Constant Flame

Kitchen Bridal Shower, Teen Party and Blue Berry Dessert

Guests at your next kitchen party will "oh" at this. Make big loaf cakes with white or yellow cake mix. Frost with chocolate. Top with pastry cream, cream, nuts, raisins, spices and spoons on top in white frosting. Mighty clever refreshments.

Teen Parents... might welcome this tip—Last June parents of Richland, Minn., and school officials invited graduates to a delicious dinner in a restaurant one-hundred miles away. Everyone traveled by train! Parents' tea and students returned in their cars for breakfast. Lots of fun, no accidents!

Who is Constance Flame? This question arrives in my mail bag almost every day! I'm a homemaker (just like you) and I represent the Northern Natural Gas Company... the folks who supply your local gas company with natural gas.

We Doff Our Bonnet We salute this suggestion from Gertrude A. Franklin of Minneapolis, Minn., for her Blue Berry Dessert: Mix together 1/2 cup brown sugar, and 1/4 cup butter. Bake in bottom of tin 10 minutes at 375 degrees. Now, with your beater right in a double boiler mix 2 eggs, 1/2 cup sugar and three 3-oz. packages soft cream cheese. Cook till thick. Spread on crust. Bake 15 minutes at 375 degrees and cool. Bring to a hot oven at 350 degrees. Melted. Serve the delicious chocolate-covered crackers with tea.

Quick 'n' Fancy Miss Theresa Hill of Robbinsdale, Minn., suggests you place thin chocolate mint patties on Graham crackers. Press them into your oven at 350 degrees. Melted. Serve the delicious chocolate-covered crackers with tea.
