2 ways to hurry your Holiday phone calls

1 MAKE CALLS BEFORE OR AFTER CHRISTMAS EVE OR DAY
Long distance lines will be crowded most of Christmas Eve and Christmas Day—especially with many servicemen away at camp. A full force of operators will be on duty and every switchboard in service. We'll do our best to get all calls through, but some will surely be delayed—and others may not get through.
To avoid delays why not call the week-end between the holidays? You can take advantage of reduced rates on most toll calls after 6:00 P.M. and all day Sunday.

2 GIVE THE OPERATOR THE OUT-OF-TOWN TELEPHONE NUMBER
New operator toll dialing equipment lets many local operators ring directly the telephones in some 1500 U.S. cities. Your call may go through nearly twice as fast—if you call by number.

DEKALB 104 MEDIUM WEIGHT BIRDS... GOOD LAYERS This efficient type is bred primarily for egg production. Lays large cream-tinted eggs. Adult plumage dusty white in color with some black spotting. Mature birds between Leghorns and heavies in body size.	DEKALB 105 MEDIUM BODY SIZE... ANOTHER FINE EGG PRODUCER DeKalb 105 is between Leghorns and heavy breeds in size. Very good layers—most eggs are cream colored. Adult plumage is dusty white—washed with red on neck and wings. Birds feather rapidly and mature very early.
DEKALB 307 THIS IS A REAL DUAL PURPOSE TYPE Good egg producers... and profitable meat birds. Accepted on its own merits as an exceptional dual-purpose type. DeKalb 307 has made an enviable record wherever raised by farmers. Adult plumage is white with black in neck, wing and tail feathers.	DEKALB 308 HARD TO BEAT AS AN ALL-PURPOSE TYPE An excellent all-purpose type bred to come into production earlier than most dual-purpose breeds. Lays brown eggs. Males of this variety are barred. Females are black with gold coloring in neck feathers.

Bidding was heavy and spirited last Tuesday afternoon as one of the season's largest crowds turned out for Otto Rosacker's postponed farm sale. The pictures here show some of the scenes at the sale, another advertised in The Herald's Farm Sale service.

At left, Auctioneer T. J. Hughes (upper right) concentrates on selling a corn picker. At right, Clerk H. E. Hein seeks the name of the last buyer of the wagon jack. The photo at extreme right again shows Auctioneer Hughes asking bids on a disc. Owner Rosacker is at the lower right facing the camera.

The sale, originally scheduled for Nov. 26, was postponed because of blocked roads during the pre-Thanksgiving blizzard.

If you should look in the third grade door during music period you would see the children seated in small rocking chairs or on the floor around the fireplace singing Christmas carols.

Above the fireplace each child has a stocking with his name on it. In one corner is a small Christmas tree decorated with ornaments made by the children.

During the Christmas season, the desks are placed so that the children will face the gayly decorated bulletin boards. This week the children in the elementary grades will gather around the tree in the hall to sing Christmas carols.

Fourth Grade
The unit for study this month is "The Child of the Desert". The desert and study of date palm were given consideration this week.

A special list of thirty words needed in writing Christmas stories and poems was placed on the board. A test was given on these words and fifteen children made perfect scores.

Karen Wecker enrolled in the third grade Tuesday. She came from the Carroll Public school. The room enrollment was eighteen at the beginning of the school year and now there are 24 in the class.

The class was divided into five groups for Christmas story telling hours. Each child told a story.

Wayne High Drops Stanton, 41-35, in Home Opener

Blue Devils Grab Early Lead; Hold

The Wayne High Blue Devils won their home opener basketball game from Stanton Friday night, 41 to 35.

Coach Lloyd Horton's quint grabbed an early lead in the contest and held a 13 to 8 advantage at the end of the first quarter.

Six and a half minutes passed before the visitors got a field goal. But once they found the range, they were not at all shy about touching the hoop and pressed to within five points of the Blue Devils at the end of the third quarter.

Wayne's tight zone defense cooled Stanton's hopes. However, Claire Prokuek, tall center for the visitors, cracked the defense with Bill Palmer, Kennard Manske and Charles Price leading the way.

Palmer was high with 12 points and Manske and Price each potted nine counters. Price's all coming in the second half.

Coach Horton's offensive machine sputtered at times and he substituted freely trying to get the desired results. Many times the ball could have been worked in or passed off to better advantage.

Reserves Win, 37-26

The reserves had an easier time of it Friday night and copped a 37-26 game from Stanton's seconds. Paul Koplin and Dick Longie tied for scoring honors with nine points each and Neal Palmer hit for six. Coach Rod Love cleared the bench and all eagers saw considerable action.

Fire Chief Warns about Christmas Fire Hazards

Asks Citizens To Observe Precautions

The Wayne (Nebr.) Herald, Thursday, Dec. 18, 1952

KEEP CHRISTMAS MERRY

Wayne Fire Chief Paul Rogge warned today that combustible Christmas decorations introduce serious fire hazards during the current season, and asked all citizens to take extra precautions to avoid turning the holiday cheer into grief and tragedy.

To "Keep Christmas Merry," follow these safety rules and avoid a fire in your home during the Christmas season:

1. Choose a small tree — it's less dangerous than a large one.
2. Don't set it up until a few days before Christmas. Until then keep it outdoors.
3. Place it in the coolest part of the house, away from fireplaces or radiators, and don't let it block an exit.
4. Stand it in water, or use a live tree planted in a tub of earth.
5. Never use cotton or paper for decorations, on or around the tree.
6. Do not put electric trains under the tree.
7. Use only electric lights, never candles, and see that the wires are not frayed.
8. Provide a switch some distance from the tree for turning tree lights on and off. Don't plug or unplug them beneath the tree.
9. Throw away all gift wrappings as soon as presents have been opened. Don't let them pile up
10. Do not leave tree lights burning when no one is home.
11. If needles near the lights
12. When needles start to fall, turn brown, move the lights, take the tree down and discard it.

What Every CAR OWNER Wants For Christmas

Have Your CAR SAFETY CHECKED NOW!

Yes, on Christmas day . . . and every other day . . . trouble-free, care-free driving is what every car owner really wants . . . Easy starting plus smooth operation that will complete a short or long trip, just as it is planned.

Well, it can't be wrapped under the Yule tree, but it is easy to get. All you need to do is bring your car to Coryell's for a "checkup" or a "major operation." We have the mechanics to do the job.
