at an open meeting Tuesday, Nay Ia, at a: 30 p.m., in the Wayne fire hall. Everyone infrestèd in baseball in Wayne la invited. This includes the parents of boys in Midgets, Babe Ruth and Junior baseball since the bettegment of facilities is one of the matters to be brought up. If all goes well, plans will be made for repairing and painting the grandstand and making other changes. A field safe for all, of use to all ages and a credit to the community should result. Farm and town residents are invited to offer suggestions on what should be done. In other words, anyone who has an inter-est in baseball in any way, shape or form should aftend. Hank Overin will manage the ball tain the damond. Don Gedeen will be assistant manage rand Mrs Overin will manage the concession stand. Vounteers will sell tickets. Cliff Dahl and Chas Greenlee will operate the public address system The rest of the signs on the fonce will be sold. If they cannot be sold to Wayne business places, sev-eral cut-ot-town firms have indi-space.

Setup Announced

Offer Area Baseball Wayne, Emerson, Homer and Walthill in Nebraska and Anthon and Lawton, Ia., are the members of the NE Nebr. Baseball league this summer. Onawa Ia. and De-catur dropped out of the league and Walthill is a new member. Mceting in Wakefield Iast week, the league representatives voted to play lowa games at 2:30 and 8:30 daylight saving time and Ne-braska games at 8 standard time. Lawton is the only team not hav-ing a lighted diamond. The leading team after the eighth game will host the all-star game gainst stars of the other teams in July. An all-star game against Jodge County league's all-stars is also scheduled. Harry Prekop, Emerson, is league president, Pete Temple vice-try-treasurer. A 15-game schedule is being drawn up with Homer at Emerson. Lawton at Wayne and Walthill at Anthon for openers May 30. Homer won the league last year with Wayne the play-off cham-pion.

"School is out!" 5 That su dd en transformation from the discipline, the confine-ment of the school and classroom, to the freedom and the jey of youth unrestrained. That magical transformation of a boy in school today, and a man out in the world tomorrow. To the boys and giths for whom it is only a brief re-spite from duties, until fall findis them assuming them again, it is a glorious, though brief vacation. To the young men and young women though, who finally close the classroom door behind them for the last time, it is not "school is out", but "school is beginnng." The years of preparation are be-hind. Sites at Tilden Seven Hoskins firemen went to Tilden Sunday to help at damaged farms in the area. Around 20 farms in the Tilden area were struck by tornadoes during the Saturday evening period. Chief Herman Opfer said the sasigned by the Tilden chief. Firemen from other tewns in a "motual aid district" helped out at other farms. Joe of trees and some of their stock. Hoskins men built a corral so the stock that did live could be kept at the farm. Opfer said the farm looked like a total werek with fences down, trees shattered and build-ings either down or gone. The Hale family, which includes two childer, huddled in the south-west corner of the basement as the wind there away their farm. Volunteers going to Tilden from Hoskins were Opfer, Howard Gries, Lloyd Larsen. Myron Marshall, Carl Mann, Gene Hartman and Ar-vin Kreuger.
