

Reorganization Members Will

Election of the Wayne County School Reorganization committee for four-year terms will be held Monday, Nov. 29, at 2 p.m. in the court room of the courthouse, according to County Supt. Gladys Porter.

Anyone can attend, Mrs. Porter said, but only the votes of school board members from town and rural districts will be counted in the selection of a nine-member board.

The superintendent is automatically a member of the committee because of his position. She has served as secretary to the board for the last four years.

Terms expiring are those of: Frederick Mann, Wayne, chairman; Lyle Maratz, Hoskins, vice chairman; C. A. Bard, Wayne; Cornelius Leonard, Wakefield; Paul Dangberg, Winslow; Leo Jordan, Carroll; Dallas Haverger, Carroll; Morlin Reinhardt, Wayne, and Ralph Olson, Carroll.

An important period lies ahead for the reorganization committee. Top-flight men and women are needed for the work.

Herald Chosen

Copies of The Wayne Herald have been sent to Trinity university, San Antonio, Tex., for display at the annual meeting of the South Texas Press association at TU's school of journalism. A letter from the school informed The Herald this paper was one of "50 outstanding weekly newspapers in the United States" chosen for a display prepared by the journalism faculty. The selection of The Herald was made upon recommendation of the Nebraska Press association.

Library, Stores, Post Office and Banks Will Close

Wayne county's commercial life will come to a halt in most cases and slow down in others Thursday. Only a few specialized businesses will be open for Thanksgiving day.

The Wayne Public library will close at 8 Wednesday night and remain closed all day Thursday. Post offices in all towns will be closed with the only service being to boxes in the post offices and dispatching of mail on a holiday basis.

Banks in all the towns, most business houses and professional offices will not be open Thursday. Night shopping will be offered Friday in Wayne instead of Thursday.

Some cafes and filling stations will be open. Special meals will be served where allowed to guests at Dahl's and the hospital.

Taxes Delinquent

The deadline for the first half payment on property taxes is rapidly approaching. County Treasurer Leona Bahde said the taxes can be paid now. They become delinquent if not paid by the end of the month. Wednesday, Dec. 1, they will start drawing interest at 7 per cent. The courthouse is closed Thursday but will be open Friday and then Monday and Tuesday before the deadline arrives.

Reveal 1966 Voluntary Feed Grain Plans in Area

The feed grain program will be essentially unchanged in form in 1966, according to John Mohr, chairman of the Wayne county ASCS committee. However, payment rates will be adjusted to encourage broader participation, he said.

Designed to strengthen income of producers, especially those who make full use of the program to keep production in balance with consumption, the program will enable the nation to continue moving toward an adequate reserve supply while protecting farm income levels and reducing program costs.

Wayne county farmers and others in the nation will find changes are either required by law or reflect legislative history established this year when the new program was enacted. Their program follows the pattern of recent years.

Changes include: Yields for determining payments will be projected at higher levels to reflect current trends rather than historic yields; no diversion payment will be made for minimum diversions (except for small acreages) but payments for additional diversion. See FEED GRAIN — Page 2.

Henry Victor Receives Top State Honor

Wayne's sanitation commissioner, Henry "Heinie" Victor, has received state recognition for his work. The belated honor comes after years of local recognition for his achievements.

Victor has received the only award of its type presented this year, the Scott Wilbur award. It is presented by the water pollution control board each year to an outstanding worker in the field.

The local man, formerly street commissioner, was presented a framed certificate which read in part: "Presented to Henry Victor by the Nebraska Water Pollution Control association for outstanding waste water treatment plant operation."

Representatives of the state department of health inspect sewage lagoons and mechanical treatment plants yearly. They recommend men for awards on the basis of general excellence, high standard of operation and overall appearance.

Wayne's sewage lagoon system and sanitation system is now recognized as a model for other cities. Victor had charge of its operation along with his street commissioner work prior to this year.

The Spook Speaks

Wayne men attended a meeting in a Sioux City hotel. It was getting warm so someone turned on the air conditioning unit for the room. They neglected to make any change in the heat thermostat. Result: The air conditioner kept pouring out colder air and the heating system regulated by thermostat kept trying to warm up the room.

The little Wayne girl is about two. Her brother is a few months old. The other day he was creating quite a commotion as he laid in his bed. Big sister walked over to the crib, frowned and asked: "Just what's your problem?"

A young Wayne resident believes William P. Anderson laid a lot of sidewalk around town because his initials are on walks in so many streets. He's too young to remember the alphabetical agencies of the 1930's and the WPA.

It's a coincidence that two books side by side on the rental shelf of the Wayne Public Library are: "How Far to Bethlehem" and "You Can't Get There from Here."

A Wayne teenager got a "new" car. First day he had it he drove to another town to see his girl and wrecked it. No insurance so he started over, bought an older car, went to work on it and finally finished it, including new paint. The first day out he drove to another town to see his girl and someone backed into him.

Corn, Milo Harvest Over; County Has Big Crop Year

The corn and milo harvest in Wayne county and surrounding areas is estimated to be 95 per cent completed. With the harvesting of another pair of crops, Wayne county has chalked up a good crop year.

Corn averaged from 60 to 75 bushels per acre with most of it 60 or better. Several fields of 75 bushel corn were reported.

One farmer called attention to a yield of 108 bushels per acre on one field. However, this was a well-fertilized plot back of trees and was yielding well above neighborhood yields.

Milo was yielding up to 100 bushels per acre on "bottom" land. On the hillier land being farmed the average was 70 bushels or more per acre.

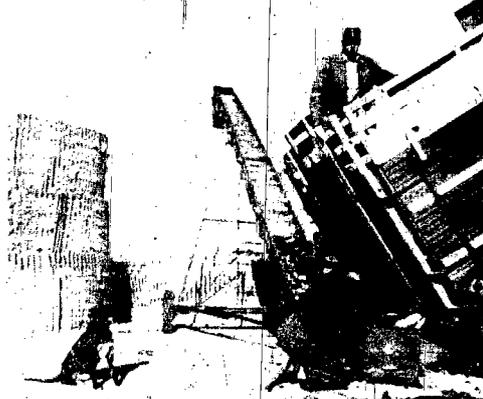

Even hailed land turned out better than expected. Bill Corbit northeast of Wayne said he had 32 bushel soybeans on land that had been heavily hailed in the only storm that did much crop damage in the area.

With four or more major harvests over with, Wayne county's fertile land has come through on all of them. A wet spell followed a comparatively dry spell, which is not exactly ideal but for the most part the yields have been satisfactory.

Meeting Here Tuesday

A meeting on Title I of a school law recently passed by the Nebraska legislature will be held Tuesday, Nov. 30, at the Wayne State college library lounge. Sessions last from 8 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. and an administrative director of federal programs will be present to meet with teachers, county superintendents and other school officials.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ahlvers will spend Thanksgiving in Colorado Springs with the Melvin Meyer family.

CORN CRIBS in Wayne county are overflowing. On the Jim Corbit farm east of Wayne three cribs were already full and Bill Corbit (in truck) and Joe Corbit were filling another.

Cash Night Prize Friday to Be $300

No cash night prize money will be given in Wayne Thursday night. Local stores will be open Friday night instead and the $300 prize will be awarded at 8 p.m.

Mrs. George Sieger, Wayne farm resident, missed out on a $250 prize as she was not in town last Thursday. She gets a $10 consolation prize and the jackpot goes up $50 to $300.

Wayne businessmen are giving residents extra reasons for being in town this week. Scores of coupons are printed in this week's Herald, offering special values on items.

In addition, there are many bargains in every store that do not involve coupons. A value-packed edition of The Herald is going to thousands of extra homes throughout a wide area in several counties this week.

For those who have not registered, it may be done at any participating Wayne business place. If you have registered once, you need not register again.

A Thanksgiving Message

by Rev. Ivan Meyer
Pastor Wayne Assembly of God Church

In the news for the past few weeks has been the trial of a man, who perhaps in a moment of weakness or as the result of a long, well-laid plan, is believed to have killed three people in his attempt to rob a bank. Very few readers of this article would ever think of taking a gun and attempting to rob another person, place of business, or the like. We well know that few actually escape the arm of the law.

I wonder if anyone ever gave much thought to the idea of robbing God. In Malachi, chapter three and verse eight, there is a question, "Will a man rob God?" There is also the answer, "Yet, you have robbed me." As we contemplate the approaching Thanksgiving season, the question that has passed through my mind might be a good one for each of us to consider. Have we robbed God?

As we study the word of God, we find that there are many ways in which a Christian might be found guilty. First, let us consider the element of Time. How do we spend our time? Do we use the time that God allows us to have — the way He would have us to? In the twenty-first chapter of Matthew we find the words of Jesus in a parable that tells of two sons. The father said to one, "Go work today in my vineyard." At first the son said, "I will not," but then he did it. The time many Christians should be in God's vineyard is spent everywhere but there. As a result many will not have any fruit for the Master — only leaves.

Secondly, what about our affection? Is it possible to rob God in this area of our lives? God is a jealous God and wants our devotion and undivided affection. The law given so many centuries ago still is in effect — i.e. — "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy soul, and with all thy strength."

Also, there is our substance. In Proverbs three and verse nine, it says to "Honour the Lord with thy substance and with the first fruits of thine inheritance." It is human nature perhaps to give the crumbs to the cats and dogs. Sometimes that is the way people treat God — by giving to Him the leftovers.

Another way in which we may fail to be our best for God is through our lack of praise. Praise signifies a confession and due acknowledgments of the great and wonderful excellencies and perfections that be in God. The words, "Praise ye the Lord," are found many times throughout the Word of God. In the 136th Psalm we see an expression of praise and gratitude to God. "Oh, give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good."

Are you thankful, or do you complain? Two boys gathered grapes. One was happy because he found grapes. The other complained because they had seeds in them.

Two men examined a bush. One remarked, "What lovely roses!" The other said, "These thorns are sharp."

Thankfulness will help us to feel better, live better, and be better. Remember that the time to do a thing is when it needs doing. After a plant has died of drought, it is useless to water it. While it needed water, perhaps a little water would have sufficed; now even a deluge would be utterly useless. The time to do a thing is, also, when we are able to do it. The time may come when opportunity will appeal to helplessness and will necessarily appeal in vain. The ability to do may not be long ours. Perhaps the saddest pictures are the visions of what might have been; but no tears can put life into the bloodless limbs of the deeds we didn't do. The time to do is when God and humanity call us to do our best.

In closing, let us give God the best we have at this Thanksgiving time. Of our time, love, substance, or our praise and gratitude, let no man say, "He liveth unto himself."

St. Paul's to Burn Church's Debt Papers

A mortgage burning ceremony is planned for Sunday, Dec. 10 at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Wayne. Final retirement of the mortgage is ten years ahead of time.

Rev. Robert Shirck, church pastor, said the mortgage was made out for 20 years. It has been retired in exactly one-half that time in an example of unselfish giving.

The church itself is just ten years old. Ten years ago the congregation dedicated the $200,000 structure with the idea that the debt on it would be paid by 1975.

During the years that followed, the church purchased the present parsonage and the property south of the church. The full block of land from Fourth to Fifth on Pearl now belongs to the parish.

Dr. Gerhart Gieschen, president of Central Seminary, Fremont, and a former St. Paul's pastor, is to be present for the retirement of the mortgage and celebration of the debt-free status. The funds making the final payment possible were gathered in an intensive two-week effort.

Faculty Wives of WSC Set Tree-Lighting Rite

Faculty Wives of Wayne State college are participating in the Community Betterment program: A tree-lighting ceremony at the campus is scheduled.

Judy Flicke, publicity chairman, reports the ceremony is open to the public. It will be held in the Willow Bowl at the corner of Tenth and Main.

President William Brandenburg will officially mark the opening of the Christmas season when he lights the tree. Singing of Christmas carols will follow this rite.

The public and students are invited. It is hoped it will be so popular it will become an annual ceremony at the school for the community.

Santa Claus will be present. Treats will be handed out to the children present for the ceremony.

WSC Young People Boost Letters to Forces Overseas

Wayne State college's Young Republican club has taken note of the activities among some American college students in demonstrating against our efforts in Vietnam. The club is countering this move with a "Write to an American Serviceman Week."

In many cases they are writing letters to servicemen (and women) overseas whose addresses they have. In other cases they are writing to just any American serving overseas.

People of this area are invited to take part by writing to servicemen they know, especially in Vietnam. For those who know no one in Vietnam, there are some general addresses that will get mail to servicemen who will probably welcome any mail from "home" (meaning the States).

Each letter sent overseas should have one of the following addresses to be sure it will go to Vietnam: An American Soldier or Airman, US Army and Air Forces, Vietnam, c/o US MAAG HQ, San Francisco, Calif., APO 98307; or An American Sailor or Marine, US Navy and Marines, Vietnam, c/o Chief, Navy Section, US MAAG HQ, San Francisco, Calif., PPO 143.

A proclamation circulating at the college says: "The purpose of these letters will be to pay our respects to the men who defend our country and guard our way of life. We urge, hope and assume that students, prior service members and patriotic Americans everywhere will join with us in the recognition of our American servicemen."

An eight-cent stamp will take a letter air mail. The WSC Young Republicans feel that a friendly letter from an American at home will boost any GI's morale and let him know there are those who appreciate what is being done.

Steve Paul, Community Club chairman for the letter-writing project, Ed Kelly, Des Moines, is president of the Young Republican club.

Wayne City schools will host the Husker conference band clinic Wednesday. The participating bands from 14 conference schools.

Guest directors are Frank Piersol of Iowa State university and Dennis Schneider of the University of Nebraska. A concert at 7:30 p.m. in the City auditorium will be directed by the men and the public is invited. There will be no admission charge.

Wayne Music Boosters association will have a busy day. Meal for the young people will be prepared and served by this organization.

Blondfield, Laurel, Lyons, Madison, Neligh, Oakland, Pender, Pierce, Plainview, Scribner, Stanton, Tekamah, Wayne, Wakefield, West Point and Wisner are band members.

Piersol is director of bands at ISU and has held post since 1948. He is much in demand as a guest conductor for festivals and concerts, guest lecturer at colleges and as judge of music contests.

He has appeared in those capacities in 30 states and Canada and has conducted numerous all-state bands throughout the nation. He presently serves each summer as director of the Fred Waring Band workshop. His work with 233 members of the senior band will be held at the auditorium.

Schneider is assistant professor of brass instruments at NU. He played solo trumpet with the SAC band for three years and is now playing first trumpet with the Lincoln Municipal band.

Before joining the NU staff in 1951, he was director of instrumental music for Falls City schools for three years. He serves frequently as a clinician and judge in high school programs throughout the state. Working with the junior band, his rehearsals will be held in the WHS band room.

Pupils will rehearse throughout the day under the direction of the two conductors. At 3:30 they will attend clinics on brass, woodwinds and percussion. Clinicians will be guest directors and Leon Brooks, woodwind specialist at WSC will also be a director.

Area Shippers

Area shippers to Omaha last week included Henry Deck and Son, Wayne county, 27 trailers, wt. 1941, 324.60; Mortenson Bros., Dixon county, 20 steers, wt. 1191, $29.

Winside Juniors Present 'Egg and I' Twice in Week

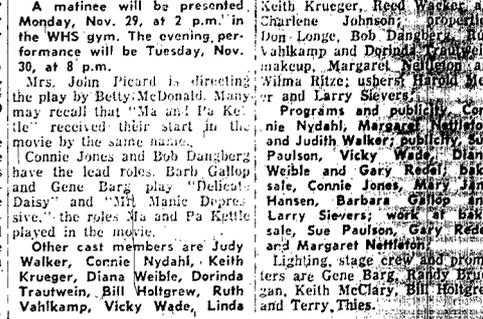

A famous three-act comedy, "The Egg and I," will be presented twice this coming week by the juniors of Winside high school. Seeking money to put on a junior-senior banquet, they are hoping for big turnouts.

A matinee will be presented Monday, Nov. 29, at 2 p.m. in the WHS gym. The evening performance will be Tuesday, Nov. 30, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. John Picard is directing the play by Betty McDonald. Many will recall that "Ma and Pa Kettle" received their start in the movie by the same name.

Connie Jones and Bob Dangberg have the lead roles. Barb Gallop and Gene Berg play "Delicious Daisy" and "Mr. Manic Depressive," the roles Ma and Pa Kettle played in the movie.

Other cast members are Judy Walker, Connie Nydahl, Keith Krueger, Diana Weible, Dorinda Trautwein, Bill Holtgrew, Ruth Vahlkamp, Vicky Wade, Linda

A FUNNY FUNNY play, "The Egg and I," is being presented Tuesday at Winside by the juniors. This rehearsal scene caught Connie Nydahl eating a sandwich, Judy Walker in a bathtub and Bob Dangberg (left), Connie Jones and Keith Krueger standing by. All have leading roles in the production.

Art Workshop for Girl Scouts Here

Gary Woodward, art instructor at Wayne State college, is to hold an art workshop for Girl Scout leaders in Wayne Saturday, Dec. 4. Leaders from all over the council area are expected.

Sponsored by the Prairie Hills council, the workshop is aimed at instruction for leaders in all four age groups of Girl Scouts. Mrs. Richard Lesh and Mrs. Woodward have made many of the local arrangements.

This is the first time such a workshop has been held in this council. Arrangements have been underway with council leaders for some time.

Plans call for the sessions to be held all day in the new fine arts building on the WSC campus. Further information on arrangements will be given next week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Strahan returned home Tuesday after spending two weeks in their daughter's home, the Warren Callahans, Marion, Ohio.

Subscriptions Net More Useful Items

Area people who bought subscriptions for Capper publications through the drive sponsored by the Wayne Legion and Auxiliary have provided several more items which can be used free of charge by the sick or disabled of the county.

Jim Pokett, Wayne Legion commander, said four wheel chairs, a walker and two pairs of crutches have been obtained because so many people responded. He said similar support in the past has enabled the group to furnish other useful items.

The Wayne Legion now has several wheel chairs, canes, walkers, a walker and a hospital bed. All may be used free of charge by any people of any age under any circumstances.

County Service Officer Chris Bargholz can also give information on the use of the items. Anyone in the county having need for them should contact Pokett or Bargholz.

Two Rear-End Mishaps Investigated in City

Two similar rear-end accidents were investigated in Wayne by local police officers the past week. One passenger suffered pulled neck muscles and was taken to the hospital to be checked.

Nov. 18 at Main and Third, Robert Bartak, Madison, stopped for a traffic signal. Dennis Stradley, Wayne, was unable to stop in time and his car hit the rear of the Bartak vehicle.

Joyce Schmitz, a passenger in the Bartak car, complained of a neck injury and was taken to the hospital. Officer Keith Reed investigated the mishap.

Two days later at Fourth and Pearl, Tully Straight, Wayne, stepped to allow a car ahead of him to make a left turn off Pearl. Richard Arett, Wayne, was behind him and could not stop before hitting the Straight car.

Officer E. L. Hailey, investigating officer, showed $10 damage to the Straight vehicle and $20 damage to Arett's car. No one in either car was injured.

Honey Sunday Has Best Results Yet

Wayne residents came through with the best response to "Honey Sunday" since it has been held here. A one-day drive Sunday resulted in 398 containers of honey being sold.

Boy Scouts, Explorer Scouts and Jaycees canvassed the town on a house-to-house basis. When they were through they had sold more honey than they had ever sold before.

Money made on the project will go to local use and to the Beatrice home for children. Local use will be made by assisting the class for retarded children with new equipment.

Larry Topp was chairman for the Jaycee project with Arnie Otten co-chairman. Both expressed appreciation for the way they were received by residents.

Winside Boys Get Top Clinic Spots

Two Winside boys were among the top musicians at the all-state band clinic in Columbus Nov. 18-20. Both were chosen to play first chair first section for their respective instruments.

Keith Krueger played first cornet for the cornet and trumpet section. Steve Mueller played first chair for the clarinet section.

All pupils chosen for the clinic were auditioned before being accepted. Only 165 were chosen from the entire state and the two Winside boys were not informed of their first chair selection until they arrived in Columbus.

Because they were honored with the top spots in their divisions, they also had several solo parts in various selections. Their music teacher, Mrs. Jane Leibig, reports the concert numbers Nov. 20 were recorded and records of the performance should be ready in a few months.

Arnold Gabriel, conductor of the air force concert band in Washington, D. C., directed the band. Werner Imig, choral director at Colorado university, directed the chorus.

Elroy Brogren was the other Winside representative at the clinic. He was chosen for a 500-member chorus made up of pupils from throughout Nebraska.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Wright and Robin spent the weekend in the Wayne home.

Warm Weather Stays Around Another Week

Readings in the 60's were recorded in Wayne county the past week. These were daytime readings but were indicative of the warm-for-November readings the county has been enjoying.

During the night hours the mercury has dropped below freezing but there has been no weather of any severity. Moisture was light where recorded at all.

Forecasters were calling for the continued mild weather to last a few more days but beyond that were promising nothing. With Los Angeles experiencing its worst November in a decade, it is just possible the Pacific storm may eventually reach far enough inland to affect this area.

A week remains in November. It's time the weather became just a little more wintery — but who's complaining!

Mr. and Mrs. Glenville Sampson and sons, Norfolk, were supper guests in the Robert Nissen home, Sunday.

Six Court Cases on Different Charges

Variety was again the spice of county court life the past week. There were six different cases, each involving a different charge.

Nov. 15, Neal Meyer, Scribner, appeared on a charge of hit and run property damage at the Phillips 66 station. He paid a fine of $50 and costs of $5. Chief of Police Vern Fairchild filed charges.

The following day, three cases were heard. Larry Anderson, Carroll, was charged with issuing insufficient fund checks. He paid $10 fine, $9.50 costs and made restitution on two checks in the sum of $15. County Attorney Charles McDermott filed charges.

Randall Dehn, Blencoe, Ia., was charged with illegal parking in another case with charges brought by Officer S. C. Thompson. Dehn paid $15 in fine and costs.

Overtime parking was the charge against Thomas Keenan, Wayne. Fairchild filed the complaint and Keenan paid $15 in fine and costs.

Nov. 19, Frederick Sokol, Beemer, was charged with speeding at night. He paid $25 fine and $5 costs on the charge brought by Trooper T. J. Rogers, Nebraska Safety patrol.

The final case was Nov. 22. Gordon Magdanz, Wayne, was fined

$10 plus costs of $5 on a complaint of assault filed by Andrew Mauer, Wayne.

Swine Production Specialist Named

Robert Fritschen has been appointed to the staff of Northeast station, Concord, according to Denzil Clegg, superintendent. Fritschen will specialize in swine production on the extension and research level.

He is a graduate of South Dakota State college with bachelor's and master's degrees. As a college undergraduate he worked at the swine experiment station. His master's was received in research in breeding and nutrition of swine.

For two years Fritschen has been county extension agent in Scotts Bluff and Dawes counties. He also conducted swine workshops in western Nebraska.

Appraisal Appeals in District Court Now

Appeals have been filed on appraisals of land in two separate actions. The appeals put the case in the district court.

Four property owners near the WSC campus have filed appeals on values set on land wanted for the school. The WSC district has filed an appeal on the value set for the Rohrer land sought for the district.

Judge Fay Pollock was in Wayne the past week. He overruled an appeal to have the case dismissed involving the transfer of land from the Wakefield school district to the Wayne school district.

Two other cases were settled out of court: T. J. Hughes versus R. G. Fuchterb; and Bloomfield Creamery versus Don, Harrell and Einar Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mines will spend Thanksgiving with the George Peter Family, Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Campbell, Hartington, spent Saturday in the Arthur Campbell home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bathke spent Sunday in Plainview visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Brandstetter plan to spend Thanksgiving in the Ed Wolske home.

Price support payments will be higher but will be limited to 50 per cent of a farmer's base acreage; and the loan rate will be lower but total support at maximum participation will be higher.

Loan rate will be down from $1.05 to $1 per bushel with support payment up from 20 cents to 30 cents and total support up from $1.25 to $1.30. In the same order, oats are unchanged on the loan rate, up from 16 cents to 20 cents and total support is $1 against 36 cents; and grain sorghum (per hundred) is down from $1.05 to $1.02, support payment up from 35 cents to 53 cents and total support up from $2 to $2.05.

The Food and Agriculture act of 1965 provides for calculating trends on a current basis as a means of encouraging more farmers to participate, resulting in increased grain yields used to calculate payments up to a fourth.

For corn, the national average projected yield will be 72 bushels per acre compared to 58 bushels average used in determining 1965 payments. The grain sorghum loan rate is being lowered to bring the loan value more in line with market prices of recent years.

Nationally the per acre diversion rate is $46.80 for corn. In 1965, a producer received payments on 11 acres diverted to conserving uses at rates varying from 20 to 50 per cent of the 1965 support and on smaller yields. The 50 per cent payment rate for 1965 averaged $36.25 per acre nationally.

Anyone wanting further information can contact the ASCS office in Wayne. There is considerable information available which could affect plans for the 1966 crop year.

Debora Saul Wins Wool Contest Prize

A 13-year-old rural Wayne girl, Debora Saul, won first place in the district Make It Yourself with Wool contest Nov. 13. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Saul.

Debora has been doing sewing for several years, mainly through the 4-H program. Her present leader in 4-H work is Mrs. Val Damme.

The only winner from Wayne county in the 12-county competition at West Point, Debora won first for sub-deb jumpers. A-1 entries were made of 100 per cent American wool.

Mrs. Ottwin Schlueter, Pender, director of the contest, said there were 48 entries in the divisions. Gail Skinner, Wisner, won the senior division, the only winner from the immediate area earning a trip to the state contest.

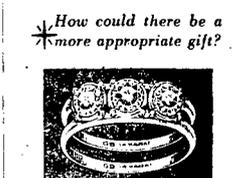

Other winners were Susan Stork, Blair, in the junior division, and Mrs. Tom Lippencott, Blair, in the adult division. The Laurel girls, Lori Chase and Kathleen Patefield, won second and third in the sub-deb jumper division. Cynthia Chase, Pilger, won first in junior division dresses.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parke and family, Minneapolis, plan to spend Thanksgiving with Clarence Sorrensens, K. N. Parkes, and Willis Johnsons.

Sherry, Pedersen and Lehmann Captains; Graves and Wriedt Most Improved at WH

Ed Sherry, Randy Pedersen and Keith Lehmann were elected tri-captains of this year's Wayne high school football team. Glen Graves and Bob Wriedt were named most improved players.

The team named Sherry as the most valuable player on this year's squad. Bob Reeg, who led the team in tackles, was named the top defensive player.

Reeg had 71 tackles, 15 more than the next highest man. Wriedt had 55, Sherry 52, Phil Kelton 51 and Mark Robinson, Kendall Lange and Allen Rasmussen 50 apiece. Lehmann and Pedersen were next highest with 45 and 38 respectively. Dave Brown was 33 and Emory Fields with 31 were the only other players with more than 30 tackles.

Lehmann gained 489 yards, 511 on the ground and 78 through the air. Lynn Lessmann passed for 343 yards and ran for 8 for a total of 351. Leon Jorgensen pulled in passes for 198 yards gained. Pedersen gained 172 yards, Reeg 133, Bob Morris 104 and Mack Johnson 88 to rank among the leaders. In averages, Lehmann led with 118 carries for 511 yards and a 4.3 average. Others in the same order were: Johnson, 27, 4 and 3.1; Pedersen, 57, 175 and 3.0; Gordie Jorgensen, 12, 6 and 3.0; Rees, 45, 133 and 2.9; Morris, 37, 104 and 2.8; Keith Tietgen, 22, 60 and 2.7; and Steve Kerl, 14, 28 and 2.0.

Lessmann completed 26 of 105 passes for 441 yards and an average of 16.9 yards per completed pass. Jorgensen caught 12 for 188 and a 15.6 average; Lehmann, 5, 78 and 15.6; Brown, 4, 42 and 10.5; and Kendall Lange, 3, 22 and 7.3.

Coach Jerry Ball's team was outscored 177-37 in losing 8 of 9 tilts. They had 81 first downs to opponents 87, completed 27 of 101 passes compared to the foes' 45 out of 105 and gained 343 yards in the air while the opposition managed 645 yards.

Yards gained rushing came to 1391 net for the opponents and 1108 for the Blue Devils. Wayne gained an average of 2.96 yards per play (rushing and passing) while other teams averaged 4.44 yards per play. In punts Wayne averaged 33.26 yards to over shadow opponents with a 30.82 average but on punt returns WHS came out with an 8.52 average compared to 12.26 for the foes.

CO-CAPTAINS of the Wayne high Blue Devils this year were Ed Sherry (61), Randy Pedersen (32) and Keith Lehmann (43). Sherry was also named the most valuable player. Kendall Lange is also in the picture.

Ed Sherry Recognized Past Week by Papers

Ed Sherry of Wayne high school received recognition in three different daily newspapers for his ability to play guard in football. The Omaha World-Herald, Lincoln Journal and Lincoln Star gave him honorable mention on their all-state teams.

Two area boys, Gene Meyer, Wisner end, and Reggie Smith, West Point Central Catholic back, were named by all three papers on their first teams for Class B all-state.

Others besides Sherry who got honorable mention in one or more papers were: Rich McGill, WPC; Dick Sirek and Bob Boekelman, Pierce; Terry Newton, Bloomfield; Jerry Ott, Wisner; and Ron Hofart, Plainview.

In Class C all-state, Joe McCoy,

Laurel end, Roger Pedena, West Point tackle, John Englebert, West Point center and Dick Brownell, Wakefield back, made all-state in all three newspapers. Honorable mention in one or more papers in Class C went to Harold Esau, Allen; Chuck Haskell, Laurel; Edman Nixon, Wakefield; Dave Binham and John Schmitter, Laurel; Rod Warholts, Stanton; and Paul Eaton, Wakefield.

Larry Redel, Greg Kirsch Co-Captains; Ditman MVP; Winside Statistics Given

Larry Redel and Greg Kirsch were elected co-captains of the Winside football team this season. The team scored in every game, making 18 games in a row in which it scored. Other statistics are also impressive. Dick Ditman, leader in scoring and in yards gained, was picked by his teammates as the most valuable player. He carried for 634 yards and scored 49 points in leading the Wildcats to eight wins in nine games and second place in the Lewis & Clark conference. Redel was second high in scoring with 36 points. Reed Wacker had 24, Bob Dangberg 19, Roger Hill 15, Bob Wagner 13 and Terry Thies 6. Leading tackler for Coach Pete Kropp's Red and White was Don Longe with 64. Ditman had 52, Wacker 50, Hill 47, Dangberg and Kirsch 45, Roger Miller 40, Itedel 36, Thies 35, Randy Brudigan 25, Wagner 32 and Warren Gallop 31. Ditman averaged 7.0 yards per carry in 90 times carried. Other top ball carriers were Dangberg, 68 carries, 211 yards, 3.2 average; Redel, 51, 160 and 3.1 and Wagner, 50, 159 and 3.1. Redel passed 57 times, completed 36 for 516 yards and a 14.3 average; Randy Jacobson tossed 5, completed 2 for 35 and had a 17.5 average; Dangberg hit 1 of 4 for 9 yards; and Ditman hit 1 of 3 for 5 yards. In team statistics, the Wildcats racked up 1726 yards. Of these 1289 were gained rushing and 527 on passing. The Wildcats completed 35 of 91 pass attempts.

Eight Athletes at WSC Named to All-Conference

Eight Wayne State football players earned selection on the official Nebraska College Conference all-star team for 1965. Four Wildcats from the co-champion Wayne team were on the offensive unit, the other four on the defensive unit chosen by conference coaches Friday in Lincoln. Wayne fullback Burt Matthies rated selection for the third year. Joining him on the offensive unit were quarterback Dean deBuhr, guard Bob Kruse and tackle Dean Gerth. It is Kruse's second time. On the defensive eleven were Dave Bross at end, Don Koenig at guard, Dennis Radtke at halfback and Randy Bernard at linebacker. Four Wayne players also received honorable mention from the coaches: Roger Bentley, offensive end; Jerry Kilecin and Dennis Kirby, offensive halfbacks; Blake Oleson, defensive safety. Co-champions Kearney and Peru placed eleven and four players on the two star teams, Hastings one and Chadron none. Other performers on the offensive unit: center—Ed Kruml, Kearney, for the fourth time; ends—Mel Harris, Hastings and Gary Dubbs, Kearney; tackles—Randy Rasmussen, Kearney, and John Gilmore, Peru; guards—Bernie Brown, Peru, and Gary Rasmussen, Kearney; halfbacks—Lannie Shelmadine and Lee Jacobsen, both Kearney. The coaches honored three tackles and guards being unable to reduce the number to two. Chosen for the defensive unit: end—Jim Manning, Peru; tackles—Phil Malone, Peru, and Ken Carman, Kearney; guard—Bill Magiacomo, Kearney; linebacker—Norm Sheets, Kearney; halfback—Clark Norblade, Kearney; safety—Wayne Gapp, Kearney. Conference representatives, at their annual fall meeting Saturday in Lincoln, spent much time considering proposed changes in the NCC constitution. Most of the changes were suggested by Dr. Russell Owen, Wayne's representative. After debate, the conference voted to defer final action until the spring meeting. One proposal from the floor would have raised the limit on football traveling squads (for conference games) from 33 to 36, but this died for lack of a second. In other business the representatives set dates for NCC championship meets: swimming, March 4, 5 at Kearney; wrestling March 5 at Wayne; golf and tennis May 13 at Wayne; track and field May 13, 14 at Wayne; cross country Oct. 29 at Kearney. The dates of two NAIA District 11 championship meets also were set: swimming March 11, 12 at Wayne; wrestling same dates at Kearney.

Dallas Writer Praises Farmers of This Area

Dick McCune, outdoors editor of the Dallas Times Herald, devoted 21 inches of space to a full newspaper column on a sheet this size to the visit of Dallas hunters to this area. Following is the complete story. There are few kinds of hunting where large numbers of hunters are welcome, as you know. In fact, dove hunting around here is always best on opening day because there are so many gunners in "hot" areas keeping the birds flying. The more the merrier and if the guy 100 yards down the tree row is a lousy shot you've got a good chance at all the birds he misses. During the first of the pheasant season, at least in Wayne, Neb., where 26 Texans hunted last week, this is also true to some extent. The reason why large groups get up more birds is simply that many of the grain and corn fields are so large that it takes a drive of 15 to 20 men to efficiently cover it. Even at that, we had six roosters practically running between our legs to get back through our line as we approached ends of fields. Later, when the crops are all in, the birds will bunch up and offer fast shooting to the two or three hunters who find them. Until last week, however, the college town (Nebraska State) had never had a single group as large as the 26 aboard the World Samplers "Sportsman's Special" DC-3. Half the town turned out to greet us at the grass strip (next season a new paved runway will be in service) in the chill of 10 p.m. Thursday and pose us for a photo. A photographer followed us for the next three days, further compiling evidence of the big visit for the NEBRASKAland magazine. All the while, the town of Wayne and Wayne county farmers continually overwhelmed our bunch. Initial credit must go to energetic Mrs. Wanda B. Owens, manager of the Wayne Chamber of Commerce, and Connie Suhr, chairman of the Businessmen's Association, who made arrangements for such a large group. Young Jim Marsh rounded up some of his hunting buddies who lived there and had permission to hunt many farms and put four of us in each car with Mike Graef, Ken Dahl, Dick Sutherland and Dean Hendricks. Graef hired out his dogs to the Weimarner-Chesapeake Bay retriever cross named Duke, and a full Weimarner bitch named Brunnie. The young men, with crisp, unfamiliar accents, and the dogs gave us their all for as long as we could keep up and were right in on all the razzing and baloney which always accompanies Texans wherever they hunt. The first night after a tiring hunt, Friday, we drove to the little town of Pilger where a banquet awaited. Free, it turned out to be an extravaganza of hors d'oeuvres followed by a pleasant dinner in gourmet style. The pheasants had been donated by our guides from their own bags since opening weekend and the rest was donated by El Rancho restaurant Jerry Eulberg. The club reciprocated by making all our benefactors honorary members of the Sportsman's Special, complete with bright red caps and insignia which the guides swore they would wear throughout the season. During the days of hunting, farmer after farmer gave us permission to hunt his lands—with the exception of a few who asked we not tramp in until after harvest and only one choleric soul who told us to get the heck off his place. We fixed his wagon. We decided we won't even stop to visit him again the next time we hunt there. His opposite number was youthful Gary Kant, tarming to the south near Winside. He first asked that we not shoot where he was combining grain, then personally led us four miles south to more lands he farms which has not been hunted at all this year. When marches through three fields produced only a few hens, Gary was dumfounded, dismayed and sorely disappointed. Ironically, it was on several other of his fields—some with tracks of other recent hunters in the rows—where we got our best shooting of the final day, Sunday. Gary told me, by golly, he has dozens of places of his own, kind-folks and friends where we can hunt when the club returns next year and he'll see we get all the best possible hunting.

Wayne Youth Going on Trip for State School

Lauren Boeckenhauer, Wayne, is one of four Nebraska university students named for the varsity meats judging team to compete in the international meat judging contest at Madison, Wis., Nov. 30. Dr. Charles Adams, team coach and head of the NU meats laboratory, named Boeckenhauer, Edward Jackson, Lincoln, Ronald Puls, Louisville and Gene Wehrlein, Louisville, to the team. The foursome will work out at Ottumwa, Ia., and Rochelle, Ill., before going to the International Live Stock show in Chicago. From there they go to Madison for the international judging contest.

Funeral Services For Mrs. Harrison Held Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Elmer Harrison, 77, were held Wednesday afternoon at First Methodist church, Wayne. Mrs. Harrison died Nov. 21 at Wayne hospital.

Rev. Cecil Bliss officiated at the funeral. Music was furnished by Mrs. Myrtle Bringer. Pallbearers were Erwin Flett, Edwin Echee, Adolph Korn, Louis Latt, Clarence Beck and Robert Turner. Burial was in Wakefield cemetery.

Anna V. Felt, daughter of James and Anna Felt, was born May 5, 1891 at Wakefield. She grew up in the Wakefield community and was confirmed at Mission Covenant church, Wakefield.

She was married to Elmer Harrison at Wayne and the couple lived on a farm southeast of Wayne until 1962 when they moved into Wayne.

She preceded in death by her parents and a brother. Survivors include her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Alton Soderberg, Beatrice; three brothers, Arthur and Elmer Felt, Wakefield, and Oscar Felt, Meridian, Idaho; two sisters, Mrs. Ida Flettwood, Stromsburg, and Mrs. Ethel Hanson, Sioux City, and three grandchildren.

Young Girls Learning How to Cook and Sew

The seventh and eighth grade girls in Wayne learn to sew and cook under a compulsory program where they must take a semester of each. Most schools do not provide this training until girls reach high school.

Mrs. Dave Chambers teaches both sewing and cooking classes. Mrs. John Mohr teaches sewing only.

This semester Mrs. Chambers has one seventh grade group in cooking and one eighth grade group in sewing. Mrs. Mohr is teaching one eighth grade cooking class. Next semester Mrs. Chambers will teach two seventh grade cooking classes and Mrs. Mohr will teach sewing for one eighth grade class.

The two teachers have 30 eighth grade pupils who are finishing jumpers this week in sewing classes. Their next projects will be blouses and skirts during the second nine-week period.

Low-Income Farmers Involved in Change

Wayne county may have some low-income farmers who could be affected by the change made in the optional method of reporting income for social security. J. M. Buglewicz of the Norfolk SS office reveals.

The gross income amount on which the optional method of reporting is based has been boosted from $1,800 to $2,400. This means net earnings from self-employment reportable by farmers is $1,600 instead of $1,200.

If a farmer's gross income is over $2,400 and net farm earnings are $1,600 or less, he may report his net earnings for social security purposes as $1,600 or he may report the actual net. If net earnings are over $1,600, he must report actual net earnings.

Farmers with less than $2,400 gross income in a year may count either actual net earnings or two-

Wakefield Girl Injured

Barbara Paulsen, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Paulsen, Wakefield, was accidentally struck by a car in a driveway Wednesday last week. Barbara was enroute to school when a car driven by Edna Dahlgren allegedly struck her. The driver was said to be backing out of a driveway at the time. The little girl suffered a broken pelvic bone and minor injuries. She was hospitalized but was expected home soon where she will have to spend three or four weeks in bed while the bone mends. No charges were filed against the driver.

Scouts Camp, Stalk, Hike and Cook Meals

Scouts of Apache patrol, Troop 175, went camping Friday. They spent their time skulking, cooking and hiking at Ike's lake.

Jim Sturm was with the Scouts for the entire period from Friday afternoon until Sunday morning. He even went on two five-mile hikes, one in the morning and the other in the afternoon.

The Scouts worked on gaining first and second class advancements. The first and second class Scouts also had meals to fix so they took turns.

Scouts built their own fire, planned their own meals and in general had a lot of fun. The weather was crisp and warm for this time of year and the Scouts figured they couldn't have had it better.

WAYNE DEBATERS won fourth place in a big debate meet at Norfolk. Showing the trophy they won are Jo Merriman (left) and Tom Havener.

Wayne Debaters Receive Trophy

A team of debaters from Wayne won the fourth place trophy in the debate tournament held in Norfolk Saturday. Most of the schools competing were from much larger cities.

Dave Chambers, debate instructor, reports the novice team of Jo Merriman and Tom Havener won fourth in their division. They were the only one of four WHS teams to bring home a trophy.

The Havener-Merriman duo won two of four matches in which they engaged. Their presentation points were high enough to win the trophy.

Sharon Cleveland and Linda Garvin won three of four, Rose Ann Renner and Ann Barelman won two of four and Sam Olson and Larry Hamley three of four. This gave the Wayne team a record of nine wins and seven losses.

Among the bigger schools competing were Sioux City Central, Fremont, Grand Island, Lincoln Plus X, Lincoln Northeast, Beatrice, Kearney, Wahoo and Norfolk.

AREA SHIPPERS

Area shippers to Sioux City last week included Wibur Anderson, Hoskins, part load of choice fat steers, 1,093 lbs. at $25; four steers sold at $23 and a package of heifers at $22.50.

Car Demolished Early Sunday East of Wayne

A 1965 car was almost a total wreck after it overturned in a field east of Wayne at 1:45 Sunday morning. The driver escaped uninjured.

Sheriff Don Weible investigated. His report shows the east-bound car of Wesley Wignett, 23, Plainview, going off the south side of the road first, crossing the road to the north side and then going into a field where it rolled over.

The accident occurred on Highway 35 3/4 miles east of town. It was not learned whether the driver dozed off or had lost control when he pulled back too soon after going off the pavement on the south side of the road.

Winside Clubs Join in Making Plans for Christmas Lighting, Decoration Contest

Working together for the common good, the Federated Woman's club and the Community club of Winside are jointly sponsoring Christmas season projects including lights in the business district and a home decorating contest.

Meeting Monday night, the Community club made plans for the events and other holiday projects. Representatives were present from the Federated Woman's club.

A free pancake supper is planned for Tuesday, Dec. 7. Christmas lights will be put up right away and rules for the decorating contest will be revealed at once.

Santa Claus will be in Winside Saturday, Dec. 18, at 3 p.m., with treats for the youngsters. Other events for that day are also being planned.

A new "Welcome to Winside" sign will be erected a mile north of town. The town has some near the west entrance but wants larger and more attractive signs put up.

Frank Weible took over as president at the meeting, succeeding Dr. Don Vrbka. New members of the board of directors are Walt Bleich, Jim Troutman and Ted Moeman.

CLUB NEWS

Willing Workers

Willing Workers 4-11 club met Nov. 17 with Sherri Lyn Diamon. Officers elected were Joann Weible, president; Sherri Diamon, vice president; Kim Dill, secretary; Carol Kumm, treasurer, and Cindy Carlson, reporter. Dues will be 5c. —Cindy Carlson, reporter.

Hot Shots

Hot Shots 4-H club meeting was held Nov. 1 in the Delbert Roberts home. John Meyer was absent, Leslie Behtenkamp became a member. Plans were made to visit businesses and industries in Norfolk. The date of the tour was set for Dec. 29 with arrangements to be made by the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce. Next meeting is Dec. 6. Dave Roberts, reporter.

Peppy Peppers Meet

Peppy Peppers 4-II club met Monday with Jan Reeg. There were seven members and seven guests present. Roll call was answered with giving a favorite yeast roll recipe. Record books for the year were distributed. A demonstration on making no-knead cinnamon rolls was given.

The club will go Christmas caroling Dec. 18. Then they will meet in the Gilmore Sabs home for a gift exchange and cooperative lunch.

January meeting will be held with Cynthia Sabs in the Gilmore Sabs home. News reporter, Jan Reeg.

Scout News

Den 6, Pack 175

Den 6 met Nov. 9 at the Harvey Brasch home. They finished Christmas presents for mothers and started Christmas presents for their fathers.

Treats were served by Russell Goshorn.

Den 6

Den 6 met last Tuesday after school at the Tom Lambert home. The scouts had a nail driving contest and learned to counter-sink a screw on a 2x4. Eric Johnson is a new member. Some time was spent practicing a skit. Ricky Reed served treats. Mike Manes will furnish refreshments for the next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kugler and family plan to spend Thanksgiving in the L. B. Wightman home, Mapleton, Ia.

I See By The Herald

Nov. 19: Mr. and Mrs. Douglas R. Sund, Topeka, Kan., a daughter. Great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sund, Wayne.

Dinner guests in the Ernest Siefken home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Anderson, Dixon, Don Kraemer, Laurel, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McNew and family, Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lorenzen and family, Ft. Calhoun, Mr. and Mrs. George Otte and family, Norfolk, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Doring and Mrs. Paul Young, Next meeting is Dec. 9.

Colligan and family, Wisner, and Mrs. Clyde Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Martinson and Judy, Sioux City, were guests Sunday in the Mrs. Irene Geewe home. Mrs. Geewe and Verna Mae plan to spend Thanksgiving in the Harvey Aevermann home, Hoskins. Last Monday Mrs. Geewe and Verna Mae helped Mr. and Mrs. Willie Bridgman, Norfolk, celebrate their 30th wedding anniversary.

Ladies Aid Meets

Union-Presbyterian church ladies aid met Thursday with 22 members attending. Devotions were led by Mrs. Darrell Neese. Mrs. Carl Bring and Mrs. Elmer Ayers. This was the Thanksgiving service and an offering was taken for the missions that the church sponsors. A memorial was also taken in honor of Mrs. Francis Lindsay, Hoskins, who was the former treasurer of the Nobara Presbyterian. Serving the luncheon were Mrs. Earl Barks, Mrs. Chris Roth and Mrs. Paul Young. Next meeting is Dec. 9.

Auxiliary Bazaar Clears Over $1500

Another successful Auxiliary bazaar is history. Committee reports are not complete but it appears that over $1,500 was cleared for use in projects at the Wayne hospital.

The Hospital Auxiliary started work at once on plans for the 1966 bazaar. This system has resulted in the affair becoming more successful year by year.

Mrs. Julia Haas won the Christmas tablecloth. Sales for the dinner and at every concession booth were reportedly high.

Business started at 8 a.m. and big crowds were on hand throughout the morning. During the meal period the bazaar was a mecca for hundreds.

Senior Girl Scouts were in charge of the toy booth. It was the first time they had handled this section all by themselves without adult supervision.

WAYNE KIWANIANS and their wives went to Fremont to visit the Kiwanis club Friday. Shown here are some of the visitors just prior to their boarding the bus.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly newspaper is an important department. Normally it is one person's opinion of topics that concern most of the readers.

You may not agree with an editorial — but if you read the editorial and give serious thought to the subject discussed you have gained. You, as a reader, have given careful thought to an important problem and the writer is proud to have called your attention to an important subject that you may have overlooked.

Newspapers at Fault

Nebraska managed to eke out a last-minute win over a weak Oklahoma State team recently. So far no newspapers have offered to accept any blame for the Huskers' showing.

Before going further, it must be admitted some will claim State was not weak, but how can you call them strong on the basis of their record? Everyone should be UP for Nebraska, but newspapers deserve blame for the Huskers being DOWN for the Cowboys.

The big state dailies have praised the Scarlet and Cream to the heights. Granted they are good, but newspapers do not have to go off the deep end and predict lopsided wins, play up the idea that a team will go to a bowl game and claim their team is invincible all of the time.

More space should be devoted to warning the Cornhuskers. Predictions can be more conservative as no one cares how far wrong a prediction is anyway. Leave the big buildups until the season is over. Closer to home is another example of what a newspaper can do. Norfolk high school had what many feel was one of the top teams in the state. Following the lopsided win over Fremont, the Norfolk daily proceeded to build up egos with continued stress on what a great team the Panthers had and how they were on the road to an East Big Ten title. Result: Norfolk lost the rest of its games. It's a shame too for the Panthers might have finished higher with a little better press coverage on the dangers of elation over one win while forgetting there are other tough games ahead.

Moving right into Wayne the same thing happened. In covering Wayne State, The Herald pointed out that the Wildcats were being considered for a bowl. A good season record was over-inflated and the Black and Gold proceeded to lose most of the remaining games. We know not what course other papers will take but that kind of coverage is going to be conspicuous by its absence in The Herald from now on. There will be no talk of conference titles until they are won. Bowls will not be mentioned until invitations have been earned.

Some coaches and writers will disagree, saying their boys are not affected by such publicity. We'll retain our prerogative of disagreeing and ask you to recall occasions when you've seen a big write-up in a paper or magazine precede a team's falling flat on its laurels. Papers have a responsibility to be just a little more restrained along this line.

High Caliber Needed

This coming year Wayne will elect three city council members and a mayor. Just how important these positions are should be obvious when one considers the problems they will face.

These are positions which should be filled by men (AND WOMEN) of top-flight ability. Qualified people should consider their own candidacy for the positions.

No criticism is being offered for the men who now serve. Without exception it can be stated that these men have served well and are a credit to the calling. However, there is no guarantee that top men will always be named and a guarantee is what is needed. Therefore, the idea of running for office should be considered by qualified individuals or suggested to them by friends who realize their potential.

Wayne is a good town and destined to become a great town. It needs continued quality leadership. One way to insure this is to have every candidate be from the top ranks. Then no matter who is elected Wayne will be sure of continued thoughtful and well-planned administration.

For Shame, Mr Cox

Among the better editors in Northeast Nebraska is Bill Cox of The Pierce County Leader, Pierce. However, he is not beyond reproach and it seems he did set a bad example in his Nov. 11 issue of The Leader.

Pierce had experienced its first winning football season since 1931 and the Bluejays had slipped by a Wayne team that gave the ball carriers from PHS "more punishment than they had been given all season."

What is disturbing is the fact that in the writeup of the game Cox chose to berate the officials in print. This tends to give players, students and fans the idea that the next time they go to a game it is all right to verbally taunt the officials.

Cox wrote: "The game was played on the Wayne State College gridiron and a bad night for Pierce followers started when they had their pockets picked at the ticket office." This must have reference to the one dollar admission fee. Just because PHS does not charge a dollar does not make it "pocket picking." (Next year watch to see if Pierce goes along with most other teams and charges a dollar).

Even worse was the next paragraph in The Leader: "This was followed by an exciting performance by three referees who obviously were working together for the first time. The dull contest stretched out over two hours, delayed by 19 penalties (not counting those declined), and innumerable conferences by the officials while they decided what course of action would be best. Crowning blow came after the game when the officials shook hands with, and offered condolences to the Wayne team."

No matter how bad the officials are (and these three worked Wayne games here and at other schools and no complaints were heard), a newspaper should not chastise them. In the editorials castigation would be bad enough, but in a news story it is unforgivable.

Cox conceded "it was penalties that probably preserved a Pierce win." This is small concession after what had been said before.

To players, pupils, fans and officials, we say: You deserve better treatment. Someone owes someone else an apology — and we don't think the officials are the ones who should do the apologizing.

Governor Uses Authority To Hike Six Key Salaries

LINCOLN — Governor Morrison, acting under authority of a new law, has hiked the salaries of six key state officials. The raises totaled $13,000 yearly. Morrison said he took the action so that Nebraska government salaries might be more in line with those of other states.

Channels Asked For

The Nebraska Educational Television (ETV) Commission has petitioned the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) for 14 additional ETV channels.

Jack McBride, general manager, said all would be ultra high frequency (UHF) outlets and would blanket the state.

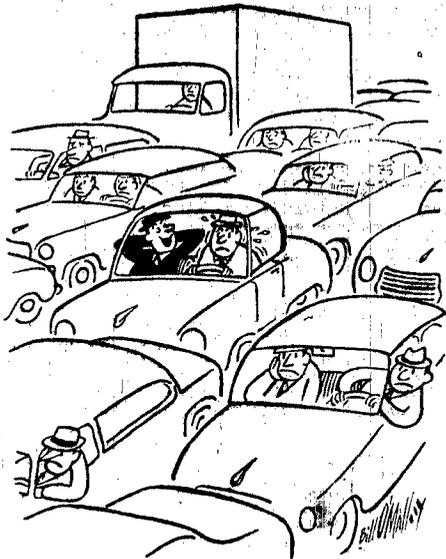

They would be located in Lincoln, Hartington, Hebron, Chadron, Scottsbluff, Kearney, Peru, Wayne, Grand Island, North Platte, Sidney, Beatrice, Columbus and McCook.

Nebraska has already been allocated six very high frequency (VHF) channels and one UHF outlet in Omaha.

The Commission took the action after it was learned the FCC had asked for UHF ETV channel recommendations. The FCC is now conducting a re-study of UHF allocations across the country.

SMV Emblem There has been some confusion concerning the time when Safety Emblems will be required on farm machinery traveling on Nebraska roads. The law enacted by the last Nebraska legislature requiring these S. M. V. Slow Moving Vehicle emblems set Jan. 1, 1967 as the date when all must comply with the law.

The compliance date has been listed in various news items varying from now, or Jan. 1, 1968 to Jan. 1, 1967. The correct date is Jan. 1, 1967. However, it would seem farmers should secure and use these emblems at the earliest possible date for safety's sake.

Protect Young Trees Each winter we have inquiry about protecting young trees from rabbits. The time to protect young trees from rabbit damage is before the damage occurs. One of the most effective and reliable means of doing this is to encircle the trunks with galvanized poultry netting.

Guards should extend two feet above ground level except where drifted snow may require greater height.

Rabbit damage is usually greatest in winters with heavy snow which cover the rabbits normal food supplies. However, we can hardly afford to wait until snow comes to decide whether young trees need protection.

Heat in Your Farm Shop When fall field work is completed, most farmers find they have some spare time.

One good way to spend this spare time is to check your machinery for repairs needed for next season.

A heated shop will make the job of doing machinery repairs more pleasant. But if you don't have a heated shop, you might consider one of the portable oil heaters now on the market.

These units have a heat output of 75 thousand to 150 thousand BTU's per hour and have a forced air blast. In a shed that protects you from winds, they perform hogan base.

Site Still in Running A special four-member Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) team has assured Nebraska officials that the Mead Ordnance Depot is still one of several sites under consideration for a $348 million Federal "atom smasher" facility.

The team, headed by AEC assistant general manager John A. Erlwin, commented after an on-site inspection of the 8,834 acres at Mead. It was invited by the Omaha and Lincoln Chambers of Commerce.

Farm Real Estate Market Up Farm real estate values continued to rise during 1964 and reached new highs both in the United States and in Nebraska.

Nebraska's land values reached their low point in 1941. Since then they have been rising at varying rates. During the 1940's they nearly doubled; during the 1950's they went up another 50 per cent and during the first four years of the 1960's, almost another 25 per cent.

Expressed in terms of 1950 values, the rise since 1940 has averaged 6 per cent a year. In Nebraska, there is little question that rangeland prices have increased tremendously since the low of the late 1930's and early 1940's. In some areas, ranch land values have increased as much as 2,000 per cent since the depression lows and much of it has increased as much as 600 to 700 per cent.

According to the Economic Research Service of the USDA, the average value of real estate per farm has increased 85 per cent in Nebraska since 1954 compared to a national average of 41 per cent.

It was with deep regret that that writer learned of the decision of Senator Harry Flood Byrd to resign his Senate seat and retire from public life.

During a half-century of splendid service to the people of Virginia, Harry Byrd remained firm in his opposition to ruinous spending and unbalanced budgets. Every man, woman and child in the United States is indebted to him for taking this lonely role. While only partially successful in holding down Federal deficits, Harry Byrd did provide a measure of balance which retarded to some degree unnecessary spending.

This writer will always be grateful that upon taking the Senate oath, he was asked by Senator Byrd to serve on the Senate Finance Committee. The manner in which Senator Byrd conducted the work of this committee sets an example for all other Committees of the Congress.

Agencies To Be Quizzed

A Legislative Council study committee has agreed to question all public power agencies in Nebraska about their financial operations.

Each of the agencies will be asked for figures on gross revenues last year.

Way Back When

10 Years Ago

Nov. 21, 1955: John Barr was named a one-year director of Northeast Nebraska Dry Cleaners association Sunday at Norfolk. The organization was formed at this meeting. Examiners will be at the Wayne courthouse Friday afternoon to give examinations for driver's licenses. This is the only visit of the examiners in Wayne this month.

15 Years Ago

Nov. 23, 1950: An audience of about 600 were well entertained Tuesday evening at Wayne city auditorium when the Wayne High Junior class presented "Too Many Dates". City workers began putting up Holiday street decorations in Wayne Tuesday. Many new decorations were added this year to help create the season's spirit in the business district. B. A. Meyer, Wayne, is in a Sprinck hospital with two broken ribs and a sprained back after falling from a wagon Saturday on the Dale Meyer farm. Capt. Douglas S. Canning, son of William P. Canning, Wayne, has flown 39 combat missions in the current Korean conflict, and has done his share of damage against the enemy.

20 Years Ago

Nov. 22, 1945: Wayne Chamber of Commerce is

Senate, and his absence will be noted by all Americans in the years to come.

The November newsletter issued by the Mutual Broadcasting System observed that the Lord's Prayer has 56 words; the Twenty-third Psalm, 118; the Ten Commandments, 287. But, said the newsletter, the U. S. Government's order on cabbage prices has 28,911 words.

Senator Peter Dominick (R-Colo.) revealed recently that one in every 19 employees of the Office of Economic Opportunity draws more than $19,000 per year. This compares with one employee for each 500 in the Department of Agriculture, and one per 1,000 in the Defense Department.

This information prompted Congressman H. R. Gross (R-Iowa) to suggest renaming the agency the Office of Economic Opportunists.

Philip Dworak of Schuyler holds the state record for carp taken on hook-and-line. This is reported in the SF Bulletin, official publication of the Sport Fishing Institute in its November edition. Measuring 37 inches in length and weighing 27 pounds, 13 ounces, the fish gave Mr. Dworak a 20-minute tussle last May 30. The former record carp was 2 pounds, 11 ounces lighter, according to the Bulletin.

Toys on the Christmas List Toyland displays in local stores tantalize the children and bewilder the Christmas shopper, whether it be a parent, grandparent or interested friend.

Making a wise toy gift purchase takes some forethought and understanding of how the toy fits the child's play needs. Learning what toys are suitable for a child of a certain age can make a child's play happier and safer.

Before a child reaches two years, his play objects go from hand to mouth. Large soft toys or blocks with round corners are good for this age child. Small toys and sharp edges should be avoided.

Between the ages of two and three, a child begins to explore his environment. Sandbox toys, large crayons, and bright picture books can be valuable and fun.

The three- and four-year-old might enjoy trucks and tractors, tools and blocks. Toys that promote dramatic play are enjoyed by this age child, who also likes to pretend and dress in costume. As the child grows and develops, he becomes more creative and dexterous. His skills become more specialized and he enjoys new activities and new play objects. Games or construction kits suited to his age and interests aid in developing skills. Wise parents should realize the importance of play and select toys appropriate to their child's age and interests.

Elections of community committees to administer the 1946 farm program will get underway the last of November in each of the 13 precincts in Dixon county. Thanksgiving this year will find the world appreciative that history's worst conflict has been concluded successfully. All will be grateful that democracy has again been safeguarded. The sacrifices of men and women who helped in this great cause will inspire devotion and appreciation always.

Nov. 28, 1940: Lloyd Bernal, 22 son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bernal, Pierce, suffered a fractured jaw Saturday evening when his car and one driven by a man from Broken Bow collided at the corner six miles west of Winslow on the Hocking highway. Bernal was taken to a Norfolk hospital. Both cars were badly damaged. Dan and Orville Sherry have bought the Joe Haberer service station a half mile south of Wayne. responsible actions; and the chief of police and other officers let us know students and others do not get warnings before they get tickets. If they violate a parking ordinance once, they get a warning; a second parking violation also results in a warning; a third parking violation means a court appearance. However, as the chief put it: "We expect students in college to be smart enough to read and if a sign says 'No Turn' they should know what that means and not make an illegal turn. Violations of this type get a ticket the first time. You can see the records on warning tickets; if you wish to go to the police station."

"How's the wife, Joe?" "Not so well, Syme. She's just had quinsy."

"Gosh! How many is that you have now?"

We hope as you start thinking about Christmas presents, you remember the year around service offered by your tax paying business neighbors. They don't ask that you buy from them simply because they are your neighbors and friends, or because they pay taxes. They ask that you give them a chance to supply your wants. Remember that when you buy in your town you promote business all the way around. With a growing business district you stand to benefit in years to come. Your local businessmen stand behind every sale and they promote their stores and their cities throughout the year so you won't have to drive elsewhere to shop. All we ask is: Give the local guys a chance first. They can't fill your needs if you don't at least appreciate being in the area. And you might be surprised to tell the people what you pay for the prices you're asking and how you appreciate their business. It's a two-way street.

The old prospector was telling to his visitors from the East. "There I was," he said, "in the grizzly bear down in the canyon behind a tree. The only way I could hit this high canyon wall on my right. Well, I had changed my windage, calculated the lead of the barrel and the rate of twist, the hardness of the bullet and the angle of yaw; I would have after being smacked all of shape against that canyon wall, and I judged my chances were that I would get my bear."

"There was a long silence. Then one of the listeners asked humbly: 'Did you hit him?'"

"Nape," spat out the prospector, "I missed the wall."

With the new 137 towers, the REA towers, a proposed CATV tower and an FM tower in the skyline around Wayne, one of these days pilots may have to "thread the needle" to come in at the local airport. Maybe a complex of radio towers would be feasible — or one 2400-foot tower, the tallest structure in the world. Don't hold your breath until that goes up.

Sergeant (taking roll call): "Private Jones?" "Voice: 'Quiet! Let Jones answer for himself!'"

This is supposed to be a funny city week. We'll shoot up a flare. When you live in an area like this, the difference between farm and city is not so great. In fact, every town we're acquainted with in Northeast Nebraska seems to be somewhat of a "little place out in the country" and there's nothing wrong with that. We like living in town but we think we'd like living in the country too (especially if we could More SASS — Page 3)

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I feel I must answer your unjustified reflection on the Wayne Police Department and the Court in the November 18 Wayne Herald. It is assumed, usually that a newspaper of the caliber of The Wayne Herald would have their facts straight before any editorial is published.

We wish to inform you that a system of warning tickets has been in use in this city for many years, especially in regard to illegal parking and overtime parking. A warning ticket is given a violator twice, the third time a student or anyone else is brought into Court, and if guilty pays a fine of $10.00 and costs of $5.00. If he is a repeater the fine is higher.

You say the kids are basically good, we agree, however the students you refer to are not kids anymore, and we are under the assumption that they and all the citizens of Wayne who drive cars can read and write.

There are stop signs and No U turn signs all over the city, these rules and regulations are made by the city for the protection of all the people and if the students or citizens choose to ignore them they have to pay the penalty.

You mentioned the student with three different jobs who was fined twice recently, this gentleman received three warning tickets for illegal parking, he chose to ignore them and was brought into court, he was told of his rights and accorded every courtesy. He was told that he could ill afford to spend his money on fines, the following week he was in on another traffic charge.

The county court is always open to the public, with the exception of juvenile and Adoption cases; the students from the college and public schools are encouraged to come in and familiarize themselves with city and county government, its rules and regulations.

The students are advised that the college provides parking place for their cars, that our streets are narrow and congested, is it too far to walk from the parking lot to the dorm or class?

We have a fine police force, they have been sworn to uphold the laws and ordinances of the city, they are courteous and my many years of association with them has convinced me that they do not discriminate between the students and the local people.

We do not have too many violators in Wayne, but everyone is given every consideration by the police.

People are encouraged to obey the law and authority all over the country, but in Wayne if it is possible we will have a government of law and order for everyone.

David J. Hamer,
County Judge.

(We thank Judge Hamer for his letter. Next week we will also have a resume of warnings and tickets given to college students during recent months. What we wanted was understanding for the newcomers to Wayne because 11 months ago we were a newcomer. — Editor)

Sponsoring 'Lawrence'

The Wayne State college Young Republicans club is sponsoring a special three-day showing of "Lawrence of Arabia" at the Gay theatre as the major fund-raising project of the year. The show, Nov. 30, Dec. 1-2, will be presented at 7:30 nightly except Wednesday when it will start at 6. Advance tickets may be secured at a lower price from any club member or by calling K. E. Novice Debaters at WSC Get Good Start Novice debaters at Wayne State earned praise from their coach, Bruce Wilkinson, following a tournament at the University of Dakota.

Ed Kelly of Des Moines, and Dave Jorgensen of Ames, Neb., were undefeated in four debates while Roger Hobbs of York and Robert Sosalla of Sac City, Ia., were 2-2. This gave Wayne a 6-2 mark and a tie for third in the novice division.

In discussion, a new area for the forensic team, four of five Wayne entrants received excellent ratings—Kelly, Sosalla, Mark Monnichsen of Wayne and Elaine Sonnichsen of Denison, Ia. Lyle Koenig, Norfolk, rated good. The discussion topic was "What should be the policy of the United States in Southeast Asia?"

In oral interpretation freshman Mike Chechopolski, Morton Grove, Ill., won a first place and a sixth place. Harlene Berkheimer of Ainsworth also opened interpretation and received excellent and good ratings.

Ned Van Steenwyk, Sioux City, Ia., won a superior and first place among 22 in radio speaking. Kelly and Jorgensen earned excellent in television speaking.

In oratory Pam Holm, Lake City, Ia., received excellent in two rounds. In Class A debate Miss Sonnichsen and Koenig won two negative debates but lost two affirmative debates. Others debating for Wayne were Dennis Lohse, Merville, Ia., and Lovell Zach, Plainview, 1-3, and Larry Wewel, Newport, and Jim DeBlauw, Crofton, 0-4.

The next event for Wayne will be the annual WSC Invitational Forensic Tournament December 3, 4. Miss Sonnichsen and Hobbs are student directors assisting Wilkinson in preparing for it.

St. Mary's Record of Attendance Unbeatable

No school is going to beat the parent-teacher conference record set at St. Mary's Catholic school, Wayne. A delayed report shows 100 per cent of the pupils' parents attended.

Sister M. Odila reported the conferences were held the evenings of Nov. 8, 10 and 11. In this way there was no need for disrupting classes for conferences.

Every grade had perfect attendance for conferences and in most cases both the father and the mother attended. Staff members were elated over the interest shown by parents.

According to Sister Odila, the teachers "took off" the night of Nov. 9 so no conferences were scheduled that evening. Staff members went to Emerson Sacred Heart school where a conference was held regarding federal aid available to schools.

Persistency Pays Off at Dixon Firm

Persistency paid off for someone Tuesday night of last week at Dixon. Person or persons unidentified broke into Schooley's Red and White store on the third try.

An attempt was made to enter through the front door and the side door. Failing there, the lock on the garage door was broken and entry gained into the store-room and the front part of the store.

Owner Royden Schooley said about $100 worth of cigarettes (all full cartons) along with $50 worth of the most expensive steaks, shrimp and other higher priced meats were taken. No minced ham or bologna was taken.

There was cash in the till, all pennies, and those were removed along with one flashlight. It appeared that some more expensive items were bypassed in the dark.

A bread delivery man was first to find out about the break-in. He found packages of cigarettes in the street at 6 a.m. and notified the owner, Sheriff Gus Schutt. Ponce, was called to investigate.

Wayne Would Be State ETV Channel Location

Wayne is one of 11 sites the State Educational Television commission seeks for new ETV outlets. (All would be on ultra high frequency (UHF) which would be channels 14 and above.)

Jack McBride, ETV manager, said the FCC is asked to reserve channels for future expansion. It does not mean UHF channels would be used at once and it does not block use of channels by commercial television stations.

It is hoped the educational network which is being received so enthusiastically could be expanded to cover all areas. A second network is considered necessary to round out coverage.

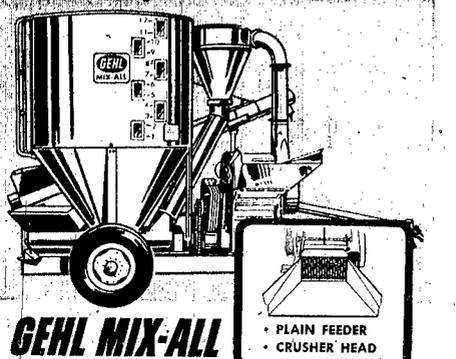

Omaha has a UHF facility and now Albin is scheduled for one. Other outlets with UHF potential would be at Hartington, Hebron, Chadron, Scottsbluff, Kearney, Peru, Lincoln, Wayne, Grand Island, Sidney, North Platte, Beatrice, Columbus and Metank.

Convention in Norfolk

Norfolk will be the site of the Nebraska Livestock Feeders association convention Nov. 26 and Dec. 1. Edward McPaul, chairman, will give an inspirational and humorous address. A banquet will be Dec. 1 at 6:30 at which McPaul will speak. The Lioneers, Norfolk men's singing group, will entertain. Reservations for the convention are to be made through N.T.F.A., 308 Livestock Exchange Bldg., Omaha 68107.

Academy Seeking Cadets

Here's a switch: One United States academy is seeking more volunteers from men wishing to be cadets. The Coast Guard academy is the only academy that appoints cadets solely on the basis of competitive exams. Applications will be accepted until Dec. 4 for the class convening July 12. The deadline coincides with the December college entrance examination board tests, basis for the competition. Anyone wanting more information should write: Director of Admissions, USCGA, New London, Conn. 06230.

GEHL MIX-ALL Grinds! Mixes! Delivers!

Work Begun on New Carroll Sidewalks

Work started Nov. 25 on a major improvement project in downtown Carroll. A complete block of sidewalks is being torn out to be replaced by new walks.

Tractors and air hammers were used to break out the concrete and carry away the blocks. Local labor is in charge with Carroll businessmen helping out to keep costs as low as possible.

On the west side of the street all of the sidewalk in the main business block is to be replaced with 16-foot wide walks. About one-fourth the sidewalk on the east side of the street will also be replaced.

Mayor "Bus" Hansen said everyone is helping in the project to make it a real community effort. It is one more endeavor aimed at community betterment in the town.

Belden Clinic Draws Around 400 Farmers

Around 400 attended the pasture clinic Nov. 8 in the Belden school gym. It was sponsored by the Belden First National bank and farm groups as a part of the bank's 75th anniversary observance.

Dr. Don Burzlaff spoke on renovation of unproductive pastures; Dr. Walter Woods told about cattle growing and nutrition; a panel discussion and a question and answer period followed.

Cash prizes went to Cyril Smith, Laurel, Mrs. Melvin Ehradt, M. L.

Lamplier and Everett Sohren, Randolph, Harold Huetter, Mrs. Arnold Zeitman and Marvin Loeb, Belden, Frank Johnson, Dixon and Irwin Jones and J. S. Otté, Carroll.

Lunch was served by the bank personnel. Dr. Dale Flowerday, former Northeast station superintendent, was master of ceremonies.

Have You Turned Address in Yet?

Either there are few servicemen from this area or people do not want their addresses published. So far only about two dozen addresses of servicemen have been sent to the Herald.

Because The Herald wants to have some order to the listings, all addresses to be included in alphabetical order must be in the newspaper's office by Monday, Nov. 29. They will be published in the Dec. 2 issue.

Publication in the Dec. 2 issue will have a double benefit. There will be well over 6,000 copies of the paper sent out that week and lots of people not subscribing will get the lists.

Servicemen everywhere want to be remembered by friends. Even this early, however, mail sent to them should be sent via air mail.

If a serviceman (or a servicewoman) has an APO or FPO address, give the country in which they serve. It will be included so people will know where they are serving. In this way the list will be more valuable to the families, to the friends and to the servicemen themselves.

Planning An AUCTION?

Here are 10 Elements that can MAKE or BREAK your Sale . . .
(The First Three No Doubt have Already Received your Attention)

1. Select A Date Early

It's a good idea to plan for your sale as far in advance as possible. Study the calendar and choose a date that won't conflict with other sales in your area. Avoid holidays. Sales held early in the week seem to draw larger crowds, other things being equal. Nobody has yet determined which month is best for farm sales.

2. Hire Your Auctioneer

Choose the auctioneer you think best. Encourage him to pass the word around regarding your sale — what you'll have to sell, etc. Obtain all the free publicity you can. If your sale will be a big one, you may need a second auctioneer, but first consult the one you hire to make that decision.

3. Visit With Your Banker

Or hire a professional clerk. Banks usually work most reasonably. Bankers consider it a service with little or no profit involved. Be sure to contact your bank well in advance so they can reserve the date for the work. It would be well to ascertain what the charge will be for your sale. An understanding is always better and eliminates any future trouble.

4. Plan Your Advertising

An auctioneer can't cry to the fence posts. He requires a crowd, a large crowd, buyers from all parts of the area. Farmers and ranchers who will drive any distance to attend a sale, are usually buyers. Make certain you reach these prospective buyers . . . with advertising in the Wayne Herald's complete coverage in the trade area.

5. Clean Up Your Machinery

But don't repaint it unless it's really rough. Be sure all the pieces are intact . . . canvas belts, etc. If you have original instruction books, tie them on the machine. Repair bills should be supplied to a buyer, too, when possible.

6. Sell Items One At A Time

Don't bunch up small items. Sell all tools of consequence one at a time. Be sure to list everything on your sale advertising. Those small items count up fast on a farm sale, so don't overlook them.

7. Get Health And Vaccination Papers In Order

If you have livestock on your sale, obtain all health papers and have them in readiness. List them in your advertising by all means.

8. Have Someone Help You Load Out

It's a good idea to enlist the aid of a neighbor or friend to help you load out livestock or machinery after the sale. Be sure all items have been settled for before you permit them to leave the premises.

9. How Much Should You Spend

Clerk and auctioneer charges are pretty well established. Your advertising should run about 2% . . . in other words, a $10,000 sale should carry $200 in advertising, a $5,000 sale, $100. If you have an unusual sale, more advertising may be in order. Never crowd up items. Use sufficient space to tell the story correctly. It's the best investment you'll ever make!

10. Come In And Visit With Us

If planning a sale, we would like to discuss your particular action. Come in and we'll talk it over. The Wayne Herald is in an enviable position to make your farm sale a pronounced success. We'll help you make money by carrying your farm sale to more selective people than other medium in the area. We'll gladly quote advertising prices and what we can do for you and your sale. Remember, we can do a better job for you, if you give us adequate time to prepare your farm sale advertising. Our very best wishes for a successful farm sale!

Iowa Firm Putting in Own Radio Net System

A new radio tower has been erected northwest of Wayne. It belongs to Iowa Beef Packers company and is one of more than 30 such towers to be erected in the region.

Wayne County Public Power district had charge of the installation of the tower here and the one at Osmond. Similar towers are scheduled for the area around Orchard, Emerson, Harrington and Battle Creek.

IBP uses radio communication for salesmen calling on beef feeders in the region. The network of transmission systems and boosters will provide instant communication with the home office and the markets at all times.

Little Wayne Bull Goes a Long Way

A little Wayne bull has gone a long way—through the air. Picture coverage was provided.

"Diamond Flight," a registered Hereford bull calf, left Wayne by private plane Thursday. It was taken to a new home in a Cessna 185, the trip taking six hours.

The calf is a son of Diamond Too, sire of several winners at the American Royal stock show in Kansas City. He was purchased from Hervele Farms by Robert Elrod and Glen Aire ranch, Memphis and Ramsey, Ind.

Accompanying Diamond Flight to his new home were Elrod, Clay Joiner, herdsman, and Jack Glenn, pilot. Seats had to be taken out of the plane to accommodate a special crate for the calf.

The human beings were a bit crowded but it was not learned how Diamond Flight stood the trip. He should have stood it well for he had to stand all the way.

In case Diamond Flight might be a mystery, the "flight" part was chosen after it was found he would be flown. Television and newspaper coverage was given his loading and departure.

Changes Made in Plan Aiding Young Orphans

Children in school under the Orphans Education Assistance act will get new educational allowances under a law recently signed by the President, according to Chris Bargholz, Wayne county veterans service officer.

The law removes a restrictive provision for eligibility which had required that the death or disability of the father result from performance of duty in peacetime cases. "Performance of duty" has been stricken.

Bargholz said the change reopens eligibility for children whose applications had been denied for that reason. They, their parents or their guardians should file new applications.

Monthly education assistance allowance rates now rise from $10 to $130 a month for fulltime study. Several thousand students in the nation should be affected.

Mrs. Elsie Miller, Mrs. Clarence Scherner and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Goetsch, Holstein, Ia., spent Saturday in the H. H. Hansen home.

'Carroll Must Really Be Going to Town Now'

"What's come over Carroll lately?" a Wayne businessman asked last week. He indicated "that town must really be going to town now" judging by the news it is making.

A swimming pool is being considered, new sidewalks are going in, streets are to be marked, new home construction is up, telephone and post office buildings are under construction and Scouting is getting a boost.

But the biggest news lately concerns the Carroll Community club. An illustration of what happened at the last meeting should indicate the new spirit of the area.

In a town of 200 there were 120 adults in attendance. Memberships were offered to anyone who wanted to sign up before leaving. Taking advantage of the opportunity, 13 signed up, including several farmers. This almost doubled the membership which had stood at 18 prior to the meeting.

Businessmen are hoping more farmers will choose to join. They figure the rural residents have almost as much to gain from having a progressive community as do the businessmen.

Girls from Eight High Schools at Play Day

Ninety girls from eight schools participated in Wayne State's play day Nov. 18, sampling a variety of sports with directions from college co-eds.

The sponsoring Physical Education Majors club called it "Sports Around the World." Various activities held originated in many countries.

FEM officers in charge were Sharon Martin, president; Jan Lundberg, vice president; Sharon Bjornsen, secretary; Rose Whorlow, treasurer, and Peggy Plath, sponsor.

Does Wayne need another new car dealer?

It sure does. What city wouldn't want another prosperous, well managed business? Maybe with you running it. Before you say, "Who, me?", check out these fiscal facts about American Motors/Rambler dealers:

In the seven years, 1958-64, American Motors dealers averaged 36.8% per year return on investment (including owner's salary). During the same period they increased the number of American Motors cars on the road from under 400,000 to over 2,500,000.

For the last four years, American Motors has sold more cars per dealer nationally than any other U.S. name-plate except Chevrolet, Ford and Pontiac!

Today, American Motors dealers are bullish, and looking forward to a profitable future. And why not? Nearly 500 of them have boosted their volume of sales 25% or more over last year! One series alone, Ambassador, is way ahead of the entire industry with a year-to-year sales increase of 143%!

American Motors dealers are selling automobiles and making money! We're looking for a high-caliber, successful businessman to become an American Motors dealer right in this area. The investment required is much less than it would be for many a "big three" dealership of comparable size with expensive truck and truck parts inventories.

If you think you can measure up to this challenging, rewarding potential, contact:

"E. V. Halla, Zone Manager, 8915 Quivira Road, P.O. Box 283, Shawnee Mission, Kansas, 913-DU-1400, about the American Motors franchise now available in Wayne, Nebraska."

Winside Couple Holds Final Football Fete

Dr. and Mrs. N. L. Dittman gave a steak supper for members of the Winside high school football team Thursday. It marks a series of dinners which they have given for squads of teams from the six-man, eight-man and eleven-man sports.

It started several years ago when their son, Bob, completed four years of play in six-man ball. The Dittmans honored the squad with a steak dinner, about 15 attending.

Then Bill played football only in the Winside high school Tuesday of this week. All pupils and faculty members were included in a plan whereby kits of various sizes of pictures are offered. Most of the pictures will be of the billfold size for exchange purposes.

Thursday four years of play on Winside eleven-man football team were marked for Dick, a senior this year. There were 34 in attendance at Bremer's, Norfolk.

No formal program was held but a big meal was served the Dittmans, Coach and Mrs. Pate Kropp, Assistant Coach Dale Cahill, Supt. and Mrs. Wayne Gersiech, Ches Greenlee, the WHS student managers and all of the football players from this year's squad who could be present.

There are no more Dittman boys to play ball at Winside and no larger teams than 11-man units. The Dittmans will probably continue backing the WHS squad but it will not be often they will find a family with sons who have played all three brands of football.

with six, eight or eleven players.

Toko Winside Pictures
Pictures were taken at Winside high school and grade school Tuesday of this week. All pupils and faculty members were included in a plan whereby kits of various sizes of pictures are offered. Most of the pictures will be of the billfold size for exchange purposes.

Prof. and Mrs. Albert G. Carlson were with relatives in Rowlick, Ia., last week at the home of her brother, Entred Pearson, 38, who was fatally stricken as he and his wife prepared to go Christmas shopping. The previous day he had been pronounced in excellent health following a hospital physical check-up.

Rural Society Meets

Rural Home Society met with Mrs. Harry Wert Thursday. Roll call was "What I'm most thankful for." Mrs. Effie Suber gave the program of contests and readings. It was voted to send the quilts the group made to Nebraska Children's home. Each member will make a lap robe during the year. Mrs. Carl Sundell will have the Christmas party Dec. 16.

WCTU Meets

Mrs. Walter Fredrickson was hostess Friday afternoon for a WCTU meeting. Mrs. Harold Olson led the devotional. Mrs. Grover Carr led devotionals and Mrs. Emil Ekberg brought the lesson on the opportunities in youth work. Reports were brought from the recent meeting in Plainview and cards were signed for ill members. Mrs. Charles Bull and Mrs. Leda Holmberg were guests. Plans were made for Christmas giving.

The Dennis Carlson family was in the Russell Beckman home for supper Saturday and visited with relatives from Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Erick G. Johnson were dinner guests Sunday in the W. F. Reed home, Randolph, together with the Wayne Reeds, Hartington.

For Charles Pierson's birthday of Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Pierson and family, Wayne, were supper guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sandahl, Mrs. Neil Sandahl and Mrs. Con Munson and their daughters were at Allen Saturday for the wedding of Judy Carlson, daughter of Virgil Carlson and Terrell Loftis.

Richard Ring spent Monday with Mrs. C. L. Bard while his parents, the Austin Rings were at Randolph attending funeral services for a brother-in-law, Herbert Hilkemanz.

As a belated observance of Dick Sandahl's birthday, dinner was held in their home Sunday. Mrs. Blanche Erickson, Sioux City, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hylpe, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ring, Fred Sandahl, Pender and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sandahl were guests.

Last Tuesday Mrs. Merle Ring had pot-luck supper with Live and Learn club in the Don Kubik home, Wayne. Mrs. Dale Flowerday, Lincoln, was a guest and presented a demonstration of value in Christmas gift making.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lund were in Allen Friday for the junior class play in which their grandson, Richard Bareman, had a part. Sammy contracts was considerable but a fraction of the total time needed for the board to get the project underway. Only those who have served on a board can know what is involved when construction is being planned.

Legion and Auxiliary 'Reply' to Criticism

The Wayne American Legion post and Legion Auxiliary chapter have an answer to those who criticize or condemn the nation's action in Vietnam. Anyone can take part, whether members or not.

Miniature, legal flags of the United States are being handed out by members of the organization. With each pin is a card telling why the flag is worn.

Called "Operation Show Your Colors," the card says: "Americans are serving the cause of freedom in Vietnam. I swear my country's flag to show that I support their efforts." A flag and the Auxiliary and Legion emblems also appear.

Winside Pupils Attend Vocal Clinic in Ponca

Participating in the annual Lewis & Clark conference music festival at Ponca Nov. 8 were 24 Winside high school pupils, members of the mixed chorus. They were accompanied by their music teacher, Mrs. Jane Liebig.

Eugene Nelson, Midland College, was guest director for the festival. Conference instructors agreed it was one of the best ever held.

The 195 pupils from nine schools attended rigorous rehearsals all day. Finale was an evening performance, numbers including: The Lord Is A Mighty God, Cry Out and Shout, While We're Young and Climb Every Mountain.

Smaller groups also performed from each of the nine schools. Represented were Allen, Cole-ridge, Emerson, Hartington, Hartington Cedar Catholic, Norfolk Burns, Ponca, Randolph and Winside.

WIIS pupils attending were Darlene Auer, Leon Backstrom, Claire Bleich, Elroy Brouten, Barbara Gallop, Warren Gallop, Sue Glass, Linda Gohring, Kay Gries, Twila Hank, Roger Hill, Connie Jones, Keith Krueger, Connie Marquardt, Keith McClary, Steve Mueller, Lee Neilson, Chuck Prince, Marel Shuffell, Jackie Stevens, Ruth Vahlkamp, Vicky Wade and Judy Walker.

When Christiansen & Son, Inc., Pender, won the contract for general construction job of the new high school, board members found its low bid enabled the district to add some alternate features and still have enough money. Not all bids were near the lowest.

One firm bid $650,000 for the general contract, $112,000 above Christiansen's bid. As it turned out the board accepted Christiansen's bid, added 11 alternate features and still was well below the bare-essential bid of $450,000 by the other firm.

Next lowest bid to Christiansen's was $340,201. Second highest was $337,785. In between these bids were several that were a few thousand dollars off one way or another.

On the plumbing and heating, C. W. Suter & Son, South Sioux City, won with a bid of $137,545. Highest bid was over $360,000 higher, $164,089.

Risor & Barney Wisner, won the electric wiring work with a bid of $72,947. Next lowest bid was $87,839. This meant the board could add a $7,000 language library to bring the total to $79,947 and still be well under the lowest base bid for wiring without the language lab.

The same story applied to chemistry and biology contracts. Hoover Bros., Lincoln, got the contract at $15,782. Next lowest bid was $16,485 and the highest bid was $20,050.

An Omaha firm had the low base bid on homemaking and art equipment. Steel equipment came to $8,976 and wood to $10,655. The next lowest bid was $9,997 for steel equipment and the highest bid was $11,600 for steel equipment. The board is making a study to determine who will get the contract.

'Bald Eagle Scouts' Sought in District

A search in the Wayne area and all other towns in a 37 county Mid-America Boy Scout council is aimed at finding members for a "bald Eagle" group sought are adults who carried Eagle Scout awards when they were boys.

Robert Carhart, Wayne, is one of the committee members seeking to form an Eagle Scout association to meet annually. First meeting will be Tuesday, Dec. 14, in Omaha.

There are 30 Eagle Scouts with rank earned since 1959 in the Wayne area. In addition, others could have earned it who carried the Eagle rank in troops in other communities.

The local Eagles and the year they attained the rank include: Marlan Carlson, 1953; Robert Dale, 1938; Robert Galtiver, 1930; Dale Hanks, 1929; Kenyon Lewis, 1933; Eric Manley, 1962; Alphonse Marti schang, 1936; Lawrence Morey, 1947.

Jack Moran, 1941; Jimmie Morlock, 1922; Fredrick Rickers, 1957; Richard Tempore, 1953; Miles Tyrrell, 1930; Robert Wriedt, 1968; Ronald Wriedt, 1962; Richard Brown, 1962; Robert Carhart, 1951; Tom Cavanaugh, 1933.

Wilmer Ellis, 1937; John Kessler, 1957; Kenny Olds, 1942; Kenneth Peterson, 1956; Larry Rickel, 1961; Irving Carlson, 1955; Kenny Demasia, 1960; Gary Lorenzen, 1962; Jim Kern, 1962; Richard Maurer, 1962; Phil Reeg, 1962; and Kenneth Tempore, 1956.

All members of the committee searching for Eagle award winners are Eagle Scout winners. Kenneth Holm, Omaha, is chairman of the search.

HOT LUNCHES are served in most town schools in Wayne county. This group includes some of the first to fifth grade pupils at Hoskins. Mrs. Robert Malmberg is the instructor supervising the room.

Over 5,600 Hot Meals Served Weekly to Pupils in Schools in Wayne County Towns

Hot lunch programs are providing over 5,600 balanced meals each week for youngsters in seven schools in Wayne county towns, a survey last week showed. Other schools, such as St. Mary's Catholic and Trinity Lutheran (Missouri synod), offer milk each day for youngsters.

Biggest lunch project is in Wayne where 700 meals are served each noon at West elementary. Eleven women handle the cooking, serving and washing chores.

Winside has an average of 250 eating hot lunches daily with four women in charge. There are 65 eating noon meals five days a week at Carroll and 100 at Hoskins, 50 each at Hoskins elementary and Trinity Lutheran (Wisconsin synod).

Friday check of main dishes at the schools showed cheese, fish and pizza; Carroll had hamburger pizza; Hoskins elementary toasted cheese sandwiches; Trinity cheese and hot dogs; and Winside, fish sticks.

Trinity had no problems as all pupils eat meat Fridays. Carroll has only one Catholic pupil and she has not gone to first communion yet so is able to eat meat Fridays. Carroll and all other schools make provisions for Catholic pupils Friday in meal planning.

Mrs. Warren Summers heads the Wayne cooks. Assisting are Mrs. Edna Nissen, Mrs. Lawrence Backstrom, Mrs. Henry Warrtelmann, Mrs. Russell Pryor, Mrs. Jim Atkins, Mrs. Clair Stoakes, Mrs. Martin Willers, Mrs. Allen Bebes, Mrs. Lonnie Heneagar and Gladys Vath.

Carroll cooks are Mrs. Clarence Morris and Mrs. Stanley Morris; Hoskins elementary, Mrs. Ed Brogie and Mrs. Jack Pingel; Hoskins Trinity, Mrs. Fred Marquardt and Mrs. Mantley Wilson; and Winside, Mrs. William Wylie, Mrs. Frank Brudigan, Mrs. Ben Fenske and Mrs. Allen Kech.

Here for Social Security Prepared to answer most questions about social security, John Cook, field representative of the Norfolk social security office, will be in the courthouse in Wayne Thursday, Dec. 2, from 1 to 3 p.m. Those wishing appointments can secure them by writing the office at Box 884, Norfolk. Among the information available is that on students 18-22 who are children of social security beneficiaries or of deceased parents who worked under social security and now eligible for monthly social security payments.
