1940 Memorandum Updated Recently

The Wayne County District supervisors have completed their work for updating their "Memorandium of Understanding" with the Department of Agriculture.

The original Memorandum of Understanding was completed in November of 1940. This document was signed by Supervisors, Albert Watson, Dan Leuck, and C. A. Bard. Since then many changes have taken place in agriculture.

Originally the principle problem of districts was soil crosson. Since then the Gonservation concept has been broadened to include conservation of water, watershed protection, flood prevention, rural area development, outdoor recreation and widliffe development, and sedimentation.

The prosent members of the District board of Supervisors are: William Fenske, Roy Day, Leo Hansen, Paul Everingham, and Bernard Splittgerber.

Federal Insurance Dividends Go To

County Veterans
A financial plum in the amount of $13,100 will be arriving in Wayne County this month for local war veterans.

County this month for local war veterans.

It represents a stepped-up payment of dividends, under their GI insurance policies. Payment at this time is being made in accordance with an order issued by President Johnson. In the normal course of events, the money would not have been paid until the anniversary dates of the policies.

The speed-up is taking place on a national basis, with 225,000 veterans of World War I and 4,000,000 World War II veterans on the receiving end.

The distribution, which will amount to $234,000,000, is being made now to give an added stimulus to business. It is expected to be completed by January 25.

Of the 1,214 war veterans, who live in Wayne County, an estimated 261 will share the current payment.

mated 261 will share the current payment.

Those who were in World War II are covered by National Service Life Insurance. They will get just under $50 each, on the average. The World War I veterans, who acquired U. S. Government Life Insurance policies, will average about $85. The size of the policy will determine the amount in each instance.

The total sum going to the Wayne County recipients is estimated at $13,100.

Si3,300. The money became available because the morality rate among the Gl's has been lower than was figured on when the premium rates were set.

Policyholders are advised that no application for the payment is necessary. It will come to them automatically.

The Soil Conservation Service has had several requests for assistance in planning good windbreaks.
Some good rules to observe in planning this windbreak are:
) 1. Plant enough rows to the job, generally 7 to 10 rows.
2. Plant at least one half of the rows to "evergreen" type of trees.

Held On Tax Question

Dixon — Tuesday evening. Jan.

14. a panel discussion jointly sponsored by the Dixon and Cedar county Farm Bureau was held at the Oncord auditorium. The purpose of the meeting was to clarify some of the merce common income tax questions raised by farmers.

Panel members included Bill Norvell, an accountant, who stressed the importance of keep-this accurate and complete records if a farmer wants to pay as little fex as possible;

Hugo Zimmerman, extension economist, mentioned the electronic bookkeeping service offered by the University of Nebraska as an aid to maintaining accurate records.

Ed Fahrenholz, the farmer member of the panel, said he felt the tax form should be made simple enough so that the average farmer could complete his own return without professional assistance. He also suggested training in preparing innorme tax events.

Kirby Bailey of the Norfolk Internal revenue office discussed recent changes in the innorme tax laws and how they affect farmers' returns.

Science Lesson Is Treat for District 7

District 7 fifth grade science class recently discussed cake baking. The science book described a simple cake recipe giving proper proportions in comparison with the average cake recipe.

Sizes of pans and methods of stirring were considered. Types of flour, quelty of ingredients, especially shortening and eggs were considered important. Fifth graders Donna Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson and Gary Krusemark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson and Gary Krusemark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Krusemark, decided to bake the cake.

The best part of the experiment was when Gary and Donna brought the cakes to school to shere with schoolmates. The Johnsons brought ice cream.

Matthies Receives MVP Nod Collins, White Co-Captains

Burt Matthies, Wayne State fullback, has been named as the most valuable player on the 1968 football team. This announteement was made by the college committee on intercollegiate athletics. Two other gridders, seniors Dick Collins, Fort Dodge, Ia., and Ron White, Douglas, Neb., were named honorary ch-captains, by vote of teammates.

The athletics committee also listed 28 lettermen on the squad, plus three student managers. Scholastic difficulties barred two players from receiving letters. Matthies, a powerd rivin ground gainer who rushed for 956 yards, collected another honor with honorable mention as a fullback on the Williamson Little All-America selections. He is a sophomore from Stanton.

The letterman list names six seniors, headed by Bill Puetz, David City, griting his fourth monogram. White and Pat Shimoda Kahubui, Hawaii, received thrid letters; Dave Theophilus, Norfolk, Collins and Duane Twait, Cylinder, Ia., second letters.

Charity Line Eye Boosts Wayne B' Suad came up with two easy victories the past week, the first over Cedar High, 66-35, and the other over Neigh 75-37.

Neither club did any outstanding scoring during the first period in Hartington last Tuesday night, as Wayne found eight and Cedar High hit for only 4. But the second period boosted both clubs, especially Wayne.

The Devils hit 18 in the second period, compared to Cedar's 12, giving Wayne a 26-16 half-time lead. Wayne hit 18 once again in the flourth, with 22 points. Cedar had eight in the third and eleven in the fourth, "It was charm night for free-throws for Wayne as they made throws for Wayne as they made in the flourth," It was charm night for free-throws for Wayne as they made throws for Wayne as they made throws

It was charm night for free-throws for Wayne as they made good 20 of 24 for a remarkable 82 per cent. For Cedar it was exactly the opposite as they found only 9 of 19 for 42 per cent. Gary Mordhorst led the Wayne attack with 16 points. Keith Tetteen and Glen Nichols each had ten for Wayne. Dreesen and Schulle shared Cedar honors with 10 each. Friday night was a second good night for Wayne as they rolled to an easy 75-37 vietory over Neligh. Wayne had quarters of 15, 20, 21 and 19 in their never-cessing attack. The "Little Devils" held a comfortable twenty point margin, 35-15 at half-time, a lead which was never threatened.

From the northeast come reports of good sauger fishing in the Cavins Point tallwaters. The area is not frozen over and there is good fishing from both the banks and boats. Several species rea being taken by snagging. Better fishing areas on Lewis and Clark Lake are the sections along 91 to 81 in a game played at Pilger Son with 18.

Weigand, South Shore, Bazil Creek, and 19. Weigand, South Shore, Bazil Creek, and 19. Pilger never trailed in the game and the Santee areas. Snow plows as Dave Dobren dumped in 33 counters and John Otten tallied 26. Ed. Hitz pared Howell with 24.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly news-r is an important department. Normally it is person's opinion of topics that concern most he readers.

of the readers.

It is, the duty of an editorial writer to search all available facts before he sits down to write.
From this basis the writer should be able to give a clear picture of important topics.

With the construction of the Golden Egg, Inc., building underway, this editorial from the Schuyler Sun fits our area also. The Schuyler editor dug up some very interesting facts on egg production... showing just how large an some very interesting facts on egg production... showing just how large an industry it can he.

A produce dealer recently made the remark that he wasn't getting enough eggs to supply his demand. The farmers—his only source—are not producing enough eggs to make his business profitable. He needs volume to make money, he said. And the quality—some people just don't take care of their eggs, he lamented. The only solution as he sees it is to go into an operation such as Wagner Mills, Inc., has going.

All of which makes you wonder if here in this area we aren't sleeping on a good thinig. As you drive by farm after farm with no chickens, or just a few, you recall that many farmers complain that there's no money in poultry; we've even heard they lose money having chickens on the premises.

And then a copy of an editorial which appeared in the Aug. 3 issue of the Nebraska Farmer comes to our desk.

the Nebraska Farmer comes to our desk.

"We are making much to-do in Nebraska about getting new industry to come to the stat." the article begins.

"But at the same time we're allowing an old one to die on the vine, chiefly for lack of organization and promotion. We're speaking of the egg production industry. This is an industry, that, like all of agriculture, is in the midst of revolution," the article states.

"There no longer is much of a market for eggs produced by the old-style farm flock in which, little attention is paid to quality of the eggs.

"This doesn't mean there's no longer any place for the family farm flock is but the modern family farm flock is but the modern family farm flock is project that can provide a substantial portion of family tarm income and that can be important to the economy of a community—just as important as a new industry.

"Suppose small farm flocks of 2,000 hons each were to be installed on 50

"Suppose small farm flocks of 2,000 hens each were to be installed on 50

You may not agree with an editorial — but if you read the editorial and give serious thought to the subject discussed you have gained. You, as a reader, have given careful thought to an important problem and the writer is proud to have called your attention to an important subject that you may have overlooked.

farms around a certain community. That would total 100,000 hens. According to figures compiled by an extension poultry specialist at North Carolina State College, these hens will create $1.3 million worth of business for the community.

"This sizeable business is spread through many parts of the community— to farmers, to suppliers of feed, chicks, electricity, building equipment and materials, packing cases and carriers, transportation, credit, processing and wholesaling.

"But 2,000-hen flocks on 50 farms around a community don't just come naturally. There has to be considerable community effort to develop a market, to coordinate production and marketing, to provide necessary credit.

"No new industry is easy for a community to come by. But there are real opportunities for a new laying flock industry in many Nebraska communities that may now be looking for non-agricultural industries and overlooking something much closer to home."

Now, suppose we go back to that $1.3 million worth of business the North Carolina State College poultry specialist came up with. An Iowa State College breakdown of the $1.3 million worth of business came up with these figures:

Gross income to produce sales of eggs and meat produce sales of eggs and meat produce sales of eggs.

These are impressive figures. Colfax County at one time was way up in egg production. Makes you wonder, in our quest for industry, if this isn't another example of not being able to see the forest for the trees.

Thank you

As I watch the mounting death toll due to traffic accidents, I become more and more thankful that it is no longer necessary for me tol make the night drives that once fell to my lot. Wasn't any too trave about them back in the late fifties but the way they kill people off today, in utter abundoon makes me pretty hesitant to get out on these roads: A driver has to be a pretty good man nowadays for he has twe cars to drive, his own and the other fellow's.

Nebraska's population of persons 65 years old and over in 1950 was 130,000. By 1960 the number had increased to 164,000, or 25.9 per cent increase. In the U. S. another 16 million persons were between the ages of 55-64 in 1960.

The increases have been somewhat larger among women than among men. Between 1950 and 1980, women increased in number by 40 per cent, half again the increase of the number of older men.

I have flown a lot and honestly I felt safer up in the wild blue yorder than I did down here on terra firma. At least I was pretty sure that some dizzy spook wasn't going to run into me from a side road or blind me with his lights or cut in and out in front of me and seare the pants off me by exhibiting how well he thought he could bandle the two hundred fifty horses at his command.

Maybe when you are up in the air you are closer to Heaven but a lot of the time you are closer to it here on earth in the encounters you have with "wacky" drivers.

Some folks say that if the Lord had intended us to fly, He would have equipped us with wings. By the same token, if He had intended us to be a human Jugernaut, He would probably have installed in us a three bundred horse power motor, equipped us with pneumatic running gear and given us an ignition system that would have "not sparked" us forever.

All states will have more older people in the future, but some states and areas within them will have a disproportionate share of the growth.

These older people will require goods and services for an increesing number of years after they reach age 65 because they will live longer. The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company points out that women who had reached age 65 in 1960 might on the average expect to live an additional 16 years, while men might expect to live an additional 13 years.

Beef Is Not All Steak!

Beef Is Not All Steak!

Most homemakers are well aware that beef is not all steak. There is a variety of cuts available in the beef "family." The question is, what are these cuts and how should they be cooked? The appropriate method of cooking is essential to bring out the best in each piece of meat. The quality of beef and the tenderness of the cuts are two factors which determine the cooking methods which should he used in their preparation. Almost any cut of beef can be tender, juicy, and flavorful if cooked pryperly.

For example, flank, plate, brisket, short ribs and heel of the round are less tender cuts. However, with a little moisture added and a long cooking time, these, too, make tasty meat dishes. These pieces of beef are best stewed, braised, pot roasted, or boiled.

Tender cuts of beef, such as your rib and loin roasts should be cooked by roasting, broiling and panbroiling and may be served either rare, medium or well done, according to personal preference.

The best guides for selecting the meat vou want for the dish you plan to prepare, are the U. S. Department of Agriculture grades. The grades most likely to be found in local stores, according to the US/DA's Agricultural Marketing Service, are choice, good, standard, and cummercial, Choice is the highcet and commercial the lowest of these anest available grades.

The higher the grade, the better the quality of the cut chosen.

Boneloss tenderloin of beef should be roasted for best faste results. The higher grades or rib, rump, blade, arm, round, and sirioin tip roasts also make delicious roast beef. Pieces of beef beering lower US/DA grade stamps will be more tasty and tender if braised. English or Boston cuts, boneloss chuck, and fip graded beel of round are also good if braised.

It came up again when Mel Steen, state game commission director, urged the three members of the House of Representatives. From Nebraska to push for early favorable action on a bill which would invest one billion dollars in federal funds for recreational development purposes.

If the measures were enacted into law, Steen said, Nebraska would stand to receive an allocation of about $1 million annually. The funds would be supplied on a 50-50 matching basis. At the moment, the bill is bogged down in the House rules committee, but Steen is confident it will be reported out and passed this session. He also urged Nebraskans to request the congressional delegation to throw their weight behind the proposal. If the bill were enacted, Steen said, A would mean Nebraska could example proposed capital improvements "by at least two-fold".

could expand presently proposed capital improvements "by at Jeast two-fold".

Nebraska is in the first phases of a $10 million, 10-year capital improvement program, made possible by a special levy imposed by the legislature in 1961. Steen said it is possible that the state could run into difficulty matching the federal money, which would be allocated for planning, land acquisition and development purposes. At the same time, Steen noted, Nebraska would have the jump on most states if the federal program were authorized. He explained Nebraska would be in position to take advintage of the available money from Uncle Sam almost immediately because of its advanced planning program.

Steen said the proposed federal program was among reasons his department urged the 1963 legislature to up hunting and fishing permit fees by one dollar. The added income, he said puts in the state in better shape to match the federal government's money.

Issues Injunction

seen issued by Judge Elmer Scheele of Lancaster district court.

He set a hearing on arguing the merits of the law and any similar local ordinances for Feb. 21.

Three cases were consolidated so the judge could rule on them simultaneously.

The main contention of those testing the stricter law is that it was not within the scope of the items listed by Governor Morrison when he issued his call for the special session.

The regular 1962 legislature passed a bottle club law which its supporters said had the aim of getting some measure of regulation and control of the clubs. There were many who thought the law was too loosely drawn. The stricter statute passed several months ago tightened considerably the restrictions placed on the clubs.

Rehobilitation Effort

Wards of the boys training school at Kearney will soon be getting some practical experience in the operation of an automobile service station.

George Morris state director of institutions said the new training program will be a bit unusual but that he feels it will result in some real benefits to boys after they are released.

The station will be built on the west edge of Kearney on Highway 20. It will have two service stalls and a small office and will serve only state vehicles.

Boys working in the station will receive practical training, Morris said, "in everything from changing spark plugs to washing windows."

The last legislature appropriated $153,000 for building a vocational training center at Kearney. This will be done, but part of the funds will be used for the service station.

of the funds will be used for the service station.

The station, expected to be completed next spring, will offer a six-months training program and will be under the supervision of a "highly qualified person," Morris said.

A survey recently showed that 550 state cars pass the proposed station site every week.

I have always held the D.A.R. in the highest esteem. The D.A.R. work in the field of patriotic education is, I feel, most commendable. The firm stand that the D.A.R. takes in defense of the principles upon which this great nation was founded is of extreme importance to every living American today.

One part of the program that stood out in my mind, is the D.A.R. opening of their meeting with the pledge of allegiance to the flag. The affirmation of loyalty with reference of God lends to this soulstirring bledge a sense of purpose that makes; it a complete experience of inner fulfillment and certainly place you in the proper frame of mind for the meeting.

I had the opportunity to listen to one of the contestants, Miss Sandra Woockman, Winside, read her winning selection. It was certainly grafiflying to see and hear this your." American speak out on her subject.

From Socks to Shifts Around Wayne High

Are the sack dresses back again? These dresses may resemble the sack dresses but now they have a new name. The back for a change in the signs

The shift dresses were in style last year but you did not see as many as you do this year. Girls ir Waync high school go for the new styles. You see all colors, fabrics; and styles of shift dress is popular in ways other than just style. Girls, most interesting signs. They shift dress is popular in ways other than just style. Girls, will be judged on the amount of no more cinching in the waist line just for school. Just put a shift on and no more worry about the most interesting signs. They will be judged on the amount of signs they make, neatness, and spropriateness.

The members of the council will select the winning class. A prize has not yet been selected.

Parking Lot Quite Slippery

The warm January days followed by the cold nights have changed the saw on the north parking lot of Wayne High to tee.

Due to the ice, the faculty and students find it difficult to keep their cars from sliding into the street.

Drivers have many possible solutions to the problem; they may walk to settled.

brivers have many possible solutions to the problem; they may walk to school; wait until summer when the ice will finally melt away; or ask the school to install hitching posts so the cars may be tied up. Those seem to be the cheapest solutions, since the parking lot doesn't get cleared of snow and not everyone can afford a and not everyone can and Volkswagon, which may to in a desk drawer or a locker.

Crash Diet vs. Doctors' Diet

A strong was given to as girls at WHIS Thurtday. The survey dealt with diethin.
Thirty-five of the 85 girls stated they were on diets. Twenty-three are on erish estarvation diets, while the other 12 are on diets prescribed by doctors.
One of the most important questions in the survey was, "What is your opinion of girls and boy's who are overweight going on chash diets instead of a diet prescribed by a doctor?" The answer was almost unanimous, with about six girls who felt the crash diet was best, while the rest were of the opinion that crash dieting was irresponsible as well as dangerous to health.
An excuse that is sure to be very to health.

An excuse that is sure to be very popular especially with teenagers is "One and touch the floor — grab a cookie count to four — sip a coke — from six to eight — because we need strength to take off weight!"

Kern Sparks Devil Season

From Cokes to Coffee For Seniors at Wayne High

The seniors faced a long hard journey of studying, bobby speks and tennis shoes, bubblegum-chewing by the tons, assignments land those long term papers about nothing or almost nothing, cokes at Nyla's with the gang, crash diets with your girl friends, that long drawn out basketball football drawn out basketball - football track practice when you have a date at seven, ice cream cones at the Dary Bar chocolate - vanilla - drawberry, those short skirts and loose sweaters, Pep Rally, Pep Club meetings that last until, 4.30, W-Club meetings, after game dances, class plays with all those lives to learn, bus-rides to the games with all your friends, Student-Council meetings, and last of all tough teachers, all through high school. Gives you a Great feelirg.

of course, for some it's only the beginning of their futures. The first step has been taken. There's college, beauty school, secretary jobs, clerical jobs, land etc. shead of them. At last, they emerge from bobby socks and tennis shees to nylons and flats, from cokes to coffee, and from after game dances to dining and dancing at expensive cafes.

Yes, changes have to be made by each and every individual. Make yours a good one.

Look for a change in the signs about the games. Instead of the usual dign committee making and putting up signs, the pep club has an idra on how to make this task interesting.

Are you still smoking? If the answer is no, you're doing your-self a big favor by quitting. If the answer is yes, then it's your own fault if you die at an early ago.

It has been proven that cigarette smoking can cause cancer, which will shorten your life span. But, you can smoke a pipe or cigar. Isn't that just as good? If the smokers in school would start smoking pipes and c'gars, then it wouldn't look foolish. It might at first, but everybody would get used to it. The only possible cancer you rouse. It might at tirst, but everybody would get used to it.

The only possible cancer you can get from pipe and cigar smoking, is lip cancer. The chances of getting any cancer is a lot more slim when you puff away on a cigar or pipe.

Young ladies and young men, is it really worth it? Are you going to let a cigarette every 10 minutes dwindle away your life span? How about quitting right now, if you'd start putting that 30c a day in a savings bond, just look how much money you'd have saved by the end of a year! 30 in a bond sounds better than 30 in a pack of weeds. Right!

Wins Increase for Blue Devils

Wayne Blue Devils thus far have won six and lost four games, wayne Blue Devils thus far have won six and lost four games, for a 60% winning record. The losses so far for this season are to Norfolk by 17 points, the second to Laurel (invitational tournament by 19 points, and the third to Madison by 19 points The last game lost this season was to Stanton by 10 points. The wins so far are against Tokameh by 57 points, over Laurel by 15 points, and Plaintiew by 41, downing South Soux by three (invitational tournament) and Pender by nine points. The Blue Devils are going to the way to do better in the future if thry're planning to come out on top of the conference.

Still Not Too Late For Resolution

5. Be courteous to "under-classmen".
6. Give the Juniors "point-ers" (good ones).
7. Be considerate of others.
8. Hawe a good attitude.
9. Dress neat and clean.
10. Leave your teachers with a good impression of yourself.
Now that you are starting to follow these resolutions, you should be a better student, and your teachers and fellow students will think more highly of you. Also, you will save Mr. Rickers time in that he will not have to discipline you.
1 Good luck, seniors

Another Defeat for Wayne Freshmen

Wakefield freshmen Monday night 43 to 42 at Wasefield.

Good Weather Aids in County Terrace Building

Soil conservation practices came into great evidence in Wayne coun-ty this year as several projects were completed and several more underway.

underway.

The terraces in photo at right are on the farms of Otto Niemann and Marvin Anderson, Winside. Both of these farmers have observed the effect of terraces in conserving moisture and fertility in their community and decided to try some on their farms, according to Arnold Marr, work unit conserva-

Last year Anderson terraced 30 acres of cropland and constructed an erosion control dam. This past fall he decided to complete the terracing program on his farm.

Niemann terraced a 25 acre field two years ago. He also shaped a large gully into a grassed water-way. This large gully was uncross-able and nearly divided his farm.
