Hundreds of Wayne County Residents Now Protected Under the

AMERICAN REPUBLIC

Plans of Protection

Hospital - Surgical - Medical - Nursing

All residents of Wayne and Wayne County who qualify will have the opportunity to have the American Republic Plans of Protection. These famous Plans now protect many thousands of individuals and families against expensive hospital, surgical, nursing and doctor bills for either sickness or accident. The program to explain this protection to all residents of the county is now beginning and it will continue until all residents of the county have been contacted and the American Republic Plans of Protection explained to them.

Two Great American Republic Plans

PLAN "A"

- Hospital
- Surgery
- Nursing

This is the tremendously popular Hospital, Surgical and Nursing Plan. It now protects thousands and thousands of individuals and families. If you and your family are not protected under this Plan you may learn how it may be available to you if you qualify.

PLAN "B"

- Medical
- Surgical
- Nursing

This is the Plan that pays toward doctor bills in the home, at the doctor's office, in a clinic, in a hospital—in fact anywhere. It covers sickness, accident and delivery charge for childbirth. The benefits for doctor bills, operations and nursing will give added protection to the American Republic Hospital, Surgical and Nursing Plan or to any other plan of protection.

County-Wide Program

We Are Pledged to Interview All County Residents. The American Republic Plans of Protection Will Be Explained Individuals and Families

During the time necessary to contact all county residents, representatives will be interviewing individuals and families. The American Republic Plans of Protection will be explained by fully qualified, specially trained representatives. They are pledged to contact all residents and to make the plans available to all who qualify.

A Few Minutes Time Is All That Is Needed

Just a few minutes of your time is needed for you to receive full explanation of the Plans. The Representative who calls on you will arrange a time that is convenient for you to receive full information.

INCOME PROTECTION: Ask the representative who calls on you about the American Republic Income Protection Plans that give you a monthly pay check when you are sick or injured.

Here are a few reasons why it is important for you to hear a full explanation of the American Republic Plans:

- THEY ARE A SAFEGUARD AGAINST GOVERNMENT CONTROL OF HOSPITALS AND DOCTORS:
Socialized medicine is unnecessary for you when your family is protected under American Republic Plans.
- HOSPITAL AND MEDICAL CARE HAS BECOME TREMENDOUSLY EXPENSIVE:
If you or a member of your family has been recently hospitalized and has had expensive medical or surgical care you know the importance of an American Republic Plan to prepay the cost of this necessary but expensive care.
- ONE PERSON OUT OF EVERY TWO FAMILIES WILL BE A HOSPITAL PATIENT THIS YEAR.
The advanced medical techniques and the ultra modern hospital facilities are being used now more than ever to safeguard health and prolong life. If you or a member of your family takes sick or meets with an accident, you too, may become a hospital patient. And six out of every ten hospital patients require expensive surgical operations.
- YOU MAY PREPAY EXPENSIVE HOSPITAL, SURGICAL, MEDICAL AND NURSING CARE AT LOW COST.
American Republic Plans of Protection are low in cost. You will be surprised at the small monthly deposits to keep them in force to protect you and your family.

If You Already Have a Plan, Have You Enough Protection?

You possibly now have an American Republic Hospital and Surgical Plan, or you may have some other plan or be protected through your employment in a group plan of some kind. GET A MEDICAL PLAN, TOO!

REMEMBER—American Republic pays benefits direct to you, or to the hospital or doctor as you direct. Benefits are NEVER prorated or reduced on account or any other protection you may have or any payments you receive from any other source. A low cost American Republic Plan will give you the protection you need.

ERASING THE BLACKBOARD

At The Wayne County Schools

Each committee chose its chairman. We are studying the unit on "Making a Speech." We recorded our speeches Friday and then played them back so we might hear ourselves and learn our mistakes. We shall practice correcting our errors and in a week give another speech to see what we have accomplished.

Roger Hansen treated our room on his birthday. We are working written problems with fractions in arithmetic.

Wayne Prep . . .

All students at Wayne Prep had chest X-rays last week. Examinations were held for Junior High cheerleaders Friday. Those chosen were Marqueta Hill, Janice McCord, Donna Hughes and Marilyn Shupe.

At elections held Tuesday Karen Childs was elected president of the student council. Larry Berres and Bruce King were other senior candidates.

Mathematics

Seventh grade arithmetic class is working on decimals. Pupils in the eighth grade are studying measurements. Ninth grade algebra class has made some posters for the bulletin board. They are learning to solve equations. Those in the geometry class are setting up proofs.

Driver Education

Something new has been added to the driver education course. They have a new text book, "Sportsman Driving."

The driver's education course has been extended to 24 hours, including six hours behind the wheel. They also have 36 hours of classroom work.

The Following Students are on the List in the Course:

Jerry McPherran, Larry Kilday, Wesley Shubert, Ellis Dupsky, Garry Koll, Darrell Fuelberth, Judy Stevens, Barbara Hughes, Sally Schreiner, Gail Kingston and Donna Lorenzen.

Student Teachers are:

Bob Davis, Jim Kay and Dick Vogt. Anthony Netherland is supervisor.

Social Studies

World history class has been studying ancient civilization and Egypt and are now reading about Greece and Rome. They are keeping bulletin boards. The first committee, composed of Marilyn McCord, Laura Hamilton and Alice Fuoss, made an attractive bulletin board on ancient civilization. John Kessler, Betty Brooks and Mark Stringer are collecting material for the next display. Eugene Delaney is student teacher.

All social studies classes are stressing current events. The seventh graders have arranged a very attractive bulletin board.

American problems class has been studying the United States constitution. Members have also written notebooks on the constitution.

Music

Fred Vorce is the new music director. There is both a high school and grade school orchestra. High school chorus is planning an operetta in December.

The band, now composed of 38 members, will march in the college homecoming parade Oct. 15. Karen Childs is drum major. Sally Schreiner, Marilyn Shupe and Janice McCord will be majorettes.

English

Freshman English class has written and illustrated some original poems. They have given book reports in the form of three-minute dramatizations.

Junior English class is studying American literature. They are doing some research on lives of the authors they are studying.

Eighth English class gave a demonstration lesson for Dr. Street's secondary education class Thursday.

Journalism class is busy editing the first copy of their school paper, "Main Hews." They have had some representatives of annual companies visit their classes and have begun work on the 1956 annual.

Home Economics

Home Ed I has just finished a course in flower arrangement, which included a demonstration at the Wayne Greenhouse by Kent Halverson. Their new unit is "Good Grooming."

Future Homemakers of America now includes some boys. In a "Family Living" course there are several boys enrolled. The following boys are eligible to join FHA: Larry Kelley, Don Sherry, Wesley Shubert, Jim Hughes and Ted Balbe.

Kindergarten

There are two sections of kindergarten this year. The morning group is composed of 13 pupils with Virginia, Virginia Arthur and Lois Brummer as student teachers. The smaller group, meeting in the afternoon, has Kay Schmaldecke and Carol Spost as student teachers. These young ladies are working with the kindergarten with original Mother Goose pictures.

Kindergarteners have been talking about homes. They visited the greenhouse one afternoon.

First Grade

New student teachers for the first semester are Alice Jean Maurer, Colleen Phillips, Shirley Tryman and Carolyn Chusomelka. There are 31 first graders enrolled with three sets of twins.

Miss Simonson's elementary education class observed the first grade during their reading period Wednesday.

Second Grade

Second grade pupils have been studying about boats in social studies. They are making a large boat called "The Waterfront." It is eight feet long and four feet wide. They showed it to Miss Simonson and her class.

Third Grade

Children in the third grade are showing much enthusiasm about learning cursive writing.

Officers of the "Good English" club serve for a month. They are Stuart Bernthal, president; John Barr, vice president; and Jean Christensen, secretary. These people are in charge of a sharing hour every week.

Sixteen children had perfect spelling papers last Friday.

We are glad Linda Haas has the cast of her broken leg so that she can be with us again.

Fourth Grade

Fourth grade's enrollment includes nine boys and eight girls. The student teachers are Jean Ashby, Velma Hueting, Rita Malcolm and Norma Jean Nelson. Clifford Alderson is still absent with a broken leg.

Wednesday the class wrote an original song, "Today I Had the Hiccups!"

In social studies the class is studying the Roosevelt dam in Arizona. They are about to make a short tour of the United States. In arithmetic they are doing uneven division.

Fifth Grade

There are 11 girls and five boys in the fifth grade.

Art project is the making of a products map of the United States. In social studies they have completed the study of the New England states. Now they are making preparatory reports of the Middle Atlantic states.

Twice a week physical education takes the place of recess in the fifth grade schedule.

In health class each one is making a set of menus for the entire week.

Sixth Grade

Sixth grade gave a demonstration in social studies for Miss Simonson and her class.

Social studies class is making special reports on Egypt.

Jane Rosenbach is student teacher in the sixth grade.

Rural Schools . . .

District 25

Marian Dahlmar, teacher

Art class has decorated bulletin boards with leaves and squirrels. Our science discovery corner has been filled with insects, rocks and seeds.

In social studies, sixth grade made cavemen's tools and a cave-mock scene of clay, sticks and rocks. Fourth grade has been studying about early Indians of Nebraska and has made drums, rattles and covered wagons. First grade is making a booklet on home.

Ellen Westerhold observed her sixth birthday by treating the school to cupcakes.

Visitors in our room have been Kenneth Westerhold and Vivian Pioper.

Those who have finished library books to date are Ida Fay Koepke, Sandra Bird and Richard Morse.

District 22

We are reading Grimm's "Fairy Tales" for opening exercises. We have started a spelling contest which will end with a Halloween party. Our room is decorated with squirrels and leaves. Beginners have a bulletin board which they fill with their daily work.

District 19

Lila Dorman, teacher

Every day we pass health inspection we get to keep our suns looking happy. We have had some very happy suns.

Sharon Felt and Karen Granquist have lived on "Good Reading Street" longest. If we have a good reading lesson our window is open and we are looking out the window of our house.

For our spelling contest we each made a tepee. Each day we get a 100 we put a design on our tepee. We also made spelling booklets for our words on Friday.

In our arithmetic contest we each have a dog. If we hand in a good paper our dog is well. If not, our dog's head hangs and he's ill.

Karen Granquist and David Stringer have entered the "We Read for Fun" contest. When we make a book report we put a bookmark on the big book we made.

The big bulletin board is filled with signs of autumn. David brought some pretty pictures for this season.

One bulletin board has the title, "We're Proud of These." In order to get our papers on this board they must be a 100 and also be neat.

First and second grade enjoy feeding "Jumbo," the clown, candy bars. The name of the candy bar is a new reading word. "Peanut," the number elephant, is certainly getting filled with peanuts. "Spot" gets a bone each time we can give the letter of the alphabet on the bone.

We are always anxious to see what game we pull out of the game box.

Travel suitcases were made so we would have a place for our social studies papers. Fifth grade made a booklet of land and water formations.

Sept. 16 we visited the museum in Wayne. Many interesting and unusual articles were seen.

District 288

Delaine Miller, teacher

We are making a collection of insects in science, some of which are being mounted for display.

Garden flowers were brought to decorate the room.

Lois Nielsen brought a New Zealand calendar and stamps which she received from a pet pal last summer.

Bobby Adderson and Lois Nielsen treated pupils and teacher on their birthdays.

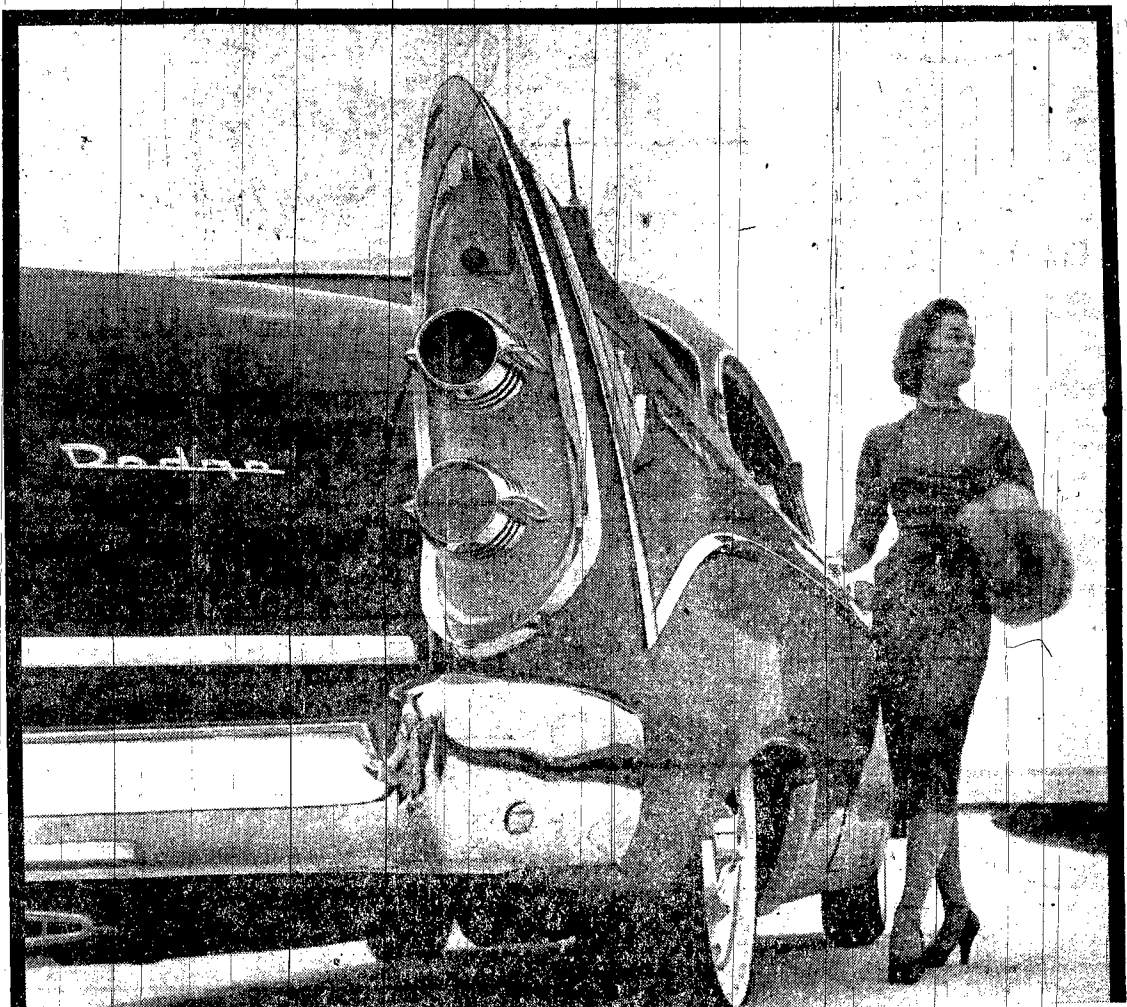

Years ago blue laws were passed to keep the old timers from painting the town red.

House and Site Must Blend Well For Best Effect

"Eighteenth century French and Italian homes extended their architectural lines, and construction materials, to outdoor living areas as we are doing today," says Robert Hale Ellis, a prominent western landscape architect.

"You can find the same character of design and materials in balcony balustrades, terraces and garden retaining walls as was used in these charming European interiors," Ellis points out. "and this marriage of house and grounds is the effect designers and landscape artists strive for in the contemporary residence."

Wood is extremely popular in modern home construction. Ellis states, and blends beautifully with almost any homestyle. Shrubs, climbing vines and plantings of almost any variety are enhanced by fir or red cedar fences and screen sections.

The living is easier in today's homes, for families are discovering the outdoors as an added living space. Here again, Ellis asserts, where maintenance must be kept at a minimum, sundecks built of fir 2x4s, laid on their sides with spaces between, can be built on a problem lawn where the terrain slopes or grass refuses to grow. Just hewn it off for a quick cleaning job.

Ellis suggests screens for dividing use sections or for separating various patio levels. Built of cedar louvers or designed similarly to the home's exterior siding, these screens not kiddies play area and entertaining spots for the grown-ups.

Wood is beautiful. Wood is utilitarian. Stained or left to weather naturally, it complements other building materials and blends with growing things. Its texture is pleasing and its flexibility allows it to perform tasks no other material may accomplish.

A Stitch in Time
Smart home owners know the old adage a stitch in time saves nine greatly applies to home maintenance and repair. The little job today, if not taken care of, becomes the major repair job in a few short years. In every community we see older homes, some 100 years old, still well preserved and livable because they have been well cared for through the years. Out in Oregon and Washington, homes built of native fir framing and siding lumber by pioneers are still in excellent condition although in use since the 1880s and earlier.

Reflecting Today's Trends in Small Home Construction

The Wayne (Nebr.) Herald, Thursday, October 6, 1955

Three Basic Types Meet Most Needs

Typical of most popular trends in small home construction as reflected from the activities of the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn., are the three homes

Construction Plans

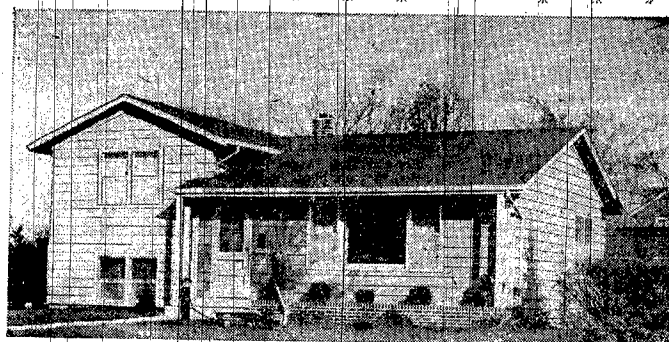

Construction plans for houses on this page as well as many others designed to suit almost every conceivable requirement and taste are available to prospective home builders in the United States from the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn.

The Bureau was formed in 1946 by J. E. Erickson and W. A. Nienengarten, two eminent mid-western architects, for the express purpose of specializing in designs of small homes for the average American family.

Plans designed by the bureau are endowed with a flexibility that makes them readily adaptable to each home builder's particular desires as far as details are concerned, under the supervision of a local architect and builder.

The bureau responds promptly to requests for information. More than 400,000 inquiries have been answered by the bureau. Plans and specifications have been shipped to prospective home builders in all 48 states, all Canadian provinces, Alaska, Hawaii, The Philippines, South America, Europe and Africa.

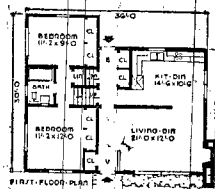

Each represents a functional meeting of its owner's requirements as described in terms of size and character of the home site, living habits of the family, its building budget and other pertinent factors.

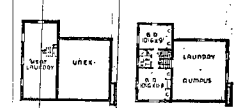

SPLIT LEVEL HOUSE constructed from Design B-284 (see plans below) met owner's need for four-bedroom house on a narrow, level lot. Same basic design can be adapted to needs of family requiring only two bedrooms. See plans below.

FIRST FLOOR plan for Split-Level Home (above), Design B-284.

GROUND FLOOR plans for Split-Level Home (Design B-284). Plan at left above is designed for owner requiring only two bedrooms. It provides for basement under bedroom wing only. Alternate plan at right provides for two additional bedrooms and a full basement.

The Split-Level
The problem of the owner of the split-level home (Design B-284) was to build a four-bedroom house on a narrow, level lot without making it two stories.

A one-story plan with four bedrooms would require an area out of proportion to the lot. He therefore chose Design B-284, a four-level plan with a ground area of only 951 square feet. This gave him the four bedrooms he needed along with space for laundry and rumpus room in the basement under the living room and kitchen.

Changes in details included the elimination of the fireplace and vertical bedwood on the front of the house and the substitution of a different type of picture window.

Ground floor plan B-284-A affords an alternate choice, when two bedrooms will suffice. In this version, there are three levels, with basement under the bedroom wing only. The living room and kitchen are on a concrete slab.

Exterior finish of this house, as set forth in the original specifications, includes bevel siding, vertical redwood, asphalt shingles and face brick chimney and planter. All rooms are reached from the rear hall through a concrete slab.

Space is provided in wardrobe closets, linen and coat closets.

Ground area is 951 sq. ft. and cubage is 16,683 cu. ft. for Plan B-284 and 12,071 sq. ft. for Plan B-284-A.

Expansion Attic
The owner of the house built from Design D-222 found in this plan the answer to his need for a large attic, which can later be finished off into a third bedroom as the growing needs of his family may dictate.

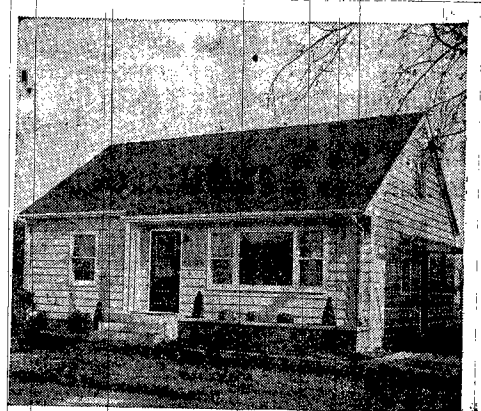

A comparison of the photograph with the elevation sketch shows how closely the plans were followed and indicates how attractive even a small rectangular house can be made by inexpensive means.

The first floor comprises a living room, two bedrooms, and a kitchen-dining and bathroom. Adjoining bathroom and kitchen with laundry directly below, reduce the cost of the plumbing installation.

Exterior finish is wide siding, asphalt shingles and planting area under picture window. Ground area is 832 sq. ft. with cubage of 17,888 cu. ft.

Single-Level House
The largest percentage of homes being built today call for three bedrooms and Design C-132 meets this requirement in a house that has all living facilities on one level. (Picture and floor plan on page 21)

The site on which this house was built is a corner lot and the owner added a fire-way connecting the utility room with a garage, with driveway from the side street. Otherwise the working drawings were faithfully followed except for the minor details of painting shutters on the bedroom window and using a paneled front door.

EXPANSION ATTIC provides space for extra bedroom which can be finished off later in this house constructed from Design D-222.

Features of the plan include fireplace with looks-belves, living-dining room combination, vestibule with coat closet, corner sink, kitchen-dining space and ample closet space. Cool, Comfort
To keep a home cooler in summer, get rid of the heat and noise created by cooking and laundering. An exhaust fan above the kitchen range will take the heat from meal preparations and blow it out-of-doors.

Pick Right Grade of Lumber and Reduce Cost of Your Job

Your lumber dollar can go twice as far if you select just the right grade and kind of wood for the job you have in mind. i.e., the lowest grade suitable for the project.

Most general construction jobs and home workshop projects use softwood lumber in which the best grades are called "select" and the lower grades "common."

The top select grades are clear or almost clear, while lowest common grades have the highest proportion of knots or other markings.

If you want the very highest quality of lumber for interior or exterior finish, you would buy A or B select. However, C and D select grades also serve these purposes and can be utilized wherever there is no special need for the work to have perfect uniformity of lumber. All the select grades take both paint and natural finishes well.

The common grades, designated No. 1, No. 2, etc. are used for ordinary construction and utility purposes; also, where their knots and other natural characteristics of wood are valued for their decorative effect, as in paneling and other finish work. The better common grades serve as finish paint grades.

Generally speaking, if the place where you are going to use the lumber will be concealed, or if utility is the main consideration, use the lower common grades. If you want a good looking finish paint job, use the select grades or the upper grades of common.

We're Inviting You To Our OPEN HOUSE FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7

The family is the source of America's strength . . .
it's decisions chart the course of America's future.
Our freedom will remain secure so long as every family has the right to know the truth . . .

VIGILANTLY WE GUARD THIS RIGHT

Freedom of the press is essential to the preservation of a free democracy. Only insofar as every family has unhampered access to the truth, can it form judgments and act promptly and wisely to protect its priceless heritage of opportunity, liberty and justice for all. Your newspaper is dedicated to safeguarding your "right to know" upon which all your other American rights so largely depend. It will relentlessly fight any infringement on this right . . . will brook no interference with its steadfast purpose to bring you "the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth."

Guided Tours For Groups . . .

We invite everyone to come in and inspect our plant in operation Friday. We will have guided tours for groups. Teachers who wish to have their classes make the tour are asked to schedule their groups so they will not have to wait. Phone 130 for times.

It is National Newspaper Week Oct. 1-8. We feel too many folks have never seen a printing plant in operation and we want you all to be our guests during our Open House Friday, Oct. 7. The plant will be in operation with all personnel at their regular jobs, so come in. Let's get better acquainted.
