

School Board Selects Same Officers for Another Term

Not ready to change leadership in the middle of a big project, the District 17 school board of Carroll and Wayne elected the same officers to serve another term at a long meeting Monday. At midnight the board adjourned with plans set to meet again Thursday night to complete more business.

Vern Roberts is again president of the board with Dean Pierson vice president and Mrs. Ruth Ellis secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Dorothy Ley, Dean Schram and Don Edington, other board members, are on the Americanism committee.

The problem of land on which to erect the new school has not been settled. It will take another visit from the architect before a decision can be made on the Kemp property. The Rohrk property is currently in the process of being annexed to the city and until that is complete no action can be taken there.

Meeting with the group Monday was the fiscal agent. On his recommendation it was decided to "try for a national rating." If this is possible, Wayne's bonds will rate higher and get the lowest interest rate, thus saving money. Paper work necessary for the rating is underway.

Vocational agriculture has been under consideration. However, the board decided not to take action to include this course at the present time.

WHS faculty members are being asked for advice on features in their departments in the new school building. Their ideas are not sought as architects but as people who use facilities and who can point out advantages and disadvantages of different arrangements proposed.

Districts 47, 15, 72 and 70 asked to contract with the district and the board accepted them all. This will bring only two extra pupils to Wayne and the rest will go to Carroll. All of them are new to contracting with the district except 15 where two-thirds of the parents with children in school also petitioned for contracting last year.

A summer elementary string music program is to be given under the direction of Bonita Vandegrift as soon as school is out. It will be a six-week course for those interested.

Virgil Campbell, who has been auditor for the district, was employed to serve the district for another year. The student council's proposal to try to get a foreign exchange student here was approved.

Winside Boy Champion of State in Ads

Douglas Hill, a senior at Winside high school and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hill, has won a state championship in the high school journalism contest and has been awarded the Silver Key honor.

In the district contest held in Wayne, he won first in advertising to gain a spot in state competition. Last week in Lincoln the Nebraska High School Press association contests were held and he won the advertising division.

At Wayne he was assigned to draw up a newspaper promotion

Doug Hill, a senior at Winside high school and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hill, has won a state championship in the high school journalism contest and has been awarded the Silver Key honor.

He has been a class officer, member of the student council, football letterman, W-club member, in class play and an alternate for Boys State. He is in the upper one-third of his class and plans to attend the University of Nebraska.

Winside high won the state sweepstakes award in Class C at Lincoln. Mrs. Judy Picard, journalism instructor, and Cheryl Behmer and Gary Johnson were other WHS contestants in the state meet but failed to place.

Scouts Will Do Good Turn for Ike Waltons

Scout Troop 174 will do a good turn for its sponsoring institution, the Izaak Walton League, Monday. The scouts plan to help league members plant trees at the Ike's Lake under the direction of Arnold Marr. This is the third year that the troop has planted or transplanted trees to help beautify the lake grounds. Many of the earlier plantings have survived. Eventually there will be shade and wild life habitat as a result of the Johny Applesed labors.

All Troop 174 scouts are to meet at East elementary school at 5 p.m. Monday, bringing shovels if possible and a lunch. The Ikes will meet the boys at school for the drive out to the lake.

Right Name, Wrong One

The "Dog Pound Hilton" was designated as a name for the pound where the dogs are being kept when picked up in Wayne. Some have called the Mertl Hilton home asking if they are now in charge of the dog pound. The attempt at levity apparently backfired. The "Hilton" referred to was the worldwide chain of Hilton hotels, largest chain in the world. The fact that anyone would associate the name of any other Hilton was not considered at the time the name was written. No one complained, but the local Hiltons did get phone calls.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., was on the line as Wanda Owens, Wayne C. of C. manager, called to tell representatives there Wayne county was "adopting" the state for the Nebraska centennial. Cliff Dahl, county centennial head, on the left, and Dan Titzer, outside representative for Northwestern Bell were on hand to tape the interview.

Family Life Conferences Will Be Held Next Week

There is no danger of the family life conference scheduled next week in Wayne being postponed for the same reason it was in March. The one in March had to be called off due to a blizzard.

Thursday, May 13, at 9:30 a.m. the conference on "Understanding Teenagers" will open at the Wayne City auditorium. Mrs. Bernard Richter, president of the Nebraska Council of Home Extension clubs will be in charge.

Dr. Harold Abel of the University of Nebraska will talk on "Our Teenagers and Me." A sack lunch will be held at noon with the Wayne C. of C. furnishing coffee. In the afternoon there will be films, group discussion sessions and a panel discussion before adjournment at 2. Panel moderator will be Agnes Arkhoad of the Nebraska Extension service.

Panel members are to be Stan Hansen, Dr. Marion Waggoner, Rev. John Voth, Mrs. Kenneth Olds, Mrs. Cecil Wriedt and Donald Merriman, Wayne; Mrs. Clarence Schroeder, Hoskins; and Judy Bottolfson, WSC.

Red Petunia Time Arrives in Wayne

Remember the red flowers that bloomed in Wayne last year? They're a community betterment project and plans are being made to have them back for another summer.

Everyone is asked to plant red petunias and soon. Main street, filling stations and other places will soon have the clusters of petunias like they had last year.

Mrs. Whittington received a bachelor of arts and education degree in April at WSC with a major in English. She is a National Honor society member.

Resigning from the faculty was Joan Heck. She had been in the junior high system for one year and is leaving Wayne to be with her husband who will teach elsewhere.

UNIDENTIFIED STRIKER did not have to walk long Monday. He is shown at the Rice addition on the WSC campus. Sheet metal union had a striker at the new fine arts building construction site also. The strike was short-lived.

Cash Night Drawing Has $250 Jackpot

The cash night jackpot will be for $250 tonight (Thursday). There was no winner last Thursday as Frances A. Wilkerson, Coleridge, was not in one of the participating stores when the winning name was called.

The name is announced at 8 p.m. every Thursday evening in all of the participating stores. You must be in one of the stores if your name is called.

Class to Be Confirmed At Grace Church Sunday

Confirmation services are planned at 10 a.m. Sunday, May 9, at Grace Lutheran church. Members of the class are Sarah Ahlman, William Baier, Christine Bernthal, Connie Ekberg, Ruth Ann Grosse, Rickey Harrington, Lorie Helthold, Margo Loessel, Joyce Longe, Wayne Magdanz, Jean Meyer, Lytle Nelson, Velma Tamme, Warren Tiedtke, Thomas Victor, Kevin Victor and Janet Zach.

Call to Rhode Island Gets County 'Adoption' Approval

Wayne county scored a first Tuesday. A call was placed from Wayne to the Chamber of Commerce in Providence, informing that state Wayne county intends to adopt it for the period from now through 1967.

Wanda Owens, C. of C. manager, talked with E. A. Palmer, Providence C. of C. executive vice president. They exchanged information on the state and county in a taped interview that will be broadcast over WJAG Monday, May 10, at 3:30 p.m. The state had suggested Nebraska counties "adopt" states to promote the centennial. A call to the state director, Don Shiner, revealed that Wayne county was the first in the state to take the telephone approach.

Palmer was told of Wayne county's pheasants and many attractions. He said a neighbor of his was in the area last fall and was highly pleased with his hunting trip. Brochures on Wayne county are to be sent to him and he will send some here on Rhode Island. Plans call for a constant exchange of information right up until centennial time.

Providence is 330 years old this year. It is in an industrial state with population under a million. Two big Providence projects underway include a downtown mall with "wall-to-wall" paving, planters and other attractions and the world's first hurricane dam located on the bay to prevent a repeat of the hurricane-backed floods of 1958.

Other plans for centennial promotion include contacting all newspapers in the state to give them information about Wayne county and to get information about them. Rhode Island is small with only eight colleges and only 21 towns with Chambers of Commerce. It seems ready to hear more about Wayne and Wayne should hear more about it.

Comedy Will Be Presented By Musicians

A musical comedy that was long a Broadway success, "Hit the Deck," will be presented Monday, May 10, at 7:30 p.m. in the Wayne City auditorium by the vocal and instrumental music departments of the high school.

Don Schumacher and Clayton Southard are in charge of the colorful laugh-filled musical. Many choral and instrumental groups have parts in the production in addition to the speaking-singing roles.

It will look like the fleet's in when the Vincent Youman-Herbert Fields production takes the stage. Based on navy life, it is loaded with laughs, well-known music and many costumes.

Cast members are Terry Karel, Glen Graves, Phyllis Ellermeier, Bob Wriedt, Ken Marra, Don Peterson, Dave Rees, Linda Kane, Debbie Wightman, Janice Brown, Russell Wax, Eric Manley, Ken Chambers, Nancy Wolters, Stuart Bernthal, John Brandstetter, Dean Eloffson and Kaki Christensen.

There are no reserved seats and the seating will be on a first-come first-served basis.

Area Shippers

Area shippers to Sioux City last week included Glen Granquist, Wayne, 60 butchers, wt. 191 lbs., $19.25; Voss Brothers, Winside, 23 steers, wt. 1,225 lbs., $25.25.

Winside Pupils to Get Another Week

Smiles spread over Winside high school pupils' faces this week when it was learned they would not get out of school May 21. Another week has been tacked onto the term and school is scheduled to end May 29.

The extra week is necessary to meet state requirements for school days. Winside missed too many days this last winter and in spite of some Saturday classes still has a week to make up. Supt. Wayne Gesirich said the WHS schedule calls for baccalaureate May 16 and commencement May 20 with Doug Spencer of WSC speaking. A teachers' workshop will be held May 28 and report cards will be picked up May 29.

Winside grade school will have picnics May 27. Teacher workshop will be May 28 and report cards will be picked up May 29. Seniors will report May 24 for their report cards and will not have to attend after that.

Explorers Book 'Things'

"The Blue Things," a combo booked out of KOMA in Oklahoma City, is coming to Wayne. Explorers Scouts have booked the unit for June 5 at the City auditorium. Popular with the younger teenagers, combos such as this are roaming the land and packing them in. Everyone will be welcome to the dance but kids will enjoy the appearance the most as background for the spasmodic gyrations that have taken the place of dancing.

Kiwanis Honors Junior and Senior High Leading Pupils

In two separate activities, Wayne Kiwanis club is honoring pupils highest in scholarship in junior high grades and in senior high school. The younger ones were honored at a noon meal Monday and the high school pupils will be honored at a banquet Friday evening.

The Friday dinner will be in the student union at WSC. Honored will be over 30 WHS pupils who have been on the honor roll each of the three periods of school so far this year.

Open to the public, it is intended to give recognition to those who excel in scholastic work. Tickets are still available from banks in Wayne and Carroll, at Dale's jewelry and from any Kiwanis.

Monday the top boy and the top girl in the seventh and eighth grade at St. Mary's and the seventh, eighth and ninth grade in the public school were honored at dinner. Certificates were presented to each for their work to attain the top spots.

St. Mary's was represented by Ted Armbruster and Kathy Coan from the seventh grade and Mike Garvin and Debbie Allen, from the eighth grade.

Robert Penn and Kathleen Priele came from public school ninth grade; Debbie Allen and Jodey Hoogner from the eighth grade and Dennis Ellermeier, Diane Olds and Leah Havener from the seventh grade. Leah and Diane tied for girls' top rank in their grade.

Cub Scouts Will Hold Kite Flying Contests

With one Cub Scout pack kite flying contest out of the way, another is coming up. Pack 174 will hold its contests Sunday, May 16, at 2 p.m. at the municipal airport.

Contests will be held for the highest flying kite, best novelty kite, dashes and other events. Prizes will be given in each division for kites made by the boys.

In case of bad weather, the contests will be postponed one week. The public is invited to attend the meet and encourage favorites in the various events.

Fire Patrol Service Set

Junior Fire patrol graduation will be held Monday, May 10, at 7 p.m. in the fire hall. Graduation exercises will be held for the youngsters who have completed the training with the fire department the past year. There will be about 25 boys and girls honored. The public is invited to attend.

American Field Service to Sponsor Exchange Student

Allen Longe

Allen Longe Will Get Intern Honor

Allen Longe, son of Mrs. Ida Longe, Wayne, is one of two April graduates at Wayne State who has received an award for graduate study next year.

He and Thomas Sockack of Sioux City both will be graduate interns in history at the University of Cincinnati, where he will study for a Ph.D. His home is in Cedar Rapids, Ia.

Allen Concert Tuesday

The vocal music department of Westwood Community schools of Sloan, Ia., will present a concert Tuesday, May 11, at 8 p.m. in the Allen school auditorium. Rodney White, AHS music director, reports there is no admission charge and the public is invited. Myron Armour is director of music at Westwood.

Scout Exposition Ready

The Scout exposition in Norfolk Saturday is about ready. Wayne Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts have been working on their entries this week. The exposition will be open from 3 to 5 in the afternoon and from 7 to 9 in the evening. Most Scouts, Explorers and Cubs in the area are taking part.

Gas Money During April Passed Out

Wayne county received $363 and the city of Wayne $576 for April gas tax money. The funds come from the new one-half cent tax on gasoline.

All incorporated towns and all counties in the state will share in the receipts from the additional tax. Amounts given Carroll, Hoskins and other area towns were not learned.

The law went into effect April 1. It provides that 80 per cent of money taken in on the half cent tax will go to incorporated towns of the state on a population basis for street work and the remaining 20 per cent will go to counties for road work.

A tribe of "Indians" from West Kearney school will invade Wayne Friday, May 14 for the Wayne County Centennial committee free program at the City auditorium. A bongo drum player will accompany the Indians.

Don Shiner, state centennial director, called the first of the week to reveal the availability of the troupe. Another call to Kearney confirmed their desire to make appearances.

The West Kearney school puts on authentic Indian dances in colorful Indian costumes along Highway 30 each summer. Their programs have become a local and tourist attraction.

The bongo drum player is an artist in his own right. He will come with the Indians to add one more feature to the program.

As set up now, those coming early for the free program will get to listen to a genuine piano, the type that uses perforated rolls of paper to play a distinctive style of rinky-link music.

Winside's square dancers will add color with a presentation called by Dave Chambers. Following the program everyone that wants to stay and do some square dancing of their own will find the Winsiders and Chambers there to help.

All five mayors of Wayne county will be presented honorary memberships in the county's centennial organization. They are: John Kuhl, Sholes; Ted Kollath, Hoskins; Vernie Hubert, Carroll; N. L. Dittman, Winside; and Chris Tietgen, Wayne.

High school chumbers will include the brass chorus directed by Don Shumacher and the madrigal singers directed by Clayton Southwick. Bonita Vandegrift will direct the elementary school chorus in a number.

Shriner will be here to see what Wayne county is doing and to tell what is planned for the state. Bill Gallibrath, Beemer, chairman of the Nebraska centennial organization, will also be introduced and say a few words.

Ken Dahl will be master of ceremonies. He has worked with the centennial committee in organizing the program. A variety of numbers attractive for all ages has resulted.

VFW Safety Program for Bikes Aided

Wayne VFW conducted another "light-a-bike" program at schools in the city Tuesday. It continued the safety program the veterans organization started last November when over 200 bicycles were taped.

Scotchite reflecting tape is used. Rear fenders, handlebars and the sides of frames are given strips of tape which are adhesive safety features after dark.

Walter Chinn, chairman for the project, said almost 200 bikes were taped Tuesday. Bikes at St. Mary's, West, Northeast and WHS were included in the project.

Volunteer workers from the VFW were Roy Beeks, C. C. Powers, Cleve Shaker, Harry Swinney and John Groskurth. Henry Wesselo, not a veteran, had helped last time the VFW carried out the project and he was on hand Tuesday to help again.

Winside Power Plant to Go on Emergency Basis First Time Since First Installed

Winside's power plant, which has served the town since it was first installed when the 75-year-old town was young, is going on a standby basis. A contract has been signed for bureau of reclamation power.

Mayor N. L. Dittman said the contract is a three-way affair. The bureau will bring the power to a point three miles east of town and the Wayne County Public Power district will bring it from there to Winside.

REA has been serving the baseball field and some other points along the edge of town. The municipal power plant has been "on its own" much of the time and when power developed there, service was endangered.

This arrangement does not provide for the abandonment of the Winside municipal utility and it will be ready for use at all times should there be a break in service. The tie-in with REA and the bureau offers double protection to power customers.

No change in rates is anticipated and there will be few personnel changes if any. The town still has to have someone on hand to transact business so there will be someone at the power plant most of the time.

District Winners Named in Contest

The district 4-H speech contest was held at Wayne State Saturday with no entries from the host county. Dr. Robert Johnson and Bryce Wilkinson of WSC, Lyle Henning of Plainview and Jerrold Groves of Neligh were judges.

In the girls' division, Brenda Faith, Royal, won for Antelope county speaking on "Do We Care Enough?" The boys' division was won by Larry Kohles, Bloomfield, representing Knox county and speaking on "Speak Up 4-Hers."

Blue ribbon winners among the girls were: Marie Krause, Boone; Barbara Wattier, Pierce; Joanne Wacker, Madison; and Anne Krauper, Dakota. Winning blue ribbons among the boys were Robert Ten Haken, Thurston; Rick Leapley, Cedar; and Van Volls, Madison.

Red ribbons went to Kathy Mandler, Cedar; LeAnn Jackson, Thurston; Sherry Kohles, Knox; Pat Ryan, Dakota; and Larry Anderson, Antelope.

Honest Man Reports No Loss Due to Accident

An honest man has been found in Wayne. He may not be the only one but his type of honesty is rare enough to warrant special mention.

Friday Maralee Jean Bahe was backing away from the curb. Her vehicle struck a parked car. She got out, saw that the parked car was scratched and notified police.

Officer Keith Reed investigated and sure enough, the side where the Bahe car had hit the other vehicle there were scratches. So, a report was made and the owner of the second car contacted.

Owner of the parked car was Otto Gerleman. His car had scratches in the left fender. However, he pointed out that the scratches had been there before the accident and as far as he could see there had been no new damage.

The Bahe insurance would have covered repair but Gerleman would not have it. He said he thought he should get the scratches fixed though. When he does, neither his fender nor his conscience will be blemished.

Winside Girl Graduates Sunday at Conservatory

Cheryl Behmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Behmer, Winside, is one of the graduates of Sacred Heart conservatory in Norfolk this year. She will appear in concert Sunday, May 9, at 8 p.m. in the Burns high gym.

Miss Behmer, a senior at Winside high school, has been studying music nine years under Sister Cecelia at the academy. Sunday night she will play a piano concerto and two other numbers.

Wednesday Miss Behmer took the examinations for the National Piano Teachers Guild. She will be eligible to teach following the award from that group and receiving her diploma at Sacred Heart.

Lions Give Three Projects Backing

Meeting Thursday night, Wayne Lions club members voted to support three projects. Their money and their labor will go into the projects.

The club became the first civic group or organization to give money for the foreign exchange student fund of AFS sponsored by the Wayne high student council. Lions voted $75 to the fund and invited a student council member to be a guest at the May 18 meeting to explain plans.

In another field, the baseball field that is, the Lions have work underway on getting the new electric scoreboard put up. The holes have been dug and Al Koplin, committee chairman, reports several volunteers ready to help with the work of erecting the scoreboard.

Over in Norfolk the state Lions club convention is to be held June 4-5-6. Wayne Lions will have an entry in the parade to help Norfolk have a better and bigger parade and show.

Cliff Dahl reported on the centennial committee program May 14. A report was also made on the visit to Wakefield Lions club, West Plains, Mo. Cliff Dahl, Charles Denesha and Hugo Zimmerman going from the local club.

Winside Teacher Gets PTA Honors

Mrs. Jim Troutman, teacher in the Winside school system, 24 1/2 years, has been awarded PTA honors. She is now a lifetime PTA member for service to education, her school and her community.

The state sets up the requirements for such membership, which includes being active in PTA functions. Locally she was cited for her years of help and personal assistance to the young people of Winside.

Mrs. Allen Schrant, Winside PTA president, and Mrs. Cecil Price, secretary, presented a certificate and pin to Mrs. Troutman. She was cited for work "above and beyond the call of duty" as a teacher in serving her school and pupils.

At present Mrs. Troutman is on leave of absence from Winside schools following surgery. She expects to resume teaching in the system in the 1965-66 term.

FIFTEEN YEARS of service in 4-H work was recognized at Hoskins at the 4-H leaders' banquet. Mrs. Val Damm, county chairman, is shown with County Agent Harold Ingalls.

'Up on Old Smokey,' Mountain Musicals, Will Be Presented Friday in Winside

An operetta, "Up on Old Smokey," will be presented by the Winside high music department Friday, May 7, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Otto Mueller is director and the production is open to the public.

Cast members include Cheryl Behmer, Larry Ritze, Roger Hill, Steve Mueller, Keith Kreuger, Karolyn Deck, Warren Gallop, Mickey Topp, Helen Hamm, Connie Jones and Judy Walker.

Other musicians have parts in choruses and small group. The story is based on folk songs and folk logic of the Appalachian mountain area. It concerns a teacher awaiting the return of her lover from the city and the activities of her grandpappy to divert her love to a man who remained in the hills.

Mountain feuds, mountain songs, hillbilly settings and a comedy atmosphere highlight the production. A comedy-musical, it is an entirely new undertaking for the WHS music department.

Orientation Plans for Sixth Grade Announced

Sixth grade pupils in three elementary schools will receive junior high orientation Monday, May 12. Principal Loren Park and Counselor Stan Hansen are joining in the plans.

There are two programs scheduled, each in the multipurpose room of the West elementary school. Sixth grade pupils will also be taken on a tour of Wayne junior high facilities.

As seventh grade pupils next term they will be in junior high. The program for West elementary sixth grade pupils will be at 9 Monday and the one for pupils in the Carroll elementary school, and Northeast elementary school, will be at 2:30.

STRAYER junior college has named Beverly Daum, daughter of the Alvin Daums, Wisner, to the honor roll. She was a student at Wayne high last year and graduated in the upper third of her class. Strayer is in Washington, D. C.

Spats, Garbage, Skate Boards Draw Complaint

Wayne police have had all types of complaints to answer the past week. They range from neighborhood spats to garbage in the alley and noisy kids on skate boards.

One complaint was on garbage in a drainage ditch, no one wanting to admit putting it there. Another was on junk in the alley.

Neighbors even had disagreement over whose yard a fence was in. One thought his neighbor's fence was in his yard while the fence owner thought it was in the right place. It will take a survey to decide.

Other complaints included a store owner who caught two juveniles shoplifting phonograph records; a call from an Iowa lady who couldn't find her husband in Wayne — the police located him; complaints from sleepers that kids on skate boards were too noisy at 10:30 p.m.; and a lost bicycle that was found right where the kid said he'd left it in the first place.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wesely, Mr. and Mrs. Awalt Walker and Mr. and Mrs. George Wittler attended the cinerama last Saturday.

went to Mrs. Aaron Brodhagen, Mrs. C. K. Welch, Mrs. Irving Anderson, Mrs. William Webster, Mrs. Elton Welch and Mrs. William Cox. May 6 meeting will be with Mrs. William Cox.

Junior Homemakers Meet

Hoskins Junior Homemakers met at the home of Denise Pils Apr 29. The meeting was opened by saying the flag salute. Ten members answered roll call by reading a menu for three meals. A supper was planned May 21 at 6:30 at the home of Mrs. Schroeder. The members planned the menu and will furnish the food. The leaders and Denise demonstrated how to make apple pie. Mrs. Schroeder showed how to set a table properly and discussed table manners. Each member brought a small fruit pie. Each were judged by others. Jean Mann, news reporter.

Emil Gutzman entered Lutheran Community hospital, Norfolk, Monday evening.

AIRMAN Jerry Weiershauser, son of the Conrad Weiershausers, Wayne, has been selected for technical training as a communications-electronics specialist at the air training command school, Keesler, AFB, Miss., after completing air force basic at Lackland AFB, Tex. He is a 1962 graduate of Wayne high.

Blue Devil Baseball Team Wins Opener in District

Wayne's Blue Devils had no trouble outting last year's district champion Creston team in the first round of the district baseball tournament at Dodge Tuesday afternoon, 12-2. The win moved the WHS nine to a semifinal berth against the Dodge team at 3:30 Thursday.

Creston was badly hit by graduation from last year's championship team. They went four innings without a hit while Wayne was amassing 12 runs. Only after reserves went in did the losers tally.

The Manske brothers had a good day at the plate. Doug had three hits in three trips with a triple, single and double. Jack was also three for three with two doubles and a single. Randy Olson had a double and a single and Terry Lutt and Phil Kelton two singles apiece.

D. Manske struck out 11 and walked one. B. Kapel and G. Blessen shared Creston hurling honors, striking out two. They faced ten batters the first frame, nine in the second, six in the third and four in the fourth.

Creston managed a fielding gem in a double play from W. Hellbusch at second to D. Lermes at first. B. Kapels had a sacrifice for the losers and Glen Nichols and Kelton sacrificed for the WHS cause.

Dodge will be the Thursday foe of the Blue Devils. Dodge defeated Emerson Sacred Heart 10-5 and the best Dodge hurler was being saved, according to Mike Mallette and Hank Overin.

Blue Devils Edge Laurel Thinclads

Laurel's Bears were almost more than Wayne could handle in track Friday afternoon in a dual meet. The Blue and White prevailed 56½-52½ but it was a close call.

Practic meets are over for the Jerry Ball team now. They go to Norfolk Friday for the Husker conference meet. The district and the state meets also remain on the schedule.

Guinn of Laurel was the only double winner, taking the discus and the 100. A freshman from Wayne, Dave Brown, won the high jump for one of the local high-lights. Tom Addison, Wayne placed in the top three in five different events.

WSC Runners Get Some Honors at Sioux City

Ken Katzer brought top honors home to Wayne State from the Sioux City Relays Friday. He won the college-division mile in 4:27.4. Teammate Carl Owczarszak placed third in the mile. Ed Humpal was the only Wildcat earning two places—third in the discus, fourth in the shot put.

Larry Schlines tied for third in high jump. Darrell Reisdorf was fifth in the 100 dash, and the Wayne medley relay placed third.

County's Racers Win Two Openers

Wayne county stock car racers got off to a good start Sunday, winning at both South Sioux City and Norfolk. The South Sioux races are straight stock car races while at Norfolk the modified jobs are allowed.

A car owned by Louis Meyer, Wayne, driven by Gary Nilsen, Ralston, won the B feature. Nelson, a driver for Meyer since 1957, drove the 1935 Hudson with original engine and tied for first in a close one.

The prize was a jacket and $60 cash. Gene Behmer, Wayne, driving a car from Allen, finished out of the money when his vehicle developed engine trouble.

At Norfolk, Bunny Herscheil, Winslow, was top money winner with $182 in prizes. Hoskins driver, Willie Falk, Gerald Bruggeman and Gerald Bruggeman, also finished in the money.

Bruggeman was first in the first heat with Falk third. Herscheil won the second heat; Bruggeman won the third; Bruggeman was first and Herscheil second in the trophy dash; Herscheil was first, Bruggeman second and Bruggeman fourth in the B feature; and Herscheil was first, Bruggeman sixth and Bruggeman eighth in the A feature.

Schriber Sets Record

Bill Schriber, former Wayne resident now of Coleridge, set a new record three-game sanctioned series record Sunday of 685 bowling in the Coleridge Lanes open bowling tournament. He rolled games of 255, 257 and 173 for the scratch mark.

WHS Perfect Tilt Spoiled by Error

A near-perfect tilt went down the drain with one error Wednesday afternoon of last week. Doug Manske faced only 16 batters and allowed no hits as the Wayne Blue Devils defeated Creighton St. Ludger's 12-1 on the losers' diamond.

Manske fanned seven and set the side down in order every inning except the second. In the second, Wenge got on base through an error and moved around to score the only run for the host nine.

The Blue Devils pounded the ball for 15 hits including six doubles, one triple and a home run. In the second frame they got five hits and in the fifth frame they had four.

Phil Kelton had the four-bagger with one on base and Jerry Wehrer hit a triple. Jack Manske, Doug Manske, Rich Helgren, Randy Olson, Gordie Jorgensen and Glen Nichols each hit a double. Nichols, Wehrer, J. Manske had two hits apiece.

Mike Manion the St. Ludger's pitcher, struck out six and walked two. There was no indication

TOM EATON, Wakefield, is about to break the tape in the low hurdles in the Wisner-Wakefield-Wayne triangular. Gerald Muller, Wakefield, Tom Addison, Wayne, and Larry Moller, Wisner, finished in that order behind him.

Wakefield Edges Wayne, Wisner

Wakefield Trojans edged Wayne and Wisner track teams in a meet on the WSC oval Tuesday afternoon. The Maroon and White had 52 points and Wisner and Wayne 47½ each.

Randy Koehler won three first places for Wisner. The Gold and Black scored a sweep in the pole vault, neither Wakefield nor Wayne competing.

Following are the event results: High hurdles, Gerald Muller, Wak, Larry Moller Wis, Gale Rabe Wis, Duane Fisher, Wak, 16.7; broad jump, Randy Koehler Wis, Lonnie Nixon, Wak, Tom Addison, Way, Dave Brown Way, 19' 3 3/4"; shotput, Mike Carman Way, Russ Stigge Wis, Nyle Erxleben Way, Brent Skinner Wis, 49' 4 1/2";

Wayne High Golf Team Loses Pair of Matches

Golfers from Wayne high lost a pair of matches the past week. Norfolk blanked the Blue Devils 15-0 Thursday and Schuyler won over the locals Monday.

Doug Tritas had a 70 for Norfolk. Other NHS scores were Ray Lee 78, Jim Shads 77, Bob Northrup 77 and Doug Evans 84. Their Wayne counterparts scored like this: Bob Reeg 88, Don Koerber 90, Kendall Longe 92, Jim Chambers 100 and John Brandsletter, 104.

Monday afternoon on the WCC links, three boys had 37 scores for medalist honors. Schuyler used only 153 strokes while it took Wayne 175.

John Heffner and Fritz Wington of SHS and Bob Reeg of Wayne had 37. Bud Houdek of Schuyler had 41 and Bob Johnson 38. Kendall Longe and John Brandsletter made the round in 45 each and Don Koerber had 48.

Coach Harold Maciejewski is trying to line up one more practice meet for the local team before state competition. The state golf meet is in Lincoln, May 21-22.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Toay and family, Pierce, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Petersen and Robin, Piller, were Wednesday visitors in the Ed Ahlmann home. Supper guests Friday in the Ahlmann home were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jensen and Debbie, Norfolk.

Peru State Romps Over Wildcats in Dual Meet

Peru State's resurgent track team swamped Wayne State's, 83½ to 49½, in a dual at Peru Tuesday.

The victorious Bobcats won 12 of 17 events and a sizable share of seconds and thirds. Wayne winners were: Darrell Nelson in the 100 at 10 flat; Ren Buel in the 880 at 2:01.1; Larry Schlines in the high jump at 6-2; Ed Humpal in the discus with a 50-6 effort.

Schlines was a fraction of an inch under the Wayne high jump record, and Humpal was only inches short of his own college marks in both the discus and shot.

WSC Hope for Repeat NCC Baseball Crown Stays High

The possibility of a repeat championship in Nebraska College Conference baseball rests on a Wayne doubleheader Saturday afternoon with Kearney State.

If Wayne beats Kearney in both games, chances are good for the Wildcats to keep the crown they won last year and shared with Kearney the year before. A twin win would finish Wayne's season at 6-2 and leave only Chadron with a chance to tie.

Currently both Chadron and Kearney are 1-1 in conference; Peru at last report, 3-3; Hastings 2-4.

The Wayne-Kearney bill begins at 1 p.m. in the college diamond. The Wildcats were scheduled for a single non-conference game Wednesday night at 8 on the city diamond. This was a change from the original schedule of an afternoon doubleheader with Nebraska Wesleyan College.

Wayne split two doubleheaders last weekend and went into the game with a 6-5 season.

The Cats handed Morningside its first loss of the year, but rebounded to the level 8-6 in the nightcap Friday Saturday at Vinton. Chadron State measure Wayne, 7-5 in the opener, but Wayne rebounded 3 in the return game.

Winner in the Morningside contest was Bernie Robinson, a senior who pitched his first full game in three seasons. He limited the Chiefs to four hits while four Morningside hurlers gave up 11.

Big gun for Wayne was first baseman Duane Wehrer, who clubbed in seven runs with a homer, double and single.

The second game produced ten homers—three by Morningside—are counting for nearly all the scoring. Bill Arndt and Tom Mousel poked

Wayne State Invitational Attracting Eleven Entries

The revival of Wayne State's Invitational Track and Field Meet Friday will add two new features—a college division and an evening schedule.

Six high schools and five colleges have entered the meet, which will have an afternoon session at 2:30 and an evening finale at 7. There is no admission charge for either session.

The high school entrants are Allen, Battle Creek, Crofton, Lynch, Spencer and Winside. The colleges are Chadron State, Dakota Wesleyan, Sioux Falls, Dakota Wesleyan and Wayne State.

Wayne Track Coach Carl Ellermeier said the meet schedule includes all the standard events at high school and college levels, and teams will be scored for the championship of each division.

The Wayne Invitational was an annual event through 1961, but schedule conflicts thwarted it the past three years.

Class B and C district meets are slated on the WSC track May 13.

Wayne State Golfers Win Three-Way Meet

Wayne State golfers defeated Creighton, 9 1/2 to 5 1/2, and South Dakota University, 10-5, in a meet here Saturday.

In dual scoring, Creighton downed SDU 11 1/2 to 3 1/2.

Wayne's Bill Erickson was medalist with a 7, defeating Bob Milera, Creighton, 2 1/2-1/2, and Alex Kazos, SDU, 2 1/2-1/2. Hudson, Wayne, and Dennis Houlihan, Creighton, tied at 1 1/2 each, and Lasher defeated Roger Mueller, SDU, 3-0.

Roger Sharp, W. defeated Tom McGovern C, 2-1, and John Vincent SDU, 3-0. George Zeiner W. defeated Mike Conway C, 3-0, and lost to Winside finished second in the Lewis & Clark conference track meet Wednesday. Ponca finished first with 66 1/2 points. Winside had 45 1/2. Hartington Cedar Catholic 34, Hartington 26, Allen 23, Emerson 14, Norfolk Burns 12, Coleridge 3 and Randolph 0.

Coch Pete Kropp will take the Wildcats to the Wayne Invitational at WSC Friday. Monday they have a dual with Wausa at Winside at 3 p.m. and they compete in the district Class C meet at Wayne May 13.

Lee Pfeiffer won first in the high jump and shot put to pace the WSC effort. The Winside relay team of Keith Schmede, Bob Dangberg, Reed Wacker and Charles Slahn picked up the only other first for the Red and White.

Following are Winside's results:

Wakefield Man Presides

At the Midwest regional conference of the Evangelical Covenant Heights at Estes Park, Colo., last weekend, Pastor Fred Jansson, Wakefield, was elected to serve another term as president, his third term in the office. Jon Anderson, Wakefield, was named to the conference board of Christian education. Mrs. Reynold Anderson, Wakefield, was a delegate to the women's division of the conference. Pastor Jansson talked on "Our Mission as a Church" at the sessions and spoke at First Covenant church, Denver, Sunday morning.

Devils Undefeated in Short Regular Season

Wayne's Blue Devils finished the regular baseball season with a 10-1 win over Emerson Sacred Heart Friday afternoon on the local diamond. It left the Blue and White undefeated in an abbreviated season as they swing into district play-off action this week.

Dean Eliotson went all the way on the mound for WHS, striking out seven, giving up six free trips by walks or hit-by-pitches and allowing only one safe hit. Ray Burns started for Sacred Heart and Jerry Belt and Don Starzl also hurled for the visitors in the final frame.

Each team racked up a double play. Wayne did it first in the initial stanza when Rich Helgren threw to Jerry Wehrer at home to catch a man and Wehrer fired to Helgren to get a runner going to third. Sacred Heart turned the trick in the fourth on a play from the pitcher, Burns, to the catcher, Bill Duggan, to first baseman, Don Starzl.

WSC Tennis Team Ties Team from Creighton U

Wayne State's tennis team with out a court scored a 3-3 tie with Creighton Saturday in Omaha. Creighton won three of the four singles matches, but Wayne won both doubles events.

In singles, Jim Fogarty, Creighton, defeated Dehn Hass, 6-3, 3-6, 6-2; Rod Whorow, Wayne, defeated Tom Stable, 6-1, 5-3; John Easley C. defeated Rich Ollenbar, 6-3, 6-2; and Blain Finerty C. defeated Dwight Keith, 6-3, 6-2.

In doubles Hass and Whorlow, Wayne, defeated Fogarty and Stable, 6-1, 2-6, 6-0; Ollenbar and Keith, Wayne, defeated Easley and Finerty, 3-6, 6-1, 8-6.

Wayne's netmen are minus a place to play as construction of a new dormitory has eliminated the existing courts. Limited practice has been done on courts at Laurel.

Hal Walter, graduate assistant in physical education, is coaching the team.

Physical Fitness Test Being Given to Pupils

The test for physical fitness as suggested by the President's Council on Youth Fitness is being given Wayne grade school pupils under the direction of Principal Loren Park.

No physical education program is offered in the elementary schools but evaluating physical fitness is still considered important. Tests given compare efforts by youngsters with standards set up by the government.

Pupils in the fifth and sixth grades are being tested this week. Spring is recorded according to age and sex with each child recording his own score sheet which will become a part of the permanent records.

Primary emphasis is placed on competition with oneself and the ability to improve in physical activities year by year. The results are a strong motivation for pupils to do all they can to develop physically.

The test includes: pull-ups for boys and modified pull-ups for girls; sit-ups; shuttle run; standing broad jump; 50-yard dash; softball throw; and 600-yard run-walk.

Pilger Lad Hurt When Hit by Baseball Bat

Tom Taage, 13, Pilger, was taken to Methodist hospital in Omaha Sunday and submitted to surgery Tuesday after being injured when accidentally struck on the head by a baseball bat.

The mishap occurred Apr. 20, at District 14. Tom was pushed into a boy batting a ball, the bat striking him behind the ear. He was taken to a doctor and permitted to return to school. Friday he went on a tour of Lincoln with his schoolmates.

Sunday he became ill and was taken to Norfolk and then to Omaha. His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Hawkins, his mother and a nurse, Mrs. Carl Schneider took him to Omaha and his father went there Tuesday. His condition Tuesday was "satisfactory."

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Fisher, Burlingame, Calif., arrived Friday to spend several days in the T. T. Jones home.

PRINCIPAL LOREN PARK is giving physical fitness tests at the grade schools this week. Mike Creighton is shown carrying back an eraser in a shuttle race against time. The fifth and sixth grade boys and girls are taking the tests.

Jayne K. Hughes, Merlin Brugger Married April 21

Jayne K. Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ismael Brugger, Wayne, and Merlin A. Brugger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walden Brugger, Winside, were married in double ring rites Apr. 21 at Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic church, Carroll.

Father Meyer, Randoiph, officiated at the rites. Rev. Cecil Bliss, Wayne, was soloist. Accompanist was Mrs. Leo Jordan, Carroll.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a cameo neckline enhanced with sequins, and long tapered sleeves. The skirt featured a front peplum with ruffled lace tiers and a chapel train. Her silk illusion veil was held by a lace petal crown accented with sea pearls. She carried an arrangement of red, white and blue roses with removable corsage and a white Bible.

Geraldine Gilbert, Wayne, was maid of honor. Mrs. Janice Hughes, Norfolk, was bridesmaid. Both wore sky blue brocade satin gowns with short sleeves and boat necklines. Their headpieces were fitted large blue bows with blue veils. Each carried a single long stem white mum tied with blue and white ribbon.

Harlan Brugger, Winside, was best man. Evan Hughes, Norfolk, was groomsmen. Ushers were Jim Mau, Wayne, and Dick Jenkins, Norfolk.

Mona Petersen, Scottsbluff, was flower girl. Bobby Bowers, Truman, Minn., was ringbearer.

The bride's mother wore a powder blue dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a powder blue ensemble with beige accessories. Both had white orchid corsages.

For her going-away ensemble the bride chose a two-piece white suit with navy blue accessories and a red sweetheart rose corsage.

A reception for 125 guests was held at First Methodist church, Wayne. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peterson, Scottsbluff, were hosts. Mrs. Jim Mau, Wayne, registered the guests. Janet McLaughlin, Rock Rapids, and Bette Hayward, Holstein, Ia., arranged the gifts.

Mrs. Gary Gueck and Mrs. Frank Gueck, Omaha, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Ross James, Wayne, poured. Mrs. Bill Denkiner, served punch. Waitresses were Fern Anderson and Myra Walker, Wayne, Paula and Lana Peterson, Scottsbluff, Darla Munderloh, Bancroft, and Janet Viricka, Schuyler. Assisting in the kitchen were Mrs. Roy Day, Mrs. Ora Wax, Mrs. Keith Reed, Mrs. Kenneth Olds, Mrs. Walter Woods and Mrs. Walter Simons.

The bride attended Wayne high schools and Wayne State College. The bridegroom was graduated from Wayne high school in 1962. The couple reside on a farm near Winside.

Refugee from Hungary Continues Chosen Career in Retirement Center in Wayne

A young man who came to the United States seven years ago when the only English he knew was "okay," is a new employee of Dahl's Retirement center while continuing his education at Wayne State college and seeking a career in physical therapy.

Gabriel Forrest, 23, a brown-eyed blond who grew up under communism and as a teenager engaged in black market trips into Czechoslovakia, has had "narrow escapes" on both sides of the Iron Curtain. He prefers the type of escapes he has had in this country.

His two close calls in the USA involved automobile accidents. Pretty thoroughly Americanized now, even to buying a car on time, he has had accidents in Nebraska and Missouri that set back his plan for financial independence.

Back in Hungary as a schoolboy he had been the target of Russian guns many times while crossing the border into Czechoslovakia. He took part in the Hungarian revolt in October of 1956, suffered several injuries in an explosion and still carries shrapnel in his knee and stomach from those bloody days.

Talking about that Hungarian revolt he showed signs of bitterness. He said he personally felt that if the West had shown the concern for Hungary that it does for Vietnam his country might be free. For five days the Russians stayed away, fearing armed open conflict if the West moved in. The West stayed away to and the Russians moved in thousands of tanks, blasting at everything and everyone to completely crush the one chance Hungary had to be free.

"I don't blame any country for not coming in though," Gabriel said. The third world war could have resulted, according to some people. Actually, they were wrong

He feels we have a government that belongs to the people and should let our senators and representatives know how we feel. He has been eligible for one election and voted. He doesn't intend to miss one.

"I have been in 18 countries and I still find the United States hard to believe," Gabriel said. He added that he came to this country to work not to ask help or charity. There are some Hungarians who came seeking riches on the belief that everyone in America is rich but he came to work, to earn his citizenship and to show his appreciation.

He said life in Hungary holds endless fear as people do not know who can be trusted. A casual joke or remark can be enough to result in prison confinement. If you listen to Radio Free Europe you can be turned in by the people who eavesdrop outside windows to catch someone at it. For that reason some people use earphones so people can't tell what they are listening to or even if they have a radio.

There is no chance for advancement in Hungary and the individual is destroyed. Those showing signs of genius are forced to go to Russia where their talents are used for the glory of Russia. That country takes discoveries of captive nations and claims them as Russian progress or inventions. No credit is given to the country of origin. An uprising new would draw nearly 100 per cent support but help from outside is needed, he said.

Gabriel quotes American history like he'd lived it. He has a sense of understanding for the hardships the pilgrims went through to gain freedom. His freedom was as hard to earn as theirs. Like them he devoutly thanks God for this nation but he deplores the moral decline of our nation, feeling that we owe so much to God and yet fail to show it. He fears that like the Roman empire we may fail to recognize our faults and discover too late that turning away from Christ is not the answer.

He came to Wayne State from the army because he wanted to enter school at once and WSC offered one of the few trimester systems. A friend, Gary Mohrman, Columbus, also was coming here. Both got out of the service 90 days early because they could enter school at once.

Gabriel is majoring in physical education and hopes to intern at Mayo Brothers in physical therapy. In addition to full courses, he works 50 hours a week at Dahl's, grateful for the opportunity Cliff and Ken Dahl are giving him.

Need a lesson in appreciation of your blessings? Need to know what love of country is? Need to find a living faith in Christianity with a purpose? Want to get a lift and find out how good you have it? Talk to Gabriel Forrest.

He has seen a lot of living in 23 years. He has endured much, sacrificed a lot and set his sights high to repay a nation for the right to live free. He knows how fortunate he is—he still hears from a mother and brother in Hungary and he reads through the censorship to realize conditions there have not changed. America is not perfect, but he doesn't expect to find anything better—not on this earth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lutt and Mrs. Harvey Lutt visited Herman Thompson in Pender hospital Friday.

Add New Books During National Library Week

Several new books of adult fiction were added to the Wayne Public Library for National Library Week in Wayne, every week is library week, so patrons are welcome to come in any day.

Many teenage books are being offered and with summer coming up, the youngsters are urged to find out how much fun reading can be. Records are also available for circulation.

New fiction added for adults includes: The Flight of the Falcon by Du Maurier; Not in the Calendar by M. Kennedy; Reapers of the Dust by L. Phillips; The Sea Flower by R. Moore.

Don't Stop the Carnival by H. Wouk; Mysterioser and Mysterioser by G. Bagby; The Grabhorn Bounty by C. Adams; The Hiding Place by C. Keith; and Daily and Sunday by R. Powell.

Will Go to East Berlin

Mrs. Maria Lippman and three children, Pilger, leave May 11 for a four-month visit in Germany. They fly from Omaha and will visit behind the Iron Curtain with her late husband's parents in East Berlin. The remainder of the time she will visit her family and other relatives and friends in West Berlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Stuebe, Winside, will be on the Lippman farm while the family is gone.

Belden Events Planned

Supt. Fred Deterville of the Belden schools has announced dates for baccalaureate and commencement in the system. Baccalaureate will be Sunday, May 16, at 7:30 p.m. in the Methodist church. Commencement will be Monday, May 17, at 8 p.m. in the BHS gym. Further details will be announced later.

PROM ROYALTY at Winside Saturday were Carolyn Deck and Charles Slahn. On the right with them is Greg Kirsch, junior class president who was banquet master of ceremonies and who crowned the pair.

Shangri-La Theme Winside High Hit

A "Shangri-La" theme was a hit at the Winside junior-senior banquet and prom Saturday night in the WHS gym. Mothers of the juniors prepared the meal and the waiters were from the sophomore class.

Diana Weible played accompaniment for two numbers by Oriental singers, Judy Walker, Connie Jones, Ruth Vahlkamp, Keith Kreuger, John Shipley and Keith McClary. Greg Kirsch was master of ceremonies and Gary Johnson responded for the seniors. They are class presidents.

Johnson also gave the class prophecy. Supt. Wayne Gesirich offered a few wise words: all Confucius and Kirsch crowned the prom queen and king, Carolyn Deck and Charles Slahn. Dancing to a teen-type combo followed.

Former Teacher Tells Earthquake Experience

Mrs. Wallace Hughes, Bainbridge Island, Wash., wrote for her mother-in-law, Mrs. Clyde Wilson, Wayne, this week, telling of her experience in the big earthquake that rocked the Pacific Northwest last week. Mrs. Hughes is a former Belden, Winside and Wakefield teacher, and her husband grew up in Wayne.

She writes: "It began at 8:20, just as we were getting set for the start of another school day. As I recall, the announcement had not begun coming over the intercom.

"Suddenly I was aware of a grinding noise, like many airplanes flying too low for comfort. I recall looking out the window. Then I was aware that I could feel the grinding under my feet. Still, I didn't immediately identify the cause.

"When the floor shook and shivered, I thought of the reason. I was still not concerned for my safety. The entire building continued to shake, heave and wobble. I braced myself and stood still, hoping only that it wouldn't get any worse.

"Some of the kids screamed, a couple of girls went into hysterics. As soon as the rumbling quit, we evacuated the building. The outside walk on my side had disintegrated at the roof and crumbled onto the lawn under our windows!

"As soon as the damage was ascertained, the administration told the students' school was dismissed. They could leave at once if they had transportation. If they were obliged to wait for buses, they were to wait in the grandstand. No one was allowed in the old building.

"According to the Seattle radio station, we had a boiler torn loose in the basement and I have no idea when we can reconvene. The building isn't worth fixing up. It contains 14 classrooms, a library and study hall. Time will tell."

Belden Firemen Busy
Belden volunteer firemen were busy the past week. Wednesday they were called to a grass fire at the Bliss Moseley place. Thursday a car caught fire on the Lloyd Heston farm southeast of Belden. Saturday a tractor driven by Don Helms caught fire and was a total loss, the gasoline tank exploding and enveloping the tractor in fire, even destroying the large tires.

Ditching Firm, Three Others Fined in Court

Neely & Askwith, Tilden, was fined in court Monday for failure to shore a ditch properly. It was one of four cases heard by County Judge David Hamer the past week.

Harold Askwith appeared for the ditching company. Charges brought by the county specified the case where a ditch caved in on a workman and he lost his life. The firm paid $100 fine and $6.50 costs.

Wednesday of last week, Stanley Nelson, Carroll, appeared on a charge of improper passing. He paid $10 fine and $5 costs. Charges were brought by Trooper Terry Rogers of the Nebraska Safety patrol.

Thursday Dale Fredrickson, Wakefield, appeared on a speeding charge, also brought by Trooper Rogers. He paid $15 fine and $5 costs.

Robert Miner, Wakefield, was in court for having a truck over-weight on capacity plates. A. Buchholz, scale operator, brought charges. The fine came to $10 and costs to $5.

Area Students at UN Cited for Scholarship

Several area young people were among 932 students at the University of Nebraska honored for high scholarship Tuesday. The annual honors convocation was the setting for the announcement.

Among seniors who earned superior scholarship by ranking in the upper three per cent of the class or by being on the honor roll every year since the freshman year were Linda Haisch of Concord, Raymond Kelton of Wayne, Dennis Wall-way and Jack Schwarz of Emerson and Joan Skinner of Winside.

All five were also honored for high scholarship for being in the upper ten per cent of the senior class. Juniors honored included Lila Haisch of Concord, Gaylord Richards of Wisner and Karen Boeckenhauer of Wayne.

Sophomores honored were Donna Echtenkamp and Lauren Boeckenhauer of Wayne, Loren Bonderson of Emerson and Paul Noe of Dixon. Freshmen honored were Leon Luzio and Janeen Curtiss of Emerson and Cynthia Olson of Carroll.

Law honors for the Nebraska Law Review went to Lloyd Hopper, Legislative Notes and Case Digests editor, Pender. Candidates for law honors included Budd Bornhoff, Jr., Wayne, Lloyd Hopper, Pender, also received membership in the Order of the Coif in law college.

Linda Ballou Receives Award for Scholarship

Linda Ballou of Omaha is Wayne State's recipient of an award from the Nebraska division of the American Association of University Women.

The award of an AAUW membership is made annually to the college's outstanding woman graduate.

Miss Ballou, who was graduated last month, has been an officer of Kappa Delta Pi, national honorary fraternity in education, and of the Wayne Student Education association. She majored in elementary education.

Area Evangelism Series Will Be Held May 9-13

Dr. Harry Denman, 71, former secretary of the Methodist general board of evangelism for 25 years, will be in this part of Nebraska May 9-13 for a week of evangelism sponsored by the Northeast district of the Nebraska Methodist conference under the leadership of Rev. Robert Calt, Pierre.

Described by Billy Graham as "the world's best personal evangelist," Dr. Denman will speak May 9 at 11 in Pierce Methodist church; at 5:30 in the Ainsworth Methodist church;

May 10 he will speak to district ministers and their wives at O'Neill; at 8 p.m. he will speak and lead a workshop on evangelism; May 11 he will preach and hold a workshop at Creighton Methodist church at 8 p.m.;

He will address ministers and wives at 10 a.m. May 12 in Laurel and hold an afternoon meeting; at 8 p.m. he preaches at Belden; May 13 he preaches at Dakota City and leads a workshop, services starting at 8 p.m.

Altona TOPS Unit Has Opening for Members

Altona TOPS club is seeking more members. One of a national group of TOPS (Take Off Pounds Sensibly) units, it now has about ten members.

Mrs. Keith Ellis and Mrs. Don Swanson are the newest members of the club. Any others interested in joining can get information from Mrs. Merlin Saul. Meetings are held Wednesday mornings.

Mrs. Ruth Baier, Mrs. Lorna Spittgerber, Mrs. Lois Miller, Mrs. Erna Greenwald, Mrs. Kay Saul and Mrs. Lavonne Reinhardt attended the state TOPS convention recently. Over 600 Nebraska women who admit they want to lose weight were present.

The "queen" chosen on the basis of most pounds lost in a year was a woman who had lost 108 pounds. Mrs. Norman Horst, Winside, was runner-up, having lost 96 pounds in 1964. Mrs. Saul was local queen with 45 pounds lost.

A big banquet was served those attending the state meeting—the rich food meant TOPS members had to diet for two weeks to take off the weight that one meal put on.

Mary Jenkins, Barbara Oehm — former WSC students

WSC Student Goes To German Namesake City

Barbara Oehm, Minden, Germany, a WSC Fulbright scholarship student, visited Minden, Nebr., last weekend as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wapp. She is to return to her own Minden to teach soon.

teacher there, is a former WSC student.

Barbara visited Carol Jo Strand (who visited Minden, Germany, in 1963, also with the William Meiers) who visited Minden in 1962, saw colored slides of Germany's Minden taken by Mrs. Wapp in 1963, toured Pioneer Village, ate corn off the cob for the first time.

Was on KHOL-TV, visited Mrs. Wilfred Werner, a former resident of Minden, Germany, who knows people Barbara knows; was guest of honor at a dinner in the Wapp home; presented a book on Minden, Germany, to the mayor of Minden, Nebr., for the city's library; and toured Minden's industries and business places.

Books, Magazines and Clothes Could Be Used

Residents of the Dahl Retirement center can probably use books, magazines or clothes you might not need anymore. The center has no room for any items by the truckload or boxful but there are specific needs.

If you have paperback books, magazines with lots of pictures and clothing-type magazines in addition to those with pictures. A few of the residents need clothes but do not have sufficient income to buy any.

Paperbacks, especially westerns, are in demand. Some women also like confession-type magazines in addition to those with pictures.

No appeal or drive is being made. Funds do not permit supplying all of these items but the need is there anyway. If you think you can help, a telephone call will be appreciated.

Hervale Farm Will Host Hereford Day

Plans have been formulated by the Nebraska Hereford association for a field day at Hervale Farms, Wayne, July 24. It is the first such day planned but it is hoped it will be so successful that further such days will be held annually.

Leland Herman, owner of Hervale Farms and a NHA director, will host the initial event. He met with William Schudel of North Loup and John Cooksey of Broken Bow, to plan the day. They are NHA president and secretary.

Helping the NHA with field day plans are Wanda Owens, Wayne Chamber of Commerce manager; Lawrence Kuhlmann and Tom Hanson, president and vice-president of Nebraska Junior Hereford association; Kent Mackey, AHA field representative; and Gene Kuykendahl of the American Polled Hereford association. There will be talks and demonstrations, individual and team prizes; junior division prizes; two registered Herefords to top judges; and other features. Hereford breeders, junior association members and 4-H and FFA members from Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota are invited.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly newspaper is an important department. Normally it is one person's opinion of topics that concern most of the readers. It is the duty of an editorial writer to search all available facts before he sits down to write. From this basis the writer should be able to give a clear picture of important topics.

You Can Help

It's hard to believe that in the middle of this city there are people who might feel they are not a part of the routine of life of Wayne. There is so much that can be done to make them feel otherwise. These people are at the Dahl Retirement center. If they were in many other towns, there would be a continuous program of entertainment and assistance but Wayne seems to have developed nothing to speak of along this line.

Many would enjoy a ride around town or into the country some afternoon or evening. Others just long to have someone come in and visit; to talk about familiar names and familiar places. In some towns there are musical selections planned each week. A solo on a portable organ, a quartet from a church, little children from school or a choir furnish musical numbers.

Ringo and other games could be played; crafts could be taught; books or the local paper could be read to some with poor eyesight; something could be done the year around and not just at Christmas.

Maybe you think Wayne has enough organizations but one more to coordinate activities and serve these people who long to be included in the community's life might be a big help.

These activities are not out of the question; in some nursing homes and rest homes there are so many offers of help there has to be control to make sure kindness is not overdone.

The ones who would be helped the most would be the guests at the retirement center themselves; but after all is said and done, it could be their pleasure would be exceeded by the pleasure of those who serve.

By opening the door to activity for those people you could open a door for yourself — a door of service to others. Someone needs to take the first step. All the steps will be upward but from the top the view must be tremendous.

Those Correspondents

Last week a group of women gathered at the Morrison for a dinner and an exchange of ideas. They represented communities that had been covered by them with news items as Herald correspondents for terms as short as one week and as lengthy as 50 years.

What a bunch of gals! Compliments: they had a few. Laughter, they were loaded. Good will, they bubbled over with it. They are the women who write the little personal and social notes about their rural and town communities. They couldn't possibly be paid what they're worth because they work so hard at their jobs their pay amounts to a few cents an hour — with no time and a half for overtime.

Pencils in hands, they call for news. Busy signal. They call again. No answer. They call again. In other words, they don't give up. Proud of their communities, they're willing to work hard to share their news with the other people who take this paper.

Why would any woman be willing to subject herself to the abuse from those whose items are left out? Why would

You may not agree with an editorial — but if you read the editorial and give serious thought to the subject discussed you have gained. You, as a reader, have given careful thought to an important problem and the writer is proud to have called your attention to an important subject that you may have overlooked.

they go on year after year reporting items they have spent hours gathering? Why would they want to slave over their normal jobs, take on extra work and still put in time gathering news? Why would anyone want to gather items, knowing some of them are bound to be left out?

You don't know? Neither does The Wayne Herald. It is known that the group is competent, the group is sincere and the group is dedicated. They have made men happy as their wives; they have been successful as mothers; they have made a hit as news writers with us. They're doing their respective communities a service — the write way. ## Who Wants DST?

Is a loud minority going to tell Nebraska it has to have something because other states have it? Who is pushing daylight saving time so hard? Iowa businessmen would like to have Nebraska businesses close the same time theirs do. The way it is now, Iowans have an extra shopping hour in Nebraska.

At the other end of the state Colorado and Wyoming firms face the same situation. Their Nebraska counterparts are open later than they are and Colorado-Wyoming stores fear the loss of business.

Nebraska is divided by a time zone. Eastern Nebraska and part of the central area are on the western edge of the Central Standard time zone. Western Nebraska and the rest of the central area are on the eastern edge of the Mountain Standard time zone. This situation alone makes the state different from other states. It's not like being entirely in CST or MST zones, centralized rather than on the edge.

Do all the people who have DST like it? The Associated Press reports the western part of Colorado has petitions asking for standard time, claiming DST is of benefit only in the eastern part of the state. Around Julesburg, Ovid and Sedgwick, in Northeast Colorado, the people are not happy either — they say DST is aimed to keep Denver happy. In Denver you can find people who are not happy.

Grant, Nebr., caught between CST on one side and DST in Colorado on the other, tried switching to CST so time would be the same. One week was enough. The town went back on MST and to heck with what the neighboring counties have.

That's the spirit, Grant. Nebraska's should be the same. We have a unicameral and we're unique in that respect. If we're the only state out of 50 with standard time that's all right too.

Of course there are complaints but the solution to Nebraska being on standard time with other states on daylight saving time is not impossible. The airlines have lived with the situation in the past and they can continue to do.

If Nebraska wants daylight saving time, let it be the decision of the people by vote, not the decision of Iowa, Colorado, Wyoming, the airlines or some small minority. If the people vote in favor of DST we can all live with it.

If we decide to go DST, let's do it right — let's move OUR clocks ahead two hours! — CEG

Workers Underpaid

A national survey shows that state employees in Nebraska, aside from professional education staffs, could make more money in almost any other state.

The study said the average weekly earnings of the 10,500 full-time Nebraska workers last year was $80.63, or 44th in the nation.

Only six states — Mississippi, Arkansas, Tennessee, South Carolina, Oklahoma and West Virginia — were listed as paying less last year.

The study said Nebraska salaries have not been keeping up with the national pace. It said the Columbus State ranked 33rd eight years ago.

Neighboring states pay their employees an average of 17 per cent more than Nebraska.

Approved Received

Nebraska participation in the Federal Vocational Education Act has been approved by the U. S. Education office.

Dr. Floyd A. Miller, state director, said the state should receive about $800,000 in federal matching funds soon for the fiscal year ending June 30.

Boon to Medicine

A University of Nebraska student believes he may have developed a device for cooling liquids which could be used in modern heart surgery.

James Hall, Lincoln, said it works on the principle that where there is a difference in vapor pressure in solutions, it is possible to cool one substance by applying heat to the other substance. The first refrigerators used the same theory.

University Medical College staff members said there is a need for a device to cool blood in connection with heart surgery. This reduces the patient's oxygen requirements.

Schultz Appointed

Former State Fair Manager Ed Schultz has been appointed to head up a committee to study the possibility of Nebraska staging a world's fair of agriculture in 1967.

The original fair idea was nurtured by the Nebraska Future Farmers of America.

Schultz said it is a "good idea," but that many ramifications are involved. He will report his findings to the State Centennial Commission.

We were just getting pretty well adjusted to astronomical figures in our government spending when along comes President Johnson and his Great Society with proposed expenditures that will make these former seeming astronomical figures look like peanuts. Remember when we used to wince at the mention of the spending of millions? We were aghast after the first World War, when we were told that the allies owed us somewhere in the neighborhood of fourteen billion dollars. Now fourteen billion dollars really "ain't hay" in any man's language, but today it's peanuts. We don't even talk about billions any more. It has become billions nowadays before we pay any heed and the other day some fellow got to talking in terms of trillions, (whatever that might be). A deficit in our government spending is lightly accepted and the fact that we owe over 300 billions is passed over with an air of equanimity. You know a country has to be pretty big, pretty rich and have a world of potentialities to be even able to accumulate such a debt, let alone pay it. Sometimes though I wonder if a country can remain big and strong enough to withstand continued onslaughts.

You know a fellow doesn't have to be a long haired economist to figure out a few things. Take your family affairs as an example. If by sweating it out and all but busting a hame strap, the head of the family is able to produce four hundred dollars a month, but the family by no effort at all is able and willing to get rid of five hundred dollars a month, the ultimate outcome is obvious. Either everybody goes broke together or somebody else goes to work to produce that other hundred caused by deficit spending. You know this country got big enough and rich enough to assume a debt of this sort, by virtue of the fact that everybody, all through the early years, gave of their time and effort to make it big, without too much regard to the hours required or the effort expended.

It may well be that in the years to come, in order to pay what we have assumed, we will have to once again resort to the same methods and results will have to be measured in terms of accomplishments and products rather than in hours spent.

There are 168 hours in a week. We spend 58 of them sleeping, which leaves 112. Then we spend 40 hours working. That leaves 72. Seventy-two hours to spend what we made in forty hours. No wonder we get the job done. We have plenty of time, yes plenty of time, but not quite money enough to last out the time.

What's the panacea? That's the sixty-four dollar question. Looks to me like only two courses are open. Either we retrench in the spending, or we put in the hours to produce enough to meet the additional burden.

How Much Lawn Fertilizer

A simple formula can tell you how much fertilizer to put on your lawn.

You just divide the square yards of lawn by the percent of nitrogen in the fertilizer you are using. The resulting figure is the number of pounds of fertilizer you should apply.

For example, if the lawn measures 50 by 50 feet, this is 2,500 square feet. Divide 2,500 by 9 and you get 280 square yards.

If you intend to apply a 20-10-5 fertilizer (20 per cent nitrogen, 10 per cent phosphate and 5 per cent potash), then 280 divided by 20 tells you to apply 14 pounds of the fertilizer.

Read the label on the bag to find the percentage of nitrogen in the fertilizer.

You will need to fertilize at this rate 2 to 4 times a year, depending on how much you water the lawn and how fast you want the grass to grow.

If you fertilize only twice, it should be done now and again about September 1.

Plant Corn Early
Corn should be planted as soon as soil temperatures are high enough for good germination.

Soil temperatures should range from 58 to 62 degrees and the weather forecast should be favorable for the week ahead.

A simple way to gauge soil temperatures is to place an accurate thermometer about 40 inches above ground in a protected place. Readings should be taken at 7 a.m. and 1 p.m. By averaging the two readings and adding two degrees, you will get near the soil temperature at planting depth.

Corn planted early does not get as tall and thus does not lodge as badly as corn planted late. Corn reaches its maximum height when planted about May 20, but the same variety may be 18 inches shorter if planted May 1.

Withhold Dairy Cows
Milk-producing dairy cows should not graze 2, 4-D treated pastures for one week after application for weed control.

This new limitation was issued only recently. The restriction does not apply to dry cows, beef cattle, or other classes of livestock. Though not stated as such by the USDA, it can be assumed the same restriction should apply to pastures sprayed with 2, 4, 5-T or silvex.

Recent evidence shows that trace amounts of 2, 4-D are detectable in milk when cattle graze sprayed pastures within one week after application. It is known that 2, 4-D and related herbicides are not toxic to livestock when used as directed on the label.

However, a zero tolerance on all pesticides in milk has been established. This means that no chemical residues of insecticides or herbicides are permitted in milk, no matter how safe they may be.

Bread Named After Alaskan
Know the name of the bread that's the same as that of an Alaskan oldtimer? That's right—it's "Sourdough."

This historic bread is gaining popularity in Nebraska. Actually sourdough is a yeast starter used for hot cakes, waffles, muffins, bread and even cakes.

To the Alaskan Old Timer—whether miner, trapper or homesteader—this starter became the staff of life. It became a precious possession as food supplies were picked up only once or twice a year.

He found that the regular yeast would inactivate in a very short time, while the wild or adapted yeast worked much better. To keep the yeast fresh, flour and water were added every few days and the dough used weekly.

Today, we can make sourdough

In part at least, this may be because farmers would rather receive fair prices for their products in the market place than have to depend upon anti-poverty funds.

Among the towns we've admired in the area, we must include Wisner. There it is, stuck in a triangle that includes bigger towns of West Point, Wayne and Norfolk. Does that discourage Wisner? Apparently not. It hustles and it competes. We stopped in once for a meal enroute to Omaha. The Wisner waitress brought the check for the meal and we thought she had made a mistake it was priced so low. "No, that's the right amount," she told us. Later we went back for another meal. A different waitress again charged us a low price. Since then we've made it a point to stop in Wisner enroute to Omaha and Lincoln or enroute back. We're not like the place and we like the friendly people. It pays to be nice; and if you have to be a town it apparently pays to be Wisner.

Committee Defeats Measure To End Capital Punishment

LINCOLN—The bill to abolish capital punishment in Nebraska has been killed by the Legislature's Judiciary Committee for the third time in six years. The vote this go-round was 5-4.

LB-466 was introduced by Sen. John Knight, Lincoln, a freshman lawmaker. He said he would not attempt to revive the measure.

The bill was supported at its public hearing by church leaders and Governor Morrison. It was opposed by law enforcement authorities, who contend the death penalty acts as a deterrent to murder.

Nebraska is one of 23 states and the District of Columbia that imposes death by electrocution for first-degree murder. The gas chamber is used in 10 states, the noose in six and the firing squad in one (Utah).

The Legislature has passed a constitutional amendment to allow public tax money to finance school bus service to parochial or private school students.

It will appear on the November, 1966 ballot.

Only Sens. Hal Bauer and John Knight, Lincoln, and Arnold Ruhnke, Plymouth, voted against the proposal. Sen. Ross Rasmusson, Hooper, did not ballot.

Catholic Preliminary approval has been given two bills to accelerate flood control planning in the Elkhorn and Blue River basins.

LB-461, endorsed 35-0, would allow cities and villages to issue up to $750,000 in negotiable bonds to build dams, levees and other flood-protection structures. The present limit is $100,000.

A companion measure, LB-462, would extend from 10 to 25 years the time period within which negotiable bonds must be repaid. It carried 36-0.

Supporters said the bills are mainly aimed at permitting the cities of Grand Island and Norfolk to move ahead with flood control planning.

And finally, the lawmakers accorded strong 43-1 first-round approval to a bill requiring the labeling of foreign-origin meats and meat products sold in Nebraska.

Problems Ahead
The State Department of Roads faces a dollar dilemma unless the Legislature clarifies the act increasing the gasoline tax one-half cent per gallon.

That's the report of State Highway Engineer John Hosack.

He said the Legislature passed the bill with the emergency clause attached in March, meaning it took effect immediately. Thus, state law provides that the department must distribute the March gas tax receipts under the new rate outlined in the bill, yet the tax was collected under the old seven cents per gallon level.

Hosack said this would result in a loss to the department of between $200,000 and $250,000 and cause some project problems.

He said it was an apparent oversight on the part of the Legislature and the department. He said it was intended that the new formula take effect in April, not March.

Plans Revised
The Nebraska Education Department is revising its plans for programs under the Federal Manpower Development and Training Act.

Dr. Don McKenzie, who heads the program for the department, said the changes follow in the wake of a revised federal program signed last week by President Johnson.

Until Congress changed the act, the state was faced with footing one-third of the costs for new programs in the coming fiscal year beginning July 1. After that, McKenzie said, the federal money would have had to be matched on a 50-50 basis.

He said the department will ask the labor committee of the Legislature to either kill or completely amend a bill it is holding that proposes a half mill increase in the state property tax to pay the state's way under the old program.

SPREADING FLAMES set fire to corn, grass and trees on the Vahlkamp brothers' farm 7 1/2 miles southeast of Winside Friday. Firemen battled a breeze to keep the fire from spreading even more. Most of the corn and the crib were destroyed by the blaze.

Fire Burns Corn Friday Afternoon Near Winside

A fire 7 1/2 miles southeast of Winside Friday afternoon burned a crib of corn. Damage was also done to the crib, the grass around it and to some trees in a nearby grove.

The fire burned on the Ed and Walter Vahlkamp place. It started when the wind came up and blew sparks from a burning pile of chaff nearby.

Fire Chief George Voss said the Winside firemen were joined by farmers with machinery in the area. It took almost two hours to get the smoldering fire completely out as the corn was on a floor inside the crib, allowing air to get underneath and feed the flames.

The corn, the crib and the floor burned. Damage also resulted to grass and trees.

Joe: "How do you remember your telephone number now that they have changed to the seven-digit system?"

Shirce: "I just double my age, multiply by my street address, subtract my social security number, add my zip code and call information."

A farmer friend going through Wayne spotted us. He waved from his tractor and shouted: "I'll bet Oshkosh fell apart when you left town." Now how are we supposed to take that? Did he mean the town fell apart because we had been there or because we left? We're afraid to ask for fear the answer will be more frustrating than the problem.

"And with what income do you plan to support my daughter?" asked the prospective father-in-law.

"Five thousand a year," replied the suitor.

"I see," said the father. "So with the five thousand allowance she gets from me yearly."

"I've already counted that."

Wayne undoubtedly has one of the prettiest small town golf courses we have seen. The greens are too nice to walk on and the grass is a joy to see, landscaping, trees, clubhouse and rolling terrain contribute to make it a delight to the eye. Walking on the course would be so much fun we don't know why anyone would want a golf cart. Of course, we can't understand beehive hairdos, black hose for women, hair-on-the-face haircuts for boys or jewelry for dogs either. Guess we can't all like the same things but tell us someone who doesn't like the golf course here.

The "Circle" included demonstrations on family work by Mrs. Herb Bennett, fun by Mrs. Earl Davis; love by Mrs. Alvin Steinmark; get up and go by Mrs. Ken Carson, and spunk by Mrs. Gifford Burris. Pianist was Mrs. James Rennick.

Guests were Mrs. Robert Chace and Debbie, Mrs. Don Johnson and Lori and Jeanie Davis. Mrs. Davis gave a report. Hostesses were Mrs. Gifford Burris and Mrs. Ronald Linn.

We've been invited to go frog hunting in July and then enjoy a feast of fried frog legs. That must be a local delicacy as we haven't had any. We did go snipe hunting once—and bagged our limit. But frog legs? Our friend says they are all white meat and delicious. Is someone pulling our leg or should we count on pulling the frogs' legs? We didn't know whether to accept or not. Just don't ask us to go snipe hunting again. Once is enough.

We are warned to guard against the sometimes confusing use of the word "average." If a man stands with his right foot on a hot stove and his left foot in a freezer—some statisticians would have us believe that, on the average, he is comfortable.

ANY PICTURE of the Wayne high school play Friday would include all 12 characters as all were on the stage throughout the play. In one scene they looked over pictures that proved to give the clue to discovery of the murder. Left to right the cast members are Linda Garvin, Stuart Bernthal, Larry Larson, Carol Maciejewski, Mark Robinson, Dean Skokan, Phyllis Ellermeier, Jean Christensen, Sandra Dunklau, Pamela Gates and Margo Jeffrey.

'Jury Room' Keeps Play Crowd Fooled

A different type school play, "The Jury Room," proved most trying to a fair crowd at City auditorium Friday night. Everyone was guessing between acts who the murderer was but no one guessed right.

Miron Jenness had chosen his cast well. Linda Garvin could have been suspected of being a secretary anywhere. Dean Skokan was so realistic as an angry young man he had the audience as exasperated as the rest of the jury. Jean Christensen was so typical of the stereotyped society matron she had the crowd disliking her haughty ways from the start.

Then there was Russell Wax as an all-business jury foreman. Larry Larson as a flippant witness, Phyllis Ellermeier and Margo Jeffrey as two girls about as white as the sheet. Sandra Dunklau who lived by the hero and thought the stars must be the guilty party came out — the real murderer was a member of the jury, a switch if there ever was one.

The Wayne (Neb.) Herald, Thursday, May 6, 1955

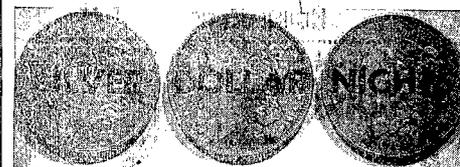

even have the murder talked about.

Stuart Bernthal as the male lead and the sympathetic young man; Carol Maciejewski as the female lead and actress who feels sorry for the defendant and casts the lone vote for acquittal from the start; and Mark Robinson as the middle-aged man who was a waiter with sore feet but who was so convincing as a butler in re-enacting the crime he almost got a job with the society matron.

The production was a difficult one for high school pupils to handle but they rose to the occasion and brought it off fine. It was one of the few plays where all characters were on the stage throughout the play so every role was a major one.

Discussing a murder charge, the jury had to re-enact the crime as described by the witnesses. Not until some pictures at the scene of the crime were inspected did the trial get hot and the discovery of the guilty party came out — the real murderer was a member of the jury, a switch if there ever was one.

A gas range is # fast. faster. fastest.

A gas range gives you instant heat so it cooks meals faster than any other range you can buy.

With a gas range you don't have to wait for burners to warm up. You set the correct cooking temperature instantly. Adjust it instantly as cooking progresses. There's no run-away heat and very little heat variation with gas ovens and smokeless gas broilers. Automatic devices respond exactly on time with gas. And there's no wasted, hangover heat to worry about. The efficiency of a gas range will save you time. And money. If you live beyond the city gas mains, see your LP gas dealer.

Mark Twain is well read in Russia, reports The Columbia Missourian. What we need is for the Russians to come to view life with the warmth and humor of a Tom Sawyer, the Missourian said.

There are now more than 23 million teenagers in the United States, says the Chronicle-Herald of Macon, Mo. If the action at our house is any indicator, 22 million of them are on the telephone.

The Tipton (Iowa) Advertiser reports, "The divorce problem exists because there are too many married couples and not enough husbands and wives."

(Any relationship between this item and the preceding one is purely coincidental).

The Cannelton (Ind.) News reports, "Any man with money to burn can always find somebody to tend the fire."

The Delavan (Wis.) Enterprise reported a birdhouse building contest some time back. It got us to wondering again how Mr. Robin keeps Mrs. Robin happy year after year with the same kind of a drab nest?

The Rockport (Ind.) Journal wonders why the Food and Drug Administration went to such great efforts to determine what goes into peanut butter, but did no work whatsoever on the problem of how to get the stuff off the roof of your mouth.

A man's social foothold isn't always secure just because he stands on his dignity, says The West Bend (Wis.) News.

The Worthington (Ind.) Times tells about the woman who was so nervous she could thread her sewing machine while it was running.

Apparently she was a Cub Scout den mother.

Don't let opportunity fool you, cautions The Denison (Iowa) Review, it often comes disguised as work.

The Lima (Ohio) News carries a story that defines space beetles. These beetles are satellites with antennae extending almost a third of a mile and are designed to seek the source of mysterious celestial radio signals from our Milky Way galaxy, its planets and stars.

A beetle in space? Sounds like a great idea.

A notice in The Tri-County News of Osseo, Wis. said that even though you pay your telephone bill promptly, the telephone remains the property of the telephone company and is under the company's control.

Now the problem is, how do we get the telephone company president in the middle of the night to tell him his phone is ringing, and we are sure it is a wrong number.

A refreshing contrast to an old story is the one carried in The News Graphic of Cedarburg, Wis. that tells of the local traffic officers who battled hazardous driving conditions to get a prospective mother to the hospital, to find out later that all she had was a tummy ache and the baby wouldn't be born for at least two months.

"Folks used to worry because they couldn't take it with them," comments The West Bend (Wis.) News. "Now they worry that it won't last as long as they do."

A broken home can be caused by termites, says The Reedsburg (Wis.) Times-Press.

The Black Hills (S.D.) Press says, "If you are not afraid to face the music, you may get to lead the band some day."

Nothing annoys a woman so much as having her friends drop in unexpectedly to find the house looking as it usually does, claims The Algona Upper Des Moines, Iowa.

A conversationalist is one who can tell twice as many details as anybody wants to hear, says the Watertown (Wis.) Daily Times.

MINCEMEAT UPSIDE DOWN CAKE

2 cups ready-to-use Mincemeat
1 box cake mix OR
1 recipe 2-egg cake

Spread mincemeat in bottom of well-greased 9x9x2-inch baking dish. Prepare cake mix according to your own method or directions on box. Pour over mincemeat. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 55 to 60 minutes or until done. Remove from pan immediately. Serve warm with hard sauce or cold with whipped cream. Makes 9 servings.

PRALINE QUICK-COOKIES

These are a surprise with the flavor of Old New Orleans and so easy it's hard to believe they could be so good!

1/4 cup (half stick) butter or margarine
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup finely chopped California walnuts
24 graham crackers

Melt butter and sugar together over water. Add walnuts. When well blended, spread mixture lightly on graham crackers. For an easy uniform method, hold cracker over double boiler and use rubber or plastic scraper for spreading. Place closely together on cookie sheet and bake 8 minutes in moderate 350° oven. Cut while hot into dozens of little cookies.

SOUP-KETTLE SUPPER

(Using canned vegetables)

8 strips (1/2 pound) bacon
1 cup diced cooked ham or beef
1 1/2 cups (10 1/2-ounce can) condensed beef broth
2 cups water
1 1/2 cups (17 ounces) canned sweet whole kernel corn
1 1/2 cups (15 1/2 ounces) canned french-style green beans, drained
2 cups (16-ounces) canned tomatoes
1 to 2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon finely chopped parsley

Fry bacon in large heavy saucepan until crisp. Remove all but about 2 tablespoons of the drippings. Crumble bacon. Add ham. Saute until slightly browned. Add remaining ingredients except parsley. Bring to a boil. Cover, remove from heat, and let stand 5 minutes. Add parsley just before serving. (If chowder becomes too thick, add a little water.) Makes 8 to 10 servings.

COOKIE PETAL SUNDAY CUPS

You'll need:

1 roll cookie dough
1 cup cream
1/2 cup brown sugar

Slice cookie dough 1/4 inch thick. Bake until just done. Remove to cooling rack. Let cool.

Roll in sugar. In 6-8 inch glass bowl, mix cream and sugar. Spread on top of cookies.

Everyday

BY MARION LATZKO

WHAT do you think of when you think of Mother's Day? Breakfast in bed? Little gifts carefully and painstakingly tied with clumsy little fingers? Flowers? Loving attention? Dinner out?

It's meant to be a special day for Mother, so cooking chores are often lightened in some way. Wouldn't it be fun having Mother's Day everyday? Then there would be more time for special "fun things" of life—time for doing the "extras" for your family and yourself.

Modern science has been trying to allow Mothers and all cooks that extra time. Tests are being conducted in laboratories all over the country to make modern cooking easier—precooking, prepackaging, freezing, dehydrating and canning. The grocer's shelves are bursting with new, easy-to-cook products to lighten your work.

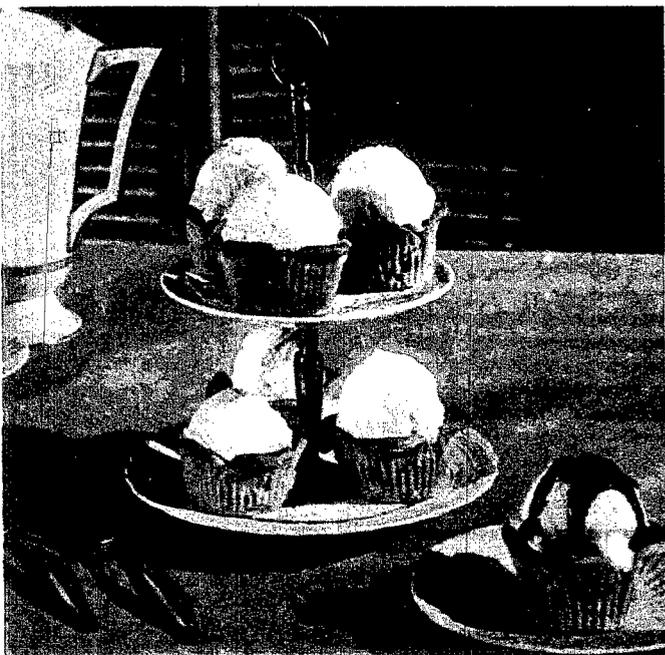

With these new products, new recipes are constantly emerging. A very quick, pretty way for making an unusual cookie and ice cream treat is Cookie Petal Ice Cream Cups. This is sure to be a hit with all ages because it combines three dessert favorites; ice cream, cookies and sundaes. Your creative imagination can concoct many kinds of sundaes with available cookie doughs from your freezer. Any refrigerator cookie dough will do this job.

Another quickie that's especially good with fresh fruits is Praline Quick-Cookies. The ingredients are usually in your cupboard. Be sure to use a double boiler to melt your butter and sugar or your mixture may scorch and your sugar crystallize.

If you like mincemeat, the Mincemeat Upside Down Cake, served with hard sauce or whipped cream is a quick treat.

Soup usually requires long hours of cooking, but when canned, dehydrated, or frozen vegetables and broth are used, the long hours aren't necessary. Ready mixes are a help too. Soup-Kettle Supper gives you an idea to start with. Then let your imagination take over!

There are many quick meals that are so nutritious and pretty. Today it isn't necessary to spend hours and hours in the kitchen. Look over your grocer's shelves. Put your imagination in full gear and try making every day Mother's Day!

SHRIMP PATIO SALAD

1 1/2 cups packaged pre-cooked rice
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups boiling water
1/4 cup mayonnaise
1/2 cup chopped dill pickle

1 teaspoon grated onion
Dash of pepper
2 cups (about 1 pound fresh) cooked shrimp
1 cup thinly sliced avocado
1 can (8 1/2 ounces) green peas, drained

Add packaged pre-cooked rice and salt to boiling water in saucepan. Mix just to moisten all rice. Cover, remove from heat and let stand 5 minutes. Then uncover and let cool to room temperature.

About 1 hour before serving, combine mayonnaise, pickle, onion, and pepper in a bowl. Stir in the shrimp, avocado, and peas. Then add the rice and mix lightly with a fork. Chill. Serve on crisp salad greens. Garnish with tomato wedges and additional avocado slices, if desired. Makes 6 servings.

TEST

You test drive a car before you buy it. Why not test a washer? With Speed Queen, it's easy. Go to a Speed Queen coin laundry and test as many as you like. You'll see how clean they wash — how simple they are to operate. And you can bet they're dependable because you can see the constant beating they take. That is why Speed Queen washers are so popular among coin laundry operators.

BEST

So . . . when you install a Speed Queen washer or dryer in your home, you can feel satisfied you have the best. You've based your choice on proven performance. Two, four, six years later you'll reap the pay-off: extra years of dependable service. Remember, it's the years after the guarantee period that determine the final cost of your washer or dryer!

See the Speed Queen washer and dryer line at your Speed Queen dealer — or write Speed Queen, A Division of McGraw-Edison Co., Ripon, Wisconsin.

All farm families should feel as secure as the Lehr Reese family, Mt. Cory, Ohio. The dairy-pork operation, backed up by field crops consisting of corn, soybeans, hay and sorghum-sudan silage, is stabilized for present and future by a well planned insurance program. Ronald, David, Kathie and Jana join in on a look at the books.

FARMERS

“A PROFESSOR at nearby Findlay College told me the other day that a college education today runs about $10,000. That’s $40,000—in the case of our family with four children—and you just don’t pick that kind of money out of thin air. My wife and I especially want to make certain that our four children will be able to get a college education if they want it.

“For that reason and also financial protection of my family, I’m one farmer that has a substantial insurance program.”

Those words were uttered by Lehr J. Reese, prominent young farmer of the Hancock County, Ohio area.

Now, what about the Reese farming operation?

“We were given one cow as a wedding present right after we were married. We’ve built the herd from that one foundation cow. Now the herd is averaging over 9,000 pounds milk and 450 pounds fat and we’re milking 30 cows. A few years ago when we were milking only 10 cows, the herd averaged 350 pounds of fat and 6,000 pounds milk. We’ve done a lot of breeding, testing, culling and our next goal is 10,000 pounds milk and 500 pounds fat.”

This is right up there for Jerseys.

“We handle our herd for economical production—we don’t push for high records made at high costs. We aim to make the most milk at the lowest possible feed cost. Our cows make their records on a 1-6 grain feeding—although we increase the grain if roughage is of lower quality. Our cows represent four generations of artificial breeding. We’re also participating in an A.I. Young Sire Project—to prove new bulls under regular farm conditions and by artificial breeding.”

Mr. Reese pointed out that their farm is now a one-man operation, but it’s planned for expansion if the boys want to farm.

Lehr recently bought and started paying for another 83 acres to add to the 225 acres the family owns. They also farm 62 rented acres. Their basic crops are corn, hay, soybeans with some sorghum-sudan hybrid used for silage this year. They use continuous corn in some fields, rotations on others.

This year, Reese applied his three-point formula and decided to get into hog production. He has 100 hogs on feed now in an old barn that was carefully remodeled. He poured a sloped concrete floor so that he will be able to install a liquid manure system later. He uses self-feeders on a platform at one end of the barn. Reese will soon convert a chicken house and start farrowing his own pigs.

“You have to look ahead 20 years when you make a change, or you’ll be behind,” he says.

This hog feeding layout was installed at minimum expense, but is one of the best and most practical to be found. Reese used advice from Ohio State University Extension engineers. He plans the farrowing unit to be just big enough to keep the feeding structure filled to capacity.

The Reese family lives in the old family home that has been changed considerably by adding a large kitchen and family room. Mrs. Reese wanted a large kitchen, so they designed this room to serve both purposes. They used electric heat so they didn’t have to change the existing heating system used in the older part of the house.

Millions of Reasons why you should use

AMITROL-T

One spray application before seed maturity kills CANADA THISTLE and WHITETOP and STOPS PRODUCTION of VIABLE SEED.

It costs so little to get effective control of Canada thistle, whitetop, leafy spurge and other tough perennials with Amitrol-T. Will not sterilize soil or affect succeeding crops. Amitrol-T is a liquid concentrate—no agitation after initial mixing. Non-flammable, non-volatile, non-toxic to humans and animals when label directions are followed. If you prefer a soluble powder, Weedazol® will give the same excellent results at the same low price per gallon of finished spray—a quarter’s worth kills a couple hundred square feet of solid stand. See your farm supply dealer today.

NEED

Insurance

Eight years ago Reese was named the Outstanding Young Farmer for his area. He bought the second bulk tank in the county and is now milking 30 Jerseys in a parlor that he built himself from ideas he secured from the county agent.

"My life insurance policy will make sure the money is available—regardless of what happens to me or the farm. The means I had figured out before just weren't adequate. Life insurance protects the family if anything happens to me.

"Retirement benefits were a secondary consideration when I decided to increase my life insurance. But this insurance money will be available anytime I want to borrow on it.

"It also guarantees that the farm will be free and clear if I die. After the 15 years I've spent building up the land, buildings and livestock, I've made sure that the family would have a choice. For example, they could keep the Jersey herd intact or sell it—but they wouldn't be forced to sell anything for lack of money."

Now let's get back to the security business.

"This newest policy will insure a college education for the children and it will also be a source of capital for farm expansion, if we need it," said Reese.

"Our total outlay for this $55,000 of insurance is $1,036 a year (for 1964). Subtract the last dividends which figured out to $180 and that leaves a net of $856 that we actually paid out. The increase in cash value last year was $625 (and it'll go higher each year from now on). So, we really paid only $231 for $55,000 worth of insurance protection last year.

"My dad borrowed money on his insurance to keep this farm in the family.

"So I've always had an idea that insurance was a good thing. But I didn't realize all the things it could do and how important a good agent could be in helping plan a farm family's financial future.

"Our insurance agent laid out a complete program that showed all the insurance we already had, social security, and other benefits like the VA money that my family is eligible for because I was in the army during World War II. He recently called our attention to some new rulings from the Veteran's Administration. With this all listed, we have a better picture of our financial future than we ever had before.

"Before I make any changes in my farming business, I look at three things: practicality, economy, and labor-saving. This insurance plan fills all of those conditions. It's the most practical way to provide for the future; it's economical because the net cost is low and the cash savings with NML are higher; it's labor-saving because our trained agent worked with us in setting it up.

"Our plan is laid out so that I can add to it if conditions change.

"Here are some other real dollar savings for a farmer who has a sound and adequate life insurance program like our agent figured out for us. I don't need to take out insurance when I take out a PCA loan—my insurance is more than adequate protection that assures the loan will be paid if something happens to me. This saves on the cost of operating money.

"With my present insurance, I'm in a much better bargaining position for any money I borrow for farm operation or expansion. I file a yearly statement with Production Credit and this insurance shows up there, for example. Insurance is a sound basis for anything we decide to do here on the farm."

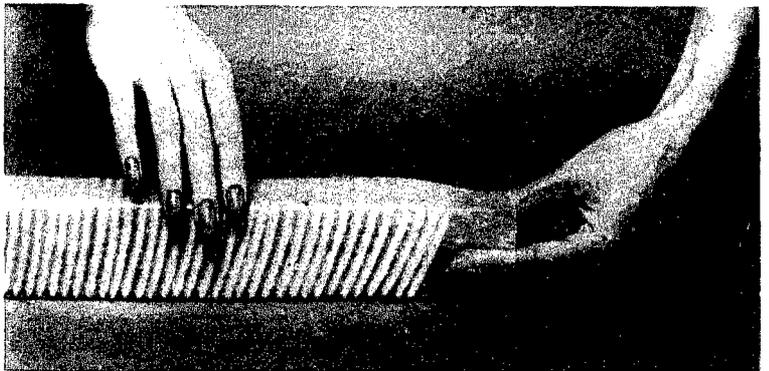

Mrs. Reese added some comments: "I certainly feel more at ease about the future now. It relieves my mind. Even though I can teach—my education is one type of insurance—that isn't enough with four children. We've talked about lots of other plans to insure their future, but this certainly is much better than anything else.

"I don't mean that we're going to force the children to go to college—but we want them to have the opportunity. That's their decision to make."

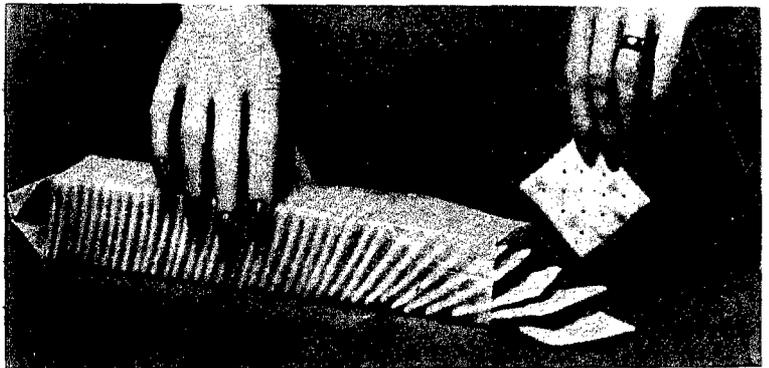

The insurance Reese added after the insurance agent worked out their program was a convertible protection policy providing $37,500 of insurance. This policy has a permanent insurance value of $15,000 with a $22,500, 20-year term rider.
