Service Conducted On Fellowship Day

Dr. V. Gregory Rosemont Is Speaker for Service Held Friday.

An estimated 40 guests from the Methodist, Presbyterian, St. Paul's Lutheran, Baptist and Redeemer's Lutheran churches, attended the Fellowship day at the Wayne Methodist church Friday.

Dr. Victor Gregory Rosemont brought the message of the day on "The Fabric of Fellowship."

"We gain fellowship with God through reverence and true worship of God," stated Dr. Rosemont.

The speaker discussed "fellowship with ourselves. Through the grace of God, we bring our lower selves to the level of our higher and nobler selves, thus making possible the establishing of peace in our lives."

"Fellowship with our fellowmen is brought about by understanding of our fellow men and fellow feeling," stated the speaker.

Dr. Rosemont concluded by quoting two Bible verses, "I came not to be ministered unto, but to minister," and "God so loved the world that he gave."

The two verses were given by Dr. Rosemont as ideals by which everyone should govern his life to make for fellowship.

Mrs. C. V. Wait was leader and Mrs. M. B. Street read the scripture.

Mrs. Ed. Bahe and Mrs. Al. Bahe sang two duets, "O Jesus I Have Promised" and "My Faith Looks up to Thee."

Mrs. Clarence McGin sang "My Task" and "God Be with You Till We Meet Again."

Mrs. C. N. Olson played the organ. Methodist ladies served refreshments in the church parlors following the meeting.

Project Clubs Observing Week

Wayne county clubs join in observing National Home Demonstration week, May 4 to 11, as designated by President Truman and Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson.

The 1947 club enrollment is expected to exceed the 1946 total of 199. Five clubs organized to date are: Progressive Homemakers with 11 members and Mrs. Harry Schulz, president; Newcomers, 11 members, Mrs. E. H. Sohl, president; Sunny Homemakers, 15 members, Mrs. Melvin Schnoor, president; Sunbeam, 11 members, Mrs. C. J. Nieman, president; A-Teen, 16 members, Mrs. Clarence Schroeder, president. Five others are preparing enrollment.

Two or more training centers for leaders are being considered this year as a means of saving travel.

The extension board voted to have a part-time home agent to assist in project club work, 4-H and other programs as soon as one is available.

This year's county officers are Mrs. Clarence Schroeder, Mrs. Guy Anderson, Mrs. Louis Bendin, Mrs. Wayne Thomas and Mrs. Ed. Maas. Information about clubs may be secured from them or from County Agent Walter Harder.

Dairymen Meet In Wayne Soon

Dairymen interested in the Dairy Herd Improvement association work are urged to come to Wayne Monday evening, May 12, at 8:30. The meeting will probably be held in Wayne city hall, but interested dairymen are urged to contact Howard Gillaspie of Dixon county or Walter Harder of Wayne county to be sure of the place.

About 15 have expressed a desire to form an association for Wayne, Dixon and adjacent counties, Madison county organized with 20. When in full operation an association needs about 25 members.

Herd improvement work aids in increasing dairy production on farms. It helps at low rate of cost. It also helps in getting higher producing bulls in the artificial breeding association.

Dairy herd improvement work is under direct supervision of the state extension dairymen and the U. S. department of agriculture.

Club Is Organized. Sunhonet Gals 4-H club of Wayne met in the Mrs. Frank Hicks home Tuesday evening and organized for 1947. Officers elected are: President, Barbara Grier; secretary, Rosalyn Ellis; vice-president, Patty Victor; news reporter, Alice Anderson and music leader, Joyce Kingston. Other members are Janette Dawson and Lois Crane. Mrs. Frank Hicks is leader with Mary Hicks as assistant leader. The members selected the summer wardrobe project.

To Rites In Norfolk. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crockett were in Norfolk Sunday to attend funeral rites for W. H. Reninger, 85, early Dakota county resident, who died at Lakeland Park, Fla., April 25. Deceased leaves his wife, eight daughters and three sons. One of the daughters, Mrs. Grace Ferguson of Independence, Mo., is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Crockett.

Undergoes Operation. Mrs. A. J. Heithold of Hartington, daughter of Mrs. Ella Harder of Wayne, underwent an operation Wednesday last week in a local hospital.

Marry at Rites In Wayne Sunday

Donald Painter of Randolph and Mrs. Lola Fern Davis of Carroll were married Sunday afternoon by Dr. Victor West at the Methodist parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Heath, the former a brother of the bride, were attendants.

Wedding Service Is Held Saturday

Miss Christine Steinke Is Bride of F. J. Petersen, At Church Here.

Miss Christine Steinke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Steinke of Beaver City, and Frank J. Petersen, son of Carsten Petersen of Wayne, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at 2 at St. Paul's Lutheran church. Rev. T. J. C. Schult officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Bernice Petersen of Lincoln, sister of the bridegroom, and Frank H. Soukup, also of Lincoln, were attendants.

The bride wore a powder blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of red roses. Her attendants wore a black and white checkered suit, white accessories and a pink carnation corsage. The men had dark suits and white carnation boutonnieres.

Attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Carsten Petersen, Marion and Elaine and Mrs. Lizzie Petersen.

The couple will live with Mrs. Lizzie Petersen, aunt of the bridegroom.

Mr. Petersen served more than three years in the army, much of the time in the European theatre. Since his return he has been employed by the Tietjen hatchery. Mrs. Petersen was employed in Lincoln.

Weed Conference Held in Emerson

At a regional weed conference held in Emerson April 29, Lloyd Smith of the state noxious weed division discussed research work done by the Nebraska experiment station the past year and summarized results. G. Clare Buskirk, also of the state noxious weed division, explained the operation of weed spraying equipment and suggested some of the practices that probably result in more effective weed kills.

Smith indicated that the progress report prepared by Noel Hanson of the state experiment station shows that 2,4-D will be an important chemical in the future for controlling noxious as well as troublesome weeds on the farm. However, research shows that bindweed cannot be completely killed in one, two or even three sprayings. It is not yet known how many sprayings are required to kill bindweed. Continued spraying will reduce the plants progressively, states Hanson. Top growth of bindweed is readily killed by 2,4-D so that seedling can be prevented. The recommendation is to apply a mixture or concentration of 1 1/2 pounds of active 2,4-D in 100 gallons of water and apply by mist spray to one acre of bindweed.

Buskirk exhibited weed spraying attachments for tractor as designed by Noel Hanson and as can be built by farmers. Commercial spraying equipment was also shown. The mounted spraying equipment from Wayne, Dixon and Thurston counties was operated for the benefit of farmers.

Smith and Buskirk both stressed the importance of using 2,4-D to control many of the common weeds along fence lines and road sides.

Attending the meeting from this county were Otto Sals, Wm. Riggert, Alfred Thomas, Carl Sundell, County Agent Walter Harder, A. G. Sydow and Robt. J. Jones.

Frank Beck, 82, of Emerson, died April 25.

Miss Marguerite Milliken daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Milliken of Wayne was graduated April 27 from St. Vincent School of Nursing in Sioux City.

Moot Court Case Won by Bornhoff

Budd Bornhoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bornhoff of Wayne, won the annual senior law competition of the University of Nebraska's Thomas S. Allen moot court Thursday at the state supreme court room. He represented the defendant and applicant and defeated Elmer Jackson of Lincoln and Earl Morgan of North Platte. The case involved constitutionality of a statute on substituted service on a non-resident and the question of workmen's compensation. Three supreme court judges decided the winner.

PASTOR IS SERVING AT PILGER CHURCH

Rev. R. J. Bullock, pastor of the Baptist church at Pilger, is also serving the Baptist church at Pilger. He will conduct worship each Sunday at 9:45 at Pilger and at 11 at Wayne. He goes to Pilger each Tuesday evening for paper services. Gospel teams from Norfolk and Wayne will alternate in Sunday evening services at Pilger.

Advices Veterans On Making Plans

Dr. H. D. Griffin Suggests Ways Students Should Arrange Affairs.

A little planning now for the summer months will help GI students at the State Teachers College receive final subsistence checks of the semester on schedule, Dr. Harold D. Griffin, chief of the veterans administration guidance center here, said this week.

Each GI student who does not intend to remain in Wayne during the summer should notify Dr. Griffin's office and request in writing that his final subsistence check for the semester be forwarded to his summer address.

This precaution may save considerable delay in the delivery of the final checks for this semester. Subsistence checks, Dr. Griffin reminded, cannot be forwarded from one address to another until a request in writing is received from the veteran.

Dr. Griffin also offered this additional advice to veterans enrolled at the college:

1. Veterans who plan to enroll for summer school at some institution other than Wayne should apply at the veterans administration guidance center here at once for a supplemental certificate of eligibility and entitlement. This should be done before May 15.

2. Veterans who are to leave school to spend the summer vacation out of Nebraska but who expect to re-enter school or training under their veteran's benefits in Nebraska next fall, should so advise the guidance center office. Otherwise, Dr. Griffin said, their veterans administration records will follow them out of the state. Such a situation, he added, would delay the veteran's registration next fall.

Improves at Home.

Harry Barnett, who suffered injury when he was accidentally struck by a car, was able to return home Sunday last week from a local hospital and is improving nicely.

Now That the Telephone Strike Is Ended . . .

May we first of all thank you sincerely for your tolerance and understanding during the trying period just ended. We deeply regret any inconvenience you may have been caused.

Honest differences of opinion existed between the union and the company. In fairness to its customers, the company insisted from the outset that the dispute be resolved here in our territory. The agreement just reached through collective bargaining, negotiations and conciliation came after assurances by the union that it was a free and independent bargaining agent.

Now that the strike is over, telephone men and women everywhere throughout our territory are being welcomed back to their jobs. We assure you that we will work as hard as we can to get back to regular day-to-day operations as quickly as possible . . . and to carry forward our plans for constantly improving and expanding your services.

The overall cost of the company resulting from the wage settlement amounts to about $4,500,000 annually, of which some $720,000 will be incurred here in Nebraska. In reaching this agreement, we did everything we could to see that the wages we pay are fair to all concerned and not unreasonable in their effect on the rates you pay for telephone service.

Forty per cent of the glasses fitted do not give complete comfort or satisfaction regardless of who fitted them. There are several causes that affect the eyes and most practitioners are attempting to correct the defect.

Several years ago we worked out the cause of near-sightedness, eyes tiring and burning and headaches. If it is the cause you want to correct, you will want to come to us for your eye examination.

MAIN FLOOR

People Want VALUE

It was 25 years ago when Russell Larson opened his small dry goods store, occupying one floor of 25'-100' space and announcing his policy of low prices for quality merchandise. His little emporium grew and grew with Wayne.

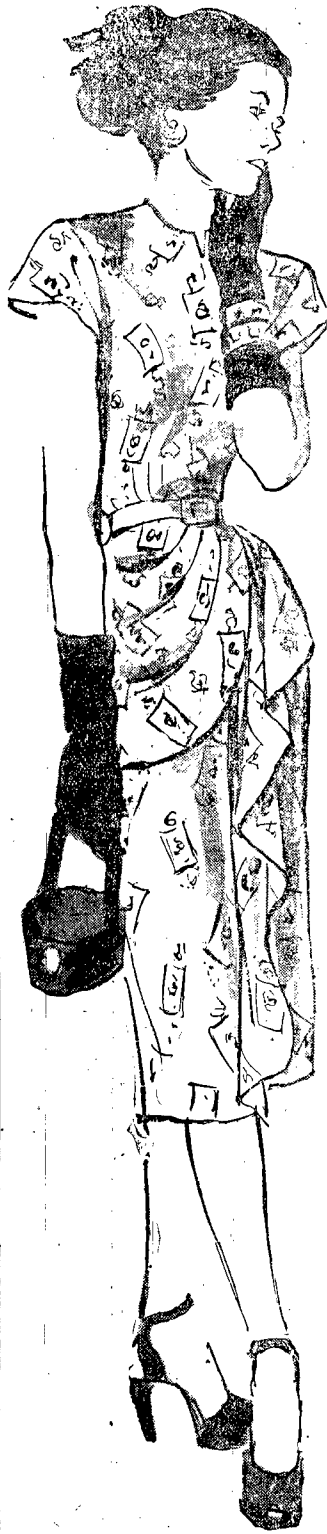

Today this small store has progressed into two stores. Our department store . . . just newly remodeled, with main floor of 25'x150' and full selling budget basement . . . and last October a new member was born—Larson's Clothing Store. Why this continuous progress? A sense of news, style and quality in merchandise, a determined ability to GROW—and most of all, LOW PRICES. No matter what the times, PEOPLE WANT VALUE.

Naturally, the masses will seek out and stick to the store that gives it to them. And, naturally, the store with the most customers finds it easier to continue offering the best values. Today, as Larsons reach and celebrate their Silver Anniversary, low prices are still its major theme.

New Beauties for Summer

Greet the new, wonderful summer in a new and wonderful dress! Come see our spanking-new collection of summer beauties . . . gay, alluring prints, dramatic, exciting solids. From Wayne Herald for May 8, 1913: Fire of undetermined origin destroyed a barn, horses and equipment at the Claus Otte farm northwest of Wayne. A new modern depot is assured for Wayne. Wayne high school graduates in 1913 will be Ray Ash, Grace Bunt, Lois Corzine, Bessie Crockett, Ardith Conn, Raymond Duerg, Raymond Fox, Leta Fisher, Ina Hughes, Howard James, Edward Jones, Marjorie Kohl, Mattie Lane, Verne Marsteller, Mollie Piepenstock, Lotus Relyea, Ruth Sherbahn, Frank Stodden, Marie Wright, Nora Zieman and Ina Elming. Wayne commercial club provided for graveling all roads leading to this city. Mrs. Fred Roebler died in 1913. Joseph Kimbrell died at Wakefield in 1913.

A horse belonging to Chris Brandon of Sholes was killed when it ran away while the owner was plowing.

From Wayne Herald for May 10, 1894: During a storm, the Lutheran church northeast of Wayne was struck by lightning and damaged to the extent of about $500. In the same storm, seven head of cattle belonging to Henry Himmerichs were killed.

From Ponca Journal for May 17, 1893: "We respectfully call the attention of Aquarius to the fact that his water jug has been uncorked too much lately. We have had all the rain that is needed and much more than is needed. Saturday night a shower commenced which continued with but two intermissions until Monday night. In an atmosphere so charged with moisture, there is danger that people will develop fins, scales and tails and become transmogrified into fish."

Early Events at Ponca. From Northern Nebraska Journal, Ponca, for April 28, 1887: Hands on the railroad dial point to the completion of three lines within a year. The line between Kingsley and Centerville will be joined with Ponca by a bridge across the Missouri and a railroad. Another line will be between Le Mars and Yankton. Many farmers are putting out orchards and small fruits. Parties are negotiating with L. Parr for the farm

Honor Students At Wayne High

Hobo King and Queen Are Chosen and Game Played With Wakefield.

The 87 students honored at annual honors convocation at Wayne high school Friday included 32 seniors, 21 juniors, 16 sophomores and 18 freshmen. The program was sponsored by the National Honor society.

A blue honor certificate was given to each student who earned recognition in school activities. To receive a certificate a person has to be in one of the following groups: Class officer, club officer, honor roll five consecutive times, outstanding plays, reading and other declamatory work, perfect attendance, letter athletes, cheerleaders, vocal or instrumental groups, National Honor society, student council, have won distinction in contests or have been chosen for special recognition by fellow students.

Have Buns' Day. Nyla Lindsay and Dale Gramberg were chosen king and queen of the hobos at Buns' day held at Wayne high Thursday. Runners up were Junior Swinney and Billie Bonhag. Teachers and students alike dressed for the occasion and the boy and girl with the most extreme fashions were recognized as the king and queen.

As a feature event of the day, Wayne high met Wakefield Trojans in a baseball game when Wakefield won 19 to 0. Wayne got 2 hits and Wakefield 8. A feature was Tell's pitching for Wakefield. Helgren and Tietgen pitched for Wayne. The local team went to Wakefield Tuesday and goes to Winside May 13.

Library News

If your house is the tired look-one at the end of the block, you are just the one the library is looking for. Did you know that houses can have their faces lifted too? New up-to-date books and magazines discuss methods and materials which will help you give your old house a new face. Books like these will help you to understand what your contractor is talking about. Ask for these books the next time you drop in at the library.

And speaking of houses, we just received a new book which has as its theme the housing shortage. Maybe you think there is nothing funny about the housing situation, but you may change your mind if you read "Home Is If You Find It" by Bud Nye. It is a laugh-loaded legend of how a couple beat the housing shortage—and vice versa.

The Literary Guild book for May is here. It is "The Tin Flute" by Gabrielle Roy. The scene of the story is Canada and the family described is French-Canadian. The book will often be compared with "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn," because of its general theme. It was first published in Montreal where its French edition had great success.

Another new book on the rental shelf is "The Left Hand Is the Dreamer" by Nancy Wilson Ross. This is light fiction. "Another Woman's House," by Mignon Eberhart, is a new mystery also on the same shelf.

Are Here for Rites.

Among these here from a distance Tuesday last week to attend funeral rites for Frank Schulte were Wm. Schulte and son, Raymond. Mrs. Ed. First Grade News. Mrs. Paul Pawelski brought ice cream and cup cakes for Mary Lucille's 7th birthday Friday.

Most of the students are able to cut from colored paper and complete the alphabet without help.

Miss Eleanor Edwards invited students to her classroom to see movies.

Radishes, beans, peas, cucumbers, pumpkins, beets and corn plants are growing in the garden. Tommy Beckner is experimenting with his plants by placing them in a dark place to see whether or not they will have the same color as those growing in the light.

In Kindergarten. In a spring unit pupils are taking care of their garden and are observing changes which occur during the season.

As supplementary material, kindergarten students are reading "Look and Learn" books. The science unit is called, "Outdoors."

Students saw films Friday morning.

Students made May baskets Thursday.

This week both sessions of kindergarten met together to learn better how to work as one group.
