. Woodson agreed with the opinion of Robert St. John who stated that Russia is not to be feared. Both think that after the nazis and Japs are defeated, Russia will be satisfied to build for the industrial system it has hoped for many years. Russians have shown loyalty, their patriotism their unity and their willingness to sacrifice in this war. Russia has plenty of territory and has no ambitions except to gain a waterway to the Mediterranean. Since Russia, the United States and Great

UNITED THROUGH BOOKS

BOOK WEEK

NOVEMBER 12-18, 1944

Book week is in full swing with a fine display of new books at the library and a window display in Hixson store. Never have we had as fine a collection of books for children as we have this year. If you have not been to the library to see them, plan to take the time to do so before next Saturday evening. The children have been working out a Thanksgiving sand box scene which has been attracting some attention. They seem to enjoy expressing their original ideas in this fashion and do a great deal of reading in order that their project may be authentic.

Are you interested in radio and television? If so come into the library to see the new book by Lowell Thomas which has so many beautiful illustrations.

Followers of Emie Pyle will want to read this new book called Brave Men which has just been put into circulation this week. And those who enjoyed Centennial Summer will want to read Albert Idell's new book, Bridge to Brooklyn. Another favorite with many people is Franklin P. Adams of Information Please fame. We have his new book called Nods and Becks. "I know almost everything," EPA has admitted modestly—and almost everything has been included in this anthology of his prose and poetry. Perhaps the most outstanding new novel we have received for some time has come in this week. The name of it is They Dream of Home and the author is Niven Busch. Here is a dramatic presentation of the problems which will soon be facing millions of discharged American soldiers and their families. It is a story of a young soldier—a veteran at 17, trained to kill, suffering from a war-connected nervous disability, lonely and frightened. His first disastrous experiences at home and his final readjustment to normal life through the understanding of the girl he loves, are described with deep sympathy and feeling.

THOUSANDS OF AMERICANS ARE STILL IN JAP PRISONS

What Will YOU Do About it?

REMEMBER CORCORAN? Remember the pictures of grinning Japanese soldiers guarding American prisoners? We're out to wipe the grins off their faces. We're out to liberate thousands of American soldiers and civilians still in Jap prisons. That day can come only with final victory.

We've got to finish the job the Japs started. The 6th War Loan Drive is part of the great national effort to win quick victory in the Pacific. The cost of victory comes high. It costs billions of dollars a month to fight Japan! But we know you'll do your full share, as you have in all the other war loan drives. Your full share is at least one extra $100 War Bond. Buy more if you possibly can. War Bonds are your best insurance of a safe, independent future.

"WE'D RATHER SAY YES"

We don't like to tell people that they'll have to wait to get a home telephone. We'd much rather say "yes" to requests for service. That's the way it used to be.

But the needs of war have first claim on available telephone equipment and on telephone manufacturing facilities and manpower. Delays in filling civilian orders just can't be helped.

In many cases, the delay in installation may be for the duration or longer, as the end of the war will not solve our problem. Replacement of telephone equipment is a lengthy manufacturing and installation process.

All of us telephone people sincerely appreciate the cooperative understanding being shown by the many thousands who are waiting their turn to get service.

Absence Justified on Golden Wedding

Homekeeper Proves Allergic To Furniture Polish In Trial Tests

Mrs. Elizabeth Swett, Chicago, swayed away from her job in a war plant recently—her first absence since she started six months ago. She had an important occasion to celebrate Mrs. Swett, 69, and her husband, 75, observed their 50th wedding anniversary. Said Mrs. Swett's foreman: "I'll match her against any 16-year-old in her work as wrapper."

At Kansas City, Mrs. John Willis cleaned house. Next morning she awoke with her face so swollen her eyes were almost shut. Doctors ran 53 allergy tests on all types of pollen. No luck. The doctors switched tactics and tried once more. This time they found Mrs. Willis' trouble. She's allergic to furniture polish.

Mayor F. H. LaGuardia of New York City figuratively exchanged his traditional big black hat for a porter's red cap when he found a woman carrying two large bags encountering difficulty at LaGuardia field administration building doorway. "Here, give me those," the mayor said, and carried the luggage to the ticket window.

The New York City council may find itself face-to-face with this question: When is a cemetery not a cemetery? The state legislature, which adjourned last March, inexplicably repealed all laws limiting restrictions on extension of cemeteries in New York City. Tax evaders may try to take advantage of the situation, said Vice-Chairman Joseph T. Sharkey, who work during World War I, claims she hasn't missed a day's work on the assembly line at the Kingsbury Ordnance plant since Pearl Harbor. She commutes the several miles between her Hobart home and work.

Want ad in the Kansas City Star: "Nice room, excellent meals, transportation, men."

L. G. Mosley stepped into what he believed was a taxicab to be driven home at Chicago. But it wasn't a cab and the occupant of the driver's seat of the private parked automobile greeted Mr. Mosley by robbing him of $50, a watch and his topcoat, and ejecting him. Mr. Mosley told police.

Judge Karl V. King of Salt Lake City held City Judge Joseph G. Jepson in contempt of court when he failed to appear on schedule because he was deer hunting. The sentence: Serve venison pies to the 66 who came to the judgeless court. Judge Jepson has agreed to serve the game he brought back. But he isn't sure the finers will like it. He points out he shot a deer all right, but he also bagged a coyote.

Mrs. Catherine Winiecki, Chicago, 38, was granted a separate maintenance from her husband, Harry, 42, after she told Circuit Judge Michael Feinberg that he put out his cigarettes by pushing them in her face. "With the cigarette shortage being what it is," Judge Feinberg told Winiecki, "you better give up smoking."

At Ardmore, Okla., Roy C. Morrison of the highway patrol reported that a bus in which 30 persons were riding went out of control, skidded 124 feet, climbed a four-foot bridge railing and came to a halt just 12 inches from a 30-foot drop.

They just didn't trust banks, said Mr. and Mrs. Ray N. Gedney of Independence, Mo., in explain-explained: "Under the law as it stands now, anybody could put a fence around his property and call it a cemetery."

Because it took an hour at Salt Lake City to open a jammed automobile door with a crowbar and other tools, Pvt. Waldo R. Barton was delayed in leaving home for his new assignment. But he did have a visit with his brother, Lt. E. Dale Barton, who telephoned the Barton home (that he had reached town on leave. The call came just as Pvt. Barton got the car door open. The brothers would not have met but for the jammed door.

FBI agents at Miami, Fla., were puzzled over the plans of a suspect accused of the theft from the Miami airport of a life raft, three machete knives, seven K rations, a clock, an electric fan, six yards of canvas, 30 yards of nylon and 20 yards of linen fabrics.

Twenty-four residents living in the neighborhood of a southwest side Chicago war plant have gone to court to have operations quieted. In a suit for an injunction, the complainants said they are kept awake by forge hammers that strike 35 thousand-pound blows at one-minute intervals, day and night.

The publication of the Central Utah Relocation Center at Topaz, Utah, carried this front-page box: "There will be no weather reports until the thermometer which was sent to Salt Lake last week is returned here."
