The enrollment by classes is: Kindergarten, 55; first grade, 43; second grade, 49; third grade, 53; fourth grade, 39; fifth grade, 42; sixth grade, 62; seventh grade, 66; eighth grade, 65; ninth grade, 104; tenth grade, 113; eleventh grade, 93; twelfth grade, 74. At Carroll the enrollment is: Kindergarten, 11; first grade, 11; second grade, nine; third grade, nine; fourth grade, nine; fifth grade, eight; sixth grade, 14. All seventh and eighth grade students in the district are attending classes in Wayne this year.

Winside Classes Start With Enrollment of 371

Winside High School and Elementary School classes began last Monday with 371 students, according to Superintendent Wayne Gesaroth. This is one student less than last year.

Enrollment according to grades: Kindergarten, 25; first grade, 25; second, 20; third, 27; fourth, 33; fifth, 26; sixth, 30; seventh, 31; eighth, 26; freshmen, 33; sophomores, 30; juniors, 28; seniors, 28. Junior high and high school classes are being held in the new school building.

School bus drivers have been appointed. They are Fred Brader, Alfred Miller, Lyle Vonasall, Alfred Wagner, William Deiderickson, Wesley Boylson, George Alfred Wagner and Mrs. Don Wacker.

Cooks for the newly-remodeled kitchen and dining area are Mrs. William Wylie, assisted by Mrs. Fenske and Mrs. Allen Koch.

High school class officers were elected Tuesday. Freshmen—Reed Wacker, president; Bob Dangberg, vice president; Judy Walker, secretary; Connie Jones, treasurer; Janie Bobek, news reporter.

Sophomores — Sue Ann Glass, president; Jackie Jeffery, vice president; Sandra Flink, secretary; Kay Greis, treasurer; Randy Janke, reporter.

Juniors — Gene Langenberg, president; Randal Bergstadt, vice president; Linda Wittler, secretary; Dean Mann, treasurer.

Seniors — Tom Iversen, president; Robert Hamm, vice president; Bill Wylie, secretary; Dale Jaeger, treasurer.

Classes added to the curriculum this year are German, taught by Mrs. Gertrude DeBar, and Spanish, taught by Mrs. William Schmitt.

In Trade School Course

Dallas Longe, Wayne, has enrolled in an automotive mechanics course at Universal Trades School, Omaha. He began classes yesterday.

FIREMEN SAVED THE BARN on the Merlin Frevert farm south of Wayne Wednesday as piles were touched off by sparks from a field that was being burned nearby. Wayne firemen fought the blaze most of the afternoon.

Twenty Faculty Members Join WSC this Semester

Twenty-two newcomers joined the Wayne State College faculty as the 1963-64 year opened this week. Two of them are chairmen of divisions—Dr. Warren Williams, succeeding Dr. J. R. Johnson in social sciences, and Dr. Pat Ryan replacing Dr. Roy Riggs in languages.

Dr. Johnson, senior member of the faculty in tenure (he came to Wayne in 1935), will continue in full-time teaching of history. One of the state's best-known historians and a frequent speaker before many organizations, Dr. Johnson is chairman of the Nebraska Historical Land Marks Council, an office he has held since the council formed about three years ago.

His successor as chairman received the Ph. D. degree from the University of North Carolina and came to Wayne from Hope College, Holland, Mich.

Dr. Ryan earned his doctorate from Yale University and formerly taught at California Polytechnic College and the University of Arizona. While in Arizona he edited the state's historical journal.

Stanley Wills, assistant professor and director of research, is a former assistant to the director of the Colorado State College Pakistan Project in Dacca, East Pakistan. He is a candidate for the Ed. D. from Colorado State College.

Besides Dr. Williams, the social sciences division has three other newcomers. Dr. Leslie Zeleny, professor of sociology, who retired as chairman of the social science division at Colorado State College and came to Wayne, is the author of several college texts and numerous articles. His doctorate is from Minnesota.

Dr. Gerald Hansen, assistant professor of political science, formerly taught at the College of Southern Utah and received his Ph. D. from the University of Minnesota.

Dr. Ryan announced (Framus), instructor in geography, has his master's from the University of Kansas and comes from Lawrence, Kan.

New in the division of science and mathematics are Dr. S. E. Tamburo and Dr. Leonard Storm, both assistant professors of biology, Richard Miller, assistant professor, and Guy Hale, instructor, both in mathematics.

Tamburo formerly taught at Florence State College, Alabama, and had a doctorate from West Virginia University. Storm earned his Ph. D. from the University of Arizona. Miller has a master's from North Dakota State University and formerly taught at Wisconsin State College, Superior.

Hale received his master's from Missouri. In the business division there are two new faculty members, Dr. Harold Johansen, associate professor, and William Filter, instructor. Johansen, with a Ph. D. from the University of Iowa, also will assist the dean of administration. Filter has an M. B. A. degree from the University of Iowa.

Newcomers in the languages division, in addition to the chairman, are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pogue, assistant professor and instructor in English, respectively, and Paul Toepfer, instructor in French. Pogue has a master's from Kansas State Teachers College and Mrs. Pogue has a master's from Missouri University. Both are doctoral candidates at Missouri. Toepfer received a master's and did additional studies at Kansas.

The fine arts division has three new men, Dr. Earl Loessel, assistant professor of music, and James Burull and Donald Cain, both assistant professors of speech.

Loessel, with an Ed. D. degree from Michigan University, formerly taught at Handly High School and Delta College, Bay City, Mich. He will take over direction of the college choir in addition to other teaching duties.

Burull is a Ph. D. candidate at the University of Wisconsin and taught at Lakewood School, Madison, Wis. Cain and Burull both have Wisconsin master's degrees and Cain is a Ph. D. candidate at Michigan State.

Harvey McLean, assistant professor of education, is a Ph. D. candidate at the University of Iowa. Also in the education division is Mrs. Viola Hartman of Wayne, part-time instructor at Hahn School, supervising the kindergarten. She was an August graduate of Wayne.

Returning as Hahn third grade supervisor is Mrs. Rachel Doughty, who has been on leave of absence in Missouri for a year.

Two new librarians are Smith Richardson, who has a master's from Oklahoma University, and Miss Wilma Furchert, a Wayne State graduate who has a master's from Denver University and formerly was a librarian at Kearney State.

In addition to the regular faculty, there are ten graduate assistants, nine of them new this fall. The returning assistant is Mrs. Marie Skokan, in Hahn School foreign languages.

Opportunities for Entries in Areas Farther from Wayne in Expansion Drive

Chance for People Farther From Wayne to Earn Prizes

Several communities farther from Wayne are without a representative in the Wayne Herald's Expansion Drive. This means a big opportunity for someone to earn hundreds of dollars in prizes. Extra votes are given on new subscriptions thus allowing those farther from Wayne equal opportunity to earn prizes.

4-H Beef Sale At 8 p.m. Friday

The 1963 sale of Wayne county 4-H Baby Beef will start at 8 p.m. Friday night at the Wayne Sale Barn. The animals will be brought to the Sale Barn during the early afternoon and judged to fit them into a selling program. Each animal will then be appraised by a buyer and this bid price will appear on the selling program. This will be the "starting" bid when the animal is shown.

About 45 animals will go through the ring this year. The animals will be sold to the buyer at the Sale Barn if the bidder does not desire to keep the animal.

Country Club Tourney For Members Sunday

The annual Wayne Country Club membership tournament will start at 8 a.m. Sunday. All members are eligible to compete. The tournament consists of 27 holes, nine of match play and 18 medal play.

The handicaps of the members who competed in the Golf league will be used to determine the flights in which they will play. Members who do not have an established handicap are asked to contact Don (Bump) Hansen before Friday.

The handicaps will be used for flight placement only and will not count in the 27 holes for total. The course will be closed for the tournament. Lunch will be served at the club house.

County Bond Sales Over 50 Percent Quota Now

Wayne County residents purchased $30,389 worth of Series E savings bonds during July, according to Henry Ley, volunteer county chairman. Through July, sales have amounted to $245,500 or 54.9 percent of the 1963 county quota.

In this region, Cedar county leads with 63.9 percent of its quota while Wayne is second, Thurston third with 53.3; Dakota fourth with 50.6 and Dixon fifth with 43.7.

Note Farm Incomes Higher For Wayne Countians in '62

Farmers in Wayne County were better off last year, from an income standpoint, than were farmers in most parts of the United States. Their overall receipts, on a per capita basis, were above average, according to a national report on farm incomes.

They were able to produce and market more despite their reduced acreage, than they had in other years. The gain in production is attributed to more efficient operation, made possible by the use of highly-mechanized farm equipment.

Just how the local farm community made out, compared with others, is detailed in the annual report on farm incomes, issued by the Standard Rate and Data Service. It presents figures for all sections of the country.

It shows that gross farm receipts in Wayne County during 1962 amounted to $27,418,000, as against the previous year's $27,349,000.

Expressed in terms of the local farm population, it was equivalent to $6,231 per person.

This topped the returns reported for most areas of the United States, where they averaged $2,989 per farm resident. It exceeded, also, the $4,477 in the State of Nebraska. The figures on income take into account all receipts, including the cash proceeds from farm marketings. Government payments and the value of home-grown products that are consumed on the farm.

Of the amount received from farm marketings, Department of Agriculture figures indicate that 11 percent of it came from the sale of crops and 89 percent from the sale of livestock, poultry and dairy products. Nationally, according to Government reports, the face of Farming continues to change. The drive by farmers to increase their acreage goes on, forcing the price of rural land higher and higher.

Herald Returns to Former Publishing Time in Next Issue

This is the final issue of the Wayne Herald to be published on Wednesday. From now on the Herald will reach the subscribers in the mail Thursday, instead of Wednesday.

The call list at the Herald will be available Wednesday afternoons.

In the experiment of publishing the Herald at an earlier date, it was found that too much news was delayed too long to be of real interest. Also, it was not economically feasible to publish at the early date.

Therefore, look for your Herald to be delivered Thursday.

Polling Places for Wayne ASCS Election Announced by Mohr

The Wayne County Community ASCS Committee election will be held Sept. 23. Voters may cast their ballots between 7:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. in the precincts in which they live.

County ASCS Committee chairman John Mohr listed the following polling places: 1A Brenna, School District 23; 2B Chapin, School District 62; 3C Deer Creek, Farmers' State Bank, Carroll; 4D Garfield, School District 55; 5E Hancock, Winside Legion Hall; 6F Hoskins, Town Hall, Hoskins; 7G Hunter, ASC Office, Wayne; 8H Leslie, School District 25; 9I Logan School District 1; 10J Plum Creek, Altona Store; 11K Sherman, Martin's Barber Shop, Sholes; 12L Strahan, School District 51; 13M Wilbur, School District 61.

The Community and County ASCS Committees have the responsibility of the administration of such national farm programs as the Agricultural Conservation Program, Feed Grain Bases, Price Support Programs, Soil Bank Program, and others. Community and County Committees have many important decisions to make.

Your vote is important in deciding how your farm programs are to be carried out and administered in your county. Your choosing of capable eligible farmers will make for a strong farm program at the community and county level. The administering of a program in your county is as effective as your choice in choosing capable men to represent your interests in the National Farm Program. Vote for men who are willing and able to assume the responsibility of the office.

Go to your precinct voting place where the nominations and election will be made by secret ballots. Your newly elected community chairman will also be the delegate to the County Convention to be conducted the afternoon of Monday, September 30, at the ASC Office. Here they vote by secret ballot to elect the members of the County Committee.

The election will be conducted by the incumbent Community Committee. It is important that the elections are conducted in such a manner that committees elected are as representative as possible of the farmers they serve and to reflect credit upon the committee system and the department.

Area Financial Meet Held by Scout Leaders

A Boy Scout area financial campaign training meeting was held in Wayne Monday at the Izaak Walton room.

Norris Weible, Wayne, area chairman, said the meeting took in five towns in the Covered Wagon Council: Wisner, Pilger, Stanton, Winside, and Wakefield.

MARKETS

Social Security Aid

Persons receiving social security benefits, who change their address, should notify the social security office, as well as the post office, according to James Hoffman, field representative of the Norfolk office. Hoffman will be in Wayne Thursday, Sept. 12, at the office of the clerk of the district court at the court house from 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Senator Hruska To Speak in Allen

Roman L. Hruska, U.S. Senator from Nebraska, will speak at the high school auditorium in Allen, Saturday, at 8:00 p.m.

This "Report From Congress" is open to the public without charge and is being sponsored as a public service by the Dixon County Farm Bureau. The entire evening will be centered around Senator Hruska.

Both old and new subscribers will appreciate the opportunity to subscribe to the Wayne Herald now while a cash saving can be made.

The territory is divided into three districts with five cash prizes to be awarded in each district including two of the big major awards.

The vote value of new subscriptions is several times that given for renewal subscriptions, giving those in the outlying territories an equal chance on the major awards. Each worker is well paid for his or her efforts each day at the time subscriptions are turned into the office.

Those who are reading about this unusual offer and thinking how nice it would be to win one of the prizes offered should not wait another day but come to the Wayne Herald office or phone 375-2600 without obligation in any way.

If not convenient to come to the office, clip the information coupon on the campaign page of the paper today and mail it properly filled in. This does not obligate you in any way and you owe it to yourself to learn the details.

The campaign office at the Herald will be open until 9 p.m. each day except Sundays through Sept. 21st.

Silver Dollar Nights Total Reaches $250

August Haase, Winside, missed winning $200 by not being in a participating merchants store during Wayne's Silver Dollar Night Drawing Thursday evening.

He did, however, receive $10 through the mail as a consolation prize.

To be eligible for the drawing, you must be registered with the Chamber of Commerce. This can be done by registering just once with any participating merchant. Then you must be in one of the merchant's stores when the winner is announced at 8 p.m. each Thursday.

This week the drawing will be for $250.

Two Wayne Students Get Scholarships at UN

Donna Echtenkamp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Echtenkamp, Wayne, and Robert Boeckenhauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boeckenhauer, Wayne, both have been awarded scholarships at the University of Nebraska for their freshman year.

Miss Echtenkamp received a gift-scholarship and loan-scholarship while Boeckenhauer received a loan-scholarship and a work-scholarship.

AN OMAHA FRESHMAN, Susan Raduenz, has received her second scholarship at Wayne State College. She is pictured receiving from Val Peterson the Wayne State Foundation's new award — $300 for the year — given to the incoming freshman who scored highest on the ACT test and ranked in the top 10 per cent of his or her high school class. Miss Raduenz, an Omaha North High graduate, already had received a scholarship made available to her school for its participation in the Wayne student-teaching program. This award gives half tuition for eight terms. Foundation President Peterson also announced a $300 grant to a faculty member, Dr. Robert Clayton, for a research project. He is preparing a college text for a course in anatomy and physiology.

Wilma Marra, Darrell Moore Married At Wayne St. Paul's Lutheran Church

Wilma Marra, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer P. Marra, Wayne, and Darrell Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilard Moore, Carroll, were married August 30 at the St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Rev. R. E. Shirk officiated at the double ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with white gladioli. Michael Karel sang, accompanied by Antony Garchik.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional gown of silk organza and Swiss embroidery over mist taffeta. The slim, sculptured bodice was styled with a bateau neckline overlaid with applied motifs and embroidery traced with seed pearls. The belled floor length skirt was garlanded with similar motifs and swept into a chapel train beneath a small French bow. Her bouffant butterfly veil of imported silk illusion was caught by a scalloped crown of seed pearls and aurora borealis crystals. She carried cascading white roses.

The bride's sister, Irene Marra, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sandy Nelson, Carroll, and Marilyn Nuernberger, Wayne. Kim Goodfellow, St. Paul, Minn., was junior bridesmaid. They wore street-length gowns of powder blue, taupe taffeta. The senior attendant wore matching tucked pill boxes with shadow veils, and the junior attendant wore a matching headband. They all carried cascading gladioli.

Wisner Uses First Quarter TD to Down Wayne Eleven

Wisner High's Bulldogs took advantage of a first quarter situation and scored for the only touchdown of the game Friday night in downing Wayne, 6-0.

Wayne had fourth down in their own territory when Doug Manske went back to kick. The pass from center went over his head and Wisner took over on downs on the Wayne four yard line. Two plays later Wisner's fullback, Dave Ott, plunged through for the TD.

Wayne's only threat came in the fourth quarter when Jerry Granquist moved the ball from the 40 yard line to the 15. The next play, however, resulted in a penalty against the Blue Devils which put the goal out of range.

Running was Wisner's main offense as they passed once and that was incomplete. They gained 150 yards with back Bob Hurst carrying the ball for most of the gains. The Devils gained 68 yards, but divided it up between aerial assault and ground attacks.

Penalties continuously hampered the game as Wayne lost 45 yards and Wisner 55 as a result of the miscues. Early season shakes were also shown by both clubs as they each lost the ball twice on account of fumbles.

New Posting Laws Announced by State Game Commission

With several opening dates for hunting seasons just around the corner, it would be well for NEBRASKA hunters and landowners to familiarize themselves with the new 1963 posting law, according to the Game Commission.

Under previous state game and fishing regulations still in effect, a hunter or fisherman is prohibited from hunting or fishing on private land without the owner's permission.

The new law expands this regulation to obtaining this permission in writing under certain conditions.

Commission director, the farmer or rancher, if he wishes hunters to obtain written permission, must post 18-inch-square signs with letters at least two-inches high reading "Hunting By Written Permission" at each entrance and at each corner of a field. They must be spaced at not less than 40-rod intervals. He must do this to comply with the new law.

The hunter must then obtain written permission of the landowner or operator to hunt or fish. The permission must carry the date of issuance and the landowner's signature. If permission is for more than one day, for example, the entire season or indefinitely, it must so state.

Since several opening dates are fast approaching and nearly all hunting in Nebraska is done on privately owned property, it is important that hunters contact landowners for places to hunt. This should be done as early as possible to insure choice hunting sites.

Wildcats Open Grid Play Saturday with St. Mary's

Wayne State opens its 1963 football campaign Saturday night with a new potentially dangerous foe, St. Mary's of the Plains College, Dodge City, Kan.

The game at 7:30 will be the first of two straight home contests for the Wildcats. Next week Wayne will tangle with Kearney in one of the most important conference scraps of the year.

But Coach John Jermier and staff are not looking that far ahead—yet. After a week and a half of practice the coaches probably have used more towels—for tears—than the entire team of about 60 players.

This might seem odd considering the strength in yard-eating backs, including last year's top three gainers and scorers. But Jermier hastens to point out that a tough nine-game schedule will take heavy toll of the shock troops up front. And the depth of experienced veterans up there is thin. With a line working less than full performance at times even the fast backs will be handicapped.

An intra-squad scrimmage Saturday revealed both good and not-so-good performances. The defense leaked badly, and the offense weak on timing, sometimes failed to capitalize on the leaks.

On the other hand, some non-lettered veterans and some newcomers showed improvement. "There was," said Jermier, "a lot of scrapping for starting assignments"—a situation which coaches rebush.

Injuries have already nibbled several key players, none seriously hurt but hampered or out of action temporarily. Among them: Bill Puetz, Dave Theophilus, both probable line starters if in condition; Don Drabn, an end; Bill Whalen, fullback and linebacker, all lettermin. The probable starting backfield remains intact — Dean deBurr at quarterback; Pat Shmida and Jerry Kilcoin at halfbacks, Burt Matthias, fullback.

Counted on for heavy duty in the line are Dick Collins and Bob Wallman at tackles. Don Koenig and Puetz (if he's ready) at guard, George Hoelker at center, Dick Olson, also looking good at center. The end assignments still are in doubt, with Roger Bentley and Duane Twait strong candidates.

Dean Weible, a Wayne High standout last year, looms as one of the freshmen most likely to take considerable action. He's third in line at center.

The strength of St. Mary's team is unknown, but it has been tough at times in the past and reportedly has several players who transferred from St. Benedict's when the Haven school dropped football.

Football spectators will be able to enter the stadium twice as fast as in previous years — thanks to a new entrance and ticket office at the north end of the field. A new stairway up from the Rice parking lot to the lower stadium level facilitates the approach.

Planning Is Key Home Improvement

Home improvement activity, which has grown steadily in importance for the past five years, promises to accelerate to an all-time high in 1963, as more home owners than ever before launch programs of modernization, remodeling or repair.

Even the owners of comparatively new homes are increasingly showing an active interest in home improvement, usually because the growth of their families has created an urgent need for more living space, or the expansion of existing service facilities via the installation of an extra bathroom, more storage capacity, new laundry equipment and the like.

The most common complaint against the post-war house is that it is generally too small to meet the family's current needs. All of the rooms as well as the closet space were reduced to a minimum. Hence, the most successful solution is often to add new rooms, either by finishing off unused attic, basement or other space, or by even adding a new wing.

The "Master Plan" Approach. Homeowners contemplating extensive remodeling should adopt the "master plan" approach used by city planners, advises the New York Chapter of the American Institute of Architects.

The basis for this technique is to create a well-integrated overall plan which meets future as well as present needs. Without it, remodeling can become a piecemeal project, costly in terms of both money and time.

A master plan should have as much individuality as the family which makes it, and should be developed with an eye to its changing social, economic and recreational conditions.

For example, is there enough space to accommodate a family's growth and increasing possessions? If not, it may be possible to convert the basement by gradual stages into a combination laundry room, storage area and recreation space.

The growing family that expects to do more entertaining in the future should pay particular attention to its living room. Before investing money in short-term decorating, the possibility of removing a wall to provide more space for entertainment should be investigated.

Consider Existing Structure

In addition to individual tastes and needs, the nature of the existing structure must be considered in creating a master plan.

For example, basements should be investigated for excessive moisture before remodeling them into living or storage space. The usual indications of dampness are dark stains on the cellar walls and floor and flaking cement on walls. Dry rot in basement ceiling beams and mildewed structure are also danger signs. These conditions should be corrected before a basement remodeling project is launched.

To insure that no part of the investment in a major remodeling project is wasted, it is well to consult an architect in the early stages of creating a master plan. He will make a thorough investigation of the house to determine what can be done, advise the best methods of doing it and give an estimate of the cost.

In planning major remodeling or modernization, it is also important to determine how much you can spend on what improvements to have the resale value of your home increase by at least an equal amount.

Re-Sale Factors

According to the American Bankers Association, the final price you will get for your home will depend largely on (1) the kind of improvements you make and (2) the price range for homes in your neighborhood. So make sure the improvements are the "right sort". And keep the cost within logical bounds.

What are the "right sort" of improvements? Basically, they must substantially protect or improve the basic livability or utility of your home, must have a readily-apparent use or worth to a prospective buyer.

Now what is meant by keeping the cost of your improvements within logical bounds? Just this: ordinarily people will not spend a great deal more for a home than others in the neighborhood. That means, for example, that if you own a $20,000 home in a neighborhood of comparable values, you would do well to keep your improvement costs within $5,000, if you hope to get your money back should you ever sell.

In other words, use a 25 per cent limit to figure how much you should spend.

NO MORE TANGLES

An empty adhesive tape spool makes a perfect storage kit for a round spool and snapped back into original cover, the line stays dry, clean and can't scatter walk through tool box. Or, hang it up on a nail!

WAXING SCHEDULE

SWIMMING PROBLEM

Q. Is it harmful to get water in the ears while swimming?
A. It's probably not good for the ears and, under certain circumstances, may lead to serious difficulty. The inner portion of each ear houses an organ of balance which can be put out of commission by injecting cold water into the external ear canal. Nothing happens when both ears are simultaneously given the cold water treatment, but real trouble develops when only one ear is so affected. The person becomes very dizzy and is thrown completely off balance. This can occur in swimmers when, for example, one ear contains enough wax to keep the cold water out. Cold water entering the other ear may lead to extreme dizziness. All swimmers should make sure that they do not have wax in the ears—especially in one ear only—before going into the water.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly newspaper is an important department. Normally it is the person's opinion of topics that concern most of the readers.

It is the duty of an editorial writer to search all available facts before he sits down to write. From this basis the writer should be able to give a clear picture of important topics.

"Freedom to Farm"

A spokesman for the American Farm Bureau Federation, this country's principal agricultural organization, says that public opinion about farmers and ranchers received the biggest boost of the past 20 years with the defeat of the Administration's wheat certificate scheme, in the referendum of last May.

In his words: "Wheat growers voiced a clear indication in favor of a change in the direction of national farm policy. This turn away from government intervention and aid, which many people thought had general acceptance as a part of our national way of life, brought renewed confidence in farmers and ranchers by most of the remainder of the taxpaying public."

"Failure and false hopes of government price-fixing programs during the past thirty years caused farmers to turn thumbs down on the wheat certificate plan and instead mark their ballots for 'freedom to farm,' and they demonstrated

You may not agree with an editorial — but if you read the editorial and give serious thought to the subject discussed you have gained. You, as a reader, have given careful thought to an important problem and the writer is proud to have called your attention to an important subject that you may have overlooked.

ed a new and stronger confidence in the market price system."

It is a matter of record that this market price system has worked in the crops which have been free of controls — while government price-fixing, accompanied as it must be by all manner of bureaucratic controls, has been one of the most costly and chaotic fiascos in recorded history.

Meat is a primary example of the market price system. Producers, and everyone else connected with the meat industry, have opposed government intervention. That has been true in bad times as well as good. The meat people want to take their own chances, and rule their own destinies. All in all, that praiseworthy policy has produced fine dividends — not only in dollars and cents, but in the more important coin of freedom. And the public has been given the world's most abundant meat supply at fair prices.

Some day, perhaps, this will be true of all agriculture. May that day come soon.

attendance record was set, despite miserable weather on Sunday, the day that traditionally finds the largest crowd on hand.

Extension Notes

Appliances Are Easy To Cook
"People who live the sunset years of their lives also often eat regularly. The taste buds aren't what they used to be and cooking for one or two is no fun," says Kathryn Cooley, Extension foods and nutrition specialist at the University of Nebraska.

Good health depends on good eating, Miss Cooley emphasizes. Three regular meals a day are customary, but four or five meals will do just as well — provided the food adds up to a balanced diet and within the calorie needs of the individual.

Elderly people who find eating dull and uninteresting should make a conscious effort to eat regularly and well. Here are a few tricks to coax the appetite:

Take a walk when the weather is nice. If you must stay indoors, do odd jobs that require light exercise.

Try new foods and new seasonings. Pop up your food with herbs and spices. More flavor is needed in later years because the senses of taste and smell become less keen with age.

Include bright-colored foods for special eye appeal; something crisp to contrast with the softer foods; and something flavored to contrast with foods that are mild-flavored.

Jack McBride, another co-chairman, said the quicker the commission makes some "key" decisions, the faster ETV will develop.

The 1963 legislature appropriated $600,000 for initial steps in development of a statewide ETV network. Plans call for full activation of the network by 1966.

Special Education Services

More than 3,000 children received special education services during the last school year in Nebraska, Floyd Miller, state education commissioner, said recently.

The total was up some 100 over the previous year.

Eighty school districts conducted 128 approved programs providing special instruction and therapy. A total of 196 instructors and therapists were employed in the various programs. In addition, the state office of special education aided in providing speech, hearing and psychological diagnoses for nearly 1,000 children.

The state education department paid out $24,819 to local public school districts for excess cost reimbursement. A district qualified for this reimbursement when the local program was approved by the department and the local per pupil cost had been expended for the child.

If the state appropriation had been large enough to reimburse local districts for 100 percent of their approved excess costs, the districts would have received more than $600,000.

Schultz To Retire

Edwin Schultz, secretary of the state fair board for 19 years, will call it quits on Feb. 1, 1965.

He announced his retirement plans at the semi-annual meeting of the board during the state fair. Earlier this year, Schultz had said he would not remain as secretary much longer. But he did not specify a date on which he planned to retire.

His announcement came during a fair in which an all-time

Henderson — The Town That Refused to Die!

The busy little city of Henderson, York County, Nebraska, with a population of 730, can provide a delightful interlude for any one touring NEBRASKA.

Henderson almost saw itself disappear during the 1930's and many thought it was doomed when it lost its railroad in 1941.

HOW THE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE SERVES YOU

The College of Agriculture is the research and education center for the state's largest industry—agriculture—and for home economics.

Extension education, provided cooperatively by the College, the USDA, and Nebraska counties, is reaching more people than ever before.

In addition, agents and specialists presented educational information for adults at 8,876 meetings, attended by 294,659 men and women.

More than 35,000 boys and girls are members of 410 clubs, and about 32,000 Nebraska women are enrolled in Home Extension clubs.

CENTRAL MEAT PACKAGING

Twelve years of marketing research by USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service and other organizations has brought substantial improvement in the efficiency of self-service meat departments of retail food stores.

Before you demand that your child make ends meet, make sure you can, too. When you have a healthy money sense, then your child has a head start in learning, Mrs. Leopold advises.

Nebraska Council of Home Extension Clubs

A busload of Northeast Nebraska Home Extension club members will be leaving from Norfolk, Sept. 16 to attend the State meeting Sept. 17-19, at Scottsbluff.

Agnes Arthaud, State Home Extension leader, University of Nebraska, announces the theme of the annual meeting is, "As The Wheels Turn."

The program includes outstanding speakers. Mrs. Verne W. Alden, past president of National Home Demonstration Council,

Capitol News . . . Study Investment Capital Outflow from Nebraska

LINCOLN—Governor Morrison, concerned about the outflow of investment capital from Nebraska, has named E. M. Hunt of Lincoln to head a committee to study the problem.

Hunt is president of the First Nebraska Securities, Inc., of Lincoln.

Other members to the committee were expected to be named soon. Morrison said the committee will make studies, come up with recommendations, and might even draft proposed legislation.

According to the governor, the out-migration of investment capital poses a serious obstacle to the economic growth of the state. He said Nebraska has one of the highest rates of capital outflow in the country.

Morrison believes the intangible tax rate could be part of the problem. But he said another is the negative psychological attitude which has come into being in the state.

When making the announcement of Hunt's appointment, the governor also made use of the occasion to compliment Beatrice, Neb., officials and residents for raising a half-million dollars to keep the Dempster Mill Manufacturing Company operating there.

The money will be used to buy stock in the company by C. B. Dempster, a grandson of the founder, and two California men who have tried to purchase the firm and keep it operating in Beatrice. Two other prospective buyers had said they might close the Beatrice plant if they purchased the company.

The plan is one of two left in the United States which manufactures windmills. Dempster said he plans to expand the plant, which also makes pumps, well casings, livestock tanks and other agricultural equipment.

Murals Going Up

The Capitol Murals Commission has been instructed to hang three unpaid for murals in the statehouse.

The governor said he directed the murals to be put into place after the state met a $10,000 obligation to New York artist James Penney and secrecy provision in the law and some have been requesting that it be amended when the legislature holds its special session this fall.

However, the governor has consistently refused to heed these requests. He argues that the law is workable and that it permits the opening of records in the judge's discretion.

Named Acting Chairman

Dr. Steven Watkins, superintendent of the Lincoln public schools, has been named temporary chairman of the newly-formed Nebraska Educational Television (ETV) commission.

The group met for the first time recently and appointed a three-member committee to draft by-laws, make recommendations for permanent officers, and other operational needs. Serving on the committee are Freeman Decker, state normal board coordinator, Floyd Miller, state education commissioner, and Arthur Danielson, a member of the Lincoln school board.

The group, which will meet again in the middle of September, was urged not to draw its feet but to "let the public know you are going to do something, and then do it." Making the plea was Bryon Dunn of Lincoln, a co-chairman of the state ETV committee.

Jack McBride, another co-chairman, said the quicker the commission makes some "key" decisions, the faster ETV will develop.

The 1963 legislature appropriated $600,000 for initial steps in development of a statewide ETV network. Plans call for full activation of the network by 1966.

Juvenile Court Opinion

Only written reports concerning events or incidents pertaining to a pending action in juvenile court against a minor are closed to public inspection under a law passed this year.

That was the view of the attorney general in an opinion requested by the Douglas county attorney's office.

The opinion said the provision of the law prohibiting examining of police officers' records of children under 18, except by court order, was unconstitutional.

A number of judges handling juvenile court matters have already ordered the opening of police records involving minors to the press. They cited the authority given them in the new law when they announced this policy.

Some news media representatives have been critical of the

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I see by the papers where ole Kruschel ain't bothered to claim his earnings from that stock they give him when he was in this country a few years ago. You will recollect a Safety Razor Company give him 25 shares in their firm, says he wanted him to see how capitalism worked. A few months later a cigarite company bought out the razor firm by trading stock and Kruschel ended up with 6 shares of stock that pays good dividends. This piece in the papers says he won't even answer their letters when they write him to find out what he wants to do with his earnings. It just goes to show that big shots in the Communist Party ain't interested in earning money when they can confiscate it.

Well, Mister Editor, we didn't get much done at the country store Saturday night, special at the national and United Nations level. Most of the session was took up by the fellers extending their sympathy to Ed in his family troubles. his old lady on this Fall cleaning business. He said he figured the day after he was married 40 year ago that if he ever got in the last word with his old lady, he'd have to out-her and write it on her tombstone.

Charlie was of the opinion that maybe Ed was taking the wrong attitude in these matters. He said it hadn't been more'n two Sundays ago that his preacher told the congregation marriage was a 50-50 proposition. But Ed didn't think much of Charlie's remarks, said Charlie's preacher either didn't know nothing about wives or he was ignorant in fractions.

Personal, Mister Editor, between me and you, I think house cleaning twice a year is Un-American, unhealthy and unnecessary and ought to be arin the law but I didn't take no part in the argument on account of not wanting any quotes to get back to my old lady. And I don't consider Charlie an authority to speak on the subject. My Pa told me one't you could size up a marriage by looking at a feller's barn. If the barn was bigger than the house, the man was wearing the pants, and vice versa. Charlie's barn is smaller than his house, and furthermore, it's painted green. When you see a barn painted green you know somebody's old lady is picking the colors and wearing the pants.

First National Bank Notes

As the old timer said, what this country needs is more people raising beans and fewer people spilling them.

If you've been paying bills by making a personal trip to the stores and offices — stop it!

Ask some friend who uses a First National Bank checking account to pay bills by mail, how much time, energy and temper they save by using this method. Cancelled checks also serve as a legal receipt. Come in — it's easy to open a checking account.

The worst kind of shindigs are those you get under a bridge table.

How nice it would be for future generations to look back and see what we did with all their money — now that we have figured out a way to take it away from them before they get it.

GRASSROOTS GLEANINGS

by Bill Stokes

The Daily Sentinel of Fairmont, Minn., reported last spring that 500 men students invaded the women's dorms at Mankato State College, and a police sergeant was quoted as saying, "The whole problem was that the girls kept encouraging them."

That's no way to treat an invasion, girls. Anyone can tell you that. First thing you know those men students will begin to think that you like them and then what a mix-up you'll have.

While we're on the subject of education, let's all hope that the attendance officer of New Castle, Ind., has as good a year this year as she had last year, when the News Republican reported that she made 1,320 calls.

The calls were broken down into classifications, but it didn't tell how many of them were because the fish were bitin', or squirrel season was open.

I knew a boy once who played hookey to run a trap-line — for skunks. No attendance officer bothered him, and neither did anyone else.

In the Loveland Herald, Loveland, Ohio, Nixon Denton asked what good could come from landing men on the moon or Mars or Neptune?

Good? Well, Mr. Denton, it's up to you and me to see that some good comes of it. Let's zone the moon against TV commercials for deodorants. Let's set Mars aside as a place where there are no telephones, and a man can just go and "set."

Then let's take Neptune and set it up as a sanctuary for fellows who forget anniversaries.

An Illinois woman on her way to Minnesota lost her husband in Iowa, the Guttenberg Press, Guttenberg, Iowa, reported, but the police found him for her.

I'll bet he was mad. He was probably planning a summer to himself and the police stuck their legal noses in and ruined the whole thing. He probably wasn't even allowed to walk the dog alone after that.

We took the advice of the Leader Enterprise, Montpelier, Ohio, and went on a picnic — several of them in fact. On one of them, two quarts of strawberry nectar spilled on the rear seat of the car. On another one, two of the kids got poison ivy. In July, we held a picnic on a lakeshore and our oldest warrior nearly cut his toe off on a broken pop bottle buried in the sand.

We love picnics. My wife puts together a tremendous salad of lettuce, celery, carrots, ants, and little green worms that drop out of trees.

Near West Bend, Wis., a truck full of eggs blew a tire and tipped over, the West Bend News reported.

Now why don't I ever see interesting things like that? I'd rather see a tipped over load of eggs than meet the Duke of Windsor, or even his wife, for that matter.

The Queen, after all, is just another woman. But a load of smashed eggs — that is something!

I wonder if Nina Stucker, when she gave her demonstration before the Peppy Pals 4-H club in the Spencer, Iowa area, covered the various ways that boys store bluejeans.

There wasn't that much detail in the Daily Reporter story, but just in case she didn't, I will deal with the subject briefly.

The main way to store bluejeans is to stand in the door of your room and throw them. This means that they are stored: on the floor, under beds, hanging by one leg from a dresser top, bunched in the windowsill behind the curtain, or suspended from picture nails.

Once we even found a pair of bluejeans stored inside a two-quart Mason jar. There's storing for you.

Glad to be of help, Nina. Call me anytime. These are boy tricks, though. I know that girls don't do things like that.

Autumn is the season of the hunter's harvest moon. When the frost is on the pumpkin, sportsmen ply America's painted woods and purple prairies in pursuit of upland birds present in gratifying numbers.

Probably the most highly regarded is that distinguished American, the partridge, or ruffed grouse. Whether he breaks out of an alder thicket with a roar or careens quietly over a crest, he presents as tough a target as there is to be had.

Another native bird of distinction is the turkey, still present in enough numbers in some eastern and southern forests to support shooting. Hunters stalk him, call him, or sweat him out at a roost in the fashion of the Pilgrim fathers.

The ubiquitous quail is a third native upland bird. Wherever he is found he is predictable. Barring a weather or predator catastrophe, you can go back year after year to the same spot and flush a friendly covey.

What bird bulks largest in the American bag? It may surprise you to learn that more mourning doves are harvested than any other species. Despite an annual bag of some 20 million, the continental dove population has increased steadily since 1953.

Prairie chicken, woodcock, and sharptailed grouse are also a part of the upland bag in some regions, but over-grazing and the plow have forced these birds into a steadily shrinking range. In their place, fortunately, have come two successful imports — the Chinese pheasant and the Hungarian partridge.

The gaudy Chink may be too easy to hit when he barges up from underfoot, but when he crosses or tops the guns at full speed he can be missed, as many a good shot knows to his chagrin. His pursuit leads you into a country of fen and farmland where, against a dun background of frost-seared corn and sedge, the pheasant's silvered wings and burnished breast strike a welcome note of color.

The Hun is a quarry to stir the most jaundiced gunner. He gangs up in coveys like a quail, spots oncoming hunters like a prairie chicken, runs like a deer, rams out like a pheasant, careens off like a grouse, barrels through the air like a canvasback, flairs like a mallard, and melts into the ground like a woodcock. To hunt Huns requires a strong back and the Annie Oakley aim.

To all this upland bonanza add the Chukar partridge found on hunting preserves and you have the reason why one American in every four shoulders a shotgun on some golden autumn day.

THE RINGNECK PHEASANT, although a comparatively recent importation from the wastes of China, has become firmly ensconced in the American upland hunting picture as a hardy bird who is big and handsome when alive and succulent afterward. Astronomical numbers thrive in the Dakotas.

WILLIE THE WOODCOCK defies description. His head is too big for his body, his eyes and bill are too large for his head, and he walks with a clownlike waddle. But when he flushes he flies with the crazy course of a ship without a rudder to make him one of the most prized of shotgun targets.

This is the new Remington Model 1100 automatic — the shotgun everybody is excited about.

We have good reason to believe the new Remington Model 1100 is the finest automatic shotgun ever made. Comparative tests prove it rates first in durability, first in over-all performance and first in shooting comfort. Here are the facts:
Up to seven times longer shooting life. For these solid reasons: The action of the Model 1100 is stronger. Key parts have been beefed up, and others have been highly polished to reduce wear. Finally, areas of greatest impact have been given special buffering cushions. The new metal finish is extremely rust-resistant. And the rich American walnut stock is protected by a specially developed finish—toughest ever put on a gun.

Gives up to 40% less "kick" than any other automatic . . . and up to 55% less than any other shotgun action. How? A completely new system of gas operation handles recoil slowly and evenly. All the power is still there, but you feel it far, far less.
Outstanding performance. A Model 1100 holds five shots, handles all 2¾-inch loads without adjustment. It can go 5,000 rounds without a cleaning. We poured 37,000 consecutive rounds through one Model 1100 without a hitch. That's performance.
More reasons why it's a standout in any company. We could describe the superb balance and swing of a Model 1100. And the beautiful, fleur-de-lis checkering. And the delicate scrollwork. But you can appreciate these qualities best with an 1100 resting snugly against your shoulder. Put one there today, at your Remington dealer's. Remington guns are better because they're made better.

 Remington Model 1100 now available in 12 gauge (16 and 20 next year); plain and vent-rib barrels; all standard chokes and barrel lengths. Trap, skeet and magnum models. Prices from $144.95*

10,000 pigs per year

Hog farmers could take lessons from two Missouri hog raisers — Harold Melcher and Jack Miller, president and vice-president, owners and operators of Skyview Farms near Trenton, Mo.

These two gentlemen previously had no experience in animal production, both felt that there was a profit potential in producing hogs along modern management principles.

But before starting their hog production operation they corresponded with livestock experts from meat packing companies, feed manufacturers and leading agricultural schools. This confirmed their opinion that full use of modern know-how in hog production had yet to be utilized.

Originally the plant was set up to produce meat type market hogs on a year-round basis.

Now, more than four years later, their ultra modern farm facilities and scientific breeding program combine to produce a distinctively fine hog carcass as well as furthering development of the recognized qualities of a large litter size, ruggedness and high feed conversion. Animals are outstanding examples of the success of the farm's program.

Heading up this complex operation is general manager George Watson, a native of Edinburgh, Scotland. Watson was persuaded to bring his 25 years of purebred swine breeding knowledge to the U. S. and to the Missouri farm. The record proves the value of his know-how and experience.

At the present time, the operation farrows 12 months of the year and try to farrow about 100 sows per month. "This year, we intend to hatch 10,000 to 11,000 pigs," said Watson. "Last year we aimed for 10,000 and hit it. We've increased this slightly for 1963."

HERE'S HOW THE SET-UP OPERATES:

Sows are kept in small groups of 25 in breeding quarters. They are brought by trailer to the farrowing pens about 7 days before farrowing. Here they are washed thoroughly and put into the individual pens.

After the pigs are born, they have their needle teeth clipped, the navel cord is dressed with dis-

If by any chance you've never tried Terramycin for Mastitis, you'll like it. It's all-liquid—the only all-liquid, broad-spectrum mastitis preparation you can buy. This gives it several advantages.

It goes to work the instant you treat. It gives faster, surer results... with less chance of damage to valuable milk-producing tissues.

infant and at 2 days, they are given an iron injection. They are weaned at three weeks and are removed to the nursery building where they are kept in pens of 35 pigs each. The nursery building has a capacity of 1250 pigs.

The young pigs stay at the nursery until they're 8 weeks old. They are then transferred to the growing area and are then vaccinated for cholera and erysipelas. At approximately 5 to 5½ months of age, the top quality gilts are shipped out to swine breeders throughout the U. S. The boars and gilts (not suited for breeding) are shipped to a meat packing plant in Kansas City and purchased on a merit basis.

A high percentage of the 10,000 pigs raised last year were crossbreds . . . either a York boar x a Hampshire sow, or a Hampshire boar x a York sow. A herd of 40 purebred Yorkshire sows and 40 Hampshire sows is maintained for cross-breeding.

The farm has about 6,000 hogs on hand at all times.

All feed is ground and mixed on the farm.

"We buy the ingredients and make up our own rations," Watson explained. The young pigs are started on an 18% ration at 10 days and receive that until they reach 40 pounds. "We then put them on a 16% ration until 75 pounds," Watson said. "From then until they reach 125 pounds, we feed them a 14% ration and after 125 pounds they are fed a 12% mixture.

"Gilts selected for breeding are changed over to a high energy alfalfa ration from 125 pounds until sold," he continued.

Although the farm consists of 105 acres at the main farm plus 80 acres nearby, they grow only a very small percentage of the grain they use. "We feed 325 tons of feed a month here," Watson said. "To keep the huge operation running smoothly requires 9 men plus a steady truck driver and myself," he added. Much of the work is handled with push buttons. Feed in the finishing pens is moved directly to feeders by augers from the feed manufacturing building. Auger trailers move feed to the farrowing houses and nursery.

One cannot help but be impressed by the amount of concrete throughout the operation. For one thing all floors are concrete and are hosed down daily, when weather permits, and the manure-water mixture drains into three different lagoons. Two of these sewage lagoons are 270 square feet and the third is larger. During the winter months, more straw and shavings are used which would clog the drain pipes, so manure is hauled out and spread during the winter.

Boars from the herd have been entered in both the University of Missouri and the Palmyra, Missouri boar testing stations. "We also rely heavily on data from Swift on our whole shipments for determining the direction we're going on breeding," Watson continued.

"Sanitation and vaccination go hand-in-hand in our program," Watson went on. "When gilts are ready to be shipped out to breeders, they are re-vaccinated by our local veterinarian for cholera, erysipelas and leptospirosis." Breeding stock is selected mostly by Watson with assistance from the managers of the purebred Yorkshire and Hampshire herds.

One of the finishing areas at the Missouri operation. There are five of these finishing houses. All are concrete floored and are hosed down daily to clean them.

FIGHT BLIGHT

with DEKALB "Breakthru" Hybrids

DeKalb      Susceptible

In recent years, Leaf Blight has caused considerable damage and loss of money to many farmers. Last year was particularly bad in many areas. To FIGHT this yield robber, DeKalb Research has developed blight resistant varieties in a wide maturity range. Note the blight resistant DeKalb plant in photo at left. The susceptible plant on right, has prematurely dead leaf tissue which can cause low yield — light chaffy grain. No claim is made for COMPLETE resistance, but results show that DeKalb resistant varieties have come through with very good yields in heavily blight infested areas.

Be prepared whether blight strikes your fields or misses you. Ask your DeKalb Dealer for full information.

To market, to market (without leaving home)

Our new Space King Twins (the matching refrigerator and freezer you see above) put weeks and weeks of meals right at your fingertips. Together they give you a dazzling 25.2 cubic feet of storage in only 60" of space. Hold enough to equal as many as 12 trips to the market. You can shop to your heart's content right from their roomy shelves (and save money in the bargain by buying in quantity).

The Space King refrigerator alone holds 20% more fresh food than refrigerator-freezers of comparable size. It's practically all refrigerator! There's a total of 5 spacious shelves. Two large porcelain crispers. Plus loads and loads of extra storage space for fresh foods in the door.

Separate giant freezer holds a hefty 440 pounds. New air-sweep shelves keep packages from sticking. The handsome porcelain interior makes light work of cleaning. Only Westinghouse offers you all this—a freezer and a matching refrigerator—for less than the cost of many single combination units.

The Space King Twins are available now at your Westinghouse dealer's store—in coppertan, aqua, pink, yellow and white. Each can be bought separately. Buy them both and you've got yourself a supermarket.

FALL FOOD FESTIVAL

It's Indian Summer with Fall flowers, warm colors and most of all—Fall Baking. Save this collection of new-time recipes with old-time flavor.

WHAT'S RISING IN THE FALL? bread!

Cooler weather means more hot ovens, baking the robust breads of the season. Here are the recipes for those especially fragrant loaves . . . let's get back to baking!

Surprise Sandwich Buns are lunch-box treats or party surprises. Peanut butter in the roll complements any filling.

Pineapple-Filled Buns are almost a dessert. Chopped dates and pineapple go inside the light yeast rolls.

Harvest Moon Squash Buns are deliciously easy. No kneading, and you "shape" them with a biscuit cutter.

SQUASH BUNS

- ¼ cup milk
- 6 ounces (½ 12-oz. package) frozen squash
- ½ cup sugar
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ cup (1 stick) margarine
- ¼ cup warm water (105-115° F.)
- 2 packages or cakes yeast, active dry or compressed
- 4½ cups unsifted flour (about)

Heat milk with frozen squash until squash is thawed and mixture is hot. Stir in sugar, salt and margarine; cool to lukewarm. Measure warm water into large warm bowl. Sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved. Stir in lukewarm milk mixture and 2 cups of the flour. Beat 2 minutes at medium speed of electric mixer, or 300 vigorous strokes with spoon. Add remaining flour to make a soft dough; mix well. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 45 minutes.

Punch dough down; divide in half. On floured board, roll out each half of dough ½-inch thick. Cut into rounds with 2½-inch biscuit cutter. Place on greased baking sheet. Repeat with remaining dough. Knead leftover pieces together very lightly, then reroll and cut until all is used.

Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 45 minutes. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) about 15 minutes, or until done. Makes about 2½ dozen.

SWEDISH OATMEAL BREAD

Neither white bread nor brown, its flavor is unique—and good!

- 1 packet active dry yeast (or 1 cake compressed yeast)
- ¼ cup warm water
- 2 cups quick-cooking rolled oats
- ½ cup dark molasses
- ½ cup shortening
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 2 cups boiling water
- 6 to 6½ cups all-purpose flour

Soften yeast in warm water. Combine in large bowl rolled oats, molasses, shortening, salt and boiling water; blend well. Cool to lukewarm. Add softened yeast. Gradually add flour to form a stiff dough.

Knead on well-floured surface until smooth and satiny, about 10 minutes. Place in greased bowl; cover. Let rise in warm place (85° to 90° F.) until light and doubled in size, about 1½ to 2 hours. Punch down; cover. Let rise about 30 minutes.

Place dough on floured surface and divide into three parts. Mold into balls. Cover; let rest for 15 minutes. Shape into three round loaves; place on lightly greased cookie sheets. Or shape into three oblong loaves; place in three well-greased 9x5x3-inch pans. Cover. Let rise until light and doubled in size, about 1 hour.

Bake at 350° for 35 to 40 minutes. Remove from pans immediately and cool on rack. Makes 3 loaves.

To freeze: Wrap cooled loaves tightly in aluminum foil, freeze immediately. To thaw, leave in foil on rack 1 to 3 hours, or thaw in 350° oven for 15 to 30 minutes.

PINEAPPLE-FILLED BUNS

- ½ cup milk
- ¼ cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 3 tablespoons margarine
- ½ cup warm water (105-115° F.)
- 2 packages or cakes yeast, active dry or compressed
- 2 eggs
- 3 cups unsifted flour (about)

Scald milk; stir in sugar, salt and margarine; cool to lukewarm. Measure warm water into large warm bowl. Sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved. Stir in lukewarm milk mixture, eggs and 2 cups flour; beat 2 minutes at medium speed on electric mixer, or 300 vigorous strokes with spoon. Stir in enough additional flour to form a soft dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board; knead until smooth and elastic, about 8 minutes. Place in greased bowl, turning to grease top. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 45 minutes. Meanwhile prepare Pineapple Filling. Punch dough down; turn out on lightly floured board; shape into 12-inch long roll. Cut into 1-inch pieces. Roll out pieces into ovals about 5x2½ inches. Place a tablespoonful of cooled filling on half of each; fold other half over; pinch edges together. Place on greased baking sheets at least 1 inch apart. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 45 minutes. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) about 15 minutes or until done. When cooled, frost with confectioners' sugar frosting. Makes 12.

Pineapple Filling: Combine 1 cup (13½-ounce can) drained crushed pineapple with ½ cup dark brown sugar, ½ cup chopped dates, ¼ cup chopped pecans, 1 tablespoon grated lemon peel, 1 tablespoon lemon juice and ½ teaspoon salt. Over medium heat, bring to a boil and continue cooking until mixture thickens, about 5 minutes. Cool.

SURPRISE SANDWICH BUNS

- ¼ cup milk
- ½ cup sugar
- 1½ teaspoons salt
- ¼ cup crunchy peanut butter
- ½ cup warm water (105-115° F.)
- 2 packages or cakes yeast, active dry or compressed
- 1 egg
- 4 cups unsifted flour

Scald milk; stir in sugar, salt and crunchy peanut butter. Beat until blended; cool to lukewarm. Measure warm water into large warm bowl. Sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved. Stir in lukewarm milk mixture, egg and 2 cups of flour; beat 2 minutes at medium speed of electric mixer, or 300 vigorous strokes with spoon. Stir in enough remaining flour to make soft dough. Turn out onto floured board; knead until smooth and elastic, about 8 minutes. Place in greased bowl, turning to grease all sides. Cover; let rise in warm place free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

Punch down; turn out onto floured board. Roll half of dough out to make 9-inch square; cut into 3-inch squares. Arrange on greased baking sheet. Repeat with rest of dough. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) about 15 minutes, or until done. Cool on wire racks. Makes 1½ dozen.

Surprise Sandwich Fillings: Slices of left-over roast beef, chicken, turkey, or juicy barbecued hamburger . . . ho. chicken salad, tuna salad. Fill buns wrap tightly in aluminum foil, keep refrigerated (or freeze) until serving. Then heat pre-wrapped sandwiches for 15-20 minutes in 400° oven. As accompaniment, French fried onions or crispy potato sticks can be warmed in a shallow pan made from foil.

TAKE THE APPLE OF YOUR pie....

and make a marvelous spicy apple salad! A Quick Apple Kuchen! Applesauce Spice Cake? Harvest Spice Cake? Apple Brown Betty, of course!

Cinnamon Apple Salad spices fresh apples with "red hot" candies. What a show-off!

APPLESAUCE SPICE CAKE

- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 cup molasses
- 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/4 teaspoon cloves
- 1 cup strained thick applesauce
- 1/2 cup seedless raisins

Cream together shortening and sugar. Add eggs, one at a time, beating after each. Add molasses. Sift together flour, baking soda, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg and cloves; add alternately, with applesauce to first mixture. Add raisins; mix well. Pour into greased 8x8x2-inch pan. Bake in moderate oven, 350° F., 55 minutes. Cool 5 minutes. Remove cake from pan; cool on wire rack. Serve plain or, if desired, top with Orange Frosting.

Orange Frosting:

- 1 cup sugar
- 3 tablespoons cold water
- 2 tablespoons orange juice
- 1 teaspoon grated orange rind
- 1 egg white
- 36 miniature marshmallows

Combine sugar, water, orange juice and rind and egg white in top of double boiler. Place over boiling water, beating constantly, with rotary beater for 7 minutes, or until thick. Remove from heat; add marshmallows. Makes enough to fill and frost 2 8-inch cake layers. Serve the day you make it.

HARVEST SPICE CAKE

- 1 1/2 cups thinly sliced pared apples
- 3/4 cup molasses
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1/2 cup hot water
- 2 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon cloves
- 1/4 teaspoon mace or nutmeg
- 1 1/2 teaspoons baking soda
- 1/4 teaspoon salt

Combine apples and molasses; slowly cook until apples are tender, drain off molasses and combine with shortening and water, heat until shortening melts. Cool. Sift together flour, sugar, cinnamon, cloves, mace, baking soda and salt. Add molasses mixture; mix well. Add apples. Line 8x8x2-inch pan with greased waxed paper; pour in batter. Bake in moderate oven, 350° F., 45 minutes. Serve warm with plain or whipped cream or with ice cream. Serves 8-12.

APPLE BROWN BETTY

- 3 cups soft bread crumbs
- 1/2 cup butter, melted
- 6 cups apples, pared, cored and sliced
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 1/2 teaspoons lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon grated lemon rind
- 1/2 cup water

Combine bread crumbs, butter; place half of crumbs in bottom of greased pan or casserole.

Combine apples, sugar, nutmeg, cinnamon and lemon juice and rind; spread over crumbs. Pour water over top; top with remaining crumbs. Cover with aluminum foil.

Bake 30 minutes in 375° oven. Remove foil cover. Bake 1 hour longer or until apples are tender.

Serve warm with Lemon Sauce, milk or cream. Makes six servings.

Lemon Sauce: Combine 1 cup sugar, 3 tablespoons cornstarch and 1/2 teaspoon salt in saucepan. Add 2 cups boiling water gradually, stirring constantly; add 2 tablespoons grated lemon rind. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly until clear and thickened—about 5 minutes. Add 4 tablespoons butter, 6 tablespoons lemon juice. Blend. Serve hot.

QUICK APPLE KUCHEN

- 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 egg
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/4 cup butter or shortening, melted
- 2 cups pared, sliced apples (2 to 3 medium)
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon

Sift flour with baking powder and salt. Beat egg with 1/2 cup sugar until thick and ivory colored. Blend in half of the dry ingredients. Add milk, then remaining dry ingredients. Mix thoroughly after each addition. Stir in butter. Turn into well-greased 9x9x2-inch pan.

Arrange apples overlapping in rows on coffee cake. (Slice apples about 1/2-inch thick.) Sprinkle with mixture of 1/2 cup sugar and cinnamon.

Bake at 375° for 30 to 35 minutes.

CINNAMON APPLE SALAD

- 6 tart apples
- 1 cup red cinnamon candies
- 2 cups water
- 1 cup miniature marshmallows
- 1/2 cup salad dressing
- 1 cup seedless raisins
- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- 1/4 cup chopped pecans
- Lettuce

Peel and core apples, cutting zigzag points at stem end. Cook candies in water until dissolved. Add apples; simmer until tender, turning occasionally. Chill in syrup; turn to cover evenly. Combine remaining ingredients; mix lightly. Fill drained apples. Serve on lettuce.

APPLE NUT YEAST BREAD

- 2 packages or cakes yeast, active dry or compressed
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 1/2 cup water
- 2 cups unsweetened applesauce
- 9 cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 2 eggs
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 2 cups mixed nuts

Soften yeast in warm water. Combine milk, sugar, shortening, applesauce, eggs, salt and 4 cups flour. Beat vigorously. Stir in nuts, and as much flour as possible. Pour on board and knead in more flour to make a stiff dough. Let rise in greased bowl until double. Punch down and let rise again. Make into loaves. Bake at 350°, 30-40 minutes.

TASTY APPLE TORTE

- 20 graham crackers, crushed OR
- 2 cups vanilla cookie crumbs
- 1/2 cup melted butter
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 3 cups sliced apples
- 1 cup water
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 whole eggs
- 8-oz. cream cheese
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon vanilla
- 1/8 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/8 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 teaspoon butter
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch

Mix crumbs, butter and sugar until well blended; spread in an 8x8-inch pan, reserving 1/2 cup to garnish top.

Blend eggs with cream cheese, sugar and vanilla. Pour over crumb mixture. Bake in 375° oven for 15 min. Cool. Cook apples slowly in syrup of water and sugar, until tender. Drain off syrup and add spices and butter. Thicken with cornstarch. When cold, spread over baked portion. Garnish with remaining crumbs. Serve in squares with ice cream or whipped cream.

Tropical Parfait Pie is the cool answer to warm autumn evenings. Vanilla ice cream, lime gelatin mix under a marshmallow topping. New: the coconut crust.

CHOCOLATE ANGEL PIE

- 3 egg whites
- 1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 2 6-ounce packages (2 cups) semi-sweet (chocolate morsels)
- 1 tablespoon instant coffee
- 1/4 cup boiling water
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 cup heavy cream, whipped

Beat egg whites until foamy, add cream of tartar and salt, beat until stiff, but not dry. Gradually add sugar, beating until very stiff. Cover baking sheet with heavy brown paper. Pile about two-thirds of the meringue into a round, 7 inches in diameter. Make a depression in the center, leaving an inch around the sides. Spoon remaining meringue in mounds around edge. Bake in a very slow oven, (275° F.) 1 hour. While meringue is baking, melt semi-sweet chocolate morsels over hot, not boiling water. Combine instant coffee and boiling water, stir into chocolate with vanilla, beat until smooth. Cool. Fold in whipped cream, turn into cooled meringue shell. Makes 8 generous servings.

BUTTERCRUST PUMPKIN-SPICE PARFAIT PIE

- 1/2 cup butter
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 cup all purpose flour

Pumpkin Spice Filling

- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup water
- 1 unbeaten egg white
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/2 teaspoon ginger
- 1 cup whipping cream
- 1/4 cup pumpkin, canned or cooked

Soften butter with sugar. Do not cream. Add flour. Mix just until a dough will form. (with mixer, use lowest speed). Place 1/2 to 3/4 cup of the mixture in a small pan for crumb topping. Press remaining mixture evenly over bottom and sides of 9 inch piepan with well-floured fingers.

Bake at 375° until light golden brown crumbs for 10 to 12 minutes, crust for 12 to 15 minutes. Cool.

Pumpkin-Spice Filling Combine in small mixing bowl sugar, water, egg white, cinnamon, lemon juice, nutmeg and ginger. Beat with electric mixer at highest speed until soft peaks form when beaters are raised 3 to 5 min.

Beat whipping cream and pumpkin until thick. Fold into egg white mixture by hand or with mixer at lowest speed. Spoon into baked shell. Sprinkle with reserved crumbs. Freeze until firm, 4 to 6 hours; cover.

Party Fruit Pie. Two secrets make this handsome pie unusually delicious—sour cream and Kraft Miniature Marshmallows. Just combine 1 cup drained, sliced peaches, 1 cup drained pineapple tidbits, 1/4 cup sliced maraschino cherries,

1 cup dairy sour cream and 1 cup Kraft Miniature Marshmallows. Pour into a baked 9 inch pastry shell. Freeze. Garnish with additional sliced peaches and marshmallows. Easy to make and fun to serve at parties—a real show-off dessert!

BEST FOR FALL: THE All American Meals

Nobody in the world can make a meal look so mouth-watering, taste so yummy, yet be so relaxed as can Americans. From the main dish right on down—for fine eating it's good, ole Americana all the way. And better yet, it's the best way to eat in the Fall.

COUNTRY COLESLAW

- 3/4 cup evaporated milk
- 1/2 cup salad oil
- 3 tablespoons lemon or lime juice
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 1 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 2 quarts shredded cabbage
- 1 cup sliced radishes
- 1 carrot, grated
- 1 green pepper, finely sliced
- 1 small onion, minced

Combine evaporated milk and salad oil in mixing bowl; beat until blended. Add lemon juice; beat until smooth. Beat in salt, sugar, dry mustard and Worcestershire sauce; toss with cabbage, radishes, carrot, green pepper and onion. Makes 8 servings.

PICNIC BEANS

- 4 slices bacon
- 1 medium onion, finely chopped
- 1/2 green pepper, finely chopped
- 2 cans pork and beans
- 2 tablespoons dark molasses
- 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
- 2 tablespoons brown sugar
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 1 dash Tabasco

Fry bacon in skillet; pour off all but two tablespoons fat. Set aside bacon. Add onion and green pepper to skillet; cook until softened and transparent—about five minutes.

Turn beans into 1 1/2-quart casserole. Mix in onion, green pepper, crumbled bacon and remaining ingredients. Bake, uncovered, about 1 hour in 400° oven. Garnish with onion and tomato. Makes 6 servings.

CHILI CORN CASSEROLE

- 4 tablespoons shortening
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 1/4 cup chopped celery
- 1/4 teaspoon minced garlic
- 1 1/2 pounds ground beef
- 2 cups (two 8-oz. cans) tomato sauce
- 1-lb. can (1 1/2 cups) pork and beans
- 2 to 3 teaspoons chili powder
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 cup flour
- 1/2 cup corn meal
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
- 1 slightly beaten egg
- 1/2 cup milk

Sauté in large skillet 2 tablespoons shortening, onion, green pepper, celery and garlic. Add ground beef. Cook until well browned. Drain off excess fat. Stir in tomato sauce, pork and beans, chili powder and 1 teaspoon salt. Simmer 5 to 10 minutes. Pour into 8x8-inch baking dish or 2-quart casserole.

Sift flour with corn meal, sugar, baking powder and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Combine egg, milk and 2 tablespoons melted shortening. Add to dry ingredients all at once; stir until smooth. Spoon batter over meat mixture.

Bake at 400° for 15 to 20 minutes until golden brown. Serves 6.

GLAZED MEAT LOAF

- 1 1/2 cups soft bread crumbs
- 1/2 cup warm water
- 1 medium onion, minced
- 1/4 cup butter or margarine
- 2 1/2 lbs. ground beef
- 2 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
- 3 eggs, separated
- 1/4 cup molasses

Place bread crumbs in large mixing bowl; pour over water. Sauté onion in 2 tablespoons of the butter until golden. Add with meat and seasonings to bread crumbs; blend. Beat egg yolks until light and fold into meat mixture. Beat egg whites until they hold a peak and fold in. Shape into loaf and place in an oblong baking dish or pan. If a more perfect shape is desired, the meat can be patted into a foil-lined loaf pan, and gently turned out into a baking dish. Melt remaining butter or margarine and blend with molasses; pour over meat. Bake in a moderate oven, 350° F., 1 1/2 hours, basting meat occasionally. Makes 6-8 servings.

POLYNESIAN POT LUCK

- 2 cans (21 oz. each) pork and beans
- 1 can (12 oz.) pressed luncheon meat
- 1/4 cup pineapple preserves
- 8 to 10 whole cloves

Pour pork and beans into a two-quart casserole dish. Score and nestle meat into the center of beans. Stud with cloves. Top meat with pineapple preserves. Bake at 350° for 30 minutes. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

CAMPER'S BEAN TREAT

- 1 pound ground beef
- 1 tablespoon hot fat or shortening
- 1 can (1 lb.) pork and beans
- 1 cup kidney beans, drained
- 3/4 cup catsup
- 1/2 cup water
- 2 tablespoons prepared mustard
- 2 teaspoons vinegar
- 1 package onion soup mix

Brown beef in hot fat. Add beans; stir in next five ingredients. Bake in a two-quart baking dish in 350° oven for 30 minutes. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

BARBECUED BURGERS

- 1 pound ground beef
- 3/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1 tablespoon molasses
- 1 tablespoon prepared mustard
- 1 teaspoon vinegar

Break up meat with fork in mixing bowl; salt and pepper. Toss gently with fork to distribute ingredients. Combine molasses, mustard and vinegar; combine with meat mixture. Form into 4 patties. Pan-broil, broil or grill to desired doneness. This recipe makes 4 servings; if desired, recipe may be doubled or tripled.

The last, lingering flavor of summer—strawberries, for instance. Or the first quick dip into the lovely chocolate riches to come! Here are your specially-just-for-fall delectables, waiting to make tomorrow's dinner a Fall Festival!

Chewy Butterscotch Brownies . . . coconut, pecans, butterscotch morsels, marshmallows! These cookies are rich as rich.

STRAWBERRY CREAM PUFFS

- 1 10-oz. jar strawberry preserves
- 1 cup miniature marshmallows
- 1 cup heavy cream, whipped
- 6 cream puffs
- Confectioners' sugar

Fold preserves and marshmallows into whipped cream. Fill cream puffs; sprinkle with sugar. Makes 6 servings.

CHEWY BUTTERSCOTCH BROWNIES

- ¾ cup butter
- 1 cup flaked or chopped shredded coconut
- ¾ cup butterscotch morsels
- 1½ cups firmly packed brown sugar
- 1¾ cups sifted all-purpose flour
- ½ teaspoon soda
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1 unbeaten egg
- ½ teaspoon vanilla
- ½ cup pecans, chopped
- 1½ cups miniature marshmallows

Butterscotch Glaze:

- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 tablespoon light corn syrup
- ¼ cup butterscotch morsels
- 1 cup sifted powdered sugar
- 1 to 2 tablespoons milk

Melt ¾ cup butter in saucepan. Stir in coconut, butterscotch morsels and ½ cup brown sugar. Spread in bottom of greased 13x9-inch pan.

Sift flour with soda and salt. Cream ½ cup butter; gradually add 1 cup brown sugar, creaming well. Add egg and vanilla; beat well. Blend in dry ingredients. Stir in ½ cup pecans and ½ cup marshmallows. Spoon dough in small amounts over coconut mixture; pat out evenly with floured hands.

Bake at 350° for 25 to 30 minutes. If desired, sprinkle with 1 cup marshmallows. Bake 1 to 2 minutes until marshmallows begin to puff. While warm, drizzle with Glaze. Cut into 2x1-inch bars. Makes about 4 dozen small bars.

Butterscotch Glaze: Melt butter, syrup and butterscotch morsels over low heat. Add 1 cup sifted powdered sugar and 1 to 2 tablespoons milk until the consistency of a glaze.

Freezing Tip: Store bars in baking pan; cover tightly with foil.

MOCHA SPICE CAKE

Spice Cake: prepare spice cake using your favorite recipe. Turn into prepared pan 12x8x2 inches. Bake according to directions. Cool; frost with Mocha Frosting.

Mocha Frosting:

- 1 6-ounce package (1 cup) semi-sweet chocolate morsels
- 2 tablespoons instant coffee
- 2 tablespoons water
- Dash salt
- 1 jar (7½ ounces) marshmallow cream

Put semi-sweet chocolate morsels, instant coffee, water and salt in top of double boiler. Melt over hot (not boiling) water. Remove from heat. Add marshmallow cream; beat until smooth. Spread on top of cooled cake. If desired, decorate with pecan halves. Cut into 2-in. squares. Serves 24.

WHOOPIE PIES

- ¾ cup shortening
- ¼ cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 2¼ cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 1 cup quick chocolate-flavored mix
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon baking soda
- 1 cup milk

Cream together shortening and sugar. Beat in egg and vanilla. Sift together flour, quick chocolate-flavored mix, salt and baking soda. Stir dry ingredients into creamed mixture alternately with milk. Drop by teaspoonfuls on greased cookie sheet. Bake in a moderately hot oven (400° F.) 8 minutes. Let stand on cookie sheet 2 or 3 minutes before removing. When cool, put cookies together with Marshmallow Filling.* Yield: Approximately 6 dozen.

*Marshmallow Filling:

- ¼ cup butter or margarine
- 2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
- 2 cups marshmallow cream

Cream together butter and confectioners' sugar. Stir in marshmallow cream until well blended.

PEANUT BUTTER & JELLY BUNS!

Finger-licking good! A big batch of beautiful buns with a peanut butter and jelly filling no man or boy can resist. Only you and Fleischmann's Yeast can bake 'em so high high rising and Planters Peanut Butter makes 'em even better. So very nutritious, it's the only leading peanut butter enriched with vitamins A and D. Bake up these light hearted tender yeast buns, real good!

PEANUT BUTTER & JELLY BUNS (makes 24 buns)

½ cup milk	2 eggs, beaten
½ cup sugar	4½ cups unsifted flour (about)
1½ teaspoons salt	6 tbsps. Blue Bonnet Margarine, softened
¼ cup (½ stick) Blue Bonnet Margarine	¼ cup Planters Creamy Peanut Butter
½ cup warm water (105°-115° F.)	¼ cup strawberry jelly, jam or preserves
2 packages Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast

Scald milk; stir in sugar, salt and ¼ cup Blue Bonnet Margarine. Cool to lukewarm. Measure warm water into large warm bowl. Sprinkle in Fleischmann's Yeast; stir until dissolved.

Add lukewarm milk mixture, eggs and half the flour. Beat until smooth. Mix in enough additional flour to make a soft dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board and knead dough until smooth and elastic, about 8 minutes.

Place dough in greased bowl, turning to grease top. Cover, let rise in warm draft free place until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Punch down dough and turn out onto lightly floured board, divide in half.

Combine 6 tablespoons Blue Bonnet Margarine and Planters Creamy Peanut Butter. Mix until smooth. Roll half the dough into 16" x 12" rectangle. Spread with half the peanut butter mixture. Spread with half the strawberry jelly. Roll up from 12" side, seal seams.

Cut 12 one-inch slices; place in greased 9" square pan or greased 11" x 7" x 1½" pan, cut side up. Repeat with rest of dough and filling. Cover; let rise in warm draft free place until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Bake in 375° F. oven for 20 minutes or until done.

TAMALE PIE

Choose a Southwestern theme for the next menu you plan and serve as a tasty main dish a festive Mexican pie. The pie is made from the Barbecued Hamburger Mix that is mellowed in spicy cooking with corn and green pepper chunks and held by a golden corn meal lining in a colorful pottery dish.

TAMALE PIE

2 pints Barbecued Hamburger Mix    1 tablespoon chili powder
 1/4 cup diced green pepper        1/4 teaspoon allspice
 1 to 2 tablespoons shortening
 1 can (8 ounces) whole kernel corn

Corn Meal Crust:

1 cup cornmeal                                2 tablespoons butter or margarine
 2 teaspoons salt                              1/2 cup grated American Cheese
 2 1/2 cups boiling water

Cook green pepper in hot fat five minutes. Heat Barbecued Hamburger Mix in a skillet or saucepan over low heat until completely thawed. Add green pepper, corn, chili powder and allspice to meat. Simmer 10 minutes. Meanwhile prepare crust as follows: stir corn meal and salt into boiling water and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Stir in butter and cook over hot water 20 minutes. Line bottom and sides of 2-quart casserole with corn meal mixture. Pour in filling. Bake in 350° oven for 45 minutes. Sprinkle top with cheese and bake 15 minutes longer.

MIX and Freeze

By Susan Lowe

Do unexpected guests throw you in a spin? Invest 45 minutes in insurance against it. A barbecued hamburger mix made now and stored in your freezer will make a tasty dish for your drop-in company.

The basic recipe made from hamburger is seasoned with onion, garlic, celery, Worcestershire sauce and catsup. It can be prepared in large quantities to be frozen for use in varied combinations later. And what's even better for you, the budget minded homemaker, is that this is a good way to use weekend ground beef specials to good advantage and stretch the food dollar a bit.

The secret in the usefulness of this mix is freezing. Make a recipe of the barbecued hamburger and as soon as you have finished quickly cool the meat mixture. Spoon it into five one-pint containers. Seal and freeze at 0°F. or lower. Do not stack the containers until the mixture is thoroughly frozen. It's a good idea to use precooked frozen hamburger products within six months, so check your freezer occasionally and keep a regular turnover of foods. When ready to use simply thaw the hamburger by placing the container in hot water or under running hot water just long enough to allow mixture to slip out easily.

After the hamburger mix has returned from its stay in the freezer the homemaker's initiative and imagination go to work in creating interesting dishes for family and friends. Chili con carne, spaghetti and pizza are just three of the many dishes you can quickly and easily make. We have selected a number of recipes to be included here, but there are many, many more. Experiment a bit yourself and we'll bet you come up with other excellent ideas that you, your family and guests will enjoy.

ITALIAN SPAGHETTI

Spaghetti, favorite food of Italy, is a taste treat that's easy on the cook when made using the basic mix. The hamburger takes on Italian flavor when celery seed, dry mustard, bay leaf and horseradish are added.

SPAGHETTI

- |                                |                                     |
|--------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1 pint Barbecued Hamburger Mix | 1 (3 ounce) can mushrooms           |
| 1 (8 ounce) can tomato sauce   | 1 bay leaf, crumbled                |
| ¼ cup chopped green pepper     | 1 teaspoon horseradish (if desired) |
| 1 teaspoon celery seed         | 1 (16-ounce) package spaghetti      |
| ½ teaspoon dry mustard         |                                     |

Heat Barbecued Hamburger Mix in a skillet over low heat until completely thawed. Meanwhile, brown chopped green pepper in small skillet using as much shortening as necessary to prevent scorching. Add tomato sauce, green pepper, celery seed, dry mustard and bay leaf to meat. Simmer 10 minutes. Add mushrooms with liquid. Heat. Just before serving add horseradish. Cook spaghetti till tender in boiling salted water. Drain. Serve sauce bordered with hot spaghetti or pour sauce over spaghetti. Sprinkle with grated Parmesan cheese. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

QUICK-AS-A-WINK PIZZA

Teenagers and adults alike enjoy pizza. It can be the mainstay of a family meal or part of a company buffet of "Pizza Party." Broiled individual pizzas seem more festive and are easy to make when you use the basic hamburger mix as the main ingredient.

PIZZA

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1 pint Barbecued Hamburger Mix (thawed in refrigerator)                    | out refrigerator biscuits, or Slices of French bread) |
| 1 package breadstuff for crust (English muffins, split and toasted, Rolled | Oregano   |
|  | Grated Parmesan cheese                                |
|  | Olive slices, if desired                              |

Place Barbecued Hamburger Mix on muffins, biscuits or bread and spread to within ¼ inch of edge. Sprinkle on a few grains of oregano. Top with grated cheese. Garnish with slices of olive, if desired. Place on broiler pan. Set oven regulator for broil. Broil individual pizzas 2 to 5 inches from heat for 3 to 4 minutes. Makes 8 to 12 pizzas depending upon breadstuff used.

BARBECUED HAMBURGER MIX

- |                                 |                                    |
|---------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| 4 medium onions, chopped        | 4 pounds hamburger                 |
| 3 cloves garlic, finely chopped | 1 tablespoon salt                  |
| 2 cups chopped celery tops      | ½ teaspoon pepper                  |
| ¼ cup shortening                | 3 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce |
|                                 | 2 12-ounce bottles catsup          |

Pan-fry the onion, garlic and celery in shortening in a large kettle or in skillets. Add hamburger, stir and cook until all redness of the meat disappears. Add salt, pepper, Worcestershire sauce and catsup. Simmer 20 minutes and skim off excess fat. Use part or all immediately or cool quickly and freeze for later use. Makes 10 cups—5 1-pint containers.

HAMBURGER STROGANOFF

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1 pint Barbecued Hamburger Mix           | 1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup |
| 2 cups sliced fresh mushrooms (6 ounces) | 1 cup sour cream                                    |
|  | ¼ cup chopped parsley                               |

Heat 1 pint Barbecued Hamburger Mix in skillet over low heat until completely thawed. Add mushrooms, mushroom soup and stir. Simmer 5 minutes. Carefully spoon sour cream over top. Sprinkle with chopped parsley and simmer one minute more without stirring. Serve from skillet over hot, fluffy white rice. Serves 6.

HAMBURGER NOODLE SKILLET

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 2 cups cooked noodles (¼ pound or 1½ cups uncooked) | 1 to 2 cups canned or frozen mixed vegetables |
| 1 pint Barbecued Hamburger Mix                      | ½ cup shredded quick melting cheese*          |
|   | ¼ cup chopped parsley                         |

Add water to skillet and heat to boiling. Add noodles and cook 6 minutes. Drain off excess water. Add one pint Barbecued Hamburger Mix and mixed vegetables. Stir to combine. Sprinkle grated cheese and parsley over the top. Cover and heat for about 10 minutes. Makes 6 servings. *NOTE: For a taste treat in cheese, try Muenster cheese. This melts easily and has a "different" taste we think you will enjoy.

BARBECUED HAMBURGER AND CHEESE NOODLE

- |  |                                 |
|--|---------------------------------|
| 2 pints Barbecued Hamburger Mix (thawed in refrigerator) | ¼ cup sour cream                |
| 1 cup cottage cheese                                     | 8 ounces noodles, cooked        |
| 2 3-ounce packages cream cheese                          | 1 beef bouillon cube (optional) |

Combine cottage cheese, cream cheese and sour cream. In a buttered 2-quart casserole spread half the noodles. Cover with 1 pint of Barbecued Hamburger Mix. Cover with cheese mixture and remaining noodles. Spread remaining Barbecue Mix on top. (If mix seems dry, dissolve bouillon cube in ¼ cup water and pour over casserole.) Bake in 350° oven which has not been preheated for 45-50 minutes. Serves 6.

SIX-LAYER DINNER

Place in layers in greased 2-quart casserole (8-inch):

- |                                |   |
|--------------------------------|---|
| 2 cups sliced raw potatoes     | 2 cups cooked tomatoes (No. 1 tall can) |
| 2 cups chopped celery          | Season layers, using in all:            |
| 1 pint Barbecued Hamburger Mix | 1 cup minced green pepper               |
| 1 cup minced green pepper      | ¼ teaspoon salt                         |
|                                | ¼ teaspoon pepper                       |

Garnish with green pepper sliced and bake at 350° 2 hours. Serves 6.

PORCUPINE BEEF BALLS

- |                                |                |
|--------------------------------|----------------|
| 1 pint Barbecued Hamburger Mix | ½ cup raw rice |
| 1 small can tomato soup        | ½ cup water    |

| Head of cabbage                        | ¾ cup packaged precooked rice   |
| ½ teaspoon salt                        | ¼ teaspoon monosodium glutamate |
| 2 to 3 tablespoons butter or margarine |                                 |
| 1 pint Barbecued Hamburger Mix         |                                 |

Grease a shallow, 2-qt. top-of-range casserole having a tight-fitting cover. Set out a large saucepan having a tight-fitting cover and a medium-size skillet.

From a head of cabbage remove and wash 8 large cabbage leaves. Pour boiling water into the large saucepan to 1-in. level. Add cabbage leaves and salt. Cover and simmer 2 to 3 min., or until leaves begin to soften; drain.

Meanwhile, heat butter in skillet. Remove from heat and mix in thoroughly Barbecued Hamburger Mix, rice and monosodium glutamate. Place about ¼ cup of the mixture in center of each cabbage leaf. Roll each leaf, tucking ends in toward center. Fasten securely with wooden picks; place in casserole. Pour over cabbage rolls a mixture of

| 3½ cups (No. 2½ can) tomatoes, sieved | (insert wooden pick for easy removal) |
| 1 bay leaf                            | ½ teaspoon salt                       |
| 1 clove garlic, uncut                 | Few grains pepper                     |

Cover and simmer 45 to 60 min., or until rolls are tender. Place rolls in warm serving dish. Remove wooden picks, garlic and bay leaf. Spoon sauce over rolls.

BURGERS DELIGHT

A hot sandwich at noon tastes good to all who sit down at your family table. On a busy day these burgers can be made ahead and then 30 minutes before it's time to eat simply popped into the oven. When hungry appetites arrive they'll be greeted by the smell of something good in the oven and think you've been in the kitchen all morning. Thanks to your freezer you'll know better! These sandwiches served with a crisp salad, chips and dessert, if you like, will make a prize winning lunch.

BURGERS

|--------------------------------|---------------------|
| 1 pint Barbecued Hamburger Mix | ¼ cup grated cheese |
|                                | 4 frankfurter buns  |

Combine mix and cheese. Cut frankfurter buns lengthwise and hollow out centers. Spoon ½ cup mixture on each. Wrap in foil and heat in 350° oven 30 minutes. (Next summer try these sandwiches outdoors. Cook them on a picnic grill for about 30 minutes.) Makes 4.
