Wayne High...

Second Grade
Sammy Jensen, District 88, is a new pupil in second grade. This makes a total of 37.

Visitors during the week were Mrs. Neil Goodell, Mrs. Leo Swinney and Mrs. William Kemp.

Fourth Grade
We were happy to have Cheryl Lessmann join us again after an eight-day illness.

The fourth grade stuffed paper sacks with paper and painted them to resemble pumpkins.

Twenty-one of our 33 pupils received a perfect score in spelling Friday.

Mrs. Lee Swinney visited our room this week.

Fifth Grade
Linda Corbit and Patty Perdue treated their classmates in honor of their birthdays this week.

Business letters were written to chambers of commerce in interesting cities which we have studied. Replies have been received and reported on by a large number of the class.

Holly Willert, Jerry Ashton and Nancy Wolters brought flowers for our room. Mrs. Joe Corbit visited Wednesday.

New captains and teams were chosen for our second spelling contest. Kenny Marra and Sandra Olds are the new captains. Janice Ahlman, Steve Barjenbruch, Ricky Borhoff, Diana, Diamond, Jayne Echtenkamp, Stephanie Engle, Steve Fabrenkrog, Sally Fisher, Corliss Guern, Bruce Jorgensen, Kenneth Marra, Sandra Olds, Kenneth Paulson, Patty Perdue, Linda Seymour, Kenneth Soden, Eddie Sommerfeld, Chuck Thompson, Nancy Van Andel, Dabbi Wrightman and Nancy Wolters had perfect scores in the spelling test Friday.

Sixth Grade
Jackie Bergt, Sonia Anderson, and Myra Walker brought bouquets of fall flowers for our room.

Mickie Atkins treated the class to candy bars Friday for his birthday.

Judy Simmer brought a pair of Swedish dolls dressed in Swedish costumes to school. We are studying Sweden and other Scandinavian countries in geography.

For the past six weeks, our class has had no tardiness. The following pupils have not been absent during the first six weeks: Sonia Anderson, Mickie Atkins, Jackie Bergt, Renee Gildersleeve, Wanda Hofeldt, Lois Jensen, Sandra Jorgensen, Cheryl Marsh, Judy Simmer, Harold Thompson and Penny Witmer.

Connie's Column

Costume Theme

Halloween Tradition, Hamburger Pie and Stretching Tiny Closets

It's worlds of fun to start a Halloween tradition. Like trotting the little ones off to school with their big patch of Halloween goodies for their friends. Try your hand at sketching pumpkin faces on chocolate-frosted cookies or cupcakes. The children get the credit. And you'll be their heroine.

Easter Washdays
Your washday friend, the new gas clothes dryer, is built for the weather! Before you're a washday older, see it yourself at your local gas company or gas appliance dealer.

Hamburger Pie...
As Mrs. William Powell of Minneapolis makes it: Brown hamburger and chopped onions together. Toss in a can of green beans and tomato soup. Pour the mixture into a baking dish and spread mashed potatoes on top. Sprinkle paprika over all, and let it toast in a 350-degree gas oven for about half-an-hour.

A Lot in a Little Space
Just picture that tiny kitchen closet of yours with its shelves built on the back and the side rails lined with ladders of shelves. The shelves take beautifully to all your cleaners and polishes. And the handy paper-holds trays, many tools as well.

Pilot on the Pipeline
Aren't you ever frustrated in your kitchen when you're trying to get a good meal on the table? Well, now you can have a pilot on the pipeline to help you. The new pilot on the pipeline is a handy little device that fits into your kitchen cabinet and holds your cooking utensils in a neat, organized way. It's a real pilot on the pipeline to help you get your meals on the table in a jiffy.

In the weekly spelling mastery test, the following had perfect scores: Sonia Anderson, Mickey Atkins, Nancy de Preece, Lynna Mau, Judy Simmer, Colleen Willert and Penny Witmer.

Eighth Grade
In social studies we are beginning the unit on revolutionary war. In science we are beginning the unit on how the earth's surface changes. In math we had a quiz on reading a 24-hour clock. In language we have been writing letters of all kinds. In physical education we have been jumping on the trampoline. In music we are learning a new song in Latin.

Jesse Miller, teacher at the University of New Mexico, sent us a cotton plant which was grown on her farm.

Jerry Weiershauser has been absent because of sickness.

Rural Schools...
District 29
Mrs. Irene Koch, teacher
We have nine pupils enrolled this year. First Grader Lorence Johnson completed his first reading book last week. Leo Nielsen and Randall-Johnson are having an auto reading race. They are tied at present.

Duane Thies and Larry Gamble, eighth graders, are studying fractions, decimals and the metric system. Charlene Johnson had an all-time perfect score in spelling the past six weeks. Fourth and fifth grade language classes are learning to write letters.

Leo Nielsen treated us on his birthday. Supl. Gladys Porter visited us recently.

It's comparatively easy to give up, but it takes grit to keep up. Character allows a man to be trustworthy on his own account. History has no place for a man who acquires nothing but wealth. Hope is a common good. It lingers when everything else is gone.
