An Editor Retires

An Editor Retires With sincere regret, The Herald this week announces the retirement of E. W. Huse as this newspaper's editorial writer. In the weeks since the new owners assum-ed management of the newspaper Mr. Huse had developed into one of Nebraska's fin-est, the former publisher has continued to impart the wisdom he gained through years of experience and study. The decision of Mr. Huse to relinquish his editorial responsibilities lentirely will remove long familiar features from The Heraid. Through his first page column and his editorials he has sought always to build a better Wayne and a better Nebraska, and to this end he has been eminently success-ful.

ful. Along with our readers, we shall miss the teachings of a gifted colleague.

Perhaps nowhere in Nebraska are the galety and spirit of Christmas more evident the stöjdes and poems and songs are onde more in demaid. We have several nice new books this year. The Christmas Ideals and the Christmas Annual are very lovely, both to look at and to read. They contain fine suggestications for pro-grams for clubs and church socie-ties. Why The Chiness Rang and other stories is an especially good collection for the yourger people but many adults will like this par-ticularly if they do any reading aloud at the Christmas season. The children of Wayne are arise ious to have everybody see their department. If you didn't get in during 'book week be suge to come before Christmas as it is attractive with Christmas as it is attractive with Christmas as it is attractive with Quing the decalitons and would like to have everybone see them. So next time you are in the library you are invited to have a look downstairs. If you haven't heen down for awhile you will be surprised.

More 'Rotten Apples'?

More 'Rotten Apples'? The Senate investigation of General Bennett Meyers uncovered evidence which points to shocking misuse of a high-ranking officer's war-given authority and responsi-bility. It leaves a bitter taste in the mouths of millions of, former servicemen who fought unselfishly for the preservation of this nation and the very world. A further close serutiny of the activities of wartime leaders seems indicated, because it is sel-dom that a "barrel" will contain only dne "rotten apple." Along this line, President Truman has ordered the investigation of the promotion of 28,000 wartime officers who now are retired on disability pay (tax-free). An excellent move, but the president erred in asking the armed services to conduct the investigation, for the armed services are prone to whitewash the misdeeds of erring brass hats. Perhaps Congress would do a more thorough job, and in this case a job of far more service to the nation than some of the "investigations" it has undertaken recently.

According to the Kansas City Star, "A French communist leader is loudly fearful that the French people are being 'cor-rupted' by American motor cars, American furniture and American clothing. As sub-stitutes the communists are prepared to offer France a large assortment of street riots, strikebound transportation, weari-some political slogans and fifth-rate ora-tory."

Says the Minneapolis Star: "The only American business that makes money with-out advertising is the U. S. mint."
