Storm in West Delays Renewal

Leonard W. Martens of Junction City, Kan., sent The Wayne Herald a check for renewal of his subscription promptly, but the check had to go back to Kansas in the next mail as he forgot to sign it. The Herald benefited by the exchange since Mr. Martens wrote how they enjoy reading the paper when he sent the check back "with sic."

In the same mail came a check from Clifford Parker of Potter, Neb., with an apology for delay in sending in the renewal. He said there had been no mail service for eight days. From the accounts of the western Nebraska storms, The Herald certainly accepts Mr. Parker's apology and wonders whether he slipped the check in the mail between storms in order to get it to Wayne.

Wayne Farmer Tells of Agriculture in Europe

Belgium is making the fastest recovery and is the most progressive of all the countries visited by the midwest farmers on their recent European tour, according to Albert Watson, Wayne farmer.

They are manufacturing steel goods and other heavy equipment for which they have a ready market. A country that can export can automatically import, and is therefore best off. The last of rationing was removed just before the Americans arrived there, that on sugar. Most commodities can be purchased now if one has the money, Watson said.

The 26 touring farmers made the trip by plane in November, landing in Paris. Later the same day, they went across the channel to England where they were guests of the government that evening.

THE PLAN of the tour was that each farmer would stay with a farmer with corresponding interests in each of the countries visited. They were guests at the farm homes and saw first hand the type of farming practices followed by the foreigners, as well as their customs and personal living habits.

In England, Watson was a guest on a farm in Norfolk county. Most of the land is divided into large farms and is owned by wealthy landholders. Each owner has a great many farmers working for him. The practice of single land owners holding such large acreages enables them to get better use of their machinery. Most of the machinery, Watson noted, was made in the United States and distributed under the Marshall plan, although some came from Germany.

THE "LAYS SYSTEM" is a practice which the Wayne county farmer believes would be a good one for Americans to follow. Under the plan, land is seeded to grass and the only produce taken from it for several years is beef and milk. England was the only place the Americans were actually hungry. The English still have rationing and adhere to it very strictly. Food and fuel are scarce, and most of the houses were cold. (No home or public building has a central heating system in England). One reason Watson gave for the scarcity of coal is that the coal mines have become greatly socialized and thus production has been curtailed.

The English, he believes, are earnestly trying to "come back." No one is complaining, and many are denying themselves. Socialism is not as strong as it was just after the war.

ONE THING that took a lot of "getting used to" was the fact that no foreign housewife uses water with her meals. Coffee, wine or beer were the staple beverages, but no water.

THE DANISH farms were the neatest any visited. Every Saturday the farmer spends his afternoon cleaning up around his farm, putting the machinery and tools away. Once a year all the buildings are painted with a white-wash like paint.

Watson had a little trouble getting to sleep at night while a guest at the Danish farm. He just couldn't get used to sleeping with a feather tick as a covering. "It was just too hot underneath, and too cold on top of the tick," he said. "I never did strike the happy medium."

From England the travelers went by boat to Denmark, where they were greeted by some of the most hospitable people in Europe. They had plenty to eat, and were surprised because most of the Danes could speak English. They found the people to be frank and outspoken and extremely friendly. Their economic condition is not such that they enjoy a great deal of foreign trade. Since their products are mostly food, they have small variety of products to export.

THE DUTCH they found in the same situation, economically. Much of Holland was destroyed by the Germans during the war, and a great deal of time and effort has been spent in reclaiming the land. A few Hollanders on some of the islands still cling to their native costumes, and the rest of the people don't like that at all, Watson declared.

While in Holland, the visitors attended an auction sale of flowers, where the bidding starts at the top figure and works downward.

After spending some time in Belgium, the group went through Luxembourg where they saw acre upon acre of land in grapes. For wine is the principal product of the small country.

FROM THERE, they went to the American sector of Germany. The people still seem to be in sort of a stupor, the Wayne man believes, and they don't smile.

To give an example of the complete damage to German cities, Watson told of Darmstadt where 23,000 citizens were killed in two days. He also believes the people in Germany would cooperate with Americans if they were not forced to do so.

In Frankfurt the Nebraskans called on Dean Burr of the university who is there trying to establish an extension service in Germany. They also visited the air lift while in Frankfurt.

THE SWISS people were found to be happy and prosperous, with money worth more than American money. Watson says that the Swiss chocolate is the best in the world, and he might come home to prove his point.

The people are surprisingly patriotic in spite of the fact that four different languages are spoken by the people in that small country. They were wishing for snow when the farmer told them the reason snow is what makes the Alps such a scenic attraction to tourists. Switzerland's number one import.

The Swiss raise cattle for a triple purpose, milk, beef and for hauling and pulling.

Switzerland is rather short on electricity, Watson reports. He was surprised by that fact since they have so much potential water power in the mountains. But the Swiss people explain that they would rather be just a little short than have all their neighbors envious of them.

MANY ON THE tour went into Italy expecting not to like it there. However, they found the people very friendly and happy, and the cities beautiful though dirty.

Most of the agriculture there is devoted to supplying the needs of the Italian people. There is an abundance of hand labor, and the climate is suitable for the growing of corn, or maize, as they call it. They are thinking of raising hybrid seed corn to supply the rest of Europe.

Watson wasn't among the group which went to see Pope Pius, but he reports that those who did consider it the most thrilling experience of the entire trip.

FRANCE HAS a very corrupt government and the discontent among the people makes the country a good target for communism, the Wayne farmer reported.

Watson visited a farm about 50 miles from Paris. The farm consisted of about 800 acres and the farmer had three American and one German tractor.

At least 14 men, and a considerable number of women were employed on the farm and the principal crops were grains and beets. The Frenchman also had a large number of cattle, which are kept inside all winter.

THE TRIP home took 20 hours and followed a route across Iceland, Greenland and Labrador, to Boston and New York.

All the farmers who made the trip are busy these days giving talks to farm and civic groups, telling them of the conditions they witnessed over there. Watson has already given a number of such lectures, and has about 15 to go.

Veterans—Notify VA if You Move
Lincoln—Over 200 subsistence checks and other benefit payments mailed to veterans in Nebraska last month have failed to be delivered because the veterans failed to notify the veterans administration of a change in their address, Ashley Westmoreland, Lincoln regional office manager, said today.

Westmoreland explained that the postoffice department cannot forward government checks from one address to another and that checks of veterans who have moved must be returned to the sender. The VA holds such "address unknown" checks until the veteran provides a correct address.

In reporting a change of address or in making inquiry about a veteran benefit, the VA officials said veterans should not write to Washington but should contact the VA office nearest their home or the regional office at Lincoln.

by JAMES C. OLSON, Superintendent STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

An object of great interest in the State Historical society's museum in the state capitol is the hay-burner stove presented to the society in 1934 by E. H. Bush of Tecumseh.

The hay burner, as much as any article of equipment used in old Nebraska, testifies to the ingenuity of those people who pioneered the plains.

Fuel was one of the stern necessities of life. In many areas wood, the conventional fuel, was scarce if it was at all obtainable. For a time chips were used in certain parts of the state but as the ranching area pushed westward, it was necessary to find other material. The next best thing was the wild prairie hay which grew so abundantly in Nebraska.

It was never wholly satisfactory as fuel. It was a good starter, but at the same time a quick burner. Various devices were invented to twist the hay into reasonably solid sticks, but the best of these were only moderately successful.

To make more effective use of the native fuel, hay-burning stoves were invented. The one in our museum is of the magazine type. It is similar to an ordinary cook stove except that it has two pipes about 30 inches long opening into the fire box. A spring on one end of the pipe pushes the hay into the fire box as it is burned. According to those who used the stove, it had to be stuffed with hay almost constantly.

Another type of hay-burning stove was the "Mennonite grass burner." This was of brick and much more elaborate than the ordinary stove. It was claimed that this stove needed to be fed only twice a day. Despite this, it never was widely used. It is quite probable that the cost was prohibitive.

A difficult problem connected with the use of any hay-burning stove was the storage of the quantities were used each day and to find room in the small cottages to store an adequate supply presented great difficulties. In addition, the presence of large amounts of hay greatly increased the danger from fire.

A little wonder that each stick of wood was cherished and used with the greatest care.

State Capitol News

The march of salary increase bills began in the legislature with a bill to increase the salary of county officials, with the exception of Lancaster and Douglas counties. This was introduced by Sen. Ed Lusienski of Columbus to become effective immediately, if passed, instead of wait until the end of the current term of office. Sen. Lusienski said it was necessary to raise salaries now because of the number of resignations by county officials going into other businesses because of low pay in county offices.

Also introduced was a bill by Sen. C. C. Lillibridge of Crete which would increase maximum salaries for certain officials in second class cities, a classification that applies to Wayne. The bill would boost the pay that a city could vote for city attorney from $400 to $700 a year, for mayor from $200 to $500, and for each councilman from $100 to $250.

Relief is in sight for counties who must increase their levy for general purposes or who have been making levies in excess of the amount in the statutes. Sen. Ed Hoyt of McCook introduced a bill to repeal the section of the statutes which limits to 3 1/2 mills, the amount that counties may levy for general purposes, enabling a levy up to the constitutional limit of 5 mills. It is estimated that about one-third of the counties are making levies in excess of this amount.

Sen. Hal Bridenbaugh of Hubbard is introducing legislation permitting counties to use funds raised from a special read levy for purposes other than matching federal aid funds. "When suitable projects involving the use of funds from the federal government are not available or deemed feasible by the county board," These funds can now be used only to match federal funds, and some counties are left with expended balances because of the standards of the federal matching program.

Wayne county did not have such an expended balance on June 30 when the budgets were filed with the state auditor, but Cedar, Holt and Pierce counties are listed as having balances left in the fund.

The legislative budget committee has turned down the big job of working out a budget for Nebraska with a round of calls on state-house offices. The unannounced inspections will enable members of the committee to observe workings of the various departments, according to Sen. John Callan of Odell, chairman of the committee. Formerly it was to call the heads of the various offices for hearings. Hearings will be held on major budget requests such as those for the Normal schools, the University of Nebraska, board of control and the highway and assistance departments.

Governor Val Peterson named Clifford N. Ogden of Omaha to fill the vacancy in the legislature left by the resignation of Sen. Henry D. Kosman in the 10th district. Sen. Ogden is an experienced legislator having served in the 19th and 1945 sessions of the unicameral. The amount of interest in the appointment of a successor to Sen. Kosman, as indicated by telephone calls, telegrams and letters, was surprising to observers and members of the legislature. Many of the present members ran without opposition.

Traffic Fatalities Down 19% Last Year in Nebraska

Lincoln—Capt. C. J. Sanders, Nebraska safety patrol, reported Monday that it was very gratifying to announce that during the past year of 1948, traffic fatalities in Nebraska decreased 19 per cent under 1947. There were 246 fatalities during 1948 as compared to 331 for 1947.

Based on the 10-month report of the nation by the National Safety Council, Nebraska will rank about sixth in the nation in the reduction of traffic fatalities during 1948.

This reduction, stated Captain Sanders, is a most welcome fact in the face of an increased number of vehicles and miles of travel in Nebraska. If Nebraska is to maintain or better this record in 1949, every Nebraskan must accept his responsibility in making our streets and highways safe, as this is not just a job for the patrol and police, engineers or safety organizations.

The following counties finished 1948 with a perfect record by not having any traffic fatalities: Arthur, Banner, Blaine, Boyd, Cherry, Colfax, Dakota, Frontier, Garden, Garfield, Gosper, Grant, Harlan, Hayes, Hooker, Howard, Johnson, Kearney, Keya Paha, Logan, Loup, Merrill, Nance, Perkins, Rock, Sheridan, Sioux, Thomas, Valley, Webster and Wheeler.

Counties with the highest number of traffic fatalities were Douglas, 45, Lancaster 20, Dodge 14, Scottsbluff 10, Dawson 9, Hall 9, Merrick 8, Thurston 7, Phelps 7, Buffalo 6, Cass 6, Dawes 6, and Seward 6.

Seventeen people took the examinations for state teachers certificates at the court house last Saturday.

Veterans Urged To Use Care in Filing Reports

Lincoln: Veterans training for the job under the GI bill today were urged to review carefully periodic reports of training and earnings before mailing them to the veterans administration, to prevent errors which might hold up months' subsistence payments.

Ashley Westmoreland, Lincoln regional office manager, said that veterans, of whom there are more than 1,500 in Nebraska, should place their full name, address and claim number on all reports submitted to assure quick and accurate servicing of their accounts.

He pointed out that a single error, particularly in the name, might result in a cumbersome search of thousands of files before the proper one is located, with a corresponding delay in the payment of subsistence.

The VA official also reminded trainees that two forms, one for training and a report of compensation from productive work, must be submitted at regular intervals.

Both reports, he said, are due the first of the month following the reporting period. For example, a report covering January is due February 1. If the report is not received promptly, subsistence allowances must be suspended.

HOSKINS NEWS

Polio Campaign Gets Underway in Hoskins

As Hoskins' part in helping to raise money for the polio campaign, the PTA will sponsor a benefit auction Thursday, Feb. 10, at the high school auditorium.

Mrs. Erwin Ulrich, chairman for Hoskins, reports that there were 720 cases of polio in Nebraska last year, and 72 out of the 93 counties reported cases. Wayne county did not have any, but the previous year had seven. She says that it costs $15 a day for hospitalization for one polio patient, and everyone should contribute as much as possible.

The business district of Hoskins will be solicited for salable articles, and a house to house canvass will be made in the residential section. School cards for every child in the town will be distributed soon. Clubs in Hoskins are being asked for donations of cash.

Clinton Belknap, state representative of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, will be in Hoskins to take part in the auction program.

Pillars Are Guests At Japanese Home

Pillar, from Osaka, Japan, in which she told of attending a sukiyaki dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Iwobara. Mr. Iwobara is a grandson of Japan's first ambassador to the United States. The host and hostesses were in Japanese costumes.

The following is quoted from her letter: "In the center of the low rectangular table was a charcoal stove on which cooked sukiyaki (beef stew with white radishes, Chinese cabbage and soy cakes). We ate salad with chopsticks. On the menu were rice, peanuts, tangerines, sweet potatoes and green tea."

"Because they are allowed only 60 kilowatts of electricity a month, the house was very chilly. Besides a fireplace in the living room, they heated the house with charcoal burners and two-foot stools with charcoal burners in them. Their beds are thick mats on the floor with silk spreads. They had a grand piano which I played. I felt privileged to visit in such a fine home."

Schools Dependent on Roads

It is generally agreed that two of the most important problems before the Nebraska legislature are the road program and school redistricting. And it is becoming readily apparent that one ties in with the other.

Much as school redistricting is needed for purposes of economy, efficiency and better education, there is sentiment against adopting the program at this time because of road conditions throughout Nebraska. Opponents of school reorganization point out that the creation of larger school districts now will be of little value, and may even be a detriment, because road conditions at certain times of the year may make it impossible for children to travel longer distances to school.

The Pierce Leader says: "In Nebraska you can expect any kind of weather in December, January, February and a part of March. That's four months out of the nine school months or nearly 50 per cent of the school year."

School redistricting certainly seems to be in order in Nebraska, but the success or failure of such a measure may depend largely on road conditions. Hence, it appears that the development and building of Nebraska roads remains the number one problem confronting our legislators.

Reorganization Is Needed

President Truman, in his message to congress, performed about as expected in that he asked the lawmakers to enact everything he had promised in his campaign. And he wants a huge increase in taxes, too. It is not an encouraging program to those who believe the time has come when the government must economize.

But this week the president asked congress for legislation of a more sensible type. He asks authority to reshuffle government agencies in order to bring about "efficient and economical conduct of the public's business." This is in line with recommendations of the Hoover commission which has been studying governmental reorganization.

The chief executive, in his request to congress, also said that the act should permit no agency or function of the executive branch to be exempted from its operation. Any reorganization proposed would be subject to approval of congress—a necessary safeguard, as we see it.

A great deal of money can be saved, and a far more efficient government built, if reorganization is carried out.

Modern Buckwheats!

Vermillion, S. D., Plain Talk: I sometimes think that we are becoming over-civilized. We don't get down to bed rock and do things for ourselves any more like our mothers did. Along about this time of the year, when the frost is on the pumpkin and the corn is in the shocks, I get the annual yen for some old-fashioned buckwheat cakes with sorghum molasses.

So I went down town and bought a package of this alleged buckwheat flour. You know the kind where you stir in a little water and it is all ready for the frying pan. Then I bought a bottle of this maple flavored syrup. That kind of buckwheat cakes are a delusion. They fill but they do not satisfy. They have a faint buckwheat flavor. And the syrup is the same kind of phantom. It is only reminiscent of maple syrup.

I think back to the days when my mother started the buckwheat cakes in the fall and kept the crock of batter alive all winter. It was a sour mess and smelled. But those cakes. Delicious and satisfying. Buttered as they came off the griddle, and then smeared with sorghum molasses. Not the effeminate kind that comes in tin cans, but real farm-made sorghum that came out of the big jug in the cellar.

Sometimes in cold weather dad had to bring the jug up and set it beside the kitchen stove for a while until it would pour. That's where the expression originated about somebody being "as slow as molasses in January."

I sometimes wonder if somewhere in this vale of tears people still make real buckwheat cakes and sorghum molasses. Most generally I don't mind getting old, but when I think of these delicacies I long to be a boy again.

Way Back When
 30 Years Ago
 Jan. 23, 1919—Ralph Clark broke one of the necks in his right arm last week while cranking his car. E. C. Drew moved this week to a farm near Meadow Grove. Carl Will has accepted a position in Judson's store. The Wakefield Home Guards gave a banquet for Albert Borg, who arrived from overseas. Joe Kinney is the first Sholes boy to arrive home from service. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Young of Wayne are conducting missionary meetings at the Swedish church in Concord. A movement is underway in the city to start a YMCA or similar project for service men. Mrs. S. A. Lutgen is substituting in the seventh grade for Miss Burson who is out because of illness of her father. Returns from the county in the Armenian and Syrian relief drive total $400, according to O. R. Bowen, chairman. Six of the students at the normal who have gone out to teach this month are receiving salaries of $90 and $100, which is unusually high. The rate of 6 cents for phone calls to Carroll, Winside and Wakefield will soon be raised to 10 cents.

25 Years Ago

Jan. 24, 1924—Ray Perdue and John Grier shipped a car of hogs to Sioux City Tuesday. Marlin Preston has accepted a position in the bank in Broken. Hefman Miller of Winside was shot in the hand when his rifle accidentally discharged when he set it down. A purse of money was gathered at the pavilion in Carroll Saturday for Homer Ross who was a crook back last fall when his car ran over a board meeting of fair managers and Mary Roebber entertained at a miscellaneous show for Esther Brammer last Wednesday afternoon. Esther Marten and Gurney Beneshoff were married Sunday. Henry and George Langenberg left Sunday for Denver on business. Everett Ring and family are moving this week to the place vacated by Fred Olson. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Erickson and family were at the W. C. Ring home "listening in" on the radio Thursday evening.

Shake Well Before Using by Bennett Cert
 If you spend a couple of years carefully collecting and nibbling down the funniest stories you hear, and if you then spend several months selecting the very best and serve them up with your own original wit, you are likely to wind up with a book of extremely funny stories. This is known as Cert's Law. It was a successful experiment with Try and Stop Me and has now become a scientific fact with the publication of Shake Well Before Using. There's little point in saying much else. The important thing is that there are more funny stories in this book than you can shake well before using. And you can get it out by yourself by opening this book to any page. Then you yourself will shake well before using.

Prep Seniors Choose Play

"Wind in the South" was chosen by a student committee of five and faculty advisers as the senior class play of 1949. The play, written by Edward Staadt, and published by the Northwestern Press, deals with a problem many families and communities are experiencing today. At the close of the war a German-American soldier brings his Italian bride home to an unsuspecting and hostile household.

The play will be presented March 31 at the college auditorium. Tickets will be held the first part of February. Laura Franklin is the supervisor and Mary Melis the student director.

The Sociology Class of Campus High School attended college convocation Tuesday, Jan. 11. They heard Dr. Burkhardt, president of the Norfolk Junior college and superintendent of the Norfolk schools, speak on the topic: "I've Taught for 25 Years and Still Like It."

In the text of his speech he compared his profession with other vocations and why he chooses to teach and why he enjoys teaching. Dr. Burkhardt's speech provided excellent material for the sociology notebooks which are to be handed in this week.

Student Preparation
 "Planning and Preparing Food" is the new unit in Home Economics class. They have set up several objectives which they hope to accomplish in this unit. These are to learn to make more nutritious and attractive meals; to learn to cook a variety of foods; to learn to manage time in meal planning, preparing and serving; to learn different methods of cooking; to learn how to prepare food for special occasions as birthday parties, evening snacks and holidays; to select food wisely; and to learn more about table settings and conversation.

The class is divided into three families, and each family plans a day's meals and figures the cost of the entire day's meals, making sure adequate amounts of the basic 7 are included for a well balanced meal. Each group is given a certain amount of money by which to plan meals without exceeding the budget.

The class has also been studying the different vitamins and food elements and their place in preserving good health. Dana Wootton is the supervisor.

To Publish Magazine
 A magazine will be published by the Campus high school journalism class in addition to the school paper, the Prepper, this month. The class, after debating whether or not to put short stories, poems, and art work in the Prepper, decided to edit a magazine solely for this purpose.

The literary editors, Virginia Denkinger, Donnabeth Bressler and Marjalyce Helleberg, will select the best short stories and poems to be printed. All the high school students are urged to submit their best work to these editors.

Donald Banister will draw the cover and select other art work for illustrations. The copyreaders will be Harriet Snips and Betty Bard.

Snip Spools Plans
 An announcement by Mr. Hassel that the game with Emerson which was to be played Tuesday, Jan. 11, was called off, brought disappointment to the students of Wayne Prep. The Emerson team could not get to Wayne because of bad roads.

The students had been looking forward to the game because the players were to wear their new suits for the first time and other activities had been planned.

Some of the college students had promised to help out in order to have a pep band for the game. Miss Way's baton twirlers planned to give a twirling exhibition that evening.

The cheerleaders were to wear their new outfits for the first time. The outfits consist of black circular skirts, black tights, and white letter sweaters worn over black tee shirts. Orange and black W's will be worn on the back of the sweaters, and orange anklets complete the outfit.

Name Prepper Staff
 Bonnie Gronc has been named editor for the January issue of the Prepper. Marilyn Price is news editor; Margie Conry, feature editor; and Don Banister, sports editor. The two copy readers for this issue are Donnabeth Bressler and Betty Bard.

Reporters are Jerry Ash, Donna Mae Shinar, Harriet Phipps, Marjalyce Helleberg, Marjalyce Helleberg and Barbara Jean Dawe.

English Classes
 American folklore is the unit being studied by the 10th English class. They have been studying about legends, cowboys, lumberjacks, sailors, negroes and the farming country. Some of the characters they have met during this unit are Pecos Bill, Paul Bunyan, John Henry and Old Stormalong. Each student is using material from reserved books and making a map, poster, or picture as his own individual project.

The class is being assisted by the practice teacher, Selma Dickerson.

The 11th English class is now studying the unit, American novel. The direction of Helen Thorcell, practice teacher. They are now reading "My Mortal Enemy" by Willa Cather. Each student is reporting on one novel.

Broken toes, mumps and snow, among other things, have kept students and student teachers out of school during the past week. Jimmie Joe Corral and Harold Surber were kept out by mumps; Edward Neimann missed several days after breaking two toes, and Gene Perry has been ill with the flu.

Bill Graves, English teacher, was unable to teach Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 10 and 11, because the snow storm made it impossible for him to return.

Visit C. of C.
 "Don't get in a rut" might be the lesson learned by the orientation class in a field trip to the Chamber of Commerce last week. John Kyl, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, explained what the organization is trying to do in the community of Wayne. The greatest emphasis was put on agriculture.

The class inspected an aerial map of Wayne. Mr. Kyl indicated that one portion of the map was the path made by an unruly calf, who traveled the same way every day.

The class as a whole is being interviewed concerning the vocations of the members. Miss Lynn is visiting interviewer.

Cactus Blooms
 The Christmas cactus in the back of the study hall at Wayne Prep has been looking nice since Christmas vacation. The plant has been on its pedestal in the study hall for about 12 years and has bloomed every year since then at Christmas time.

It was brought from Bloomfield to Wayne by A. F. Gulliver several years before he brought it to school. He kept it in his home until it became too large for a house plant and then brought it to school. Mr. Gulliver continues to take care of it at school and still waters it at regular intervals.

Biology Class Dissects Frogs
 Sophomores at Wayne Prep had an interesting biology class Thursday, Jan. 11. Each pupil was given a frog to dissect and find the parts which he has previously been studying.

Crabs and worms have also been dissected in the class.

Contest Closes
 Don Koll, vocational agriculture student, acquired the most points in the pest control contest, which ended last week. The Future Farmers of America sponsored the contest. Don was also the captain of the winning team, the Vigilantes; an effective name assumed by this team. The losing team was the Pest Pirates, they will entertain at the next Future Farmers of America meeting. Don Melniko, adviser, will be presiding chairman.

Study Civil War
 The American history class has just completed the study of the Civil War. In connection with the study, they saw the first two parts of the film, "Land of Liberty." These films trace the development of the United States from the time the country was drawn to the Civil War. Before the end of the semester, "Johnson and Reconstruction" will be shown to the class.

The chemistry and English literature classes had two visitors last Friday. Joan Nuss, home on vacation from Omaha, where she attends college, and Faye Echtenkamp, a Wayne State student.

The 12th bookkeeping class is beginning the Walker practice set this week. The practice set includes the opening entries to the post-closing trial balance. A unit test over three chapters was given Tuesday, Jan. 11. Bookkeeping is a one-semester course, and business arithmetic will probably be taught the second semester. The supervisor of the course is A. F. Gulliver.

Class Schedule Changes
 As the semester changes at Wayne Prep, there will also be a change in the schedule of classes. The bookkeeping class has completed its work, and if enough students are interested, a commercial arithmetic will be offered in its place. The sociology class will change to American government, advanced algebra to solid geometry, and orientation to world geography. The eighth grade general science class will change to industrial arts and the seventh grade industrial arts class to general science.

Chemistry Film
 The film, "Electrochemistry," was shown to Dora Woods' chemistry class Friday, Jan. 7. It made use of the cell and the battery to help the students understand that chemical energy can be transformed into electrical energy and electrical energy into chemical energy. Various terms and concepts were used to explain electrochemical phenomena. The film pointed out the large part played by electrochemical processes in modern industrial society.

Chorus Class
 Prof. Russel Anderson has been transcribing records of the chorus class and triple trio. In this way, he is helping to improve their technique in singing. The groups are working to prepare themselves for the coming musical contest in the spring.

"Dreamer's Life," a poem by Audrey Stevens, was awarded special mention in the Annual Anthology of High School Poetry association, and it has been accepted for publication.

Sixth Grade
 An interesting culminating activity of the science unit about minerals and rocks was the informal illustrated talk by Prof. Dale of the college last Monday. He loaned the students a collection of rocks and minerals to be exhibited during the remainder of the week.

Students of this grade participated in the program given by physical education department during the college convocation last Tuesday morning.

Fifth Grade
 The fifth grade has received its membership roll from the Junior Red Cross. Each pupil has made a contribution to this organization. The history class, which has been learning about the industrial revolution, saw a motion picture connected with this study.

Penmanship practice has centered around needed capital letters.

Fourth Grade
 Making rabbit doorstops, a sewing and painting project, was completed this week.

In a demonstration for Dr. M. B. Street's class, the children answered each other's geography study questions. Good workers distinguished themselves by careful reading.

Courtesy letters were written to Ted Bane during his absence.

Fourth grade Junior Red Cross contributions were $1.67.

Kenneth Dahl and Gale Kingston replaced Patty Denkinger and Carolyn Likens as game captains. Carolyn's team won the most games. Patty's team earned the highest total score.

Pictures showing the lumber industry were enjoyed.

Mr. Costersian's class came for a demonstration when the children told stories.

Second Grade
 With the first grade, we danced "Danish Dance of Greeting Carousels" and "The Thread Follows the Needle" at the college convocation Tuesday, Jan. 18.

We visited the college postoffice Thursday as a part of our communication unit. We bought stamps and mailed letters and packages.

Mr. Costersian's class visited our class this week and observed us writing letters to members of our class who are absent.

We have a Red Cross sticker in our window now which says that we are members of the Junior Red Cross.

Kindergarten
 Kenneth Westfall treated everyone on his birthday. The students dramatized the story of "The Gingerbread Boy" and drew a gingerbread man.

The students finished making the book about toys and enjoyed reading it to each other.

Wildcats Lose to Peru 39-48 Here Saturday

Doane college stands in the path of the Wayne college Wildcats for this Saturday night after Peru's Bobcats tripped the Wayne five 48 to 39 in their encounter Saturday night on the Wayne floor.

Coach Newt Kyle's men strengthened their grip on the conference crown by scoring 14 points while holding the locals scoreless. Wayne jumped to a 3-point lead in the first three minutes of play, but quickly dropped behind as Peru's Omer Meeker found the range for the blue and white and kept the Bobcats in the game the first half.

Two quick goals before intermission placed Coach Meek's cagers ahead 24 to 22.

A revived and revitalized Peru squad forged to a 12 point lead in the opening minutes of the second half as the Wildcats attempted unsuccessfully to bottle up the snifty Meeker.

Jack Baumert, Wayne's tall center, fouled out at this period to remove Wayne's potential scoring threat from the hole position.

A rally bogged down in the final minutes of play as the Peruvians drew away from the 40-35 score to tally 8 more points.

Wayne's cagers controlled the play most of the way but couldn't hit the hoop for the necessary points.

An estimated 1,300 fans observed the clash for conference supremacy.

The forthcoming duel between the Wildcats and Doane takes place Jan. 22 in the Wayne city auditorium.

Bears Batter Past Bloomfield, 45 to 33

Laurel The team that defeated Pierce's Bluejays received their first setback Friday night, Jan. 14, as the Laurel Bears crushed the Bloomfield Bees, 45 to 33, in the clash played at Laurel.

High scoring Prescott's 18 points was short of the necessary tallies to pull the Bees into the lead.

After a 7-7 first quarter score, Coach Gilliland's men turned on their scoring punch of Curtis and Garrison to rack up a 24 to 14 intermission lead.

Laurel's quintet remains undefeated both in and out of conference play with their nine straight wins.

Pierce Edges Wayne Quintet

(by Paul Einung)

A strong Pierce five edged out the local Blue Devils 35 to 33 in an exciting battle on the home court Friday. The out-of-towners put on a last period rally that gave them the victory.

Don Tietgen, Dick Baller and Dick Dion contributed 8 points in the first quarter while Pierce's Ferris swished four long field goals and Fischer made one total-10 counters.

The second period scoring was just the opposite with Baller shooting three foul shots. Al Cramer making one free throw. David Meyer shooting a set-up and Tietgen dropping in two field goals for 10 points. The opponents scored 8 from Luebe's 6 fallies and Zierke's field goal. This left the half-time score in a tie, 18 to 18. In this half Wayne made seven free throws out of seven attempts.

THE BLUE DEVILS started rolling in the third quarter and pulled out a 4-point lead, 25-23, from 3 points by Baller and two apiece by Warren Ellis and Don Tietgen. The score at the start of the last period was 25-22, Wayne.

Pierce slowly caught up with the Blue Devils and tied the game up again 27 to 27. From there on Pierce kept in the lead but Wayne was close behind. With the score 33 to 35, it looked like a chance for the Blue Devils to tie it up but time was running out and Pierce hugged the leather for life and death to the end.

THE EFFECTIVE defense on Don Tietgen, the Wayne center, kept him from cutting loose on his usual scoring sprint but he managed 11 buckets for high point honors. Dick Baller and Dick Dion each made 7. Baller's points came from free out of six free throws and one field goal. Dion dumped three for three plus two game shots.

Virgil Rohloff hurt his leg which had previously been injured during football season. He was unable to play the last half.

Box score follows:

Isom and Bonta iced the game for Carroll by dumping in a basket each during the final minute.

A 6 to 16 lead was quickly overcome by Concord's quintet; in the third quarter as Paul hit for 11 points for the losers.

Bonta was high man for Carroll while Lage was back in harness and stood out with good defensive play.

Bloomfield Batters Pierce Five, 31-22

Pierce—Pierce's Bluejays, currently ranked as No. 2 team in class B competition, were handed their first defeat by a school of ranking size Tuesday night, Jan. 11, the Bloomfield Bees puffed up a 31-22 victory.

Bloomfield led off in scoring and after tee-saw contest during the first half, led a 15-13 midway advantage.

Once more the Bluejays made their bid and failed as the Bloomfield five outdistanced their competitors in the final quarter.

Bloomfield led off in scoring and after tee-saw contest during the first half, led a 15-13 midway advantage.

Overtime play was necessary to break the 24-24 tie, and the Bears looped in the winning bucket. Jim Griggs led off with 14 points for the losers while Curtis collected 10 tallies for Laurel.

A second squad clash between the two teams showed a 14 to 13 score with the Laurelies on top of the scramble.

Hartington Loses Thriller to Creighton

Hartington Coach Darrold Bobier's ball squad lost a heart-breaker to Creighton on the Creighton floor Friday night, as a 16 to 16 tie was broken in the final minute to give the Creighton team an 18 to 16 win.

The game moved rather slowly throughout with few baskets being made by either team.

Score by quarters ran 3-5, 5-7, 13-14 and 16-18.

Battle Creek Wins Over Pilger High

Pilger—Coach Pi Page's netmen dropped a rough contest to Battle Creek, 37 to 25, in a clash at Battle Creek Friday night, Jan. 7.

Bartee led with 24 points for the winners and Asch and Musser shared honors with 8 and 7 points respectively for Pilger.

Pilger reserves took an easy 23 to 5 victory over the Battle Creek seconds.

Blue Devils Place Stress On Defensive Basketball

Defensive basketball probably is the main reason the Blue Devils of Wayne enjoy a record at present of five basketball wins against three losses. Wayne has an aggregate score of 274 points, while the opponents have been held to a total of 221.

The fact that the bulk of the Blue Devil offense thus far has been carried by one to two individuals probably has forced Coach George Bailey to emphasize possession type basketball with special stress on strong rebounding and good passing. He has had to attempt to hold the opponent's score to a few less points than Wayne's rather than go out and run with the opponents in an effort to score more points than the other team.

The personal foul column in the scorebook, however, tends to indicate that the Wayne team still has a long way to go before it can be rated good in the defensive department. The Blue Devils have fouled 146 times, compared to 129 by opposing teams. This, it is pointed out, is evidence that although the Blue Devils have been working on their defensive assignments, they still lack a lot of the know-how in effectively covering an opponent.

Wayne has a 461 free throw percentage to 442 for opponents. However, the opponents' margin of error has been greater since they have attempted 32 free throws than Wayne due to the greater number of Blue Devil personals.

Varsity records thus far:

| Player | gp | pt | tp |
|---------|-----|-----|-----|
| Atkins | 2 | 1 | 0 |
| Baller | 8 | 17 | 32 |
| Berry | 6 | 10 | 8 |

Hartington—The feature week-end game saw Laurel and Bloomfield, tied for the loop lead, meet at Laurel and Laurel won 45 to 33. Randolph and Plainview played a rouser which Randolph won in two overtime periods, 29 to 27. Creighton took Hartington in the final minute, 22 to 20 and Pierce went out of the league to whip Wayne, 35 to 33.

Mid-week game saw Bloomfield topple Pierce from the top bracket with a 31 to 22 victory; Plainview took Creighton in a tough one, 28 to 25, and Laurel downed Pilger outside the league, 48 to 36. The Randolph and Hartington fray here was postponed.

Stats of the week were Griggs of Plainview for his 18 points against Randolph and for making the winning basket in the second overtime period; Prescott for his 18 points against Lyons in the last half; his Bloomfield mates lost. Other high point scorers were: Curtis, Laurel, 12, and Garrison, Laurel, 10; Gentzler, Creighton, 16; and Stuckrath of Plainview, 14, in the game at Creighton.

Three Creighton game not reported last week Pierce won 29 to 28 in a hard fought battle.
